2012

LINDENWOOD
UNIVERSITY

Lindenwood Mission Statement

Lindenwood University offers values-centered programs leading to the development of the whole person – an educated, responsible citizen of a global community.

Lindenwood is committed to

- providing an integrative liberal arts curriculum,
- offering professional and pre-professional degree programs,
- focusing on the talents, interests, and future of the student,
- supporting academic freedom and the unrestricted search for truth,
- affording cultural enrichment to the surrounding community,
- promoting ethical lifestyles,
- developing adaptive thinking and problem-solving skills,
- furthering lifelong learning.

Lindenwood is an independent, public-serving liberal arts university that has a historical relationship with the Presbyterian Church and is firmly rooted in Judeo-Christian values. These values include belief in an ordered, purposeful universe, the dignity of work, the worth and integrity of the individual, the obligations and privileges of citizenship, and the primacy of the truth.

Message from the President

The Great Story Continues

Dear Friends

Lindenwood completed another historically notable year in fiscal 2012, complete with the addition of a record number of highly qualified professors, significant growth of its online programs, entry into the first (provisional) year of NCAA Division II membership, and expansion of its world-class athletics facilities. We sustained the air of positive anticipation to which we have become accustomed – and might have even intensified it just a little – as the Chronicle of Higher Education designated the University one of America's "Great Colleges to Work For" for a fourth year in the last five.

At the top of this year's list of physical plant improvements was the completion of our 43,000-square-foot Student-Athlete Center, which provides not only spacious locker rooms for our field sports and offices for dozens of our dedicated coaches, but also plentiful athletic training spaces and a fully equipped academic support suite. The center was supported in part by a matching grant from the Mabee Foundation that was made possible by $1.5 million in donations from myriad friends and supporters of the University.

On the eastside, Lindenwood's Belleville, Illinois, campus (known as LU-Belleville) grew to nearly 2,000 students, with the traditional day college population topping 500. That campus added a number of new majors – including biology, acting, and communications – and began work on what will be a fabulous communications center and broadcast studio. Meanwhile, the LU-Belleville athletics program won the Directors Cup in the United States Collegiate Athletics Association, a designation awarded to the best intercollegiate sports program in that association. Beginning in the fall of 2012, our Belleville branch became a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. What is more, the new football field looks stupendous!

I wish to go on record again to point out that very few of these advancements in the Lindenwood brand of higher education could have been realized without your abiding support.

In keeping with the inspiring example set by our faithful benefactors each year, we pledge to continue advancing this school in the best service of Lindenwood's mission and – always, of course – the students. Thank you so much for enabling the University to exhibit persistent excellence.

Very sincerely yours,

James D. Evans, PhD
President

The Honor Roll of Donors represents the generosity of Lindenwood friends and alumni during the past year. Through their support, they have helped Lindenwood University continue its mission to provide a values-centered education for all students. We honor these members of the Lindenwood family for their steadfast belief in the principles that guide Lindenwood University. The list below denotes gifts received between July 1, 2011, and June 30, 2012.

Ways Of Giving

Lindenwood University has made a difference in the lives of thousands of students during its 185-year history. The opportunities that many of these students have received were made available through the generosity of alumni and friends who wanted to make a lasting gift to the University.

You, too, can impact a student's life through a variety of programs available to alumni and friends, such as the Endowed Scholarship or Honors Award program. We currently have many established gift programs that help support students involved in the arts, education, sciences, communications, business, and other academic programs.

Ways To Give:

- Cash
- Gifts of Stock and Other Securities
- Matching Gifts
- Real Estate
- Tax-Qualified Retirement Plan Gifts
- Planned Gifts
- Bequests
- Life Insurance
- Other Planned Gifts

Student Support Opportunities:

Scholarships

Donations for scholarships in any amount are greatly appreciated by students needing help to achieve their dreams. Endow a scholarship, a gift of $25,000 or more, to provide assistance to students who might not otherwise attend Lindenwood.

Honors Awards

Recognize deserving students on their outstanding achievements with a certificate presented at the annual Honors Convocation. Honor award naming starts at gifts of $10,000.

Emergency Textbook Fund*

The increasing cost of books, the tools of a student's trade, sometimes requires help from the Emergency Textbook Fund.

Graduate Student Conference Program Fund*

Provide financial assistance to graduate students to help defray costs of attending conferences and workshops. Attendance provides the opportunity to present papers and interact with researchers and practitioners in their chosen fields.

University Support Opportunities:

Annual Fund*

Gifts to the Annual Fund help cover the operating costs of the university so tuition and room and board can be kept affordable for the students. These gifts are unrestricted, which means they are available to be used where the need is the greatest.

Capital Projects*

Gifts can be designated to go toward various capital campaigns currently in progress at the School of Business and Entrepreneurship and the Athletic Success Center. Naming opportunities are available to recognize contributions at various levels.

Endowed Gifts*

Establish or contribute to an endowed fund and create a lasting legacy. Income from an endowed gift provides ongoing support to the donor's chosen priority.

- Unrestricted
- Scholarships
- Fellowships
- Professorships
- Research
- Facilities Maintenance

LU Legends

Become a legend by leaving a lasting impression on campus. There are countless locations awaiting your mark.

- Brick Paver Stones
- Plant a Tree
- Young Hall Auditorium Seats
- Swings
- Athletic Lockers

Lindenwood Giving Societies

The Butler Society recognizes lifetime giving levels over $25,000, and the Sibley Heritage Society, recognizes individuals who have made provisions for Lindenwood in their estate plans.

 Gifts of any amount can be designated to these areas.

For information regarding any of these giving opportunities, please contact the Institutional Advancement Office at 636-949-4903 or by mail:

Butler Society

The Butler Society is named after Colonel James G. and Margaret Leggat Butler, Lindenwood's most generous supporters during the 1900s. Today, the Butler Society honors a distinguished group of loyal friends who have followed in the Butlers' footsteps by committing their resources to promote the rich heritage of Lindenwood and support its vision for the future.

"I give to the counseling department because the counselors are there for our students when they need them. They're a buffer zone for kids who need someone and don't know where to turn."

Sibley Heritage Society

The Sibley Heritage Society takes its name from Major George and Mary Easton Sibley. Members of this esteemed group join hearts, hands, and minds to ensure Lindenwood University's future for generations to come. The society recognizes those who plan for Lindenwood's future by including the University in their estate.

"We believe in the overall mission of Lindenwood University and the impact it has on the members of our community. Lindenwood helps those who are seeking to improve themselves; we are blessed to be able to offer a helping hand. There's a saying, "Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish and you feed him for a lifetime." We feel that the greatest gift we can give is to provide students with the opportunity to learn and become productive members of society. Our hope is that those who have received will in turn lend a helping hand to those who need it in the future."
