

Lindenwood University

Digital Commons@Lindenwood University

Lindenwood Newspaper Clippings Collection

Highlights from the Mary Ambler Archives

1924

Lindenwood Related Newspaper Clippings, January through December 1924

Miscellaneous Newspapers

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.lindenwood.edu/lindenwood_clippings

Part of the United States History Commons

Many Succeed in the Business World

St. Louis Women Who

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1924.

Have Made Good

More Than Cogs
in Commerce

NELLIE DONNELLY

TENTH INSTALLMENT.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.

THE evidence that women are being successful in the commercial world is too patent to be remarked. Crowding toward the business section of the cities in street cars and automobiles, too, for that matter, each morning, they all but outnumber the men and on the surface of things, the women look quite as prosperous as the men. Moreover, it is a safe guess that many of these women are more than mere cogs in industrial machinery. Though perhaps not rejoicing in the title, many of them are as effective in directing and guiding the destinies of large businesses as are similar numbers of men. As evidence, there is the observation of how much more leisure time nominal executives find to spend upon the golf links, leaving their affairs to the direction of faithful secretaries, usually women.

This state has come about within the present generation. Given another 20 years for development of women in business, there may be cause for some trembling for the future of the family and the race.

On the other hand, always to the confoundment of alarmists, there is nothing in the vital statistics to indicate that the old inexorable laws of nature are not working the same as ever. Which probably explains, too, this other angle of the situation—why women are content to remain in subordinate positions in business, reluctant to shoulder any responsibility that will be difficult to shed when the right man comes along.

Indeed, among all the hosts of women in industry and commerce, relatively few are at the head of large, stable, long-established commercial enterprises. So few that careers such as these, I tell of to-day stand out conspicuously.

A rare and picturesque story of a woman's success in business I should like to relate in this series, although its author does not really belong to St. Louis, is that of Nellie Donnelly, manufacturer of house dresses in Kansas City. She was educated here, or at Lindenwood College at St. Charles, and the nucleus of what has grown to be a million-and-a-quarter dollars a year business was germinated there.

Ten years ago in the domestic science classes at Lindenwood Nellie Donnelly revealed a knack for designing and constructing pretty and becoming aprons, or apron frocks as they have come to be called, and they were greatly sought after by the other students as Christmas presents, bridge prizes and the like. After she went back to her home in Kansas City the fame of the pretty garments spread through the neighborhood and beyond and strangers began asking her to make them for pay. Encouraged, she decided to take some samples to a department store for sale. Forthwith she was given an order for a dozen of each of her eight models. The eight dozen being sold almost before she could turn round, she felt justified in commandeering the family savings and investing in a factory which has grown to the extent where it now employs 300 workers and does $1,250,000 a year business. The prettiest and cheapest and most practical apron frocks you buy in our local stores, the "Nelliedon" brand, come from her factory. She has many competitors following her example in the same field now, but by this time she has got her factory down to such a system of economy that none can compete with her in profits at the same prices and her originality and cleverness at designing only seem to increase with the exercise of her gift.

One of her guiding rules, as explained upon a visit to relatives here, is that to reap large profits at low prices you must manufacture upon a large scale and watch closely such details as a cent's fluctuation in the price of a bolt of cotton print or a dozen gross of thread.

Her market now extends all over the United States, but especially to the big jobbing and retail houses of the East. She is urged to move her factory nearer to the markets, but having investigated she finds less favorable labor conditions there would offset other advantages.

She cannot tell what her actual profits are and never will be able to until enthusiasm for expansion ceases for, except what is needed to supply a pretty home and the luxuries she finds time for, all surplus goes back into the running of the factory and the business.

*Globe-Dem.,
Jan. 4.*

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS RETURN FROM VACATION

Rev. W. H. Kendall Delivers
Address on "Value of an Ideal."

A new vehicle of transportation was named by President John L. Roemer at Lindenwood College, on greeting the students at the assembly reopening after vacation, yesterday morning. "You say you came in on the 'sleeper,'" he said, "but many of you seem to have come in on a 'talker.' I think you did more talking than sleeping."

Rev. W. H. Kendall, moderator of the St. Louis Presbytery and pastor of the Carondelet Presbyterian Church, made an address on "The Value of an Ideal." He said that "this is an age when scientists and philosophers are talking more and more about the ideal, and saying less about materialism and mud.

"Today we realize that there is a great world stretching far beyond the things of time and space. It takes the two worlds to make a well-rounded character. People grow like their ideals. Men and women, long married, come to look like one another. The treetoad on the tree turns green like tree moss; the partridge takes on brown like the leaves; the polar bear is white like the snows among which he lives.

"There is nothing so bad as the wreck of a man or woman. Coming out on the rock road I saw five autos wrecked, one after another lying at the side of the road. I have seen wrecked trains and a smashed ocean steamer. But an auto or a train or a vessel smashed is nothing like the wreck of a man or woman. The wreck is made by choice. We choose what we are going to be.

"Two men who had been touring abroad told me about Paris. One described the city as a place of the greatest wickedness. The other told only of the beautiful palaces and boulevards, the music halls, the libraries and the talent which is centered in Paris. Each brought back from Paris just what he took with him."

Times, Jan. 5

SECRETARY TO DEAN LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

Miss Frankie Trainor of Tucson, Ariz., has just been appointed secretary to the dean of Lindenwood College. She has served in similar capacities at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Arizona.

*Edwardsville (Ill.)
Intelligencer, Dec. 31*

Girls Gain Honors.

In Home Economics and Art, two Edwardsville girls are gaining honors at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Verlie Schwarz, who is specializing in art work, has advanced to be secretary of the Art Class. She has done much original work.

Miss Lenora Schurman is one of the "pledges" of the Euthenics, the "good housekeeping" Club of the Home Economics department, and the initiation will take place after the holidays.

In this class the different phases of home decoration, clothing and the like, are taken up as "problems" with a careful study of fabrics and styles. Miss Schurman has executed an elaborate lamp shade, creating her own design as a Christmas "problem."

Star, Jan. 5

New Secretary to Dean Templin.

A new assistant to Dean Templin at Lindenwood College has been added since the holidays, in the appointment of Miss Frankie Trainor, formerly secretary to the dean of women of the University of Wisconsin. Miss Trainor has for the last two years been at the University of Arizona as assistant dean of women. She succeeds Miss Bessie Harvey, who will rest for a while on account of her health.

Times, Jan. 7-

PROF. R. F. DAILEY FUNERAL IS HELD

Funeral services for Prof. Roy S. Dailey, head of the department of education and psychology at Lindenwood College, were held at 8:45 a. m. today, after which the body was taken to Hale, Mo., for interment. An escort of college officials accompanied the funeral party.

Prof. Dailey was 33 years old. He died as a result of a surgical operation. He is survived by his widow and a young son.

He had been an instructor at Lindenwood College for four years. His body was accompanied to Hale by Dean L. Templin of Lindenwood and Guy C. Motley, the college secretary.

Post-Dispatch
Jan. 6-

PROF. ROY S. DAILEY DIES

Was Head of a Department at Lindenwood College.

Prof. Roy S. Dailey, head of the department of education and psychology at Lindenwood College, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in St. Charles, shortly after noon yesterday, following an operation for an intestinal ailment. He had been suffering from this ailment for some time, and had recovered from a similar operation in October.

Dailey, who was 33 years old, came to Lindenwood in 1920, after having been superintendent of the high school at Richmond, Mo. He was graduated from the University of Missouri in 1917 and a year later was given a master's degree and an additional bachelor's degree. Dailey's home is at Hale, Mo. He is survived by his wife, a son and a brother, Arthur L. Dailey, of St. Joseph, Mo.

Star, Jan. 7

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR LATE ROY S. DAILEY

A commemorative service for the late Prof. Roy S. Dailey, head of the department of education and psychology at Lindenwood College, was held at his home in St. Charles at 8:45 a. m. today, preceding the shipment of the body to Hale, Mo. His death occurred shortly after noon Saturday, following an operation for an intestinal trouble from which he had suffered for several months.

President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood made an address, in which he spoke of Prof. Dailey as well equipped in every way for the educational post which he had held at the college for the last four years.

Globe-Democrat
Jan. 5-

Joins Lindenwood Faculty.

Miss Frankie Trainor, who has been for the last two years assistant dean of women at the University of Arizona, has been added to the administrative staff of Lindenwood College, as secretary to the Dean of the College. She was formerly secretary to the dean of women of the University of Wisconsin.

192
Granite City (Ill.)
Press-Record, Jan. 3

Granite

Granite City Girls Receive Honors at Lindenwood

Honors have recently come to Miss Bessie McNary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McNary, 2119 State street, and Miss Mary Frances Lynch, 2258 C street, Granite City, both of whom are members of the freshman class at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., and are at home for their Christmas vacations. They are two of the 26 girls pledged to the Euthenics Club, an honorary society in the home economics department of the college.

Miss McNary was also one of four girls who received a "white label" for excellent work on a garment made in the sewing class. The "white label" means that the work is absolutely perfect. She is also taking an active part in athletics. She has been a member of the freshman hockey team, the season for which has just ended, and of the Kansas hockey team, which was to have played on Thanksgiving Day, had the weather permitted. She was graduated from the Granite City High School, where she was also prominent in athletics, as she was captain of the Junior-Senior hockey team.

Miss Lynch is a graduate of the Granite City Community High School and was a member of the Class of '23. She was a member of the High School Glee Club.

Globe-Dem.,
Jan. 8

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR LINDENWOOD PROFESSOR

Members of Lindenwood College attended the funeral of the late Prof. Roy S. Dailey, yesterday morning, at 8:45 o'clock, at his home in St. Charles, preceding the removal of the remains to Hale, Mo., his early home. At this service, President John L. Roemer gave a commemorative address. He reviews the four years of valued work given by Prof. Dailey as head of the department of education and psychology, at Lindenwood. Dr. Roemer commented on the high regard in which Prof. Dailey was held by the citizens of St. Charles, and to his faithfulness in church work.

His pastor, Rev. C. T. McKee, of the St. Charles Baptist Church, read the Scriptures. Dr. R. S. Calder of Lindenwood's Bible department, offered prayer.

Prof. Dailey's wife and son, with his brother, Arthur L. Dailey of St. Louis, accompanied the remains to Hale, Mo. In the party were Dean L. Templin of the college, and Guy C. Motley, college secretary.

Prof. Dailey's death occurred Saturday afternoon, at St. Joseph's Hospital in St. Charles, following a second operation for intestinal trouble. He was 33 years of age. He was a graduate of the University of Missouri, from which also he had received a master's degree and an additional bachelor's degree.

Franklin County Observer,
Washington, Mo. Jan. 4

Miss Jesse Schaper, of Washington, is one of the two prize-winners, St. Charles, Mo., composing the words of the annual song at Lindenwood College, sharing this honor with Miss Virginia Symms, of Nevada, Mo. An older sister, Miss Florence Schaper, who graduated a few years ago at Lindenwood, is now teaching sociology at that institution. She was chaperon for her class in an experiment in applied charity, wherein the members took gifts and songs and merry-making to the old people of the county infirmary near the college. This was a Thanksgiving celebration.

Globe-Dem.
Jan. 11 -

ASKS AID FOR SUFFERING
STUDENTS IN RUSSIA

Help for suffering students and professors in Russia was asked in an address at Lindenwood College, yesterday morning, by C. Floyd Hester, representing the Students' Friendship Fund. This movement is for the assistance of college people in Europe, also, but the speaker said that there is now greater need in Russia. One need not be afraid that aid given will go to Communists, he said. The students and teachers helped will be those who have the same standards and ideals as Americans hold. Students and teachers of Communistic sympathies, he said, number only about 60,000, and as they receive local aid, they will not come in at all for what America gives. It is proposed to raise $251,000 in America.

"Among 60,000 students in Odessa, one-half were below average ability," said Hester. "The diseases from which they suffer most are tuberculosis, exhaustion and anaemia. Almost every professor's family contains at least one person affected with tuberculosis."

In these collections, which are to be distributed to five large cities of Russia, $5 is counted as equal to 100 meals. Hester told of 31,000 students receiving but one meal a day. A meal containing 1500 calories was given, but a band of these students asked that the ration be reduced to 1200 calories, so that a larger number of students could be provided for. Clothing is so scarce that students take turns in wearing each other's garments, so that each can have perhaps two days a week in school.

Globe-Democrat
Jan. 9 -

Lindenwood President in New York.

President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College has gone to New York City to attend the annual meeting of the Presbyterian College Union today and tomorrow, at the New York Board of Home Missions Building.

Post-Dispatch
Jan. 11

Contract et for Dormitory.

A contract for a new $150,000 dormitory at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, was let yesterday to Wuelner & Sons of Alton, Ill. The new building, work on which will begin as soon as the weather permits, will have 80 rooms, and will accommodate about 150 young women students. It will be built on the college campus east of Nichols Hall, adjacent to Cole street. It is expected to be ready for occupancy next September.

Jan. 11

R WOMEN

Activities of St. Louis Women

Notes on Affairs at Civic, Club and Political Meetings.

Lindenwood College News.

President John L. Roemer, of Lindenwood College, is attending the annual meeting of the Presbyterian College Union, in New York City. While Lindenwood is non-sectarian in matters of religion, it is a Presbyterian institution, and those endowing it have been largely Presbyterian.

Among many causes which have been heard this winter at Lindenwood College will be that of student relief in Europe, which was represented at the college assembly in Roemer Hall, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, by C. Floyd Hester, of the World's Student Christian Federation. He spoke for the "Students' Friendship Fund."

*Chillicothe (Mo.)
Constitution, Jan. 9*

Body of Professor R. S. Dailey Laid to Rest Monday at Hale

His Death Occured Saturday Afternoon at St. Joseph Hospital, St. Charles, Following an Operation

The remains of the late Prof. Roy S. Dailey, of Lindenwood College, were brought to his former home and that of his parents, Hale, Monday evening for interment. His death occurred, at the age of 33, Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Charles, Mo., following an operation for an intestinal ailment. He had been ill since early autumn, and underwent a previous operation in October, from which he had recovered.

Prof. Dailey came to Lindenwood College as head of the department of education and psychology, four years ago, having been superintendent of the high school at Richmond, Mo. He was regarded as particularly well equipped for his calling, and his work ranked high.

An address of commemoration and appreciation, both as felt in Lindenwood College and in the city of St. Charles, was made by President John L. Roemer, of Lindenwood, at a service Monday morning, prior to the departure of the funeral escort for Hale. Rev. C. T. McKee, a Baptist minister and Dr. R. S. Calder of the college also officiated.

Prof. Dailey is survived by his wife a young son, and a brother, Arthur L. Dailey, of St. Joseph. Representatives of Lindenwood College, Dean L. Templin and the college secretary, Guy C. Motley were among those accompanying the remains to their last resting place.

Prof. A. L. Odenweller of Moline, Ill., who has a master's degree from Columbia University, and who was former superintendent of schools at Belleville, Ill., is supplying at Lindenwood, in Prof. Dailey's place.

What St. Louis Women Are Doing

Earnest Endeavor to Hold Next Meeting Jan. 21--President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College in the East.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE C. NOTES.

C. Floyd Hester spoke on the "Students' Friendship Fund" yesterday morning before the assembly of Lindenwood College in Roemer Hall. The World's Students' Christian Federation, which he represents as a director, has for its purpose the relief of European students who need help.

The annual session of the Presbyterian College Union, in New York City, has among its delegates President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, which is a member of this union.

*Times,
Jan. 11*

*Times,
Jan. 12.*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB PLANS BRIDGE PARTY.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William K. Roth, 5798 Pershing avenue. A musical program will be given by Miss Dorothy Clucas, vocalist, and Miss Helen Kleinschmidt, pianist.

On Feb. 18 a bridge and 500 will be given at the new Forest Park Hotel, West Pine boulevard and Euclid avenue, for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Mrs. Lulu D. Hynson, 5600 Cates avenue, has charge of arrangements.

*Post-Dispatch
Jan. 13-*

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William K. Roth, 5798 Pershing avenue. A musical program will be given by Miss Dorothy Clucas, vocalist, and Miss Helen Kleinschmidt, pianist. On Feb. 18 a bridge and five hundred party will be given at the Forest Park Hotel for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Mrs. Lulu D. Hynson has charge of the arrangements.

*Globe-Democrat
Soey., Jan. 13-*

Mrs. George F. Ayres will soon visit friends at Lindenwood College, where her husband, the late Dr. George F. Ayres, was president up to the time of his death, preceding Dr. John L. Roemer. Mrs. Ayres is now a resident of Washington, D. C. She has been visiting her husbands' relatives in Hannibal, Mo., and is now at the home of Prof. and Mrs. James A. Quarles of the University of Missouri, at Columbia. Prof. Quarles served, during Dr. Ayres' presidency, as music director at Lindenwood. Mrs. Ayres will visit a number of friends in St. Louis.

*Tucson (Ariz.) Citizen
Jan. 7*

Society
-Items-

Miss Frankie Trainor, until recently Assistant Dean of Women at the University of Arizona, has been appointed Secretary to the Dean of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Prior to coming to Arizona, two years ago, Miss Trainor was Secretary to the Dean of Women at the University of Wisconsin. Lindenwood College is exclusively for girls, and has an enrollment of 450. It is the oldest girls' college west of the Mississippi, having been founded in 1827 by Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, whose husband, Maj. George C. Sibley, was U. S. commissioner to the Indians of the Southwest.

*Herald & Presbyterian
Jan. 9.*

Rev. W. H. Kendall, pastor of Carondelet Church, and moderator of the St. Louis Presbytery, gave an address, Thursday morning, at Lindenwood College, at the reopening after the holidays, on "The Value of an Ideal." He talked of "the world beyond the material world," and said that the things greatest in life are not the things we can see or hear.

*Times,
Jan. 12*

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NEWS.

Mrs. George F. Ayres, whose husband, the late Dr. Ayres, was formerly president of Lindenwood college, will shortly return for a visit. Mrs. Ayres makes her home in Washington, D. C. She is visiting her husband's relatives at Hannibal, and will also be a guest of friends in Columbia, stopping at the home of Prof. James T. Quarles, director of music at the State university, who was formerly music director of Lindenwood. She expects to renew old friendships with a few weeks at the college and in St. Louis. President Roemer was the immediate successor of Dr. Ayres, who served the college up to his death.

DEATH OF FORMER PRINCIPAL

Richmond friends and acquaintances of Prof. Roy S. Dailey, former principal of our high school, will regret to learn of his death, which occurred Saturday afternoon, January 5, at St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Charles, following an operation for intestinal trouble.

Prof. Dailey was a fine gentleman in every respect. He went to Lindenwood, after leaving Richmond. The remains were taken to Hale, Mo., his early home, for interment.

Much regret at his death is felt at Lindenwood College and among the citizens of St. Charles, where he was well and honorably known for the last four years. His classes at Lindenwood were large and successful. He was at the head of the department of education and psychology. Many excellent teachers now at work in this state and elsewhere owe a debt of gratitude to him.

All of this was expressed in a commemorative address, Monday morning at 8:45 o'clock, by President John L. Roemer, of Lindenwood, in a service at St. Charles preceding the departure of the train for Hale. President Roemer said that Prof. Dailey was singularly well equipped for his vocation, and that his work had been highly appreciated. He had served four years at Lindenwood. He and his wife had just removed to their own home, which they had built in St. Charles, and this fact seemed to accentuate the sadness of the bereavement. He also leaves a young son, and a brother, Arthur L. Dailey, of St. Joseph, Mo., formerly superintendent of the Richmond schools. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church of St. Charles.

Accompanying the funeral party were two representatives of Lindenwood College, Miss Lucinda de L. Templin, dean of the college, and Guy C. Motley, college secretary.

Prof. A. L. Odenweller, of Moline, Illinois, former superintendent of schools at Belleville, Ill., and a former student of Columbia University, where he received a master's degree, has been supplying as a substitute for Prof. Dailey, at Lindenwood, since October.

Hale (Mo.) Hustler
Jan. 11

Richmond (Mo.)
Conservator
Jan. 10

ROY DAILEY DIES AT ST. CHARLES

Former Hale Man was for Four Years an Instructor at Lindenwood College.

Word was received in Hale Saturday announcing the death of Roy S. Dailey at St. Charles from an operation for intestinal trouble. Mr. Dailey had been in poor health for some time.

Roy Samuel Dailey was born in Dallas county, Mo., July 12, 1889. When a few years of age he came to this county and in 1894 moved to the home now occupied by his mother. He received his early education in the schools of Hale. He attended William Jewell College and the University of Missouri, graduating from the latter institution in 1915.

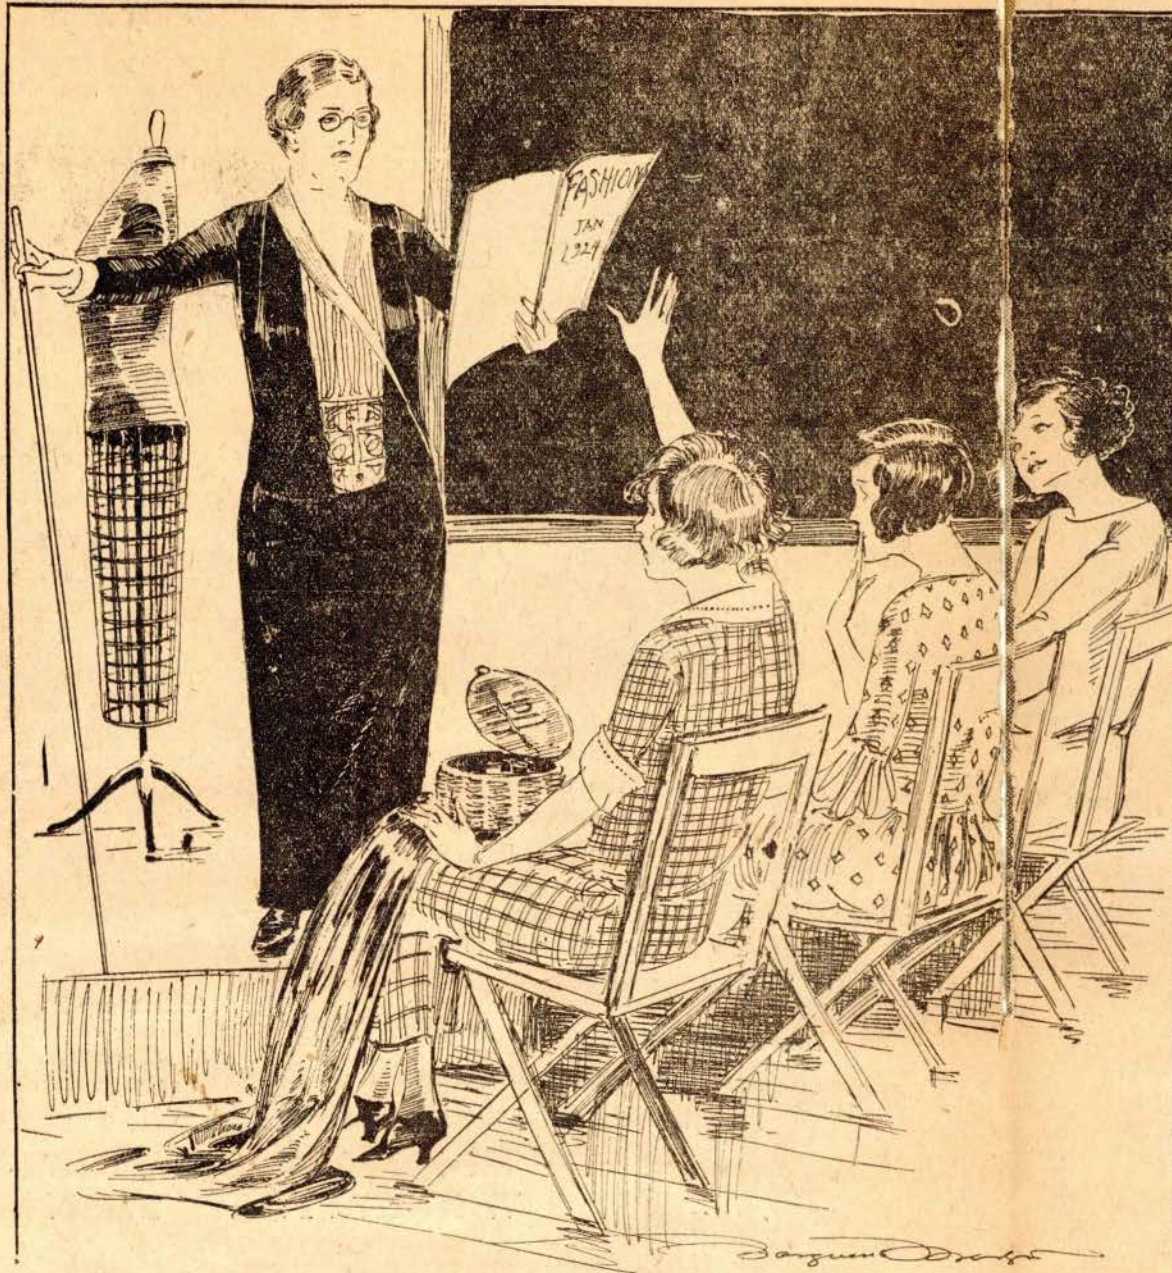

He was married August 30, 1916, to Miss Mary Cecil Dryden of Linneus, who with one son survives. He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. S. S. Dailey of Hale, one sister, Mrs. Nina Case of this city, and one brother, A. R. Dailey of St. Joseph.

He began his career as a teacher in Hale where he served as an instructor in the local schools, and later as principal of the high schools at Maplewood and Richmond. In 1920 he was appointed head of the Department of Education of Lindenwood College, at St. Charles, which position he held at the time of his death.

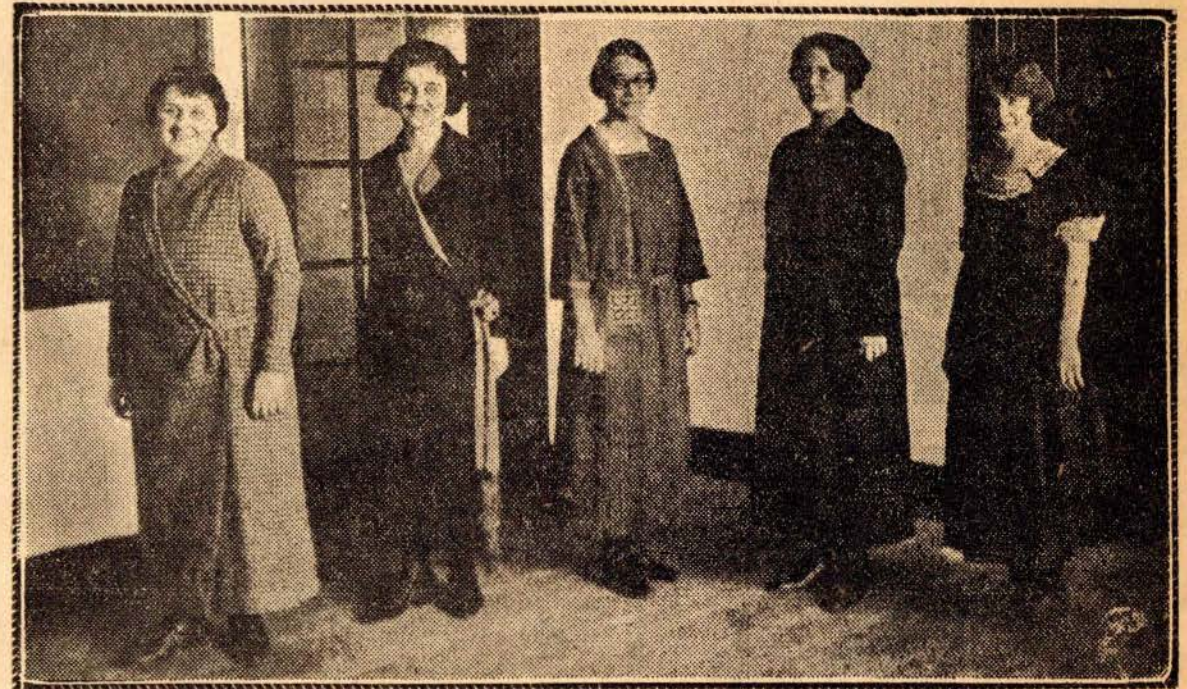

Brief funeral services were held at St. Charles Monday morning before the departure for Hale. The body was brought to Hale Monday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Dailey, Dean Lucinda Templin of Lindenwood College and Guy C. Motley, college secretary. Services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Rev. Guy L. Prather at the Hale Baptist church after which interment was made at Hale cemetery.

Mr. Dailey was popular among his associates at Lindenwood College as well as among his boyhood friends in Hale, whom the Leader joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

FIRST CLASS IN SEWING, PLEASE STAND UP!

Girls in Clothing Class of Lindenwood College Wearing Dresses Designed and Made by Themselves.

Gladys Campbell, St. Louis; Isabelle McMenemy, St. Charles; Katherine Tinsman, Denison, Tex.; Eva Seiber, Miami, Tex., and Kathryn Faucett, Neosho, Mo.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.
SINCE the day of Eve, dress is known to have been a subject of first interest and importance to woman.

Far as our educators have gone at developing all and training all the other resources inherent in woman, many and varied as are the avenues of learning into which benignant educational systems have led us—strange how our broadest institutions of learning have neglected the cultivation of this first and foremost feminine predilection.

It is probable that educators have fallen into the habit of dismissing the subject with impatience and the explanation that women give too much attention to the subject of dress and know too much about the arts of adornment as it is.

At the same time, continuing to find fault, as they do, with our style of dress and the amount of time and money we spend upon it with bad results—strange that so little of the criticism is constructive, that so little is done, except in the way of general culture, to correct our faults and guide us into ways of sartorial righteousness and enlightenment. All our teachers have known how we ought to dress, to hear them talk, but except in technical schools for vocational training, few of these instructors have offered their information in the shape of a systematically arranged course of study as they would impart knowledge upon another topic.

Instruction upon the subject has been avoided as something we ought to acquire by instinct, though a lot of other subjects we used to be expected to learn through instinct are being gone into analytically by modern schools which still haven't come to include the subject of dress in the curriculum.

Forth now comes Lindenwood College, a pioneer among schools for girls in this locally, having existed since 1830, and pioneer in other respects, too, with a definitely outlined and formulated course in the study of clothes, teaching young women what to wear, and, what is more important, how to produce what they wear, with the subject fully standardized and made accessible in both theory and practice and taking its due place in the school program.

It is a branch of the department of Domestic Economics, is known as Clothing 3 and 4, and is not intended as vocational training, but as another one of the incidents to a well-rounded course in general culture.

It is not required that every student take the training, but those who elect it are given credits toward a degree in arts and sciences. About 8 per cent of the girls are enrolled and significant of the successful working out of its purpose is the fact that most of the members of the class are to be distinguished by a certain type of ring worn on the third finger of the left hand. Indeed, it has come to be known as the "diamond solitaire class."

A prescribed number of weeks is required to complete the course. There are certain problems that must be worked out, a certain amount of laboratory work to be done and a certain number of hours to be devoted to study.

The making of a dress, is one problem, a coat another, and to finish the course the student must have produced completely a tailored suit.

The subject is approached from its fundamentals, taking first fabrics in all their aspects of components, texture, weave, durability, becomingness, style, etc. Then cutting, which includes the study of lines and their adaptability to any and all the variations of the feminine form.

There are text books to be consulted all the way along and among them the women's magazines are accorded most serious attention instead of being treated as a mere indulgence.

At the end a thesis must be written upon a subject chosen from among the lessons absorbed.

During the first semester each student who made the grade produced, in proof of her ability, a one-piece frock, and exceptional ones advanced so far as to produce, for example, a black caracul jacket, a sports coat and a duvety evening wrap. The photograph offered as documentary evidence shows a group of girls in their one-piece frocks. Surely anyone of the frocks is as practical and impressive a testimonial to industry, craftsmanship and artistic development as the hand-painted puff box, and the picture of the row of them, I fancy, is destined to make as profound an impression at home as the yard of pantries the good old-fashioned girls used invariably to take back from their arts and crafts classes to adorn the parlor walls.

Globe-Dem.
Jan. 21-

LINDENWOOD SOCIOLOGY CLASS TO HAVE EXAMS

Practical examinations, in place of the formal question and answer, will be carried out by Miss Florence Schaper, head of the sociology department of Lindenwood College this week, preceding the new term, which opens in a few days. The class in educational sociology will have an examination that includes a number of trips to the public schools of St. Charles, to observe different methods and theories of education and discipline. The preventive philanthropy class will have an examination which consists of testing and valuing laws in the different states as they affect dependents, defectives and child labor.

A class in citizenship in the next semester will study democracy as it affects the five great institutions--the home, the school, the church, the state and industry. The criminology class expects to use some current magazine as a text, as there is no very recent textbook on the subject.

Times,
Jan. 21 -

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE NOTES.

The physical education department of Lindenwood College has begun its indoor sports, with the advent of the extreme cold. There are special "corrective" classes for those who desire to correct slight muscular and bone defects. For the exacting girl are the "formal" gym hours, while interpretive dancing and folk dances hold, for the short winter season, the attention of the restless girl--the girl who desires and advocates freedom in everything. But basket ball, indoor baseball, and advanced fancy diving are the classes offered to the real lovers of sport.

Miss Marjorie Weber, head of the physical education department, and Miss Florence Bartz, her assistant, are succeeding in making all the students have the "spirit of true sportsmanship." Sometime in the near future there will be a game of water polo in the swimming pool of Butler Hall. It will prove a striking spectacle to those majorities who cannot or will not swim. If the weather remains clear, there will be staged a mid-winter hockey game, for which has been purchased a bright red hockey ball, in case of snow, and at present the field is in good trim.

This season an addition of 45 feet was made on the gymnasium, so there is ample room for the largest of classes, and for spectators when inter-class games are on. There is not a girl in Lindenwood who does not take some form of "gym."

Denison (Tex.) Herald.
Jan. 20

Miss Tinsman Photographed.

In the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Tuesday, there appears a portrait of five pupils of the domestic economics class of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. One of the students is Miss Katherine Tinsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tinsman of this city.

The girls are shown wearing dresses of their own design and make. In connection with the portrait there appears a story regarding the workings and object of the class, adding the following very interesting tid-bit of news:

"About 8 per cent of the girls are enrolled, and significant of the successful working out of its purpose is the fact that most of the members of the class are to be distinguished by a certain type of ring worn on the third finger of the left hand. Indeed it has come to be known as the 'diamond solitaire class.'"

Miss Tinsman is in her senior year at Lindenwood.

Globe-Democrat,
Jan. 23-

To Speak at Lindenwood.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Jenney, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give an address tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at Lindenwood College, in Roemer Hall.

Star,
Jan. 27-

Lindenwood College.

The girls in the art department of Lindenwood College are busy completing their last articles in tied and dyed, enamel, charcoal, china painting and batik work, before the close of the first semester. With Miss Linnemann's help, the girls succeeded in clearing $178 from their recent art bazaar. The entire sum was presented to the Mary Easton Sibley scholarship fund. Immediately after examinations the advanced girls in the department will start working on the art pages for the 1924 annual "Linden Leaves."

A scheme to make money for the scholarship fund which the department hopes to work out is to make cards in wood-cuts typifying Lindenwood and Lindenwood life, which could be put on sale at the college postoffice. A number of years ago, when similar cards were sold, $40 was cleared. The last event of the school year in this department will be the art exhibit in May, when all the art work done during the year will be on display for the public.

Times, Jan. 18-

LINDENWOOD TO ERECT NEW DORMITORY.
 The waiting list at Lindenwood College stands some chance of being gratified next fall, since the erection of a new $200,000 dormitory has now started. Ground was broken this week, on the southeast part of this campus, for this building, which is to face Niccolls Hall. With a length of 150 feet, and three stories high, besides the basement, the dormitory will house 85 more students. There are now 450 at Lindenwood, so that the harmonious unit of 500 bids fair to be realized. One of the features most talked of among the girls is the fact that there will be private baths with all the rooms, the same as at a hotel. Other improvements of the campus will bring the total expenditure up to about $250,000.

1929

Times, Jan. 17

Lindenwood Observes National Drama Week

Drama Week at Lindenwood College is to be observed by faculty and student programs. It will be at the college with a recital by the head of the Expression Department, Miss Myrl Rodney, who will give, Sunday evening, "The Fool," by Channing Pollock.

The Lindenwood Players will have a special meeting, Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, at which a faculty program will be presented. Miss Lucia Hutchins of the Expression Department, will speak on "How to Appreciate the Drama"; Miss Katharine A. Gaines of the Music Department on "Music in the Drama"; Miss Marjorie Weber, physical education director, "Dance in the Drama"; Miss Dorothy Bridgwater, librarian, on "Drama in the Library."

The final program, entirely by students, will be a presentation, Wednesday morning, in Roemer Auditorium, at 11:30 o'clock, of "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton. This will be directed by Miss Lydell Hahn and managed by Miss Josephine Gatteys. The leading parts will be taken by Misses Oda Wentworth, Marguerite Mitchener, Frances Brown, Ellison Morris, Harriet Webster and Theodore Meyer.

Activities of St. Louis Women

Notes on Affairs at Civic, Club and Political Meetings.

Lindenwood College News.

No name has yet been suggested for Lindenwood's new dormitory, in the southeast part of the campus, for which ground was broken this week. The new structure, which is to give a home to 85 more students, will be three stories and a basement, 150x50 feet, with the great attraction "a bath for every room." The new building is to be dedicated early in September.

Start, Jan. 18-

Slope-Dem. Jan. 18-

Slope-Democrat Jan. 19-

LINDENWOOD ADDS 300 NEW BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Students of Lindenwood College will soon have access to a number of new books. About 300 volumes, covering fields of sociology, biology, education, French and Spanish reading, and recent fiction and poetry have been added to the library. These have been chosen by the faculty, according to reading matter needed in the different departments.

Another addition was recently made to the library in a gift from Mrs. Arthur Gale, on the fiftieth anniversary of her graduation. She presented the students with ten volumes of the "Woman's Athlete."

RECITAL BY 7 STUDENTS AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

A students' recital at Lindenwood College, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, in Roemer Auditorium, presented five of the more advanced piano students, and two vocalists. Miss Reba Crowe played Paderewski's "Polonaise," Bethoven's "Sonata Op. 28" was given by Miss Lucille Krog. Another composition by Paderewski, "Cracovienne Fantastique," was played by Miss Lucy Louise Johnson; and "Hark, Hark, the Lark" (Schubert-Liszt) by Miss Cllo Morgan.

The vocal numbers were by Misses Patty Hudson and Esther Hund, the former singing, "Voi che Sapete," from "Don Giovanni," by Mozart, Miss Hund's selections were "Perduta hola Speranza," by Donaudy, and "I Sing to my Love," by O'Keefe. The program closed with a piano number by Miss Florence Hanna, "Concerto-G Minor" (Allegro con brio) by Mendelssohn.

Star
Jan. 19

Lindenwood College Plans a Drama Week

Drama Week will be observed three days at Lindenwood College, beginning tomorrow, when at vesper services Miss Myrl Rodney will read Channing Pollock's play, "The Fool." The Lindenwood Players plan a special meeting at 4 p. m. Tuesday when members of the faculty will speak on various phases of the drama. The Drama Art Class will present "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton, at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Globe-Democrat
Jan. 20

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE DRAMA WEEK PROGRAM

Lindenwood College is to have three programs in observance of Drama Week. This (Sunday) evening "The Fool," by Channing Pollock will be the subject of a recital by Miss Myrl Rodney, head of the expression department.

The Lindenwood Players will invite the faculty to participate in a program Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Among the addresses by teachers will be: "What to Appreciate in the Drama," Miss Lucia Hutchins; "Music in the Drama," Miss Katherine A. Gaines; "Dance in the Drama," Miss Marjorie Weber; "Drama in the Library," Miss Dorothy Bridgewater.

At 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, in Roemer Auditorium, the dramatic art class will put on "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton. Parts will be taken as follows: "Mrs. Slater," Oda Wentworth; "Mrs. Jordan," Marguerite Mitchener; "Henry Slater," Frances Brown; "Ben Jordan," Ellison Morris; "Victoria Slater," Harriett Webster; "Abel Merryweather," Theo. Meyer. Miss Lydell Hahn will direct the performance, and Miss Josephine Gatteys will be stage director.

Post-Dispatch Socy.
Jan. 20

St. Louis friends of Miss Mary Louise Wright have received announcement of her marriage, Jan. 9, to Mr. L. O. Marsh of Louisiana, Mo. The bride was assistant last year in the expression department at Lindenwood College. She is a graduate of the Morse School of Expression of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh are touring the South and will return in a few weeks to their home in Louisiana, Mo.

Globe-Democrat Socy.
Jan. 20

A dinner-dance, with red and white floral decorations, was given for the students and faculty of Lindenwood College Friday evening by the freshman class. Pretty souvenirs graced the dining table, and after an elaborate menu and the singing of freshman and other college songs there was a dance in the Butler gym. Each freshman was the escort of a person older in the college life in the opening grand march. This was the last social affair of this semester at Lindenwood as the examinations begin in a few days. Miss Marian Gum of Oklahoma City and Miss Betty Rogers were among the freshman leaders.

Post-Dispatch,
Jan. 20

DRAMA WEEK AT LINDENWOOD

Reading of "The Fool" Will Be Given Tonight at College.

Lindenwood College, in St. Charles, will begin observance of "Drama Week" tonight with a reading of Channing Pollock's "The Fool," by Miss Myrl Rodney, head of the expression department. The Lindenwood Players on Tuesday afternoon will hear papers on "What to Appreciate in the Drama," by Miss Lucia Hutchins; "Music in the Drama," Miss Katherine Gaines; "Dance in the Drama," Miss Marjorie Weber, and "The Drama in the Library," Miss Dorothy Bridgewater.

Wednesday morning, the Dramatic Art Class will present a comedy, "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton. Principal roles will be taken by Misses Oda Wentworth, Marguerite Mitchener, Frances Brown, Ellison Morris, Harriet Webster and Theo. Mayer. The direction will be in the hands of Misses Lydell Hahn and Josephine Gatteys, both students.

Star,
Jan 14

Lindenwood College Club.
The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Wm. K. Roth, 5798 Pershing avenue. A musical program will be given by Miss Dorothy Clucas, vocalist, and Miss Helea Kleinschmidt, pianist.

On February 18 a bridge and 500 will be given at the new Forest Park Hotel, West Pine boulevard and Euclid avenue, for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Mrs. Lulu D. Hynson, 5600 Cates, has charge of the arrangements.

Globe Dem.
Jan. 14.

LINDENWOOD TO HAVE NEW COOKING CLASS

Course to Include Practical Study of Elements of Culinary Proficiency.

One of the most practical and distinctly feminine classes at Lindenwood College will be that in "elementary cooking," which will begin with the opening of the new semester, at the end of this month. It is a general course, without preliminary training required, for girls who want to know something about the elements of cooking for their own homes.

There will be a study of food values, of marketing, of diet for different groups and all the incidental facts relative to a proper cuisine.

Another course taken up in the home economics department, next semester, will be an expansion of the old "home-making" course, which Lindenwood began long ago, and which bears the nickname, "diamond solitaire" course. It constitutes a survey of home-making and planning a home; what should be done on different days of the week, as well as a general study of food, clothing, the household budget and other management, child care and certain rules of hygiene, including a study of all available current literature. The motto in the Book of Proverbs, "She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness," has a place in this recitation room.

Miss Mary C. Nye, head of Lindenwood's department of home economics, has returned after attending a national convention of teachers of home economics at New Orleans, La.

Globe Dem Socy
Jan. 16

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Wright, former assistant teacher in the expression department of Lindenwood College, and Mr. L. O. Marsh of Louisiana, Mo. They are now at Memphis, Tenn., and will visit other Southern points before returning to Louisiana, Mo., where they will make their home.

Globe-Dem.
Jan. 16-

NEW LINDENWOOD DORMITORY STARTED

Ground Broken for $250,000 Addition to Institution.

Ground was broken yesterday for a new students' dormitory at Lindenwood College, which will have a housing capacity for eighty-five students. This building will be part of a series of improvements aggregating $250,000.

The new dormitory will be in the southeast part of the campus, facing Niccolls Hall. It is to be 150 by 50 feet, and will contain three stories and basement. Each room will be provided with a bath, and the building will be modern in every particular, with adequate parlors and recreation rooms. The basement will be devoted largely to music practice rooms and to maids' rooms.

This will be the fifth student dormitory at Lindenwood. It will be of Gothic architecture, in harmony with Roemer Hall, and designed by the same architects, a Beaume & Klein. It is to be completed for the opening of the school year in September.

Activities of St. Louis Women

Notes on Affairs at Civic, Club and Political Meetings.

Lindenwood College.

Fine photographic work within small compass is shown on the 1924 calendar issued by Lindenwood College, by the welding of seven pictures. Four of these are figures engaged in college sports, archery, tennis, golf and basket-ball. In the center is a picture of the hockey teams, with a campus landscape below, and a view of the giant elm, "King of the Campus," above.

Star
Jan. 15

Post-Dispatch,
Jan. 25-

COOLIDGE "DIDN'T CARE TO EXPRESS OPINION ON FORD"

Rev. Dr. Jenney Tells of Visit Last Summer With the Then Vice-President.

After the nice things that Henry Ford has said about President Coolidge lately, a Coolidge remark about Ford sounded ungracious, when the Rev. Dr. C. E. Jenny of the First Presbyterian Church quoted it yesterday to Lindenwood College students, at St. Charles.

Dr. Jenney was a caller at the Coolidge homestead in Vermont last summer, shortly before the death of President Harding. His family is connected, by a distant relationship on Mrs. Jenney's part, with the Coolidge family. He related that while sitting on the porch in an old rocking chair, he asked, 'Mr. Vice President, what do you think of Henry Ford?'

"He looked at me," the minister related, "and said, 'I do not care to express an opinion on anything that Mr. Ford says or does.' It was just as your teacher says to you, 'Sit down!'"

The minister described President Coolidge as a Puritan, adding that "we need a little Puritanism." Mrs. Coolidge was praised for her Puritan ideals of character.

Times,
Jan. 26

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE NOTES.

"Music and Musicians" was discussed at a recent meeting of Alpha Sigma Tau, an honorary literary society of Lindenwood College. Miss Martha Whaley, president of the organization, talked on appreciation of music, and sketched briefly the stories of a few of the well-known operas, including "Tannhauser," by Wagner; "Iris," by Mascagni, and Verdi's "Il Trovatore." Miss Mary Priscilla Calder discussed the periods in the history of music, playing selections from Beethoven as illustrative of the classic period, Schumann of the romantic period, and Griffith of the modern. The life and work of Carrie Jacobs Bond was discussed by Miss Mary Margaret Perdee. In the open discussion, the place of "jazz" in the music world was discussed, and it was the general opinion that the latest "jazz hits" are an improvement over those of a year ago. Criticisms of recent musical shows that have visited St. Louis formed a part of the discussion.

Globe-Dem.,
Jan. 25

DR. JENNEY TELLS OF VISITS TO COOLIDGE

President a Puritan and Mrs. Coolidge a Genuine Woman, He Says.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Jenney, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, confessed in an address yesterday at Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, that President Coolidge is "a relative of his." He amused the students by his qualification—"not a very close connection, but still tremendously interesting at this time." He told of several visits with Vice President Coolidge at his country home in Vermont, on his front porch, "a mode of entertaining he learned from his chief, Mr. Harding."

"Coolidge," he said, "is an interesting man to look at. He is not very tall, and not very big. His face is sort of a shut-in face. His eyes are a light blue, and his hair is a light red. Sitting there on the porch in an old rocking-chair, I said:

"Mr. Vice President, what do you think of Henry Ford?' He looked at me, and said, 'I do not care to express an opinion on anything that Mr. Ford says or does.' It was just as your teacher says to you, 'Sit down!' when you say 'I didn't have time last night to study my lesson.'

"President Coolidge is a Puritan, and we need a little Puritanism in this day," Dr. Jenney said that Mrs. Coolidge, "a delightful and gracious woman," had formed her character also on Puritan ideals. He told of preaching the commencement sermon for the University of Vermont, in the church at Burlington, Vt., where Mrs. Coolidge had spent her girlhood days. "She is not absorbed by society," he said, "but a genuine woman, given to the fundamentals of the Christian truths of life."

Dr. Jenney spoke of much of the world as "jazz mad." He approved the "youth movement," started at the recent student volunteer convention in Indianapolis, "to overcome the materialism of the age."

President John L. Roemer had announced that "the joyous examination time" was beginning yesterday, to which Dr. Jenney responded that "if he were a college president he would do away with examination," a statement that brought great applause. He told of a certain examination at Columbia University, in which the students' chairs had been placed "10 feet apart." He said if he had his college career to live over again, he would study "a good deal of history, a good deal more English, and a lot of economics and sociology."

Globe-Democrat
Jan. 27

Raymond Koch's Recital.

Raymond Koch, barytone concert soloist, will give a program before the students of Lindenwood College in Roemer Auditorium Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

*Globe-Dem Soay
Jan. 27-*

The following are among the hostesses for the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club mah jong, bridge and 500 party Monday afternoon, February 18, at 2 o'clock, at the Forest Park Hotel: Mesdames Lulu D. Hynson and W. K. Roth, who will have charge of the reservations; Miss Agnes Adams, president of the club; Mesdames Joseph White, Leonard Scott, Alfred Krueger, Pauline Montgomery, Edgar Blankenmeister, Victor Rhodes and Misses Janet Stine, Mabel Mix and Alice Linneman. Those wishing to play mah jong may do so, provided they bring their own sets. The party is for the benefit of the scholarship fund at Lindenwood College, which the club is interested in raising.

*The Chief
Miami, Tex. Jan. 27*

Lindenwood College, of St. Charles, Mo., is now teaching young ladies what to wear and how to make it, with the purpose in mind of making their graduates "useful as well as ornamental." A recent issue of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch carried a photo of several of the girls of this college attired in dresses designed and made by themselves. Among the girls was Miss Eva Seiber, of this place, and while it may have been only imagination on our part, still we couldn't help but think that her dress was the best one in the group.

*Times,
Jan. 28-*

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Lindenwood College students, at St. Charles, received each a slip in her mail box asking for a vote on the Bok peace award. The vote, when completed, stood in a ratio of two to one in favor of the plan. Several debates on the plan were carried on in classes and clubs of the school.

*Globe-Dem.
Jan. 26*

LINDENWOOD GIRLS
2 TO 1 FOR BOK PLAN

Lindenwood College girls have decided in favor of the Bok Peace Plan, by a vote of "2 to 1." Many of the girls voting were not old enough to have a voice in the civic elections, but they responded to a slip for a Bok vote, which was placed in each student's post office box by President John L. Roemer.

Some of the history and other classes have had debates on the subject of the peace plan, and there have been arguments on both sides.

*Globe-Democrat
Jan. 28-*

HOME ECONOMICS TALKS
BY STUDENTS PLANNED

Home economics forms the theme of "special problem" investigation in a series of theses by six advanced students of the home economic department of Lindenwood College. "Opportunities for Women in the Field of Home Economics," is treated by a St. Louis girl, Miss Gladys Campbell. Miss Eva Seiber of Miami, Tex., has taken up "Tea-room Possibilities."

Other pertinent problems are handled by Misses Isabelle McMenamy, Martha Messinger, Katharine Tinsman.

*Globe-Dem
Jan. 29*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE TO GIVE SPANISH PLAY

A Spanish play, in costume, "Zaraguela," by Carrion y Aza, will be given, February 15, at Lindenwood College, by the romance language department, of which Miss E. Louise Stone is head. The play will be directed by Miss Mary P. Barnett, professor of Spanish, who returned last fall from two years in Spain. Music will be rendered by the Lindenwood Orchestra, and there will be Spanish dances in costume, with accompanying castanets and tambourines. Students will also sing Spanish songs.

PAPERS THAT HAVE ACCEPTED STORIES AND SENT CLIPPINGS.

Grand Rapids, (Mich) Herald
 Syracuse (N. Y. Herald
 Albion (Mich.) Recorder
 Texarkana (Ark) Texarkanian
 Joplin (Mo) Globe (2)
 Kokomo (Ind) Dispatch
 Kansas City Journal -Post (2)
 Livermore Calif. Herald
 Iowa City (Ia) Press-Citizen
 Baltimore (Md.) Sun
 Boonville (Mo) Advertiser
 Butler (Mo) Republican Press (2)
 Raton (N. Mex.) Range (2)
 Oklahoma City Times
 Clayton (Mo) Watchman Advocate (2)
 Washington Courthouse (Ohio) Herald
 Cape Girardeau South Missourian
 Davenport (Iowa) Daily Times
 Davenport Democrat
 Denison (Tex.) Herald (2) (1)
 Marion (Kansas) Review
 Springfield (Ill) Register
 Orrville (Ohio) Courier -Crescent
 West Plains (Mo) Journal
 Ardmore (Okla.) Ardmoreite
 David City (Neb) Butler Co. Press
 Jefferson City (Mo) Capital News (2)
 Forrest City (Ark) Times Herald
 Charleston (Mo) Enterprise Courier
 Sparta (Ill)
 Orrick (Mo) Times
 St. Joseph (Mo) Gazette
 San Antonio (Tex) Express
 Clay Center (Kansas) Times
 Hutchinson (Kan) News
 Okmulgee (Oklahoma) Democrat
 Lake Charles (La) American Press
 Burlington (Iowa) Hawkeye
 New London (Mo) Rollo Co. Record
 Marissa (Ill) Messenger
 El. Reno (Okla) American
 Kirksville (Mo) News
 Cairo (Ill) Bulletin
 Shreveport (La) Times
 Oklahoma City News
 Des Moines (Ia) Capital
 Alton (Ill) Telegraph

Cassville (Mo) Democrat
 Wahoo (Neb) Washington
 Pontiac (Ill) Leader
 Granite City (Ill) Press Record
 Galva (Ill) News
 Springfield (Mo) Leader
 Edwardsville (Ill) Intelligencer
 Lexington (Neb) Dawson Co. Pioneer
 Neosho (Mo) Times
 Wyaconda (Mo) Clark Co. News
 Washington (Mo) Franklin Co. Observer
 Chillicothe (Mo) Constitution
 Tucson (Ariz) Citizen

From August up to January 12)
 60 papers, 17 states.

Star, Jan. 31-

Carthage (mo) Press
Feb. 1-

St. Louis Lindenwood College Club.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will give a mah jongg, bridge and five hundred party Monday February 18, at the Forest Park Hotel for the benefit of their scholarship fund.

Mrs. Lulu D. Hynson and Mrs. W. K. Roth are in charge of reservations, assisted by Miss Agnes Adams, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Arthur Krueger, Miss Mabel Nix, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. David Hardy, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Miss Alice Linne-man and Mrs. Victor Rhodes.

Those wishing to play mah jongg may do so, provided they bring their own sets.

The Lindenwood College Club has just completed raising $1,000, thereby obtaining the gift of another $1,000 for the scholarship fund.

Stars in College Play

Miss Harriet Webster of Carthage took a leading role, "Victoria Slater" in a play at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., which was presented as a part of the celebration of Drama Week. It was a comedy, "The Dear Departed," by Standley Houghton, staged and managed by students, in Roemer Hall, with an audience of about 500. Miss Webster is also specializing in music, and plays one of the violins in the Lindenwood student orchestras.

Post-Dispatch
Feb. 3

Steeleville (Ill.) Ledger
Feb. 1

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will give a Mah Jongg, bridge and five hundred party Monday, Feb. 18, at Forest Park Hotel. Mrs. Lulu Hynson and Mrs. W. K. Roth are in charge of reservations. Assisting hostesses will be Miss Agnes Adams, president of the club; Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Edward Blankenmeister, Miss Mabel Nix, Mrs. Arthur Krueger and Mrs. Victor Rhodes.

Students Direct Comedy

Two former S. T. H. S. students, Misses Lydell Hahn and Josephine Gatteys served as directors of a comedy, "The Dear Departed," staged by the dramatic art class at Lindenwood College yesterday morning.

Jan. 31 - Steeleville Ledger

Miss Hahn in Play

Miss Lydell Hahn of Steeleville, was director of a clever play, "The Dear Departed", by Stanley Houghton, which the dramatic art class of Lindenwood College, St. Charles Mo., gave in a recent celebration of Drama Week.

Miss Hahn, in her years at Lindenwood, has specialized in expression. She played a leading part in the college Thanksgiving play. Drama Week was also observed with a program of addresses by teachers, and a reading, "The Fool", by the head of the expression department, making a three days' observance in all.

Miss Hahn is a member of the Lindenwood Players.

Globe-Democrat
Feb. 3

Recital at Lindenwood.

The first students' recital of the spring semester at Lindenwood College was given Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium, with the following program:

- Piano—
- The Juggleress Moszkowski
- Krakowiak Harriet Johnston.
- Hungarian Dance Margaret Morris. Pederewski
- Sonata Op. 90 (first movement) Brahms
- Sue Wright.
- Beethoven
- Elsa Brechnitz.
- Songs—
- Some Unto Him (Messiah) Handel
- The Blind Ploughman Clarke
- Frances Camp.
- Do Not Go, My Love Hageman
- A Cry at Dawn Cadman
- Ruth Alexander.
- Piano—
- Valse de Concert Wieniawski
- Josephine Jackson.
- Sonata Pathetique Beethoven
- Gertrude Wallrich.

Bartlesville (Okla.) Herald
Feb. 6

BARTLESVILLE GIRL
IN RECITAL.

Miss Patty Hudson, of Bartlesville, gave several songs from Mozart, in a recent students' recital closing the semester at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Her numbers were from "Vio che Sapete (Don Giovanni.) Miss Hudson is specializing in voice in her music course at Lindenwood.

Times,
Feb. 7-

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NEWS.

The Thursday Assembly of the students of Lindenwood College was addressed by Richard Spamer, dramatic and music critic of the Globe-Democrat, who spoke on "Dramatic and Musical Standards of Criticism."

Post-Dispatch Sooy
Feb. 10-

Conspicuous among the social events of the week will be the College Club benefit performance tomorrow night at the Schubert-Jefferson theater. Theater parties have been arranged, a few of them for debutantes, and the boxes will be filled with alumni of the various colleges. The Washington University box was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, who will have a party. Dr. and Mrs. Archer O'Reilly will be hosts in the Harvard University box, with Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. B. Thompson as guests. Dr. and Mrs. George Gellhorn in the Bryn Mawr College box, will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Evarts Graham. Mrs. Horton Watkins purchased the Vassar College box, and Mrs. Edmund Brown that of Cornell University. Amherst College alumni, headed by Allen Wyman, will occupy the Amherst College box. Dr. and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, will entertain a group of friends in a box draped with that school's colors, and groups will represent St. Louis University and the University of Missouri. Later they will attend a supper dance at the Jefferson Hotel. Among the debutante parties will be one given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Sheppard Smith in honor of their debutante niece, Miss Isabelle Chenie Smith. The additional guests will be Misses Clara Garneau, Marguerite Moll, Jane Parsons, Mary Francis Dickson, and Messrs. Clarence Maloy, Dick McLane, William Gardner, William R. Compton Jr., and Richard Orthwein.

1924
Globe-Democrat
Woodrow Wilson
Feb. 4

Supreme Idealist.

President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, a lifelong acquaintance of the Wilson family: "President Wilson, although dead, is the greatest outstanding character of the world today. His ideals will hold the ages to serious thought of man's relations to man, and the nation's obligations to God. Washington, Lincoln, Wilson, are three names luminous in the history of the United States. Wilson will be more appreciated as time rolls away the political prejudices of the present day."

Globe-Dem.,
Feb. 6 -

LINDENWOOD 'WINTER
GIRLS' FROLIC ON CAMPUS

The "winter girl" was in her element yesterday afternoon at Lindenwood College. As soon as the last bell rang, telling that classes were over, out upon the campus rushed many figures. There were sleds a-plenty, a steep, snowy hill ready for spills, and an extent of snowy campus, where freshmen played "fox and geese." A "hare and hound chase" was laid out, all over St. Charles, in the by-paths where the snow lies the thickest. Hay rides where food is in predominance are planned for Saturday, if the snow holds. A skating rink has been devised by flooding the summer-time tennis court, and it is expected that this will soon freeze. The golf course hill is used for sliding.

Unionville (Mo.) Republican
Feb. 7

—Miss Oda Wentworth of Unionville took the role of "Mrs. Slater" in a clever play, "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton, which was presented by the Dramatic Art Class as a part of the recent celebration of Drama Week at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Wentworth is also showing talent along musical lines, and has been selected as a member of the Lindenwood College Student Orchestra.

1924

Globe-Dem,
Feb. 9.

Woman Holds Student Conferences.
Student conferences for the last few days have been held at Lindenwood College by Miss Florence G. Tyler of New York City, who represents the mission boards of the Presbyterian Church as student secretary. She has given addresses in chapel, and in group meetings has been presenting Presbyterian Church opportunities for vocational work, seeking to line up such students as might wish to devote themselves to Christian service.

Globe-Dem.
Feb. 8.

STUDENTS ADDRESSED BY DRAMATIC CRITIC

"Musical and Dramatic Criticism," was the subject of an address by Richard Spamer, dramatic and music critic of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, yesterday morning, before the students of Lindenwood College, in Roemer Hall. He said that a good rule for a critic to follow is to "go into the playhouse with an open mind, and follow the ordinary, everyday, common-sense lines of truthful statement."
He exemplified the forceful definition of a play as "a report of an action." Thus, he said, in "Hamlet," which ranks as "the masterpiece of English plays," the "report of an action" could be summed up thus: "It tells the story of a young Prince who goes to a town called Wittenberg to a university. While there, he learns that his father has been murdered by an uncle, and that that uncle has taken his mother to wife. There is nothing more than that; but many characters come up, many different states of feeling are involved, and much philosophy of life is given."
The speaker took into account "the playhouse's great trinity, the play, the actor, and the audience." It is the critic's business, he said, to find out what the play is, how it reacts on the audience, and how the public may react to a criticism. Similar rules hold for music. He said that those attending a play or musical entertainment should remember that they take away from a work of art "only as much as they put into it." If there is not an understanding of what music or the drama means to the intellect and to the emotions, then very little is gained from it. It must be remembered that "art is not personal, but universal."

Globe-Dem
Feb 10

"ZARAGUETA," BY SPANISH CIRCLE AT LINDENWOOD.

