

Hear Us Roar

Friday October 9, 2015

- Edward Jones will be on campus October 12-13 shooting a corporate video. They are using the Gazebo area and rooms inside the Student-Athlete Center. The School of Fine and Performing Arts is supplying theatre students to perform as “extras” for the video.
- Greg Santore, Witt/Kieffer consultant for the Athletics Director Search, will be speaking to Lindenwood Sports Management majors on Wednesday, October 28th at 3:30 p.m. in Dunseth Auditorium, Harmon Hall.
- The Doobie Brothers perform Saturday, October 10th at 8:00 p.m. in the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts.
- Lindenwood St. Charles Homecoming parade and festivities start at 10:00 a.m., October 17th; Lions vs Nebraska-Kearney football game at 1:30.
- Belleville Homecoming and Reunion October 14th-17th. For Alumni & Reunion information contact jsydow@lindenwood.edu and for Parents' Weekend information contact cellzy@lindenwood.edu.
- Legally Blonde the Musical at the Lindenwood Theater, J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts, October 29-31, 2015 at 7:30 p.m.
- Lindenwood University maintains an Emergency Text Book Fund for students in financial need. A total of 18 text books at a cost of $2,106.61 have been issued this Fall Semester 2015.
- We have received a thank you for participating in the Ferguson Community Days, and the commitment by Lindenwood to the Ferguson Community, from Wesley Bell, Attorney-at-Law, Ferguson City Councilman, and Lindenwood alumnus. He expressed his pride in what the University is doing under the leadership of Dr. Shonrock.

- During the month of September, 2015, the Office of Public Safety & Security conducted Sexual Assault/Consent presentations in each of the residence halls on campus. Approximately 1,000 students, 556 female and 449 male, attended these presentations.
- Jane Baum was nominated and selected to receive an award from Streetscape Magazine-Beyond the Best Top 50 in Business Awards. The dinner and ceremony will be October 15th at Ameristar Casino Resort Spa, St. Charles, MO.
- The 2015 United Way Campaign has officially begun! The campaign will run from September 30th – October 14th.
- Hasting & Chivetta will be holding Campus Master planning workshops with Deans and Department Directors on October 21-23rd.
- Ben Blanton, Julie Mueller, and our architects from LePique & Orne traveled to Minnesota to look at specialty glass to be used in the construction of the LARC. This specialty glass, “Sage Glass” can be lightened or darkened without the use of shades or other typical sun screening methods. It is also known for its’ energy efficiency qualities.
- LARC footings and foundation work continues; steel erection is anticipated to begin by the beginning of next month.
- Men's Water Polo posted a 3-0 record at the first of two conference crossover weekends in the Missouri Valley Division September 12-13 at the Saint Louis University Natatorium in St. Louis, MO.
- Women's Rugby faced a tough road test with back-to-back games against Army and Penn State, teams ranked number three and number one respectively in the latest Women's DI College Top 20. The result was a 30-3 win over the Black Knights on Friday and a 30-6 loss to the Nittany Lions on Saturday.

- Flu Shots: Free flu shot clinic for full-time employees was held for both campuses during the week of October 5th.
- Medicare Informational Sessions: CLAIM educated employees nearing retirement age about what they are responsible to know, where to find resources, and what options are available for insurance after retirement.
- One of our own Men's Lacrosse players Graeme Hosack has been drafted by the National Lacrosse League and was selected as the #2 overall pick to the Rochester Knight Hawks, in Rochester New York.
- Men's Ice Hockey secured a 3-1 win against Central Oklahoma to sweep the top ranked Bronchos at the Lindenwood Ice Arena in Wentzville, MO.
- The Nonprofit Administration Department has joined the Plaster School of Business & Entrepreneurship. The department has over 100 day and evening students in its bachelor's and master's degree programs.
- Jessica Prinner won the Women's Individual Pursuit title at the USA Cycling Collegiate Track National Championships in Colorado Springs, Colorado.
- After winning the 2014 coed division National University Championship last year, the Olympic Weightlifting Team came just three points shy of repeating at the 2015 event September 24-27 in Ogden, Utah.
- The Cheer and Dance teams that collectively form the spirit squads at Lindenwood University performed at Busch Stadium September 25th, then volunteered at the St. Jude Walk/Run to End Childhood Cancer.
- The Lindenwood St. Charles and Belleville Campus new student undergraduate recruitment is up 8% and new student graduate recruitment up 20%.

- The Gallup postcard that was sent to alumni last week is not only beneficial for the purpose of the survey, but has allowed Development to reconnect with several alumni and update their records.
- TJ Rains, Vice President of Information Technology, is facilitating the design of an Executive Dashboard, which will allow access to specific enrollment numbers and trends.
- Deb Ayres, Greg Phelps, Marilyn Abbott, and TJ Rains will be in Chicago, October 13th-15th attending the Workday Higher Education Forum.
- Acropolis Technology has provided technology services for the past three months to support the recent leadership transition in Information Technology. On October 2nd, Acropolis transitional services have ended. Acropolis Technology will continue to provide critical application and server monitoring services to support improved response to network and systems infrastructure issues during the IT reorganization currently underway.
- Students will receive an invitation from Gallup on October 26th, to complete a brief survey about their experiences as a Lindenwood student. The survey results have the ability to improve their student experience and the experiences of future Lindenwood students.
- Belleville Faculty members Dr. Thomas Trice, Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice and William Kenny, Adjunct in Criminal Justice founded Triken Investigation Firm and were recently featured in an article in the Belleville News-Democrat.
<http://www.bnd.com/news/local/article35814888.html>
- Lindenwood Billiards began the new season with a 16-9 win over the University of Illinois.

- Kent Thomas of the Lindenwood Shotgun Sports program, bested over 1000 contestants, to become champion of the 20 Gauge class at the 2015 National Skeet Shooting Association World Championships in San Antonio, Texas. Three of the top four shooters in this competition were from Lindenwood University, Kent Thomas, James Barnard, and Shawn Dulobery.
- Lindenwood received notification of acceptance into NC-SARA, the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements. Participation in SARA authorizes us to offer online courses to students residing in more than 30 of the 50 states without obtaining separate authorization from each state.
- A Ground Breaking Ceremony celebrating the future home of the Cedarhurst of St. Charles Assisted Living and Memory Care facility will be held on October 15th at 9am.
- Public Safety officers are now patrolling campus on two new mountain bikes purchased this summer.