Excerpt of letter from A.B. Potts to her sister, May 6, 1838

“ I here departed from my general custom of writing letters on the Sabbath, but at present I cannot excuse myself, I expect a houseful next week & not such whom I should choose. Mrs. Sibley & her gang but suppose a wife is in duty bound to entertain all her husband’s friends & as she is one of his worshippers [sic] I will do all I can to entertain & make her visit pleasant She has not enough of the feminine gender for me.”