Girls of "El Circulo Espanol" at Lindenwood College will present "Zaragueta," by Carrion and Aza, Friday evening, at Roemer Auditorium. Costumes, music and dances between the acts will carry out the Spanish idea. The play consists of two acts and many scenes, telling the story of an improvident student son of a fine family, who feigns a desperate illness and the need of a trip to a famous surgeon in Paris, hoping by the funds thus secured to pay his indebtedness to "Zaragueta," the Madrid money lender. Incidentally, he and his charming cousin fall in love, and "Pio," the young man, "eager to be a priest," is left free to fulfill that destiny. The leading characters will be represented by Misses Ellen Ruth, Kathryn Butler, Margaret Blaebaum, Dorothy Gee, Sue Salmon, Janice Johnson, Marguerite McNea, Mildred Morehead, Mary Sayre, Mildred Morehead and Eleanor Brown. Miss Mary P. Barnett, teacher of Spanish, who spent the last two years in Spain, will direct the play, assisted by Miss Carolyn Croll. Miss Allene Guthrie is chairman of the Arrangements Committee and other members are Misses Harriet Gum, Margaret Blaebaum, Birdie Feist and Etta Feist.
The Lindenwood Orchestra, under Miss Agnes Gray, will play numbers by Zanemich, "Heart's Longing" and "Class Day." Miss Martha Whaley will sing "La Paloma," by S. Tradior. There will be a Spanish dance by Misses Birdie and Etta Feist, who are twin sisters.

Globe-Dem Feb 10

The St. Louis College Club will present Chauve-Souris at the Schubert-Jefferson on Monday night for its annual scholarship benefit. Afterwards there will be supper served at the Jefferson Hotel. The following are among the boxes that have been taken:
Harvard box—Dr. and Mrs. Archer O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. B. Thompson.
Bryn Mawr—Dr. and Mrs. George Gelhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Everts Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis.
Vassar—Mrs. Horton Watkins and party.
Cornell—Mrs. Edwin Brown and party.
Lindenwood College—Dr. and Mrs. Roemer.
Wellesley, Mrs. A. Friedman, Ira Bretzselder.
Amherst, Mr. Allan Wyman and party.
Washington—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Goldman and Morton May.
Missouri and St. Louis University alumni have also taken boxes.

Medford (Okla.) Patriot-Star
Feb. 7.

Miss Frances Brown, of Medford, who is a sophomore at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., was one of the best actors in a recent play of Drama Week at that institution. She took a masculine role, "Henry Slater" in the comedy, "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton. This was staged and managed by students and proved such a success that Drama Week is likely to become an annual celebration at the college.

Times Feb 11

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Florence G. Tyler, of New York City, student secretary for the Presbyterian Mission Boards, spent the last of the week in student conferences at Lindenwood College, and will later be in St. Louis for meetings with groups of students. She also spoke at chapel at Lindenwood Thursday. She has been telling of the opportunity for vocational work in the church, and invited the students to ally themselves with the church's work in some one of its many types.

Globe Dem Socy

Feb. 13

Next Monday afternoon, the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will give a bridge, mah jongg, and five hundred party at the new Forest Park Hotel.

The party is for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Mrs. Lulu Hynson and Mrs. Will K. Roth are in charge of arrangements.

Those interested in the success of the party include Mrs. Arthur Gale, Miss Agnes Adams, Mrs. Arthur Krueger, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Victor Rhodes, Mrs.

Clarence L. Becker, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Miss Mabel Nix, Miss Alice Linnemann, and Mrs. David M. Hardy.

Star, Feb. 11-

Miss Tyler Speaks at Lindenwood College.

Vocational opportunities for young women in the church have been presented in the last few days at Lindenwood College, by Miss Florence G. Tyler, of New York City, student secretary for the Presbyterian Mission Boards. Miss Tyler showed what a wide range of service now exists within the church. She is also to be at Washington University.

Post Dispatch Socy
Feb. 13

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will give a bridge, Mah Jongg, and five hundred party next Monday at the new Forest Park Hotel. The party is for the benefit of the scholarship fund. Those interested in its success include: Mrs. Lulu Hynson, Mrs. Will K. Roth, Miss Agnes Adams, Mrs. Arthur Gale, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Arthur Krueger, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Miss Mabel Nix, Mrs. Clarence L. Becker, Mrs. Victor E. Rhodes and Mrs. David M. Hardy.

Globe-Democrat
Feb. 13

MISS MARY YOUNT CHOSEN LINDENWOOD MAY QUEEN

Miss Mary Catherine Yount, daughter of Dr. W. E. Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was yesterday elected at Lindenwood College to be May Queen for this year. Miss Yount is vice president of the senior class. She will graduate May 27, with the degree A. B. She is secretary and treasurer of the Student Council. She has also "made" the Alpha Sigma Tau, an honorary literary society. During her junior year she was secretary of the junior class and was treasurer of the Y. W. C. A.

This year a new method of election was followed, the seniors alone voting for the queen. To the juniors was given the maid of honor. They elected Miss Sarah Shomberg of Allowed maids each, and the follow-allowed maids each, and the following were chosen: For the sophomores, Miss Mary Sayre of New London, Mo., and Miss Mary Hagler of Washington Court House, Ohio, who is president of the sophomore class; for the freshmen, Miss Mary Yaeger of Helena, Ark., and Miss Marguerite McNee of Cottonwood Falls, Kan.

Franklin Co. Observer
Washington, Mo. Feb-13

Miss Lucille Krog, of this city, took part in a students' recital at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., concluding the first semester in late January. Her number was "Sonata Op. 26" by Beethoven, (Adante con Variasioni), a sympathetic and melodious rendition of seven elaborations. The recital was given in Roemer Auditorium, before the student body of 450 girls, and the faculty.

Globe-Democrat
Feb. 14-

Appeared in Recital.

Miss Ethel Wiese of 4536 Holly avenue was one of the Lindenwood College music students appearing in a students' recital at Roemer Hall, on the afternoon of Lincoln's birthday, at 5 o'clock. Her number was "Romance," by Sibelius.

Times Feb 14

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Since the first large class (numbering about 30) is graduating in May which has taken the full four-year course at Lindenwood College, it was decided this year by President Roemer that the office of May Queen should be a senior dispensation. To the juniors would go the maid of honor, and the lower classes should have each two maids in the court. This was carried out Tuesday, Feb. 12, resulting in the choice as queen of Miss Katherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, daughter of Dr. W. E. Yount of that city. She has gained numerous honors during her four years, including a place in the honorary literary society, Alpha Sigma Tau, and the office of secretary-treasurer in the student council. She is now vice president of her class. She will receive the degree A. B. at commencement. A May Queen party is to be given March 14, at which the queen will lead the grand march, followed by her maids. These will be: Maid of honor, Miss Sarah Shomberg of Altoona, Pa.; sophomores, Misses Mary Sayre of New London, Mo., and Mary Hagler of Washington Court House, Ohio; freshmen, Misses Mary Yaeger of Helena, Ark., and Marguerite McNee of Cottonwood Falls, Kan. The coronation of the queen will be on the campus, Saturday afternoon, May, 24.

Spanish only will be spoken Friday evening on the stage of Roemer auditorium, Lindenwood College. El Circulo Espanol is to present the Spanish play, "Zaragueta," by Carrión and Aza, in which Miss Mary P. Barnett will be director, assisted by Miss Carolyn Croll; Miss Allene Guthrie will be chairman of the Arrangements Committee; Miss Harriet Gum of Publicity; Miss Margaret Blaebaum, stage and properties; Miss Birdie Feist, costumes, and Miss Etta Feist, business. The last two are twin sisters and will present a Spanish dance. Miss Martha Whaley is to sing and the Lindenwood Orchestra will play two numbers. The plot is truly Spanish, involving an astute Spanish money-lender and his student victim, who falls in love with his cousin, the niece of a wealthy farmer of Salamanca. The leading roles will be taken by Misses Ellen Ruth, Kathryn Butler, Margaret Blaebaum, Dorothy Gee, Sue Salmon, Janice Johnson, Marguerite McNee, Mildred Morehead, Mary Sayre and Eleanor Brown.

Globe Dem

Lindenwood Girls Beat
Markham Club, 17-16

In a basket-ball game Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium of Lindenwood College, the seniors of the college won by a score of 17 to 16, from the basket-ball players of the Girls' Club of Markham Memorial Presbyterian Church of this city. The members of the club were entertained at dinner and an evening party following the game.

Feb. 18

*McAlester, Okla.,
News-Capital, Feb. 13*

McALESTER STUDENT JOINS
"LE CERCLE FRANCAISE"

Miss Gladys Gladstein of McAlester, who recently entered Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., has already been asked to join "Le Cercle Francaise," one of the largest organizations in the college. Miss Gladstein is entered as a freshman in the Expression department and expects to specialize in that work.

Miss Gladstein is a graduate of McAlester high school, being a member of the class of '23. While there she did a great deal of work in the Expression department, and was a member of the Glee club, the Debate club, and the Science club.

*Globe Democrat
Feb. 14.*

To Speak at Lindenwood.

Rev. N. O. Bartholomew, pastor of the Maplewood Congregational Church, will give an address this morning at 11 o'clock at Lindenwood College. His topic will be "Gathering Flowers in the Garden of the Heart," this theme being selected because it is Valentine's Day.

Times Socy., Feb. 14

The faculty and students of Lindenwood College were guests of the Y. W. C. A. at a party Friday evening in Butler Gymnasium. Dull red lights and small tables with shaded lights, scattered about, gave the gymnasium a festive appearance. Soon after the guests had arrived, a short program was presented under the direction of Miss Dorothy Gee of Denison, Tex., chairman of the "Y" Social Committee. Refreshments, carrying out the idea of valentines, were then served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

*Globe-Democrat
Feb. 18*

BOSTON WOMAN ADDRESSES
LINDENWOOD STUDENTS

Miss Florence B. Jackson, director of the placement bureau of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union of Boston, Mass., addressed the students of Lindenwood College last evening on "Vocations." Miss Jackson will hold student group and individual conferences at Lindenwood for the next few days, leaving the last of the week for the convention of the American Educational Association in Chicago.

Globe-Dem.
Feb. 17-

Miss Helene Millsap of Grove, Okla., president of the Senior Class at
Lindenwood College,
who is directing the social activities of the class this year.

Sid Whiting Photo.

Schuyler County Republican
Lancaster, Mo., Feb. 14.

Miss Ellison Morris, of Lancaster, played a clever masculine role, "Ben Jordan", in the comedy, "The Dear Departed," by Stanley Houghton, which the students of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., gave recently as their contribution to the celebration of Drama Week. Miss Morris is a sophomore at Lindenwood, and has been taking journalism among other studies. Drama Week included an afternoon program by the faculty, and a recital by the head of the expression department, Miss Myrrl Rodney, of Kansas City. The students' play was given in Roemer Auditorium, before an audience of 500.

Globe-Dem.,
Feb. 15-

DISHONESTY IN SCHOOLS INCREASING, SAYS MINISTER

That dishonesty among the school children is on the increase was the statement made by Rev. N. O. Bartholomew, pastor of the Maplewood Congregational Church, in an address before the students of Lindenwood College yesterday.

Dr. Bartholomew titled his address "Flowers From the Garden of the Heart," and mentioned in his speech the "forget-me-not of memory," "the morning glory of hope" and the "illy of integrity and honesty."

It was in connection with this last that he made the statement on honesty. Dr. Bartholomew included pupils in both the grade and high schools in his charge and gave examples to illustrate his point. Pieces of money would disappear from school desks and sweaters and books were not safely left, according to accounts he had heard in St. Louis, he said.

Denison (Tex.) Herald,
Feb. 15

Entertains at Lindenwood.

Through courtesy of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, The Herald has been furnished the following interesting item concerning Miss Dorothy Gee, popular Denison Girl, who is a student at the Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo.:

"Miss Dorothy Gee of Denison was chairman of the social committee at a Valentine entertainment given by the Y. W. C. A. at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., a few evenings before that anniversary. The faculty and students were guests. Dull red lights, which threw a soft, rose hue over the stage at one end of Butler gymnasium, and small tables with shaded lights, scattered about, gave a festive appearance. Miss Gee directed a short program, after which refreshments were served, carrying out the Valentine idea, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing."

Evansville Courier,
Evansville, Ind., Feb. 15

Virginia Bomm Enters Lindenwood

Miss Virginia Bomm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. X. Bomm, of this city, has entered Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., as a freshman. The first semester of this school year Miss Bomm attended St. Mary of the Woods college, Terre Haute, Ind.

Miss Bomm is taking the arts and science course and is particularly interested in music.

Bewabik (Minn.) Times
Feb. 16

A news report bears the information that Miss Margaret Hildebrand together with two classmates from Minneapolis is taking the role of ski instructor at Lindenwood college, St. Louis, because of former experience in a section where snow is no novelty. Most of the girls at the school have seen but little snow and are taking to skiing as a new and interesting diversion.

Star
Feb. 15 -

St. Louis Lindenwood College Club.
On February 18, the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will give a bridge, mah jongg, and five hundred party at the new Forest Park Hotel. The party is for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Mrs. Lulu Hynson and Mrs. W. K. Roth are in charge of arrangements, while those interested in the success of the party include Mrs. Arthur Gale, Miss Agnes Adams, Mrs. Arthur Krueger, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Miss Mabel Nix, Mrs. David M. Hardy, Miss Alice Linnemann, Mrs. Victor E. Rhodes and Mrs. Clarence L. Becker.

Chelsea (Okla)
Reporter, Feb. 15-

Miss Harriet Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnston, who is attending Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo., played Moszkowski's "Juggleress," in a recent recital given in the college auditorium. Miss Johnston is a graduate of the Chelsea high school, having received a certificate in piano under Mrs. J. T. Brown. She took an active part in all musical events in the high school. Miss Johnston is specializing in piano at Lindenwood.

Cape County Post,
Jackson, Mo. Feb. 16

Jackson Girl
In Recital.

Miss Virginia Litzelfelner of Jackson made her first appearance in a recital this season in a Lincoln's Day program at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Her number, which opened the recital, was "Melodie," by Torjussen, a piano selection. Miss Litzelfelner is a sophomore at Lindenwood.

Feb. 19

Daily Globe-Democrat, C

Cape Girardeau Girl May Queen
at Lindenwood

MISS CATHERINE YOUNT
SID WHITING PHOTO

Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo., has been elected May Queen of Lindenwood College. President and Mrs. Roemer will give a "May Queen party" March 14, at which the Queen and her five maids will be central figures. The crowning of the May Queen will be a campus ceremony, with a dance around the Maypole on Saturday, May 24. Miss Yount is a senior and will receive the A. B. degree at commencement. She has taken her four years' college work at Lindenwood.

St. Louis Times
Feb. 28-

In Costume Play at Lindenwood

Misses Birdie and Etta Feist, sisters, who took part as Spanish dancers in a play at Lindenwood.

1924

Mobile (Ala.) Register
Feb. 17 - Society

Times Globe Dem.
Feb. 20

WOMAN LECTURES ON "POWER TO EARN"

Says Women Can Do Anything if They Have Ability.

If a woman is "geographically mobile," according to Miss Florence Jackson of Boston, a noted vocational lecturer, she can follow almost any calling, provided she has native ability in that particular field. Miss Jackson gave an address before the students of Lindenwood College yesterday on "Factors in the Power to Earn."

"There is a great deal said about woman's instinct," said Miss Jackson. "We are told that, since the woman buys most of the things that are sold, she ought to be a good retailer or advertiser; that, since she lives in houses twenty-four hours of the day, she ought to be a good architect; that, since she thinks in details, she ought to be a good secretary. This is probably all true, but I am looking forward to the day when more attention will be paid to her ability and less to sex. Newspaper men tell us that 'women are always news.' We are hoping to get to the point where they are not."

"You may have had a fine course in institutional management or dietetics, but when you go to work outside your school you will find that you are again a freshman. Too many of us who have been through college feel superior and, through our actions, spoil our own and other women's opportunities."

"Besides knowledge of your work and skill in it, there are the 'imponderables in business.' Given two equally good workmen, what are the qualities in one that makes him more valuable than the other? Loyalty is one, courtesy is another, enthusiasm is another, personality is a fourth, the ability to finish is a fifth."

"As a matter of fact, we are most of us both workers and executives. We both perform tasks for ourselves and plan tasks for others. You cannot work with people and get the most out of them if you are dictatorial. I have never found that my shoes exactly fitted anyone else."

◆ ◆ ◆
I hear of Mobilians from everywhere, and as it is always pleasant news, and I love to tell pleasant things, I am always glad to share it with you. The last word about Misses Birdie and Etta Feist, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Feist of Mobile, is that they took leading parts in an all-Spanish program at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., Friday evening, February 15. Both are freshmen at this institution, and they were members of the arrangement committee for the play which was presented "Zaragueta," by Carrion and Ava. Several music and dance numbers were given between the acts, one of which was a Spanish dance by the Misses Feist. Lindenwood girls are much interested in the fact that Birdie and Etta "look alike, act alike, think alike, and talk alike." Not even their teachers can always tell them apart, and as a consequence they receive grades alike.

Times Socy.,
Feb. 20

Miss Florence Jackson of Boston, director of the Placement Bureau of the Women's Educational and Industrial Bureau of that city, is finding her week's annual visit at Lindenwood College fully interspersed with social engagements. Among the dinner parties in her honor in St. Charles was one Tuesday evening by Mrs. George Null, and another for tonight, given by Mrs. Helene Stumberg, whose guests will include her son, Dr. Kurt Stumberg, physician at the college, and Mrs. Stumberg, President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Deap Lucinda Templin, and Miss Margaret Johnson from Lindenwood, together with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein of St. Louis. Mrs. John B. Edwards of Clemens avenue will entertain Miss Jackson with a dinner, Thursday evening, after which she will leave, Thursday night, for Chicago, to attend the American Educational Association. Members of the St. Louis Wellesley Club will be hostesses for Miss Jackson at a tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leo Drey, 6336 Pershing avenue.

Times,
Feb. 21

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB CARD PARTY.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lindenwood College Club has been postponed until March on account of the card party given Monday, Feb. 18, at Forest Park Hotel, for the benefit of the scholarship fund. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Lillie D. Hynson, assisted by Mrs. W. K. Roth, and the president, Miss Agnes Adams, and members of the club.

Russellville (Ark.)
Courier Democrat, Feb. 21

Miss Elizabeth Ganner Makes Public Appearance.
Miss Elizabeth Ganner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ganner of Russellville, rendered a Beethoven selection, "Sonata Op. 14, No. 2" as the concluding number of a students' recital at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Ganner is a Sophomore at Lindenwood.

Clayton (Mo.) Watchman-Advocate -
Feb. 22

REV. BARTHOLOMEW SPEAKS AT COLLEGE

Pastor of Maplewood Congregational Church Addresses Audience of 400 Girls.

Rev. N. O. Bartholomew, pastor of the Maplewood Congregational Church, spoke to an audience of over 400 college girls Thursday morning at Lindenwood College, St. Charles. As it was Valentine's Day, he chose the appropriate subject, "Flowers from the Garden of the Heart." His theme, however, was considered from a mental and spiritual standpoint.

The blossoms of the heart to which he referred were the "forget-me-not of memory," "the lily of integrity," and the "morning-glory of hope."

Touching honesty and integrity, Dr. Bartholomew had a good deal to say, regretfully, as to the conclusions arrived at by certain scientific men and women who have written articles in recent magazines as to the uprightness of the average American child in examinations, and in other tests. A certain method had been devised, tried in several places, of the teacher giving a class a list of examination questions. Unbeknown to the children, a slight coating of wax was on the underside of their paper, so that any correction would be registered. The teacher walked away and left them alone; then when the hour was about half gone, a map fell, revealing on the blackboard all the correct answers to the question.

In one such class, 100 per cent of the children took advantage of the map's falling, and changed their papers, as the wax imprint showed. Other classes showed cheating, but not so bad.

Dr. Bartholomew said also that children will pilfer at school. Stray change left in desks will be taken by many children, and sweaters or other wearing articles are not safely left.

A "purchasing test" had been tried with some children by these investigators. Children were sent out with 25 cents, say, to buy some article which ought to sell at 25 cents. By prearrangement with the merchant, the article would be sold for, say, 15 cents. A dime should have been brought back, but in 64 cases out of a hundred the children said nothing about the change. The other 36 were honest.

Eslohe-Dem. Socy
Feb. 22.

1924

Mrs. John L. Roemer and Dean Templin of Lindenwood College, together with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fox of St. Charles, will leave tomorrow on an extended motor trip. They will go first to Chicago, where Mrs. Roemer and Miss Templin will attend the college conference of deans of women, in connection with the sessions of the American Educational Association. When this meeting is over, the last of next week, they intend to motor to Milwaukee, where the entire party will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Feind of that city. They will go on to Madison for a short visit at the University of Wisconsin.

Post-Dispatch Socy
Feb. 22

A luncheon in honor of Mrs. George F. Ayres, former principal of Lindenwood College, whose husband, the late Dr. George F. Ayres, was president for several years, will be given Monday at the Forest Park Hotel. Mrs. Ayres is visiting friends in the city, and the alumnae and other students who were in the college during her residence there, will give the affair in her honor. Mrs. Ayres' home is now in Washington, D. C.

Eslohe Democrat
Feb. 24

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

Vocal, piano and violin music was rendered by students of Lindenwood College, in a recital Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium. The program:

- Piano—
- Dance of the Marionettes.....Henry Elizabeth Bates.
- Novellette (F Major).....Schumann Elise Rumph.
- Fantasia (C Minor).....Mozart Priscilla Calder.
- Prelude and Fugue (E Minor)—Mendelssohn Marguerite Hersch.
- Songs—
- There are Fairies at the Bottom of Our Garden.....Lehman
- The Winds of the South.....Scott Lucile Jordan.
- Violin—
- Polish Dance.....Severn Nadine Trope.
- Trios—
- Faith, Hope and Love.....Shelley
- Lift Thine Eyes (Elijah).....Mendelssohn
- Martha Whaley, Pattie Hudson, Carolyn Sheetz.

Globe Dem. Socy
Feb. 24

1924

Miss Florence S. Jackson of Boston was the center of a round of dinners and teas during the last week at Lindenwood College. On Tuesday evening she was entertained at dinner by Mrs. George Null, in St. Charles, and on Wednesday evening by Mrs. Helene Stumberg, whose guests included President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Dean Lucinda Templin and Miss Margaret Johnson of the college, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klein of St. Louis and Dr. and Mrs. Kurt Stumberg. Thursday, Miss Jackson came to St. Louis, giving an address at Washington University, and being entertained at dinner by Mrs. John B. Edwards of Clemens avenue.

Enthusiasm Grows Among Students in Oratorical Contest

Globe-Democrat
Feb. 24-

of knowing the Constitution of the United States.

"The preamble itself, 'We, the people of the United States'—gives us a conception of a form of government that had never been thought of until the establishment of the United States of America."

President Roemer commended for the students' reading a new volume, "The American Plan of Government," by Charles W. Bacon of Harvard University. He suggested that they consider the historical setting and the reason why each of the amendments was enacted.

In the history department of Lindenwood College, Miss Elsa Weber, head of the department, is conducting courses of study in the Constitution. In the last semester her class completed the framework of the document, and in this semester, under the title, "Recent American History," the members are taking up the application of the Constitution as it has developed in various cases from 1871 on to the present.

Lindenwood Studying Constitution.

At chapel at Lindenwood College, President John L. Roemer spoke on "George Washington," bringing out sidelights in Washington's biography, of an illuminating nature. In this connection he reviewed briefly the meaning and importance of the National Constitution. He said in part:

"It is necessary to good citizenship today, to understand our form of government and there is no better way to do this than to know the Constitution under which we operate. It is a most fascinating study, and when one takes it up he finds that it is not only instructive, but interesting.

"I heartily commend every effort that is made, from the grades up, to instill in the young mind the value

Globe Democrat
Feb. 25

To Honor Mrs. Ayres.

Former Lindenwood College "girls," who were students in the presidency of the late Rev. Dr. George F. Ayres, will give a luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Ayres at the Forest Park Hotel. Mrs. Ayres, whose home is now in Washington, D. C., is visiting friends in the city.

Times
Feb. 23

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

An adventurous trip for February will be a week of motor visiting, culminating at the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wis., which is in progress for Dean Lucinda Templin and Mrs. John L. Roemer, dean of students, of Lindenwood College. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fox of St. Charles, they left Friday for Chicago, which they will make in two days. They will attend there the national conference of deans of women of colleges and universities, which is to be held next week, in connection with the meetings of the American Educational Association. Miss Florence Jackson of Boston, who has recently been giving several days to lectures and conferences at Lindenwood, will also attend this meeting. From there the Lindenwood party will proceed north to Milwaukee, to be the guest of Mrs. Robert L. Feind, who several years ago was dietitian at the college. They will then go to Madison, and are due to return home just before Ash Wednesday.

Miss Mary Hagler, daughter of Mr. Roy Hagler, recently has been honored again at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Hagler, who is president of the sophomore class, was elected by her class to be one of the two sophomore girls to be maids of honor in the May Day celebration, this spring. The other sophomore maid is Miss Mary Sayre of New London, Mo. Miss Katherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was elected by the seniors as May Queen. Miss Hagler is also a member of the Student Government Board of the College.

Washington
Court House (C)
Feb. 26
Herald

Helena (Ark.) World,
Feb. 24

Helena Girl Student in Lindenwood is Honored.

Miss Mary Yeager who is attending Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., was recently chosen as one of the freshmen attendants to the Lindenwood May queen; Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo. Miss Marguerite McNeer of Cottonwood Falls, Kans., are the other freshmen attendants.

A different method of choosing the May queen was used this year. Instead of the entire student body voting on the May queen, only the Seniors voted, choosing a member of their class. The Juniors elected the maid of honor, Miss Saralie Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., and the Sophomores chose two attendants, Miss Mary Hayler of Washington Court House, Ohio and Miss Mary Sayre of New London, Mo. This is the first time that the freshmen have been allowed to have a representative in the May Day festivities.

The May queen and her attendants will be honor guests at a dinner-dance given by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Friday evening, March 14th.

Altoona (Pa.) Mirror
Feb. 25

924.

MISS SHOMBERG IS HONORED AT COLLEGE

Miss Sara Shomberg, daughter of A. F. Shomberg of this city, who is this year a student at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., has been elected maid of honor to the May Queen of the college. The queen was chosen from the Senior class and the maid of honor from the Junior class.

Miss Shomberg was prepared for college at Mary Lyon school for girls, Swarthmore, and Virginia college, Roanoke, Va. Before entering Lindenwood she attended Michigan university and Goucher college. Miss Shomberg is studying in the department of Liberal Arts at Lindenwood.

Globe Dem
Mch. 3

LINDENWOOD FRESHMEN WIN SWIMMING MEET

Freshmen of Lindenwood College won first place in a swimming meet Saturday in the pool of Butler gym. The seniors took second place and the sophomores third. The contest comprised strokes for form, strokes for speed, diving, a water polo game and various water stunts, such as balloon and umbrella races.

The water polo game was between the junior-freshman team and the sophomore-senior team, lined up as follows: Junior-freshman, Misses Annabel Cooper, Jean Johnston, Gladys Osborne, Marion Merrill, Katherine Sullivan, Helen Calder; sophomore-seniors, Misses Janet Robinson, Theo. Meyer, Helen Holmes, Mary Priscilla Calder, Margaret von Unwerth and Eugenie Andrus. The contest resulted in a tie, 3 to 3.

Globe Dem
Feb. 27

Students Give Recital.

A students' recital was given yesterday afternoon at Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, in which piano numbers were rendered by Misses Evelyn Helwig, Lucile Jordan, Audrey Jensen, Pauline Davis, Dorothy Rumph, Mary Elizabeth Breathwit, Harriet Gum and Adelaide Peabody. There were songs by Misses Mary Sue Guthrie and Carmelita Graziadel.

Times Socy
Mch. 6

Miss Wilma Niederlueke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Niederlueke of 1901 Montgomery street, has recently enrolled for the second semester at Lindenwood College, bringing the total number of St. Louis girls at Lindenwood up to about a dozen. Miss Niederlueke is taking a home economics course. She is a graduate of Yetman high school, where she was a member of the Girls' Athletic Association and Glee Club.

Globe Dem
Mch 3

Tarkington's Works Feature Recital.

Students of the Department of Oratory at Lindenwood College showed a partiality for the works of Booth Tarkington, at a recital

Thursday. Miss Roslyn Cohen presented "The Initiation," with "Penrod" as chief figure. Miss Isabel Booth recited "Us," Tarkington's portrayal of a honeymoon quarrel. Other numbers were Barrie's "Two of Them," by Miss Kathryn Hopper; "Lilac Time," after Jane Cowl, by Miss Mary Louise Blocher, and two humorous selections by Misses Fannie Kilbourne and Mildred Argust.

Post-Dispatch Socy.
March 9

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer will give a dinner-dance at 6:30 o'clock, Friday evening, at which the newly elected May Queen, Miss Catherine Yount, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., will be a guest of honor, with her maid of honor and other attendants. Mrs. Roemer will lead the grand march, with Miss Yount. The attendants are as follows: Maid of honor, Miss Sarah Shomberg, of Altoona, Pa.; sophomore maids, Misses Mary Sayre, of New London, Mo., and Mary Hagler, of Washington Courthouse, O.; freshman maids, Misses Mary Yaeger of Helena, Ark., and Marguerite McNee of Cottonwood Falls, Kan. Mrs. Roemer and Dean Templin returned recently from Chicago, where they were guests at a luncheon given by the Lindenwood College Club of that city, at the South Shore Country Club.

Springfield, Ill.,
Illinois State Journal
March 7 -

Miss Mary Catherine Edmands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Edmands, 957 Williams boulevard, recently had charge of the entertainment at a party given by the Y. W. C. A. of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. The program of musical and dance numbers by the students was followed by dancing in the gymnasium. Valentine favors were given with the refreshments. Miss Edmands is a sophomore at Lindenwood, where she is active in Y. W. C. A. work and many campus activities.

Times
March 10

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Students of the department of oratory of Lindenwood College gave a program of four somewhat lengthy numbers, showing skill at impersonations, Thursday morning. Miss Margaret Bell presented "For the Love of Mary Ellen," by Brainard; Miss Mildred Morehead's production was "Riders to the Sea," by Synge; Miss Oda Wentworth recited Barrie's "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," and Miss Marjorie Woolsey, "The Piper," by Peabody.

Globe-Democrat
March 11

Musicals at Lindenwood.

There will be a musicale at Roemer Auditorium of Lindenwood College at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, in which numbers will be given by several St. Louis artistes, including Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmzogiu, soprano; Mrs. Esmerelda Berry-Mayes, violiniste, and Mrs. Ella A. Luyties, pianiste.

Globe-Democrat,
March 8 -

Lindenwood Recital.

A students' recital was given in Roemer auditorium of Lindenwood College Thursday morning, with the following program:
For the Love of Mary Ellen... Brainard
Margaret Bell.
Riders to the Sea... Synge
Mildred Morehead.
The Old Lady Shows Her Medals... Barrie
Oda Wentworth.
The Piper... Peabody
Marjorie Woolsey.

*Slobe-Dem
mch. 5*

E. H. SOTHERN TO BE HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Under the auspices of the St. Louis Tercentenary Shakespeare Society, Mrs. Adeline Palmier Wagoner, president, there will be a luncheon in honor of E. H. Sothorn, the distinguished classic interpreter, in parlor A of the Statler Hotel on Thursday noon. Mrs. Wagoner has responses to some 200 invitations and the exercises are to begin promptly at 12:15 p. m. Mr. Sothorn has consented to make a brief address on "The Educational Value of the Shakespearean Drama," and other speakers are: Dean William Scarlett, Mgr. J. J. Tannrath, Rev. Dwight Bradley, Vice President John H. Gundlach, Mrs. Alice Lavelle MacDonald, Rev. Robert Hall Atchison, Mrs. Philip N. Moore and Richard Spamer.

Dean Lucinda Templin of Lindenwood College will bring several of the preceptors of the institution and there will be representatives from the Morse School of Expression, Hoerner Hall, various St. Louis clubs and schools in Belleville, Farmington, Bowling Green and East St. Louis.

Star March 7.

ACTIVITIES OF ST. LOUIS WOMEN

Notes on Affairs at Civic, Club and Political Meetings.

Miss Jackson and Personnel Work.

Miss Florence Jackson, of Boston, in charge of placement of women, who has recently been at Lindenwood College, has interested two Harvard professors, Dr. H. S. Langfeld and Dr. Daniel Starch, in research concerning proper placement. Announcement is made in a recent publication of the Personnel Research Federation, that this research is considering the usefulness of systematized interviews, psychological examinations and inventories of personality as aids in proper placement. Reports will be made to the American Psychological Association.

*Slobe-Democrat
Mch. 8*

LINDENWOOD PLAYERS PRESENT 3-ACT COMEDY

"To the Ladies," a three-act comedy by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, was one of the most ambitious stage presentations of the season, by the Lindenwood Players, last evening, at Roemer Hall, Lindenwood College. Particular interest was taken in the production, because it is the first performance to have had the advantage of preparation with a miniature theatrical stage which has just been added to the expression department of the college.

This built-in stage is a permanent structure of wood, with proper backgrounds and a rose and gold drop curtain, and five entrances. It is equipped with furniture in doll-size, including a grand and a square piano, tables, chairs, settees, rugs and even a telephone. Problems of stagecraft in producing last night's play were studied beforehand, the small furniture being easily moved so as to bring out different effects. Modern lighting effects were also provided.

Those taking the principal roles in "To the Ladies" were Misses Marguerite Mitchener, Virginia Heinrich, Helen Calder, Margaret Ferguson, Esther Coleman, Isabel Breese, Marion Bowers, Lydell Hahn, Elizabeth Gannerm and Harriet Webster. The proceeds will be applied to the Mary Easton Sibley scholarship fund.

Times, Mch. 8 -

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE NOTES.

Students in the expression department of Lindenwood College are finding much in the way of stage effects and lighting problems to study in a new miniature stage which has been built at the request of Miss Myrl Rodney, head of the department. This small stage, about three feet long and of corresponding depth and height, has been fitted with background, drop-curtain, and a practicable system of footlights which can be developed in colors. There is also "doll" furniture, well proportioned, including pianos, tables and chairs, rugs, and a cunning telephone on a stand. The placing of the furniture is studied in connection with the various histrionic performances, first of which was the Lindenwood Players' "To the Ladies," Friday evening, March 7, in Roemer Auditorium.

Labadem Socy March 11.

Mrs. George F. Ayres of Washington, D. C., widow of the late Dr. George F. Ayres, former president of Lindenwood College, has been visiting Miss Alice Linnemann of St. Charles. A number of social affairs have been given in Mrs. Ayres' honor.

*Raton (N. Mex) Range
March 9.*

Miss Ruth Plays Lead In Lindenwood College Play

Miss Ellen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Ruth of this city, who is this year attending Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., played one of the leading parts in the all-Spanish play given recently at the college. The degree of excellence with which Miss Ruth uses the Spanish language was particularly commendable in her interpretation of the part of Don Indelacia, the uncle, in the play "Zaragueta," which was presented by the Spanish club of which Miss Ruth is the secretary and treasurer.

Miss Ruth graduated from the Raton High School in three years.

*Oklahoman, Oklahoma City
mch 9.*

FOUR

Society

By SADIE ANDERSON.

College Leader

Mrs. Harriet Gum Chosen as President of Oklahoma Club At Lindenwood.

Miss Gum.

Miss Harriett Gum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Gum, 833 West Fifteenth street, who has been made president of the Oklahoma club, at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she is in her junior year. Miss Gum, who was chosen publicity manager for the Spanish play of the school, received comment for the successful and artistic manner in which she filled the position. She is vice president of the Athletic association and treasurer of the Art club. She has also been selected as a contestant in the coming class swimming meet, to be held soon.

*Southeast Missourian,
Cape Girardeau, March 11.*

Catherine Yount Will Be Honored

Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau will be central figure, Friday evening, March 14, at a dinner-dance which President and Mrs. John L. Roemer are giving at Lindenwood College St. Charles, Mo., in honor of the May Queen and her attendants. Miss Yount has been chosen to this honor, and her "coronation" will take place May 24.

Attending her as maids of honor will be Misses Sarah Shomberg, of Altoona, Pa.; Mary Sayre, of New London, Mo.; Mary Hagler, of Washington Court House, O.; Mary Yaeger, of Helena, Ark.; and Marguerite McNee, of Cottonwood Falls, Kan. It so happens that each of these five attendants comes from a different state.

*Post Dispatch Socy
mch 11*

A musicale will be given at Lindenwood College, in Roemer Auditorium, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, by Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmezoglu, soprano; Mrs. Esmeralda Berry-Mayer, violiniste, and Mrs. Ella A. Luyties, pianiste.

*Eslobe-Dem
Mch. 12 -*

2 LINDENWOOD TEACHERS GET SONG-WRITING PRIZES

Tables were turned in prize-giving at Lindenwood College yesterday morning, and two members of the faculty, instead of students, received each $25 award for writing a song. The fortunate ones were Miss Anna Pugh, head of the English department, who wrote the words of a song, and Miss Agnes Gray of St. Louis, who teaches the violin at Lindenwood College and directs the student orchestra. Miss Gray wrote the song music.

Hitherto each year some student has won an annual prize for a Lindenwood song, but President Roemer has now instituted an additional contest to which only teachers are eligible. The award was made by majority vote of the student body, in chapel. Each of seven songs was sung by Miss Gladys Sullivan, with Miss Florence Howard as accompanist, and was repeated until approval centered on one. The names of the contestants were not announced until after the award was made. The vote was 197 out of a total of 360. Honorary mention was given for the music written by Miss Ruth Craig.

*Arkansas Gazette
Little Rock, Ark
Mch. 9.*

Miss Kathryn Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Butler, 2401 Ringo street, was entrusted with one of the leading parts in a play recently produced at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Butler was cast as "Carlos" in the Spanish drama "Zaragueta."

*Star
Mch. 12*

Lindenwood College.

A musical treat is promised for the students and faculty of Lindenwood College, tomorrow morning, in a program which will be presented in Roemer Auditorium, at 11 o'clock, by three St. Louis musicians of note: Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmegzolu, soprano; Mrs. Esmeralda Berry-Mayes, violiniste, and Mrs. Ella A. Luyties, pianist.

*Times
Mch 12*

What St. Louis Women Are Doing

SEVERAL musical performers of note in the city, among whom are Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmegzolu, soprano; Mrs. Esmeralda Berry-Mayes, violiniste, and Mrs. Ella A. Luyties, pianiste, will unite in giving a musicale before the students of Lindenwood College, at Roemer Auditorium, Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock. This will be the "assembly" program of the college for the week.

*Times
Mch. 12*

Miss Gray's Song Is Winner at Lindenwood

Miss Agnes Gray, violinist, was the winner, by vote of the students of Lindenwood College, of a $25 song prize, eligible for competition by members of the faculty at Lindenwood. Seven different competitors wrote music for the prize, and it was awarded by a majority vote of 360, after the song had been played and sung. The words were written by Miss Anna Pugh, head of the English department. Miss Gray is violin teacher at Lindenwood, and conducts the Lindenwood Orchestra. She is an alumna of the college.

Paris (Tex.) News
Mch. 12.

Paris Girl is a Spanish Student

Miss Margaret Bloebaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bloebaum of Paris, had a leading part in the Spanish play, "Zaragueta," presented by the Spanish club of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Bloebaum played the part of Don Saturie, the village doctor. Miss Bloebaum is a freshman, having graduated last year from the Paris high school. She lives in St. Charles with her cousin, Mrs. George Null.

Recently when a Mexican, who was unable to speak anything but Spanish, was arrested in St. Charles, the college was called upon for an interpreter. Miss Bloebaum was sent down and cleared up the difficulty by speaking to the Mexican in his own tongue.

Globe-Dem.
Mch. 14

To Show Movie at Lindenwood.

The Classical Club of Lindenwood College will sponsor the first moving picture entertainment ever given in Roemer Auditorium tomorrow evening. "Quo Vadis" is to be presented. The proceeds will be applied to the Mary Easton Sibley scholarship fund.

Limes
Mch. 15

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will hold its annual guest day meeting Tuesday, March 18, 2:30 p. m., at the Gatesworth Hotel. Officers of the club in the receiving line will be Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. Wm. C. Stewart, first vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, second vice president; Mrs. Joe White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor; Miss Lucinda Templin, dean of students of Lindenwood College, and Mrs. John L. Roemer, wife of Dr. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. C. C. Franke, Mrs. O. K. Sanders, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry, Mrs. Herbert Steinmeyer, Mrs. B. V. Grossman, Mrs. Jos. Harper, Mrs. Elmer Lenz, Misses Adele and Janet Stine and Miss Helen Kleinschmidt. A musical program will be given by the faculty of Lindenwood College.

Mch 12

City Globe-Democrat, &

Dr. Swift Addresses Lindenwood Students on Lure of Obscure

Says Fascination of Mysterious Is a Human Characteristic.

An address on "The Lure of the Obscure" was given at Lindenwood College last night in Roemer Auditorium, by Dr. Edgar James Swift of Washington University, head of the department of psychology and education. Dr. and Mrs. Swift were dinner guests of President and Mrs. Roemer of Lindenwood.

Dr. Swift quoted Barnum's "There's a fool born every minute," adding that Barnum had "taken a Ph. D. degree in the science of humbugology."

"The fascination of the mysterious," he said, "is a human characteristic. People do not want a scientific explanation. They want one that is mysterious. After Sir Conan-Doyle had broadcast his belief in what he called the 'evil elemental,' the British Museum was almost overwhelmed with an avalanche of mummies, shriveled hands and feet, and other relics from Egyptian tombs, sent by those who feared to keep them.

"Man will accept any interpretation, provided it is obscure enough. 'Animal magnetism' and the 'blue-glass' craze swept thousands off their feet, not very many years ago. Bald-headed men sat for hours under the beneficent rays of blue, because they believed that blue light would give them a head full of hair, just as today they rush for the doctor who is reported as able to transplant glands.

"The hospital of one of the leading medical schools on the Atlantic Coast has a large tuning fork which cures hundreds of patients, because they think it is a magnet; magnets have always been supposed by unscientific persons to have wonderful curative properties. Of course, these people have nothing much the matter with them.

"Meaningless words catch the people. We used to hear about 'cephalic tinctures' and 'angelic drops,' but today it is 'odific effluvia,' 'ectoplasm' and 'brain waves.' 'Quackery and the love of being quacked are, in human nature, as weeds in our fields.'"

Globe-Dem.
March 16-

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will hold their annual guest day meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Gatesworth Hotel. Officers of the club in the receiving line will be Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. William C. Stewart, first vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, second vice president; Mrs. Joseph White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor; Miss Lucinda Templin, dean of students of Lindenwood College, and Mrs. John L. Roemer, wife of Dr. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College. Assistant hostesses are Mrs. C. F. Frank, Mrs. O. K. Sanders, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmelter, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Leonard Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry, Mrs. Herbert Steinmeyer, Mrs. B. V. Grossman, Mrs. Joseph Harper, Mrs. Elmer Lenz, Misses Adele and Janet Stine and Miss Helen Kleinschmidt.

A musical program will be given by the faculty of Lindenwood College.

Ralls Co. Record,
New London, Mo.,
March 18

NEW LONDON GIRL AGAIN IS HONORED.

Miss Mary Sayre has recently been elected to serve as one of the attendants to the May Queen in the annual May Day procession at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Following a new ruling which is being tried for the first time at Lindenwood, the queen was this year chosen from the senior class, her maid of honor from the junior class, and two attendants from both the sophomore and freshman classes. Miss Sayre, with Miss Mary Hagler of Washington Courthouse, Ohio, will represent the sophomore class in doing honor to the queen, Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau. Carrying out the idea of pastel shades in soft materials for the costuming of the attendants in the procession on May 27, Miss Sayre will wear blue chiffon. On Friday, March 14, a dinner dance will be given by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, honoring the queen and attendants, which promises to be one of the big events of the school year calendar.

In addition to this honor, Miss Sayre is a member of the honorary literary society, Alpha Sigma Tau. She has been active in dramatic work, having taken the leading feminine roll in the Spanish play "Zarageta," presented by the foreign language department Friday night, February 15, and in addition she will have one of the leading roles in the musical comedy to be put on by the athletic association on March 21.

Globe-Democrat.

March 17, 1924.

ST. LOUIS' LARGEST
BY MORE THAN

STUDENTS TO PRESENT SHOW AT LINDENWOOD

'Seven Cinderellas' Was Written by Girls of College.

"Seven Cinderellas," an all-student production, will be presented by the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College, Saturday evening. The musical comedy was written by Misses Margaret Ferguson and Dorothy Gee, assisted by Misses Helen Calder and Gertrude Bird. Miss Lillian Tweedle has written the music. Miss Helen Holmes is managing the production.

The "Cinderellas" are actresses, who have grown tired of acting, and seek the quiet life of the country, where they dress and act the part of old-fashioned girls. They meet seven college men, and promptly fall in love. All is well until their director appears upon the scene and tells that they are really actresses. But as all good musical comedies, it ends happily.

Miss Mary Sayre of New London, Mo., will be the leading lady, and Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, who was recently announced as Lindenwood's May Queen, will be the hero. Costumed choruses will appear in dances and songs. A negro chorus will "shoot craps." A mah Jong chorus will depict a fad of the day.

The "Seven Cinderellas" will be: Misses Gladys Sullivan, Dorothy Gee, Carolyn Sheetz, Mary Sayre, Marguerite Mitchener, Esther Coleman, and Margaret Ferguson.

Globe-Democrat,
March 14.

EVOLUTION OF MUSIC DISCUSSED BY CRITIC

Lindenwood College Students Hear Address on Musicians.

Evolution of musical talent in this country, both as to rendition and composition, was traced by Richard Spamer, dramatic and music critic of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, yesterday morning, in an address before the students of Lindenwood College, on "Music and Musicians in America." With him on the platform were: Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmeszoglu, soprano; Mrs. Esmeralda Berry-Mayes, violinists, and Mrs. Ella A. Luyties, pianists, who rendered a program in connection with his discourse.

Spamer told of the "Bay Psalm Book," dating from 1640, which was the first bit of music printed in America, and came from a printing press at Cambridge, Mass. In Colonial history, he said, the first pipe-organ was set up in 1700, and the first piano was built in 1726. Both of these were in Virginia, and the South showed the earliest tendency to give concerts and song recitals. Comment was made on Philadelphia's orchestra in 1756, and the singing in the same year of Haydn's "Stabat Mater," in Charleston, S. C. The Moravians in Pennsylvania were mentioned for their "Singstunde," or "song hour festival," as early as 1741.

In later history, praise was given to Theodore Thomas for his orchestra. The speaker showed the development of musical conservatories following the civil war, and told of Clara Louise Kellogg, a pioneer concert singer.

The "musical awakening" of modern times in St. Louis was traced in marked degree to the work of Henry W. Savage in the Boston Opera Company for fifty weeks' performances, about the time of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. St. Louis' municipal outdoor theater was commended as the best of its kind in the world.

Musical numbers in a three-part program were: "Song of India," Rimsky-Korsakoff, words by Rabindranath Tagore, and "Serenade," by Gounod, both sung by Mrs. Hector M. E. Pasmeszoglu, the latter with violin and piano accompaniment; "Adagio Suite No. 3," Riess; "Valse," by Brahms, and Minuetto, Porpora-Kreisler, by Mrs. Esmeralda Berry-Mayes; "Chanson-Provence," Del'Aqua, sung by Mrs. Pasmeszoglu. Mrs. Ella A. Luyties was accompanist in all the numbers.

1924.

Nickerson (Kan.) Argosy
March 13.

Miss Eleanor Brown recently took part in the Spanish play "Zaragneta" given by the students of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Brown played the part of Gregoria, the maid in this delightful two act comedy, given in trained Spanish accents, and with realistic settings of the ordinary home life in Spain. The proceeds of the play were given to the scholarship fund of the college. Miss Brown who is a sophomore at Lindenwood, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown of this city.

Albany (Mo.) Capital
March 14.

Miss Martha Whaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whaley, Albany, Mo., sang a Spanish song between the acts of the Spanish play, "Zaragneta" given recently by the Spanish Club of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Whaley was dressed in a Spanish costume. Miss Whaley is a Senior at Lindenwood, having attended there the past two years, after graduating from Palmer College, Albany. Miss Whaley has taken a very active part in school activities, being a member of the Spanish Club, the college quartette and the college sextette.

Post-Dispatch,
March 16-

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will hold its annual guest day meeting Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock at the Gatesworth Hotel. Officers of the club in the receiving line will be Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. William C. Stewart, first vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, second vice president; Mrs. Joseph White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur J. Kruger, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor; Miss Lucinda Templin, dean of students, and Mrs. John L. Roemer, wife of the president of the college. Assisting hostesses are to be Mmes. C. F. Franke, O. K. Sanders, Edgar Blankenmeister, Harry Montgomery, Leonard Scott, Elizabeth Christy Lowrey, Herbert Steinmeyer, B. V. Grossman, Joseph Harper, Elmer Lenz, Misses Adele and Janet Stine, and Helen Kleinschmidt. A musical program will be given by the faculty of Lindenwood College.

Globe-Dem. Socy.
March 16.

The May Queen and her five attendants were formally presented at Lindenwood College Friday evening in a dinner dance given by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer. Mrs. Roemer brought in the queen, Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, who wore a bouffant gown of moss-green chiffon trimmed with lace and silver beads. The maid of honor, Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., was escorted by President Roemer. With the four attendants, Misses Marguerite McNee, Mary Sayre, Mary Hagler and Mary Yaeger, the queen's party was seated at a central round table decorated in white carnations and greens, with candles shaded with green.

Miss Shomberg wore a white crepe dress with crystal beads, a rhinestone bow knot in her hair, and carried a jade ostrich fan tied with silver ribbon. Miss McNee's costume was of black sequins, and she wore a black comb and black slippers. Miss Sayre was in yellow taffeta, ruffled, a wreath of varicolored flowers at the waistline. Miss Yaeger's dress was flesh chiffon with crystal beads, with a hem design of roses in blue, pink and orchid. Miss Hagler wore white georgette and lace, with rhinestone trimming and rhinestone hair ornament.

In the gymnasium the queen's court appeared on a specially built platform, the background of which was in Southern smlax, with small electric lights, twinkling through, while baskets of spring flowers outlined the edge of the "throne." Harps were seen among the green decorations of pillars crowned by a canopy extending over the whole hall in white and green. Lindenwood colors, white and yellow, were used for two Maypoles, around which the students danced the May dance, following out quaint old English customs. There was a "town crier," Miss Gertrude Bird; eight "queen's jesters," Misses Helen Holmes, Helen Saunders, Lillian Hinkle, Margaret Spence, Lillian Tweedie, Elizabeth Carter, Jean Johnston and Marion Gum. A troupe of "jugglers," consisting of Misses Helen Calder, Theo. Meyer and Eleen Denning. The "villagers" revived old ballads, including "Sally in Our Alley." Leaders in the singing in costume were Misses Rachel Strong, Camella Graziadei, Patty Hudson, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Laitner and Marie Laney. The program was given under the direction of Miss Myrill Rodney, head of the expression department. Refreshments were served in the shape of green and white cakes and ices.

Post-Dispatch Socy
March 16.

week.

Old English dances were revived, in costume, at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, at the May Queen dinner dance which President and Mrs. John L. Roemer gave Friday evening in honor of Miss Catherine Yount and her attendants. Miss Gertrude Bird was "Town Crier." There were eight "Queen's Jesters" — Misses Helen Holmes, Helen Saunders, Lillian Hinkle, Margaret Spence, Lillian Tweedie, Elizabeth Carter, Jean Johnston, Marian Gum. A troupe of "jugglers" comprised Misses Helen Calder, Theo Meyer and Eleen Denning. An accentric May-pole dance around two Maypoles was given. Village ballads, Campion's and others, were sung by Misses Rachel Strong, Camella Graziadei, Patty Hudson, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Laitner and Marie Laney.

Mrs. Roemer brought in the queen, Miss Catherine Yount, and President Roemer the maid of honor, Miss Sarah Shomberg. The queen's party, with President and Mrs. Roemer and all her attendants, was seated at a large round table in the center of the dining room, decorated in green and white, florally, and with candelabra. Afterward the party went to the Butler Gym, which was transformed in canopy effect in green and white, while the May-poles were yellow and white, college colors. There was a raised platform for the queen and her attendants, with a background of green, through which shone small electric bulbs. Around the base of the platform were baskets of spring flowers. The refreshments were green and white ices, and cakes in the same color scheme.

Star
Mch. 17-

St. Louis Lindenwood College Club.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will hold its annual guest day meeting Tuesday, at 2:30 p. m. at the Gatesworth Hotel. Officers of the club in the receiving line will be Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. William C. Stewart, first vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, second vice president; Mrs. Joseph White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor; Miss Lucinda Templin, dean of students of Lindenwood College, and Mrs. John L. Roemer, wife of Dr. Roemer, president of the college. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. C. F. Franke, Mrs. O. K. Sanders, Mrs. Edgar Blankenmeister, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Leonard

ENJOYED TRIP TO CHICAGO

Mrs. Roemer, Miss Templin and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fox Report Enjoyable Time on Visit.

Mrs. J.L. Roemer, dean of students, Miss Lucinda de Leftwich Templin, dean, of Lindenwood College, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fox, of St. Charles, have recently returned from a motor trip to Chicago and Milwaukee.

In Chicago Mrs. Roemer and Miss Templin attended the deans meetings of the National Education Association which were held at the Blackstone Hotel. Both Mrs. Roemer and Miss Templin were exceedingly interested in a Welch woman who spoke at the dean's banquet in the interest of international peace. She brought a plan, formulated by the women of Wales, and placed in a carved wooden box which is to be placed in Smithsonian Institute, Washington. When asked how she had the courage to come to a large country like America from Wales and present her plans she said that it was because "America always did things." During their stay in Chicago Mrs. Roemer and Miss Templin were the guests of honor at a luncheon at The South Side Country Club given by Mrs. W. O. Davis. The members of the Lindenwood club of Chicago were her guests.

From Chicago they went to Milwaukee for a brief visit with Mrs. Robert Feind, former dietitian at Lindenwood College and Mr. Feind.

Mrs. Roemer spoke of the elation they felt when some one saw the Missouri license on their car and looked at them wonderingly for attempting such a trip in early spring. They found excellent roads throughout the entire trip except in Virden and Staunton, Ill., where they were bad just inside the towns.

They were very interested in reading the signs when they passed through Zion City, Ill. The signs are placed short distances apart so that they can warn the inhabitants and tourists of the rules and regulations of the city. No doctors, no dentists are allowed to remain there; the healing is done by divine power. No smoking and no chewing are permitted. Pork and oysters are positively forbidden in the city because "Swine are the scavengers of the earth and oysters the scavengers of the sea."

*Cosmos Monitor
St. Charles, Mo.
March 18.*

Owing to the excellence of the weather and the roads they were able to drive from Milwaukee to St. Charles in two days, driving only from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m.

*Eslope Dem
March 21*

LINDENWOOD ORATORICAL PUPILS GIVE RECITAL

A recital was given by pupils of the department of oratory yesterday at 11 o'clock in Roemer Auditorium at Lindenwood College. Selections that have been rendered by several noted entertainers were presented.

Miss Marcella Holbrook gave "East Is West," by Hymer and Shipman. "A Night Out," by Peple, was presented by Miss Georgia Belle Donaldson, and "Dulcy," by Kaufman and Connelly, was given by Miss Maud Gardner. Booth Tarkington was heard in a reading by Miss Isabel Breese, of act 3 of "The Intimate Strangers."

*Eslope - Dem
March 21 -*

Speaks on Philippines.

Prof. E. B. Conant of Washington University gave an address yesterday afternoon at Lindenwood College, showing pictures of the Philippines. Mrs. Conant and some of the students of the college also appeared on the platform wearing costumes of Philippine women. This was in line with recent studies in some of the college courses on "Some of Our Island Possessions." Prof. and Mrs. Conant were guests of Mrs. John L. Roemer at dinner.

*Milan (Mo.) Standard
March 20*

Miss Isabel Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Poole, of Milan, read Booth Tarkington's "Us" at an expression recital at Lindenwood College recently. Miss Poole is making a specialty of expression at Lindenwood as she did in the Milan high school, from which she graduated last year.

*Milan Standard
March 20 - 1926*

Star, Mar. 19

Lindenwood College.
 Girls of Lindenwood College tried their hand at mimicry, reproducing old English scenes of 300 years ago, in their troupes of entertainers at the May-Queen party, March 14. This followed a dinner, at which the queen, Miss Catherine Yount, of Cape Girardeau, had been formally presented by Mrs. John L. Roemer.

Globe Dem.
Mar. 19

To Attend Conference.
 President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, departed yesterday for Chicago to attend the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, which will have a five days' session at the Hotel Sherman, concluding Saturday.

Times Socy
Mch 21

Judge and Mrs. E. B. Conant of Washington University were guests of Mrs. John L. Roemer at Lindenwood College at dinner Thursday evening. Judge Conant gave the students an illustrated address on the Philippines, which was made realistic by the presence on the stage of Mrs. Conant, in Philippine costume, assisted by several of the Lindenwood students in similar dress.

Donald,
Hope,
Ark.
Mch 19

HOPE GIRL IN RECITAL
 Miss Margaret Bell, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Bell of this city, recently appeared in a recital given by students of the expression department of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where Miss Bell is a Freshman.
 Her interpretation of, "For the Love of Mary Ellen," by Brainard, was exceedingly well received.
 Miss Bell is a member of the Arkansas Club which has a membership of 35. She is interested in music and art and is a member of the Choir, the Art club and the French club.
 Miss Bell graduated last year from the Hope High School and is a very talented young lady. Her host of friends in Hope are glad to learn of her success at College.

Times,
Mch. 17-

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE NOTES.
 One of the freshman students at Lindenwood College, Miss Margaret Bloebaum, proved an adequate interpreter of Spanish in presenting the case of a Mexican for the St. Charles police recently. She is from Paris, Tex., and had acquired some proficiency in the Spanish language before coming to Lindenwood. She is now making her home in St. Charles with her cousin, Mrs. Charles Null. Miss Bloebaum had a leading role, "Don Saturio, the village doctor," in a Spanish play, "Zaragueta," presented in Roemer Auditorium two weeks ago. Her facility with the language led to her selection by the college, when a request came in behalf of this Mexican who had been arrested and could speak nothing but Spanish, and she succeeded in clearing up his difficulties.

Globe-Dem.
March 18

CONGRESSMEN WILL VOTE FOR FARM FOR WOMEN
 Active support of a bill now before Congress to establish a federal industrial farm for women has been pledged by Harry B. Hawes and Sid C. Roach, representatives from the Eleventh and Ninth Missouri districts, respectively, in letters received yesterday by the Missouri Welfare League, which is deeply interested in the measure. The letters were in response to inquiries recently directed to all Missouri members of Congress by W. S. Ford, vice president of the league.
 The bill has passed the Senate and is now before a House committee. It provides for a reformatory for the 300 or 400 women federal prisoners who are now "boarded out" by the government to county jails and penitentiaries, due to inadequate federal facilities. Most of these women are now in institutions where physical, industrial and social rehabilitation is not attempted.
 The bill was drafted in accordance with plans adopted at a conference held in Washington last September, under the auspices of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, at which two Missourians, Dean Lucinda de L. Templin of Lindenwood College and Miss Carol Bates, executive secretary of the Missouri Welfare League, were in attendance. At that time Heber Votaw, superintendent of Federal Prisons, and Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant Attorney General of the United States, presented the pressing need for such an institution. The Legislative Committee of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs has indorsed the project.

Post-Dispatch, Mch. 23

Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo., recently chosen as May Queen at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.

—sid Whiting.

Russellville, Ark
Mch. 20.

THE COURIER-DEMOCRAT, R

As Tom Cassidy.

Miss Elizabeth Ganner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ganner of Russellville, Ark., took part in the comedy, "To the Ladies," by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, given recently by the Lindenwood Players at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Ganner, who is a sophomore in the expression department, played the role of Tom Cassidy, a young politician, just returned from his first trip to the Senate. A series of expression recitals is being given during chapel hours at the College in one of which Miss Ganner will soon take part.

Times
mch 22

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Four members of the faculty of Lindenwood College—Misses Ariel Gross and Lucile Hatch, pianists, and Misses Myrri Rodney and Lucia Hutchins of the department of oratory—gave entertaining numbers at a program under the auspices of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club at the Gatesworth Hotel Tuesday afternoon. There were also vocal selections by the Lindenwood Sextet, composed of students from the music department.

Port Huron (Mich.) Times-Herald
march 20

Port Huron Girl
Takes Active Part
In College Pageant

Miss Carmela Graziadel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Graziadel, of Port Huron, took a clever part as one of the "villagers" in an Old English dance program given recently at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., in honor of the May queen-elect, Miss Catherine Yount. The affair was an innovation, designed to give a little more of a social setting to the May queen coronation, which takes place in May. Miss Graziadel also sang at a vesper service of the college on a recent Sunday evening. She is studying voice, and is in her freshman year.

Russellville, Ark.
Courier-Democrat, mch 20.

Pipe Organ Recital.

Miss Elizabeth Ganner of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., played the opening pieces at a Pipe Organ Recital in Sibley Chapel last week, a "Prayer and Cradle Song" by Guil-mont showing unusual ability and technique. Miss Delia Kinkade of Lake Village, who was a summer guest in the Ganner home, played an "Intermezzo" by Kahn.

St. Charles (Mo.) Banner-Herald

March 18 -

MYSTERIOUS DOINGS HERALD

ADVENT OF MUSICAL COMEDY

AT LINDENWOOD MARCH 21

A stranger walking down the halls of fame at Lindenwood College, these days, might well wonder from the many signs reading "Seven Bamboo" "Seven Circle", "Seven Character", and "Seven .", if the college were going to introduce a novel course of mah jong in the curriculum. If his attention were sufficiently aroused, and if he could slip around corners, he would see two or three agile young ladies, practicing the "flea-hop" in a darkened nook of a corridor, or a circle of industrious girls feverishly sewing on queer looking costumes from Newspaper muslin." And if he were particularly sly he might peek through the doors of the auditorium and spy a lovely, blonde star, leading her troupe of cinderellas, in a quaint old fashioned dance, and a haired, red-lipped Russian girl, say "Ah, I drop ze leep steek" as she tweeks the cheek of a very tall, solemn-faced judge. He would glimpse a puffing, little dutchman, flinging his arms at a "pore and weak," but really robust nigger, who mocks his faintest blink of an eye.

If he is this clever stranger, his curiosity will be so aroused that he will linger a few days longer, to be exact until the 21st of March, to see not a perfected course in mah jong installed, but the finished "Seven Cinderellas" appear before the public.

This three-act musical comedy is entirely a student production, the lines being written by Margaret Ferguson and Dorothy Gee, and the music composed by Lillian Tweedie. Miss Myrri Rodney of the expression department, is coaching the acting, and Miss Florence Bartz, of the physical education is training the choruses.

