DID YOU KNOW?

Lindenwood University has over 60 different clubs and organizations for students to get involved with.

This includes academic organizations, fraternity and sorority life, multicultural organizations, special interest groups, and community service clubs

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT: Kaiya Dunn

"I am a sophomore from Kansas City, Missouri majoring in Digital Marketing with a minor in Sport Management. I was the Marketing Co-Chair for First Year Council last year, and this year I am the Sophomore Council Marketing Co-Chair and Senator. I am also an active member of the Phi Sigma Sigma sorority, I am currently holding the position of Panhellenic Delegate, and have previously held the positions of Ritual, Parliamentarian, and Historian, I was also a member of our Recruitment Committee. I am the Event Co-Chair for Lions Late Night this fall! This summer I was selected to represent Lindenwood's chapter of Phi Sigma Sigma at Rutgers University for the Emerging Leader Program. This year I had the opportunity to be a Lion Leader and was able to assist new students during orientation. Finally, I am the Administrative Assistant in the Career Services office."

STORIES FROM THE ARCHIVES

"Did you know that over the years Lindenwood had a tradition where Mary Sibley's ghost visits the campus on Halloween? From the 1920s to the 1960s, on Halloween night, a student dressed up as Mary Sibley, would walk up from the cemetery to Sibley Hall Chapel and play "Nearer My God to Thee" on the organ. One year, a student claimed she saw Mary sitting next to her. There was attempt to bring the tradition back in the late 2000s, but Dark Carnival overshadowed it."
