OF LINDENWOOD

ANNUAL GIVING

Lindenwood University has been strengthened by nearly two decades of rapid growth, becoming one of the Midwest's larger independent universities. We have become a voice of innovation and optimism, debate and dialogue. Lindenwood gives students an unmatched opportunity to pursue their dreams.

Lindenwood is grateful for your participation in making those dreams a reality. The generosity of our friends and alumni during this past year has provided the support necessary to advance our mission of offering values-centered programs leading to the development of the whole person – an educated, responsible citizen of the global community.

This Friends Report lists all gifts received between July 1, 2012, and June 30, 2013.

BUTLER SOCIETY

The Butler Society recognizes those who have made lifetime gifts of $25,000 or more to Lindenwood University. Members are recognized annually at a dinner hosted by the president of the university, during which new members are inducted. The society is named after James G. and Margaret Leggat Butler, Lindenwood's most generous supporters during the 1900s.

This distinguished group of loyal friends has followed in the Butlers' footsteps. Through their generosity, they help advance the mission and promote the rich heritage of Lindenwood University.

LU FOR LIFE...

10TH ANNIVERSARY BRINGS GROUP BACK TO CAMPUS

“ These students, recruited to be football players, teachers and leaders, ultimately became brothers and sisters. ”

Janie Redd, '03

The class of 2003 is a tight-knit group. Each year they have a mini-reunion somewhere in the country. They get together for weddings and vacations. This summer for their 10th anniversary, many of them returned to Lindenwood University with their families.

The majority of the visiting alums were football players, recruited from Arkansas, Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas. Others were majors in education, business and Spanish. Together, they became a community of students through participation in an International Studies club. They were delightfully surprised by the growth of the campus – the expansion of Harmon Hall, the construction of Evans Commons, and – impressive to the football players – the new Student-Athlete Center.

“The education and experience at Lindenwood prepared me for my future. I want to give back to something I love.”

Scott Shelmire '04

LU FOR LIFE...

FOR THREE GENERATIONS

“When I see young people around the area that have on Lindenwood shirts or hats, I ask them about their experience. They are all enthusiastic about LU, and there’s no better endorsement.”

Art Goodall

Arthur Goodall has a lifelong connection to the school: his mother, Euneva Lynn, received a music degree in 1928, and daughter Jacquelyn earned her degree in theatre in 1983. Cumulatively the Goodall family has been involved in Lindenwood for more than eight decades. Art and Carol Goodall continue to give to Lindenwood University because of the University’s commitment to a student-centered academic experience.

Arthur is a retired colonel in the U.S. Army where he served for 28 years. Recently he and his wife, Carol, established two endowed scholarships for military students. One is for a student beginning a military career through the ROTC; the other assists a veterans seeking to earn a college degree.

In 2012, Art was awarded the Sibley Medallion of Honor.

LU FOR LIFE... FROM AUSTRALIA

“The only reason I could afford to attend a university was thanks to the generosity of Lindenwood and its donors. I am happy to be able to give back now.”

Ryan Griffin, '11, MBA '12

Ryan Griffin didn't choose Lindenwood University for one reason – he chose it for four.

For Australian student-athlete Ryan, it was the best combination of baseball, academics, campus, and scholarship – all in one place. As a student he played baseball, participated in a yearlong digital media internship, and joined the Delta Mu Delta and Alpha Chi academic honor societies.

After graduating with his BA and then his MBA, Ryan found he had a lot of job opportunities and was offered a mid-level position three days into his job search. “There wasn't a doubt in my mind what I wanted to do,” he said. He wrote a check to Lindenwood – for the full amount of his first paycheck.

Ryan encourages young graduates to make a gift to Lindenwood University.

“Lindenwood gives me the great opportunity to study and play competitive chess, as I work to earn a master’s degree in international studies.”

PLANNED GIVING

Our staff can work with you and your financial and legal advisors to plan a gift that will leave a lasting legacy at Lindenwood. Some of the more popular planned gifts are discussed below.

Bequests

A will or trust is the easiest and most effective means to ensure that you provide for your family and that your assets will be distributed as you wish. A bequest will benefit Lindenwood upon your death, while allowing you to have use of your property during your life.

Appreciated Real Property

Donations of appreciated property can provide both a generous contribution to Lindenwood and financial benefits for you.

Gifts of Securities

Transfers of stock and other appreciated securities to Lindenwood can give you a substantial tax savings. Donors may receive an income tax deduction equal to the fair market value of the stock on the date of the gift — thus reducing your taxable capital gains.

Charitable Gift Annuity

A charitable gift annuity frees up your assets in order to generate cash flow during your lifetime. You make an initial gift to Lindenwood, and then a set payment is paid during your lifetime or beginning at a designated time, such as retirement.

Charitable Remainder Trust

This is a managed and invested trust that provides you and/or other beneficiaries of your choosing with a stream of income for life or a period of years. If funded with appreciated property, a significant capital gains tax savings may result. A charitable remainder trust can yield substantial tax benefits.

Charitable Lead Trust

This is effectively the opposite of a charitable remainder trust. Instead of the donor receiving the income, Lindenwood would receive the income for a specified number of years. At the end of the trust, the remaining principal is returned to you or another person of your choosing. Charitable Lead Trusts can generate a substantial gift or estate tax savings and, in some cases, you may receive a charitable income tax deduction.

Life Insurance

Either the donation of a fully or partially paid policy or the purchase of a new policy naming Lindenwood University as the beneficiary can lead to a substantial deduction for you and a generous gift to Lindenwood. Lindenwood can also be named as a beneficiary of a policy that you own.

Tax-Qualified Retirement Plan Gifts

With careful planning, gifts involving tax-qualified retirement plan assets, such as IRAs, can reduce your taxes and allow for a charitable gift. The University will be the effective steward of your generosity.