Shawano (Wis.) Journal
Mar 20

SHAWANO GIRL PLAYS AT STUDENT RECITAL

Miss Gertrude Wallrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wallrich of this city, took part in a students' recital at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., playing Beethoven's "Pathetique Sonata." Splendid technique and clearness of tone quality made this piano solo one of special merit. Miss Wallrich is a junior at Lindenwood, having attended Rockford College and the University of Wisconsin during her sophomore and junior years. She is taking a music course and has done exceptionally good work in both piano and voice. On May 1, accompanied by Miss Ruth Alexander, of Ardmore, Okla., contralto, she will give a recital before the faculty and student body. She will receive her degree of Bachelor of Music next year.

Times, Mch 25

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE NOTES.

Misses Julia Ayers and Sara Shomberg, the new president and vice-president, respectively, of the Y. W. C. A. at Lindenwood College, have returned from attending a conference of Missouri Y. W. C. A. Cabinets, at Fulton, Mo. They will outline the college "Y" plan of work for next year (1924-25), at a meeting at Lindenwood in the near future, giving at the same time an account of the conference. Other officers elected for the coming season, at Lindenwood, are: Miss Virginia Symms, of Nevada, Mo., secretary and Miss Helen Lee Maupin, of Moberly, Mo., treasurer. Miss Ayers is from Kansas City, and Miss Shomberg from Altoona, Pa. The latter has also the honor of being first maid of honor for Lindenwood's May Queen of the season.

Star, Mch. 25

Lindenwood College.

Y. W. C. A. activities at Lindenwood College are already well launched for the next semester, as election of new officers has been held, resulting as follows: President, Miss Virginia Ayers of Kansas City; vice president, Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa.; secretary, Miss Virginia Symms of Nevada, Mo.; treasurer, Miss Helen Lee Maupin of Moberly. An election was held somewhat earlier than usual in order that the new officers might attend a three days' conference of Missouri College Y. W. C. A. cabinets, last week at Fulton, Mo.

Times
mch 24

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE PLAY.

Student versatility was set forth Friday night, March 21, in a Lindenwood College Athletic Association production, "Seven Cinderellas," in Roemer Auditorium. This was a musical comedy, written by Misses Margaret Ferguson and Dorothy Gee, assisted by Misses Helen Calder and Gertrude Bird. Music was composed by Miss Lillian Tweedie, and Miss Helen Holmes managed the production. Many clever hits on modern fads and fancies were introduced by the "seven Cinderellas," who were Misses Gladys Sullivan, Dorothy Gee, Carolyn Sheetz, Mary Sayre, Marguerite Mitchener, Esther Coleman and Margaret Ferguson. The play was skillfully advertised by posters in colors, executed by Miss Marian Gum, Corinne Placek and other students of the art department.

Globe Dem
mch 22

Hobein Addresses Students.

Frank A. Hobein of St. Louis gave an address Monday before the students of the English classes at Lindenwood College. His topic was "Shakespeare's Macbeth." He also made a brief address at the noon assembly of the entire school.

Globe - Dem
Mch 24

ART PROFESSOR SPEAKS AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Prof. John A. Ankeney of the department of art at Missouri University gave a lecture, "Foundations of Modern Art," illustrated with a number of slides, at Lindenwood College, Wednesday afternoon. He began with the period of "Classicism," and took up phases of the nationalistic and impressionist schools. Pictures of the Missouri State Capitol which he exhibited were much admired.

The art department of Lindenwood, under the direction of Miss Alice Linnemann, is devoting time to aspects of commercial and household art, as well as "art for art's sake." Miss Marian Gum of Oklahoma City, and Miss Corinne Placek of Nebraska, made effective posters of "Seven Cinderellas," an athletic association original entertainment which was given as a scholarship benefit Friday night.

Fulton Mo.

THE EVENING GAZETTE: MONDAY, MARCH 24, 1924.

TONIGHT AT THE GEM T DEAN IN and PATHE NEWS

On
The Mark of the Beast" by Thoma

FULTON GIRL WRITES COMEDY.

Miss Margaret Ferguson Composed
Words and Songs for Play to Be Given at Lindenwood.

Miss Margaret Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ferguson, of this city, recently distinguished herself at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, where she is a student, when she wrote the play and composed the words of the songs for a musical comedy to be given by the athletic association. She was assisted by Miss Dorothy Gee, of Denison, Tex.

The four-act comedy, written by Miss Ferguson, "Seven Cinderellas," concerns seven actresses, who, tired of the stage, go to the country where they dress and act the part of old-fashioned girls. They, of course, fall in love with seven college men, and their plan works beautifully until the director of their chorus appears, and reveals them as actresses. After temporary broken hearts and much explaining, everything ends happily.

This annual comedy given by the students of the Athletic Association is one of the largest plays of the year, and it is expected that quite an amount of money will be cleared for the Mary Easton Sibley scholarship fund.

Miss Ferguson, who is a senior, is prominent in all student activities, and especially in dramatic work, having taken a leading part in "To The Ladies," recently given by the "Lindenwood Players." She also will take the part of one of the Cinderellas in her own play.

GlobeDem
Mar. 26

LINDENWOOD Y. W. C. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Y. W. C. A. officers of Lindenwood College have just been elected for the coming school year, as follows: Miss Julia Ayers of Kansas City, president; Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., vice president; Miss Virginia Symms of Nevada, Mo., secretary, and Miss Helen Lee Maupin of Moberly, Mo., treasurer. The election was earlier than usual this year on account of the fact that the conference of Missouri College Y. W. C. A. cabinets met earlier. Miss Ayers and Miss Shomberg represented the new Lindenwood cabinet at this conference at Fulton, Mo., March 14-16.

Within the next few weeks the new officers will have charge of one of the weekly Wednesday night prayer meetings at the college, at which time the president and vice president will describe their trip and the conference, and will lay out briefly the plan for Y. W. C. A. work for the coming year.

Denison (Tex) Herald
Mar. 26

Writes Musical Comedy.

Miss Dorothy Gee, daughter of Mrs. Delle Gee, formerly of this city, was one of the writers of a musical comedy, "Seven Cinderellas," presented by the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., Friday evening, March 21.

According to the news received, it has been the custom for the past three years for the members of the association to write and produce a musical comedy entirely by themselves. Miss Gee, working with Miss Margaret Ferguson, wrote the entire play. The clever lines, the "catchy" songs and the unique costuming of the choruses gave "Seven Cinderellas" the air of a finished production.

Miss Gee had an important part in the play, being one of the Cinderellas. Recently she took part in the all-Spanish play presented by the Spanish Club of Lindenwood, of which she is a member. Miss Gee is also a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and the honorary literary society, Alpha Sigma Tau.

Globe-Democrat
Mch. 28.

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS TO PUBLISH WEEKLY

President John L. Roemer announced at Lindenwood College yesterday morning that the college will soon enter on the publication of a weekly, to be known as "The Linden Bark." It will be edited by the students, for circulation on the campus and elsewhere, and will contain news of all college activities, including class work, sports, societies, amusements, and all movements of interest to faculty and students. The name is chosen in correlation with the Lindenwood Annual, which is called "Linden Leaves." The college monthly "Bulletin," in magazine form, is to continue as hitherto. The first number of "The Linden Bark" will appear May 1.

A students' recital was given yesterday, with piano numbers by Misses Marjorie Groves, Annie Laurie Reynolds, Delia Kinkade, Mary Markham, Catherine Curry and Marguerite McCormick. There were songs by Misses Mary Elizabeth Sproul and Rachel Strong.

Times, Sports
Mch. 29

Reba Crowe Elected Head of Lindenwood Athletics

Reba Crowe of Olustee, Ok., has been elected president of the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College for 1924-25. Other officers are: Vice president, Helen Lee Maupin; secretary, Gertrude Bird; treasurer, Mary Maxwell. A track and field meet, tennis tournaments and a swimming meet will be held the latter part of April.

The swimming meet is to be by classes, and the following have signed: Seniors, Janet Robinson, Eugenie Andrus, Priscilla Calder; juniors, Helen Calder, Harriet Gum; sophomores, Margaret von Unwerth, Margaret Hildebrand, Theo. Meyer; freshmen, Gladys Osborne, Jean Johnston, Marion Merrill. Baseball, volley ball and archery will also be spring sports.

Globe-Dem Sports
March 29.

Freshmen Win Cage Title at Lindenwood

Championship basket-ball games have been played this week by classes at Lindenwood College with a final victory for the freshmen. The seniors played the juniors Monday, the seniors winning, 19 to 15. Tuesday the freshmen played the sophomores, with a score of 34 to 18 in favor of the freshmen. The final contest was Thursday between freshmen and seniors, the former winning the victory, 25 to 5.

Post-Dispatch
Sports, Mch. 29.

Globe-Dem
mch 29.

Lindenwood Official to Speak.

Dr. H. C. McPherson of the College board is to spend tomorrow at Lindenwood College and will give an address at the vesper service in Sibley chapel tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE GIRLS ARRANGE SPRING ATHLETICS PROGRAM

Lindenwood College Athletic Association recently elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Reba Crowe; vice president, Helen Lee Maupin; secretary, Gertrude Bird; treasurer, Mary Maxwell.

A swimming meet will be held at the end of April, with competition between classes, the following having entered: Seniors—Janet Robinson, Eugenie Andrus, Priscilla Calder; Juniors—Helen Calder, Harriet Gum; Sophomores—Margaret von Unwerth, Margaret Hildebrand, Theo Meyer. Freshmen—Gladys Osborne, Jean Johnston, Marion Merrill.

Students are to answer the call next week for track and field sports for spring, including baseball, volley ball, tennis and archery.

A track and field meet will be held at the end of April. There will also be a tennis tournament.

Star,
March 29

LINDENWOOD GIRLS' ELECTION
Athletic Association officers for the coming year at Lindenwood College have been elected as follows: President, Reba Crowe, Olustee, Okla.; vice president, Helen Lee Maupin, Moberly, Mo.; secretary, Gertrude Bird, Davenport, Io.; treasurer, Mary Maxwell, Lamar, Colo. Students will sign up in the coming week for out-door spring sports, to include track and field; baseball, volley ball, tennis, swimming, and a track and field meet will be held at the end of April, also a class swimming meet and a tennis tournament. Class swimming teams have been organized as follows: Seniors, Janet Robinson, Eugenie Andrus, Priscilla Calder; Juniors, Helen Calder, Harriet Gum; Sophomores, Margaret von Unwerth, Margaret Hildebrand, Theo Meyer; Freshman, Gladys Osborne, Jean Johnston, Marion Merrill.

Times,
March 29

CALL'S 'MACBETH' GREATEST DRAMA

"Of all the monuments erected for Shakespeare, none is so great as his own works," said Frank Hobein, in an address before the students of Lindenwood College. "The foundation for the drama is the battling of ambition against moral law, with the final overthrow of ambition and the triumph of right.

"Every poison in the animal and vegetable kingdom has a remedy, and the same is true in Shakespeare's works. Every tragedy has its antidote of humor.

"'Macbeth' is the greatest play on the English stage. It is the truest historically of all Shakespeare's dramas, and is the greatest in unity of action and tone coloring. It brings out the true Christianity of Shakespeare."

Hobein is the donor of a gold medal each year at Lindenwood for the best work in English composition.

Times, Mch. 29.

Dr. H. C. McPherson of the College Board will conduct vesper services at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, at 7 p. m. tomorrow.

Globe-Dem.,
Mch. 30

Recital at Lindenwood.
A faculty recital will be given at Lindenwood College, in Sibley Chapel, this (Sunday) afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, by Miss Paula Postel, organist, and Miss Lucia Hutchins, reader, with the following program:
Prelude and Fugue in D minor.....Bach
Sketch No. 4.....Schumann
Miss Postel.
The Dawn of a Tomorrow—
Frances Hodgson Burnett
Miss Hutchins.
Suite Gothique..... Boellmann
Introduction—Choral.
Menuet Gothique.
Priere a Notre-Dame.
Toccata. Miss Postel.

Globe-Dem.,
March 30-

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer will give a reception at Lindenwood College for the seniors Saturday. The class this year numbers twenty-nine, and commencement will be on Tuesday, May 27.

Post-Dispatch music
Mch. 30

Miss Paula Postel, organist, and Miss Lucia Hutchins, reader, will give a recital at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon at Lindenwood College, St. Charles.

Davenport (Ia.)
Democrat and Leader
Mch. 27

Moberly, Mo., Monitor-Index
March 19.

MISS MARIAN BOWERS IN LINDENWOOD PLAY

Miss Marian Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bowers of 816 Gilman road, took part in a play, "To the Ladies," given by the Lindenwood Players recently at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.

Miss Bowers, who is a sophomore at Lindenwood, is a member of the Lindenwood Players, the International Relationship Club, the Athletic Association, and is vice-president of the Missouri Club.

Miss Bowers will have an important part in the Athletic Association's musical comedy, "Seven Cinderellas," which is to be given Friday evening, March 21. *Moberly Monitor-Index
March 19*

MISS GERTRUDE BIRD
JUNIOR, LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE, WINS HONORS

Miss Gertrude Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bird of 1425 Grand avenue, this city, who is a junior at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., has again won collegiate honors.

Miss Bird was recently elected secretary of the College Athletic association for 1924-25. She assisted in writing and had an important part in the musical comedy, "Seven Cinderellas", which was presented by the Athletic association, Friday, March 21, and she took the part of the "Town Crier" in a program given at a dinner-dance a short time ago in honor of the May Queen. Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and her attendants.

The Davenport girl is president of her class and is business manager of "Linden Leaves", the college annual.

*Pictures used in Sunder
Mch 20*

*Globe-Dem.
Apr. 3-*

Students to Give Readings.

A students' recital in Roemer Auditorium at Lindenwood College will give a program this morning at 11 o'clock, in readings varying from Robert Browning's "Count Gismond," by Miss Marguerite Mitchener, to Alice Duer Miller's "Come Out of the Kitchen," which will be given by Miss Pauline Otto. There will be two other readings from popular writers. "The Only Child," by Tom Masson, will be presented by Miss Frances Brown, and "A Marriage Has Been Arranged" by Alfred Sutro, will be given by Miss Helen Holmes.

*Globe-Dem
Mch April 1-*

LINDENWOOD ATHLETES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Officers of the Lindenwood College Athletic Association have been chosen as follows: President, Miss Reba Crowe, of Olustee, Okla.; vice president, Miss Helen Lee Maupin, Moberly, Mo.; secretary, Miss Gertrude Bird, of Davenport, Ia.; treasurer, Miss Mary Maxwell, Lamar, Col. These will continue for the next semester in September. A track and field meet is to be held at the end of this month, also a class swimming meet and a tennis tournament.

The swimming teams already have been chosen as follows: Seniors, Misses Janet Robinson, Eugenie Andrus, Priscilla Calder, juniors, Misses Helen Calder, Harriet Gum; sophomores, Misses Margaret von Unwerth, Margaret Hildebrand, Theo Meyer; freshmen, Misses Gladys Osborne, Jean Johnston, and Marion Merrill.

*Henryetta (Okla.) Standard
April 2*

Miss Isobel Breese, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Breese of Henryetta, portrayed a masculine role with great success in "To the Ladies," a clever play recently presented by the dramatic organization, the Lindenwood players, at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. She also read before the faculty and student body at a recent oratory recital, the third act of Booth Tarkington's popular play, "The Intimate Strangers." Miss Breese is a sophomore at Lindenwood, and in addition to her regular college studies, has taken expression work.

Star,
April 4.

Lindenwood College.

Student recitals at Lindenwood College, more numerous as the commencement season approaches, are attracting visitors to the college and are proving quite as popular as the Thursday assembly speakers. Four students presented a notable program April 3, in which advanced work was shown. "The Only Child," by Tom Masson, was given by Miss Frances Brown; "Count Gismond," by Robert Browning, by Miss Marguerite Mitchener; "Come Out of the Kitchen," a scene from Alice Duer Miller, by Miss Pauline Otto, and "A Marriage Has Been Arranged" (Alfred Sutro), by Miss Helen Holmes.

Globe Dem.
Apr. 4.

ORIGINAL DANCE GIVEN BY LINDENWOOD STUDENTS

Interpretive dancing in a gymnasium program at Lindenwood College yesterday afternoon gave an original portrayal of the Chopin Nocturne, "The Last Rose." This was a dance in appropriate costume of a beautiful "rose," which bloomed late in the autumn, unfolding her "petals" long after all the summer roses had vanished. She danced into the storms of winter, frightened by "storm clouds" and "cold winds," until at last she comes to the finale, "For who would inhabit this bleak world alone?"

Other numbers, in which about 200 girls participated, were folk dances from Hungary, Sweden, Germany, England, Italy and Russia. There was also a period of what was called "natural dancing," such as children might engage in, based on fancies. These included "Blowing Bubbles," "The Dead Bird," "Lullaby," "Playing Ball," "Horses, Ducks, Elephants," "See-Saw," "Tag," "Running and Jumping." "Dance studies" included "In the Waves," "Chopin Circle," "Schubert Circle," "Eccossals" and "Waltz Study." The program was under the direction of Miss Marjorie J. Weber, dancing, and Miss Florence Bartz, formal gymnastics, assisted by Misses Florence Hanna and Marguerite Hersh, pianists.

Lamar (Colo.) News
April 2 -

LAMAR GIRL WINS HONORS

The following item was received from the Globe-Democrat at St. Louis, Mo., this morning and concerns one of Lamar's most popular young women:

"Miss Mary Maxwell, daughter of Charles Maxwell, of Lamar, has recently been elected treasurer of the Athletic Association at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., for the next year. Miss Maxwell is prominent in college athletics, being the head of the hockey team at Lindenwood, and a member of the junior class basket ball and swimming teams. This is her second year at Lindenwood, as she spent her sophomore year at the University of Colorado at Boulder."

Times, April 4.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE NOTES.

With the coming of warmer days, the physical education department at Lindenwood College rounded up its indoor work for the season, preparatory to a varied outdoor program Thursday afternoon, April 3, with a dance recital in the Butler Gym at 4:30 o'clock. Under the direction of Miss Marjorie J. Weber and Miss Florence Bartz, with Misses Florence Hanna and Marguerite Hersh as pianists, the possibilities of folk and natural dancing were beautifully set forth. Over 100 girls took part. Six distinctive foreign dances of folklore were presented, the Hungarian "Csardas"; the Swedish, "Tantoli"; a German dance, "Seven Jumps"; an English "Ribbon Dance"; the Italian "Tarantella," and the Russian "Kamarinskaia." A demonstration of formal gymnastics followed, after which there was a period interpreting children's rhythms, such as "Blowing Bubbles," "The Dead Bird," "Lullaby," "Playing Ball," "Horses, Ducks, Elephants," "See-Saw," "Tag" and "Running and Jumping." Dance studies were presented, five in number, leading to an original interpretation of Chopin Nocturne, "The Last Rose." This showed a lovely rose, blooming late in the autumn, unfolding her petals, but disappointed to be alone. A storm cloud frightened her, a cold wind blew upon her, which she tried to forget in dancing, only to realize that she must depart, to join the summer roses. "O, why must I leave this beautiful world?" was the final theme of her dancing.

MOBERLY MONITOR

Associated Press,
and Wire Service

By MOBERLY INDEX PRINTING CO., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 3

HELEN LEE MAUPIN HONORED

Moberly Girl at Lindenwood College Holds Several Offices.

Miss Helen Lee Maupin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Maupin of this city, has recently been elected vice president of the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a sophomore.

This is Miss Maupin's fourth year at Lindenwood; she was graduated from the academy in 1924 and entered the College, where she is working toward the A. B. degree in mathematics.

Miss Maupin has been for two years the treasurer of the French club and was recently elected to the office of treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. for next year. In the Athletic Association musical comedy given March 31, Miss Maupin appeared in the Mah Jongg chorus, an interesting feature of the performance.

Monitor Index Moberly, Mo.

*Post-Dispatch Socy.
April 6-*

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, gave a white-and-gold luncheon at 12:30 o'clock yesterday (Saturday), at the Missouri Athletic Association, with the following students as guests: Misses Eugenie Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Priscilla Calder, Gladys Campbell, Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Allene Guthrie, Esther Hund, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Isabel McMenamy, Helene Millsap, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Katherine Moore, Keo Richards, Janet Robinson, Green Ruedi, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Steedman, Gladys Sullivan, Katherine Tinsman, Helen Towles, Kathryn Weise, Page Wright, Catherine Yount, Martha Whaley and Geraldine Wills. These girls are all seniors, who will graduate next month. Dr. Roemer made an address, looking forward to the wearing of caps and gowns, a few weeks hence, and also to Lindenwood's centennial which will occur in May, 1927.

*Globe Dem
Apr. 7*

Teacher to Visit Europe.

Miss E. Louise Stone, head of the department of romance and languages of Lindenwood College, will sail for Europe June 5 and is to spend the summer in France. She will do graduate work at the Sorbonne in Paris for several weeks and is also to visit other parts of France.

*Globe Dem
Apr. 6.*

WEST PLAINS GIRL GIVES RECITAL AT LINDENWOOD

A recital will be given by Miss Gladys Sullivan, contralto, of West Plains, Mo., last evening at Lindenwood College, in Roemer Auditorium, assisted by John Thomas, pianist. Miss Sullivan graduates next month and will receive the degree of master of music.

Among the numbers that she sang were: "Strike Thou Hour," Bach; "Spirate Pur, Spirate," Donaudy; "Sappische Ode," Brahms; "Une Voco Poca Fa," from "The Barber of Seville," Rossini; "O Don Fatale" (Don Carlos), Verdi; "Estrellita," Ponce-La Forge; "Trust in the Lord," Handel; "Oh, for a Day in June," Spang; "Calm as the Night," Bohm, and "That Day We Met," Braine.

Recital at Lindenwood.

A music recital of varied numbers was given by students at Lindenwood College Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, with the following program:

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| Piano—Novellette | MacDowell |
| Evelyn Helwig. | |
| Sous Bois | Staub |
| Dorothy Kurtz. | |
| Barcarolle F-Minor | Rubinstein |
| Dorothy Rumph. | |
| Sonata Op. 14 No. 2 | Beethoven |
| Andante. | |
| Schubert. | |
| Elizabeth Ganner. | |
| Sonata Op. 110 | Beethoven |
| Andante Cantabile. | |
| Etella Skelton. | |
| Songs—Se come voi Piccina | Puccini |
| Villi. | |
| Frances Camp. | |
| Duet—Sous Le dome epais | Delibes |
| Lakme. | |
| Martha Whaley, Carolyn Sheetz. | |
| Piano—Tambourin | Rameau-Godowsky |
| Olo Morgan. | |

*Globe-Dem., front page
Apr. 6 -*

VOTE AGAINST BOBBED HAIR 18 TO 11

Lindenwood Graduates Entertained at Luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. Roemer.

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, entertained the largest graduating class the college has ever known, at a luncheon yesterday at 12:30 o'clock at the Missouri Athletic Association. The twenty-nine members constitute the first class that has taken its full four-year work from the beginning, under the regime by which, four years ago, Lindenwood advanced from "junior college," to full accredited four-year work.

Miss Helene Millsap, as president of the class, had a seat of honor at Mrs. Roemer's right hand. At the foot of the long table sat Dean Templin of Lindenwood, and Miss Elizabeth Steele of the administrative staff of Ohio Wesleyan College.

While the courses were being served, the journalistic students made up a schedule of the idiosyncrasies of this class. Contrary to the belief that most college girls are bobbing their hair, it was found that only eleven Lindenwood seniors had cut off their tresses, while eighteen still practiced the tedium of coiffing. The combined age of the class showed an average of 21.2 years. The two oldest girls in the class were both 23, and the two youngest 19.

The members of the class, all of whom were present, are: Misses Eugenie Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Priscilla Calder, Gladys Campbell, Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Allene Guthrie, Esther Hund, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Isabel McMenemy, Helene Millsap, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Katherine Moore, Keo Richards, Janet Robinson, Green Ruedi, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Steedman, Gladys Sullivan, Katherine Tinsman, Helen Towles, Kathryn Weise, Page Wright, Catherine Yount, Martha Whaley and Geraldine Wills.

*Canton, N.C., Enterprise
Apr. 4 -*

LOCAL STUDENT WINS ATHLETIC DISTINCTION

Miss Gladys Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Osborne, has claimed much attention for her athletic ability at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a student.

The following item received from the college will be of interest to friends of Miss Osborne here:

Miss Gladys Osborne, of Canton, has recently claimed attention at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., for athletic ability. In the inter-class swimming meet she distinguished herself for perfection of diving, and rapidity and form of stroke. It was largely due to her splendid performance that the freshman class won the meet by a wide margin of points. As a basketball player also, Miss Osborne has done good work, being a member of the freshman basketball team which defeated the sophomores and later triumphed over the seniors with a score of 25 to 8.

*Globe-Dem Socy.
Apr. 8.*

Miss Isabelle M. McMenemy, daughter of Mrs. P. S. McMenemy of St. Charles, entertained at a weekend dinner party two of her college friends from Lindenwood, Misses Martha Peppeldine and Katherine Fausett, both of Neosho, Mo.

Times, Apr. 12.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet Tuesday, April 15 at 2 p. m., at the Claridge Hotel. The hostesses are Mmes. Edgar Blankenmeister, O. E. Sanders, Joseph W. White, Lorraine Bernero, R. Humphrey of Webster Groves and Miss Laura Ellwanger. The program will be given by the Morse School of Expression. Nomination of officers will take place and a large attendance is desired.

*Times,
April 9.*

COLLEGE LUNCHEON TO LINDENWOOD SENIORS.

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer gave a luncheon Saturday noon to the senior class of Lindenwood, at the Missouri Athletic Association. It was the longest table ever seen at this annual senior luncheon, as 29, the present number, is the largest class of graduates that the college has had in its 97-year history. The bigness of the college as it now is, was recognized by President Roemer, in his address. He said he thought it had grown just about big enough, and most of the energy now would be concentrated on better and better work in the classroom, better equipment, and better educational advantages in every way. There were also addresses by Mrs. Roemer, Dean Lucinda Templin, and Miss Elizabeth Steele, registrar of Ohio Wesleyan University. Miss Helen Millsap, president of the class, also spoke, expressing the appreciation of the students. Members of the class, all of whom will receive degrees on May 27, are Misses Eugenie Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Priscilla Calder, Gladys Campbell, Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Allene Guthrie, Esther Hund, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Isabel McMenemy, Helene Millsap, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Katherine Moore, Keo Richards, Janet Robins, Oreen Ruedi, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Steedman, Gladys Sullivan, Katherine Tinsman, Helen Towles, Kathryn Weise, Page Wright, Catherine Yount, Martha Whaley, Geraldine Willis.

*Star,
April 12.*

St. Louis Lindenwood Club.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet April 15, at 2 p. m., at the Claridge Hotel. The hostesses are Meses. Edgar Blankenmeister, O. K. Sanders, Joseph W. White, Lorraine Bernero, R. Humphrey o Webster Groves and Miss Laura Ellwanger.

The program will be given by the Morse School of Expression. Nomination of officers will take place and a large attendance is desired.

*Clustee, Okla. Democrat
Apr. 8*

REBA TO THE FRONT

Miss Reba Crowe was elected president of the athletic association for the coming school year of 1924 25 of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Reba will be a junior at Lindenwood next year and during the past two years, has been prominent in athletics. She was captain of the sophomore basket ball team in the inter class contest for the championship and is head of the hiking branch of sports.

*Star,
Apr. 10 -*

Lindenwood College

Lindenwood graduates of this season are starting out with the intention of doing something, next year, to help the Sibley Memorial scholarship fund. If their plans carry, each one will earn $100 in some way, applying this to a total fund of $2,900, as there are 29 members of the class of '24. This was determined upon, at a luncheon given Saturday by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, at the Missouri Athletic Association. Miss Elizabeth Steele, of Ohio Wesleyan luncheon.

The graduating class is composed of Misses Eugenie Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Priscilla Calder, Gladys Campbell (of St. Louis), Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Allene Guthrie, Esther Hund, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Isabel McMenemy, Helene Millsap, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Katherine Moore, Keo Richards, Janet Robinson, Oreen Ruedi, Carolyn Sheetz, Ruth Steedman, Gladys Sullivan, Katherine Tinsman, Helen Towles, Kathryn Weise, Page Wright, Catherine Yount, Martha Whaley, Geraldine Willis.

Globe-Dem Socy.
Sunday Apr. 13-

A motor party from Sparta, Ill., consisting of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Jordan, Mrs. Howard Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McMillan, all of that city, together with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hanna of Clay Center, Kan., are guests of President and Mrs. Roemer at Lindenwood College for the week-end. They timed their visit especially for the graduating recital Thursday morning of Misses Florence Hanna of Sparta and Miss Lucille Jordan of Sparta, pianist and soprano, respectively. Miss Jordan sang, among other numbers, Tosti's "Serenade"; "Depuis le jour" (Louise), by Charpentier, and "Chanson Provencale," by Dell' Aqua. Miss Hanna, in her repertoire, played Kreisler's "Caprice Viennois," Liszt's "Etude D-flat major," a selection from Mendelssohn, and other numbers.

Globe-Dem music
Apr. 13.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CHORAL AND BAND CONCERT.

The Choral Club and Orchestra of Lindenwood College will unite in a program Monday evening, in Roemer Auditorium. John Thomas is director of the Choral Club and Miss Florence Howard, accompanist. In the orchestra Miss Agnes Gray is director, and Miss Helen Harrison, accompanist. The program follows:

- Boat Song Ware
- The Sea Fairies' Song Cook
- Choral Club.
- Piano—
- Variations Serieuses Mendelssohn
- Miss Florence Howard.
- Aria—
- Mon Coeur S'ouvre a Toi Vioz, Salut Saens (Samson and Delilah)
- Where Corals Lie Elgar
- Miss Gladys Sullivan.
- My Desire Nevin
- Hindu Slumber Song Ware
- Trees Hahn
- Choral Club.
- Reve Angelique Rubinstein
- Overture—
- Morning, Noon and Night Suppe
- Orchestra.

Wichita Falls (Tex.) Times
Apr. 11

MISS KATHRYN HOPPER IN RECITAL IN LINDENWOOD

Miss Kathryn Hopper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hopper of Wichita Falls, Texas, recently appeared in an expression recital at Lindenwood College, St. Charles. Miss Hopper, who is a freshman in the expression department, read J. M. Barrie's "Two of Them."

Miss Hopper graduated from the Wichita Falls High School last year, taking part in several dramatic productions. She entered Lindenwood College last fall with three other Wichita Falls girls.

Post-Dispatch
Apr. 13

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the Claridge Hotel. The hostesses will be Mmes. Edgar Blankenmeister, O. K. Sanders, Joseph W. White, Lorraine Bernero, R. Humphrey of Webster Groves and Miss Laura Ellwanger. The program will be given by pupils of the Morse School of Expression. Nomination of officers will take place.

The S

Globe-Democrat
April 14.

'PLEDGES' FOR LINDENWOOD
HONORARY MUSIC SOCIETY

"Pledges" for 1924 have just been announced at Lindenwood College for Alpha Mu Mu, the honorary musical society of the college. They are: Misses Florence Hanna, Clay Center, Kan.; Josephine Jackson, Nevada, Mo.; Lucille Jordan, Sparta, Ill.; Gertrude Wallrich Shawano, Wis.; Catherine Curry, Denton, Ill.; Clio Morgan, Wyaconda, Mo.; Patti Hudson, Bartlesville, Ok.; Marguerite Hersch, Pagosa Springs, Col.; and Etolia Skelton, Princeton, Ind.

This honorary society has in its membership only those students who show marked musical ability, and who show high scholastic standing. Miss Gladys Sullivan of West Plains, Mo., is the secretary. She is graduating next month, with the degree of Master of Music, and recently gave her graduating recital. Other members are Misses Esther Hund, Virginia Bauer, Florence Howard, Helen Harrison, and Priscilla Calder.

Globe-Democrat,
April 16.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE GIRLS GIVE RECITAL

Miss Frances Camp, soprano, of Bement, Ill., and Miss Marguerite Hersch, pianiste, of Pagosa Springs, Colo., gave a joint graduating recital at Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, last evening, at 5 o'clock. Miss Camp sang: "Come Unto Him" (Messiah), Handel; "He, the Best of All," Schumann; "Thou Art the Night Wind," Gaul, from "Villi," by Puccini, "Se come voi plena to fossi," concluding with four songs, "Cara Selve" (Atalanta), Handel; "Ah! Love but a Day," Gilberte; "The Blind Ploughman," Clarke, and "Rose of My Heart," Lohr.

Miss Hersch's numbers were: "English Tune" (from eighteenth century), arranged by Harold Bauer; "Prelude and Fugue E Minor," Mendelssohn; "Serenade," Sinding; "Mazurka Op. 33, No. 4," Chopin, and "Liebestraum, A Flat Major," Liszt.

Globe-Dem. Socy
Apr. 15

Miss Helen V. Smithers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smithers of 6308 Enright avenue, will have as her guest for the Easter holidays Miss Mary Hagler of Washington Courthouse, Ohio, who is attending Lindenwood College.

Post Dispatch Socy
Apr. 15

Miss Mary Hagler of Washington Court House, O., a student at Lindenwood College, will come to St. Louis Wednesday to be the guest of Miss Helen Smithers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smithers, 6308 Enright avenue.

Times,
April 17.

What Women of St. Louis Are Doing

DEAN LUCINDA DE L. TEMP-LIN of Lindenwood College left today for Dallas, Tex., and in that city next Saturday she will meet many Texas alumnae of Lindenwood, who wish to organize the first Lindenwood College Club in that State. A luncheon is to be given at the Adolphus Hotel, at which about 30 women will be present, former Lindenwood students, now living in Dallas, Fort Worth, Denison, Wichita Falls, Caladian, Plainview, Smithville, Nazasota, Ozona, Amarilla, Jacksonville and El Paso.

Pittsburg (Kan.)
Headlight, April 14

Miss Markham in Recital.
Miss Mary Markham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Markham of 1704 South Broadway, Pittsburg, played Beethoven's Sonata Op. 10 No. 1, in a recital given recently in Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. This is Miss Markham's second year at Lindenwood College. She will receive a teacher's diploma in piano in May, and is to give a recital sometime during that month.

Times,
Apr. 17

The following St. Louis girls who attend Lindenwood College will return today for their Easter vacation: The Misses Wilma Niederlucke, 3583 University street; Gladys Campbell, 768 Clara avenue; Margaret Freudenstein, 4564 Chouteau avenue; Jean Haggengos, 3907 Sullivan avenue; Rose Lazarus, 6412 Enright avenue; Louise Nicholson, 6147 Columbia avenue; Ruth Steedman, 24 Thornby place; Margaret Wilson, 4176 Botanical avenue; Ethel Wiese, 4536 Holly avenue. Vacation began today and will continue until Tuesday.

Globe-Dem
Apr. 17

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS TO MAKE THEIR OWN HATS

Hand-painted hats in Bangkok and other fine straw, peanut braid and hemp, which are being shown as something new in some of the exclusive millinery ateliers, will also be worn by a number of students of Lindenwood College next Sunday, but the students' hats of this sort will be those of their own making. Apart from their formal work in art, the students are permitted original adventures into the practical. These conventionalized designs on the Easter hats, painted in oil, are interesting some of them, and others have taken up the designing of costumes. For the latter a money prize has been offered by the Lindenwood College Club of St. Louis.

Among those who have finished their "hand-painted hats" and are sure of wearing them are Miss Adele Herman of Kansas City and Miss Katherine Zeister of St. Charles.

Post-Dispatch
Apr. 17

Lecture on "Picturesque America."
Dr. Charles D. Williamson of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., will lecture on "Picturesque America" in Roemer Auditorium Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Wednesday evening. The lecture will be illustrated by pictures he made in his many trips to America's national parks.

Wahoo (Neb.) Wash
April 17

CORINNE PLACEK DOING FINE.
St. Charles, Mo., April 16.—Miss Corinne Placek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Placek, Wahoo, Neb., who is a freshman at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., has made several posters which have received much favorable comment. Miss Placek is specializing in art with the idea of doing commercial art work.
Miss Placek graduated last year from the Wahoo high school where she took part in all the school activities. She is very much interested in athletics at Lindenwood, giving special attention to golf.

Globe-Dem
April 19

MR. AND MRS. ROEMER AT RELATIVE'S FUNERAL

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College have gone to Morgantown, W. Va., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Roemer's brother, Clark Pickenpaugh, a business man of that city. He had been in poor health for a year, but death came unexpectedly Wednesday morning.

Pickenpaugh has often visited at the college and had many friends here. The funeral occurred in Morgantown yesterday.

Globe-Dem. Apr. 21

Lindenwood Holidays End.

Easter holidays at Lindenwood College will end tomorrow. St. Louis girls, who have been spending the vacation here and who will now return to their studies, are Misses Gladys Campbell, Margaret Freudenstein, Jean Haggengjos, Wilma Niederluecke, Rose Lazarus, Louise Nicholson, Ruth Steedman, Margaret Wilson and Ethel Wiese.

Post-Dispatch
April 17-

Easter Vacation at Lindenwood.

Lindenwood College, St. Charles, closed yesterday afternoon for a five-day Easter vacation. Most of the 400 young women students departed yesterday evening for their homes in various parts of the country. They will return Tuesday morning.

Star
April 17-

Lindenwood College.

Easter hats in the new hand-painted, exclusive designs, seen in some of the high-priced shops will be worn by some of the girls of the art department of Lindenwood College, but they are painting the hats themselves, mostly in oil colors. This is found to be rather difficult designing, but two girls who have completed the work satisfactorily are Miss Katherine Zeisler of St. Charles and Miss Adele Herman of Kansas City. The work is done on Bangkok straw, or peanut braid, or hemp, or fine straw, in conventionalized designs. These students are also making usable things in "tied and dyed," besides their regular art course.

Star
April 18-

Lindenwood College.

Easter vacation at Lindenwood College, which began April 17 and continues to April 22, brings home the St. Louis girls who are attending the college, most of them bringing other students from Lindenwood as guests. Among the number are Misses Rose Lazarus, 6412 Enright avenue; Louise Nicholson, 6147 Columbia avenue; Ruth Steedman, 24 Thornby place; Margaret Wilson, 4176 Botanical avenue; Ethel Wiese, 4536 Holly avenue; Margaret Freudenstein, 4564 Chouteau avenue; Gladys Campbell, 768 Clara avenue; Wilma Niederluecke, 3563 University street, and Jean Haggengjos, 3907 Sullivan avenue.

Globe Dem. April 23

ST. JOSEPH LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB ELECTS

Miss Florence Schaper, head of the sociology department of Lindenwood College, returned yesterday from St. Joseph, Mo., where she was guest of honor of the St. Joseph Lindenwood College Club, at a luncheon at Hotel Robidoux. This club accepted a financial challenge which Miss Schaper carried from President John L. Roemer to the effect that if the St. Joseph Club is successful in raising $250 this year for the Sibley scholarship fund that sum will be duplicated by another donor, so that the club may be counted as giving $500. This will be applied to the education of poor girls. The "next oldest alumna" of St. Joseph, Mrs. H. Kelly, of the class of '76, was present. Officers were elected, mostly from among the girls recently at the college, as follows: President, Miss Harriet Ridge; vice presidents, Mrs. V. P. Myer and Mrs. E. C. Schroers; recording secretary, Miss Betty Smith; corresponding secretary, Miss Helen Bayer; treasurer, Miss Ruth Melick.

April 25-

St. Louis Daily Globe-Dem.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE HAS "BUTLER DAY"

Memory of Benefactor Is Honored by President and Students.

"Butler Day" was observed yesterday by students and faculty of Lindenwood College, with a program in which President John L. Roemer gave an account of the life of the late Col. James Gay Butler of St. Louis, Lindenwood's chief benefactor. The portrait of Col. Butler had a place at the right of the stage, draped in an American flag.

"It was no breveted title which Col. Butler bore," said Dr. Roemer, "but one which he won by service for his country. He left his studies at the University of Michigan to enter the Federal Army at the outbreak of the civil war. He entered as a private and came out a Major. For a time after that he was in the service of the United States Government.

"He came to St. Louis, became very successful here as a business man, and left a fortune of $6,000,000, half of which he gave to Lindenwood. He used to say it was the easiest thing in the world for him to make money, but it was hard to give it away. He meant by that that he did not wish to throw it away, but wanted to give it where it would count for something. Men, he said, had so many prudential reasons why things could not be accomplished that at length he turned to women, who seemed able to do things that ought to be done, without regard to prudential reasons. So he kept giving steadily through his lifetime. The 15th of every month was pay day and he sent his checks to the Blind Girls' Home, Bethesda, the Children's Hospital and many other institutions, as regularly as he paid his employes."

President Roemer told of expansion at Lindenwood, recalling conditions ten years ago, when he and Mrs. Roemer were induced by Col. Butler to take charge of the college, following the death of Dr. George F. Ayers. There were then, he said, only Sibley and Jubilee buildings. Butler, Niccolls and Roemer halls have been added through Col. Butler's benefactions, and a fourth dormitory is now in process of erection.

Rev. Dr. W. M. Cleaveland of the National Council of the Presbyterian Church made a short talk. There were musical numbers by Miss Helen Hogeboom of Springfield, Mo., and John Thomas. The students sang college songs.

Star, April 25.

Lindenwood College.

Alpha Mu Mu, the honorary musical society of Lindenwood College, has announced its new pledges. They are: Misses Florence Hanna of Clay Center, Kan., Josephine Jackson of Nevada, Mo., Lucile Jordan, Sparta, Ill., Gertrude Wallrich, Shawano, Wis., Catherine Curry, Benton, Ill., Clio Morgan, Wyaconda, Mo., Patti Hudson, Bartelsville, Ok., Marguerite Hersch, Pagosa Springs, Colo., and Etolia Skelton of Princeton, Ind. Alpha Mu Mu was founded at Lindenwood in 1918 for the purpose of fostering a greater love for music and to encourage its enthusiastic study. It has also served to promote a feeling of good fellowship among the students of the music department. Only those who show special ability and have a high scholastic standing are eligible.

Dallas Lindenwood Club.

Many names known in Lindenwood College annals were registered during the Easter vacation as charter members of a new Lindenwood College Club, formed at Dallas, Tex., in Easter vacation. Texas women had not before organized, but they expect now to take a substantial part in the centennial celebration of Lindenwood three years hence. Dean Lucinda Templin, representing Lindenwood, entertained the prospective members at a luncheon at the Adolphus Hotel, where the room was decorated with Lindenwood pennants and banners, and the girls sang Lindenwood songs. Miss Juanita Tholl of Dallas was elected president, and Miss Ruth Murray secretary of the club.

Times
Apr 26

Globe Dem.
Apr. 27.

MISS HUND'S GRADUATION
RECITAL AT LINDENWOOD

Miss Esther Hund, soprano, of St. Joseph, Mo., gave her graduating recital, looking to the degree of Bachelor of Music, Friday evening in Roemer Auditorium at Lindenwood College. She was assisted by Miss Alberta Shell, pianist, with the following program:

Sweet Bird, That Shun'st the Noise of Folly (Il Penseroso) Haendel
 Perduta ho la Speranza Donandy
 Je Veux Vivre Dans ce Reve (Romeo and Juliet) Gounod
 The Singer Maxwell
 Mighty Lak' a Rose Nevin
 Miss Hund.
 Prelude and Fugue (D. Major) Bach
 Sonata Op. 14 No. 1 Beethoven
 (Allegro).
 Miss Shell.
 Aria—Ou Va La Jeune Indoue... Delibes
 (Indian Bell Song—Lakme).
 Miss Hund.
 The Lark Balakirew
 Polonaise (E flat minor) Chopin
 Miss Shell.
 A Spirit Flower Campbell-Tipton
 The Crying of Water Campbell-Tipton
 Nature's Holiday Hageman
 When I'm With You Robinson
 I Sing to My Love O'Keefe
 Miss Hund.

Globe Dem
Apr. 28 -

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE
ANNOUNCES ITS OPENING

Lindenwood College issued its 1924-25 catalogue, in which the opening of the school years is advanced almost two weeks, so that the coming semester will not begin until Tuesday, September 23. This brings commencement day for 1925 up to June 9, instead of having it occur at the end of May, as has been the custom for a number of years. Commencement activities for 1925 will extend through a longer period than hitherto. They will begin May Day on May 30, 1925, followed by the baccalaureate sermon, May 31. Commencement week proper, will open with Class Day on June 8, 1925. Commencement day for the present season will be Tuesday morning, May 27, and Rev. Dr. Harry C. Rogers of Kansas City, is announced as the commencement speaker.

Lindenwood's coming centennial is suggested by the inscription on the catalogue cover, "Founded 1827."

Dallas News
Apr. 20

LINDENWOOD ALUMNAE FORM ORGANIZATION.

Miss Juanita Tholl was elected president and Miss Ruth Murray, secretary of the Lindenwood Club of Dallas, formed at a luncheon of the Texas alumnae of Lindenwood College of St. Charles, Mo., Saturday noon at the Adolphus Hotel. Miss Lucinda de L. Templin, dean of the college, conducted the meeting.

The club will meet monthly, the date to be decided later. About thirty alumnae were present, including representatives from Fort Worth, Denison, Austin, Sherman and Wichita Falls. There are about sixty former students in Texas.

Miss Templin made the principal talk. She said that Lindenwood is the oldest college for women west of the Mississippi River.

St. Louis Presbytery Decides Against Any Action on Doctrine

$50

Resolution for Reaffirmation of Acceptance of Bible Is Voted Down, 39 to 22, at Meeting.

By a vote of 39 to 22, the St. Louis Presbytery decided yesterday afternoon, at the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, to send no action to the General Assembly with reference to doctrine. The General Assembly will meet May 15, at Grand Rapids, Mich., and this would have been the last opportunity for local expression.

The matter was brought up as a minority report by Rev. Dr. Francis Lee Goff, chairman of the Committee on Ecclesiastical Affairs. Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, and Rev. N. L. Euwer of the staff of the Second Presbyterian Church, opposed it, as members of the committee, saying that the time was not opportune and that there might be no occasion in the General Assembly for any such defense. Rev. E. N. Goff of the Church of the Covenant, vigorously defended his brother's resolution. Rev. W. M. Hutchison demanded a vote by roll-call, which was taken, 39 for and 22 against.

Dr. Goff's resolution presented a reaffirmation of "the acceptance of the Bible as God's word, inspired in all its parts by the Holy Spirit, a revelation of God's purpose and plan for the salvation of the lost, and the only infallible rule for the faith and practice of God's redeemed people." Mention was made of "historic Presbyterianism," and approval given to the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1923.

Asked For Declaration.

The resolution included overtures to the General Assembly, to make a deliverance concerning its own authority to speak on doctrinal questions and also to see to it that "all ordained men in official connection with the Presbyterian Church conform unqualifiedly with the historical and official standards of the church." This was seconded by Rev. W. H. Hoover and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. R. C. Williamson.

Dr. John L. Roemer defended his opposition in the committee on the ground that it was "the part of wisdom to wait till these things come to a head." He said, "We may be anticipating difficulties that are not going to arise. We all probably believe theologically along the same lines as the chairman does, but we don't think it is necessary to take up the discussion before the real case is before us."

Rev. N. L. Euwer, also of the committee, counseled "quiet." He called attention to the phenomenal achievements of the presbytery, as had been reported in foreign missions and also its zeal for evangelism. "Let us continue to be still, and do more, and know God better in being quiet," he said.

Rev. E. N. Goff replied, "It is no time to be quiet." He intimated that there was danger of his Presbyterian brethren becoming Unitarians and he thought "the elders

*Post-Dispatch
April 27*

Former Lindenwood students who have friends here were mustered in the first Texas Lindenwood College Club, which was organized at Dallas, Tex., by Dean Templin, April 19. Miss Juanita Tholl of Dallas, was elected president of the new club, and Miss Ruth Murray secretary. Guests came from Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Denison, Paris, Austin and Stephenville, Tex. Among the members from Dallas were Mrs. D. O. Martin and daughter, Miss Margaret Martin, formerly of St. Charles. Others present were Wrs. W. M. McVeigh, Mrs. A. P. Barnett and Mrs. J. S. Fielding of Fort Worth; Miss Grace Chandler, Stephenville; Miss Marie Arthur, Austin; Mrs. Frederick Woolsey, Wichita Falls; Mrs. J. S. Knaur and Mrs. J. F. Tinsman, Denison; Mrs. C. A. Bloebaum, Paris; Mrs. L. P. Ashley, Mrs. E. W. Wilhite, Mrs. P. H. Diggle, Mrs. J. M. Hanna, Mrs. A. E. Atchison, Misses Ruth Murray, Beth Bryant, Eleanor Winn, Katherine Huddleston and Mildred Murray, all of Dallas.

*Globe-Dem
Apr 27*

About twenty-five women were guests in Dallas, Tex., at a luncheon given by Dean L. de L. Templin of Lindenwood College in the Easter vacation at the Adolphus Hotel. The table was beautifully decorated with pennants and banners. The affair resulted in the formation of the first Texas Lindenwood College Club, in which were included alumnae and former students of the college from seven different Texas towns, as follows: Mesdames William McVeigh, J. S. Fielding and A. P. Barnett of Fort Worth; Mrs. D. O. Martin and Miss Margaret Martin, Misses Ruth Murray, Beth Bryant, Eleanor Winn, Juanita Tholl, Katherine Huddleston, Mildred Murray, and Mesdames L. P. Ashley, E. W. Wilhite, P. H. Diggle, J. M. Hanna and A. E. Atchison, all of Dallas; Miss Grace Chandler of Stephenville, Mrs. Frederick Woolsey of Wichita Falls, Mesdames J. S. Knaur and J. T. Tinsman of Denison and Mrs. C. A. Bloebaum of Paris, Tex. Miss Juanita Tholl was elected president of the club and Miss Ruth Murray, secretary. The members are planning a June party, to be held as soon as the girls now at Lindenwood shall return home.

Times, April 29

Star, April 29

Lindenwood College Note.
 The Rev. Dr. Harry C. Powers of Kansas City, a member of the Board of Directors of Lindenwood College, is announced as the commencement speaker at that college, Tuesday morning, May 27. Lindenwood's catalog, which is just issued, advances the next school year about two weeks throughout, so that it will begin Sept. 23, 1925, and close June 9, 1925.

Lindenwood College.
 Memories of Col. and Mrs. James Gay Butler of St. Louis are kept fresh at Lindenwood, the college which they "adopted," by an annual observance in late April of "Butler Day." This took place April 24, all the students and faculty being present in Roemer Hall, where a very lifelike portrait of Col. Butler had a prominent place on the platform. President Roemer cited Col. Butler's early slogan for Lindenwood, "the Wellesley of the West," which is now transposed into "the Leader of the West," since the numerous new buildings have been erected and the curriculum has been expanded.

Globe-Democrat, April 30.

Children to Romp at Lindenwood.
 Beginning tomorrow the children of St. Charles will have playground privileges at Lindenwood

College on the campus from 4 to 5 o'clock on Thursday afternoons. They are to furnish "raw material" for the development of playground study by advanced students of the physical education department who are fitting themselves for public school or city work. Children will be taught games and songs and plans of a model playground will be carried out.

Globe-Democrat May 1.

Graduation Recital Today.
 A graduating recital will be given this morning at 11 o'clock at Lindenwood College, by Mrs. Florence Howard, pianist, assisted by Miss Martha Whaley, soprano, in Roemer Auditorium. Miss Florence Hanna will be accompanist. Miss Whaley's numbers will be: "In Pure Stille (Iris)," Mascagni; "Evening," Hageman; "Fern Song," Bullard, and aria, "Suicidia (Giaconda)," Ponchielli. Miss Howard will play "Old English Air," arranged by Harold Bauer; "Variations Serieuses," Mendelssohn, and "Concerto A minor" (Allegro Moderato), Grieg.

Star, May 1.

Lindenwood College Publication.
 The first number of "The Linden Bark," a weekly newspaper to be published by the students of Lindenwood College, came out today. It is a four-page, three-column paper, which may later be developed to larger size. The front page of the opening number contains an account of the recent senior class luncheon at the Missouri Athletic Association, and a picture of Mrs. John L. Roemer, who is sponsor of the senior class. Among the activities noted is the progress of the new four-story dormitory now building; the prevalence of "bobbed hair," and several addresses and programs. A "personal" column gives vent to bits of humor. A three-column "banner" across the front page describes the purpose and scope of "The Linden Bark," and the second page contains other editorials. The managing editors are Misses Gertrude Bird, Eleanor Brown, Ruth Kern, Helene Millsap and Ellison Morris, assisted by the following reporters: Misses Julia Ayers, Lynn Brown, Mildred Carson, Georgia Bell Donaldson, Elise Holovtschiner, Betty Rogers, Sue Salmon and Virginia Symms.

Times, May 1 -

Lindenwood College Paper.
 Fourteen Lindenwood students constitute the staff of The Linden Bark, a weekly newspaper of Lindenwood College, which makes its first appearance Thursday, May 1. It is a four-page, three-column publication, for the present without advertisements, in which editorial, features and various accounts of student activities are seen. Across the front page runs a lucid statement, after the manner of the New York Herald-Tribune, of what The Linden Bark stands for, its main purpose, as stated, being to bark the news. The staff is composed of: Managing editors, Misses Gertrude Bird, Eleanor Brown, Ruth Kern, Helene Millsap and Ellison Morris; reporters, Misses Julia Ayers, Lynn Brown, Mildred Carson, Georgia Bell Donaldson, Elise Holovtschiner, Betty Rogers, Sue Salmon and Virginia Symms.

New York -

The Billboard

MAY 10, 1924

Little Theaters

contest in Boston. It is said that David Belasco has secured a number of his stupendous and gorgeous lighting effects thru this method of experiment.

AN INTERESTING MINIATURE STAGE

Believing that to portray a character perfectly an actor must have a technical education, the expression department of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., has introduced a miniature stage fully equipped with furniture and a complete lighting system on which students must work out problems of lighting effects and stage settings.

This plan as an educational device received international attention in the miniature stage

*Stars,
May 12.*

Lindenwood College Activities.

The coming two weeks at Lindenwood College will be full of social features, which will run a close second to the annual examinations that start Saturday, May 17. Commencement Day will be Tuesday, May 27. The Rev. Dr. Harry C. Rogers, a Presbyterian pastor of Kansas City, whose daughter, Miss Betty Rogers, is a student at Lindenwood, will be the commencement speaker.

*Globe Dem
May 12*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE PLANS PROGRAM TODAY

A studio recital by advanced music students of Lindenwood College will be given this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Margaret Hall. Miss Ruth Laftner will play Bach's "Fantasie and Fugue C Minor"; Miss Annie Laurie Reynolds will render the first movement in Beethoven's "Sonata D Minor." "Scherzo B flat Minor," by Chopin, will be played by Miss Lucille Krog, and Schubert's "March Militaire," by Miss Elsie Brachnitz.

Another recent recital was that of Miss Rachel Strong, soprano, and Miss Helen Harrison, pianist, Thursday morning. They gave a varied program, in Roemer Auditorium.

*Schuyler Co. Republican
Lancaster, Mo., May 8.*

Miss Ellison Morris of Lancaster, has followed the example of her brothers in identifying herself with a newspaper. Her initial venture is as one of the editors of THE LINDEN BARK, a new, four-page weekly newspaper which Lindenwood college, at St. Charles, has started with the issue of May 1. It will cover the field of student activities, and will endeavor to keep its workmanship up to the standard of metropolitan journalism. Miss Morris is one of the managing editors. In the issue of May 9, she has written a full account of the college celebration of "Butler Day" and also an "editorial" on the late Col. James Gay Butler, a benefactor of the college.

Times, May 12.

Students Visit Art Museum.
Students of the art department of Lindenwood College, in St. Charles, visited the St. Louis Art Museum last week under the chaperonage of Miss Alice Linnemann, head of the department. The group paused for special study before examples of the sculpture of the Greek, Italian and Renaissance periods. Members of the classes in representation, costume design and history of art made up the party.

Post-Dispatch Socy
May 4

A dinner dance at Lindenwood College was given to the students and faculty, with a number of the resident alumnae, by Dr. and Mrs. John L. Roemer Friday evening in honor of Dr. Roemer's birthday and his tenth anniversary as president at Lindenwood.

Davenport (Io.)
Democrat and Leader
May 2

MISS GERTRUDE BIRD OF
DAVENPORT AN EDITOR
OF THE "LINDEN BARK"

Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bird of this city, who is a senior at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., is one of the managing editors of "Linden Bark," the new four-page newspaper appearing at Lindenwood college every Thursday. The first issue was out on May day.

Miss Bird was selected to write the prospectus in the opening number which streamers the front page of the magazine.

Globe-Democrat
May 2

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE
STUDENTS GIVE BANQUET

About seventy students of the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College gave a banquet last night at Hotel Gatesworth, President and Mrs. John L. Roemer and several other members of the faculty being guests. The theme of "Seven Cinderellas," the association's musical comedy, was carried out in an amusing series of toasts, with Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves as "Shoemaker"; Dr. Roemer, the "Vamp"; Mrs. Roemer, "Arch"; Dean Templin, "Sole"; Miss Reba Crowe, "Toe"; Misses Margaret Ferguson and Dorothy Gee, "Tongues"; Miss Mary Sayre, "Buckle"; Miss Marjorie Weber, "Heel"; Miss Virginia Symms, "Strap"; Miss Lillian Tweedie, "Squeak," and Miss Florence Bartz, "Last."

Globe-Democrat Socy
May 4.

One of the largest entertainments of the season at Lindenwood College was a dinner-dance given Friday evening by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, in honor of the former's birthday, and the fact that this was also the tenth anniversary of the Roemers' coming to Lindenwood. Alumnae from the City of St. Charles were included in the invitations, and in all, nearly 600 were present. The favors were in yellow and white, and the same college colors were set forth in many spring blossoms. While in the dining room, students of the various classes made the air vocal with improvised songs complimenting the host, and with other songs familiar to the college. In the Butler gymnasium, which was hung with Lindenwood pennants, and in which also there were many of the yellow and white flowers, the students presented studies in negro clog dancing, and in Russian and Hungarian dances in costume. There were also interpretive dances by students of the natural dancing class. A dialogue, "Selling Hearts," was given by members of the oratory department.

Times Socy
May 5

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., entertained Friday evening with a large dinner-dance. The occasion celebrated the tenth anniversary of the Roemer's coming to the college. Interpretive dances were features of the entertainment.

Times, May 5-

Lindenwood Club Elects.

The Spanish Club of Lindenwood College has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Miss Helen Calder; vice president, Miss Marjorie Woolsey; secretary-treasurer, Miss Margaret Bloebaum; floor member, Miss Lillian Tweedie.

Prof. Fisher to Lecture.

Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale will give an address on "The League of Nations" this evening at 8 o'clock in Roemer auditorium of Lindenwood College, under the auspices of the League of Nations Nonpartisan Association.

Globe Democrat
May 4 -

Spanish Club Officers.

The following officers have been elected by the Spanish Club at Lindenwood College: President, Miss Helen Calder; vice president, Miss Marjorie Woolsey; secretary-treasurer, Miss Margaret Bloebaum; floor member, Miss Lillian Tweedie.

*Herald and Presbyter
April 30-*

Lindenwood College has been enlarging its resources of sympathy and loyalty by the organization recently of several local clubs of alumnae and former students in different cities. The latest of these is a banding together of the Texas "girls" who attended Lindenwood, in a club at Dallas, Tex., during the Easter vacation. This was attended by Dean Templin. Other members of the faculty were guests, on invitation, at demonstrations in the same period, at Kansas City and St. Joseph, by Lindenwood clubs of old students, who have expressed the intention to take a substantial part in raising a scholarship fund with which to commemorate the college centennial in May, 1927.

*Globe-Democrat
May 7 -*

Graduating Recital Given.

A graduating recital of piano numbers was given yesterday afternoon by Misses Clio Morgan and Marguerite McCormick at 5 o'clock at Roemer Auditorium of Lindenwood College. Parts of two of Beethoven's sonatas were played, respectively, by the two performers. Miss Morgan also rendered "Harmonious Blacksmith," by Handel; "Scherzo E minor," by Mendelssohn; "Hark, Hark! the Lark!" by Schubert-Liszt. Miss McCormick played Schubert's "Impromptu," E flat; "Nocturne," F minor, by Chopin, and "Etude de Concert," by MacDowell.

*Princeton, Ind.,
Clarion News
April 30*

PRAISE FOR PRINCETON
MUSIC COURSE SUUDENT

The parents of Miss Etolia Skelton, a student at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., have received a letter from the dean, Lucinda de L. Templin, stating that Miss Skelton has been elected to a membership in Alpha Mu Mu, the honorary musical society of the college. This, the dean writes, is the highest honor conferable. The Princeton girl is complimented by the dean for the high class of her work in music.

*Nevada (Mo.) Daily Mail,
May 2*

MISS SYMNS MEMBER OF COLLEGE PAPER STAFF

Miss Virginia Symns of Nevada has been chosen as a member of the student staff of a new weekly newspaper, the Linden Bark, published on Thursdays at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. The first issue of this paper appeared May 1. Miss Symns is a freshman at Lindenwood, and is inclined toward journalism. Linden Bark is named because of the linden trees on the campus. It will supplement the Lindenwood Bulletin, a monthly magazine long in existence, the later publication being intended especially for campus circulation.

*Watchman-Advocate,
Clayton, May 6 -*

Lindenwood College
Students Give Banquet

About 70 students of the Athletic Association of Lindenwood College gave a banquet Thursday night at Hotel Gatesworth, President and Mrs. John L. Roemer and several other members of the faculty being guests. The theme of "Seven Cinderellas," the association's musical comedy, was carried out in an amusing series of toasts, with Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves as "Shoemaker"; Dr. Roemer, the "Vamp"; Mrs. Roemer, "Arch"; Dean Templin, "Sole"; Miss Reba Crowe, "Toe"; the Misses Margaret Ferguson and Dorothy Gee, "Tongues"; Miss Mary Sayre, "Buckle"; Miss Marjorie Weber, "Heel"; Miss Virginia Symns, "Strap"; Miss Lillian Tweedle, "Squeak," and Miss Florence Bartz, "Last."

*Globe-Democrat
Sports, May 10-*

Junior Freshmen at Lindenwood Win, 5-3

Baseball played by interclass teams on the campus at Lindenwood College, as a part of Field Day exercises Thursday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the junior freshman team over the senior sophomore team by a score of 5 to 3. In track events the sophomores surpassed other classes. Honorable mention was made of the work of Reba Crowe, Ruth Rodda (freshman) and Verna Meyer.

*Herald and Presbyter,
May 7.*

Rev. Harry C. Rogers, D.D., of Kansas City, is announced as the Commencement day speaker at Lindenwood College, Tuesday morning, May 27. Dr. Rogers is a member of the Board of Directors. The college catalogue for 1924-'25, just issued, advances the school year two weeks, so that the opening day is now Sept. 23, 1924, and next year's closing will be June 9, 1925.

*Globe-Democrat
May 9.*

LINDENWOOD SOPHS HAZED BY JUNIORS

One Girl Compelled to Sing Her Laundry List to "America."

