The Blue Dragons play GameFace in a baseball game at CarShield Park in O'Fallon. The Blue Dragons and GameFace are teams in the St Louis Baseball Forever League, and play in the 60 and over Division. The league has four age divisions (43 and over, 53 and over, 60 and over, and 65 and over). The league web page is: St. Louis Baseball Forever League \(stlbf.com\)).

CarShield Park (formerly T.R. Hughes Ballpark) was home to the River City Rascals, who played in the Frontier League until the team folded in 2019. Beginning in 2020, the O'Fallon Hoots started played in the stadium in the Prospect League. The stadium has a 3,500 seating capacity, with room for an additional 1,600 people in the outfield and lawn areas.