The incongruous and mirth-provoking sight of a sophomore at Lindenwood College who was forced to sing her laundry list to the tune of America from the steps of Butler Hall, amused passersby yesterday afternoon. The young woman was Miss Marguerite Mitchener and the performance done at the request of the president of the Junior class, as a part of a program annually carried out by the juniors on "Junior Day," much to the humiliation of the Sophomores.

The sophomores' troubles increased three-fold this year, however, when the juniors, through their president, Miss Helen Calder, delivered a long ukase expanding the "period of torture" from the customary twenty-four hours to three days.

As a result, for the past two days, the sophomores have been a muchly harassed group. The whole class, of which Miss Mary Hagler is the presiding officer, is obliged, each one, to carry a doll and a brick all day long, to and from the study classes. The purpose of the doll, the juniors explained, is to "keep the sophomores' childish minds amused," and the brick is to "teach them to remember." It is a breach of etiquette on the part of the sophomores to throw the "Irish confetti."

To add further to the sophomores' grief, each one is obliged to "crow the hour." This has been going on, as regularly as the college bells ring, since yesterday and the day before. In addition to this the "sophs" must walk backward all the time they are in Roemer Hall. As this hall is the place for all class rooms, and as there are stairways to climb, each sophomore, with her brick and doll necessarily must "watch her step."

During "Junior Day," which expires at sunset tonight, the sophomores are made to appear dressed as children, "as their mother's would wish to see them," according to Miss Calder. The prescribed dress is sandals, or low heeled oxfords, dresses one inch below the knee, no jewelry, hair in childish fashion tied with large blue hair ribbon in a bow.

*Post-Dispatch
May 9*

DR. H. C. ROGERS TO SPEAK AT LINDENWOOD COMMENCEMENT

Dr. Harry C. Rogers, pastor of the Linwood Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo., will be the Commencement Day speaker at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Tuesday morning, May 27. Dr. Rogers, a member of the college board of directors, has spoken at Lindenwood on several previous occasions.

The seniors have chosen Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" for this year's May Day play, which they will present on the college campus, Saturday evening, May 24.

*Times Scoop,
May 10*

The Junior Class of Lindenwood College entertained the junior class with a dinner at the Gatesworth Hotel last night. Approximately 75 guests attended the affair, which was a culmination of Junior Week. President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Dr. R. S. Calder and Dean Lucinda Tempelin responded to toasts.

*Star,
May 10*

BASEBALL GAME AT LINDENWOOD WON BY JUNIORS AND 'FROSH'

Chief in interest at Field Day at Lindenwood College, yesterday afternoon, was an interclass baseball game. A victory resulted, 5-3, for the junior-freshman team over the sophomore-senior team.

The track meet was won by the sophomores, especial mention being given to Reba Crowe, Ruth Rodda (freshman) and Verna Meyer.

Omaha, Neb.,
Evening World-Journal
May 7.

ON COLLEGE PAPER.
Miss Elice Holovtchiner, who after completing high school work in Omaha entered Lindenwood college, has been appointed on the staff of a new student weekly publication, "The Linden Bark," published at St. Charles, Mo., at the college. It consists of four pages, filled with news stories and comment on local matters and is particularly for campus circulation, among the 450 girls and the faculty. This newspaper takes its name from linden trees on the campus, and its opening number, May 1, announced that it would "bark the news."

Globe Dem
May 11

ARIEL GROSS' PROGRAM
AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.
Miss Ariel Gross, pianist, of the faculty of Lindenwood College, will study this summer in Fontainebleau, an hour's ride from Paris, under the instruction of Isador Phillippe. Miss Gross gave her first recital in two or three years, last Sunday afternoon, at Roemer Hall, Lindenwood, when her poetic interpretation and brilliant technique were much spoken of. Miss Gross is a graduate of the New England Conservatory, and has been a student under Carl Baermann and E. R. Kroeger.
Her program of Sunday afternoon follows:
Sonata, Moonlight Beethoven
Nocturne G major Chopin
Impromptu C sharp minor Chopin
Polka de W. R. Rachmaninoff
Rigoletto Fantasia Liszt
Liebestraum No. 3 Liszt
Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 2 Liszt

Globe Democrat
May 11 Friday

A pleasant social event marking the near approach of commencement was the dinner party to about seventy-five guests given for Lindenwood College last evening at the Gatesworth Hotel. The junior class of the college was host to the senior class, all merry animosities between classes being finally abandoned. From the faculty were present President and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Dean Lucinda Templin and Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Calder. Prominent in the program was Miss Helen Calder, president of the juniors, who was toastmistress, and Miss Helene Millisap, president of the seniors, who responded to the greetings.

Minneapolis, Minn. Journal
April 6.

April 6, 1924.

Two Minnesota Girls
Tell 'Em How It's Done
North of Dixie Line

MISS MARION MERRILL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Merrill, 1822 Emerson avenue S., Minneapolis, gave skiing lessons this last winter to the other girls of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a student. Miss Margaret Hildebrand of Biwabik, Minn., assisted Miss Merrill in showing girls from southern homes how skiing was done. One of their most promising pupils was Miss Bertha Hall of Corpus Christi, Texas, who had never seen more than a half inch of snow until she came to Lindenwood. Miss Merrill is treasurer of the freshman class and a member of the Odds and Ends club, a club made up of girls from distant states.

Globe-Democrat
May 17, 1924.

Addressed Sikeston Commencement.
President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College gave the commencement address yesterday at Sikeston, Mo., for the Sikeston High School.

Globe Democrat, May 17

Lindenwood Junior Recital.
Miss Virginia Bauer of Mitchell, S. D., gave a junior recital at Lindenwood College, Roemer Hall, last evening. She presented four studies, beginning with Beethoven's sonata, "Farewell," and including compositions by Chopin, Bach and Tschai-kowsky.

LINDENWOOD Y. W. C. A.
GIRLS STAGE CIRCUS

"Spark Plug" on Tightrope Is One of Big Features.

Y. W. C. A. girls at Lindenwood College relaxed from the serious side of life Friday evening to give a circus in Butler Gym. They were booked as the "Ringless Sisters," and announced that, since examinations were impending, they desired to "take the minds of sad students from the sorrowful fact that Friday was the last day of classes."

After a circus parade at 4 o'clock from Butler to Roemer, then to the tearoom, Nicolls, Sibley and Nicolls, the real performance began at 8 o'clock in the gym. Here the entire west end was taken up by the "big top," in which three performances took place during the evening.

The ringmaster, tall, blonde, in striking stock, frock coat, silk hat, soldier's trousers and diamond stud, was Miss Florence Good. Miss Eileen Denning, directing the "bandaline band," brought out the prima donna, Miss Dorothy Hall. "Spark Plug," a horse walking the tight rope, performed under the direction of Miss Jo Simmons, was "Dainty Dolly," dancer, tight-rope walker and bareback rider. Because of a faulty shoe "Spark Plug" fell from the rope and came to pieces as Misses Janice Johnson and Lucille Krog, to be carried out by stage hands. A wild west show and a champion featherweight wrestlers' contest were clever attractions, and the show concluded with a gypsy scene.

The big "free event" was a silhouette performance behind windows, when Lindenwood girls passed in shadow review. The "filling station" on the midway was a place where "red crown lemonade" was served. There were ten dazzling side shows, including the spider woman, the Siamese twins, the snake charmer and the bearded lady. A beautiful outdoor Japanese tea garden served as a rendezvous from the circus clamor within.

*Globe-Dem.
May 19.*

Star, May 17

Lindenwood College Recitals.

Some of the best numbers of graduating recitals of the season at Lindenwood College have been selected for a radio broadcasting program from 7 to 8 p. m. Wednesday at Stix, Baer & Fuller's sending station. The college quartet, composed of Misses Esther Hund, Martha Whaley, Ruth Alexander and Gladys Sullivan, will give college songs as the opening number, and will also sing "My Desire," by Nevin. Piano selections by Miss Marguerite McCormick, Miss Virginia Bauer and Miss Florence Howard are to be interspersed with vocal solos by the members of the quartet. There will also be a reading by Miss Helen Holmes, "A Few Facts About Lindenwood."

Times, May 17-

Lindenwood College News.

Lindenwood College girls will give a radio program to be broadcast by Stix, Baer & Fuller, Wednesday evening, May 21, from 7 to 8 o'clock. College songs will be rendered by the Lindenwood Quartet, composed of Misses Esther Hund, Martha Whaley, Ruth Alexander and Gladys Sullivan. In the center of the program will be a reading, "A Few Facts About Lindenwood," by Miss Helen Holmes. There will also be varied musical numbers—songs by Miss Alexander, "Indian Love Lyrics" and "Trees," by Rasbach; a piano selection, "Etude de Concert" (MacDowell), by Miss Marguerite McCormick; songs by Miss Whaley, "Aria—Sulcidio" (Gloconda), Ponchielli, and "Fern Song," Bullard; two piano numbers by Miss Virginia Bauer, "Prelude and Fugue," Bach, and "Two Etudes, Nos. 13 and 21," Chopin; as also the piano "Variations Serieuses," Mendelssohn, played by Miss Florence Howard, and two groups of songs, "Aria—Bell Song" (Lakme), Delibes, and "A Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton, both by Miss Hund; and "Aria—O Don Fatale" (Don Carlos), Verdi, and "My Cornish Haven," Vaughn, both by Miss Sullivan. The program will close with "My Desire," Nevin, by the Lindenwood Quartet.

Y. W. C. A. Plans Circus. The "Ringless Sisters" of the Y.

W. C. A. at Lindenwood College will give a "circus" Friday evening in Butler Gymnasium. Many unusual numbers are promised.

1924

SUNDAY, MAY 4,

KANSAS CITY JOURNAL-POST,

FOUR K. C. GIRLS ON NEW COLLEGE PAPER STAFF

FOUR young women of Kansas City are on the staff of the weekly Linden Bark, a newspaper published at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Left to right—Miss Lynn Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darius A. Brown, 6520 Lyndon road (Photo by Miss Reineke); Miss Elizabeth Rogers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Rogers, 1618 Linwood boulevard (Photo by Sid Whiting, St. Louis); Miss Georgia Belle Donaldson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Donaldson, 3701 Broadway (Photo by Cornish-Baker), and Miss Julia Dixon Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Ayers, 3333 Virginia avenue (Photo by Sid Whiting, St. Louis). Dr. Rogers, pastor of the Linwood Presbyterian church, Linwood boulevard and Woodland avenue, will deliver the commencement address at Lindenwood college May 27.

Star man 16

Times May 16

Lindenwood College Club Luncheon.

Invitations have been issued for the annual reunion luncheon of the Lindenwood College Club, which is to take place Tuesday at 12:30 at the Missouri Athletic Association. Reservations may be made by notifying Miss Mabel Mix, 5301 Raymond avenue, before Sunday May 18.

Lindenwood College Club.

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its annual reunion luncheon Tuesday, May 20, 12:30 p. m., at the Missouri Athletic Association.

Election of officers will take place. The retiring officers are: Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. Wm. Stewart, first vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, second vice president; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Mrs. Jos. White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger, corresponding secretary, and Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor. Reservations should be made before May 18 with Miss Mabel Nix, 5031 Raymond avenue.

Times
May 16

Lindenwood College.
About 25 students of Lindenwood College went to original sources for their study of sociology and criminology, and visited the St. Charles County Jail recently, accompanied by their instructors, Dean Templin and Miss Schaper. They went with critical eyes, to see if there were any imperfections in the construction or administration of the jail, but their instructions were also to "notice without seeming to stare." They even went to the solitary confinement cells, and the trap-door which has been sprung for hangings. It was a good reaction from this, for them to sing some of their college songs, by request, for the prisoners. A song asked for was "That Old Gang of Mine." In return, two of the prisoners sang "I Want a Girl Just Like the Girl That Married Dear Old Dad." Sheriff Grothe conducted the party, and explained the workings of the jail.

Topeka, Kan., State Journal
May 16

Miss Alberta Shell who has recently moved to Topeka with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Shell, appeared in a piano recital at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. She assisted Miss Esther Hund, of St. Joseph, Mo., who is this year receiving the degree of B. M. in voice. Miss Shell is in the academy department of Lindenwood. She is a young pianist of great promise and was highly commended for the skill with which she interpreted a difficult program.

Globe-Democrat
May 18

Globe-Democrat.
May 15, 1924

GRADUATING RECITAL AT LINDENWOOD TODAY
Miss Ruth Alexander of Ardmore, Ok., contralto soloist, will give a graduating recital this morning at 11 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, with Miss Gertrude Wallrich of Shawano, Wis., pianist. Miss Alexander will sing a group of songs from "The Garden of Kama," by Pindar, and also a selection from "La Gioconda" by Ponchielli, with other numbers. She is a member of the Lindenwood Quartet. Miss Wallrich will play "Sonata Pathetique" by Beethoven, and numbers by MacDowell and by Chopin.

Lindenwood Club Leader to Preside at Luncheon Tuesday

MISS AGNES J. ADAMS
T. KAJIWARA PHOTO.

Miss Agnes J. Adams, 4031 Shaw avenue, will preside Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock, at the annual luncheon of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club, at the Missouri Athletic Association. Part of the reports will be the narration of the club's successful work in the last year under Miss Adams' administration, in raising $2000 to be applied to a Sibley memorial scholarship fund at Lindenwood for helping needy students. President and Mrs. John L. Roemer and Dean Templin of Lindenwood will be among the guests, and Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger will be toastmistress.

Globe Democrat
May 18

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its annual reunion luncheon, Tuesday, at 12:30 o'clock, at the Missouri Athletic Association. Election of officers will be held. The retiring officers are: Miss Agnes Adams, president; Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mrs. Lorraine Bernero, vice presidents; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph White, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur Krueger, corresponding secretary, and Miss Lilian Zacher, auditor. Reservations can be made with Miss Mabel Nix, 5031 Raymond avenue.

Lindenwood College
Radio Entertainer

MISS MARQUERITE McCORMICK

*Globe-Democrat
May 18*

musical program by Lindenwood College of St.
Charles, Mo. College songs, Lindenwood
Quartet—Esther Hund, Martha Whaley.
Lucille Jordan, Gladys Sullivan. Song.
Miss Lucille Jordan, Piano solo, Miss Marguerite McCormick, Songs, Miss Martha Whaley. Reading, Miss Helen Holmes.
Piano solo, Miss Virginia Bauer. Songs,
Miss Esther Hund, Piano solo, Miss Florence Howard, Songs, Miss Gladys Sullivan, Lindenwood Quartet. German relief ad-

SID WHITTING PHOTO

SID WHITTING PHOTO

MISS GLADYS SULLIVAN and MISS LUCILLE JORDON of LINDENWOOD COLLEGE will Broadcast from W.C.M. this week.

Post-Dispatch,
May 18

The Lindenwood College Club will give its annual reunion luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 a. m. at the Missouri Athletic Association. Election of officers will take place. The retiring officers are Miss Agnes Adams, president, and Mrs. William Stewart, Mrs. Lorraine Berners, Mrs. Joseph White, Miss Mabel Nix, Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger and Miss Lillian Zacher. Reservations should be made with Miss Mabel Nix, 5031 Raymond avenue.

Advocate, Belleville Ill
May 20 -

MISS MILDRED CARSON
ON LINDEN BARK STAFF

Miss Mildred Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Carson of Greenville, who is this year a freshman at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., is a member of the staff of the Linden Bark, a weekly paper published by the students of the journalism department of the college.

Miss Carson is working toward the degree of A. B. with a major in English and a minor in French. She is a member of the French club and the Illinois club.

Times
May 19

Lindenwood College.

All the manifold activities of Lindenwood College are listed and illustrated, in the student annual, "Linden Leaves," which has for 1924 a handsomer volume than ever before. Gold-leaf is freely used, greatly enriching the volume, particularly in seven pages of campus buildings, following the frontispiece, in which dedication is made to Guy C. Motley, college secretary. Portraits of President and Mrs. John L. Roemer follow, as also Dean Templin. To each of the 28 seniors a full page is given, showing two portraits, the larger one being in cap and gown. It is likely that this year's volume will be entered in the Chicago Arts and Crafts contest, where under the same management distinction was won in the last season with the Annual of 1923. Miss Ruth Kern of Butler, Mo., has been editor for two years, being also editor of the Lindenwood "Bulletin." Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Ia., has been business manager. Miss Kern will graduate May 27, and intends to go into journalism.

Nickerson, Kan. Argosy,
May 15 -

Miss Eleanor Brown of Nickerson, who has included journalism in her studies of this year at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. has been elected as one of 14 students to launch a new college weekly newspaper for campus circulation. The paper, which is a four page weekly, is styled LINDEN BARK, because of the prevalence of Linden trees on the campus. In the second number, appearing May 8, Miss Brown has an editorial on the annual celebration of President Roemer's birthday, a current event. She has also a number of news articles, both in this and the first issue. She ranks as one of the five managing editors.

Globe Democrat
May 21 -

WCK—Stix, Baer & Fuller, St. Louis, 360 meters.
Noon—Musical program by Baum, Miller and Meyer. 3—Nysucak Bynbers, by Chas. Voerg. Address, P. H. Byrns, executive secretary Red Cross, "Common Injuries in the Camp." Musical program by Lindenwood College of St. Charles, Mo. College Songs. Lindenwood Quartet—Esther Hund, Martha Whaley, Lucille Jordan, Gladys Sullivan. Song, Miss Lucille Jordan, Piano solo, Marguerite McCormick. Songs, Martha Whaley. Reading, Helen Holmes. Piano solo, Virginia Bauer. Songs, Esther Hund. Piano solo, Florence Howard. Songs, Gladys Sullivan. Lindenwood Quartet. German relief address, Hon. George H. Moore, "Remember the Starving Little Ones."

Globe-Democrat Socy
May 22.

Many St. Louis friends of Lindenwood College will go out tomorrow afternoon for the annual art exhibit, which is to be held in the art rooms of Roemer Hall, from 3 to 6 o'clock. A prize for the best costume, designed by a member of the class, is to be awarded by the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club.

Charles Cosmos=N

Y 23, 1924.

ST. CHARLES, MISSOURI

FRIDAY, MAY 23,

WA

MISS CATHERINE YOUNT, LINDENWOOD COLLEGE MAY QUEEN

Mr. Roy Angler of Washington Courthouse, O., will visit his daughter Miss Mary Hagler. Mr. and Mrs. William Kant of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Webster of Carthage, Mo., will be the guests of Miss Harriet Webster. Mrs. O. F. Barclay, of Vandalia, Ill., will be the guest of her daughter Miss Bernice Barclay. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lynch, Misses Marie Short and Dorothy Belle Stallings of Granite City, will be guests of Miss Mary Frances Lynch.

Miss Jewette Farwell of St. Louis, will be the guest of Miss Nadine Ault. Miss Margaret LaPierre of St. Louis, will be the guest of Miss Margaret Boss. Mrs. Will Rodney of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of her daughter Miss Myrrl Rodney.

Mrs. W. Skelton of Princeton, Ind., will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Etolia Skelton. Mrs. H. C. Pixley of Ferguson, Mo. will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Ruth Pixley. Miss Pattie Hendy and Mrs. Charles Tweedie of Jefferson City, Mo. will be the guests of Miss Lillian Tweedie.

Miss Ruth Stewart of Lexington, Neb. will be the guest of Miss Roma Key. Mrs. J. F. Tinsman of Denison, Tex., will visit her daughter Miss Katherine Tinsman. Mrs. Delle Gee will be the guest of her daughter Miss Dorothy Gee. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Farris of St. Louis will visit Miss Katherine Tinsman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Ayres and son William of Kansas City, Mo. will visit Misses Adaline and Julia Ayres. Miss Marian Knaur of Denison, Texas will visit her sister Miss Katherine Knaur. Mrs. C. B. Maupin of Moberly, Mo. and Miss Katherine Biggs of Arrow Rock, Mo. will be the guests of Miss Helen Lee Maupin.

Miss Jeanette Clarkson of Clark-son, La., Miss Marian Stone of Canadian Texas, and Miss Tom Johnstor of Mangum, Okla. will be the guest of Misses Margaret Ferguson and Catherine Yount. Dr. W. E. Yount of Cape Girardeau, Mo. will visit his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Griffith of Rockwell City, Ia. will be the guests their daughter Miss Florence Griffith. Mrs. C. O. Carpenter of St. Joseph Mo. and her sister Mrs. D.H. Hawk of Omaha, Neb. will be the guests of Miss Mildred Carpenter. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright of Webster Groves, Mo. will be the guests of their daughter Miss Rose Wright.

May Day Exercises at Lindenwood

Lindenwood is closing one of the most successful terms of school in its history. The class of 1924 is the largest that has ever been graduated from the popular college and twenty-eight seniors will receive degrees next Tuesday. Since April 10th graduating recitals have been held at intervals and this afternoon the Art exhibition took place in the Art rooms, Roemer Hall from 3:00 to 6:00 o'clock. This evening at 8:00 o'clock the Students' Recital will take place in the Roemer auditorium and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Tomorrow beginning at 3:30 o'clock May Day exercises will take place on the campus. The May Day program at Lindenwood is always an enjoyable event not only for the students but the people of St. Charles who are welcome to attend.

THE PROGRAM:

The Revel in Sherwood Forest under the Greenwood Tree—The Wood-Sprites playing in Sherwood Forest find some strange-looking objects under the Greenwood Tree, May Poles, and a Throne. They dance, trying to see all there is to see, when in the distance they see people coming. As these people come nearer the Wood-Sprites run away, and hide behind the trees to see what is going to happen.

- And these are the things they see:
- Crowning of a May Queen
 - May Pole Dances
 - Robinhood, and His Merry Men
 - Children Playing Games
 - Shepherdesses, Treading a Measure
 - Milk Maids and Friar Tuck
 - A Wood Gypsy Asking Alms
 - Gypsies Dancing Together
 - Shadow of a Leaf Jesting in the Sun
 - Maid Marian and Will Scarlet
 - Dancing
 - Flower Girls
 - Villagers

Everyone takes part in the final merry-making, and then start back to the village and forest, the May Day Revel over.

After the last person has disappeared, the Wood-Sprites come out from their hiding places, peek around at everything once more, and bless Sherwood Forest for another year.

Those Who Took Part

- Villagers
- Flower Girls
- Children
- Shepherdesses
- May Pole Dances.....Sophomore Class
- Daisy Chain.....Senior Class
- Dances and Music
- Robinhood.....Schubert Op. 77. No. G
- Shadow of a Leaf. Anitras Dance—Grieg
- Wood Gypsy..The Gypsy Camp—Challif.
- Will Scarlet and Maid Marian—C. Chaminade. Op. 41
- Wood Sprites..Dance de la Fee Dragee
- Nutcracker Suite—Tschaiakowsky
- Gypsies.....Po.ka Miniature—Chalif.
- Foresters. Polonaise, F. Chopin, Op. 40, No. 1
- Milk Maids.....Tu.ips—Walter E. Miles
- Shepherdesses.....Comin' Thru the Rye
- Villagers.....Flamborough Sword-Dance
- Flower Girls...Romeo et Juliet, Ch. Fr. Gounod
- May Pole Dances. Country Gardens—Percy Grainger

The throne which will be near the Gables is out of the ordinary, being built in the form of a daisy. The queen and the maid will sit in the yellow center and the attendants will be seated in the petals. The members carrying a daisy chain, will form an arch through which the royal party will approach the throne.

Miss Catherine Yount, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., the queen, will wear a plain white gown of white Romaine crepe. Long panels of the material both front and back, will give a stateliness and will accentuate her queenly dignity. The only trimming is a cluster of white roses holding the draped skirt in place. She will wear white brocaded satin slippers and carry a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valleys. The queen is vice-president of the senior class. She is also secretary and treasurer of the Student Council.

The maid of honor, Miss Sara Shomberg, of Altoona, Pa., a junior and a member of the Student Council, will wear a dainty frock of pink chiffon over a pink slip. Pink lace and deep pink and silver rosebuds form the trimming. She will wear silver slippers and carry a Colonial boquet of pink roses and pansies.

Miss Mary Hagler, of Washington Courthouse, O., one of the sophomore attendants and also president of the sophomore class will wear a dress of cream lace over pale green. Aside from the richness of the lace, there is no trimming on the dress but a soft girdle of green and lavender ribbons. She will wear silver slippers.

complete her costume.

The other freshmen attendant, Miss Mary Yaeger, of Helena, Ark., will wear a dress of French blue crepe re chine over flesh colored satin. A panel of cream lace both front and back forms a major part of the trimming.

The second outdoor production to be given at Lindenwood will be presented Saturday evening when the members of the senior class will take part in "Twelfth Night". The cluster of evergreens between the Gables and the Tea Room will serve as a natural setting, while a string of overhead lights will be used in place at the ordinary foot lights.

As this is to be the first time a Shakespearian drama has been presented as the May Day play, every effort is being extended on the part of the coach, Miss Rodney, and all the actors to make it a worthy production. Especial emphasis will be placed on the costuming, and only strictly appropriate period costumes will be worn.

All the parents and guests are cordially invited to attend one of the best productions of this year, which will be given at eight o'clock, the night of May Day.

The Linden Bark of this week states that the following guests will be at Lindenwood tomorrow to witness the May Day exercises:

Dr. H. C. Rogers of Kansas City, Mo., who will deliver the commencement address will visit his daughter Miss Elizabeth Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cobbs of St. Louis, will be here. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Guthrie and daughter Jean of Macon, Mo. will be the guests of their daughter, Misses Allene and Mary Sue Guthrie.

Miss Jeanette McNea and niece Miss Elizabeth McNea of Cottonwood Falls, Kan. will be the guests of Miss Marguerite McNea. Miss Nettie Mandel of St. Louis, Mo. will be the guest of Miss Gladys Goldstein. Mrs. A. J. Barnett and James Barnett, of Cuba, Mo. will visit Miss Mildred Barnett. Mrs. R. Hahn of Steeleville, Ill. will be the guest of her daughter Miss Lydel Hahn.

Retreat for Singers.

Miss F. E. Oldfield, teacher of voice at Lindenwood College, expects to be a member this summer of a colony of singers at Schroon Lake in the Adirondack Mountains in New York, founded by Oscar Seagle, and approved by Jean de Reske. The purpose of the colony is to provide a place for study and rest to singers. It is in the heart of the mountains, twenty miles from a railroad station. Last year, singers from twenty-nine states spent their vacations at the colony. Forty of these afterward accompanied Seagle to Europe, to continue their studies.

*Globe-Democrat,
May 22*

*Medford, Okla.,
Patriot-Star, May 15-*

Miss Frances Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brown read "The Only Child" in a recital given recently in Roemer Auditorium of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. where she is a sophomore. She also took part in a short play "The Dear Departed" which was given a short time ago. Miss Brown is specializing in Public Speaking and Expression work. She is a member of the French Club and Shakespeare Club.

Star, May 24

Lindenwood College Club Reunion.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club reunion luncheon was held Tuesday at the Missouri Athletic Club, with Miss Agnes Adams, president, presiding. The following were elected: President, Mrs. Joseph White; first vice president, Mrs. Leonard Scott; second vice president, Mrs. Frank Koenecke; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Montgomery; corresponding secretary, Miss Aimee Becker of St. Charles; auditor, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry.

Guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Roemer and Dean Lucinda Templin of Lindenwood College; Mmes. John L. Payne and Littlefield, president and vice president, respectively, of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. L. E. Crandall of Chicago, former president of the club. Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger was toastmistress.

Times, May 24

Results, Election of Officers.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club Reunion Luncheon was held Tuesday, May 20 at the Missouri Athletic Association with Miss Agnes Adams, president of the club, presiding. Election of officers took place with results as follows: Mrs. Joseph White, president; Mrs. Leonard Scott, first vice-president; Mrs. Frank Koenecke, second vice-president; Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger, treasurer; Miss Aimee Becker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry Montgomery, recording secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry, auditor.

Mrs. J. L. Roemer and Dean Lucinda Templin of Lindenwood College, Mmes. John L. Payne and Littlefield, president and vice-president of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. L. E. Crandall of Chicago, former president of the club were among the guests. Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger was toastmistress, and called upon the following persons for toasts: Mmes. William Stewart, Joseph White, Leonard Scott, C. T. Chamberlain, Hattie Boetticher, Joseph Harper Edgar Blankenmeister, William K. Roth, Lulu D. Hynson, Harry Montgomery, Victor Rhodes, David Hardy, Waterloo, Ill., J. B. Brouster, Creve Coeur, Mo., Mrs. Hamil, Sparta, Ill., Mrs. Threodore Dodson Ryare, Jerseyville, Ill. Misses Agnes Adams, Lillian Zacher, Mabel Nix, Laura Ellwanger, Janet Stine of Webster Groves, Mo., Aimee Beckert and Miss Alice Linneman, St. Charles, Mo.

*Soc'y., Times, May 24
Soc'y.*

Alumnae of Lindenwood and others will go out this afternoon for the May Day "Revel in Sherwood Forest," which is to be a program of Old English dancing in costume, following the coronation of the May Queen, Miss Catherine Yount, who will be attended by Misses Sara Shomberg, Mary Hagler, Mary Sayre, Marguerite McNee and Mary Yaeger. The senior class will carry a daisy chain, and the queen's throne will be in the coloring and shape of a large daisy, her maids sitting in the "petals." The program will continue Saturday night with a senior class al fresco production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

Globe-Democrat,
May 21.

Lindenwood President Says Girls of Today Are Serious-Minded

Dr. J. L. Roemer Makes Surprising Statement at Club Meeting.

That girls of today are "more serious-minded" than they have ever been before, was the surprising statement of President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, at the annual luncheon of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club yesterday at the Missouri Athletic Association. The speaker said he could prove this assertion by having anyone listen to the college girls discussing their courses of study in the dean's office.

"I have never known such a great interest on the part of the girls for fitting themselves for life work," said he. "They want to be of some use. Quite a few of them want to be better housekeepers than their mothers and they want teachers' state certificates and there is a general scramble for degrees."

At this meeting, attended by nearly all of the seventy members of the club, Dr. Roemer announced for the first time that Dean Lucinda Templin, who has been with Lindenwood for eight years, will retire from the college at this commencement, in order to fit herself with an additional degree. He expressed regret at her departure and appreciation for her work.

Announcement was also made that a new dormitory is almost completed and will be dedicated next fall. The kitchen and dining room in Jubilee Hall are to be enlarged, not so much in order to increase the school numerically, Dr. Roemer said, as to "give accommodation for a reasonable number in a first-class college for women." All the Lindenwood clubs of the country, he said, are looking to the St. Louis club for leadership, although Kansas City is striving to rival this club in numbers.

Many Talks Made.

Miss Agnes J. Adams, the retiring president, introduced Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger as toastmistress and the latter presided at a clever program arranged as for the "ingredients" of a birthday cake. Miss Adams was the "flour," and told of the club raising more than $1000 for the Sibley Scholarship Fund, which was supplemented by a gift of $1000 from President Roemer. The latter was presented as "the master baker."

Mrs. W. C. Stewart, first vice president, was the "salt"; Miss Mabel Nix, treasurer, the "sugar"; and Miss Lillian Zacher, auditor, was the "measuring cup" for the "cake." Mrs. Joseph White, recording secretary, was the "recipe"; Mrs. Leonard Scott as the "oven" gave an appropriate talk. Miss Laura Ellwanger reported for the Membership Committee and Miss Chamberlain for the Program Committee.

Mrs. David Hardy of Waterloo, Ill., of the class of '76, commented on the large percentage of country young people who predominate in college life. Mrs. J. B. Brouster of Creve Coeur gave reminiscences of an earlier period.

Club History Told.

A letter was read from Miss Delia Gibbs, who attended Lindenwood in 1864 when Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley was in charge. Mrs. Warren Hamill of Sparta, Ill., told of Lindenwood teachers in the Sparta High School and Sparta girls at the college. Mrs. Theo. Dodson Ryan of Jerseyville, Ill., said that this town "has been represented at Lindenwood continuously since 1868."

Globe-Democrat
May 25

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club reunion luncheon was held Tuesday at the Missouri Athletic Club, with Miss Agnes Adams, president of the club, presiding. Election of officers was held with the following results: President, Mrs. Joseph White; vice presidents, Mrs. Leonard Scott and Mrs. Frank Koenecke; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur J. Krueger; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Montgomery; corresponding secretary, Miss Aimee Becker of St. Charles, Mo.; auditor, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry.

The guests of honor were: Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, Dean Lucinda Templin, Mrs. John L. Payne and Mrs. Littlefield, president and first vice president, respectively, of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. L. E. Crandall of Chicago, former president of Lindenwood Club.

Times,
May 24

Lindenwood College Graduation.

Twenty-eight girls, the largest number of graduates ever sent forth at one commencement at Lindenwood College, will receive their degrees Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in Roemer Hall. They are as follows: Bachelor of Arts, Misses Priscilla Olander, Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Roberta Guthrie, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Helen Millsap, Keo Richards, Janet Robinson, Oreen Ruedi, Janet Steedman, Martha Whaley, Catherine Yount and Caroline Shetz; Bachelor of Science, Misses Geraldine Wills, Gladys Campbell, Isabelle McMenamy, Katherine Moore, Katharine Tinsman, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Eugenie Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Page Wright and Kathryn Weiss; Master of Music, Miss Gladys Sullivan; Bachelor of Music, Miss Esther Hund.

Besides the foregoing senior college degrees completing four years' work, Associate in Arts for junior college courses of two years will be bestowed upon 21 girls: Misses Marian Bowers, Gladys Clifton, Dorothy Clough, Reba Crowe, Eleen Denning, Catharine Garrett, Josephine Gatteys, Elinor Grubb, Mary Hagler, Marce Hasbrook, Virginia Heinrich, Lucille Killingsworth, Rose McClelland, Hallie McKee, Helen Lee Mautin, Verna Meyer, Marguerite Mitchener, Mildred Morehead, Mary Margaret Perdee, Ruth Shapiro, Cora M. Wallenbrock.

The baccalaureate sermon by the Rev. Dr. William Crowe of Westminster Presbyterian Church, is an event of Sunday. The senior class has had Mrs. John L. Roemer as sponsor, and she will preside at senior class day exercises, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, during which a lilac bush is to be planted. The commencement address, "Life's Greatest Experience," will be by Dr. Henry C. Rogers of Kansas City Tuesday. Monday night the Choral Club will give a concert.

Religious Dept.,
Times, May 24

The baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class at Lindenwood College will be preached by the Rev. William Crowe, D. D., pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Roemer Hall, on "The Magic Touch."

Post-Dispatch, May 25

Several hundred guests from the city went to the May Day exercises at Lindenwood College, yesterday afternoon, where there was a "Revel in Sherwood Forest," beginning at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, followed by a buffet supper, with President and Mrs. John L. Roemer as hosts, and a play, Shakspeare's "Twelfth Night," by the senior class. The afternoon "revel" was staged "under the Greenwood Tree," where the crowning of the May Queen, Miss Catherine Yount, and the May-pole dances took place. Groups of students in fancy costumes gave a series of dances. The platform for the queen was in the shape and colors of a daisy, her attendants sitting in the "petals," while the senior class carried a daisy chain.

Butler, Mo., Republican Press
May 20

Miss Kern Editor of Linden Leaves

Miss Ruth Kern, older daughter of Mrs. J. F. Kern, is one of the managing editors of the new weekly paper "Linden Bark," recently established at Lindenwood College, St Charles, Mo. Miss Kern, who is a senior at Lindenwood is also editor of the College Bulletin, and the Linden Leaves, the College year book, and will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts this year. Miss Kern is expected to arrive at college in time for the May Day festivities on Saturday, May 24, and will remain for Commencement exercises on the following Tuesday morning.

Miss Kern expects to remain at Lindenwood during the month of June to issue the June edition of the Bulletin.

Post-Dispatch
May 25

28 LINDENWOOD GRADUATES TO GET DEGREES TUESDAY

Degrees for the completion of four years' college work will be given at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, at Lindenwood College, to 28 graduates, 16 of whom receive the Bachelor of Arts degree, 10 the Bachelor of Science degree, one Master of Music and one Bachelor of Music. There will also be 21 others to receive the Associate in Arts degree for finishing the junior college course.

The commencement address, "Life's Greatest Experience," will be made by the Rev. Dr. Harry C. Rogers of Kansas City. The Lindenwood Hymn will be sung in processional, and the Lindenwood prize song of the year, by Misses Virginia Symms and Elizabeth Bates, will be sung by the student body. Miss Ruth Alexander is to sing a solo, and Misses Martha Whaley and Carolyn Sheetz will sing a duet. The degrees and other honors will be bestowed by President John L. Roemer, assisted by Dean Lucinda Templin. A Lindenwood prize song of a year ago, written by Misses Jessie Schaper and Alberta Shell, will be sung in recessional.

Eighteen prizes are to be awarded, ranging from scholarship to athletics, and from good house-keeping to costume designing. In the latter field, a new prize of the year is the Nellie Don award for the most original design for a house dress and the most practical and attractive completed house dress. The donor is Mrs. Nellie Donnelly, a manufacturer of Kansas City, who graduated at Lindenwood 10 years ago.

Post-Dispatch, May 25

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club reunion luncheon was held Tuesday, May 20, at the Missouri Athletic Association, with Miss Agnes Adams, president of the club, presiding. Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Joseph White; first vice-president, Mrs. Leonard Scott; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Koenecke; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Krueger; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Montgomery; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Becker of St. Charles; auditor, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy Lowry.

Guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Roemer and Dean Lucinda Templin of Lindenwood College; Mmes. John Payne and F. H. Littlefield, and Mrs. L. E. Crandall of Chicago, former president of the club. Mrs. Arthur Krueger was toastmistress.

Dr. Crowe Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon to Lindenwood Class

Commencement Exercises to Be Held Tomorrow Morning.

A baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of Lindenwood College was given by Rev. Dr. William Crowe, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium. Commencement exercises will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Crowe spoke on the subject, "The Magic Touch." This, he said, can be claimed by those who have "contact with the divine," and who are willing "to bring their trophies back to God." His text was from the account of the miracle healing the lame man in Acts 3, to whom Peter said: "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk." The speaker said:

"He walked, to the astonishment of the crowd. These passing strangers were not able to give him a shekel, but they made a new man out of him. No other charity could have been so effective as that. By what means? That is what interested the bystanders. Explanations were demanded. The case was carried into the criminal court.

By Power of God.

"Today we repeat the question of long ago. By what power have ye done this? The answer is simple. The power of God applied through human agency. That is all. Behold a man with a magic touch. He can make the lame to walk, and can unloose the tongue of the dumb.

"How to possess this power? That is our quest. We are immediately met by a counter question. 'How do we propose to use it?' God is not seeking men whose aim is to become mere wonder-workers. Simon the Sorcerer was condemned for that, when he would purchase the gift. No, the gift of God, that gift which we need for efficiency in the performance of wayside ministries, is bestowed upon all earnest Christians who are willing to walk on high levels with their Master.

"It comes to those who pass through the beautiful gates of prayer and praise to God.

"It comes to those who know the meaning of wealth. You are privileged to be the possessor of something more real than material assets.

Spiritual Wealth Essential.

"We must have right conceptions of wealth, if we are to live in such way that the world is to be blessed by us. Material wealth is an accident. Spiritual wealth is an essential.

"If your spirit of service is for the applause of bystanders, you will fail in your life task. If it is that God may be glorified by your achievements, abundant successes are ahead for you. If the spirit of the divine is within you, and if you consecrate soul and body to the distribution of the spirit, a lame world will be made to walk. May every young woman leaving this institution of learning go with a clear understanding of the values of her talents as they are related to the call of God to high achievement in the years that lie ahead."

A musical program was given by the college choir, under the direction of Miss Paula Postel. Miss Rachel Strong sang: "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth." Those who are to graduate tomorrow were present in caps and gowns. Degrees will be conferred on the following:

Graduates.

Bachelor of Arts—Misses Priscilla Calder, Mildred Carpenter, Alba Chapman, Margaret Ferguson, Florence Griffith, Roberta Guthrie, Ruth Kern, Roma Key, Helene Millsap, Keo Richards, Janet Robinson, Oreen Ruedi, Janet Steedman, Martha Whaley, Catherine Yount, and Caroline Sheetz.

Bachelor of Science—Geraldine Wills, Gladys Campbell, Isabella McMenamy, Katharine Moore, Katharine Timman, Eleanor Moehlenkamp, Eugenia Andrus, Adaline Ayers, Page Wright, and Kathryn Weiss.

Master of Music—Gladys Sullivan.
Bachelor of Music—Esther Hund.

The Degree of Associate of Arts, for completing the junior college course of two years—Misses Marion Bowers, Gladys Clifton, Dorothy Clough, Reba Crowe, Eileen Danning, Catharine Garrett, Josephine Gatteys, Elinor Grubb, Mary Hagler, Marge Hasbrook, Virginia Heinrich, Lucille Killingsworth, Rose McClelland, Halie McKee, Helen Lee Maupin, Verna Meyer, Marguerite Mitchener, Mildred Morehead, Mary Margaret Perdee, Ruth Shapiro, and Cora M. Wallenbrook.

Diplomas in Music—Misses Florence Hanna, Helen Harrison, Florence Howard, Marguerite McCormick and Clio Morgan.

Diploma in Voice—Frances Camp.
Home Economics—Misses Mary Bramlett, Leona Clough, Constance Levy, Dorothy Towers, and Eunice Willbrand.

Academy Certificates—Misses Ethelyn Abraham, Roslyn Cohen, Margaret Enloe, Barbara Lundy, Annette Goldstein, Adele Herman, Audrey Jensey, Jean Johnston, Margaret Lynch, Edwina Reeves, Edna Steels, Frances Stumberg, Dorothy White, and Beverly Wurtele.

Certificates in Music—Misses Ada Bruere, Priscilla Calder, Elizabeth Ganner, Mae Kane, Della Kincaid, and Mary Markham.

Public School Music—Misses Virginia Bauer, Evelyn Helwig, Lucille Jordan, Virginia Litzeneiner, Rachel Strong, and Etolia Skelton.

Public School Art—Ada Hemingway.
Oratory—Misses Lydell Hahn, Theo. Meyer, and Harriet Webster.

Business—Misses Mildred Barnett, Leona Ehrhard, Helen Saunders, and Frances Stanford.

State certificates to teach will be bestowed on thirty students.

*Initial number,
St. Louis American, May 23.*

The 1924 Annual of Lindenwood College, "Linden Leaves," is an artistic triumph, the credit for this going in general to the student body, and in particular to Miss Ruth Kern of Butler, Mo., editor, and Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Ia., business manager. The volume is dedicated to Guy C. Motley, college secretary. It is probable that it will be entered in the Chicago Arts and Crafts contest, where last year the 1923 "Linden Leaves" won "distinction."

*Globe-Democrat
May 26.*

*Globe-Democrat
May 27*

LINDENWOOD SENIORS CELEBRATE CLASS DAY

Class Day exercises were held by the seniors at Lindenwood College yesterday at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. John L. Roemer presiding as class sponsor. An address of welcome was made by Miss Helene Millsap, president of the class. Miss Margaret Ferguson gave the class prophecy, and Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves the class history. The class quartet, composed of Misses Esther Hund, Gladys Sullivan, Caroline Sheetz and Martha Whaley, sang, and the whole class rendered other songs. A lilac bush was planted, in the name of the class, by Misses Adaline Ayers and Gladys Campbell. Miss Millsap gave the charge to the juniors, which was responded to for that class by Miss Helen Calder, junior president.

Old English May Day to Be Celebrated at Lindenwood College

Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau Will Be Queen.

Old English May Day customs are to be carried out this afternoon at Lindenwood College, with a "Revel in Sherwood Forest Under the Greenwood Tree," at 3:30 o'clock.

The crowning of the May Queen, Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, accompanied by her maids, Misses Sara Shomberg, Mary Hagler, Mary Sayre, Marguerite McNeer and Mary Yaeger, is to break in upon the playing of a group of "wood sprites," who will hide behind the trees while the events go on. The queen's procession is to be announced by "heralds," Richard Johnson and Harris Ordelheide.

Little Marian Stumberg and Robert Bruere will be train bearers, aiding the queen with her regal train, and the "crown bearer" will be little Alice Belding, while "flower girls," Lois Margaret Null and Phoebe Steinbrinker, scatter blossoms in the royal pathway.

Following out tradition, the May pole dances will take up old observances of "merrie England." Robin Hood" (Miss Helen Calder), and his "merry men" are to dance to Schubert music. There will be a natural scene, "children playing games" to suitable music. "Shepherdesses" will then "tread a measure" with the musical accompaniment. "Comin' Through the Rye." "Milk maids" are to dance around "Friar Tuck," who will be Miss Marguerite McCormick, and for this number the music will be "Tulips" by Walter E. Miles.

Something new will be a "Wood Gypsy Asking Alms" (Miss Carmela Graziada); for the gypsies' dance, Chalif's "Gypsy Camp" and "Polka Miniature" will be played. Miss Josephine Simmons will execute the dance, "Shadow of a Leaf Jestling in the Sun," to the music of the "Antras Dance" by Grieg. "Maid Marian and Will Scarlet" are to appear, accompanied by a Chaminade selection. For the "Villagers" the Flam-borough Sword Dance will be played; for the "flower girls" Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet," and for the "wood sprites" the "Dance de la Fee Dragee" from Tschai-kowsky's "Nutcracker Suite." The may-pole dances will be from "Country Gardens" by Percy Grainger.

Miss Marjorie Weber will be director of the May Day dances, assisted by Miss Florence Bartz, with Misses Florence Hanna and Marguerite Hersch as accompanists, and Misses Harriet Webster and Nadine Trope as violinists.

If the weather permits, an outdoor production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will be given at Lindenwood College at 8 o'clock this evening on an outdoor stage between the gables and the tea room. Should it rain, the production will be taken to Roemer Hall.

The senior class, under the direction of Miss Myrl Rodney, is presenting "Twelfth Night." Characters in the order in which they are named in the play, will be taken by the following: Misses Adaline Ayers, Alba Chapman, Martha Whaley, Isabelle McMenemy, Katherine Tinsman, Helen [redacted] les, Gladys Sullivan, Page Writ [redacted] Janet Robinson, Catherine Yount, [redacted] Ruedi, Caroline Sheetz, Margaret Ferguson, Helene Millsap, Roma Key, Kathryn Weiss and Reo Richards.

*Globe-Democrat
May 24*

*Globe-Democrat,
May 25*

COMMENCEMENT CONCERT AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

The annual commencement concert of the Choral Club and Orchestra of Lindenwood College will be given Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Roemer Auditorium. John Thomas is director of the Choral Club, with Miss Florence Howard as accompanist. Miss Agnes Gray is director of the orchestra, with Miss Helen Harrison as accompanist. The program follows:

- (a) Hindu Slumber Song.....Ware
 - (b) My Desire.....Nevin
 - (c) Snow Legend.....Clokey
 - (d) Woo Thou Sweet Music.....Elgar
Choral Club.
- Aria—
Volo sapete (Cavalleria Rusticana)—
Mascagni
- Throstle.....White
Miss Pattie Hudson.
- Piano—
Polonaise—E flat minor.....Chopin
The Lark.....Balakirew
Miss Alberta Shell.
- Orchestra—
(a) Overture—Raymond.....A. Thomas
(b) America United (March)—S. A. Perry

*Star,
May 28*

LINDENWOOD DORMITORY NAMED FOR DR. IRWIN

In memory of the late Dr. Robert Irwin, president of Lindenwood College from 1886 to 1888, the new $150,000 dormitory of the school will be called Irwin Hall. The announcement was made by President John L. Roemer at the commencement exercises at 10 a. m. yesterday.

Name for $150,000 Lindenwood College Dormitory Selected

Will Be Called Irwin Hall in Memory of Former President.

A name for the new $150,000 dormitory of Lindenwood College was determined upon yesterday by the College Board of Directors. President John L. Roemer announced, at the commencement exercises at 10 o'clock, that it will be called Irwin Hall, in memory of the late Dr. Robert Irwin, who was president from 1880 until his death in 1893. Several of Dr. Irwin's grandchildren live in the city, and his daughters, Mrs. E. W. McCluskey and Mrs. Mary McDearmon, live near St. Louis. His son, Rev. Dr. W. Frank Irwin, is a Presbyterian pastor at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y.

President Roemer spoke of Lindenwood's centennial, three years hence, for which the alumnae will give an endowment of $100,000 in scholarships for needy girls. He enumerated gifts amounting to several thousand dollars which have been sent in already for this cause, from about twenty individuals and college clubs or classes.

Rev. Dr. Harry C. Rogers, pastor of the Linwood Boulevard Presbyterian Church of Kansas City, gave the commencement address. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Dr. D. M. Skilling of the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Dr. R. W. Ely of St. Charles pronounced the benediction. The Lindenwood Hymn was sung, with accompaniment by the orchestra and Choral Club. Miss Lucile Jordan sang an aria, "Depuis le jour," by Charpentier. Misses Martha Whalley and Carolyn Sheetz sang a duet, "Come Malika." The Lindenwood prize songs of the last two years were sung by the student body.

Dr. Rogers spoke on "Life's Greatest Experience," saying that in all of life there is nothing comparable to a deep religious experience. He depicted the majority of life as viewed from many angles, and spoke eloquently of "the swinging calendar of God," from the creation to the redemption. Proving that religion should touch the intellect, the heart and the will, he read a profound acknowledgment of the deity by Sir Francis Bacon.

The speaker held up the late Mrs. Nettie Fowler McCormick, widow of the millionaire founder of McCormick Seminary, as a splendid example of character.

Great enthusiasm was evoked by the award of the annual $500 fellowship, to be applied in graduate study in any college or university in this country or Europe. Miss Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau was winner. She had also the honor, Saturday, of being crowned May Queen. The scholarship is open only to those who have taken their full four years' college work at Lindenwood.

Educational scholarships were awarded as follows, based on scholarship, general ability and loyalty: Subfreshmen, $50; Frances Stumberg, St. Charles; Margaret Enloe, Jefferson City.

Freshman class, $100 each: Virginia Symms, Nevada, Mo.; Nadine Trope, Tulsa, Ok.; Adelaide Peabody, Fullerton, La.; Helen K. Lewis, Springfield, Ill.; Marjorie Groves, Corder, Mo.

Sophomore class, $150 each: Virginia Heinrich, West Plains, Mo.; Mary Sayre, New London, Mo.; Ada Hemingway, Clinton, Ia.; Eunice Willbrand, St. Charles; Jessie Schaper, Washington, Mo.; Harriet Webster, Carthage, Mo.; Ruth Shapiro, St. Charles; Grace Larson, Paxton, Ill.

Junior class, $200 each: Gertrude Bird, Davenport, Ia.; Roberta Mochlenkamp, St. Charles; Harriet Gum, Oklahoma City, Ok.; Elizabeth Arveson, Merrill, Wis.; Margaret Boss, Jackson, Mo.; Anna Podrasky, Lake Charles, La.; Sara Shomberg, Altoona, Pa.

Other $200 scholarships, respectively, Sigma Iota Chi and Eta Upsilon Gamma, went to Helen Kready of Sikeston, Mo., and Margaret Bloebaum of Paris, Tex. The $10 award for highest average class excellence went to the seniors, with the juniors second.

A $25 scholarship prize for best rank for the year was won by a freshman, Virginia Symms of Nevada, Mo.

Miss Ellisen Morris of Lancaster, Mo., a student of journalism, won the Hobein gold medal, given annually by Frank A. Hobein of St. Louis for the best work in English composition.

Prizes for songs went to Virginia Symms, Elizabeth Bates of Linneus, Mo.; Jessie Schaper, Washington, Mo.; Alberta Shell, Topeka, Kan.; for the best Christmas story, Helen Kready of Sikeston; for best progress in music, Marjorie Groves, Mary Sue Guthrie of Macon, Mo.; Ardell Leefers, Virden, Mo., and Claribel Wallenbrock, St. Charles.

In domestic art the St. Charles girls proved experts, as Miss Isabelle McMenamy carried off the award for best sewing, and Miss Eunice Willbrand as best cook.

Best housekeeping in the dormitory rooms brought prizes of $2.50 each to Misses Ruth Kern, Butler, Mo.; Catherine Yount, Elinor Grubb, Tulsa, Ok.; Helen Covell, Whitehall, Mich.; Elizabeth Gahner, Russellville, Ark.; Delia Kinkade, Lake Village, Ark.; Sara Shomberg, Altoona, Pa.; Opha Morley, Galva, Ill.; Bess Hardin, Little Rock, Ark.; Margaret Enloe, Jefferson City, Mo.; Elice Holovtchiner, Omaha, Neb., and Fayette Wright, Glenwood, Ia.

Miss Adaline Ayers of Kansas City and Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves received first awards for distinctive work in athletics.

The Dorothy Holtcamp Fadget Bible verse memory award, for reciting the greatest number of Scripture verses, $25, went to Pauline Davis, Nowata, Ok.

Miss Ethel Wiese of St. Louis won the sterling medal as golf champion, and Gladys Osborn won the Roemer medal as champion in aquatic sports.

George B. Cummings, a member of the board, gives an annual prize to the student who budgets her finances and keeps the best expense account during the year. This went to Marguerite Hersch of Pagosa Springs, Colo.

Additional interest in costume designing was given by the new "Nellie Don" awards. The donor is Mrs. Nellie Donnelly of Kansas City, a Lindenwood graduate. Fifteen dollars for most original design of a practical and attractive house dress was won by Ada Hemingway, with Adele Merman of Kansas City, second prize, $10. Fifteen dollars for a finished dress was won by Miss Margaret Enloe, with Mrs. John Thomas of St. Charles second. Mrs. Donnelly announced that she was much pleased with the work brought out, and next year will double the amount of the prizes.

Another costume design prize, $10, given by the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club, went to Marion Gum of Oklahoma City, who was also a participant in the $10 art poster prize, sharing this with Corinne Plack of Wahog, Neb.

*Globe Democrat
May 28*

*Globe-Democrat,
May 29.*

Miss Ethel Wiese Wins Golf
Title of Lindenwood College

Prizes for Distinctive Work in Athletics Go to Adaline Ayers and Page Wright.

Ethel Wiese of 4536 Holly avenue, a sophomore at Lindenwood College, received the Jack Sterling medal as golf champion, among the commencement awards.

The winner of the John L. Roemer medal as champion in aquatic sports was Gladys Osborne of Canton, N. C.

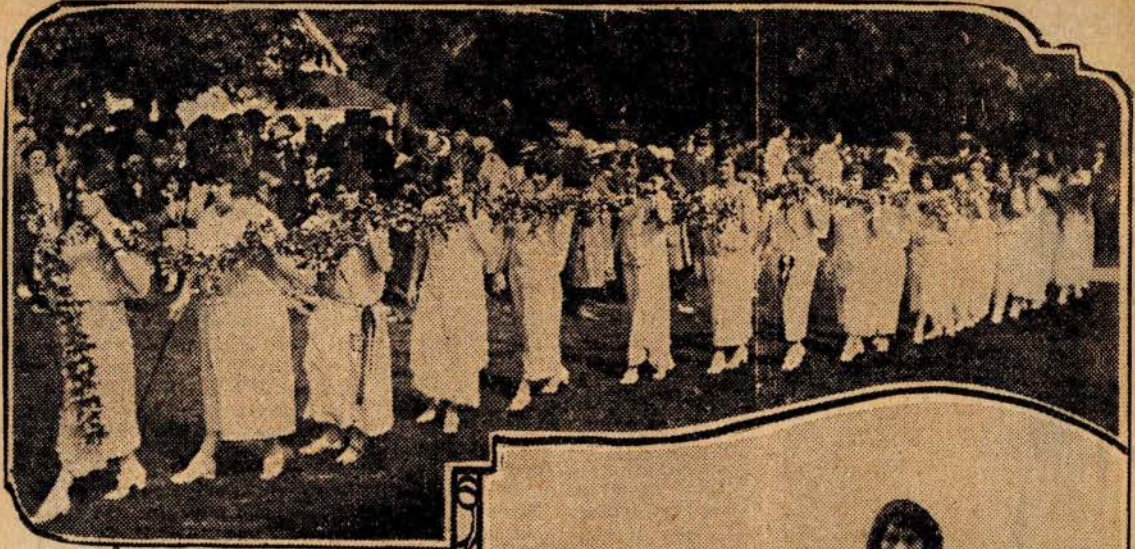

Honorable mention in golf, with subordinate medals, was given as follows: Second place, Margaret Slavens, Hutchinson, Kan.; third place, Gladys Osborne; fourth place, Jean Johnston, San Antonio, Tex.

The annual prizes for distinctive work in athletics were given to Adaline Ayers of Kansas City and Page Wright of Webster Groves, both of whom majored in physical education in working for the degree B. S., which they received.

ETHEL WIESE.

AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE EXERCISES

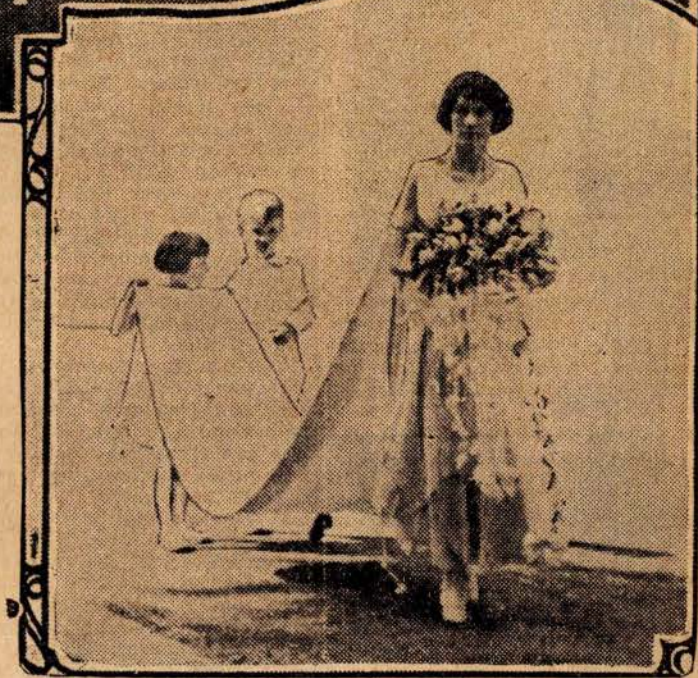

MISS CATHERINE YOUNT of Cape Girardeau, May Queen of Lindenwood College, received the highest scholarship honor within reach of a Lindenwood student at commencement exercises Tuesday. To her was awarded the $500 graduate fellowship, given annually to the student making the best grades in her four years of college work. This represents sustained effort. It is of interest to know that Miss Yount is gifted as a home-maker, and has taken charge of the household of her father, Dr. W. E. Yount of Cape Girardeau ever since her mother's death a number of years ago. Indication of her domestic ability was shown in the fact of another prize, which she shared with Miss Elinor Grubb of Tulsa, Ok., for neatness in keeping the best double room in Butler Hall. Ten other girls received similar prizes ($2.50) in the various halls.

Miss Yount was crowned on a throne of a huge white and yellow daisy, Saturday afternoon. The flower girls, Lois Null and Phoebe Steinbrinker, were little girls of St. Charles, as also the small trainbearers, Marion Stumberg and Robert Bruere, and other youthful attendants. The 28 seniors carried a daisy chain.

Her first maid of honor, Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., was winner of one of seven $200 scholarships awarded to members of the junior class. Miss Shomberg also is a model of neatness, having kept "the best single room in Sibley Hall."

The Hobein gold medal, given annually by Frank A. Hobein of St. Louis for the best work in English composition, always much coveted, was won by Miss Ellison Morris of Lancaster, Mo., a sophomore who has been one of the editors of "Linden Bark."

Miss Marion Gum of Oklahoma City, one of the most popular girls in the college, won the $10 costume design prize of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club. She also was one of two making best art posters.

At top, seniors at Lindenwood College carrying a daisy chain, out of which they constructed an arch for the queen to walk under at Tuesday's exercises.

At bottom, Miss Catherine Yount, the queen, who received the $500 graduate fellowship, given annually to the student making the best grades at Lindenwood.

A manufacturer of Kansas City, herself an alumna of Lindenwood, offered "Nelly Don" prizes for best house dresses, and first place were won by Misses Ada Hemingway of Clinton, Ia., and Margaret Eynloe of Jefferson City. The latter was also winner of a $50 scholarship.

Besides the scholarships mentioned, there were eight $150 educational scholarships given to sophomores, and five $100 scholarships to freshmen, besides two of $200 each (apart from the seven junior scholarships of $200 each), given by sororities, Sigma Iota Chi and Eta Upsilon Gamma.

Miss Ethel Wiese of St. Louis won a medal as golf champion, with Margaret Slavens, Hutchinson, Kan., second; Gladys Osborne, Canton, N. C., third, and Jean Johnston of San Antonio, Tex., fourth, golf being thus represented in East and West and South. Miss Osborne won first place in aquatic sports as champion. For distinctive work in athletics, Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves, who was a maid at the Veiled Prophet's court two years ago, took first place, dividing this honor with Adaline Ayers of Kansas City.

There was also a "best cook," Eunice Willbrand, and the award for best sewing, Isabelle McMenemy, both of these being St. Charles girls; while the practical expense account contest, instituted by Geo. B. Cummings of St. Louis, was won by Marguerite Hersch of Pagosa Springs, Colo., who all through the year has been president of the "Colorado Club" at Lindenwood.

*Altoona (Pa.)
Mirror, May 31.*

SARAH SHOMBERG IS GIVEN SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Sarah Shomberg, daughter of A. F. Shomberg of 1218 Thirteenth avenue, who returned this week from Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., was honored by that institution at its commencement exercises with a $200 scholarship. She is one of seven members of the junior class gaining this distinction, the honor being based on "scholarship, general ability and loyalty to the standards of Lindenwood."

Miss Shomberg also gained one of the small prizes bestowed annually for keeping the best single room in Sibley hall. Prizes of $2.50 each are given in each of the four dormitories, to those showing most neatness in the care of their rooms. Her popularity among the student body was shown by the fact that she was first maid of honor to the May queen, an elective office.

Wins Scholarship
$200 Lindenwood
College, Missouri

MISS GERTRUDE BIRD

MISS GERTRUDE BIRD, of Davenport, is the recipient of a leading honor at commencement exercises of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she has just completed her junior year. For scholarship, general ability and loyalty to the standards of the institution, Miss Bird received a $200 scholarship. Her name was read with that of six other juniors, each of whom was selected out of a large class, this being a marked honor in a school of 450 students. Miss Bird was further honored by admission to the Alpha Sigma Tau, the honorary literary sorority of Lindenwood. She has been business manager of the college annual, "Linden Leaves", for the last year, and one of the editors of the weekly, "Linden Bark".

*Paris (Tex.) News,
June 1.*

Margaret Bloebaum Gains Honor

Miss Margaret Bloebaum of Paris has gained a coveted honor at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.—the annual $200 scholarship given by the Eta Upsilon Gamma sorority. This was announced on commencement day and is based on marks received in her classes during the school year. The excellence of Miss Bloebaum's work is also attested by the fact that she was announced at the same time as a new member of the Alpha Sigma Tau, which is an honorary literary sorority open to those showing decided talent.

Globe-Democrat, June 4.

LINDENWOOD GRADUATES GIVE CLOCK TO COLLEGE

A gift of a large clock for Lindenwood College Library has been made by the academy class which has just graduated. This is a unique bestowal, impossible in future years, as the academy class of '24 is the last which Lindenwood will graduate. The academy course is now discontinued and the college has entirely taken over its four-year curriculum.

*Springfield (Ill.)
State Journal, June 1.*

Miss Helen K. Lewis of this city, gained an honor at the close of her freshman year at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Announcement was made at the recent commencement exercises, that she was one of the five freshmen, out of a class of 100, to each of whom was awarded a scholarship of $100, to be applied on next year's work. This was given on the basis of "scholarship, general ability and loyalty to the standards of Lindenwood."

Kansas City Star,
June 1

PRIZE WINNER IN DRESS DESIGNS.

The above designs are winners of cash prizes at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. The first prize of $25 in the classes of costume design was a yellow wash dress trimmed in bands of brown. Miss Ada Hemingway, Clinton, Ia., is the winner. A green design with appliqued motifs on pocket and apron, won the second prize, $10. The neck and hem are marked by rows of black hemstitching. Miss Adele Marie Herman, 510 West Seventy-fourth street, designed this dress. Honorable mention was accorded the designs of Marian Gunn, Oklahoma City and Margaret Frenenstein, St. Louis.

In the dressmaking class the prizes were given for originality and making of the dress. The first prize of $25 went to Margaret Enloe on a blue linen dress with a deep tuck giving an over blouse effect. The bindings are yellow, pink and blue. The second prize of $10 was won by Lucile Thomas on a blue linen dress with white revers, cuffs and panel of white that is topped by two white buttons. This is the annual prize offered by Mrs. Paul Donnelly of the Donnelly Garment Company to the design classes of her alma mater.

Star, May 29.

LINDENWOOD GOLF MEDAL IS WON BY MISS ETHEL WIESE

Second Place in Competition Goes to Miss Margaret Slavens of Kansas.

The champion golf player at Lindenwood College, to whom was awarded the Jack Sterling medal, at commencement at Lindenwood College, is Miss Ethel Wiese, 4536 Holly avenue, a sophomore.

Second place at golf was won by Margaret Slavens of Hutchinson, Kan.; third place, Gladys Osborne, Canton, N. C.; fourth place, Jeane Johnston, San Antonio, Tex.

A medal for championship in aquatic sports, given by President John L. Roemer, was won by Gladys Osborne of Canton, N. C.

Dorothy Page Wright of Webster Groves and Adaline Ayers of Kansas City, both seniors, received awards for distinctive work in athletics.

Tulsa, Okla., Tribune June 1.

Scholarship Is Won By Miss Nadine Trope

On the eve of her sailing for Europe a pleasant surprise came for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Trope, 1423 S. Peoria av. It was announced Saturday, after her return from Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., that she was one of five freshmen selected to receive the annual $100 scholarship award. Since the scholarships are given only those students who are foremost in scholastic ability and loyalty to the standards of the school, they are coveted as signal honors. Miss Trope is also a pledge to the Alpha Sigma Tau of Lindenwood, an honorary sorority for those students who distinguish themselves in a literary way.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Trope with their two daughters, Misses Nadine and Martyl, will sail for Europe Tuesday.

Herald & Presbyterian May 28

The baccalaureate sermon at Lindenwood College was preached last Sabbath afternoon by Rev. William Crowe, D.D., of Westminster Church. There are 28 young women to receive degrees, Tuesday of this week.

Eslobe Democrat June 2

Dr. Roemer to Speak.

President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College will give the commencement address tomorrow for the high school at Sparta, Ill. Several former students of Lindenwood are now teachers in this high school.

Oklahoma City Oklahoman, June 1.

Paxton, Ill., Record June 2

MISS GRACE LARSON RECEIVES FIRST HONORS AT COLLEGE

Miss Grace Larson of Paxton, was selected for scholarship honors at the recent commencement exercises at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. She won by her studies and her general ability and "loyalty to the standards of Lindenwood," a scholarship of $150 bestowed annually. This can be applied to work next year.

City Sisters Win Honors At School

Miss Harriet Gum of Oklahoma City received the honor of a $200 scholarship, won by her "scholarship, general ability and loyalty to standards of Lindenwood college," at that institution, St. Charles, Mo., at commencement exercises, May 27, from which she and her sister, Miss Marion Gum, are returning home. The latter was also honored by receiving a costume designing prize of $10, given by the St. Louis Lindenwood College club to the student in the art department showing greatest talent along lines of dress designing.

Miss Marion Gum also shared a poster prize of $10 with Miss Corinne Placek of Wahoo, Neb. Miss Harriet Gum has been president of the students' Oklahoma club throughout the year, and her sister has been president of the freshman class.

TWELVE
PAGES
TODAY

*Sparta (Ill.) News-Standard,
June 5*

VOLUME 61 NUMBER 36

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES FOR CLASS OF 1924

Dr. Roemer, Lindenwood College,
Head, Delivered Address to Class of 62 Tuesday

Sixty-eight Seniors, thirty-five girls and thirty-three boys, officially bade farewell to the S. T. H. S. Tuesday evening when commencement exercises for the Class of 1924 were held at the high school auditorium. This was the second largest class in the history of the local institution and according to the remarks of Principal E. O. Bottenfield, it excelled in scholastic ability the record of any preceding class.

Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo., delivered the commencement address using for his subject, "The Biggest and Best Things in Life." Grouped around this address were a number of musical selections rendered mostly by members of the class.

Prof. Bottenfield in his farewell address to the Seniors, reviewed the history of their high school life. He submitted figures to show that the class as a whole ranked high in scholarship. Thirty-five of the students had a four-year average of 85 or better and seventeen or more than one-fourth of the class, averaged 90 or more for the four years. Thirty-one of them have declared their intention of going to college, fourteen to business colleges and four to technical schools, making a total of 49 who expect to pursue their education through higher institutions of learning.

458 Grads in 8 Years

Prof. Bottenfield, who leaves the S. T. H. S. this year after eight years as principal, stated that during his work here 458 students have graduated from the high school, a splendid record for a town the size of Sparta. He expressed his appreciation to the audience for the co-operation of parents and pupils.

The members of the class all of whom were present, marched into the auditorium to the strains of Mendelssohn's "War March" by the high school orchestra, and took their places on the platform. The orchestra also rendered another selection before the invocation was given by Rev. J. U. Brush. Following the invocation the high school quartet, composed of Misses Elizabeth Stephenson and Euneva Lynn and Howard Jackson and Merrill Pinkerton, sang delightfully Elliott's "Spring Is a Lovable Lady" with Miss Emma Mof-fat as accompanist.

The salutatory address by Miss Helen Cumming was excellently prepared and well rendered. Miss Cumming spoke of the occasion as a joyous event, stating that the members of the class had now reached the gate which leads out into the field where each one must make his own way.

Praises School Standards

Dr. Roemer delivered one of the best commencement addresses in the history of the S. T. H. S. He referred to the high scholastic standing of the Sparta schools, mentioning the fact that for the past ten years he has known the products of the Sparta institutions and during that time these students have stood in the front rank in their classes.

Dr. Roemer declared that this is a day of big things and that we talk of figures unthought of in the days of our youth. Big things interest the young people of today and among the biggest things and the best things in life are contentment, satisfaction and recognition of obligations. Much discontentment is caused, the speaker said, because people have not been taught to enjoy the routine of life but it is the routine and drudgery that makes character. America is a great nation for fault finding and this fault finding leads us to believe that there is nothing good, nothing honest in the world and breeds discontentment. We will never get the best out of life as long as we have the spirit of discontentment. One of the biggest things is not the building of a fortune but the building of a life.

Just before Dr. Roemer's talk Miss Elizabeth Stephenson sang charmingly a double selection which was appreciated and after the address Howard Jackson pleased his audience with two solos.

Louis Dickey Valedictorian

The valedictory by Louis Dickey was cleverly delivered and well prepared. He stated that the class had taken one of the important steps of life but must still go on to attain success. He realized that the world needs better educated men and women and referred to the class motto, "Take the World as You Find it, but Leave it Better" as a good motto for life.

Following Mr. Bottenfield's remarks, as referred to above, H. E. McKelvey, president of the board of education, after a few appropriate remarks to the class, presented the diplomas and the commercial certificates to those who had earned them. Following the high school song, "Here's to Dear Old Sparta," the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Brush.

Post-Dispatch
June 5-

Jefferson City (Mo.)
State Journal, June 1

Babylonian Tablets for Lindenwood
Lindenwood College, St. Charles, has purchased three Babylonian tablets for its department of ancient languages. Two of them are believed to have been inscribed between 2400 and 2100 B. C., being records of sacrificial animals, oil and other supplies used in temples. The third tablet, found at the site of Babylon, appears to be a merchant's account, dating from about 600 B. C.

MISS MARGARET ENLOE WINS $50 SCHOLARSHIP

Also Awarded $15 Prize in Domestic Science Department at Lindenwood College.

Miss Margaret Enloe daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Enloe of this city was awarded a $50 scholarship prize of Lindenwood College, St. Charles last week at the close of the school, according to an announcement made by Dr. John L. Roemer, president of the college. The award was for scholarship, general ability and loyalty to the standards of the college.

Miss Enloe also received a $15 prize for the best finished house-dress made in the domestic science department, being one of the "Nellie Don" group offered by a house dress manufacturer of Kansas City, who is also a Lindenwood College graduate.

The various dress designs made in competition for the prizes will be employed by the manufacturer in her work.

Miss Enloe has just completed the academic course at Lindenwood College where she has been a student for the past two years.

She is one of the popular students of the department and excelled in various school activities on a number of occasions for which she received much recognition and praise.

Butler (Mo.) Republican-Press
June 4.

Another Honor For Miss Kern

Miss Ruth Kern, of Butler, who is soon to arrive home, after graduating with an A. B. degree at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., won a "good housekeeping" honor at the recent commencement exercises of that institution. An award for the best single room in her dormitory, Butler Hall, was won by Miss Kern. In each of the four dormitory halls, prizes were bestowed for keeping rooms in best order throughout the school year. Miss Kern is remaining at Lindenwood, to get out the June issue of the Lindenwood bulletin, of which she has been editor for several years. She hopes to go into journalism as an avocation.

Sharta ^(all) News-Plainsdealer }
June 5

MISS JORDAN'S SINGING IS PRAISED BY DR. ROGERS

Miss Lucille Jordan, of this city, sang so acceptably at commencement exercises at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., last week, that the speaker of the day, Rev. Dr. Harry C. Rogers of Kansas City, paused in his address to comment on her "rare talent." Her number was an aria from "Louise," by Charpentier, "Depuis le Jour." Miss Jordan also contributed a vocal number in a radio program given by the college from station WCK at St. Louis during the commencement season. Miss Jordan has been employed to teach music in the Sparta public schools next year.

Carthage (Mo.) Press,
May 29.

Wins Lindenwood Scholarship

Miss Harriet Webster and Miss Alba Chapman arrived home yesterday from St. Charles, Mo., where they have been attending Lindenwood college. Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Webster went to St. Charles and accompanied their daughter home. Miss Harriett was awarded a $150 scholarship as having made one of the five highest grades in her class of 70. She has just completed her second year. The scholarship applies on her tuition for the next year.

Clinton (Mo.) Advertiser
June 5-

CLINTON GIRL GETS HONORS

To Miss Ada Hemingway of Clinton, came several honors at the recent commencement exercises at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo.

Most important of these was an award of a $150 scholarship, which came on the basis of marks, general ability and loyalty to the college. She was one of eight sophomores receiving similar honors, which was quite a distinction in a school of 450 students.

Miss Hemingway was also winner, in the art department, of a $15 prize for the best design of a house-dress, in the "Nellie Don" series given by a Kansas City manufacturer for the most original design of a practical and attractive house-dress.

Nowata (Okla.) Star
June 5-

NOWATA GIRL WINS UNUSUAL HONOR

Special to Star.

St. Charles, Mo., June 4.—Miss Pauline Davis of Nowata, who is returning from a year's work at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., has won an unusual honor in college annals. To her, at commencement exercises, was awarded a prize of $25 for having committed to memory the greatest number of Scripture verses. This was won in a class of freshmen numbering over 100, all of whom were eligible for the award. This is known as the Dorothy Holtcamp Bladgett Bible verse memory award, and dates back many years. Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, who founded Lindenwood in 1827, almost 100 years ago, was a strong believer in Bible reading, and made a rule which has ever since been observed, that the Bible should be taught as one of the regular studies in the curriculum of the college.

OLD ST. CHARLES HALL PICTURED FOR CAPITOL

Richard Miller, St. Louis Artist,
Is Painting Scene of First Legislature.

St. Charles—seat of Missouri's first government upon being admitted to statehood and scene of the first general assembly, in 1820—will be pictured, as relates to these historical events, upon canvas done by a Missouri artist and added to the historical decorations of the Missouri State Capitol at Jefferson City.

Arthur A. Kocian, secretary of the Capitol Decoration Commission, conveyed the announcement in a letter sent Friday to Miss Alice Linnemann, head of the art department of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, at the same time narrating how the St. Louis artist, Richard Miller, became interested in the urgent suggestions of a special committee of St. Charles citizens that the historical meeting of the first Legislature should be made the subject of a special canvas.

Artist Visited St. Charles.

Miller visited St. Charles and viewed the low, rambling, two-story building on the main business street of St. Charles, which housed the original Legislature. Though it has undergone both interior and exterior changes, the structure remains otherwise as it was constructed more than a century ago. Upon its front is a bronze tablet, marking the site, placed there in connection with the Missouri Statehood Centennial in 1921.

After viewing the building, the artist conferred with the commission and agreed, for a nominal emolument, to reconstruct the scene of the first Legislature, with Alexander McNair, first Governor, as a central figure, and depicting especially the dress and modes of transportation of the first legislators as they assembled at the statehouse door.

Six Paintings Newly Installed.

The painting will take the form of a lunette, 7 feet high by 12 feet across, and will be placed above the Governor's private elevator door in one of the main corridors of the second floor of the Capitol.

Kocian also announced that the first six of the 22 contracted lunettes by the group of artist at Taos, N. M., have been installed on this floor. Three of them are by Walter Ufer of New York and three by Oscar E. Berninghaus of St. Louis. The subjects by the first artist are: Early, open-air session of the Boone County Circuit Court; Chouteau's treaty with the Osage Indians, and first discussions of the Platte Purchase. Those by the St. Louis artist are: The first settlement of Ste. Genevieve; the "shot tower" cliff at Herculaneum, where molten lead was dropped in globules to form bullets, and a scene depicting primitive lead mining in the Ste. Genevieve district. These lunettes are slightly smaller than the projected St. Charles canvas, being 6 by 12 feet.

Post-Dispatch
June 8

Post-Dispatch

ATCH ROTOGRAVURE PICTURE SECTION

JUNE 8, 1924

Glimpse of the annual spring festivities at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where Miss Catherine Yount was May Queen this year.

—Photo by A. Ruth Jr.

Globe Democrat, June 7

Gossip of the Bookshops

June 7

Daily Globe-Democrat.

St. Charles to Have Special Painting in Missouri Capitol

Additional Panel Arranged for Following Protest of Citizens.

St. Charles as a historic city in Missouri is to be represented by a special painting in the Missouri State Capitol decorations at Jefferson City. This decision was announced yesterday in a letter written by Arthur A. Kocian, secretary of the Capitol Decoration Commission, to Miss Alice Linnemann, head of the art department of Lindenwood College, who had been one of the foremost in advocating the idea that St. Charles ought not to be overlooked in the pictorial representation of Missouri's history.

Kocian states that the commission will do a panel of "The Meeting of the First Legislaturc in St. Charles." This panel is to be painted by Richard Miller and it will be placed in the space over the Governor's elevator in the Capitol Building, next to the entrance of the Governor's reception room.

It appeared at first as if St. Charles had been overlooked by the commission, despite the fact that it was the first state capital. But the seeming oversight is explained by the fact that the commission was under the impression that its painting, "Daniel Boone and the Judgement Tree," was a recognition of St. Charles. The "Judgement Tree" is located, however, about thirty miles from the City of St. Charles.

Civle Leaders Summoned.

Citizens of St. Charles became much interested in the matter when it appeared that there would be no painting for St. Charles, and a local committee set to work. Miss Linnemann, early in April, invited the following to meet at her home in St. Charles Mrs. George McElhiney, regent of the D. A. R., and a committee from the D. A. R., composed of Mrs. H. H. Steed, Miss Virginia Gause and Miss Edmondia Edwards; also Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College; Dr. B. K. Stumberg, president of the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce, with other representatives of the Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Robert Ely, Miss Laura Bezenberger and Percy Gillette.

At this meeting a committee of Mesdames Ely and McElhiney, Miss Linnemann and Dr. Stumberg was appointed to confer with the State Capitol Decoration Committee. The committee was gratified by the courteous treatment it received and the justice of its request was recognized.

Artist Visited City.

Almost immediately the secretary of the commission, Kocian, came to St. Charles and conferred with the local committee at the residence of Mrs. George McElhiney. The next week he came again, bringing the artist, Richard Miller. With the committee they visited the various spots of historical interest in the city and the result of their inspection is now announced.

The contemplated panel and its bit of history, "The First Missouri Legislature, Meeting in St. Charles," will be of interest to every Missourian. The St. Charles Committee has voted a resolution of appreciation to the commission, the members of which serve without remuneration, and particular appreciation was given to Kocian. It is also pleasing that a St. Louisian as widely known as an artist as is Richard Miller, should have been selected to paint the panel.

Miss Gladys Clifton of St. Charles, a sophomore at Lindenwood College, was honored by the Atlantic Monthly in being selected as one of twenty in a group of those who wrote the best essays for the annual Atlantic contest, just terminated. Eight students of Lindenwood competed, along with college young men and women throughout the country. Announcement received by Miss Ethel K. Boyce, instructor in the English department, who sent on the essays from Lindenwood, states for the Atlantic Monthly Company: "Country Week-Ends in Winter," by Miss Gladys Clifton, achieved a place in the group of twenty essays over which the final pondering was done." Thanks are expressed for the general interest on the part of students everywhere, "which has helped to make this Atlantic contest the most notable in its history."

*Corder (Mo.) Journal
June 6*

Wins Honor at College.

To Miss Marjorie Groves, of Corder came a signal honor at commencement at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. She was one of five freshman to be honored with a $100 scholarship. This came because of "scholarship, general ability, and loyalty to the standards of Lindenwood"

*Lancaster (Mo.)
Schuyler Co. Republican
June 6*

Miss Ellison Morris of this city, won the outstanding prize in English composition, at commencement exercises of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. This was a gold medal donated annually by Judge Frank A. Hobein, of St. Louis, for the best work of the year in English composition. She returned home from the college Tuesday night of last week.

Whitehall (Mich.) Forum
June 4

Miss Helen Covell, of this village, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Covell, who is a student at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., received an award of a gold piece at commencement, this season, for good housekeeping. The prize was for the best kept single room in Jubilee Hall, one of the dormitories. Each dormitory of the four making up the college, offers similar annual awards.

Sikeston (Mo.) Herald,
June 5

SIKESTON GIRLS PROMINENT AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Helen Kready, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Kready, and Miss Catherine Yount, daughter of Dr. W. E. Yount of Cape Girardeau and niece of Dr. J. H. Yount of this city, have attained coveted honors at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Both Misses Kready and Yount were formerly students at the local high school.

Miss Catherine Young attained the highest honor given at Lindenwood, where she graduated with the degree of bachelor of arts Tuesday, May 27. On the basis of "superior scholarship and general ability," Miss Yount received at commencement the award of the annual $500 fellowship, which she is free to apply to graduate work in any college or university of this country or Europe. Her total number of points for the four years was 1054.

Only the week before Miss Yount had received the most conspicuous social honor which Lindenwood can give—that of being crowned May queen, to which rank she was elected by vote of the senior class of 28 members. It is the first time on record that any student has gained both the May queen honor and the fellowship.

Dr. W. E. Yount, her father, was a guest at commencement, to witness the distinction, which came to his daughter as an utter surprise.

Miss Kready was also winner of a conspicuous prize at Lindenwood. The Sigma Iota Chi scholarship, amounting to $200, was bestowed upon her. This is the annual gift of a sorority which has gone out of existence, but left its property as an endowment. Its award is based solely on distinctive scholarship of the school year. Miss Kready is devoting herself particularly to writing, and last Christmas was winner of a $25 prize in gold, for the best Christmas story.

June 8 -

Daily Globe-Democrat

First Maid of Honor to May Queen at
Lindenwood College

MISS SARA SHOMBERG
SID WHITING PHOTO

Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., is first maid of honor to the Lindenwood College May Queen. She has been awarded a scholarship for excellence in her studies.

Globe-Dem. Socy
June 8 -

Miss Sara Shomberg, who will be a senior next year at Lindenwood College, won a $200 scholarship at the commencement this season. This was granted because of scholarship and general ability, combined with loyalty to college standards. Miss Shomberg's home is in Altoona, Pa. She served at May Day as first maid of honor to Lindenwood's May Queen, Miss Catherine Yount.

Macon (Mo.) Chronicle-Herald
June 10

BOTH GIRLS HONORED.

Miss Mary Sue and Miss Allene Guthrie Attain Awards at Lindenwood.

Awards came to each of the Guthrie girls, of Macon, in the recent commencement exercises at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Mary Sue Guthrie received what is called the "progress prize" in voice—that is, she was recognized in the music department as the student under vocal instructors who had made most progress in the school year.

Miss Allene Guthrie's special honors were of a literary nature, as she was made a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau, an honorary literary sorority of Lindenwood, attainable only by reason of scholarship. She graduated with the degree Bachelor of Arts.

Globe-Democrat
June 9

'SCARAMOUCHE,' FAVORITE BOOK AT LINDENWOOD

An estimate of books called for by the 450 students of Lindenwood College, at the college library in the month just ended, place "Scaramouche" at the head of the list of most popular books. The tabulation presents Willa Cather's "One of Ours" as a close second. Another volume high in the scale of wanted books is "The Middle of the Road," by Sir Philip Gibbs.

"Son at the Front," by Edith Wharton, is called for every day. Others which have had a good run" from the girls are: W. W. Hudson's "Green Mansions," also "Crysta Age" and "Happy Isles," as well as Dorothy Canfield's "Raw Material."

This estimate is based on the books that the girls read in their leisure time, and does not refer to the books of reference.

Times.
June 9

Mitchell (S. Dak) Republican
June 9

MITCHELL GIRL GIVES RECITAL

The following account of a recital given by Miss Virginia Bauer appeared in a recent edition of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat:

"Miss Virginia Bauer, of Mitchell, gave an entire program of piano numbers, among the closing recitals of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Her numbers included Beethoven's Sonata (Farewell), Adagio-nes Adieux; Andante L'Absence; Vivacissimamente-Le Retour; Bach's Prelude and Fugue; Chopin's Etudes Op. 25 Nos. 1 and 9; and Tschalkowsky's Concerto B Flat Minor, Andante; Andantino-Prestimissimo; Allegro con fuoco.

Miss Bauer has obtained a three-year Missouri State certificate to teach.

Lindenwood College.

About 150 small children of St. Charles are sorry that Lindenwood College has closed for the summer. On Thursday afternoons this spring, from 4 to 5 o'clock, the "playground organization" class of Lindenwood has invited the children as "subjects" on whom the story-telling class tried out stories, and new games were invented by the game playing class.

Among the "problems" of child study was one of a small boy who would not play, but stood aloof. It was discovered, upon investigation, that he was the proud possessor of a new watch, and was afraid of breaking it. The student skillfully solved the "problem" of making that boy "official timekeeper," in which capacity he enjoyed the sports as much as anyone.

Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette
June 11

NEWS
About People

Miss Bess Hardin of Little Rock, gained a reputation for neatness while attending Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo. She returns home with the award of a gold piece for the "best double room in Sibley Hall," this being one of the dormitories. The prize was given in duplicate to her roommate, Miss Orpha Morley of Galva, Ill.

June 4

THE HERALD AND PRESBYTER

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

The commencement exercises of Lindenwood College, May 27, included the important announcement that the new dormitory now building will be named Irwin Hall, in memory of the late Rev. Robert Irwin, D.D., who was president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893, the year of his death. He was the father of Rev. W. Frank Irwin, now pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y. As pastor and college president he was much beloved, and he did much for the advancement of Lindenwood. The commencement address by Rev. Harry C. Rogers, D.D., of Kansas City, was on "Life's Greatest Experience," which he took without exception to be a religious experience. Rev. D. M. Skilling, D.D., pastor of the Webster Groves Church, and vice-president of the board of directors of Lindenwood, pronounced the invocation, and the benediction was by Rev. R. W. Ely, D.D., of St. Charles. Twenty-eight young women received senior college degrees, and twenty-one received degrees completing a junior college course. Among awards, the one of greatest interest was that of the $500 fellowship for graduate work, which went, because of scholarship, to Miss Catherine Yount, of Cape Girardeau, daughter of Dr. W. E. Yount, of that city. The prospects are bright for Lindenwood President Roemer stated that the new dormitory will accommodate eighty students, and is to be ready for occupancy by the opening of the school year. This school will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary in 1927.

*St. Louis Star
June 12*

DR. ALICE E. GIPSON NAMED
NEW DEAN AT LINDENWOOD

Dr. Alice E. Gipson is the new dean of Lindenwood College, it was announced at the annual meeting of the board of directors yesterday. She was formerly with Wheaton College in Massachusetts. Lucinda de L. Lemplin, retiring dean, will go to Columbia University to resume her studies.

*Post-Dispatch
June 12*

New Dean at Lindenwood.

Dr. Alice E. Gipson has been appointed dean of the department of English at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, to succeed Dean Lucinda de L. Templin, who is retiring after eight years' service to complete her work for a degree of doctor of philosophy. At the annual meeting of the board of directors of Lindenwood College, Tuesday, approval was given to Irwin Hall as the name of the new $150,000 dormitory. It is named for Dr. Robert Irwin, president of the college from 1880 to 1893. The building will be dedicated in October or November.

*Globe-Democrat
June 12, 1924.*

DR. ALICE E. GIPSON, NEW LINDENWOOD DEAN

Is Doctor of Philosophy from Yale University Graduate School.

A change in the deanship of Lindenwood College was announced Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the college. Dr. Alice E. Gipson of Wheaton College will be the new dean. Some time ago, Dean Lucinda de L. Lemplin stated her intention of spending the next year in the completion of her work for a degree, Doctor of Philosophy, from Columbia University, New York City.

At the conclusion of her eighth annual report of Lindenwood's educational work, Tuesday, regret was expressed by the board at her departure, and it was stated that the last year had been the most satisfactory in the history of the college.

Dr. Alice E. Gipson has her degree, Doctor of Philosophy, from the graduate school of Yale University. She is a Western woman, and a collegiate graduate of the College of Idaho, but her educational work has been in the East, particularly at Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., where she taught English. She will be at the head of the department of English at Lindenwood.

In recognition of the satisfactory condition of the college, financially and otherwise, under the presidency of Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer, the board, at the suggestion of Dr. D. M. Skilling, vice president, voted to set apart a special "convocation" at the opening of the school year to honor his tenth anniversary in this office.

The naming of Irwin Hall, the new $150,000 dormitory, was ratified, in memory of the late Rev. Dr. Robert Irwin, president 1880-93, and commemorative addresses were made by Rev. Dr. B. P. Fullerton and George W. Sutherland, both of whom knew Dr. Irwin well.

*Globe-Democrat,
June 14.*

3 BABYLONIAN TABLETS AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

An addition to equipment in the department of ancient languages at Lindenwood College is a collection of three guaranteed genuine Babylonian tablets, purchased from the archaeological collection of Edgar J. Banks, formerly of the faculty of Chicago University.

One tablet, dating between 2400 and 2100 B. C., is a record of "sacrificial animals" received at the temple of Bell at Drehem, a suburb of Nippue. It was found at Drehem.

A second tablet, supposed to be about 2350 B. C., found at Jokha, is a record of oil and other temple offerings. It has a cylindrical stone seal impressed upon it by the temple scribe.

The third tablet is of a later era, about 605 to 562 B. C., being traced to the time of Nebuchadnezzar. It is a merchant's account tablet, and records various business transactions.

*Wahoo (neb.) Waaf.
June 11*

St. Charles, Mo., June 10.—Miss Corinne Placek of Wahoo is showing remarkable artistic ability in her work in the art department of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. In the annual prize of $10 offered for the best poster made by the students, which was the subject of a general competition, Miss Placek divided honors with Miss Marion Gum of Oklahoma City, each receiving the same rank.

*Galva (Ill.) News
June 12*

Miss Morley Gets Prize As 'Best Housekeeper'

Miss Orpha Morley, of Galva, is returning home from Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri, with the honor of a "good house-keeping" award. This practical honor, for which a gold piece was bestowed, is given annually at Lindenwood to those girls who maintain throughout the year the highest standard of neatness in the care of their rooms. Miss Morley's prize, which was given in duplicate to her room-mate, Miss Bess Hardin, of Little Rock, Arkansas, was for the best-kept double room in Sibly Hall, one of the four dormitories. Miss Morley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morley.

*Mills Co. Tribune
Glenwood, Ia., June 9.*

More Particulars

Miss Fayetta Wright of Glenwood has been honored at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., for the particularly feminine achievement of "the neatest room." A gold piece has rewarded her efforts and persistency, and a similar prize goes to her room-mate, Miss Elice Holovtchiner of Omaha, for it was by team work that they maintained the standard of "the best double room in Niccolls Hall. Niccolls is the newest, largest dormitory at Lindenwood, and is given over to the freshmen, of whom there were over 100, competing for the prize.

*Russellville, Ark., Courier
June 12*

Wins Again as "Good Housekeeper."

Miss Elizabeth Ganner, who is returning home from Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., brings an honor as "Good housekeeper," having received an award of a gold piece at Lindenwood's commencement for "the best kept room" in Jubilee Hall, one of the dormitories. The same honor came to her room-mate, also an Arkansas girl, Miss Delia Kinkade, of Lake Village. Nearly 100 girls are resident in this dormitory. Miss Ganner took a leading role in the college May-Day program, where she was "Maid Marian" in a picturesque costume dance on the green with "Will Scarlett" of old English folk-lore. They danced to the music of C. Chaminade, Op. 41.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Miss Ganner and her room-mate won this honor also last year.

*El Reno (Okla.) American
June 12*

Miss Rose Aderhold, of El Reno, received the honor, at Lindenwood College commencement, at St. Charles, Mo., of being elected a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau, an honorary literary sorority, attainable only by those displaying superior scholarship.

West Plains (Mo.) Journal,
June 5

West Plains Girl Wins Scholarship

A scholarship of $150 is the honor which has come to Miss Virginia Heinrich, of West Plains, in concluding her sophomore year at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. It is a recognition, as was stated at the commencement exercises of "scholarship, general ability, and loyalty to the standards of Lindenwood." Only eight students of the sophomore class received such an honor.

Miss Heinrich is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. A. Heinrich of this city.

Franklin Co. Observer
Washington Mo. June 13

Miss Phoebe Schaper is spending several weeks with homefolks in this city. She has been teaching English and History in the Bridges Consolidated High School at Charleston, Mo., for the past two years. The school board and pupils had hoped to retain her at an increased salary for a third term, but Miss Schaper decided to continue her studies in music and education at an Eastern university in the fall. During the summer she will direct a church vacation school at Christ Church Cathedral in St. Louis. This phase of religious education is receiving the attention of the leading churches throughout the country. Miss Jessie Schaper is also spending several weeks with her homefolks. Miss Jessie was awarded a $150.00 scholarship at the commencement exercises of Lindenwood College for scholastic standing, and also enjoys the distinction of being the author of the Lindenwood prize song for 1923-24.

Lake Village, Ark.,
June 16. Spectator

Miss Delia Kinkade, of Lake Village, gained a distinction of practical merit, during her school year, just ended, at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. She was designated, in the list of commencement awards, as having kept the "best double room in Jubilee Hall," which is one of the dormitories. Her room-mate, who gained similar distinction, was another Arkansas girl, Miss Elizabeth Ganner, of Russellville. Lindenwood is an endowed institution, and follows the practice, in commencement prizes of giving gold pieces, one of which was bestowed on Miss Kinkade.

Pagosa Springs (Colo.)
June 14 Sun.

Honors for Pagosa Girl

Miss Marguerite Hersch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hersch of Pagosa Springs, won first place in an unusual competition at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. This was what is called an "expense account contest," instituted by George B. Cummings of St. Louis, a business man who is a member of the board of directors. It is the purpose to induce correct system in managing money matters, and the girl who wins it must budget her funds at the beginning of the year and live within the estimated allowance. Miss Hersch is also an accomplished musician and served as one of the two piano accompanists at the annual May Day celebration at Lindenwood.

Globe-Democrat
June 17-

LINDENWOOD GRADUATE DIES AT HOME IN IOWA

Announcement of the death of Miss V. Maree Hasbrook, a junior college graduate of Lindenwood College of this season, has been received at the college from her former home in Grundy Center, Ia. She was taken ill after she reached her home, following commencement, with a violent attack of uraemia poisoning, and her death occurred in less than a week.

Miss Hasbrook had specialized in chemistry and was about to be appointed to a position in this line of work in Chicago. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hasbrook of Grundy Center and was 23 years of age. Her scholarship at Lindenwood was of such excellence that she was made a member of the honorary literary sorority, Alpha Sigma Tau.

Joseph and Marguerite Hersch arrived home Monday by auto from Missouri, where they have been attending college the past term, the former at Washington university in St. Louis and the latter at Lindenwood college at St. Charles.

THE JOURNEYS OF A BIRDMAN'S WIFE

Mary Irwin McDearmon, formerly of St. Louis, now the wife of an officer in the Air Service, describes some of her interesting wanderings of the past few years — First time her plane-driving husband ever drove a flivver they made the ascent of Mount Tacoma, up to Paradise Inn, which trip had certain thrills not to be discounted even by an airman— She advises everybody suffering from ennui to take a touring trip across country and get acquainted with America :: :: ::

Climbing Mount Tacoma has its thrills.

The writer of this article is the wife of Capt. George Stewart Warren, United States Army Air Service, located just now at Scott Field, near Belleville, Ill. Mrs. Warren is a granddaughter of the late Dr. Irwin, who for many years was president of the Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo. She is a graduate of the University of Missouri and of the Benton College of Law in St. Louis and formerly was engaged in newspaper work in this city.

By MARY IRWIN McDEARMON.

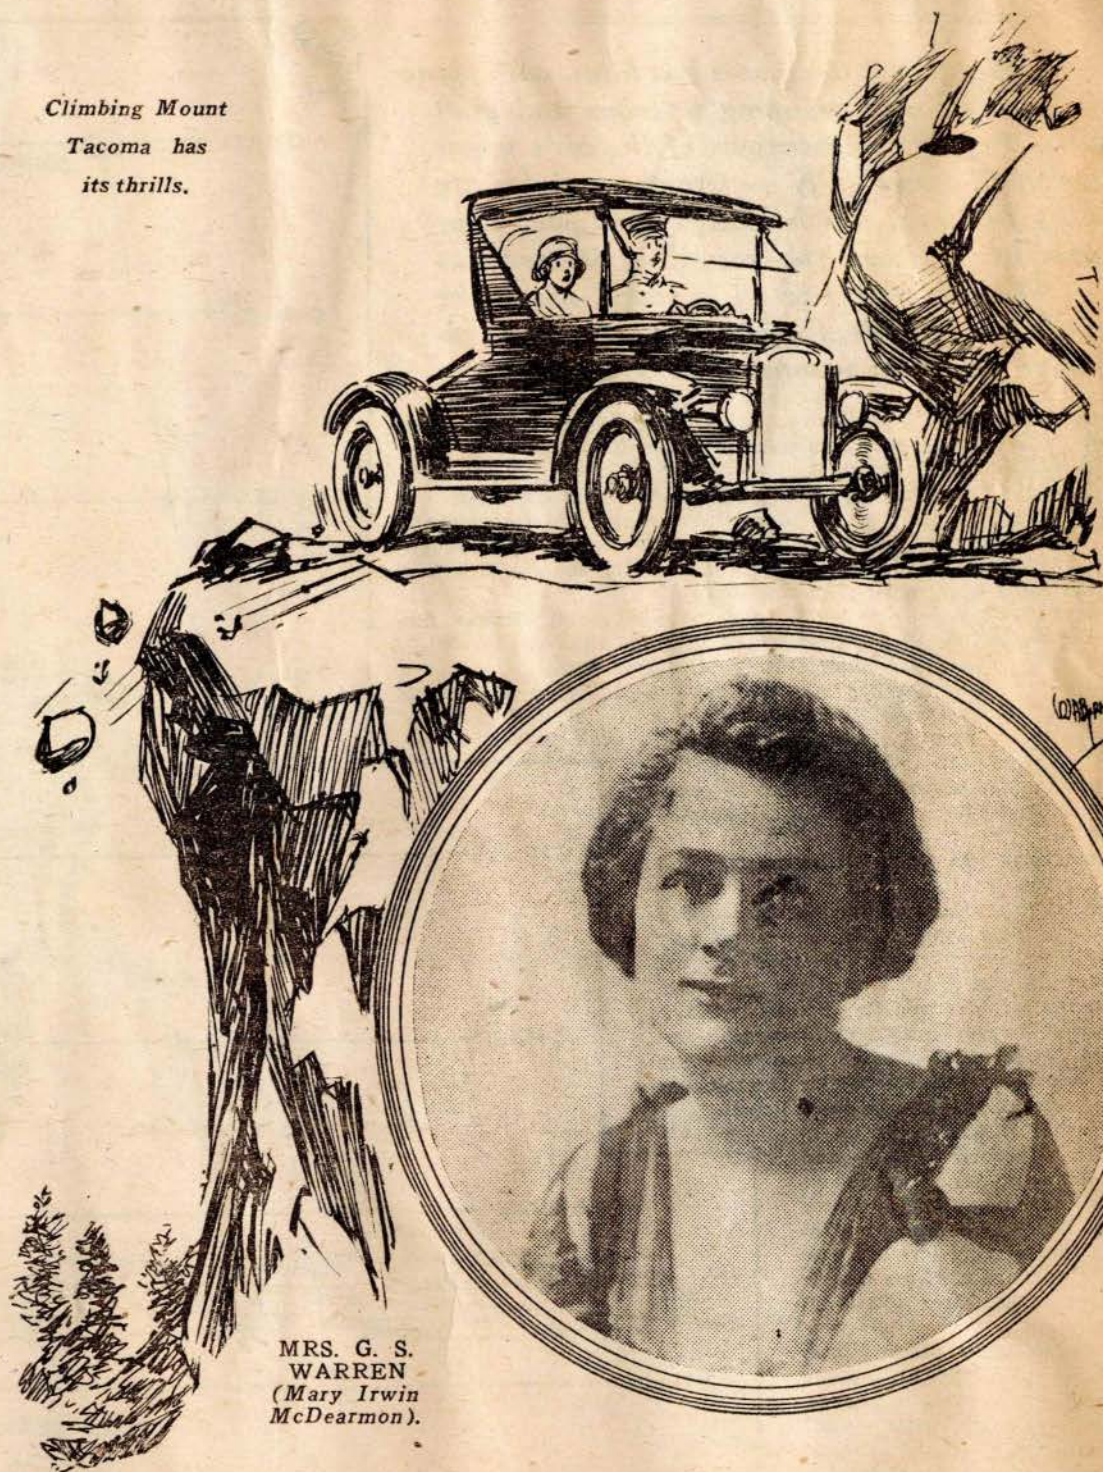

IN THE days gone by wives of army officers traveled with their husbands across the plains by rail, or on horseback, or stayed at home in quiet safety, waiting for the return of their hero. Not so for me. After I have packed the 11 trunks, parked the animal at a veterinarian's "to be sent for," made a list of the contents of every barracks bag and barrel, poured mothballs in the rugs, breathed a prayer over my china, kissed the pictures of my ancestors farewell and left them all to the tender mercies of the Quartermaster. I climbed in our little car by my husband's side, and away we go to the new station.

In the four and one-half years of my marriage I have been from Texas to California, to Seattle, back to California, to Virginia through the Panama Canal, midwest, south to Carolina, and back home again to Missouri. Of the prosaic journeys by rail little new can be told. But I date my romance with my own country from the day my partner took a little roadster of a cheap but well-known make in exchange for a debt. And the next day the fun began.

We were stationed at Camp Lewis, Wash., at that time. At the foot of our street Mount Tacoma (with apologies to Seattle), or Mount Rainier (with the same to Tacoma) stood 15,000 feet high, like a plate of the most perfect ice cream I ever saw. That mountain was a lure to both of us. So on the first day of car-owning, my partner looked at me and I returned the look with "You are going to try that mountain?" and he nodded "Yes; how did you guess it?"

He said he had never driven a car before and I could well believe him. Everything went fine on the 60 miles of boulevard that leads to the mountain, that mountain which seemed so near at the camp, but which seemed to run away farther and farther the longer we rode. Then at last the entrance! We had been running quite well up to this time, keeping fairly on the road, in spite of the shaky driving of my partner. But when that car saw the rangers' cabin and the attractive entrance it drew up in front with a doleful sound and refused to go on.

We ate our lunch at the rangers'. They had all been in the service during the war and liked us because of it. (So they said.) It seemed to please them that we dared to go up the mountain the very first day we drove a car. They seemed to think it daring, but not one bit foolish. But after we began the ascent and had to get in line with high-priced cars in front of us and high-priced cars in rear of us, and sometimes our own little car wouldn't start when it was supposed to and wouldn't stop when it was commanded to, we began to think we were not only daring but foolish as well.

MRS. G. S. WARREN (Mary Irwin McDearmon).

Oh, what an afternoon! We could look down on chasms thousands of feet below us, rounded corners of mountains that were breath-taking. I closed my eyes and kept saying to myself: "If he can fly a plane he can surely drive a car." The perspiration dripped from both foreheads as we went higher, and steeper and steeper. But we got there, clear to Paradise Inn and back, all the way down to the rangers' cabin. Home down the boulevard in the lovely long northern evening, with only one catastrophe—about five miles from the camp we ran completely out of gasoline (this is the only time this has ever happened to us), and the head of the family had to walk two miles to buy some. The garage man, in true Western fashion, drove him all the two miles to the little roadster, and he bore in his arms a large can of gasoline. How we laughed when we got home! Up and down a mountain the first day our pilot ever drove a car, a far greater feat than flying up, when one thought of those mountain roads with that railroad curling around, down miles below.

Followed then a wonderful summer in the Northwest. We traveled all over Northwest Washington. Each week end found us with a lunch basket and suit cases in the little car, traveling from one beautiful spot to another, the wife from the valley of the Mississippi, the husband from one of the most populated blocks of Manhattan. Each trip we made taught us to love the Northwest more, a summer of little rain, of long, cool days, of sunshine and shadow, and of Northern Lights in late summer. My partner would locate lovely spots from his observation balloon during the working week, and we waited only for Saturday noon to make it possible for us to find them. The Cascades, Snoqualamie Falls, Mount Baker, even to Portland we went that summer.

Right here I must tell of "Garry Owen," for it was at Camp Lewis that we found him. The Air Service detachment was surrounded by a regiment of coast artillery, and wonderful neighbors they were. Soon after we got our little car, we acquired a pet named by us "Garry Owen," in remembrance of a famous regiment once our near neighbor in our honeymoon days on the Texas border. "Garry" had belonged to a coast artillery officer's family who were ordered to the Philippine Islands.

My partner taught him many tricks from his kitchenhood. By some magic he would ask him if he belonged to the coast artillery, and by blowing on his ear "sight unseen" he would make Garry shake

(Continued on Page 13.)

Globe-Democrat.

Friday Morning, June 20, 1924.

MISS EDNA M. HONEYWELL GETS MASTER'S DEGREE

Simultaneously with the balloon exploits in Europe of Capt. Honeywell, in the race for the James Gordon Bennett Cup, comes an announcement from the University of Wisconsin that his daughter, Miss Edna M. Honeywell of Kirkwood, has just been awarded her master's degree, M. S., from that university. Miss Honeywell, who graduated at Lindenwood College in 1921, in a junior college course, went on to Wisconsin for further work. She was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Sorority at Lindenwood.

*Globe-Democrat Society
June 22*

Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peter Robinson of 4312 McRee avenue, will be married Tuesday evening at the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, at 8 o'clock, to George Davis Brown. Rev. Dr. R. C. Williamson will officiate. They will make their future home at 5241 Sutherland avenue. Miss Robinson is a former student of Lindenwood College.

Star, June 20.

President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College and Mrs. Roemer will leave Friday for Manitou, Colo., to pass the remainder of the summer.

*Globe-Democrat
June 23*

The pulpit of St. John's Church will be filled next Sunday by Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of the Bible chair of Lindenwood College. During July and August St. John's congregation and that of the Second Baptist will worship together, alternating between the two churches.

*Globe-Dem Socy
June 18*

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer are leaving Lindenwood College at the end of this week for a month in Colorado. For several years they have rested at Manitou each summer and this resort will again be their objective, after first stopping for about a week in Denver. They will return in the late summer, so as to be on hand for consultation in the completion and equipment of the new $200,000 dormitory, which is being built on the south side of the campus, and which is to be named Irwin Hall.

*Times,
June 20*

Lindenwood College Notes.

Miss Edna M. Honeywell of Kirkwood has just received a degree, Master of Science, at Wisconsin University, completing several years of study at that institution. She graduated at Lindenwood College in 1921, in the junior college course, and was then a member of the Phi Theta Kappa. Miss Honeywell is a daughter of Capt. Honeywell, the balloonist, who made 200 kilometers in the recent race for the James Gordon Bennett cup.

*Globe-Democrat,
June 23.*

PROF. ODENWELLER HEADS
LINDENWOOD DEPARTMENT

Announcement has been made by President John L. Roemer that Prof. Arthur L. Odenweller will be head of the department of education at Lindenwood College, beginning with the opening of the school year, September 23. He will succeed the late Prof. Roy S. Dailey, having taken the latter's place by temporary appointment after Prof. Dailey's death in January.

Prof. Odenweller is a member of the honorary educational society, Phi Delta Kappa. He has degrees, Ph. B. from the University of Chicago, and A. M. from Columbia University, New York City. He has had practical experience in public school work, having served in the past as County Superintendent of Schools in Henry County, Ill.; principal of schools at Davenport, Ia., and city schools superintendent at Belleville, Illinois.

He will have supervision of the pedagogical work of those Lindenwood students who intend to become teachers, which is quite a large proportion of the entire number. About a dozen members of this year's graduating class have reported back to the college that they have secured positions to teach in high schools or grade schools.

*Herald & Presbyterian
June 25.*

Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., with Mrs. Roemer, left for a vacation in Colorado last Friday. Among the Lindenwood College registrations for the future is the name of a grand-niece of the founder, Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, her grandmother having been Mrs. Sibley's sister. The young lady, whose home is at Dahlgren, Ill., will enter as a freshman in 1927, the year in which Lindenwood celebrates its centennial.

*Globe-Democrat
2004, June 25-*

About 400 guests were present last evening at the wedding of Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Robinson and Mr. George Davis Brown at the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Robert C. Williamson officiating. The attendants were Miss Norma Hazzard of this city and Mr. Ed Weissenberger of New York City. As the bridal couple wished to leave on their wedding trip last evening, a reception and dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents in Southampton, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Robinson, to the bridal party and a few intimate friends at 5 o'clock, before the ceremony. The bride wore a draped gown of white brocaded georgette, with long sleeves and train. Her wedding veil was caught with a coronet of valley lilies and lace. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown of Carlinville, Ill., a graduate of Cornell University and a member of the Sigma Phi fraternity. The bride is a former Lindenwood College student.

*Globe-Democrat,
June 28*

Registers for Lindenwood.

Miss Jennie Ruth Gamble of Dahlgren, Ill., is registering for entrance to Lindenwood College, three years hence, in September, 1927. Although still in the beginning of her high school course at Dahlgren, Miss Gamble has a particular interest in college work, because her grand-aunt, Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, was the founder of Lindenwood, in 1827. When the grand-niece enters as a freshman, the college will be just 100 years old. Miss Gamble's grandmother was a sister of Mrs. Sibley.

Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of Lindenwood College will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at St. John's Methodist Church, Kingshighway and Washington avenue. In the evening the pulpit will be filled by Rev. J. D. Tussey, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

*Orrick (Mo.) Times
June 12.*

Miss Carolyn Sheetz, who is returning home after completing her college course, with the degree Bachelor of Arts at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., received the honor of being elected to the honorary literary sorority, Alpha Sigma Tau, which was announced at commencement. Miss Sheetz's musical gifts were exemplified in the duet which she sang with Miss Martha Whaley, "Come Malika, Lakme," at the commencement exercises. She took the role of "Viola" in the commencement play, Shakespear's "Twelfth Night," presented on the evening of May Day, in Roemer Hall. At the out-door May-Day celebration, in the afternoon, Miss Sheetz gave a character dance, in costume, playing the part of "Will Scarlet," with Miss Elizabeth Ganner, of Russellville, Ark., as "Maid Marian." Miss Sheetz is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robt. Sheetz, of Orrick.

*Merrill (Wis.)
Herald, May 31*

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED TO LOCAL LADY

Miss Elizabeth Arveson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Arveson, 608 First street, returned to this city Wednesday evening from St. Charles, Missouri, where she attended Lindenwood College.

To Miss Arveson was awarded a $200 scholarship, as one of the best Juniors in a school of 450 students, the conspicuous honors to extend over the next school year. The competition was on a basis of "scholarship, general ability, and loyalty to the Standards of Lindenwood."

*Post-Dispatch
June 29.*

The wedding of Miss Dorothy E. Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Robinson of 5241 Sutherland avenue and George Davis Brown of Carrollton, Ill., took place June 24 at the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Williamson officiating. The bride wore a gown of brocaded georgette, fashioned with long sleeves, and a court train which fell from her shoulders. A coronet of lace and lilies of the valley held her veil in place, and she carried some of the same flowers combined with roses. Miss Norma Hazzard was maid of honor, and Edward Weissenberger best man. Mary Anne Winston and Virginia Lee Perry were flower girls. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Brown motored to Chicago on their honeymoon trip. They will make their home at 5241 Sutherland avenue after July 5. The bride is a graduate of Lindenwood College. Mr. Brown is an alumnus of Cornell University and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Carrollton.

*State Removal
June 30
St. Louis*

LINDENWOOD TEACHERS ON SUMMER VACATIONS

Teachers of Lindenwood College have dispersed for their summer vacations, going to many different points. President and Mrs. John L. Roemer are at Manitou, Colo. Miss Louise Stone, teacher of French, is in Europe. Miss Mary Barnett, teacher of Spanish, has gone to the University of Mexico, in Mexico City, to give a summer teaching course.

Dr. Bertha Martin, head of the biology department, is at Ware, Mass., and Miss Ethel Eltinge of the same department is at her home in Syracuse, N. Y. Miss Lillian Allyn head of the business department, has gone on a Western trip. Miss Mary Lear, professor of chemistry, is with relatives in the state. Miss Lois Karr, mathematics and physics, is at her home in Indianola, Iowa.

Miss Leta Meacham, who teaches the making of clothing in the home economics department, is with relatives at Wejser, Idaho. Miss Lucia Hutchins is doing some coaching and will be at her home in Brockton, Mass. Miss Florence Schaper, sociology, is at her parents' home in Washington, Mo.

Miss Marjorie Weber, head of the athletic work, is spending three weeks in directing a girls' summer camp on the Hudson. The rest of the summer she will be at her home in Baltimore, Md. Miss Elsa Weber, professor of history and economics, is in New York City at her home.

*Star, front Page
June 30*

TH

00 I

Jury In

Tablet of 2400 B. C. for Lindenwood

Three guaranteed genuine Babylonian tablets, two of which are rivals of Tutankhamen in antiquity, have been purchased for the ancient language department of Lindenwood College, to be used next season. These are from the collection of Edgar J. Banks. One, supposed to be made about 2400 B. C., which was found at Drehem, a suburb of Nippur, is a record of the number of sacrificial animals received at the Temple of Bell, located at Drehem. Another found at Jokha, has to do with oil and other supplies used in temple offerings. It is of about the same age as the first. The third, definitely identified as belonging to the age of Nebuchadnezzar, 605 to 562 B. C., is a merchant's account tablet, the stone ruled in squares, numerically, to record various business transactions.

Y FREE-LANCE

HENRYETTA, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1924.

King Richard IV

Crowns Queen Isabel

10,000 PEOPLE WATCH THE CORONATION CEREMONIES AT FIFTH AND MAIN LAST NIGHT

People From All Parts of Oklahoma Flock To Scene To See King Richard IV Ascend the Throne and Crown Queen Isabel.

MISS ISABEL BREESE
Queen of the Fourth Annual
Koal Karnival

Lord High Chancellor Kauffman then informed his Majesty that the Queen's cavalcade approached, and King Richard at once ordered a fitting reception for the queen. This reception took form when twenty girls dressed in white, under the direction of Mrs. Brown, marched up and took their places on the platform where they sang "The King and Queen" written for the occasion by Dorothy Eastin. As this song was being sung Miss Isabel Breese as Queen Henryetta IV was escorted to the stand attended by her ladies in waiting, Miss Mary Hutton, Miss Maxine Diamond and Miss Ruth Alexander.

Miss McIntosh, visiting princess from Dustin, attended by Miss Douglass, were then introduced to Queen Henryetta IV.

Miss ~~Moss~~ Ruth Alexander, visiting princess from Ardmore, was introduced. No attendants.

The Queen was then introduced to the King, and was crowned with the regal diadem of Queen Henryetta, of the Kingdom of Koal.

Barrister R. B. F. Hummer then presented to his Majesty a beautiful diamond ring as a token of fealty and loyalty from the servile subjects of the kingdom. The king immediately presented this ring to his Queen, placing it gallantly on her finger.

Following this the Lord High Sheriff issued the King's proclamation setting apart the remainder of the week as a holiday season during which merriment is to rule in the domain of Koal.

This concluded the ceremonies, and the royal party was escorted to the Elks hall where a ball was given attended by the King and Queen and their attendants, and a large number of their subjects.

RICHARD F. PULLEN
King of the Fourth Annual
Koal Karnival

Incorrect
Greenville (Ill.) Advocate,
June (Incorrect)

MISS ELIZABETH HOILES WINNER OF HIGHEST HONORS AT SMITH COLLEGE, NORTHAMPTON, MASS.

from "The Advocate"
Greenville, Illinois / 20-21-

On Tuesday afternoon The Advocate received a telegram from the Collegian Bureau of Boston, Mass., as follows: "Smith College confers her highest commencement honor on prominent Greenville girl."

Of course as there is only two Greenville girls in Smith College and as Miss Elizabeth Hoiles, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hoiles graduated from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., this year it was no trouble to find out who the young lady in question was.

Miss Hoiles was graduated from the Greenville high school with the class of 1920 and took her Freshman year at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.

The following year she entered Smith College where she has pursued her studies for the past three years and the telegram of Tuesday speaks for itself of the standard of the work she has done there.

When The Advocate called members of the Hoiles family in Greenville, they were not aware of the honor conferred and did not know that Miss Elizabeth had been declared the honor student of her class.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hoiles and son, Douglas and their nephew, Allen Keith, left Greenville by motor the last of May for the east. They took the southern route, through Virginia, Washington, D. C., going to Norwalk, Conn., where their youngest daughter, Miss Virginia, was graduated from the high school. The commencement exercises were held there on June 11 at which time Virginia received some very complimentary honors in connection with her work.

From Norwalk Mr. and Mrs. Hoiles went to Northampton where graduation exercises of Smith College were held Wednesday.

Another daughter, Miss Juliet Hoiles, is a student at Smith College and will graduate there next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoiles will return to Greenville with their daughters the latter part of June, coming the northern route through New York to Niagara Falls and other points of interest enroute.

Last year, Miss Juliet Hoiles, the second daughter, won the Burnam B. an honor given to the student making the highest honors in scholastic and athletic activities.

Times,
July 3.

Women's Activities
 By AITHRA HOLLAND.

Mrs. C. C. Hawken, whom many Lindenwood College students will remember as Virginia Mitchell, '03, and who was one of the early graduates to attain distinction in journalism, has just died in New Mexico, where she went for her health. Her paper, of which she was editor, was the Southwest Daily Mail and later the Evening Post, of Nevada, Mo. She was apprenticed under her father 20 years ago, and upon his death took full charge, even to the extent of being particularly interested in politics.

Globe-Democrat
July 2

MRS. C. C. HAWKEN, EDITOR.
 DIES IN NEW MEXICO

Notice has been received at Lindenwood College of the death of an alumna, Mrs. C. C. Hawken, formerly Virginia Mitchell of the class of 1903, who was for years editor of the Southwest Daily Mail, and later the Evening Post at Nevada, Mo. In this work she was at first associated with her father, the late R. Mitchell, and after his death she continued in charge of the paper. She died in New Mexico, where she had gone with her brother, Hal Mitchell, following an attack of influenza.

Post-Dispatch Socy
July 6 -

SOCIETY

Misses Laura Margaret Mellette, Josephine Jackson and Virginia Symns, will entertain with a house party at Radio Springs cottage next week, guests including a group of charming girls, most of them Lindenwood College girls. The week promises to be pretty full with swimming and boating and other outdoor diversions at the Park, and the more formal affairs will include a bridge party Wednesday afternoon and on Monday night a reception, when a number of young men of the town will be invited to meet the visitors.

The party, which is as follows, will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mellette and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Symns.

Nevada, Mo.,
S. W. Mail & Post, June 21

Misses Lynn Brown, Georgia Belle Donaldson and Mary Louise Blocker of Kansas City, Mo., Margaret Shouse of Muskogee, Oklahoma, Pauline Davis of Nowata, Oklahoma, Mildred Argust of Pittsfield, Illinois, Lillian Tweedie of Jefferson City, Freda Riepma of Independence, Mo., Frances Taintor and Frances Stumberg of St. Charles, Margaret Squire of Cherryvale, Kas., Lucile Guise of Coffeyville, Kas., Martha Rogers of Pittsburg, Kas., Elizabeth Bates of Linneus, Mo., and Marion Martin of Fort Scott, Kas.

* * *

Miss Lucinda Templin, of Lindenwood College, will depart tomorrow for Columbia, Mo., for research work in the State University historical library, getting material for her book, "The History of the Education of Women in Missouri."

*Globe-Democrat
July 6 -*

DEAN TEMPLIN WRITING THESIS TO GAIN DEGREE

Resigns from Lindenwood College to Become Doctor of Philosophy.

Dean Lucinda de Leftwich Templin of Lindenwood College leaves Monday for Columbia, Mo., to spend the summer in research work in the historical library of the State University, in connection with the thesis she is writing on "The History of the Education of Women in Missouri." She will go on to Columbia University, New York City, to spend the winter and is to col- late her findings for publication in book form. This will complete her work looking to the degree, Doctor of Philosophy, from Colum- bia University.

Dean Templin has the degrees, A. B., B. S., and A. M. from the Uni- versity of Missouri. She has done post-graduate work at Harvard and at Columbia University. While at Lindenwood, Dean Templin has written two books, "Reminiscences of Lindenwood," a historical work, dating from 1827 to the present time, and "The Newer Lindenwood," which appeared at the time of the dedication of Roemer Hall. Bes- ides her work as an educator, and her active part in advancing Lin- denwood from a junior to a four- year college, Miss Templin is the Missouri representative of the National Committee on Prison Work and a member of the State Board of the Missouri Welfare League.

She stumped the state in the in- terest of the war-time Liberty Loans, making talks at the col- leges in Missouri. She was special representative at the national con- ventions of women that met during the war. She has resigned at Lin- denwood, in order to give all her time to her work for the doctorate. She became dean eight years ago. She has also taught history and sociology.

LINDENWOOD MUSIC

FACULTY ON VACATION

Differing relaxations chosen for the summer by various artists show none more original than the vaca- tion plan of Miss Ruth Craig, teach- er of public school music and an instructor in voice, at Lindenwood College. Miss Craig is owner of a silver fox farm in Northern Mich- igan, not far from her home in Traverse City, and there she seeks complete change of scene during a good part of the summer.

Recreations of other members of Lindenwood's music faculty include a trip to California by Miss Paula Postel, teacher of pipe organ; Miss Lucille Hatch will take piano les- sons from Fanny Bloomfield Zeisler, Chicago; Miss Frances Oldfield joins the Siegel summer study camp of singers at Schroon Lake; and Miss Ariel Gross studies with Isidor Phil- ippe, at Fontainebleau, near Paris.

Monday Morning, July 7

Says Nomination for Presidency Is One of Small Things of Life

Dr. Calder Preaches at Second Presbyterian Church.

In a discourse on "Christianity Conquering the World," by Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of the Bible choir of Lindenwood College, at the Second Presbyterian Church, Taylor ave- nue and Westminster place, yes- terday morning, mention was made of the "nomination for the presi- dency," as one of the "small things" of life, as compared with the spiritual realities known to the Christian.

"Once the leaders of the Demo- cratic party in New York," he said, "offered to then Mayor Gaynor the nomination of Governor. He had served a year as Mayor, and his popularity was then at its height. This was a little after the attempt had been made on his life by an insane man. Mr. Gaynor declined the nomination. A friend wrote, urging him to reconsider. 'You are certain to be elected Governor,' he said, 'by an overwhelming majority. You will naturally become the Dem- ocratic candidate for President at the election, and the Democrat nomi- nated will be the next President' (as it turned out to be).

"Mayor Gaynor replied to the friend: 'After a man has gone down to the valley of the shadow of death, as I have, and faced death, all these things seem mighty small.'

Power Is Insignificant.

"Pleasure and power—these things for which we strain our strength and sap our souls, in reality are so insignificant. Some day we shall look back over our life, unconcerned whether we had these things or not. They are not bad things, but they are such trivial things. Meanwhile, the really great things are before us—cleanness, honesty, unselfish- ness, goodness, God. These are the necessary things."

Dr. Calder said that the early Christians, who had undergone mar- tyrdom by the lions or by fire, had been able to "out-think" the pagans. "There is no monopoly on the truth," he said. "Our God is the God of nature and of revelation, as well as the Father of Jesus Christ. Every fact of natural science is God's fact; very truth of history is God's truth. Then why all this fuss about evolution or about heresies? 'If this be of man, it will come to naught; but if it be of God, we cannot overthrow it.' The Christian has no fear of the truth. 'The truth shall make you free.' All that God has made and all that God has done, is true.

Tradition Strengthened Paganism.

"If truth unsettles faith, then faith is not faith. It is supersti- tion, and ought to be unsettled. The more deeply we think, the nearer we get to God.

"The strength of paganism lay in the fact that it was entrenched and fortified in tradition. Thinking, in fact, was discouraged, Plutarch tells us that his father warned him. It was a dangerous thing to ask questions about the gods and reli- gion. Such things, he said, were merely to be received and believed. But, Christians from the first seem to have been thinkers. They be- gan to inquire. They were seekers after truth. A certain ancient stone shrine had a sign at its back, 'Christians, keep out.' The god in that stone was a snake with a big mask tied on. That was good enough for pagans, but Christians thought, and could not be fooled so easily."

The speaker told of the separa- tion of religion and morals in the pagan religions. The high ethics of Aristotle were not followed by the pagan priest. "Christianity brings a new ideal into this selfish world. The Christian brings a new spirit and a new power, and the whole human race is bound into one common, loving brotherhood."

*Globe-Democrat,
July 7 -*

Globe-Democrat
July 9

MISS SULLIVAN TO JOIN LINDENWOOD FACULTY

Miss Gladys Sullivan, who graduated this year at Lindenwood College with the degree of Master of Music, will return to the college in September as a member of the faculty. She is to teach Theory in the music department. Another Lindenwood student who will teach music is Miss Eolia Skelton. She has been employed at St. Charles for the coming winter to teach public school music. Miss Lucille Jordan will teach public school music in the Sparta (Ill.) schools.

Columbia (Mo.) Missourian
July 8.

IS STUDYING FOR DEGREE

Former Dean of Lindenwood College in University.

Miss Lucinda de Leftwich Templin, who has been dean of Lindenwood College for eight years, is spending the summer in Columbia doing research work in the Historical Library. Miss Templin is a graduate of the University of Missouri, holding A. B., B. S. and A. M. degrees from this institution, and is now engaged in the preparation of a thesis, "The History of the Education of Women in Missouri," which will be applied on her preparation for the degree, Doctor of Philosophy, from Columbia University, New York City.

She has given up her work at Lindenwood, which included a professorship of history, and will spend the next year studying.

Times, July 12.

Social Notes

Miss Eleanor Moehlenkamp, who graduated from Lindenwood College with the degree B. S. in Education, has been notified of an honor from the University of Missouri. Because she stood first in rank in her senior year, just completed, the State University has conferred on her the "Curators' Scholarship." Miss Moehlenkamp has decided not to accept the scholarship for the coming year, but will teach history in the St. Charles Junior High School.

Clarion-News, Princeton, Ind.
July 10-

TO TEACH MUSIC IN ST. CHARLES, MO.

Miss Etolia Skelton of this city, who has been a student for some time at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she specialized in music, has been appointed to teach public school music in St. Charles for the coming winter.

West Plains (Mo.) Journal
July 12

West Plains Girl Honored

Miss Gladys Sullivan, whose music studies at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., secured for her the unusual degree, this year, of Master of Music, is to be added to the Music Department of that institution as an instructor. For the next season she will teach Theory at Lindenwood.

West Plains folks are very proud of Miss Sullivan.

Chillicothe (Mo.) Tribune
July 12

▲ ▲ ▲
Anna Shelton to Beloit—Appointment to the teaching staff of the Beloit (Wis.) high school, to teach history, has been accorded to Miss Anna Jane Shelton of Chillicothe. Miss Shelton graduated two years ago at Lindenwood College, receiving the junior college degree, Associate in Arts, from that institution.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
▲ ▲ ▲

Princeton (Ind.) Democrat
July 20

ELECTED TO TEACH MUSIC IN SCHOOLS AT ST. CHARLES, MO.

Announcement has been made by the school board of St. Charles, Mo., of the election of Miss Etolia Skelton, of Princeton, to teach public school music there for the coming year. Miss Skelton has been a student in the music department of Lindenwood College, St. Charles.

*Globe-Dem. Socy
July 15*

Miss Alice Linneman of St. Charles, who is spending July in Chicago, was guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Chicago Lindenwood College Club, Saturday. Nine years ago Miss Linneman, who is head of Lindenwood's art department, organized this club, and was at that time elected an honorary member. Many social affairs are being given in her honor by her Chicago friends.

*Globe-Democrat,
July 16-*

NASHVILLE, IND., GIRL TO TEACH AT LINDENWOOD

Miss Mary Brown of Nashville, Ind., who took her degree as Master of Science at Washington University in 1921, will be assistant in biology at Lindenwood College for the coming year. Miss Brown graduated from Butler College with the degree, A. B., in 1919. She is a member of both the Phi Sigma and the Sigma Xi. She has spent two summers in graduate work at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Wood's Hole, Mass., and a year of graduate work at the University of Chicago. She was assistant in biology at Washington University for one year and later associate professor of biology at Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky.

*West Plains (Mo.) Gazette,
July 18*

WILL TEACH IN LINDENWOOD

Miss Gladys Sullivan, of West Plains, has been engaged to teach theory in the music department of Lindenwood College, at St. Charles, Mo., for the coming term. The announcement has just been made. Miss Sullivan is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sullivan, of Webster avenue, and is a talented musician. She was graduated from Lindenwood in May with the degree of Master of Music.

*Times Society and Miss
July 19.*

Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, will return today to the college from a trip to Colorado, on which they departed early in June. They divided the time between Denver, Manitou and Colorado Springs.

*Globe-Democrat
July 13-*

Winner of Curators' Scholarship Who Recently Graduated

MISS ELEANORE MOCHLENKAMP

A curators' scholarship at the University of Missouri has been awarded to Miss Eleanore Mochlenkamp, a graduate of the season with the degree B. S. at Lindenwood College. The award is made on the basis of scholarship in the senior year, and Miss Mochlenkamp was selected because in the last year her grades were superior to those of any other student in the college.

Before completing her senior year Miss Mochlenkamp taught in the Junior High School of St. Charles, her home town. She was a member at Lindenwood of the Alpha Sigma Tau, an honorary literary organization, as well as of the Education Club and the International Relations Club of the college.

*Globe-Democrat
July 19.*

Named "Koal Karnival" Queen.

Miss Isabel Breese, who is a junior at Lindenwood College, has just been crowned in her home town, Henryetta, Okla., as queen of the annual "koal karnival" of that town. Richard F. Pullen of Henryetta was the "king." The name "Queen Henryetta IV." was given in the festival to Miss Breese, whose attendants, each from another Oklahoma town, were called "Princesses." One of the number, "Princess Ruth Alexander," of Ardmore, Ok., is also a junior at Lindenwood and was the writer of the music for the prize college song last year.

Star, Soey,
July 22

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College returned Saturday after several weeks in Colorado, most of which was spent at Manitou Springs.

Globe-Dem.
July 23.

ROEMERS BACK AFTER TRIP IN COLORADO HILLS

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College have returned to town after a month's vacation in the mountains of Colorado. Dr. Roemer has been invited to a special meeting of the Des Moines (Ia.) Lindenwood College Club next Monday, where he is to make an address. He and Mrs. Roemer will supervise the furnishing of Irwin Hall, the new dormitory, which is now being completed and which will be dedicated on October 24.

Times Soey,
July 23.

Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves is taking a foreign tour, following her graduation at Lindenwood College. Recent messages from her say that she is sight-seeing in Rome, where she and her friends have met Miss E. Louis Stone of the faculty of Lindenwood, and Miss Stone's niece, Miss Janet Robinson, of Burlington, Ia., who was a Lindenwood student last year.

Globe Democrat
music - July 20.

Miss Edwards at Lindenwood.

A new teacher of voice has been added to the music department of Lindenwood College in Miss Cora M. Edwards of Coshocton, Ohio, who comes from the Chicago Musical College, where she has just received the degree of bachelor of music. Miss Edwards is a graduate of Wooster College Conservatory, Wooster, Ohio, where she was student assistant for a year. She became head of the music department of Pillsbury Academy, at Owatonna, Minn., for two years, where she was also director of the Presbyterian Church choir. In the last year in Chicago she has been soloist at Bethany Union Church.

Globe-Democrat
July 21

NEW PSYCHOLOGY HEAD FOR LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Dorrett Stumberg, who for the last year has been doing post-graduate work at Harvard, will be professor of psychology at Lindenwood College, beginning with the semester in September. This branch was formerly taught by the late Prof. Roy S. Dailey.

Miss Stumberg's home is in St. Charles, but for two years before going to Harvard, 1921-23, she taught psychology at the University of Kansas. She is a graduate of Lindenwood when it was a junior college, received A. B. from Smith College in 1917 and M. A. from the University of Chicago in 1920.

Page 1, Journal and Courier,
Lafayette, Ind.,
July 23.

WILL TEACH AT GIRLS' COLLEGE

Miss Anna Wurster Takes Position on Lindenwood Faculty; Recently Returned from France.

Miss Anna Wurster of this city has been engaged as a teacher of French at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., a girls' college of 500 students which has had continuous existence for 97 years. Miss Wurster received the degrees B. S. and M. S. at Purdue university, and she taught in the Lafayette high school from 1904 to 1918, going from here to the South Dakota state college, from which she returned to teach at Purdue university, 1919-21. She has recently spent two years in France, receiving a diploma at the Sorbonne.

Globe-Democrat, July 26

Lindenwood Instructor Quits.

Miss Myrl Rodney, who has had charge of the expression department of Lindenwood College, has given up her position, in order to remain at home in Kansas City with her mother for the coming year. A new instructor is appointed to this department, Miss Harriet Diven of Blairsville, Pa., who has just graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation from Emerson College of Oratory in Boston, Mass.

ed to this department, Miss Harriet Diven of Blairsville, Pa., who has just graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Literary Interpretation from Emerson College of Oratory in Boston, Mass.

Society, Tribune and Times-Age, Coshocton, O., July 2

Miss Cora N. Edwards, formerly of Coshocton, and daughter of Mrs. Cynthia Edwards, of Plainfield, has recently been appointed to teach voice at Lindenwood College, St. Louis, Mo., beginning with September.

Miss Edwards has in the last year been soloist in the Bethany Union church, in Chicago, Ill. where she has been studying at the Chicago Musical College, receiving her degree of Bachelor of Music from that institution of learning.

Miss Edwards was also graduated from the Conservatory of Music, at Wooster College, and was a student assistant one year there. Before going to Chicago, Miss Edwards was engaged as head of the musical department of Pillsbury Academy, at Owatonna, Minn.

Watchman-Advocate Clayton Mo., July 25

Miss Page Wright Taking "Finishing Tour" Abroad

Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves has taken the traditional "finishing tour" abroad, after her graduation in May at Lindenwood College. Letters received from her announce that she is now in Rome, where she will spend some time sight-seeing. In her party at Rome are Miss E. Louis Stone, teacher of romance languages at Lindenwood College, and the latter's niece, Miss Janet Robinson of Burlington, Ia. Miss Wright specialized in physical education when she received her degree of bachelor of science and she was the winner at commencement of an award for all-round athletic work.

Post-Dispatch So. July 27.

Letters from Rome have been sent to friends from Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves, who is now touring Europe. Miss Wright was graduated from Lindenwood College in May. Two years ago, while still in college, she was one of the maids of the Veiled Prophet. Among those whom she has met in Rome are Miss E. Louise Stone of Lindenwood's faculty, and Miss Janet Robinson of Burlington, Ia a niece of Miss Stone.

Davenport (Ia.) Democrat and Leader July 25

FORMER DAVENPORT PRINCIPAL GOES TO LINDENWOOD, MO.

Prof. A. L. Odenweller, who has served in Davenport as a school principal, 1920-21, has now been appointed head of the Education department at Lindenwood college. He supplied at this institution for several months this spring, following the death of Prof. Roy S. Dailley in January, and the appointment is now confirmed. Prof. Odenweller was superintendent of schools at Belleville, Ill., 1921-23, and has received the degree M. A. '23 Columbia university, New York City.

Mr. Odenweller was principal of the Fillmore and Polk schools for a year coming here in October, 1920, and leaving the following spring.

Cairo (Ill.) Bulletin July 27-

FORMER CAIRO LADY IN RESPONSIBLE POSITION AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Mrs. Joseph W. Wenger of Cairo, who has for some time been chapron at one of the fraternity houses of the University of West Virginia, at Morgantown, W. Va., has accepted an appointment at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she will be house-mother at Sibley hall, one of the five dormitories of that institution. Lindenwood is a four-year college for girls, with an enrollment of 450 students last year.

Brown County
ty Democrat.

JULY 24, 1924

Nashville, Ind.

*Front Page,
Blairsville (Pa.) Dispatch
July 25*

BLAIRSVILLE GIRL TO TEACH IN WEST

Miss Harriet Diven, of town, who recently graduated at Emerson College, Boston, Mass., has been appointed to teach expression at St. Charles, Mo. Miss Diven was a graduate in 1921 of Westminster College, New Wilmington.

Lindenwood is a four-year college for women, which has been continuously carried on since 1827. It has a roster of about five hundred students.

*Attica, Ind. Ledger-Tribune,
July 26*

MISS FLOY WINKS TO TEACH
AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Floy Winks, of Attica, who has been an instructor in English at the Ohio State University, has accepted a position of similar responsibility at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., beginning September 23, with the opening of the fall semester. This college draws students from almost every state in the Union, and is one of the oldest institutions in the Middle West having been founded in 1827, with continuous existence ever since.

Miss Winks graduated with the degree A. B. at DePauw University and received A. M. from Ohio State University. She also taught for a year at DePauw.

MISS MARY BROWN IS A BROWN COUNTY LADY

Receives Appointment to Teach Biology at Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo.

Miss Mary Brown, daughter of Lee Brown, of near here, has been appointed to teach Biology at Lindenwood College, a four year college for women, at St. Charles, Mo., and will begin her duties September 23.

Miss Brown is an A. B. of Butler College, 1919, and received a Master's degree in Science, two years later, at Washington University, St. Louis. She has spent two summers in graduation work at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Wood's Hole, Mass., and a year of graduation work at the University of Chicago. She has been an associate professor of Biology at Transylvania College, Lexington, Pa.

Lindenwood is a college of nearly 100 years' continuous history, having been founded in 1827 by Mary Easton Sibley, daughter of Judge Easton, who was the first postmaster of St. Louis. It enrolled 450 students last year, and is now completing a dormitory to accommodate 80 more.

Carlinville Democrat

Carlinville, Illinois, Wednesday, July 30, 1924

IRWIN HALL TO BE DEDICATED NEXT FALL

Elaborate Exercises Will Mark the Occasion.

Mrs. W. F. Jones, of Carlinville, is Daughter of Donor of $200,000
Dormitory at Lindenwood College.

Mrs. W. F. Jones, wife of Rev. W. F. Jones, of Blackburn college, will receive reflected honors this fall in the dedication of a new $200,000 dormitory at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., in honor of her father, the late Rev. Robert Irwin, who was president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893. An extended biography of Dr. Irwin appears in the July number of the Lindenwood College Bulletin. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Kate Irwin, and for several years head of the Art department at Lindenwood.

A piquant feature of the dedicatory ceremonies, which are to occur in late October, will be the presence of several airplanes, for which arrangements are being made by Capt. George Warren, of Scott Field. Capt. Warren married Dr. Irwin's granddaughter, Miss Mary Irwin McDearmon.

Rev. W. Frank Irwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Irvington-on-the-Hudson (the church at which Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard worships), is to be among the descendants of Dr. Irwin, who will be present at the dedication.

The naming of Irwin Hall has received warm approval from many alumnae of Lindenwood who were benefited by his wise administration and counsel. Irwin Hall will be the fourth large building which has been put up on the college grounds since President John L. Roemer became head of the college, ten years ago, all of these having been made possible by the millions left to the institution by the late Col. James Gay Butler, of St. Louis. By vote of the board of trustees, Dr. Roemer's tenth anniversary is to be commemorated with suitable exercises at the opening convocation of the school year, September 25th.

*Herald & Presbyterian
July 30*

Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., and Mrs. Roemer, returned last week from Colorado, having spent the vacation in the mountains. The work in hand at Lindenwood College just now is the completion of the new Irwin Hall, the date of dedication of which is fixed for Oct. 24.

44 More St. Louisans
Listed in 1925 Issue of
'Who's Who' in U. S.

Many Noted Educators and Prelates Included in New Roster.

The 1924-25 issue of "Who's Who in America" contains forty-four new names from St. Louis, making a total of 288 persons from this city who are mentioned in the book, which has just been published by A. N. Marquis & Co. of Chicago. Among those who make their appearance for the first time are Chancellor Hadley of Washington University and the following professors from that institution: G. O. James, dean of the college and mathematics; Arnold J. Lien, political science; Leverette S. Lyon, economics; W. R. Mackenzie, English; W. H. Roever, mathematics, and W. McKim Marriott, pediatricist, Barnes Hospital.

From St. Louis University are listed for the first time Dr. David H. Dolley, pathologist, and Rev. A. M. Schwitalla.

Richard Spamer, music and drama editor of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT for the past fifteen years, is also mentioned for the first time. He is named as a member of the St. Louis Art League, Liederkrantz and Shakespeare Society.

Concordia Lutheran Seminary figures with its new dean, Dr. John H. C. Fritz, and other new names are Rev. P. E. Kretzmann, Rev. M. S. Sommer and Prof. Th. Graebner. From Eden Theological Seminary a new name is Rev. Philip Vollmer.

Others Listed.

M. L. Wilkinson, president of Scruggs - Vandervoort - Barney Dry Goods Company, is newly listed, as also Daniel Upthegrove, president of the Cotton Belt Railroad; Albert T.

Continued on Page 3, Column 6.

*Front Page,
Globe-Democrat
Aug. 1.*

44 More
St. Louisans in Who's Who

Continued from First Page.

Perkins, manager for the receiver of the United Railways, and among other railway officials, Lewis W. Baldwin and John G. Drew. Edward J. Manion, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, is given from St. Louis.

Jose de Olivares, of the diplomatic service, now gives his home as St. Louis. L. H. Egan, president of the Union Electric Company, and Richard W. Meade, president of the People's Motorbus Company, are new names; also Ross Crane and Montrose P. McArdle, architects; C. E. Van Barneveld, of the Mississippi Valley Experiment Station, Bureau of Mines; James E. Carroll, lawyer, Wallace Lee, geologist; D. H. Doane, consulting agricultural engineer; F. P. Glass of the St. Louis Star; Robertus Love, of the Post-Dispatch; Frank C. Rand, shoe manufacturer; Francis J. Stuart, manufacturer and banker; John L. Johnston, president of the Liberty-Central Trust Company; James M. Buick, Ludwig Kotany, and Dr. L. M. Ottofy.

Six Pastors on List.

Six new pastors are added from St. Louis: Rev. Frank G. Beardsley, Fountain Park Congregational Church; Rev. George A. Campbell, Union Avenue Christian Church; Rev. William B. Lampe, West Presbyterian Church; Rev. Henry A. Porter, Third Baptist Church; Rev. E. S. Travers, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, and Dean Scarlett, of Christ Church Cathedral.

Listed from Lindenwood College, the name of Miss Lucinda de Leftwich Templin appears for the first time. She has been Dean of the college for the last eight years. She is a member of the College and Town Clubs of St. Louis, of the Women's City Club of New York, and of various national societies for educational and vocational work.

The current volume of "Who's Who in America" is volume thirteen in the biennial publications of this work. It is a book of 3387 pages, containing 25,357 biographies.

*La Grange, Ill. Citizen
July 26*

WILL TEACH AT COLLEGE

Miss Margaret Miles of 106 North Madison avenue, has been appointed for the coming winter to teach romance languages at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri. Miss Miles received her degree of A. B. at the University of Illinois in 1921, and in the last season has gained the M. A. degree at the same institution.

In the last three years she has been an instructor at the university. She enjoyed a season of study abroad in the summer of 1923. Miss Mile's ranking scholarship is seen in her membership in Phi Beta Kappa. She is also a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Lindenwood College is one of the oldest scholastic institutions in the middle west. From its founding, in 1827, it has been devoted exclusively to the education of young women. It now offers an accredited four-year college course, and has almost 500 students registered.

July 30

Globe-Democrat St. Louis

LINDENWOOD TO EXTEND MODERN LANGUAGE COURSE

Lindenwood College will extend its course in modern languages with an increased number of students in the coming year, and two new teachers in the department. Anna Wurster, who will teach French, received a diploma at the Sorbonne University, Paris, two years ago. She taught French for two years at Purdue University, and for one year was acting head of the modern language department of South Dakota State College. Her home is in Lafayette, Ind.

Margaret Miles of La Grange, Ill., who comes into the department to teach romance languages, has a master's degree at the University of Illinois, where she has been an instructor. She spent the summer of 1923 in study abroad.

E. Louise Stone, head of the modern language department, is abroad this summer. Mary Barnett, who teaches Spanish at Lindenwood, is spending part of the summer in Mexico City, as an instructor in summer work of the University of Mexico.

Front Page, Real Estate,
Globe-Democrat, Aug. 3

Front Page, Society.
Post-Dispatch, Aug. 3.

Irwin Hall, a new dormitory for Lindenwood College, will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the fall term in September. It is designed by Le Beaume & Klein, architects, and is based on the domestic architecture of the Tudor Gothic period, harmonizing agreeably with Roemer Hall, recently completed, and other buildings on the campus. Students' rooms are arranged in suites with a private bath for every four girls.

Friends of the groom are just learning that William H. Murphy, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Murphy, 3 Princeton Lane, University City, and Miss Marjorie Leigh Wyman of Chicago, formerly of St. Louis, were married in Kansas City on July 10. They spent their honeymoon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Murphy, "Marydale," Kingsville, Mo., and are now residing at the Princeton Lane address. The bride, who was educated at Lindenwood, is well known in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Murphy, who recently returned from Honolulu, will have as their guests at "Marydale," Mrs. Marie Chenoweth, of Shanghai, China, and Mrs. Elizabeth Padesick of Berkeley, Calif., for the next two weeks.

Front Page, Society,
Globe-Democrat, Aug. 3.

A luncheon in honor of President John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College was given Monday by about thirty-five former Lindenwood students, at the Harris-Emery tearoom at Des Moines, Ia. These hostesses, with Miss Helen Rutledge of Early, Ia., presiding, were representative of the recently organized Iowa Lindenwood College Club, which has fifty-six members. Dr. Roemer was guest at the home of Miss Dorothy Hall and her parents in Des Moines. Others present from the administrative staff of the college were Guy C. Motley and C. A. Blocher. Miss Rebecca Louise Clark of Adel, Ia., secretary of the club, was one of those taking a leading part in the entertainment, which will inaugurate plans for Lindenwood girls in Iowa to have a part in the Mary Easton Sibley memorial scholarship.

NEW ENGLISH TEACHERS FOR LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

It is a coincidence that two of Lindenwood College's new teachers in the English department come originally from the far West. Dean Alice E. Gipson is from Caldwell, Idaho, although her later college work has been in Wheaton College, Mass., and she has a doctor's degree from Yale. Dr. Kate L. Gregg comes from Chehalis, Wash., and her early training and teaching experience was at the University of Washington. She took graduate work later at Yale, and has taught at Elmira College, New York.

It is planned to make the English course at Lindenwood stronger than ever before. Miss Ella T.

Riske, A. M., from Washington University, will return, and new teachers to be added are Miss Ploy Winks, A. B. De Pauw University, A. M. Ohio State University; Miss Virginia Fair of Geneva, N. Y., A. B. Barnard College, A. M. Columbia University; and Miss Amy Williams of New York City, A. B. and A. M., Cornell University, who will assist in both history and English.

"Linden Park," the weekly newspaper which was started at Lindenwood College for the closing month of the last school year, will be resumed by the journalism department with the reopening of the semester, September 23.

Globe-Democrat,
Aug. 4, front page, 2nd
Section

Times,
August 5.

Lewis Co. Advocate,
Chehalis, Wash.,
Aug. 1-

Women's Activities

Lindenwood News.

Miss Caroline Sutherland, of St. Louis, a graduate and former teacher at Lindenwood, who has spent the last seven years in China in missionary work, is in this country on a year's leave. She was recently enrolled as a student at Columbia University in New York. Now she is at a Y. W. C. A. camp at Geneva, Wis. She will visit her parents here the last of the month before leaving for China again.

Miss Elizabeth Stewart, of Marion, Kan., has been appointed a member of the Lindenwood home economics department faculty. Her home is in Winfield, Kansas. She was graduated from and also taught at Southwestern College.

The Iowa Lindenwood Club entertained President Roemer Monday at a luncheon at Des Moines. This club has a membership of 56 present and former Lindenwood girls. At the luncheon enthusiastic support was promised for the $100,000 Mary Easton Sibley scholarship endowment fund.

MISS GREGG GOES TO LINWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Kate L. Gregg of this city, who has for the last two years been associate professor of English at Elmira College, Elmira, N. Y., returns nearer home by accepting an appointment to teach English at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis. This college was established in 1827 by Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, wife of Major George C. Sibley, U. S. commissioner to the Indians, and it has continuously carried on college educational work for girls ever since. It now has a registration of about 500 students. Miss Gregg is a graduate of the University of Washington, where also she received the Ph. D. degree, and later spent a year in graduate study at Yale. She was head of the English department at the University of Idaho for a year and then returned to teach at the University of Washington from 1916 to 1920.

JOPLIN GLOBE, FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1924.

WIDOW OF WILLIAM KNIGHT SUCSUMBS

Lived in Carthage Many Years
While Her Husband was Pastor of Presbyterian Church.

Carthage, Mo., July 24.—Mrs. W. S. Knight, former widely known Carthage resident, died suddenly this morning at her home in Omaha, Neb. News of the death reached friends here today from a daughter-in-law, Mrs. D. M. Knight of Parkville, Mo.

Mrs. Knight was about 71 years old. She was the widow of Dr. William S. Knight, for many years pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Carthage.

Husband Widely Known.

She was married to Mr. Knight in August, 1871, and four years later came to Carthage with her husband when he was called to the pastorate of First Presbyterian church here. They resided here until 1893 when Mr. Knight resigned the pastorate to become president of Lindenwood college at St. Charles, Mo. The family moved back to Carthage in 1900, Mr. Knight resigned the pastorate the Carthage Collegiate Institute, an institution which he was largely instrumental in founding.

Dr. Knight died in Carthage in November, 1905. A few years later Mrs. Knight went to Omaha to reside with her two daughters, Misses Augusta and Ella Knight. Besides the two daughters, a son, D. M. Knight of Parkville, Mo., and a brother and a sister residing in Carthage, Ill., survive.

No funeral arrangements have been announced here but it is thought the body will be returned for burial beside the body of her husband in Park cemetery.

MRS. W. S. KNIGHT

Post-Dispatch, Real Estate Page
Aug. 3.

NEW DORMITORY FOR LINDENWOOD

Building for College at St.
Charles Will Accommodate 84 Students.

The growth of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, has necessitated the building of a new dormitory, which will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term, about the middle of September.

This building, which will be known as Irwin Hall, will accommodate 84 students. It faces Butler Way. In design it conforms with Roemer Hall, completed about two years ago, and other buildings on the campus, the general character of which is based on the domestic architecture of the Tudor Gothic period. The walls are of red brick, of antique texture, with Bedford stone trimmings around the mullioned windows and gables. Construction is fireproof throughout.

The building contains, in addition to the students' rooms mentioned, matron's suite, guest rooms for visiting parents, recreation rooms and parlors, maids' quarters, trunk rooms and music practice rooms in the basement. Students' rooms are arranged in suites, with private bath for each group of four girls.

The general contract is being executed by J. J. Wuellner & Son of Alton, Ill., and most of the sub-contracts have been awarded to St. Louis firms. The building is designed and is being superintended by La Beaume & Klein of St. Louis, architects.

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., have returned after a month's vacation in the mountains of Colorado. Dr. Roemer addressed a special meeting of the Lindenwood College Club at Des Moines, Iowa, on July 28th. He and Mrs. Roemer will supervise the furnishing of Irwin Hall, the new dormitory, which is now being erected on the college campus, and which will be dedicated on October 24th.

Markham Memorial, Aug. 3

THE CALDWELL NEWS

Published Every Thursday

F. H. MICHAELSON, PUBLISHER AND EDITOR.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

| | | | |
|-------------------|--------|-----------------|--------|
| Three Months..... | $.50 | Six Months..... | $1.00 |
| One Year..... | $2.00 | | |

Entered as second class matter February 14, 1919, at the postoffice at Caldwell, Idaho, under the act of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, JULY 31, 1924.

TEACHES IN MIS- SOURI COLLEGE

Miss Alice E. Gipson, of Caldwell, has been appointed head of the English department of Lindenwood College, and will also be Dean of that institution, at St. Charles, Mo. Miss Caldwell comes to this work from a professorship at Wheaton College, Norton, Mass. Miss Gipson was a graduate of the College of Idaho, and later attended Yale, where she received the degree Ph. D. She also done research work at Oxford university.

Lindenwood is one of the oldest schools in the Middlewest. Its founder in 1827 was Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, whose husband, Maj. Geo. E. Sibley, was U. S. Commissioner to the Indians. There were 450 students enrolled last year. A new dormitory, Irwin Hall, is being completed, which will bring the number of students up to over 500 for the coming year.

Addition to College Group in St. Charles—Building in Northwest St. Louis

De Beume and Klein Architects

IRWIN HALL, new DORMITORY at LINDENWOOD COLLEGE, ST CHARLES ...
De Beume and Klein Architects

Real Estate front page, Post-Dispatch, Aug. 3.

Globe-Democrat,
August 8

LINDENWOOD GRADUATE BECOMES A JUDGE

Announcement has been received at Lindenwood College that one of the alumnae, Miss Lois Dale, of Texarkana, Tex., has been appointed to a judgeship. Miss Dale is the first graduate of Lindenwood to be so honored. The appointment was made by Gov. McRae, of Texas. She becomes County and Probate Judge, succeeding Judge C. W. Nolan, who died a few weeks ago. She was appointed over two male applicants, each of whom had held the office hitherto, and whose friends made strenuous efforts in their behalf.

Miss Dale graduated from Lindenwood in 1909, and was a member of the Sigma Iota Chi Sorority. She afterward attended Tulane University at New Orleans, where she received the degree LL. B. She has been practicing law in Texarkana for about five years.

Star, Socy.,
Aug. 6.

◆ ◆ ◆
Miss Louise Nicholson of Columbia avenue, will return to Lindenwood College next month, as will also Miss Roslyn Cohen of Waterman avenue and Miss Wilma Niederluecke of Montgomery avenue. Among other St. Louis girls who will be freshmen at Lindenwood in the autumn are Misses Evelyn Shirley of Clemens avenue, Erma Meier of Connecticut street, Barbara Fite of McPherson avenue and Eunice Meyer of Lafayette avenue. Miss Ruth Van Alley of Webster Groves and Miss Ruth Pixley of Ferguson will also attend Lindenwood. The semester will open September 23.
◆ ◆ ◆

Times, August 9.

Lindenwood to Organize Republican Club.

Efforts have already been set on foot by the Republican National Committee for the organizing of a Republican Club at Lindenwood College. Some of the students now are of voting age, to say nothing of the faculty of more than 50, and the national director of the College Bureau of Republican organization announces that he hopes for "a strong, live club." On the other hand, the students will take particular interest in the Democratic side of the question, as one of their number two years ago was Miss Rilye Nelson of Bunceton, Mo., whose father is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Missouri. Miss Nelson was very popular, and her personality would influence many votes.

Columbia (Mo.) Missourian
Aug. 12

FORMER LINDENWOOD DEAN IS LISTED IN "WHO'S WHO"

Miss Lucinda de Leftwich Templin
Has Amazing Record of Organization Work.

Miss Lucinda de Leftwich Templin, who is now doing research work in the library of the University, appears for the first time in the current edition of "Who's Who in America," the biographical dictionary published by A. N. Marquis & Co., of Chicago, every two years. This is the edition of 1924-25. It so happens that in the forty-five new names of the biennial period from St. Louis and vicinity, the only new name of a woman is that of Miss Templin.

She is recorded as dean of Lindenwood College since 1916, which post she has just given up, as author of two volumes, "Reminiscences of Lindenwood College," 1920, and "The Newer Lindenwood," 1922. She is representative for Missouri of the National Commission on Care and Training of Delinquent Women and Girls; member American Academy Political Science, American Sociological Association, American Prison Association, National Commission of Prisons and Prison Labor, National Association Administrative Women in Education, National Society Vocational Education, American Association of University Women, Missouri Historical Association and other local societies, and also a member of the National Education Association, the Daughters of the American Revolution, Phi Theta Kappa, Pi Lambda Theta, and of the College and Town Clubs of St. Louis and the Women's City Club of New York. Her war work is mentioned as Missouri Representative National War Council, and as a member of the Missouri War Council, Jefferson City.

Globe-Democrat,
August 10.

NEW LIBRARIAN FOR LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

A new librarian, Miss Wintress Brennan of Urbana, Ill., will take charge of the library at Lindenwood College, the first of next month. Miss Brennan has the degrees B. A. and B. L. S., from the University of Illinois. After graduation she became librarian at the Bailey Branch Library, at Gary, Ind., serving later as librarian at Kankakee (Ill.) Public Library. For the last three years she has been general assistant and order assistant at the University of Illinois Library.

*Fountain-Women Democrat - Attica
Louisiana*

JNTAI

Aug. 8

MISS WINKS GOES TO LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Floy Winks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Winks of this city, has been employed as instructor in the department of English of Lindenwood College at St. Charles, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis. This is a girls' college of 500 students who come principally from the wealthy families of St. Louis and other nearby cities. It is one of the oldest colleges in the west and has been in continuous existence for 97 years.

MISS FLOY WINKS

Miss Winks is a graduate of the Attica high school, and was graduated from DePauw university in 1923, receiving her A. B. degree, majoring in English, and received her Master's degree from the Ohio State University in 1924. She was also assistant teacher in English in the latter institution the past year.

During her studentship at DePauw university Miss Winks was editor of the DePauw Magazine, and was reporter on the DePauw Daily. She is also a member of the following educational activities: Theta Sigma Phi, journalistic, (national); Mortor Board, journalistic and literary, (national); President of Women's Self Government Association, being elected by popular vote of the student body; member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority; member of Tusitala, a DePauw University journalistic society.

Lindenwood College is a school of very high standards, and Miss Winks' selection as a member of its faculty in competition with many other applicants is a distinct compliment to her splendid attainments.

THE CAIRO EVENING CITIZEN, SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1924

SOCIAL NEWS

Appointed House-Mother

Mrs. Mary B. Wenger, of Cairo, has been appointed house-mother of Sibley Hall at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Mrs. Wenger has until now been at the University at West Virginia, at Morgantown, W. Va., where she was chaperone for the Alpha Pi Beta fraternity house.

*Globe-Democrat
Aug. 15*

FORMER CITY BANKER DIES IN LOS ANGELES

William E. Berger Originator of Uptown Institution.

News has reached St. Louis of the death, in Los Angeles, Cal., of William E. Berger, formerly of this city, who originated the idea of the uptown bank here thirty-three years ago. After years in downtown banking, and when the institution with which he was connected was reorganized, Berger went westward, and in 1891 founded the Jefferson Bank, on Jefferson avenue, twenty blocks away from the business center.

Berger was 62 years of age. He was a native of Lebanon, Ill., son of a physician, who was one of the followers of Carl Schurz in the Liberal German movement in the middle part of the last century, and came to America because of his desire for free institutions.

Berger's wife, who survives him, was formerly a St. Louis girl, Miss Viola Richards, who was educated at Lindenwood College. He also leaves a son, Elmer Berger, and a brother, Albert L. Berger, well-known lawyer in Kansas City. Berger's home has been in Southern California since 1908. A little over two years ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, and has been confined to his bed ever since.

Mrs. Berger has many friends in St. Louis, and was the founder and first president of the Los Angeles Lindenwood College Club.

Herald & Presbyter
August 13.

Sept. 29 has been selected by the Board of Trustees of Lindenwood College as "Roemer Day," at which time the tenth anniversary of Dr. John L. Roemer as president will be commemorated by the college.

Mr. Ernest S. Allen

Globe-Democrat
Aug. 20

LINDENWOOD GOLF COURSE ENLARGED 50 PER CENT

Golf playing bids fair to be more popular than ever at Lindenwood College in the coming season. The golf course is being enlarged 50 per cent, and will now cover about twenty acres out of the total campus of 138 acres. It is the custom each year to award a medal to the student making the best golf record, this being counted as credit in the activities of the physical education department. Beginning with September, there will be a nine-hole course. Last year, it was a six-hole course.

Hockey is also likely to be a leading sport of the fall, up to Thanksgiving. Added equipment has been purchased for hockey playing, to meet the needs of the increased number of students. A large amount of equipment has also been purchased for inside work in the gymnasium. The "playground" on the campus, on which instruction is given to classes in public school playground work, has been rearranged and a number of new swings added.

Miss Marjorie Weber will return as director of the physical educational department. She has spent part of the summer directing a girls' camp in the Adirondacks, and is now at her parents' home in New York City.

DAILY REPUBLICAN, KANKAKEE, ILL., TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1924

MISS BRENNAN APPOINTED LIBRARIAN AT LINDENWOOD

Miss Wintress Brennan, who a few years ago was librarian of the public library at Kankakee, and who went from here to the University of Illinois, has now been appointed general librarian of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. This institution, of which Dr. John L. Roemer is president, has an enrollment of over 500 students. It is a girls' college, with a four-year curriculum, and registers students from almost every state in the Union. The college will celebrate its centennial in 1927, for which time its alumnae are planning.

Post-Dispatch
August 15

William E. Berger Dies in West.

William E. Berger, 62 years old, formerly a banker here, died at his home in Los Angeles, Aug. 1. He had been bedfast since suffering a stroke of apoplexy two years ago. He was a native of Lebanon, Ill. In 1892 Berger, who had been employed by a downtown bank, founded, with others, the Jefferson Bank, at Jefferson and Franklin avenues, which was then considered as somewhat remote from the downtown district. Berger was cashier until 1908, when he severed his connections and moved to the coast with his family. He is survived by his widow, Viola, and a son, Elmer. Mrs. Berger, a graduate of Lindenwood College, was the founder and first president of the Los Angeles Lindenwood College Club.

Globe-Democrat Sooy
August 17.

About twenty young girls from St. Louis and the East Side are resuming their studies or entering as new students at Lindenwood College next month. Miss Ruth Van Alley of Webster Groves, Miss Ruth Pixley of Ferguson and Miss Mary Lucile Wickenden of Clayton are included in the number. From the immediate city will be Misses Evelyn Shirley of Clemens avenue, Gertrude Webb of Maple avenue, Erma Meier of Connecticut street, Louise Nicholson of Columbia avenue, Wilma Neiderluecke of Montgomery street, Roslyn Cohen of Waterman avenue, Barbara Fite of McPherson avenue and Eunice Mayer of Lafayette avenue. Miss Mary Ellen Cherry of Linden place, East St. Louis, has registered. From Collinsville will come Misses Miriam Clark and Jo Kneidler; with Misses Mary Frances Lynch, Dorothy Stallings and Josephine Lupfer from Granite City, and Miss Verle Schwartz of Edwardsville. Miss Mildred Carson of Greenville, Ill., is returning for her sophomore year. Miss Margaret Boss of Jackson, Mo., comes back to use an honor scholarship which was awarded her last commencement.

Globe Dem.
Aug. 23.

Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of Lindenwood College will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church.

Globe-Democrat
August 22

supervising the completion of alterations and improvements in the college kitchen. It has been necessary to provide larger kitchen space because of an increase in the number of students.

The total registered for the coming school year, including those who will occupy the new Irwin Hall, is now more than 500.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE DIETITIAN BACK ON JOB

Cora V. Walter, dietitian of Lindenwood College, has returned from her vacation, which she spent with her sister in Chicago. She is now

Aug. 21

THE ST. LOUIS TIMES

TIMES

New Librarian at Lindenwood

WINSTRESS BRENNAN

Miss Winstress Brennan, the new librarian of Lindenwood College, arrived Tuesday, to begin her work. A large amount of classification of new volumes received during the summer is to be accomplished before the college semester opens Sept. 23.

Miss Brennan is a graduate of the University of Illinois, having received the degree B. A. from that institution, and also B. L. S. on completing her library training three years later. For the last three years she has been general assistant and order assistant at the University of Illinois Library. She was before that librarian at the Bailey Branch Library, Gary, Ind., and at the public library of Kankakee, Ill.

Gary (Ind.) Post-Tribune
August 20,

GARY LIBRARIAN IN ST. CHARLES, MO.

Miss Winstress Brennan, former librarian at the Bailey branch in Gary, has been appointed librarian at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. This is a girls' four-year college, with an enrollment of more than 500 students. It recently received a large endowment of several millions from the late Col. James Gay Butler of St. Louis. The college will celebrate its centennial in 1927.

Times, August 25

Women's Activities

Six students who are returning to Lindenwood College in September, as members of the sophomore class, will wear the honor of special scholarships of $100 or over, which they gained by diligent work last year. Three of the number are Missouri girls, Misses Helen Kready of Sikeston; Virginia Symms of Nevada; and Marjorie Groves are Misses Margaret Bloebaum of Paris, Tex.; Nadine Swope of Tulsa, Okla., and Adelaide Peabody of Fullerton, La. It remains to be seen if they will carry off the scholarships also, of somewhat larger sums, which are offered for the current sophomore year.

SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 23, 1924

STAR'S DAILY PA

New Dean of Lindenwood College

Miss Alice E. Gipson, Ph. D., the new dean of Lindenwood College, will arrive September 1 to take up her duties preceding the opening of the fall semester on September 23. She succeeds Miss Lucinda De L. Templin, who was dean for eight years, but is now doing graduate work at the state university. Dr. Gipson comes from Wheaton College, Massachusetts, where she was a professor of English. She is a western woman, her home being in Caldwell, Idaho. She received her first degree, A. B., from the College of Idaho. Her doctorate degree comes from Yale.

Lindenwood will increase the number of its students this year to more than 500, because of the new dormitory, Irwin Hall, which is already booked to capacity.

*Globe-Democrat
August 26.*

16 SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS BACK AT LINDENWOOD

Sixteen of the returning students at Lindenwood College will be girls who by special application at their studies last year won each a scholarship to be applied on this year's work. Among the seniors will be six specially honored students, who were juniors last year: Misses Gertrude Bird, of Davenport, Ia.; Roberta Moshlenkamp, of St. Charles; Elizabeth Arveson, of Merrill, Wis.; Margaret Boss, Jackson, Mo.; Ann Podrasky, Lake Charles, La., and Sara Shomberg, Altoona, Pa.

In this year's junior class there are four scholarship students: The Misses Ada Heringway, of Clinton, Ia.; Grace Larsen, Paxton, Ill., and Ruth Shapiro and Eunice Willbrand, both of St. Charles.

In the sophomore class, scholarship students are: Misses Helen Keady, Sikeston, Mo.; Margaret Bloebaum, Paris, Tex.; Virginia Symns, Nevada, Mo.; Nadine Swope, Tulsa, Okla.; Adelaide Peabody, Fullerton, La., and Marjorie Groves, of Jorder, Mo.

The scholarships range in value from $100 to $200.

Nevada, Mo., August 23

DAILY MAIL AND THE EVENING POST.

MISS SYMNS RECEIVED TWO HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Miss Virginia Symns of Nevada, who will return for her second year at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., will have a place of honor in the sophomore class, of which she will be a member, as she received two distinguished scholarships, announced last May. Miss Symns is one of the five freshmen in a large class each of whom received a scholarship of $100 for excellent work, and she also received another award for highest average scholarship of the class for the year. Lindenwood will resume its sessions September 23, somewhat later than usual, in order that the new $250,000 dormitory, Irwin Hall, may be ready for occupancy. It will increase the number of students by 84, making a total of over 500.

Sikeston, Mo

THE SIKESTON HERALD

Thursday, August 28, 1924.

MISS KREADY EARNS LINDENWOOD SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, who is to be a sophomore at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., in the coming year, will rank with the honor of a scholarship earned by studious work last year. She was one of five freshmen in a large class who at commencement last May received each a $100 award to be applied on their college fees in the coming year, because of scholarship. Lindenwood will have a larger number of students than at any time in the past, as the new dormitory, Irwin Hall, which houses 84 girls, is now completed and is to be dedicated October 24.

Times, Sept. 1

Lindenwood College Notes.

With the completion of Lindenwood's new dormitory, the college will now have five "house-mothers" or chaperons, instead of four as hitherto, one for each new building. To Miss Edna Hough comes the honor of being head of the new Irwin Hall, which is the last word in comfortable housing. Private baths are provided for every four girls, and the parlors and other apartments are attractively furnished. Miss Hough has been house-mother at Sibley, and thus goes from the oldest to the newest hall.

To succeed Miss Hough at Sibley comes Mrs. Mary B. Wenger of Cairo, Ill., who until now has been chaperon for the Alpha Pi Beta fraternity house of West Virginia University, at Morgantown, W. Va.

Star, Sept. 5

Miss Alice Linnemann, head of the art department of Lindenwood College, was the guest of honor yesterday at a party at the Des Moines Country Club given by the Lindenwood College Club of Iowa. In Lindenwood's Alumnae Association and in the Lindenwood College Clubs of different cities, Miss Linnemann holds the office of college secretary.

*Herald & Presbyter
Aug. 27*

Rev. R. S. Calder, D.D., of the Bible chair of Lindenwood College, has given a vacation course of lectures at Trinity College, in Waxahachie, Texas. Dr. Calder preached last Sabbath and will preach next Sabbath, at the Webster Groves Church.

*Globe-Democrat
front page, Society,
August 31.*

Miss Lillian Hinkle, daughter of Gov. Hinkle of New Mexico, is returning to Lindenwood College for the coming semester. She will be a sophomore.

*Presbyterian Banner,
Philadelphia, sent by
Rev. S. W. Mc Clusky -*

Lindenwood College, St. Charles, will dedicate the new Irwin Hall in October. It is named in honor of the late Dr. Robert Irwin, founder of the St. Louis branch of the former Board of Publication and president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893, the year of his death. His descendants are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific, mainly in California, Missouri, Minnesota and New York. His oldest son is Dr. W. Francis Irwin, pastor at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, and a member of the Board of Christian Education. His youngest daughter is the wife of the writer. His youngest son met Miss Nancy McKibbin when they were both in France in war service. They were married by Dr. William McKibbin, the father of the bride, at Lane Seminary, soon after the war, and reside in New York City. Many former Lindenwood students are expected to be present at the dedication of Irwin Hall, among whom will be representatives from the Lindenwood College club of New York City. Dr. W. Francis Irwin will deliver the address.

Altoona (Pa.) Mirror
Sept. 8

ACCEPTS SCHOLARSHIP.

Miss Sara Shomberg of 1218 Thirteenth avenue, has accepted an honorary scholarship which was given her at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., at the last commencement, and she will return to that institution for her senior year. The semester opens Sept. 23. A new dormitory, Irwin hall, has been built, bringing the enrollment of students up to more than 500.

Times
Sept. 11

St. Louis friends of Miss Keo Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Earl Richards of Hutchinson, Kan., have received invitations to her wedding. She will marry Earl Eugene Sutton at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of her parents. Miss Richards was graduated from Lindenwood College this spring.

Globe-Democrat
September 12, 1924.

Third Generation at College.

A student representing the third generation attending Lindenwood College has registered in Miss Dorothy Dunseth of Washington, Ind., who will enter the college as a freshman. Her mother, Mrs. J. M. Dunseth, was formerly Miss Ethel

Dillard, a student at Lindenwood in 1894-95. Twenty years prior to that the present freshman's grandmother, who was then Miss Belle Hain, registered in her college studies, in 1875.

Post-Dispatch Socy., Sept. 14

The first meeting of the St. Louis Lindenwood Club will be held at Forest Park Hotel, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 16, at 2:30 o'clock. Plans for the year will be discussed, and a program of music given. Hostesses will be the members of the new executive board, Mmes. J. W. White, Harry Montgomery, Leonard Scott, Frank Koehnke, Arthur Krueger, W. C. Stewart, E. S. Blankenmeister and W. K. Roth, and Miss Laura Ellwanger.

Merrill (Wis.) Herald

Monday, September 8, 1924

Wins Honors At College

Local Girl Receives Scholarship—
Senior at Lindenwood

Miss Elizabeth Arveson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Arveson of this city, is to be a senior at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., in the year beginning September 23. Miss Arveson is one of half a dozen fortunate seniors at this college, who won substantial scholarships last commencement, it was announced, because of their superior work while juniors. The college will have a larger enrollment this year, because of a new dormitory, Irwin Hall, which will be opened at the beginning of school.

CLINTON ADVERTISER, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1924.

RETURNING TO COLLEGE

Miss Ada Hemingway of Clinton will return to Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., for the coming school year, and will be a member of the junior class. She is devoting herself especially to art, in which she won several awards last year. Lindenwood in the coming season will have the largest number of students, over 500, in its history. A new dormitory, Irwin hall, has just been completed, and will house 85 students.

Clinton, La.

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its first meeting of the season, Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Forest Park Hotel. Plans for the coming year will be discussed, and a musical program will be given. The hostesses will be the Executive Board, the members of which are: Mesdames Frank Koehnke, Elizabeth Christy, Arthur Krueger, W. C. Stewart, E. G. Blankenmeister, W. K. Roth, J. W. White and Miss Laura Ellwanger.

Globe-Democrat
Society
Sept. 14

*Globe-Democrat Socy
Sept. 16*

The first wedding for a member of this year's graduating class at Lindenwood College will be that of Miss Keo Mary Richards, this evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Earl Richards, at Hutchinson, Kan., to Mr. Earl Eugene Sutton. Invitations were received by a number of St. Louis friends.

*Post-Dispatch, Sports
Sept. 16.*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE
IMPROVES GOLF COURSE

Three new holes have been added to the golf course at Lindenwood College, making this a nine-hole course. About 20 acres of ground is covered.

*Washington (Ind.)
Democrat, Sept. 13*

Miss Dorothy Dunseth, of Washington, has registered as a student at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., for the year 1924-25.—Miss Dunseth is the third in direct line to attend this historic college for women. The first was her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Dillard, then Miss Belle Hain, in 1875. Twenty years later came this student's daughter, Miss Ethel Dillard, who now is Mrs. J. M. Dunseth, of Washington, and who attended Lindenwood in 1894-95. Miss Dorothy expects to take a part in all the college activities. Lindenwood is a progressive institution which recently has been strengthened by an endowment of several millions from the Col. James Butler estate. The college will celebrate the 100th anniversary of its founding in 1927. Enrollment for the current year, which opens September 23, is over 500.

Also Front Page, 1st City Edition.

in Globe-Democrat, Monday Morning, September 15, 1924.

MISS HOUGH TAKES CHARGE AT IRWIN HALL

New Lindenwood Dormitory Has 'Fudge' and 'Curling' Rooms.

Miss Edna Hough, who will be house-mother of the new Irwin Hall, a dormitory for eighty girls, at Lindenwood College, arrived Saturday. She is promoted from three years as the head of Sibley Hall, a post to be taken by Mrs. Mary Wenger of Cairo, Ill. The teachers and other members of the faculty will arrive the last of this week.

The new hall is named for the late Rev. Dr. Robert Irwin, president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893. It is different in several particulars from any of the dormitories hitherto erected. The parlor is finished in old ivory and bisque, with decorative wall effects, and curtains in old rose and bisque. Large fireplaces are at either end of the long room, and a line of windows overlooks the hilly slope of the campus to the west. The furnishings are in French walnut, upholstered in taupe tapestry, figured and plain. French walnut is used in the furniture and woodwork of the students' rooms, and the electric light fixtures are in brown and gold.

Besides the rooms providing quarters for eighty students, there are rooms for the house-mother, three guest rooms, and rooms for twelve maids, also eight practice rooms for the piano students. A recreation room in the basement is of the same size as the parlor, and communicating with it is a kitchen for special feasts and receptions. There are also two "fudge rooms," each with an electric stove, for making candy. A "curling and pressing room" is part of the basement equipment.

The entrance hall has an artistic broad stairway, at the top of which is a balcony with a long settee. Registrations have been made to fill the entire hall.

*Post-Dispatch, Socy
Sept. 17.*

Mrs. George Kenyon Walton of Kansas City has sent cards to St. Louis friends, announcing the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth, to William Darr Pickett, Tuesday, Sept. 9. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett will reside at 7341 Main street, Kansas City. Mrs. Pickett attended Lindenwood College last year.

Globe-Democrat.

September 17, 1924.

Dean Guest of College Club.
Dean Alice E. Gipson of Lindenwood College and Miss Alice Lin-mann, head of the art department, were guests of the St. Louis Lindenwood Club at a reception yesterday at the Forest Park Hotel. Dean Gipson met the St. Louis alumnae for the first time.

Limes, Sept. 19.

Lindenwood College News.
Highest honors for performance and teaching have been awarded at the American Conservatory at Fontainebleau, near Paris, France, to Miss Ariel Gross of the music department of Lindenwood College. She departed last May for France and has been studying in the American Conservatory for the last three months. She is now returning to Lindenwood. Her special work is piano.

*Post-Dispatch,
Sept. 21*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE WILL HONOR REV. ROEMER TUESDAY

Tenth Anniversary of Educator as President of School to Be Celebrated.

"Roemer day" will be observed at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Tuesday morning, to honor the tenth anniversary of the Rev. John L. Roemer as president of the college.

The Rev. John W. Macivor, president of the board and pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, will preside. The Rev. David M. Skilling, vice president of the board and pastor of Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, will give the principal address. Others who will participate are the Rev. S. C. Palmer, retired; the Rev. R. S. Calder of the Bible chair at Lindenwood and the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, for many years home mission secretary of the Presbyterian Church in the South.

Dr. Roemer became president of Lindenwood shortly after large donations were made to the college by the late Col. James Gay Butler, whose gifts and legacies to the college, with those of his wife, totaled about $4,000,000. Four large buildings have been erected since Dr. Roemer became president. The campus has been enlarged from 34 to 138 acres. The college has grown from a junior college to an accredited four-year college for girls. Its attendance has quadrupled.

*Globe-Dem Socy
Sept. 23*

Miss Alice A. Linnemann, head of the art department of Lindenwood College and secretary of the Alumnae and Lindenwood clubs, was hostess yesterday in Omaha, Neb., at a luncheon given in honor of former students of Lindenwood who reside in Nebraska.

*Globe-Democrat, music
Sept. 21*

MUSICAL NOTES.

Announcement has been made by the American Conservatory of Music at Fontainebleau Palace, near Paris, France, that the highest honors for performance and teaching have been won by Miss Ariel Gross, teacher of piano in the department of music at Lindenwood College. Miss Gross has been attending the American Conservatory for the last three months, and is returning to Lindenwood early next week.

*Globe-Democrat
Sept 22*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE TO HOLD 'ROEMER DAY'

Will Celebrate Tenth Anniversary of President of Institution.

Announcement has been made by the Board of Trustees of Lindenwood College that Tuesday, September 30, will be celebrated at the college as "Roemer Day," in honor of the tenth anniversary of Rev. Dr. John Lincoln Roemer as president of the institution.

Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor, president of the board and pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, is to preside at ceremonies beginning at 10:30 o'clock. A commemorative address will be made by Rev. Dr. David M. Skilling, vice president of the board and pastor of the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church. The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. Dr. S. C. Palmer, emergency pastor of the St. Louis Presbytery. Scripture reading will be given by Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of the Bible chair of the college, and the closing prayer and benediction will be offered by Rev. Dr. B. P. Fullerton, retired secretary of the Presbyterian Home Mission Board.

This commemorative convocation was agreed upon by the directors at its annual meeting last June. It is especially in recognition of the advance made by the college under Dr. Roemer's presidency. Four large new halls have been built in the ten years, the last of which, Irwin Hall, is to be dedicated October 24. The college has raised its standard from the rank of junior college to that of an accredited four-year college course. The campus has increased to 133 acres, the faculty has been greatly enlarged and the student enrollment has grown to more than 500.

This will be the first convocation of the school year.

*Times,
Sept. 22*

Lindenwood C. Opens Tomorrow.

Lindenwood College will open its fall semester tomorrow. Registrations are to continue for three days, under the new dean, Miss Alice E. Gipson, and on Friday classes will be organized. About 80 of the students will be housed in the new Irwin Hall, which stands east of the other dormitories, and over which Miss Edna Hough will be house-mother. Taking Miss Hough's place in Sibley Hall will be Mrs. Mary Wenger, of Cairo, Ill. Over 500 students have made preliminary arrangements for attending, a larger number than Lindenwood has ever known before.

*Times,
Sept 22*

LINDENWOOD WILL HONOR DR. ROEMER

The first convocation of the present school year at Lindenwood College will be held a week from tomorrow as Roemer Day in honor of the tenth anniversary of the Rev. John Lincoln Roemer as president of the institution.

The ceremonies will be presided over by the Rev. John W. MacIvor, president of the board and pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Among the participants in the ceremonies will be the Rev. David

M. Skilling, vice president of the board and pastor of the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church; the Rev. S. C. Palmer, emergency pastor of the St. Louis Presbytery; the Rev. R. S. Calder of the Bible chair of the college, and the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, retiring secretary of the Presbyterian Home Mission Board.

*Post-Dispatch
Sept. 24.*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE OPENED

School Has an Enrollment of More Than 500 Students.

Lindenwood College for young women at St. Charles, opened for the first semester of the 1924-25 term yesterday with an enrollment of more than 500 students, representing about 20 different states. Classes this year are resumed about two weeks later than former years, in order to complete the building of the new dormitory, Irwin Hall, which will be dedicated Oct. 24. Students will continue to register today and tomorrow.

An early event of the school year will be "Roemer day," Tuesday morning, Sept. 30, by order of the college board of directors, with a special program commemorative of President Roemer's tenth anniversary in his office at the college. The Rev. John W. MacIvor, president of the board, will preside.

DR. ROEMER WILL MARK 10TH YEAR AS COLLEGE HEAD

Observance Will Feature
Lindenwood Convocation
Day Tuesday.

"Roemer Day" will be celebrated at Lindenwood College Monday and Tuesday of next week in honor of the completion by Dr. John Lincoln Roemer of his first decade as president of the institution. Dr. John W. MacIvor, president of the Board of Trustees, will preside, and the alumnae, friends, students and faculty will participate. Dr. Roemer completed 10 years of service as president of Lindenwood May 12, 1924.

Roemer Day will be the feature of the first convocation of the school year. Dr. David M. Skilling, vice president of the Board of Trustees, pastor of Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, will deliver the principal address. Other speakers will be Dr. S. C. Palmer, Dr. R. S. Calder and Dr. B. P. Fullerton.

Born in West Virginia.

Dr. Roemer was born in Wheeling, W. Va., attended the public schools there, and became a student at Linsley Institute, going thence to the University of West Virginia, being graduated with the degree of bachelor of arts. His theological training was held at Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa.

Tyler Place Presbyterian Church of St. Louis first called Dr. Roemer to this city. He preached there nine years, leaving it one of the larger Presbyterian churches of the city. Just before the World War began he was elected president of Lindenwood College.

Since his inauguration as president, Lindenwood has erected many great buildings, expending more than $1,500,000; the campus has been enlarged from 34 acres to 133 acres; the educational scope has grown from a secondary school to a college of the first rank, and the number of students has quadrupled.

Tells College Purpose.

"The real purpose of Lindenwood College," says President Roemer, "is the education of young women for a life of usefulness in the home, society and state. In addition to the work done in the regular course in the liberal arts, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, the girls are trained in business, in household arts, they are prepared to teach school or to enter journalism, in the courses looking to the degree of Bachelor of Science."

Limes
Sept. 24

Dr. Roemer has a LL.D. from Westminster College and also from the Missouri Valley College, a D. D. also from Westminster, besides the A. B. and B. D. received "in course." He is a thirty-second degree Mason, a member of the University and Missouri Athletic Clubs, St. Louis; the Sunset Club, Chillicothe, Ohio; the National Historical Society, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, the State Historical Societies of both Virginia and Missouri, and the Chambers of Commerce of St. Louis and of St. Charles, Mo.

Globe-Democrat,
Sept. 24

Globe-Democrat
Sept. 26 -
Mail & 13 City Editions
St. Louis D.

LINDENWOOD GIRLS ENTERTAIN GOV. HYDE

Tells Them He Is Address- ing 'Future Bosses of Missouri.'

Gov. Hyde took luncheon with the girls of Lindenwood College yesterday noon before his speech at the St. Charles County Fair. After the girls sang Lindenwood songs the Governor addressed them briefly in a merry vein. He was introduced by President John L. Roemer.

"Of course, I know I am addressing the future bosses of this state," he said, "and I probably should say 'fellow bosses,' only I am on my way out, while you are on your way in."

"If any of you in the future should take a notion to be the 'Ma Ferguson' of Missouri and get yourself elected Governor, I want you to know now that nothing of trouble or travail or sorrow can possibly come to you after you are Governor of this state," he said in a vein of mild irony. "If you want to sail your little boat into a calm, unruffled harbor, to which storms never come, then I would advise you to be Governor of Missouri."

"But before you do this, I would like to recommend to you the battle plan of the man who wanted to keep out of the cavalry, because, when it came to retreat, he 'didn't want to drag no hoss after him.'"

"In the last ten years in this state I have heard in many a nook and corner of the fame of Lindenwood. I am glad to see the evidences of a material prosperity and of a great serviceableness on the part of this institution. I wish to every one of you and to the institution complete and ever-increasing success," he concluded.

Herald & Presbyterian,
Sept. 24.

The opening convocation of Lindenwood College, Tuesday morning, Sept. 30, at 10:30 o'clock, will be observed, by order of the Board of Directors, as "Roemer Day," at which time recognition will be made of Dr. John L. Roemer's tenth anniversary as president of Lindenwood. Rev. John W. MacIvor, D.D., president of the board, will preside, and Rev. David M. Skilling, D.D., vice-president of the Board, will make a commemorative address.

PUPILS INSPECT KITCHEN OF LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

With the opening of the fall semester yesterday at Lindenwood College, the enlarged dining room was used for the first time. Students visited the new kitchen. It is 75 feet long, all in white enamel and shining metal. Three large coal ranges are equipped with a long "hood" which carries vapors off through a ventilating system.

Two electric "mixers," as large as outdoor soap kettles, are provided, also a pudding mixer of copper and black tin, swinging on a crane. A new electric bread slicer turns off 100 slices a minute, and there is an electric dish washer. Chests for cracked ice alone are much larger than the ordinary household ice chest, and the refrigerator proper is a good-sized room. A skylight dome with eight windows gives added light.

Miss Cora V. Walter, dietitian, has two new assistants, Miss Dorothy Chadwick of Boone, Ia., a graduate of the Boston School of Domestic Science, assistant in the kitchen, and Miss Eula Sanford of Washington, Ind., Simmons College, assistant in the dining room. Miss Julia Slack, former assistant, has resigned to be married in November.

Globe-Democrat,
Sept. 25

Students Hear Miss Stumberg.

Miss Dorritt Stumberg, the new professor of psychology at Lindenwood College, gave an address in Roemer Hall to the student body yesterday afternoon.

Post-Dispatch, Socy.
Sept. 26

Mrs. R. M. Johns of Sedalia, Mo., is visiting friends in St. Louis, while here to enter her daughter, Miss Laura Johns, as a freshman at Lindenwood College. In the party from Sedalia, chaperoned by Mrs. Johns, are three other girls from Sedalia entering Lindenwood. Misses Frances Trader, Judith Van Dyne and Martha Shortridge.

Globe-Democrat,
Sept. 29.

HAIRPINS, COSMETICS USED IN ANCIENT ROME

Woman Suffrage Also Problem of 2000 Years Ago, Speaker Says.

Miss Kathryn Hankins brought Roman writers of over 2000 years ago up to the present time by a recent address on "Legacies" at Lindenwood College, in connection with the opening of the semester. Politics and law, no less than literature and language, were shown to have been greatly benefitted by the earlier civilization. In lighter vein she spoke of bribery, labor and race problems, capital punishment, divorce and woman suffrage, which invaded the peace of the Latin fathers.

"One hundred and ninety-five years before the time of Christ a law was passed limiting the price of women's dresses. The streets were filled with women beseeching men on the way to the polls to vote against the law. Plato was indignant. 'If you let them finally come to be your equals,' he said, 'do you think you can ever stand them? And as soon as they become your equals they will be your superiors.'

"Mothers' Day was celebrated with festivals. The Roman woman used hair-pins, hair-nets, dyed her hair the golden red of the Greek woman's hair, used false hair and all the tricks of cosmetics to make herself beautiful.

"Rome fell because of her corruptness, but in the days of her glory and strength there were brave men and virtuous women. Latin is not a dead language. It has changed its name and lives in the languages of the Spanish, French, Italian, Roumanian and English, wherever the Roman soldiers led their armies."

Miss Hankins read the Declaration of Independence with the words of Latin derivation left out. It was absolutely unintelligible.

Dr. Kate L. Gregg of the English department, gave a review of the life and works of Joseph Conrad. Dean Alice E. Gipson presided.

Times,
Sept. 27.

Lindenwood College Notes.

No easy seat in the governorship was predicted for any of the Lindenwood College girls who might aspire to the gubernatorial chair was predicted by Gov. Hyde, who accepted Lindenwood College hospitality Thursday. This was the first place he visited on his arrival in St. Charles for the St. Charles County Fair. A large retinue of officials, politicians and brass band players came with him to the college, and all were guests of President and Mrs. John L. Roemer in the college dining room at luncheon.

The girls sang songs for the Governor, and he was then applauded into a speech. He said that he had heard of Lindenwood "in every nook and corner of the State." Then he launched into a "beware" concerning political aspirations. "Of course I am addressing the future bosses of this State," he said, "and I probably should say 'fellow bosses,' only I am on my way out and you are on your way in." He continued, with an irony which was interrupted by laughter from the students:

"If any of you in the future should take a notion to be the Ma Ferguson of Missouri, and get yourself elected Governor, I wanted you to know now that nothing of trouble or travail or sorrow can possibly come to you, after you are Governor of this State. If you want to sail your little boat into a calm, unruffled harbor, to which storms never come, be Governor by all means. But before you do I would like to recommend the battle plan of the man who wanted to keep out of the cavalry because, he said, 'When it came time to retreat he didn't want to drag no hoss after him.'"

Globe-Democrat Socy,
Sept. 28.

Miss Margaret Enloe of Jefferson City, who gained a subfreshman scholarship at Lindenwood College last year and is now an honor student in the freshman class, will be one of a party of five girls, mostly daughters of state officials, who have been selected from Lindenwood to take parts in the pageant at the dedication of the State Capitol Building on October 6. The others are Misses Lillian Tweedie, Emma Monier, Elizabeth Haigh and Mabel Emma Blair. Freshman honors at Lindenwood from last year's scholarships are shared with Miss Enloe by Miss Frances Stumberg of St. Charles. It will be the last time a freshman can have such distinction, as the subfreshman classes are now discarded at the college.

How

ST.

Lindenwood College Honors Dr. Roemer on 10th Anniversary

Student Body, Faculty, Alumnae and Clergy Celebrate His Presidency.

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer received congratulations from hundreds of friends and associates at Lindenwood College, commemorating their tenth anniversary at that institution, yesterday. Five clergymen of the St. Louis Presbytery conducted commemorative exercises at 10:30 in Roemer Hall. On the platform were members of the college board of trustees, from several cities.

A memorial adopted by the board of directors was read by the vice president, Rev. Dr. David M. Skilling, in which record was made of the board's "satisfaction and pleasure" that this anniversary had been reached.

"By his wise business management, his pleasing personality and his faithful service," the memorial stated. "Dr. Roemer has guided this college in its remarkable growth from year to year. In 1914 the enrollment of students was 89; in 1924 it was 429. During his administration, Butler, Niccolls, Roemer and Irwin halls have been built, and improvements added, such as roadways, golf links, and athletic equipment. He has the faculty of drawing friends about him. He has assisted students financially out of his own pocket, and assisted the needs of the college in times and ways that few people have ever known. We hail Dr. Roemer today. We do him honor, and pray that God will continue to bless him and his wife and all associated with him in the work they are doing here."

Congratulations.

Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, and president of the board of directors, read a number of telegrams of congratulation, including messages from the Chicago Lindenwood College Club, from Miss Lucinda De L. Templin, former Dean, and from from La Beaume and Klein, the architects of the college.

*Post-Dispatch
Oct. 1-*

Lindenwood Honors Dr. Roemer. Commemorative exercises were held at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, yesterday in honor of the tenth anniversary at the institution of President John L. Roemer and his wife. Five clergymen of the St. Louis Presbytery participated in the exercises at which a memorial adopted by the board of directors was read setting forth the satisfaction of the school authorities with Dr. Roemer's services.

WEDNESDAY,
OCTOBER 1, 1924.

*Star,
Oct. 1-*

SERVICE MARKS 10TH YEAR OF DR. ROEMER AT COLLEGE

The tenth anniversary of the Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer as president of Lindenwood College at St. Charles was observed yesterday at Roemer Hall. Five Presbyterian ministers took part in the exercises. The Rev. David M. Skilling read a memorial adopted by the board of trustees, recalling that enrollment at the school has increased from 89 in 1914 to 429 in 1924. The Rev. John W. McIvor, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, read congratulatory telegrams. Other ministers taking part included the Rev. R. W. Ely of St. Charles, the Rev. R. S. Calder of the college faculty and the Rev. B. P. Fullerton.

*Globe-Democrat
Oct. 1-*

Dr. MacIvor praised the late Dr. S. J. Niccolls as "loyal to traditions," and the lofty purpose of Col. and Mrs. James Gay Butler, benefactors, and others. Dr. Skilling declared he did not believe "our boys and girls want to be skeptics and would not tolerate substitutes for religion." He praised "the sainted men and women who established Lindenwood because they believed in a complete Christian education for Christian young women." Others taking part in the services were Rev. R. W. Ely of St. Charles, Rev. Dr. R. S. Calder of Lindenwood faculty and Rev. B. P. Fullerton, who gave the closing prayer.

The stage was decorated with floral offerings from the faculty, the student board, and others. Nine young girls, Misses Julia Ayers, Helen Kready, Helen Lee Maupin, Elizabeth Arveson, Maude Arveson, Helen Towles, Gertrude Wallrich, Margaret Edwards, and Adelaide Evans were ushers, dressed in white with yellow ribbons.

President and Mrs. Roemer entertained at luncheon the entire audience, including many alumnae and visitors from St. Louis.

*Times,
Oct. 2.*

Lindenwood College Club Notes.
 President and Mrs. John L. Roemer celebrated their tenth anniversary Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Nine students, including Misses Julia Ayers, Helen Kready, Helen Lee Maupin, Elizabeth Arveson, Maudie Arveson, Helen Towles, Gertrude Wallrich, Margaret Edwards and Adelaide Evans, acted as ushers in Roemer Hall, where the five Presbyterian ministers spoke for the celebration.

The presiding officer as president of the Board of Trustees, the Rev. John W. MacIvor, of the Second Presbyterian Church, read a telegram of greeting from the Chicago Lindenwood Club, from the former Dean Templin, and from others. Dr. R. S. Calder of the college Bible chair, read Bible selections for the day, and Dr. R. W. Ely of St. Charles offered prayer. The concluding prayer was by Dr. B. P. Fullerton. The Board of Trustees had adopted resolutions of appreciation and confidence which Dr. Skilling read. The faculty gave a basket of flowers and another tribute was from the student board. There were other floral gifts from friends.

*Herald & Presbyterian
Oct. 1.*

Lindenwood College reopened last week with a large increase in its registration. The new dormitory, named for the late Rev. Robert Irwin, D.D., was occupied the opening day, although its dedication is not to occur until Oct. 24.

*Globe-Democrat
Oct. 3*

NEW YORK PASTOR SPEAKS ON ELECTION SIGNIFICANCE

"The Significance of the November Elections" was the subject of an address by Dr. Edward T. Devine of New York City, yesterday, at Lindenwood College.

"No matter which one of the three candidates for President is elected," he said, "the perpetuity of American institutions is not at stake. If any one of the three candidates, Coolidge, Davis or La Follette, is elected, or even if Dawes or Bryan or Wheeler should come to be in the presidential chair, the nation will go right on. The American principle that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed would still be vindicated.

"Another thing we would like to think is not at stake, as it was eight years ago, is whether there will be war. There are more men under arms today in the armies of Europe than there were in 1914. It is only the conquered nations that are disarmed. But with us it does not seem to be an issue."

Putting aside international relations, Dr. Devine presented as issues the bonus, the Ku Klux Klan, the income tax, immigration restrictions, the naturalization of Orientals in this country and the anti-lynching law.

*Globe-Democrat,
Oct. 8.*

LINDENWOOD GIRLS HAVE MAJOR PARTY CLUBS

Both Democratic and Republican clubs have been organized in a day at Lindenwood College, and while the Republicans are leading with over 100 members, the Democrats have enlisted the college dog "Lin" as their mascot, and hope to advance more rapidly. Because the Democrats were swift enough to get their club started at noon Monday, the Republicans added "features" to theirs.

Monday night two freshmen entered the dining room disguised as an elephant and bearing the letters G. O. P. The Republican club was then formed with Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Ia., president; Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., vice president; Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, secretary; Misses Helen Calder and Betty Birch, yell leaders, and Miss Florence Schaper of the faculty, campaign manager; President John L. Roemer, Dr. R. S. Calder and Dr. Kurt Stumberg of the faculty, declared allegiance by making platform speeches.

A strong faculty leader on the other side is Guy C. Motley, secretary of the college. The Democratic president, Miss Margaret Boss of Jackson, Mo., accepted the office enthusiastically, although her father, she said, has voted the Republican ticket all his life. Three vice presidents were chosen, Misses Jean Johnston of San Antonio, Tex.; Mary Bryan of Oklahoma City, Ok., and Corinne Placek of Wahoo, Neb. Miss Ellen Boyce of Charleston, Mo., was made secretary, Miss Lillian Hinkle, who is daughter of the Governor of New Mexico, became treasurer, and Miss Lydia Dodge of Milan, Mo., sergeant-at-arms.

Globe-Democrat

October 4, 1924.

DR. CALDER TO DELIVER BIBLE ADDRESS ON 'PAUL'

A series of Bible addresses on "Paul" by Rev. Dr. Robert Scott Calder of Lindenwood College, will begin tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Pilgrim Congregational Church, Union and Kensington avenues, before the Social Service Bible class of that church. His topic tomorrow morning will be "Paul, the Pharisee, His Home, Birthplace, Education and Pre-Christian Career."

On succeeding Sunday mornings he will speak on "Paul, the Christian"; "Paul, the Roman Citizen"; "Paul, the Missionary"; "Paul, the Theologian," and "Paul, the Friend."

Post Dispatch
Oct. 7

Miss Ruth Shapiro of St. Charles, Mo., a recent graduate of Lindenwood College, is residing with her aunt, Mrs. P. J. Shapiro, of Westminster place, while continuing her studies at Washington University.

Globe Democrat
Oct. 10

Pastor Addresses Students.
Rev. Dr. Robert Rush Biggar, pastor of the Cote Brillante Presbyterian Church, delivered an address yesterday morning before the students of Lindenwood College in Roemer Auditorium.

Post Dispatch
Oct. 9.

ST. CHARLES WOMEN HOPE TO GET OUT 75 PER CENT OF VOTE

House-to-House Canvass Will Be Made Under Direction of Voters' League.

"We expect at least 75 per cent of the women voters in St. Charles to go to the polls at the general election Nov. 4," said Mrs. George E. Hestwood, president of the St. Charles branch of the Women Voters' League, in outlining the vote-getting drive before members of the league in the city hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hestwood said a house-to-house campaign by committees would begin next week.

Prof. G. Motley of Lindenwood College and secretary of the St. Charles County Democratic Committee spoke, concluding his remarks with a boost for good roads proposition No. 5.

Prosecuting Attorney W. F. Bloebaum, candidate for re-election, also spoke.

Globe Democrat
Oct. 6.

Lewis County Picked Her as 'Queen' for Today's Dedication

MISS VIRGINIA WALLACE

Post-Dispatch
Oct. 10

ROTARY CLUB FOR ST. CHARLES

Prof. Motley of Lindenwood College Elected President.

A Rotary Club was organized in St. Charles with 23 members last night. Prof. Guy C. Motley of Lindenwood college was elected president. Other officers are Mathew Gauss, vice president; W. F. Knox, secretary; J. C. Willbrandt, treasurer, and J. Lawler, sergeant-at-arms. Directors are J. E. Travis and Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College.

Globe - Democrat

MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1922

LINDENWOOD GIRLS CHOSEN AS "QUEENS"

Three to Represent Own Counties at Capitol Dedication Today.

Miss Virginia Wallace, a freshman at Lindenwood College, has been selected as "Queen" to represent Lewis County at the dedication of the State Capitol building at Jefferson City today.

Two other county "queens" in the pageantry are from Lindenwood. Miss Lucy Franklin, a freshman, who will be the "queen" from Franklin County, and Miss Ruby Gray, from St. Charles County, who went to Lindenwood several years ago.

Five others from the Lindenwood student body are going over to represent the college in a white and yellow float. They are all girls whose homes are in Jefferson City, and whose fathers are prominent in state affairs. They are Misses Marcor, covered with white and yellow bunting, and bearing pennants of Lindenwood. The girls will wear white dresses with yellow ties, and will carry large bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The car will bear a placard, "Lindenwood College for Women, Founded 1827, St. Charles, Missouri."

Garet Enloe, Lillian Tweedie, Elizabeth Haigh, Mabel Blair and Emma Monier.

Globe Democrat
Oct. 7.

Missionary Finishes Work Here.

Dr. W. T. Locke, a Presbyterian missionary in the Hunan Province, China, will leave the city this evening, after a little over a week in St. Louis, during which he taught at the normal training school of the St. Louis Presbytery, conducted in the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Locke addressed the students of Lindenwood College yesterday morning, telling of war conditions in China, as viewed from his twenty-five years' experience in that country. He preached Sunday morning at Carondelet Presbyterian Church. His appointments for the next few weeks are to speak at normal training schools in the South. He goes from here to Huntsville, Ala., and thence to Birmingham, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga.

TAKE PART IN DEDICATION PAGEANT

These five students at Lindenwood College will take part in the pageant to be staged at the dedication of the new State Capitol on Oct. 6. They are, left to right: Miss Mabel Blair, daughter of Judge D. E. Blair of the Supreme Court; Miss Emma Monier, daughter of Roy Monier, State Tax Commissioner; Miss Lillian Tweedie, daughter of Charles Tweedie, a manufacturer, of Jefferson City; Miss Margaret Enloe, daughter of Dr. Cortez Enloe, on the staff of the Governor, and Miss Elizabeth Haigh, daughter of Dr. George E. Haigh, all of Jefferson City

*Post. Dispatch, Sunday Afternoon
October 5-*

Globe-Democrat
Oct. 11 21

SPAMER TALKS ON ROSTAND'S PLAYS

Quarrel of Daly and Mansfield Over "Cyrano de Bergerac" Reviewed.

Richard Spamer, drama and music critic of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, traced the course of Cyrano de Bergerac, famous French poet and playwright, and the hero of Edmond Rostand's play of the same name-title, through the poet's biography, to the presentation of the play upon the English and American stage before 400 young women students at Lindenwood College yesterday morning.

Of Cyrano, the poet, Spamer mentioned his activities as a playwright, among others, his "Agrippina," "The Pedant Tricked," and his most brilliant composition, "The Comical History of the Sun and the Moon," which in after years served Dean Swift in that delightful satire, "Gulliver's Travels."

The presentations of Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" in Paris, London and America, were briefly cited. Spamer mentioned the quarrel between Augustin Daly and Richard Mansfield over the first presentation of the play, but stated that neither claim was valid, as "Cyrano" was first presented in this city by a stock company at the old Hagan Opera House, afterward the Imperial Theater. Rostand had neglected to copy-right his epoch-making drama in America.

In the early part of this century, Spamer related, the play was brought to the Olympic Theater, with Sarah Bernhardt as the heroine, Roxane. Then, later, Mansfield presented it here with Margaret Anglin as Roxane. The Daly production had the great Ada Rehan as the heroine.

Spamer gave a brief synopsis of the plot and stage settings of the five acts and paid particular attention to the development of the title character. He then gave an outline of the production which Walter Hampden brings to the Shubert Jefferson next week, in presenting the play.

Globe-Democrat Log
Oct. 12-

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, accompanied by Miss Margaret Johnson, head of Butler Hall, sat in a box at the Velled Prophet's ball. Six students from the college were guests of St. Louis friends, Misses Helen Towles, Anabel Couper, Lillian Hinkle, who is a daughter of the Governor of New Mexico; Louise Nicholson, Ruth Alley and Helen Lee Maupin. A social event at Lindenwood Friday evening was a reception by the students' Republican Club, of which Miss Gertrude Bird is president.

Oct. 12

MARKHAM MEMORIAL

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer received congratulations from hundreds of friends and associates, at Lindenwood College, commemorating their tenth anniversary at that institution, on September 30, 1924. The exercises were held in Roemer Hall. Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, and president of the board of trustees, presided, and read a number of telegrams of congratulation. In an address, Dr. MacIvor praised the late Dr. S. J. Niccolls as "loyal to traditions," and the lofty purposes of Col. and Mrs. James Gay Butler, benefactors, and others. Dr. Skilling declared he did not believe "our boys and girls want to be skeptics and would not tolerate substitutes in religion." He spoke of the sainted men and women who established Lindenwood College "because they believed in a complete Christian education for Christian young women." A minute adopted by the board of directors was read by Dr. Skilling, its vice-president, in which record was made of "the board's satisfaction and pleasure that this anniversary had been reached." "By his wise business management, his pleasing personality, and his faithful service," the minute stated, "Dr. Roemer has guided this college in its remarkable growth from year to year. In 1914 the enrollment of students was 89; in 1924 it was 429. During the present administration, Butler, Niccolls, Roemer and Irwin halls have been built, and improvements added, such as roadways, golf links and athletic equipment. Dr. Roemer has the faculty of drawing friends about him. He has assisted students financially out of his own pocket, and assisted the needs of the college in times and ways that few people have ever known. We hail Dr. Roemer today. We do him honor, and pray that God will continue to bless him and his wife and all associated with him in the work they are doing here."

.....

Heralds & Presbyter, Oct. 8

Rev. R. S. Calder, D.D., of Lindenwood College, began a series of six Bible addresses on "Paul," last Sabbath, before the Social Service Bible Class of Pilgrim Congregational Church.

*Globe-Democrat,
Oct. 14.*

LINDENWOOD PRESIDENT HONORED AT LUNCHEON

A luncheon complimentary to President John E. Roemer of Lindenwood College, because of his tenth anniversary, was given by the Lindenwood Board of Directors yesterday at the University Club. This affair was in connection with a meeting of the board, preliminary to next week's annual meeting at Kirksville of the Presbyterian Synod of Missouri, under whose care the college is carried on. A recognition of Dr. Roemer's ten years of successful service was voted in a substantial increase of salary.

Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church and president of Lindenwood's Board of Directors, presided. Others making speeches and reports were: Rev. Dr. David M. Skilling, vice president; George B. Cummings, secretary and treasurer; Rev. Dr. B. P. Fullerton, Robert Ranken, Thomas H. Cobbs, George W. Sutherland, Dr. B. Kurt Stumberg, John T. Garrett and Lee Montgomery.

*Globe-Dem Socy
Oct 15*

Mrs. John L. Roemer of Lindenwood College, together with Dean Alice E. Gipson and Miss E. Louise Stone of the faculty, motored in from St. Charles for the first tea of the season, given by the St. Louis College Club Saturday afternoon.

LOCAL GIRLS HONORED AT ST. CHARLES SCHOOL

Lillian Tweedie Is Sophomore
President and Emma Monier
Freshman President.

Misses Lillian Tweedie, Margaret Enloe, Emma Monier, Elizabeth Haigh and Mabel Blair, five Jefferson City girls who are attending Lindenwood College, at St. Charles this year have already won for themselves a number of high honors at the school, according to word received here.

Miss Tweedie, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tweedie, is president of the Sophomore Class, while Miss Monier, a daughter of State Tax Commissioner Roy Monier, is president of the Freshmen Class. Miss Enloe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cortez Enloe, is secretary and treasurer of the Freshman Class this year. Miss Haigh and Miss Blair have also been elected to several school offices and are among the more popular girls attending the college.

The news of their recognition will be received with pleasure by their many friends and admirers in the Capital City.

*Jefferson City
Capital News
Oct. 17
(Virginia Synod)*

*Herald & Presbyterian
Oct. 8.*

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

Five ministers of the St. Louis Presbytery took part in a tenth anniversary celebration for Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., and his wife, at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., Sept. 30. A feature of this program was its deep religious significance, beginning with the expression of Rev. John W. MacIvor, D.D., president of the Board of Directors, "This is a sort of an Ebenezer," on the address of Rev. David M. Skilling, D.D., vice-president of the Board; the prayers offered by Rev. R. W. Ely, D.D., and Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D.D., and the Scripture reading by Rev. R. S. Calder, D.D.

Dr. Skilling, after expressing the congratulations, confidence and appreciation of the Board, and reading a memorial adopted by that body, said of the general requisites for a Christian college: "The sainted men and women who established this college, and labored in it and for it in the beginning of its history, did so because they believed in a complete Christian education for Christian young women. The meaning of Christian education is clearly defined in the history and genius of our institution. A complete education is the education of life as a whole, the mind, body and spirit, and a complete Christian education is the education of life as a whole, according to the teaching of the Lord Jesus Christ. Such an education blesses and enriches the world. Religion not only brings much into the life of the student, but it keeps much out. It protects. It is a good thing to reform a person, but it is a better thing not to need to be reformed."

The memorial adopted by the Board, which was read by Dr. Skilling, stated in part: "By his wise business management, his pleasing personality, his faithful service, Dr. Roemer has guided this college into a remarkable growth from year to year. In 1914, the enrollment of students was eighty-nine; in 1924, the enrollment was 429. In 1914, the college had thirty-four acres of ground; in 1924 it has 138 acres. During his administration, Butler, Niccolls, Roemer and Irwin Halls have been built; also extensive improvements have been made, such as roadways, golf links and athletic equipment. We heartily congratulate Dr. Roemer, his wife, and all those associated with him, and assure them of the good wishes of the Board.

Post-Dispatch Socy.
Oct. 16

Mr. and Mrs. William Carter Bliss, who were married at Clinton, Mo., Oct. 1, will come this week to the Forest Park Hotel, where they are to reside. Mrs. Bliss was formerly Miss Elizabeth Agnes Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwin Harman of Clinton, Mo., and a former student of Lindenwood College.

Star,
Oct. 16.

Class Officers Elected at Lindenwood.

The sophomore class of Lindenwood College has elected the following officers for the year: Mrs. Lillian Tweedie of Jefferson City, president; Miss Margaret Edwards, vice president; Miss Mary Louise Blocher, secretary; Miss Sylvia Rubins, treasurer, and Miss Ellen Boyce, cheer leader.

The Missouri Cash-Book

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER

Published Every Thursday, at Jackson, Missouri, by R. K. Wilson

MISS BOSS ENTERS POLITICS

Miss Margaret Boss, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boss of this city, is President of the Democratic Club of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Boss has been attending Lindenwood for the past three years, and has held the following offices: Vice-President of the Shakespeare Club, and Secretary of the Junior Class. At present she is Secretary of the Senior Class and leader of the loyal Democrats of the school in their enthusiastic support of John W. Davis.

The Democratic Club is an organization of considerable importance, and will prove before the fourth of November that Democratic young women are unsurpassed in enthusiasm, loyalty, pep, and originality. It is an exceedingly good indication. It shows that American girls are interested in the affairs of their country.

October 16
Virginia G. Moore

Times,
Oct. 16

Lindenwood Students Form Political Clubs.

Democratic and Republican students' clubs have been organized at Lindenwood College. For the Democrats, Miss Margaret Boss of Jackson, Mo., is president; Jean Johnston, Corene Placek and Mary Bryan, vice presidents; Ellen Boyce, secretary; Lillian Hinkle, treasurer, and Lydia Dodge, sergeant-at-arms.

The Republican girls, whose motto is "Coolidge and Common Sense," have elected Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Iowa, president; Sara Shomberg, vice president; Henel Kready, secretary; Helen Calder and Betty Birch, cheer leaders. Additional zest is given to party formations by the fact that the president, Dr. John L. Roemer, has allied himself with the Republican Club, and Mrs. Roemer has taken membership with the Democrats. The faculty otherwise is about evenly divided.

Herald and Presbyter,
Oct. 15

Dr. W. T. Locke, for twenty-five years a missionary in Hunan Province, China, who has been spoken of as the "missionary statesman" of China, spent ten days in St. Louis, giving addresses daily at the presbytery's school of missions at the First Church, and speaking also before a number of city congregations. He also addressed Lindenwood College students. He left St. Louis early last week for the South, and has normal training school engagements at Huntsville, Ala., Birmingham, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga.

Rev. Robert Rush Biggar, pastor of the Cote Brillante Church, gave the chapel address last Thursday morning, at Lindenwood College.

Globe Dem
Oct. 18

Rev. Dr. Robert S. Calder, professor of biblical literature of Lindenwood College, will preach at the Union Avenue Christian Church, Union and Enright, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. At the evening service Rev. Dr. A. H. Armstrong of the Church Federation will speak on "O Child of God," using stereopticon pictures.

Nevada (Mo.) mail and Post, Oct. 18
(S. Shomberg.)

Miss Laura Margaret Mellette, daughter of C. E. Mellette, of Nevada, Mo., has been made one of the managing editors of Linden Bark, the weekly paper published at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Mellette, who graduated from Nevada High School in 1923, is a sophomore at Lindenwood College this year.

Oct. 19.

Kingshighway Presbyterian Church

Kingshighway and Cabanne

St. Louis

Oct. 19.

FRIDAY:

Lindenwood College will hold exercises in connection with the dedication of Irwin Hall at 10 A. M. Rev. W. Francis Irwin, D. D., will be the principal speaker.

Oct 19

Week by Week

Tyler Place

Presbyterian Church

Spring and Russell Aves.

Dedication of Irwin Hall, Lindenwood College—An invitation is extended to all members of this church and congregation to attend the dedication of the new dormitory, Irwin Hall, at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, at ten o'clock, Friday morning, October 24. The address will be made by the Rev. W. Francis Irwin, D. D. This building is erected in honor of a former President of Lindenwood College, Dr. Irwin, who was the father of one whom many of Tyler Place remember with affection, Mrs. Annie Irwin Avery.

Second Presbyterian Church

Oct. 19

Westminster Place and Taylor Avenue

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE. President and Mrs. Roemer, the Faculty and the Board of Directors invite the members of this congregation to the dedication of Irwin Hall on Friday morning, October twenty-fourth, at ten o'clock, in St. Charles, Mo. Dr. W. Francis Irwin will deliver the address.

October 17.

Daily Globe-Democrat.

She Heads Student Government Board at Lindenwood

MISS ELIZABETH ARVESON
SID WHITING PHOTO

Miss Elizabeth Arveson, a senior at Lindenwood College from Merrill, Wis., heads the Student Government Board of that institution for the coming year. She will be assisted by Miss Virginia Symms of Nevada, Mo., vice president, and Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, Mo., secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the new board are Misses Mary Frances Wertz, Grace Larsen, Elizabeth Needles, Jerry Dangerfield, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Frances Boggett, Virginia Brown, Roslyn Cohen, Lillian Tweedie, Mary Louise Blocher and Mary Margaret Ransom.

Limes, Oct. 18.

The Rev. Robert S. Calder, D. D., professor of Biblical Literature at Lindenwood College, will preach at Union Avenue Christian Church, Union and Enright avenues, tomorrow at 11 a. m. At 8 p. m. the Rev. Arthur H. Armstrong, D. D., executive secretary of the Church Federation of St. Louis, will speak on, "O City of God," using the stereopticon to illustrate his lecture.

October 19

The Daily POST-DISPATCH alone has 57,000 MORE City C irculation than BOTH other

REV. W. FRANK IRWIN TO SPEAK

The Rev. W. Frank Irwin, D. D., of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., will give the principal address Friday, Oct. 24, at Lindenwood College, at 10:30 a. m., in a dedicatory program for Irwin Hall, a students' dormitory which has been named for his father, the late Dr. Robert Irwin, president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893. A son-in-law of Dr. Irwin, Rev. E. W. McClusky, of Lebanon, Ill., and another son-in-law, the Rev. W. F. Jones, of Carlinville, Ill., will assist in the exercises. Miss Agnes Gray of St. Louis will give musical numbers. The new dormitory cost $250,000. It stands on the south side of the campus and houses 75 students.

What Women Here Are Doing

Swimming comes to the front in popularity for beginners at Lindenwood College. The largest number ever signed up is reached, with 157 on the roll for the beginning class. The swimming pool has been cleaned, repainted, and new diving boards installed. Hockey, heretofore the most popular fall sport, takes second place this season, but still shows a marked increase in enrollment, with 103 signing up. Much enthusiasm is already being shown over the Thanksgiving hockey game. A newly rolled, smooth field is provided, and new hockey sticks.

*Times
Oct 21.*

Oct. 15.

Wisconsin

THE MERRILL DAILY HERALD

Merrill Girls Receive Honors

Students at Lindenwood College Elected to Officers of Student Body

Misses Elizabeth and Maude Arveson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Arveson, of this city and students at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri, have received honors there.

Miss Elizabeth Arveson was chosen as president of the Lindenwood Student Council for the year. As such she is head of a group of some 500 members and leader of the girls in their system of self government.

Miss Maude Arveson was recently elected senior class president and is thus to lead the graduating class of the year. Both girls have previously attended Lindenwood. They are girls of unusual executive ability, genial good humor, and particularly fitted for the positions they hold by their quality of leadership.

*Globe Democrat
Oct 21*

Visit Art Museum.

A party of fifty-eight students from Lindenwood College made a pilgrimage to the St. Louis Art Museum Saturday, under the guidance of Miss Alice Linnemann, head of the college art department, for an inspection of the Western Artists' Exhibition.

Globe Democrat, Oct. 21.

SECOND SECTION—EDITORIAL

Heads Sophomore Class.

Miss Lillian Tweedie of Jefferson City, who recently figured in the pageant at the State Capitol dedication, has been elected president of the sophomore class at Lindenwood College. The other officers are: vice president, Miss Margaret Edwards; secretary, Miss Mary Louise Blocher; treasurer, Miss Sylvia Rubins; cheer leader, Miss Ellen Boyce.

Limes,
Oct. 23.

At Lindenwood College.

Anyone visiting Lindenwood College on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week would have wondered what new styles were being originated by more than 100 of the youngest of the students. All the freshmen, of whom Miss Emma Monier of Jefferson City is president, had to be "slaves" for the time, to the sophomores. It was their penalty to "salaam" whenever they met an upperclassman, and to keep away from all except the south doors and south stairways. The ridiculous costume was Oriental, consisting first of a weighty turban of Turkis htwel-ing, so wound about each youthful head that the ears should "flop in the wind," as designated in the sophomore ukase read in chapel by the sophomore president, Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, Mo. Each freshman had to wear bloomers, stockings of contrasting hue, low-heeled shoes, a broad sash and white blouse put on wrong side before, also huge earrings. When prostrate at their salaaming, they bore some resemblance to the "slave" class to which the upper class had consigned them. One of the hardest rules was the offering of dessert by each freshman to some one else at table, at dinner.

M

Miss Lydia L. Dodge, of our city, who is attending Lindenwood college at St. Charles, in her sophomore year has had the honor of being appointed student-assistant to Mrs. Julia Underwood who teaches journalism at the college.

A weekly paper, Linden-Bark, is published at Lindenwood which has four managing editors. They are: Miss Sara Shomberg, Altoona, Pa., Miss Laura Bellette of Nevada, Mo., Miss Virginia W. Syms Nevada, Mo., and Lydia L. Dodge, Milan, Mo. Lydia is specializing in the commercial course and is taking the news writing just because she kinda has a hankering after that particular line, we suppose.

Standard Milan
Oct 16 - 1924 mo

Herald & Presbyterian
Oct. 22

ST. LOUIS AND VICINITY.

Rev. R. C. Williamson, D.D., pastor of Tyler Place Church, gave the assembly address last Thursday, at Lindenwood College.

Altoona, Pa.,
Mirror, Oct. 19.

MISS SHOMBERG ON PAPER STAFF

Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, daughter of Mr. Albert Shomberg, has recently become affiliated with the weekly newspaper of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Shomberg is one of the four managing editors of the "Linden Bark" and, as a senior at Lindenwood, holds the following additional positions: Vice president of senior class, of the Republican club, and of the Y. W. C. A. as well as treasurer of the Athletic association. Her latest honor is to be elected business manager of the Linden Leaves, the college annual which will appear in the early spring.

Globe Democrat,
Oct. 23.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE TO DEDICATE DORMITORY

Irwin Hall at Lindenwood College, a new dormitory, built with investment funds from legacies of the late James Gay Butler, will be dedicated tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. It is named in honor of the late Rev. Dr. Robert Irwin, who was president of Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893. His son, Rev. W. Francis Irwin, a Presbyterian pastor of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., will make an address. Others taking part will be two sons-in-law of the late Dr. Irwin—Rev. W. F. Brown of Carlinville, Ill., and Rev. E. W. McClusky of Lebanon, Ill. Alumnae from the city and neighboring points will be present, including a number of former students during the period of Dr. Irwin's presidency.

This new hall houses seventy-five students. It stands on the south side of the campus, and is built from plans designed by Le Beaume & Klein.

e-Democrat.

OCTOBER 22, 1924.

LINDENWOOD GIRLS MUST LET EARS FLOP

Freshmen Must Bow to Sophomores Today Under 'Red Terror.'

Freshmen at Lindenwood College in St. Charles today, under the lash of the sophomore day of "red terror" must allow their ears to "flop" in the breezes, and if their hair is bobbed they must hide it under a turban of Turkish toweling.

Until dark tonight the sophomore edict prohibits any new girl at the college from appearing save in "slave" costume. This is conspicuous by its long "bloomers," parti-colored stockings, pirate's sash and white blouse.

Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, Mo., president of the sophomores, called attention to a portentous "proclamation" and the white and crimson flag of the sophomores fluttering on the campus, below the national colors. The freshmen she called "ego-centric, lowly organisms in the cosmos scheme," who should now "salaam to the ground" whenever they met an upperclassman.

Among the penalties which evoked the loudest groans was that compelling each freshman, at dinner, to offer her dessert to some upperclassman. Freshmen must run at the top of their speed when going from one building to another on the campus, but within the buildings their pace must be extremely slow. They are forbidden, in Roemer Hall, to use any except the south entrances and south stairways. Another hardship is that they must come to breakfast at the first bell.

*Oct. 9
Standard*

THE MILAN STAN

LYDIA L. DODGE IS HONORED; CHOSEN SERGEANT-AT-ARMS BY DEM. CLUB AT LINDEN- WOOD COLLEGE

Both Democratic and Republican clubs have been organized in a day at Lindenwood College, and while the Republicans are leading with over 100 members, the Democrats have enlisted the college dog "Lin" as their mascot, and hope to advance more rapidly. Because the Democrats were swift enough to get their club started at noon Monday, the Republicans added "features" to theirs.

Monday night two freshmen entered the dining room disguised as an elephant and bearing the letters G. O. P. The Republican club was then formed with Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Ia., president; Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., vice-president; Miss Henel Kready of Sikeston, secretary; Misses Helen Calder and Betty Birch, yell leaders, and Miss Florence Schaeper of the faculty, campaign manager; President John L. Roemer, Dr. R. S. Calder and Dr. Kurt Stumberg of the faculty, declared allegiance by making platform speeches.

A strong faculty leader on the other side is Guy C. Motley, secretary of the college. The Democratic president, Miss Margaret Boss of Jackson, Mo., accepted the office enthusiastically, although her father, she said, has voted the Republican ticket all his life. Three vice-presidents were chosen, Misses Jean Johnston of San Antonio, Tex.; Mary Bryan of Oklahoma City, Ok., and Corinne Placek of Wahoo, Neb. Miss Ellen Boyce of Charleston, Mo., was made secretary. Miss Lillian Hinkle, who is daughter of the Governor of New Mexico, became treasurer, and Miss Lydia Dodge of Milan, Mo., sergeant-at-arms.—Globe-Democrat, Wednesday, Oct. 1.

*Wahoo, Neb. Democrat
Oct 23 (S. M. Mellette)*

Miss Corene Placek, of Wahoo, Nebraska, has been elected Vice-President of the Democratic Club at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a sophomore. Last spring Miss Placek received a prize for making the best poster.

Milan Standard

Globe Dem.,
Oct. 25

Lindenwood Dedicates New Irwin Hall $250,000 Dormitory

Clergy, Professors and Students Take Part in Impressive Ceremony.

With full ceremonial of clergy, professors and academics, Irwin Hall, the new $250,000 dormitory at Lindenwood College, was dedicated yesterday. In the early part of the exercises a large American flag was floated above the building. Campus drills continued in the afternoon, airplanes from Scott Field flew over the grounds, and it was a complete holiday for the students.

Rev. Dr. W. Francis Irwin of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., who spent a part of his boyhood at Lindenwood, gave the discourse of the day, presenting a memorial of his father, the late Dr. Robert Irwin, and his mother, Mrs. Irwin, leaders at Lindenwood from 1880 to 1893.

Preceding this address in Roemer Auditorium, ceremonies took place at 10 o'clock, dedicating Irwin Hall itself. In scholastic procession through the October sunshine came the board, faculty and students, the latter all in white dresses. Dr. B. Kurt Stumberg was marshal. Noted in the long line was an alumna, Judge Lois Dale of Texarkana, Ark., who later was to receive the first graduate degree ever bestowed by Lindenwood, LL. D.

Rev. MacIvor Presides.

Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church and president of the Lindenwood Board of Directors, presided from the steps of Irwin Hall. "This building is dedicated," he said, "to the great cause of Christian education." He handed the key to President John Lincoln Roemer, who, in pledging faithfulness to "the ideals of the fathers," quoted a reply that Dr. W. Francis Irwin had made when told that the building was to be named for his father: "It is an unprecedented thing that after thirty years a name should be so remembered."

President Roemer spoke of Lindenwood's ninety-seven years of history, the beginning of which is linked with the present through the old Sibley Hall. Prayers at Irwin Hall were offered by Rev. Dr. B. P. Fullerton and Rev. Dr. W. F. Jones of Carlinville, Ill.

The presentation of an American flag in behalf of the Women's Relief Corps of St. Charles was made by Mrs. Thomas F. Gillis, who spoke in appreciation of what Lindenwood College is doing. Miss Lillian Tweedie, president of the sophomore class, made response, saying, "The ideals of the American citizen are the ideals of Lindenwood." Dixie Dill, 6 years old, recited a poem about the flag.

Dr. W. Francis Irwin spoke at Roemer Hall. Here Rev. E. W. McClusky of Lebanon, Ill., offered prayer, and Rev. Dr. Robert S. Calder read the Scriptures. Schubert's "Serenade" was sung by Miss Cora Edwards of the faculty, with violin obligato by Miss Agnes Gray, and piano accompaniment by Miss Mildred Gravley.

Dr. Irwin's Address.

To an audience composed mostly of alumnae and students, Dr. Irwin gave an intimate characterization of his father's life. After telling of his sympathy, his service for mankind, his courtesy and his innate Christianity, the son referred, thus to his father's alertness of mind:

"I can remember when, as a boy, he took me to see the first electric light in St. Louis—those old, sputtery incandescent lights that made the girls at the Velled Prophet's ball look ghastly, showing up all the artificialities and changing all the colors. I remember he said: 'You will see the day when all our homes will be lighted with electricity.' He was one of the first subscribers to the telephone. He had the first typewriter in town, a machine that required a man of strong physique to pound the keys, which took the place of the 'daily dozen'."

"He never indulged in dogmatism. He did not possess the sort of goodness that is pestiferous. He never attempted to stick pins into the people to drive them into the kingdom of God. But I wish that God had blessed my ministry as he did his."

Globe-Democrat
Oct 27

Swimming Class Large.

Lindenwood College reaches its largest number of students learning to swim, this fall. In the class which is beginning to learn to swim, 157 have enrolled. Those of more advanced classes expect soon to have an exhibition of water sports and diving. Plans are also under way for the Thanksgiving hockey game.

Arkansas Girl Elected.

An Arkansas girl, Miss Betty Bramlitt of Malvern, Ark., has been elected president of the junior class at Lindenwood College. The vice president is Miss Helen Lee Maupin of Moberly, Mo., and Miss Ida Hoeflin is secretary and treasurer. Miss Florence Schaper of the faculty was chosen class sponsor.

Globe-Democrat,
Oct. 26.

FACULTY RECITAL

AT LINDENWOOD

The first faculty recital of the season will be given at Lindenwood College this (Sunday) evening, at 8:30 o'clock, by Miss Mildred E. Gravley, pianist; Miss Cora N. Edwards, contralto, and Miss Ariel Gross, accompanist, with the following program:

| | |
|---------------------------------------|------------|
| Nocturne, C sharp minor..... | Chopin |
| Etude, Op. 10, No. 5..... | Chopin |
| Scherzo, E major..... | Chopin |
| Miss Gravley. | |
| Aria—O Don Fatale (Don Carlos), Verdi | |
| La Girometta..... | Sibella |
| Miss Edwards. | |
| Triana (Spanish Dance)..... | Albeniz |
| Miss Gravley. | |
| Invocation to Eros..... | Kristeiner |
| My Delight..... | Chopin |
| My Phantom Double..... | Schubert |
| The Fairy Piper..... | Brewer |
| Miss Edwards. | |

les Co

ST. CHARLES, MISSOURI.

"IRWIN DAY" AT LINDENWOOD

New Dormitory Dedicated—Program Enjoyed By Many Friends Who Visited the Old College.

Irwin Day dawned bright and clear, the crisp October morning seeming to spring forth in all her glory to be in keeping with this glorious celebration.

All of Lindenwood seemed to have this same spirit, the girls hustling about cleaning up their rooms ready to receive the visitors, or busying themselves about the campus in some other way. Of course, there were no classes, Dr. Roemer having declared this day a holiday, set aside for the dedication of Irwin Hall.

At 10 o'clock the dedicatory exercises began, the students dressed entirely in white, lined up on each side of the sidewalk from Sibley to Irwin Hall. Through these rows of white-clad girls moved the procession, led by the choir.

Next came Dr. Roemer with Dr. John W. McIvor, president of the Board of Directors, then the board followed by Mrs. Roemer with Dean Gipson and the rest of the faculty, in their academic robes. Next came the heads of the buildings and the office force. The students followed, first the Seniors, then Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. The procession marched to the steps of Irwin Hall where the building was dedicated. The presentation of the building was made by Dr. John W. McIvor, President of the Board of Directors, and the acceptance of the building by Dr. John L. Roemer, president of the college. Prayer of the Dedication was given by the Rev. W. F. Jones, D. D., a son-in-law of the late Dr. Robert Irwin. The presentation of the American Flag by Mrs. Thos. L. Gillis and the acceptance of this by Miss Lillian Tweedie followed.

*St. Charles, Mo.
Cosmos-Monitor, Oct. 25
(R. Dodge)*

In the same order of march the procession walked to Roemer Auditorium for the dedication address. The Processional Hymn by the choir entitled, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," preceded the Invocation by Rev. E. W. McCluskey of Lebanon, Ill., another son-in-law of Dr. Irwin. An anthem by the choir followed and then the scripture reading by Dr. R. S. Calder D. D. There was also a solo by Miss Cora Edwards, with violin obligato by Miss Agnes Gray, accompanied by Miss Mildred Gravely.

Next came the dedication address by Rev. W. Francis Irwin D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., and a son of the late Dr. Robert Irwin former president of Lindenwood, Irwin Hall being named in his honor.

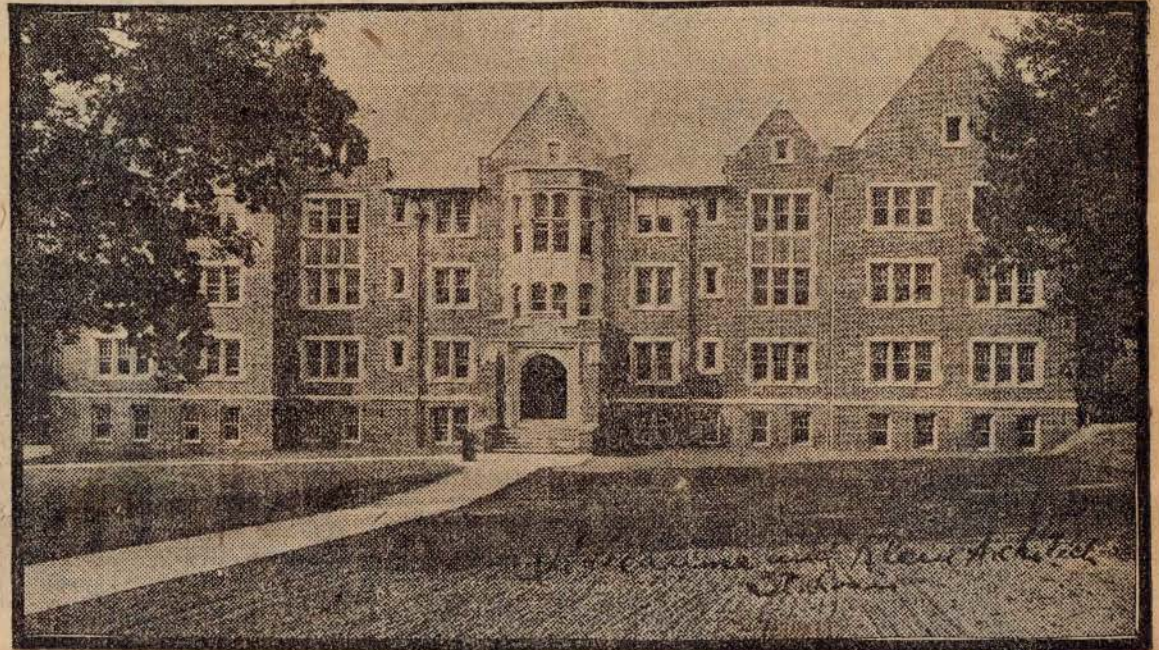

Yesterday was another occasion of honor for Lindenwood, for it conferred its first honorary degree, that of L. L. D., upon Judge Lois Da'e, of Texarkana, Ark., a former Lindenwood girl.

After these exercises a delicious cafeteria luncheon was served to all in the Jubilee Dining Hall.

At 2 p. m. the student exercises under the supervision of the Physical Education Department were given on the campus.

Immediately after this Irwin Hall and all other buildings were open for inspection, guides having been provided for our many visitors.

Past Week's Realty News

IRWIN HALL, NEW DORMITORY BUILDING AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE, DEDICATED FRIDAY

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE OPENS NEW DORMITORY

Irwin Hall, a new dormitory building at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, was dedicated Friday.

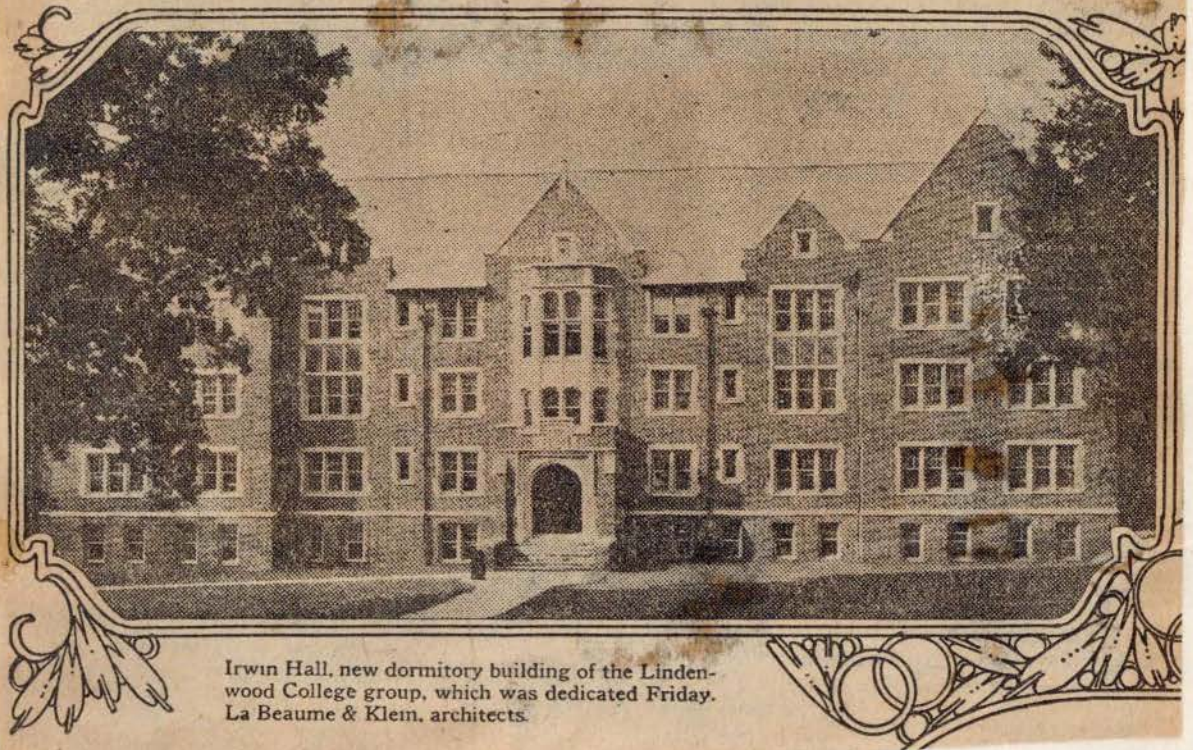

The building was completed in time for the opening of the fall term, and is fully occupied. It will accommodate eighty-four students. Students' rooms are arranged in suites with private bath for each group of four girls. The building contains, also, matron's suite, guest room for visiting parents, recreation rooms and parlors, maids' quarters, music practice rooms, curling rooms and a fudge room or kitchenette on each floor.

The style of the building is English of the Tudor Gothic period.

Its cost completely furnished was about $175,000. La Beaume & Klein were the architects, and J. J. Wuellner and Son of Alton, the general contractor.

Post-Dispatch, Oct. 26

Residences, College Hall and a B

Irwin Hall, new dormitory building of the Lindenwood College group, which was dedicated Friday. La Beaume & Klein, architects.

LINDENWOOD'S NEW HALL RECEIVES DEDICATION

Irwin Hall, a new dormitory building at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, was formally dedicated last Friday. The building was completed just in time for the opening of the fall term Sept. 23 and is fully occupied. It accommodates 84 students. Students' rooms are arranged in suites with private bath for each group of four girls. The building contains, also, matron's suite, guest room for visiting parents, recreation rooms and parlors, maids' quarters, music practice rooms, curling rooms and a fudge room or kitchenette on each floor.

The style of the building is English of the Tudor Gothic period. Its cost, completely furnished, was about $175,000. La Beaume & Klein, St. Louis, were the architects, and J. J. Wuellner & Son of Alton the general contractors.

Albuquerque (N. Mex.)
Herald, Oct. 30

MISS HINKLE HONORED.
Miss Lillian Hinkle, daughter of Governor and Mrs. J. F. Hinkle of Santa Fe, has been elected treasurer of the democratic club at Lindenwood college, where she is a sophomore. Miss Hinkle is also president of the Odds and Ends club, a state organization.

Times, Nov. 3

At Lindenwood College.
Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves, who was a champion athlete in the graduating class of Lindenwood College in the last season and who has since taken a trip to Europe, has now decided to return to her alma mater as an instructor. She has joined the corps of physical education teachers, and has classes in tennis, swimming and "remedial" classes.

Globe-Democrat
Nov. 3.

ADDED TO FACULTY OF
LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Page Wright of Webster Groves has been added to the faculty of Lindenwood College, as an assistant instructor in physical education.

She will have classes in tennis, swimming, and in teaching exercises that are called "remedial," for the correction of any physical defects. Miss Wright is a graduate with the degree B. S. at Lindenwood in the class of 1924. She has spent the summer touring Europe.

Raton (N. Mex.) Range,

Miss Lillian Hinkle, daughter of Governor and Mrs. C. F. Hinkle of Santa Fe, has been elected treasurer of the students' Democratic club at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a sophomore. Miss Hinkle is also president of the Odds and Ends club, a state organization.

Nov. 1

Globe-Democrat
Oct. 29.

DR. AUG. J. C. SIEBERT
FUNERAL SERVICE HELD

The funeral services for Dr. August J. C. Siebert, well known physician and writer of 3970 Flad avenue, was held yesterday morning at the Wagoner Undertaking chapel, 3621 Olive street. Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, and former pastor of Dr. Siebert, officiated and made an address. There was also an address by George Vogis. A musical program was arranged by Hugo Anschuetz, who played the organ, and Mrs. Anschuetz, who played the violin. A quartette from the Liederkrantz sang several selections and "The Wanderer," by Schumann, was sung as a solo. The last-named number had been requested by Dr. Siebert to be sung at his funeral. The remains were taken to Valhalla Cemetery for cremation.

Post-Dispatch Socy.
Nov. 2

Miss Carmela Graziadel, a student from Port Huron, Mich., was Halloween queen at Lindenwood College, in ceremonies attending a Halloween dance, Friday night at the Butler Gym. Autumn decorations were used, with suggestions of spooks and goblins. In the late afternoon a play was presented by the Lindenwood Players.

Globe-Democrat,
Nov. 4.

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS
TO LEARN HOW TO VOTE

While only about thirty-five girls of the student body at Lindenwood College are qualified to vote, the whole college is going to have a chance to vote today at four amateur booths, equipped with clerks and judges, in the corridor of Roemer Hall. This is designed to teach all how to vote, so that there may be no lost suffrages when they become really old enough to make them count.

The real voters will go to the Lutheran Hall in St. Charles. The senior class is greatly distracted by its divergence in political views. From the seniors the Democratic College Club president is Miss Margaret Boss, and the Republican club president is Miss Gertrude Bird, a senior. But the president of the senior class, Miss Elizabeth Arveson, and her sister, Miss Maude Arveson, also a senior, are from Wisconsin and are staunch supporters of La Follette. Miss Helen Calder is Republican pep leader, and Miss Helen Towles has helped the Democrats.

Herald & Presbyterian
Oct. 26

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Lindenwood College, at the St. Louis University Club, reports showed a decided increase in the physical properties of the college, and plans were announced for the celebration of Irwin Day, Oct. 24. The religious atmosphere of the college was particularly spoken of. Recognition was taken of Dr. Roemer's successful ten years as president of the college, and complimentary resolutions were ratified by the board as a whole which had previously been passed in executive session. A luncheon followed, at which Dr. MacIvor presided.

Globe-Democrat
Society, Nov. 2.

One more queen has been added to the ranks in Lindenwood College. Friday evening Miss Carmela Graziadel of Port Huron, Mich., was crowned "Halloween queen" at the annual Halloween party. There was a Halloween program by the Lindenwood Players, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock, and the dance in the evening.

Herald & Presbyterian
Nov. 5

Rev. W. H. Butler, D.D., of the North Church, gave the chapel address at Lindenwood College last Thursday.

Globe-Dem.
Nov. 6

To Speak at Lindenwood.
Rev. J. F. Slagle, a Presbyterian pastor of Mount Carmel, Ill., will give the chapel address at Lindenwood College at 11 o'clock this morning, in Roemer Auditorium.

Evansville (Ind.) Press
Nov. 7

PERSONALS

Miss Mary Frances Wertz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wertz, 804 Kentucky-av, who is a senior at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., has been made a member of the student governing board of the college. Miss Wertz also is treasurer of the Lindenwood Players and the International Relations club.

Globe-Democrat, Oct. 31.

St. Louis

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE WILL HOLD RALLY FOR DAVIS

Democratic students of Lindenwood intend to have the last college meeting before election in a rally tomorrow night in Roemer Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock. The speakers will be Congressman Cannon, Elmer O. Jones and Wiley Huston. Following the program there will be fireworks on the campus and sandwiches are to be served. Miss Margaret Boss of Jackson, Mo., is president of the Davis Club, as the Democratic students have named their organization.

About 10 per cent of the 500 students at Lindenwood are old enough to vote, and each is eager to deposit her ballot. There will also be about fifty teachers voting.

Globe Dem.
Oct. 31

Chapel Address by Dr. Butler.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Butler, pastor of the North Presbyterian Church, made a chapel address before the students of Lindenwood College yesterday morning.

Globe-Dem.
Nov. 5

LITERARY EDITOR TALKS ON AUTHORS' PERSONALITIES

Miss Jane Frances Winn, literary editor of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, gave an address at Lindenwood College yesterday morning on "Authors I Have Met." She told of attending the international meeting of writers in New York in May, and gave a characterization of some of the best-known English novelists who were there, as well as of a number of Americans. Personal touches concerning the appearance and idiosyncrasies of certain writers added to the discourse.

Among St. Louis writers whom she discussed was Winston Churchill. She depicted the verisimilitude of his characters in "The Crisis," as drawn from definite personalities in this city. The works of Temple Bailey and of Fannie Hurst were also discussed. In conclusion she referred to a coterie of writers whose early home was in Chillicothe, Ohio, among whom was Anne Douglas Sedwick. This city, she said, had an unusually large proportion of writers.

Globe-Democrat,
Soey., Nov. 9.

Birthday honors were given Friday evening, according to annual custom at Lindenwood College, to Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer, dean of students. The new dining room was the scene of an elaborate dinner at 6:30 o'clock, at which the students were seated by classes. They sang original songs in honor of their host and hostess, President and Mrs. Roemer. Birthday cakes were served and the dining room darkened, so that only the birthday candles gave light, while the students sang "Dear Lindenwood." The freshmen were in charge of a reception and dance at 8:30 o'clock in the Butler gymnasium, following their presentation of a large arm bouquet to Mrs. Roemer. Miss Emma Monier, president of the class, escorted the honor guest in the grand march, after which there was dancing and a short program by the freshmen. Ices were served in original shapes, carrying out class colors, which also blended with the autumn draperies of the gymnasium.

Times,
Nov. 8.

Lindenwood College C. Notes.
Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer's birthday party was a conspicuous event in the social calendar of Lindenwood College, Friday evening, Nov. 7. President and Mrs. Roemer were hosts at an elaborate dinner in the new dining-room at 6:30 o'clock, which was attended by about 100 guests outside the college. Following this, the freshman class entertained in Mrs. Roemer's honor, with a reception and dance in Butler Gym., which was decorated with autumn branches and gay pennants. The freshman president, Miss Emma Monier, presented in behalf of the class an arm-bouquet of old-fashioned flowers. The seniors also made a gift to Mrs. Roemer. There was an original program by the freshmen, and refreshments of ices and cake were served. The singing of college songs was impromptu from every class at the dinner, and when the lighted "birthday cake" was brought in, the students sang the Lindenwood Hymn.
Students of Lindenwood College expect to get out Linden Leaves, the college annual, somewhat earlier than usual this year, and have already appointed a full staff, which is at work. Miss Gertrude Bird, a senior, who was business manager last year, will be editor-in-chief, with Miss Sara Shomberg as business manager, assisted by Miss Cora Wahlenbrock. Miss Eleanor Brown is organization editor; Miss Helen Kready, literary editor; Miss Lydia Dodge, joke editor; and Miss Laura Margaret Mellette, editor of athletics.

Malvern, Ark., Meteor
Nov. 5

The many Malvern friends of Miss Elizabeth Bramlitt join in congratulations upon her election as Class President of the Junior Class of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri.

Globe-Democrat
Nov. 12

Delegates to Teachers' Meeting
Five members of the administrative staff of Lindenwood College will represent that institution at the sixty-second annual meeting of the Missouri State Teachers' Association, which convenes today in Kansas City, to continue for the rest of the week. President John Lincoln Roemer and the new dean, Dr. Alice E. Gipson, will be included in the party, as also Miss Charlotte Thurman, registrar; Guy C. McTley, secretary, and E. C. Blocher, field agent.

Post-Dispatch
Soey., Nov. 9.

The annual birthday dinner for Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer at Lindenwood College was attended Friday evening, by 100 guests from outside the college, many of whom were from St. Louis. Miss Emma Monier of Jefferson City, as president of the freshman class, presented a large arm bouquet of old-fashioned flowers, and Miss Elizabeth Arveson of Wisconsin, president of the senior class, gave a remembrance for the seniors. College songs and dancing characterized the evening.

Nov. 10

aily Globe-Democrat, Monday Morning, Nov

LINDENWOOD PROGRAM HAS COLONIAL SETTING

Freshmen Give Entertainment in Honor of Mrs. John L. Roemer.

Colonial ideas were carried out in a freshman program at Lindenwood College, Friday evening, in honor of Mrs. John L. Roemer, dean of students. Not only was the costuming and dancing after the mode of 150 years ago, but huge Colonial "nosegays" of varicolored roses, with scalloped white paper setting and tinsel "stems" had been placed on the walls of Butler Gym. These thousands of tissue paper roses had all been fashioned by the freshmen, who worked for weeks in their recreation time, in order to bring about elaborate effects with small expense, any great expenditure for this occasion being forbidden. Colored light-shades and decorative garlands brightened the ceiling.

The many colors were developed into a "rainbow," as the background and canopy of Mrs. Roemer's "throne," where she sat, surrounded by members of the faculty to see the production. Miss Emma Monier, president of the freshman class, sang "Sweetheart," in "A Dance from the Long Ago" with Miss Meredith Groom. "A Play from the Long Ago," the Beau of Bath, by Constance D'Arcy Mackay, was presented with Miss Frances Baggett in the title role, Miss Mary Olive Crawley as "The Lady of the Portrait," and Miss Elizabeth Needles as the man servant.

Another group, giving "Songs of the Long Ago," in full skirts and tight bodices for the girls and Colonial costumes, including high-crowned beaver hats for the "men," was composed of Misses Nellie Ruth Don Carlos, Lucille Meck, Vivian Custard and Elizabeth Needles, with Miss Alberta Shell as pianist.

Chairmen of committees for the affair were: Decoration, Miss Roslyn Cohen; refreshment and program, Miss Judith Van Dyne; entertainment, Miss Mary Olive Crawley; invitation, Miss Geraldine Curreathars; song, Miss Alberta Shell. There was an orchestra and general dancing, beginning with the grand march led by Mrs. Roemer and Miss Monier.

Among guests from a distance were Misses Louise Child of Richmond, Mo.; Helene Millsap of Joplin, Mo., and Myrill Rodney of Kansas City.

St Louis Times
Nov. 12

Lindenwood Teachers' Delegates at Kansas City.

The Missouri State Teachers' Association, meeting at Kansas City, will have a delegation of five from Lindenwood College, including President John Lincoln Roemer, Dr. Alice E. Gipson, dean; Guy C. Motley, E. C. Blocher and Miss Charlotte Thurman.

Globe-Democrat
Nov. 12

Armistice Day Recital.

A students' recital in honor of Armistice Day was given at Roemer Auditorium, Lindenwood College, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Those taking part with instrumental and vocal numbers were: Misses Evelyn Cherry, Marjorie Braham, Elizabeth Prince, Fannie Pierce, Katherine Sampson, Helen James, Mary Frances Lynch, Carmela Graziadei, Mary Sue Guthrie, Marguerite McCormick, and Virginia Bauer.

Globe Democrat
Nov. 13.

Honor Student to Columbia.

Miss Mary Catherine Yount of Cape Girardeau, who received a $500 fellowship from Lindenwood College last commencement for highest scholarship, has decided to do her graduate work at Columbia University, New York City, and has entered the school of social science in that institution. Miss Yount last spring was May queen as well as honor student at Lindenwood.

Port Huron, Mich:
Times-Herald, Nov. 12

Port Huron Girl Wins College Honor

The Hallowe'en queen of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., was Miss Carmela Graziadei, Port Huron.

Miss Graziadei was elected by popular secret ballot and her identity was not revealed until she appeared at the post holiday ball, Friday evening in a clever dance, for which she wore a dancing frock of black tulle. The queen is a member of the sophomore class.

Herald & Presbyterian
Nov. 12.

Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., president of Lindenwood College, preached at the First Church, East St. Louis, Sabbath morning and evening, Nov. 2.

Globe Democrat, Nov. 16,

CLASS DAY PROGRAM HELD AT SOLDAN HIGH

Dr. J. L. Roemer Addresses Students Who Will Graduate in January.

The class day program of the Soldan class of January, '25, was held in the auditorium of the school Friday. After several musical numbers and a speech by the president of the class, Joe Schneider, Dr. J. L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, spoke to the class on their motto, "Service."
"You have selected a sacred word," he said. "It is a word of hope and redemption to the world if it is used right and understood."

"Service," he continued, "is a royal word—a password into a royal room. It falls on each of you in this class to assert his kingship."

Dr. Roemer told of how the word service has been overworked, how it has been used in all connections. "But," he added, "you are to use it in the greatest way—service to others."

"We speak of greatness," he exclaimed, "but we come into greatness only through service. There is no other way."

He further explained that greatness is not measured in the number that serve any man, but in the number that any man serves. He asked the class to remember Theodore Roosevelt's words: "Do the best you can wherever you are with whatever you have."

The final number was the singing of the class song, the words of which were written by Fannie Romanovsky and the music composed by W. J. Hall, instructor in music.

Principal John R. Powell completed the program by a sendoff to the class, praising their program and telling them to continue to live up to the ideals for which Soldan has always stood.

Springfield (Mo.) Leader Nov. 11.

Personals
Miss Frances Baggott of 1055 East Elm street has been made a member of the student governing board at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a member of the freshman class this year.

Post-Dispatch, Nov. 16,

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will meet Nov. 18 at 2:30 o'clock in the Forest Park Hotel. The club is conducting a membership campaign under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Scott, and has been divided into three teams, with Miss Lillian Zacher, Mrs. Joseph Harper and Mrs. M. C. Hamil, captains. Miss Zacher's team will be hosts at the meeting and has arranged the program. Members of the club and all former students at Lindenwood will be guests.

Globe-Democrat, Nov. 16.

A tea in honor of the senior class of Lindenwood College was given Friday afternoon by the students resident in St. Charles. The twenty-two members of the class, with Miss Maude Arveson, president, were all present. Another recent social event in honor of a Lindenwood senior was a birthday party for Miss Gertrude Bird, at the tearoom, eighteen guests being present.

Globe-Democrat, Nov. 16.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday at 2:30 at the Forest Park Hotel. The club is conducting a membership campaign under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Scott. Members and former students at Lindenwood are cordially invited to attend.

Globe Democrat, Nov. 16

Recital at Lindenwood.
John Thomas, head of the music department of Lindenwood College, gave a piano recital Thursday morning, November 13, at 11 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium. The audience was large, including not only the college body, but also many from the music circles of St. Charles and St. Louis. The program follows:
Sonata, Op. 27, No. 1..... Beethoven
Romance..... Mozart-Friedman
Capriccio..... Dohnanyi
Arabesque..... Thomas
Rhapsodie No. 6..... Liszt

DAVENPORT GIRL EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF COLLEGE ANNUAL
A Davenport girl is editor-in-chief of Linden Leaves, the annual published by the girls of Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Miss

Davenport (Ia.) Democrat and Leader, Nov. 14

Gertrude Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Bird of this city, has recently received this high honor and in addition to it is president of the Republican club and secretary of the Athletic association.

Times, Nov. 19

What Women Here Are Doing

Lindenwood College Notes.
Sociology students of Lindenwood College will combine instruction with charity, on the afternoon before Thanksgiving Day, by visiting the old people of the St. Charles County Infirmary. It is their annual custom to bring gifts at this time. Hitherto the expense has been defrayed by a "Follies" entertainment, but this season it has been decided to take a silver offering at the Lindenwood Thanksgiving morning service, which will provide funds for this visit and also for gifts of candy at Christmas time.

Besides taking tobacco in various forms to the old men, and sweets to the old women, the girls will ask each inmate what he or she wishes most for a Christmas gift. Past experiences have shown that money value does not enter into these expressions of wishes. One aged man will undoubtedly ask, as he has done for several years (and received it) the gift of a cap of light material, which he can wear in the house, if he pleases. One aged woman was found who all her life had desired a "red gingham dress," but never attained it. The gift was made last year, and if she wants another, it will be given. One woman wants shoes, another is abundantly satisfied with three or four yards of apron goods. The studying of the desires of these old people is one most interesting to the girls. Miss Florence Schaper, their teacher, will accompany them, and some of the girls will sing and entertain the old people.

Globe-Dem
Nov. 17

Y. W. C. A. WEEK CLOSES AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Young Women's Christian Association Week at Lindenwood College closed last evening with an address on the "Universal Day of Prayer," by the college president, Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer. The week has been generally observed by all College Young Women's Christian Associations throughout the country.

The week's exercises opened last Monday, with the Lindenwood "Y" president, Miss Julia Ayres, presiding. At that time, President Roemer made an address. The students who have taken part in the noon services of the week are Misses Mary Margaret Ransom, Edwardine Hillyer, Pauline Davis, Gertrude

The Y. W. C. A. will give a play, "Green Stockings," on Thanksgiving night, in Roemer Auditorium. Miss Adeline McBurney of St. Louis, is to take the leading role, and others participating will be Misses Carmelita Hofman, Evelyn Ellis, Nellie Lee Brecht, Virginia Hoover, Emma Monier, June Taylor, Oda Wentworth, Katherine Sampson, Mona Carnahan, Virginia Symms, and Julia Ayres. Wallrich, Viola Karrenbrock, and Virginia Sue Campbell. Many new members were added.

Times, Nov. 18 -

St. Louis Lindenwood College Club.

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club met today at the Forest Park Hotel for its regular monthly meeting. The club is conducting a membership campaign under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Scott.

Star,
Nov. 19

College Clubs Organized.

Twelve state clubs, made up of students from different states, have been organized at Lindenwood College. The Missouri club has by far the largest membership, and under its control are the Missouri Razors, who will shout for Missouri at the Missouri-Kansas hockey game on Thanksgiving Day. Officers of the Missouri Club for the year are: Misses Louise Nicholson of St. Louis, president; Marion Kauffman, vice president; Virginia Hoover, secretary-treasurer, and Ellen Boyce, cheer leader. For those states who are represented in numbers too small to form a club there is an Odds and Ends Club. Of this Miss Lillian Hinkle, daughter of the retiring governor of New Mexico, is president.

Globe-Dem
Nov. 18 -

LINDENWOOD ART CLASS ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

The Art Department of Lindenwood College has elected the following student officers: President, Miss Mary Yaeger of Helena, Ark.; vice president, Miss Oda Wentworth of Unionville, Mo.; secretary, Miss Marguerite Hersch, Pagosa Springs, Colo., and treasurer, Miss Lucille Ward, Hermann, Mo. The head of the art department of the college, Miss Alice Linnemann, has been elected sponsor.

The students expect to give a Christmas bazaar in a short time exhibiting their own work.

Versailles (Mo.)
Statesman, Nov. 15.

Miss Margaret Knoop, daughter of J. W. Knoop of Versailles has been elected as sub-chairman on the Y. W. C. A. program committee at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a member of the junior class this year. She is also vice-president of the International Relations Club and a member of the Lindenwood Players, the dramatic club, who were hosts at a Hallow-E'en reception.

Times Socy
Nov. 19

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Archer Cleveland of Huntington, W. Va., have sent cards to St. Louis friends, announcing the advent of a little son, Thomas Archer Jr. Mrs. Cleveland was formerly Miss Margaret Ogle of this city, a graduate of Lindenwood College and art student of Washington University.

Globe-Dem
Nov. 19.

Globe-Democrat
Nov. 21.

ST. CHARLES C. OF C. VISITS LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Members of the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce and the newly organized St. Charles Rotary Club inaugurated a "Know St. Charles" campaign yesterday. They intend to visit various points of interest in St. Charles, and began yesterday by going through Lindenwood College. Forty men, headed by the Chamber of Commerce president, J. C. Willbrand, and the president of the Rotary Club, Guy C. Motley, made a tour of all the recitation rooms in Roemer Hall, and a general inspection of the dormitory halls, concluding in the dining room, where they were apportioned among the students as guests at luncheon.

Four students, Miss Mary Sue Wright of Kansas City, Miss Helen Smith of Springfield, Mo.; Miss Lillian Tweedie of Jefferson City, and Miss Alberta Shell of Topeka, Kan., led in the singing of Lindenwood songs, and aided the Rotarians in choruses of favorite Rotary songs. President and Mrs. John L. Roemer were hosts for the party.

Lindenwood Club Meets.

Miss E. Louise Stone, head of the modern language department of Lindenwood College, told of the recent meeting of the Missouri State Teachers' Association in Kansas City at a meeting of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club at Forest Park Hotel yesterday. Miss Stone spoke at the convention.

Short talks were also given yesterday by Miss Alice Linnemann, who said Lindenwood College clubs are now organized in twenty-three cities. C. A. Blocher of the administrative staff said urgent efforts are being made to secure all addresses, looking to the college centennial in 1927.

Dean Alice E. Gipson also made a short talk. The cause of the Community Fund was presented by Charles E. Minor. Miss Vivian Evans sang.

Globe-Democrat
Sports, Nov. 20.

Lindenwood Athletes Choose Year's Officers

Lindenwood College Athletic Association has elected officers for the season as follows: President, Helen Calder; vice president, Helen Lee Maupin; secretary, Gertrude Bird; treasurer, Sara Shomberg; head of swimming, Jean Johnston; tennis, Priscilla Calder; hockey, Lillian Tweedie; hiking, Annabelle Couper; posture, Eleanor Brown; archery, Oda Wentworth. A match hockey game, Missouri-Kansas teams of Lindenwood students, will be played Thanksgiving Day. A hare-and-hound chase will be held in the near future.

Globe-Dem. Socy.
Nov. 23.

Mrs. John L. Roemer entertained the Thimble Club of St. Louis, of which she is a member, Friday, at a luncheon at Lindenwood College.

Globe Dem
Nov 20

Healing Service Tonight.

A healing service, with the topic "Just How Healing Is Accomplished Through New Thought, Unity and Science Methods," will be held this

Islobe Deue
Nov 24

23

U. S. Is Most Blessed, Yet Most Discontented Says Rev. Dr. Roemer

Comments Upon Bandits as Example of Prevail- ing Spirit.

"As a nation we are a people most greatly blessed of any on this earth, and yet we are the most discontented," said Rev. Dr. John Lincoln Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, in a Thanksgiving sermon yesterday morning at the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, Russell and Spring avenues. Dr. Roemer was for ten years pastor of this church before going to Lindenwood. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Robert C. Williamson, is visiting in Kansas, and Dr. Roemer filled the pulpit yesterday morning and evening.

Reference to the discontent of the American people was made in illustration of the text: "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, freely give I unto you."

"The most common phrase in daily life," said Dr. Roemer, "is, 'If I only had.' 'If I only had the ability somebody else has.' 'If I only had the opportunity someone else has, then I could do something.' What are you doing with that which you have? Peter was a man that didn't have money—I suppose, because he was a preacher, but that didn't worry him. He was confronted with absolute poverty as to material goods, but he gave what he had.

Bandit Dread of Today.

"One of the dreadful things today is the prevalence of the bandit. We never know when we are going to be held up, and every cent taken from us. What is the psychology behind that? The bandits want something that belongs to somebody else. They are not satisfied until they take what belongs to some other person.

"Our condition is not made any better by comparing with some one else. I have a great sympathy for those in the Community Fund, because they are saying that those who could do just a little are not doing that, and people are 'waiting for some one else to give first.' I was looking back in our Synod records of 1864, when some one had made a great missionary appeal, and immediately they were confronted by the same line of talk as we have today. There was need, they thought, of 'a big fellow' who could come forward and 'give first.' Then a Mr. Lawrie got up in that meeting and he said, 'Brethren, the success in foreign missions is depending upon littles.'

Depends Upon Littles.

"I think that is a good slogan to come down to the present age. The salvation of the world depends upon littles. One man lost paradise because he was depending on what somebody else did and did nothing himself, because he had only one talent. He didn't think of the gain he might make on that one talent, but did nothing; then came the condemnation that sent him out from paradise into the oblivion to which he was entitled.

"In performing the miracle for the cripple at the Beautiful Gate, Peter did not ask himself how far his responsibility went, but what was his capability. A man said to me the other day: 'How far am I responsible for my faith? I cannot understand all the doctrines; there are a lot of things I cannot grasp.' That is a hard question, at first thought. But if you will consider, how far can you understand? What is the first fundamental you can grasp? Then you can accept that. Your responsibility lies in doing what you can."

Post-Dispatch Socy
Nov. 24

Miss Adaline McBurney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William McBurney, 3810 Botanical avenue, will be a leading character in the Thanksgiving play, "Green Stockings," which will be presented at Lindenwood College, Thursday night. Miss McBurney is a graduate of the McKinley High School and a freshman at Lindenwood.

Post-Dispatch
Nov. 24

The Women's Chamber of Commerce held their monthly meeting and luncheon on Thursday at 511 Locust street, Mrs. M. Sternberger presided and more than 200 women were present. Mrs. L. M. Ottofy, educational chairman, introduced the following speakers: Chancellor Herbert S. Hadley of Washington University, Rev. August Schmidt of St. Louis University, Dr. J. L. Purdon, president of Harris Teachers' College; Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, and the Rev. Donald MacDonald, president of Lindell Hall School for Girls. Violin solos were given by Eugene Hahne. The next meeting will be Dec. 4.

Times,
Nov. 25

Lindenwood College Course.

Freshmen at Lindenwood College, in the course of clothing and house decorating, have advanced from the making of dress bags to lingerie, in which their instructor, Miss Leta M. Meacham, allows them to use as many of their own ideas as possible in trimming. When completed a garment is put up for criticism by the class, and they are graded with a regular score card. They will advance in a few days to the making of aprons and dresses. Girls in the needlework class are now making lamp shades. They are allowed to select their own materials and designs. Basketry, using paper rope, will be taken up next.

Star,
Nov. 25

LINDENWOOD HOCKEY SQUADS WILL CLASH

A hockey game will be staged at 9 o'clock Thanksgiving morning by students of Lindenwood College. Students from Kansas and Missouri have been selected to play on the opposing teams.

The lineup follows:

| | | |
|-------------|-----------|-------------|
| Missouri | Position. | Kansas |
| Tweedle | CF | Rodda |
| Maupin | RI | Scoggin |
| Birch | LI | Feist |
| Liles | RW | Bird |
| Wentworth | LW | Guthrie |
| J. Johnston | CH | McNary |
| Laney | RH | Hocker |
| Ayers | RF | Lauderbaugh |
| A. Couper | LF | Slavens |
| Hoefflin | GK | Placek |

Extras: Missouri—Ethell, Morris, Liddle.
Kansas—Webb, Brookshire, Arveson.

Post-Dispatch,
Nov. 25.

LINDENWOOD'S ANNUAL HOCKEY GAME THURSDAY

The lineup for the Kansas-Missouri hockey contest at Lindenwood College on Thanksgiving morning at 9 o'clock has been announced. Teams for the two States have been selected from among the best players of the class teams, as follows:

| | | |
|-------------|-----------------|-------------|
| Missouri | Position. | Kansas |
| Tweedle | Center Forward | Rodda |
| Maupin | Right Inside | Scoggin |
| Birch | Left Inside | Feist |
| Liles | Right Wing | Bird |
| Wentworth | Left Wing | Guthrie |
| J. Johnston | Center Halfback | McNary |
| Laney | Right Halfback | Hocker |
| Laney | Left Halfback | Thompson |
| Ayers | Right Fullback | Lauderbaugh |
| A. Couper | Left Fullback | Slavens |
| Hoefflin | Goal Keeper | Placek |

Extras: Missouri—Ethell, Morris, Liddle.
Kansas—Webb, Brookshire, Arveson.

Globe-Dem.,
Nov. 25

Lindenwood Hockey Teams Schedule Game

Missouri and Kansas teams have been selected from the students of Lindenwood College for the Thanksgiving hockey game which will be played at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. The lineup is as follows:

| | | |
|-------------|----------|-------------|
| Missouri | Position | Kansas |
| Tweedle | C. F. | Rodda |
| Maupin | R. I. | Scoggin |
| Birch | L. I. | Feist |
| Liles | R. W. | Bird |
| Wentworth | L. W. | Guthrie |
| J. Johnston | C. H. | McNary |
| Laney | R. H. | Hocker |
| Laney | L. H. | Thompson |
| Ayers | R. F. | Lauderbaugh |
| A. Couper | L. F. | Slavens |
| Hoefflin | G. K. | Placek |

Extras—Missouri—Ethell, Morris, Liddle.
Kansas—Webb, Brookshire, Arveson.

Globe Democrat
November 26, 1924

HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP GAME AT LINDENWOOD

At Lindenwood College there will be a one-day holiday for Thanksgiving. No students will go home, but there will be a full calendar of five principal events at the college. Starting at 9 o'clock, the hockey championship of Kansas or Missouri will be decided by a rival game between picked teams. This could not be played last year because of bad weather, so that it will have an accrued interest of two years.

At 11 o'clock Rev. Norman L. Euwer, assistant pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon in Roemer Auditorium. At 1 o'clock a turkey dinner will be served. This will be followed by the annual tea-dance from 3 to 6 o'clock in Butler Gym.

At 8 o'clock tomorrow evening a Thanksgiving play, "Green Stockings," will be given under Y. W. C. A. auspices. A St. Louis girl, Miss Adeline McBurney of 3810 Botanical avenue, is to take a leading role.

Globe-Dem
Nov. 25

Recital at Lindenwood.

A students' recital, in celebration of the Thanksgiving season, will be given by members of the music department of Lindenwood College this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in Roemer Auditorium, with the following program:

Piano—
Impromptu, C sharp minor . . . Chopin
Anita Rudowsky.
Prelude Balfour-Gardner
Habanera Chabrier
Marguerite Bruere.

Songs—
Yesterday and Today Spross
Mammy's Song Ware
Geraldine Fitzgerald.

Violin—Springtime Rader
Eleanor Stewart.

Piano—
The Lark Balakirew
Polichinelle Rachmaninoff
Elizabeth Kniseley.

Ensemble—
Spinning Chorus Wagner
(From the Flying Dutchman.)
Marie Laney, Carmela Graziadei, Hallie McKee, Frances Fitzgerald.

Globe-Dem

MORNING, NOVEMBER 27, 1924.

*Globe-Dem
Nov. 27*

Misses Janet and Adele Stine of Webster Groves, with their mother, Mrs. W. A. Stine, have gone to Beverly Hills, Los Angeles, for the winter. Miss Janet Stine graduated four years ago at Lindenwood College and Miss Adele Stine two years ago. Both will ally themselves with the Los Angeles Lindenwood Club, which is one of the strongest of these clubs in the country.

Girl Who Will Star in Thanksgiving Play at Lindenwood College

MISS ADELINE MCBURNEY

MISS ADELINE MCBURNEY of St. Louis will be the star of the Lindenwood College Thanksgiving play, entitled "Green Stockings," this evening at Roemer Auditorium at 8 o'clock. Miss McBurney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William McBurney of 3810 Botanical avenue. She is a graduate of McKinley High School, and a freshman at Lindenwood. She will play the role of "Celia Faraday."

Other parts will be taken as follows: Carmelita Hofman, "Phyllis Faraday"; Evelyn Ellis, "Lady Grenhard"; Nellie Lee Brecht, "Mrs.

Rockingham"; Virginia Hoover, "William Faraday"; Emma Monier, "Mrs. Chisholm Faraday"; June Taylor, "Robert Trevor"; Oda Wentworth, "Admiral Grice"; Mona Carnahan, "James Raleigh"; Virginia Symms, "Col. Smith"; Julia Ayers, "Martin." Stage managers will be Misses Ruth Rodda and Frances Trader. The property and costume manager will be Miss Eleanor Brown.

LINDENWOOD GIRLS VISIT ST. CHARLES INFIRMARY

Studies in sociology and charity were made yesterday at the St. Charles County Infirmary by the elementary sociology class of Lindenwood College. These girls, taught by Miss Florence Schaper, follow the practice each year of taking Thanksgiving and Christmas remembrances to the old men and women. Yesterday they tabulated the "wants" of each each inmate. Some desired very simple and inexpensive things, such as a few yards of cloth for an apron, or a new pair of hose.

Sugar and tobacco, which are always in demand, were taken along yesterday, the tobacco to the old men, and the sugar to the aged women. There were also gifts of baskets of fruit, divided among about forty.

*Globe-Dem
Nov 27*

*Herald & Presbyter
Nov. 27.*

ST. LOUIS AND VICINITY.

Rev. N. L. Euwer, assistant pastor of the Second Church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon, Thursday, at Lindenwood College.

The pulpit of the Tyler Place Church was supplied last Sabbath morning and evening by Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., president of Lindenwood College, and former pastor at the Tyler Place Church.

Unionville, Mo. Republican
Nov. 26 -

Thanksgiving Is an Attitude of Mind, Pastor Tells Students

Rev. N. L. Euwer Explains Why Man Should be Thankful.

Rev. Norman L. Euwer, assistant pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, preached the Thanksgiving sermon at Lindenwood College yesterday morning from the text: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High! A brutish man knoweth not, neither doth a fool understand this."

"A brutish man and a fool do not know that it is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord. It does not occur to them to mark the existence of loving kindness. Let no one classify us with the brutish man and the fool."

"The story is told of a young man from the Southwestern mountains who up to the time he left his mountain home to go to college had never heard anyone say, 'Thank you.' The people of his neighborhood accepted kindness and favors as a matter of course, and said nothing about them. Cicero wrote: 'While I wish to be adorned with virtue, yet there is nothing I can esteem more highly than the being and appearing grateful.'

First Thanksgiving.

The speaker mentioned, in contradiction of the idea that this is a Christian nation, "the common holdup, the common murder, the common divorce, the common corruption of the times," yet he said that "the fact remains that the national and state holiday of Thanksgiving finds its source and its life in an experience of God. It implies a personality and a personal relationship." He told of the first American Thanksgiving.

"Among the records of the Puritans, this entry may be found: 'Sonne born to Susanna White, December 19, 1620, at 6 o'clock morning. Next day we met for prayer and thanksgiving.' This is said to have been the first gathering of the Puritans on this side, to give thanks to God. The next year, a gathering was called to give thanks for the bountiful harvest and providential care. So the long series of Thanksgiving Days began. But the first was set apart to give thanks for life—a new life—to thank God for a child."

Referring to students' reasons for thanksgiving, Rev. Euwer said: "There is more interest in education now than there has ever been. Courses have been multiplied. Small colleges have become large ones. Universities with 5000 and 10,000 students are numerous. City high schools are crowded. The development of the sense of appreciation in literature, art, science and music may be regarded as the common purpose of education."

Attitude of Mind.

"Thanksgiving is an attitude of mind. To those who have not the attitude of mind, the day means simply a turkey dinner and a football game. The Christian is commended to believe, to love, to give thanks. This day calls us to exercise the will to be thankful. The giving of thanks for all men! Begin with your father and mother. You might next include the members of the faculty.

"Appreciation of 'all men' will lead you far afield. In our beginners' department in the Sunday school at the Second Presbyterian Church, we teach the children that the heavenly father sends the sunshine and the rain, the flowers of the garden, the animals of the field, and the postman and the milkman and the ice man and the candy man. The comforts of life! The appointments in our homes are luxuries beyond dreaming. The light flashing on at the pressure of a finger! Back of that light are many men of venturesome genius in venturesome toll. An exhortation to thanksgiving for all men is very much in place.

"Give your imagination a little play, as you enjoy the dinner. Think of waving fields of grain, woods and barnyards where the turkeys wander, and farther away sugar plantations and coffee plantations, and the cranberry swamps, strange places where the spices grow, and everywhere men working for you—men in rough and scanty clothes, men of another color, but men giving their best to you. When you in turn make a real contribution in service and product to the world's need, then you enter into the great fellowship of God and man."

Globe Dem
Nov. 28.

—Miss Oda Wentworth of Unionville has received honors at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Recently she has been selected to play the part of "Admiral Grice" in the Thanksgiving night play, "Green Stockings," to be presented by the Y. W. C. A. She has also the position of left-wing on the Missouri Hockey team to play against Kansas on Thanksgiving day. She is the head of Archery in the Athletic Association, Vice-president of the Art Club, and the Chairman of Social Affairs in the Y. W. C. A.

Globe Dem., Nov. 29.

Gossip of the Bookshops

Misses Laura Cross, Eleanor Montgomery and Helen G. Calder, former students of Lindenwood College, have received honorable mention in the new College Anthology edited by Dr. Henry T. Schnittkind and published by the Stratford Company under the title of "Poets of the Future," Washington University. Among those whose poems are published is Joseph C. Lyons of Washington University. The title of his poem is "Worship."

Church Forum

By Julia C. Underwood

With the winter season, evangelistic efforts are starting in the churches. An account from Joplin, Mo., tells of eleven churches uniting in a six weeks' "school of evangelism." There are two Presbyterian, two Christian, two Baptist and five Methodist churches in the temporary merger, with the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. co-operating. All pastors and members are uniting under a visiting evangelist. They first receive a "ten-lesson course" in personal evangelism. The city is divided into north and south divisions, meeting at particular churches on alternate evenings of the week. Organization is one of the strong points. Each church has a "local steering committee," "campaign managers," "district supervisors" and a "local church reporter." These are all aided by a general staff, under the evangelist. Miss Helene Millsap, a graduate of Lindenwood College this year, is the secretary of the Schools of Evangelism, and is assisting in publicity, in which the Joplin newspapers give full co-operation. The campaign is adapted to the needs and capacities of each congregation, and announcement is made that "all iron-clad rules of the School of Evangelism are made of rubber." The method is believed to be an effective one, without great outlay of money. Each of the eleven churches has a series of "goals" fixed, involving numbers at the Sunday services, at midweek services, at the Sunday school and at all the different classes and societies of the church. Goals are also set by each congregation for a definite number of new members in the classes and in the

Globe Dem
Dec. 1

La Belle (Mo.) Star,
Nov. 14.

Globe Dem
Dec. 1.

STUDENT AT LINDENWOOD.

Miss Virginia Wallace.

Although a little late in presenting the picture of one of LaBelle's very popular young ladies, due to an inability to get a photo from which to make a half-tone. The lateness will be no less appreciated by Miss Virginia's many friends.

While she is now a student of that most excellent school, Lindenwood college, St. Charles, this state, she had the honor placed on her shoulders of serving as queen of Lewis county in the dedicatory ceremonies of Missouri's magnificent new capitol building, a position she filled with credit to her county as well as to the gratification of her friends who were responsible for her being selected for the place.

She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Wallace and a graduate of La Belle high school, in which she was one of the school's most studious pupils. She is much pleased with her college work, fully appreciating the opportunity afforded her to become a student of a school of Lindenwood's high standing among the colleges of the land.

STAFF OF LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE ANNUAL CHOSEN

Choice has been made at Lindenwood College of the editors of Linden Leaves, the college annual, which will be published in the spring.

According to custom, the editor in chief and the business manager are seniors.

Miss Gertrude Bird of Davenport, Ia., is editor in chief; Miss Sara Shomberg of Altoona, Pa., is business manager; Miss Cora Wahlenbrock of St. Charles, assistant business manager; Miss Eleanor Brown of Nickerson, Kan., organization editor; Miss Helen Kready of Sikeston, Mo., literary editor; Miss Lydia Dodge of Milan, Mo., joke editor, and Miss Laura Margaret Mellette, athletic editor. An art editor is still to be elected.

Arkansas Gazette Little Rock

NDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1924.

HONORS FOR WOMAN JUDGE

Judge Lois Dale.

Judge Lois Dale of Texarkana, county and probate judge for Miller county, who has added to her distinction as the first woman judge in Arkansas by receiving the first honorary degree ever conferred by Lindenwood College. The degree of L.J.D. was conferred recently on Judge Dale at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Judge Dale is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Dale of Texarkana and was appointed by Governor McRae to succeed the late Judge C. W. Nolan, who died in July. She was graduated from Lindenwood College and studied law at Tulane University, New Orleans. Her favorite outdoor sport is riding and she is shown here with her saddle horse, "Jim." Judge Dale is the guest of Col. and Mrs. H. L. Rimmel for the week-end and while here attended the luncheon at the Peacock Tearoom yesterday for the state board of directors of the Arkansas Federation of Women's Clubs, of which she is district chairman of the legislative committee. She has many friends in Little Rock and is a frequent visitor to this city.

Globe-Dem
Dec 6 -

St. Louis Dai

LITERA

Lindenwood College
Senior Mentioned
for Poem, 'Essences'

HELEN CALDER
*Sid Whiting
Photo*

Miss Helen Calder of St. Charles, a senior at Lindenwood College, is mentioned for her poem, "Essence," in "Poets of the Future," the college anthology by Dr. Henry T. Schnittkind, published by the Stratford Company. The poem follows:

ESSENCES.

Life is a mixture of essences.
If you who teach us
Could only understand
The dullness of our minds, overtired,
As we rush from class to class
Gathering essences—
Essences of good things,
Truth and love and living;
Essences of right things
And measured mental conquests;
Essences of new things,
Tearing down stubborn-born worlds
In a shapeless instant,
If you who teach us
Could only understand
That our dull mistakes
And all our senseless answerings
Are but the unlovely odors
Of ill-mixed essences!

Globe-Dem
Dec. 3

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS TO GIVE RECITAL TOMORROW

Nine students at Lindenwood College will present a recital in Roemer auditorium tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Piano numbers by Miss Anita Rudowsky will be, "Etude," "Were I a Bird" (Henselt), and "Impromptu, C Sharp Minor" (Chopin). Miss Elizabeth Kniseley will play "The Lark" (Balakirew). A song, "Sweet, Sweet Lady" (Spross), will be sung by Miss Mary Sue Guthrie. An ensemble number, "Spinning Chorus" (Wagner), from "The Flying Dutchman," will be rendered by Misses Marie Laney, Carmela Grazdel, Hallie McKee and Frances Fitzgerald.

Concluding piano numbers will be "Rhapsodie No. 10" (Liszt), by Miss Marguerite McCormick, and Chopin's "Etude Op. 25 No. 1" and "Impromptu, A Flat Major," by Miss Virginia Bauer.

Globe-Dem
1st Page, - Dec. 6.

LINDENWOOD STUDENTS VISIT GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

Students of Journalism
Also Dine at Missouri
Athletic Association.

President and Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer of Lindenwood College entertained the Journalism Department of the college, last night, at a dinner at the Missouri Athletic Association. Members of the class afterward visited all departments of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT.

The students of journalism publish the monthly Lindenwood College Bulletin, and most of the members of the staff of Linden Leaves, the college annual, are affiliated with the journalism department. A college weekly, Linden Bark, has been started at Lindenwood within the last year. Those making up the party last night are all writers for Linden Bark.

The guests consisted of Dean Alice E. Gipson, Misses Lydia Dodge, Laura Margaret Mellette, Sara Shomberg, and Virginia W. Symms, managing editors; and the following associates on the staff, Misses Julia Ayers, Betty Birch, Gertrude Bird, Eleanor Brown, Helen Calder, Mary Olive Crawley, Maxine Curreathers, Pauline Davis, Helen McPherson, Audrey Nixon, June Taylor, Carroll Timmonds, Helen Trusty, and Miriam Wright.

Sedalia (Mo.) Democrat,
Dec. 6.

SEDALIA GIRL HELPED
"PUT OVER" COLLEGE PLAY

Miss Frances Trader, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Trader of 1717 West Third street, was an assistant property manager for the Y. W. C. A. play "Green Stockings," which was presented Thanksgiving night at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where Miss Trader is a member of the freshman class this year.

Globe-Dem. Socy.,
Dec. 7

Miss Isabella McMenamy of St. Charles, who graduated at Lindenwood College last May, is doing graduate work at Missouri University toward a master's degree. She was initiated into the Theta Phi Alpha sorority during home-coming week at the university, November 29.

A committee of hostesses from the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club assisted the Eighth District of Missouri Federated Clubs Friday afternoon and evening at the Coronado Hotel in presiding at the art exhibition of the Shortridge Galleries. Among those taking part were: Mrs. Joseph W. White, president of the Lindenwood Club; Mrs. W. C. Hamill, Mrs. L. Bernero and Misses Agnes Adams, Laura Ellwanger, Alice Linnemann and Anna Bond.

Post-Dispatch Socy
Dec. 7.

A art bazaar for the benefit of the Sibley Memorial scholarship will be given at Lindenwood College, Friday afternoon, Dec. 12, by students of the art department, who will show their own work, in the art studio of Roemer Hall.

Globe-Dem.,
Dec. 12

St. Louisian in Address.
Frank A. Hobein of St. Louis gave an address yesterday at Lindenwood College before the advanced class in American literature.

crat.

Globe-Dem
Dec. 9

PAGES 15-28

50 TO PARTICIPATE IN SPELLING MATCH

A spelling match, with more than fifty registrants, will be held at Lindenwood College tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock.

Star, Dec. 10.

Meeting of Lindenwood College Club.

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its regular meeting at the Forest Park Hotel Tuesday, December 16, at 2:30 p. m. An interesting program has been arranged under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Harper. At this meeting plans will be perfected for a large card party to take place in January.

Times, Dec. 10.

Lindenwood College Club.

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its regular meeting at the Forest Park Hotel, Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 2:30 p. m. A program has been arranged under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Harper. At this meeting plans will be perfected for a large card party to take place in January.

Times,
Dec. 10

Musical Given at Lindenwood

A students' recital was given at Lindenwood College in Roemer Auditorium, yesterday afternoon with the following program:

| | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------|
| Piano—Mazurka, No. 1 | Borowski |
| Lillian Nachlas | |
| Prelude—G Minor | Schutt |
| Elise Rumph | |
| Sonata, Op. 31, No. 3, Allegro | Beethoven |
| Norma Erdwurm | |
| Sonata, Op. 2, No. 1, Presto | Beethoven |
| Dorothy Rumph | |
| Songs—Call of the Lark | Speaks |
| Luzetta Wehling | |
| Daisies | Hawley |
| Where Blossoms Grow | San Souci |
| Margaret Wiles | |
| Piano—Sonata, Op. 31, No. 1, Allegro | Beethoven |
| Marjorie Groves | |
| Prelude—G Minor | Rachmaninow |
| Elizabeth Burke | |

Globe-Dem
Dec. 10

LINDENWOOD TO HOLD ANNUAL BAZAAR FRIDAY

Many friends from St. Louis will go to Lindenwood College Friday afternoon for the annual Christmas bazaar, which will be given from 2 to 6 o'clock by students of the art department under Miss Alice Linnemann. The proceeds will be devoted to the Sibley scholarship fund. All of the articles exhibited, including scarfs, household utensils and china, will be from work done by the department. There will be examples of polychrome, tied and red, and batik.

The bazaar will be followed in the evening by a play by the Lindenwood Players.

Globe-Dem
Dec. 11

Rev. Dr. G. W. King to Speak.

Rev. Dr. George Wales King, pastor of Markham Memorial Presbyterian Church, will give an address this morning at 11 o'clock at Lindenwood College.

Globe-Dem.
Dec. 12

Students Give for Children.

Cash gifts for the children's Christmas at Markham Memorial Church, 1614 Menard street, were made to Rev. Dr. George Wales King, yesterday morning, by different student organizations of Lindenwood College, following a chapel address made at Lindenwood by Dr. King, in which he told of the work which Markham Church carries on among the poor.

Globe-Dem
Dec 12

LINDENWOOD SPELLING MATCH WON BY JUNIOR

Miss Bertha Hall of Texas Gets Honors in Keen Contest.

A much talked-of spelling match in Butler Gymnasium, at Lindenwood College, Wednesday night, was won by Miss Bertha Hall of Corpus Christi, Tex. She is a junior at Lindenwood, and a student in the commercial department. Only the participants in the match, faculty members and their invited guests, were allowed to attend, among whom were Dr. and Mrs. John L. Roemer, Dean Gipson, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, C. A. Blocher, housemothers, and others.

A cash prize of $10 was awarded to Miss Hall. Miss Katherine McDavid of Hillsboro, Ill., was the first to go down on a word. Others who lost on their first chance were Misses Margaret Wilson, Elinor Couper and Judith Van Dyne, all of whom spelled the word "Calvary."

Misses Margaret Edwards, Margaret Enloe, Ruth Rodda and Sara Shomberg immediately placed themselves in the same rank by misspelling the word "Filipino," most of them spelling it "Phillipino." Many amusing mistakes were made, Miss Sue Wright misspelling "libel," Misses Helen Lewis and Dorothy Rumph going down on "Britannica," Miss Marie Laney on "picnicking," and Miss Maude Arveson on "sacriligious."

Then for several rounds only six were left on the floor, Misses Virginia Brown, Elizabeth Barton, Alberta Shell, Anna Podrasky, Bertha Hall and Pauline Davis. Miss Brown misspelled "cursory" and Misses Davis and Barton made mistakes in spelling "aught." Only three were left, and after Miss Shell missed the word "discouragement," only Misses Podrasky and Hall were left to vie for the honors. After several rounds, Miss Podrasky misspelled "falsity" by making it "faulsity," and the prize was awarded to Miss Hall, who spelled the word correctly.

The last six stood up long enough to show themselves exceptionally good spellers. Miss Podrasky, who was second best, lives in Lake Charles, La.

Members of the faculty who presided were: Misses Lillian Allyn of the commercial department, and Misses Amy Williams and Floy Winks of the English department.

Globe-Democrat
Dec. 5

Wins Christmas Story Prize.

Miss Helen A. Moffet of Loda, Ill., a freshman at Lindenwood College, was awarded the annual prize yesterday morning for writing the best Christmas story. This prize is given each year by the president, Dr. John L. Roemer, at the beginning of the Christmas season. The title of Miss Moffet's story is "The Spirit of Christmas."

Times, Dec. 12.

What Women Here Are Doing

Lindenwood Senior Entertainment.
The senior class of Lindenwood College, which will enter next month on its last semester, is composed this year of 22 girls, with Miss Maude Arveson of Wisconsin, president. The girls come from nine different States, ranging from Wisconsin and South Dakota to West Virginia and Pennsylvania. They were recently entertained by the students of the class living in St. Charles, at the home of one of the seniors, Miss Helen Calder. Miss Calder has the distinction of having been mentioned among "Poets of the Future," in the current College Anthology published by the Stratford Company, from names selected by Dr. Henry T. Schittkind. Her poem was entitled, "Esseges."

*Kokomo, Ind.,
Dec. 10*

THE KOKOMO DAILY TRIBUNE

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Marguerite McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McCormick of this city, played recently in a recital at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo. Miss McCormick is a junior in music there this year, and is one of the most promising students in the music department, which is one of the strongest features of the college.

Globe-Democrat.

December 13, 1924.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE GIRLS GIVE PLAY

Miss Isabel Poole of Milan, Mo., took the leading role of Isabel in Booth Tarkington's play, "The Intimate Strangers," presented last evening by the Lindenwood Players at Lindenwood College.

The part of the station master was taken by Miss Margaret Knopp, Ames by Miss Ida Hoeftin, Florence by Miss Sylvia Rubins. Miss Helen Calder played Johnny White, Miss Mary Louise Blocher was Aunt Ellen, Miss Mary Frances Wertz, Mattie, and Miss Frances Baggett was Henry.

*Globe-Dem. Socy.
Dec. 14.*

A pre-Christmas dinner for about fifty members of the Lindenwood College faculty will be given by President and Mrs. John L. Roemer Tuesday evening, in Roemer Hall. It is to be prepared and served by the home economics department of the college.

*Globe-Democrat music
Dec 14.*

Christmas at Lindenwood.

A Christmas concert will be given at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at Lindenwood College in Roemer Auditorium by the Choral Club and orchestra of the college. John Thomas is director of the Choral Club, and Miss Agnes Gray is director of the orchestra. The accompanists are Misses Helen Harrison and Elizabeth Goode. The program:

- (a) Flower of Dreams.....Clokey
- (b) The Angel.....Rachmaninoff
- (c) Fly, Singing Bird.....Elgar

- Piano Solo—
Rhapsodie, C Major.....Dohnanyi
Miss Alberta Shell.
(a) March.....Zamecnik
(b) Valse Moderne.....Spier-Conrad
(c) Tone Poem.....Davis
Orchestra.

Times, Dec. 13

Lindenwood College to Give Concert Wednesday

The Choral Club of Lindenwood College will give a Christmas concert Wednesday evening under the direction of John Thomas. Assisting on the program will be the Lindenwood College orchestra.

The program is:

- (a) Flower of Dreams.....Clokey
- (b) The Angel.....Rachmaninoff
- (c) Fly, Singing Bird.....Elgar

Piano Solo—Rhapsodie, C Major—Dohnanyi

- Miss Alberta Shell.
- (a) March.....Zamecnik
- (b) Valse Moderne.....Spier-Conrad
- (c) Tone Poem.....Davis

*Post Dispatch Clubs
Dec 14*
er evening newspaper COMBINED

The Lindenwood College Club will hold its regular meeting at the Forest Park Hotel Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. A program has been arranged under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Harper. Plans will be made for a card party in January

*Globe-Democrat,
Dec. 15.*

LINDENWOOD HOLIDAY VACATION EXTENDED

Period Will Begin Thursday and Continue Until January 6.

Christmas vacation begins at Lindenwood College Thursday morning, having been extended two days longer than announced on the catalogue. President John L. Roemer gave to the students an opportunity to vote on the proposition of working two Saturdays in January, and thus have a longer vacation, and it was unanimously decided that Saturday, January 10 and 17, will be recitation days, in order to bring this about. The vacation will end, and studies will be resumed at noon Tuesday, January 6.

The season opened at the college with a Christmas pageant presented by the choir last evening at 8:30 o'clock in Roemer Auditorium. Miss Mary Louise Blocher read "Why the Chimes Rang," by Alden. Choruses from the cantata, "Bethlehem," by Paul Ells, were sung, as follows: Silent Night, O Little Town of Bethlehem, Hark, the Glad Sound, While Shepherds Watched, Angels from the Realms of Glory, O Holy Night and O Come All Ye Faithful.

President and Mrs. Roemer will entertain the faculty at a dinner tomorrow evening in the home economics department. Wednesday evening there will be a Christmas concert by the Choral Club and the College Orchestra at 7 o'clock, after which, at about 9 o'clock, the entire body of students and faculty will go out on the campus to the growing Christmas tree which is used year after year for this purpose. This tree will be illumined all this week. It is a large evergreen which has stood for many years in front of the Gables. There will be a Santa Claus, and gifts will be distributed to all the help of the college.

*Post-Dispatch Socy.,
Dec. 14.*

President and Mrs. John L. Roemer will entertain the members of the Lindenwood College faculty, Tuesday evening, at a 6 o'clock dinner in the home economics department of Roemer Hall. This will be a Christmas affair, signaling the last week of school before vacation. The annual campus festivities, before a Christmas tree growing on the campus, will be held Wednesday evening.

*Limes Socy.,
Dec. 15.*

Misses Oda Wentworth, Jean Johnston, Adelaide Evans and Gertrude Bird, of Lindenwood College, were guests at a week-end party, beginning Friday, of Miss Virginia Lyles, at her home in Dexter, Mo. Among the entertainments arranged for them was a dinner dance at the Jeffersonian Hotel in Dexter, given by Charles Lyles Jr.; a bridge luncheon given by Miss Helen Lyles, a former Lindenwood girl, and a dance at the Country Club. Another Lindenwood week-end party was given last week by Miss Ruth Pixley at her home in Ferguson, when Misses Sara Shomberg, Helen Kready, Betty Branlest and Margaret Ross were guests. Saturday evening the girls were guests at a dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pixley.

*Barthlesville (Okla.)
Enterprise, Nov 26*

MISS ELLIS IN PLAY

Miss Evelyn Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ellis of this city has been chosen as one of the cast in the play "Green Stockings" which will be presented on Thanksgiving night at Lindenwood college, where she is a freshman. The play is being presented by the Y. W. C. A.

*Moberly (Mo.) Monitor-Jude,
Dec. 16*

WINNING HONORS AT COLLEGE

Miss Helen Towles is President of French Club at Lindenwood

Miss Helen Towles of Moberly has received honors at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is attending school. She has recently been elected president of the French Club and is also a member of the Missouri Club, International Relations Club, a member of the Alpha Sigma Tau, the local literary honorary society, a Y. W. C. A. worker and a member of the Athletic Association.

Food Ne

Globe-Democrat,
Dec. 19.

Perfectly Balanced Dinner Prepared by Lindenwood Girls

Calorie Values of Courses and Their Distribu- tion Given Especial Attention—Recipes for Several Dishes on Menu Announced.

A typical holiday dinner was given at Lindenwood College this week, so Miss Sara Shomberg of the senior class has written a story about it for the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT'S Food Page. The calorie problem is attacked and explained—as far as this particular dinner is concerned. At the close will be found some of the recipes, in proportions used for 100, which may be found of value at this season, when many large dinners are being given by various organizations, church societies or other groups of women. The story of the dinner follows:

At a dinner given Tuesday evening at Lindenwood College by President and Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer and served by the home economics department of the college, to 100 guests, the whole problem of "food adjustment" was solved.

This department was fully aware that the American public is accused of overeating, and when people get down to rock foundation and measure every mouthful of every portion eaten during a single day, in terms of vitamins and calories, it is nothing short of miraculous that they survive at all! When it is considered that the average growing boy eats as many calories as a laboring man, which amount runs into the thousands, the query arises as to the consistency of these dreadful sounding things. Yes, the time has come when it is not what one eats nor how one feels about eating it, but what is the exact consistency of that which is eaten.

2500 Needed Daily.

The "Home Ec" girls are informed that the general average number of calories for an adult woman is 2500 daily. How is this average to be distributed? If she rises at a reasonable time and eats but a dainty piece of toast and sips languidly at her cup of coffee—which has absolutely no food value, except for the sugar and cream therein—she has so few calories to begin the day that the marvel is how she may exist until the next meal. Suppose her luncheon is a light one, consisting of rarebit, rolls and butter, and perhaps a cup of chocolate or a glass of milk. While the liquid is highly nourishing, yet she has not received a scant third of her necessary allotment for the day.

But the problem was solved by the girls who study cooking under Miss Elizabeth Stewart. To the 100 guests (about half of them members of the faculty), not only was a delicious meal served, but a most appetizing and satisfying one.

The first course, with plenty of cracked ice around it, was called cherry nectar. "Let us consider the nutritious value of its ingredients," said Miss Stewart to her class beforehand, while they were preparing the viands. "Suppose it were set before one in a punch cup about two-thirds full of the liquid. There would then be about fifty calories of pineapple juice, fifty calories of orange juice, twenty-five calories of cherry juice and about ten calories of lemon, for it is so very strong. Then to sweeten just a little amount, enough for but one person, would be required about seventy-five calories of sugar, thus making 210 calories for that one course for one person."

Roast Chicken.

Next came roast chicken, with at least 600 calories for each person, then a deliciously browned dressing, with a slight flavoring of onion, and seasoned nicely with butter, salt and pepper. But dressing is so "filling," room must be saved for the other good things to follow, so the guest was apportioned only about thirty-two calories of this. The cranberries could not be overlooked; besides their valuable mineral matter, each share consisted of about fifty calories. Glazed sweet potatoes, cooked in a favorite way, with all brown sugar and heaps of butter, run high in calories—say about 287. Asparagus, one of the very best health foods, dressed in butter, provided an additional 100 calories. Hot buttered rolls, 200 calories; olives, 50 calories for every two eaten, and celery, chiefly mineral, but containing some 15 calories to the amount most people eat, brought the quota for the first two courses up to 1544 calories.

"Christmas Frost!" Didn't that simply make the mouth water? A frozen fruit salad, containing 200 calories of bananas, 20 calories of marshmallows, 25 calories of almonds, 100 calories of white grapes, 200 calories of white cooked dressing, made smooth and creamy, all this was served with 25 calories of salad dressing, and thus 2114 calories were eaten before the dessert arrived.

This was a most attractive-looking dessert of "Holly Pudding," served in tall glasses. Here there were dates, 100 calories; nuts, 36 calories; bread crumbs, 200, and sugar and eggs, with a total of 425 calories in this course.

Mints Have Place.

The cafe noir, which completed the meal, had no food value whatever, but the red and white mints contained 100 calories each, while the poinsettia nut-cups, from which the guests nibbled during the course of the meal, contained 100 calories, besides much valuable mineral matter.

If such a well-balanced meal as this were set before Milady, even though she might not have eaten much all day, she would make up for it now, as the menu described is not only satisfying to the appetite and pleasing to the eye, but perfect in quantities and qualities of those things she needs most for her physical well-being. The fact also is to be considered that there had been a musical program to start the meal, and effective toasts on "The Fireplace," "The Yule Log," "Holly Berries" and "Mistletoe."

The teachers superintending the dinner were Miss Leta Meacham, decorations and arrangement; Miss Elizabeth Stewart, cooking, and Miss Cora Edwards, music. The menu was as follows:

Cherry nectar. Roast chicken.
Dressing. Cranberry sauce.
Glazed sweet potatoes.
Asparagus. Celery. Olives.
Rolls.
Christmas frost. Wafers.
Holly pudding.
Cafe noir.

Mints. Nuts.

As to roasting a fowl and preparing cranberries, any one who reads the papers cannot escape instruction at Christmas time, but there were some courses in the Lindenwood dinner rather out of the ordinary, for which Miss Stewart has set down the following recipes; in proportions used for the party of 100.

Cherry Nectar.

Two dozen oranges, 2 dozen lemons, 1 gallon pineapple juice, 1 gallon cherry juice, 6 cups of sugar made into sirup. Combine all these; add enough water to make 3 gallons.

Glazed Sweet Potatoes.

Fifty pounds sweet potatoes, 1 quart brown sugar, 2 quarts water, 1 pound butter. Boil potatoes until tender, then put in shallow pans and pour over them a sirup made of the sugar water and melted butter. Brown in a hot oven.

Christmas Frost.

Fifteen pounds bananas, 10 pounds white grapes, 5 pounds almonds, all of these cubed; 10 No. 2 cans sliced pineapple, cubed; 800 marshmallows, quartered. Combine this with a mayonnaise mixed with equal parts of whipped cream and frozen. Serve with a little of the same mixture poured over, and a cherry on top.

Holly Pudding.

Five cups chopped dates, 2½ cups nuts, 5 cups bread crumbs, 15 eggs, 30 tablespoons milk, 5 teaspoons baking powder, nuts and dates; stir in milk and beaten yolks; fold in whites of eggs. Pour in molds, bake in oven 375 degrees Fahrenheit. Serve with whipped cream.

Helena (Ark.) World,
Dec. 17

Miss Mary Yaeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yaeger, of 729 College street, has been elected president of the Art Department at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a member of the sophomore class this year. Miss Yaeger is exceptionally talented, and has done some very original work in the art classes. Several of her designs were used for organization heads in the college annual, Linden Leaves, in its last issue. Miss Yaeger's popularity was shown by the fact that she was elected to be one of the freshman attendants to the May Queen of Lindenwood, last spring.

Herald & Presbyterian
Cincinnati, Dec. 17

Dr. George Wales King presented the cause of Markham Memorial Church, and its work among the poor, in an address before the students of Lindenwood College last Thursday morning. Several student organizations in turn presented to him offerings to aid in bringing Christmas cheer.

Globe Demo
Dec. 18

"Iowa Club" Organized.
An Iowa Club has been organized at Lindenwood College, with twelve members and the following officers: President, Miss Ellen Day; vice president, Miss Rella Gammon; secretary-treasurer, Miss Fayette Wright.

Globe Democrat Socy
Dec 21

The annual bazaar given at Lindenwood took place Friday under the direction of Miss Alice Linne-mann.

Globe Demo Socy,
Dec. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McKee, who were married Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Union Avenue Christian Church have gone to Detroit on a honeymoon trip, but will make St. Louis their home. The bride was formerly Miss Mildred Carson of Greenville, Ill., and was a sophomore at Lindenwood College. She is a daughter of Will C. Carson, editor of the Greenville Advocate. Her father and aunt, together with the mother of the bridegroom, all of Greenville, accompanied the wedding party to St. Louis, and were present at the ceremony.

Macon (Mo.) Chronicle-Herald
Dec. 16

Miss Mary Sue Guthrie is Prominent in Music Circles at Lindenwood College

Prominent in music circles at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., is Miss Mary Sue Guthrie, of Macon, who is a Sophomore at Lindenwood this winter. In a recent Student Recital Miss Guthrie sang "Sweet, Sweet Lady" by Gilbert in a most charming manner, and was a credit to her home town, her parents, and her voice instructor, Miss Cora Edwards. Miss Guthrie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Guthrie and distinguished herself last year by winning the prize for making the most progress in voice during the winter of any girl in school. Mr. Guthrie has recently returned from a visit to Lindenwood.

This year Miss Guthrie sings in the choir, is Librarian of the Choral Clubs and takes an active part in musical activities of her college.

Arma (Kan) Record, Dec 18

WINS COLLEGE HONORS

Miss Ruth Rodda, of Arma, was selected as a stage manager in the recent Thanksgiving play presented by the Y. W. C. A. of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. Miss Rodda has also received other honors at Lindenwood this year. She was captain and center-forward of the victorious Kansas Hockey team in the annual Turkey day clash with the ancient Missouri rivals. She is also a member of the Kansas Club, the French Club and the Athletic Association.

Mitchell, S. Dak. Republic
Dec. 19.

Miss Bauer Wins Musical Honors at Lindenwood School

Miss Virginia Bauer of Mitchell, who is attending Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., has received honors in the music department. Miss Bauer is a senior at Lindenwood and is a pupil of Miss Ariel Gross. In the recent student recital she played two selections from Chopin, namely "Etude, Op. 25, No. 1" and "Impromptu, A flat major" which were received with much applause. She is also a member of the Odds and Ends Club and a member of the music honorary society, Alpha Mu Mu. She belongs to the Athletic Association and is a monitor for music students.

Globe Dem.
Dec. 22

LINDENWOOD 'Y' HOLDS SERVICE FOR CHARITY

White Gift Fund Raised at Impressive Event for Christmas.

The largest Christmas contribution ever made for local charities by Lindenwood College students was presented at a white gift service of the Y. W. C. A., closing the year, last week. About $85 was presented in gifts, in white envelopes. This will be applied to the comfort of inmates in the Charles County Infirmary, and to other charities in St. Charles.

The service was such an impressive one that at its close President John Lincoln Roemer requested the students to continue the practice annually. Every girl in school wore white, and the student body filled the lower floor of Roemer Auditorium, the teachers occupying the balcony. Only candle lighting was used, the candles being set in rows down the sides of the hall, and also placed so as to illuminate a large white cross at the back of the stage. Smilax was draped over white around the balconies, and on the steps leading to the stage.

A trio in the wings of the stage, consisting of Misses Carmela Graziadei, Marie Laney and Katherine McKechnie, sang Christmas carols, and in the intervals between the singing Miss Harriet Diven, teacher in the expression department, read the verses of "Holy Night." Miss Gertrude Wallrich was accompanist.

A pageant, "Gifts to the Christ," was presented, with twenty-five girls in costume, in connection with which every girl in school advanced to the front with her white envelope containing her gift, large or small, and placed this in a basket on the stage steps. Miss Mary Sue Guthrie then sang, "Take My Life and Let It Be, Consecrated Lord to Thee." Miss Marguerite McCormick played an accompaniment. President Roemer gave an address, telling of the history of some of the carols sung.

President and Mrs. Roemer left Saturday for a vacation in Chicago.

Globe Democrat
Dec. 25

EDITORIALS, WOMEN'S

LINDENWOOD'S FAT PUPILS GET PRIZES

College Makes Awards to Students Gaining Most Weight.

Much amusement is being afforded at Lindenwood College by the announcement of prizes just made for those "gaining most weight" in the current semester. Two first prizes of $5 each have been awarded, one to a teacher, Miss Paula Postel, of Albuquerque, N. M., who has taken on 8 pounds, and the other to a student, Miss Marjorie Braham of Nevada, Mo., who has gained 29 pounds since last September, increasing her weight by 27.6 per cent.

The prizes were instituted by President J. L. Roemer as an incentive to proper food and exercise among the students, and, incidentally, as a means of getting everyone up in the mornings in time for breakfast. The faculty prize is the gift of John Thomas, head of the college music department. It happens that Miss Postel is in the music department, teaching organ and theory of music.

Four other students, gaining secondary prizes of $1 each, having gained from 20 to 27 pounds. They follow: Misses Louise E. Richter of Trinidad, Colo., Elizabeth Prince of Grand Island, Neb., Alleen Moran of Stuttgart, Ark., and Elizabeth Morris of Oswego Kan.

Globe Democrat, Socy.
Dec. 25

Over a dozen Lindenwood College girls, whose homes are in the city, are back for the Christmas holidays. They will remain until January 6. Among them are Misses Alice and Norma Elbring of Clayton, Barbara Ann Fite, Miriam E. Gayer, Adeline McBurney, Lucille Meck, Roslyn Cohen, Erma Meier, Eunice E. Meyer, Wilma Niederluecke, Esther Schumacher, Gertrude Webb, Margaret Wilson and Evelyn Shirley.

Chicago Herald and Examiner
Dec. 27.

Herald & Presbyterian
Dec 24

Lindenwood Alumni to Fete President

President and Mrs. John Lincoln Roemer, of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., are spending the holidays here and will remain until after New Year's at the Blackstone. The Chicago Lindenwood College Club, comprising local alumnae and former students of this institution, is looking forward to participation in Lindenwood's hundredth anniversary celebration in 1927. Mrs. George B. Lown, of 2919 Pine Grove av., is president of the club, and Mrs. Eskridge Reed Gentry, of 123 E. Forty-sixth st., is secretary.

Rev. John L. Roemer, D.D., president of Lindenwood College, and Mrs. Roemer, are spending the two weeks' Christmas vacation in Chicago.

Globe Dem
Dec 29

PRIZE CHRISTMAS STORY IN LINDENWOOD BULLETIN

The January number of the Lindenwood College Bulletin, an alumnae magazine, just issued, contains as its opening number a story, "The Spirit of Christmas," by Miss Helen A. Moffett of Loda, Ill. This won a $5 prize offered by President John L. Roemer in a contest open to the whole school.

It is a story of an aged mother, lonely on Christmas Eve, who finds her whole outlook changed by a visit from her sons and daughters. Miss Moffett is a freshman at Lindenwood.

Paxton, Ill. Record
Dec. 29

WILL PUBLISH STORY

Miss Helen Moffett of Loda, comes home with a $5 gold piece which was her award for a story contest in which she won first place at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she is a freshman. The story is entitled "The Spirit of Christmas" and is appearing in full in the January issue of the Lindenwood College Bulletin, an alumnae 12-page magazine with a circulation of 5,000 former students and alumnae. The prize was awarded by President John Lincoln Roemer, and is an annual contest, open to the entire school. It is a story of a New England mother, left lonely at Christmas eve, who is surprised by a visit from all her children and grandchildren, and finds arrangements made so that she will not be lonely thereafter.

Globe Dem
Dec 31

Fraternity Honors Teacher.

Election to life membership in Pi Gamme Mu, a national honorary social society, has been announced by Southwestern College, Winfield, Kan., for Miss Elizabeth Stewart, who is a teacher of the food and housekeeping classes of the home economics department of Lindenwood College. Miss Stewart is an alumna of Southwestern College and has since gained a master's degree at Columbia University, New York City.

Lake Charles, La.,
State Press, Dec. 28

Miss Podrasky Wins Prize.

Miss Podrasky of Lake Charles ranks high in spelling at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., where she is now a senior. She took second rank, Miss Bertha Hall of Corpus Christi, Texas, gaining the first prize in a recent spelling match at Lindenwood, which was open to the entire college of 500 girls. A spelling match is an annual event just before the holidays at this college, with a prize of $10. The word on which Miss Podrasky went down was "falsity," which she spelled "faulsity." Miss Podrasky gained distinction at commencement last year, winning one of the six junior class scholarships.

Ark. Smith, Ark.
Times-Record, Dec 30

Brilliant Hockey Score

Miss Larita Scoggin, of Lindenwood College St. Charles, Mo., is spending the holidays at the home of her parents in Fort Smith. Miss Scoggin played a successful hockey game for the annual Thanksgiving day event at the college. She played "right inside" in a Kansas-Missouri contest in which Kansas scored 3 to 1. Miss Scoggin is a member of the Arkansas club at Lindenwood.