

COMMUNIQUE

Vol. 1, No. #25; Jan. 24, 1983

FACULTY, STAFF SUPPORT SOUGHT FOR FUND DRIVE

All faculty and staff members are being asked to contribute to Lindenwood's first Annual Fund Drive, a multifaceted campaign to raise $500,000 in gifts from the board of directors, faculty and staff, alumni, the St. Charles community and friends of Lindenwood from beyond St. Charles County. Money from this year's campaign will be used for 1983-84 operating expenses and will establish the groundwork for annual fund drives in succeeding years.

In announcing details of the Annual Fund Drive, President James I. Spainhower emphasized that while every employee is being asked to make a voluntary contribution, Lindenwood realizes that not everyone is capable of giving because of personal obligations and current economic conditions. To aid faculty and staff members, payroll deduction cards will be enclosed with next week's paychecks so that contributions can be programmed over a 12-month period. All deductions are tax-deductible.

Dr. Spainhower said that strong support from faculty and staff members will demonstrate to the community Lindenwood's united commitment to begin eliminating unstable financial conditions that have plagued the institution for a number of years. Strong internal support also will lay the groundwork for raising additional money from other sources, such as the community and alumni groups, to achieve the $500,000 goal.

The president pointed out that as little as $2.10 per week, or a monthly payroll deduction of $8.40, would raise nearly $40,000 from Lindenwood's nearly 400 full and part-time employees. Spearheaded by a $1,000 gift from Dr. and Mrs. Spainhower, several employees already have rallied to support the 1983 Annual Fund Drive. Staff employees have contributed several gifts of $500 and $1,000, while faculty members have given several gifts, one of which was a $400 contribution.

This year's Annual Fund Drive will continue through June 30th. Individuals and committees are being named to spearhead other segments of the fund-raising campaign, with details to be announced in upcoming issues of "Communique."

COORDINATION URGED IN DEVELOPMENT EFFORTS

In an effort to coordinate all development and fund-raising activities, the Office of Development is asking all faculty and staff employees to notify it of any pending grant proposals or fund-raising endeavors. The office also requests that no fund raising of any kind should be initiated without prior consultation.

The Office of Development encourages proposals from all faculty and staff members, and it soon will be circulating proposal possibilities for consideration by faculty and staff members in specific areas of work, study and research.

COUNTRY'S TOP ANGLERS TO APPEAR AT LINDENWOOD

Some of the nation's top bass anglers will be on campus when Lindenwood presents its second Bass Fishing Techniques Institute, February 11, 16 and 23 and March 2 from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

=more=

your official communicative link with the lindenwood colleges

Headlining the four-lecture event will be Roland Martin of Clewiston, FL, the holder of 17 national bass fishing championships and one regarded by many as "the world's best bass fisherman." Capturing the prestigious "Bass Angler of the Year" award a record of nine times, Martin ranks first among all-time money winners in bass fishing. At the February 11 session, he will discuss the art of fishing strange lakes, fishing during extreme conditions, such as high and low water levels, and catching a limit through versatility.

Appearing February 16 will be Randy Fite of Conroe, TX, an angler acknowledged as America's leading expert on the use of electronic fishing equipment. Qualifying seven times for the Bassmaster Classic of the United States, Fite will discuss how to use electronic equipment to locate more bass. He also will explain how the chart recorder can assist the serious bass angler.

The instructor on February 23 will be Roger Moore of Branson, MO, a three-time Missouri professional bass champion. He will discuss how to select fishing tackle, from rods to boats; the use of ultra-light equipment for more bass; lures with light fishing lines; and "Solving the Mysteries of Clear Water Lakes."

Appearing at the final session, March 2, will be Rick Clunn of Montgomery, TX, the nation's number two all-time money winner in bass fishing. A two-time world champion, he is the only angler to win in two consecutive years the Bassmaster Classic, a three-day fishing contest featuring 40 of the country's top bass anglers. He will discuss the overall organization of bass fishing for better success, how to locate bass during the four seasons and how to establish fishing patterns for large and small-mouth bass

The eight hours of presentations will include actual casting demonstrations, audio-visual showings and question-and-answer periods. The cost for the four weeks of instruction is $42. Enrollment is limited so those interested in attending are urged to make reservations early. For further information and registration procedures, contact Barbara Ludwig at the Leisure Learning Office, extension #346.

SPAINHOWER TO ADDRESS NOON LUNCHEONS

President James I. Spainhower is the guest speaker at this month's meeting of the St. Charles Optimist Club, scheduled at noon Tuesday at Pio's Restaurant & Lounge in St. Charles. He also is slated to address members of the Kiwanis Club of St. Charles at their monthly meeting February 8 during a luncheon at the Stegton Restaurant & Convention Center, St. Charles. Last night, he was the keynote speaker for the annual St. Charles Chamber of Commerce Awards Banquet.

DIAGNOSTIC, TUTORIAL READING SERVICES

Diagnostic and tutorial reading services once again will be available to elementary school children in the St. Charles area this semester by the Lindenwood Reading Center. For children in grades K-8, the center will provide these services after normal school hours, from 4-6 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, now through April 30.

Supervised by Diane Denney-Myers, assistant professor of education, the program has been expanded this semester to include tutoring in English, mathematics, history and science. Students who are deficient in reading or those who want to improve their reading and study skills could benefit from the services. Lindenwood will work closely with schools and agencies in St. Charles County to coordinate information and services, she said.

The scheduling of students and tutors must be completed by January 30, so parents are advised to make appointments for their children at once. For information, call extension #356.

INVITATION TO COMMUNICATIONS STUDENTS

If you are among the 80 mass communications students this semester who have chosen radio broadcasting or management as a career pursuit, Emil Wilde, faculty member and general manager of Lindenwood's KCLC-FM, would like to talk to you. Students are advised to visit Wilde in the MAB to acquaint themselves with the campus-owned station's activities, broadcasting and schedules. For information, call Wilde at extension #262.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS VISIT LINDENWOOD

School superintendents from six public districts in St. Charles County were the guests of President James I. Spainhower and Gene M. Henderson, Ph.D., professor and chairman of education, during a recent visit to the Lindenwood campus. The January 12th luncheon was arranged to acquaint superintendents with Lindenwood activities and to exhibit the institution's continuing interest in public education in St. Charles County.

BACKSTAGE THEATER TECHNIQUES IS COURSE SUBJECT

"Behind the Scenes at the Theater" is the title of a 10-week course designed to teach backstage theater techniques for supporting on-stage productions. It will be offered on Tuesdays from 7-10 p.m., February 8-April 19, on campus by the Leisure Learning Office.

Areas to be covered include stage make-up, basic set construction, scene painting, stage lighting, management skills necessary for acquiring scripts, production marketing, ticket sales and theater management. To be instructed by members of the Department of Performing Arts, the course will include a mixture of lectures, demonstrations and actual "hands-on" experiences. The cost for the 30 hours of instruction is $85, with a discount offered to faculty and staff members. For details, contact Barbara Ludwig at extension #346.

EDUCATION CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY

The subject of speed reading will be explored by a guest speaker from the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Center when the Education Club meets at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow. The 90-minute meeting, which is open to all students, will be held in the Cardinal Room of Ayers Cafeteria. For further information, contact Diane Denney Myers, assistant professor of education, at extension #355.

PROFESSOR TO CONDUCT TOUR TO JAPAN

W. Dean Eckert, Ph.D., professor and chairman of the Art Department, will conduct a tour to Japan, April 9-23, featuring visits to gardens, architectural sights and fine art exhibits. The two-week trip will introduce participants to areas of Japan where traditional arts and culture have their roots.

Included will be visits to the temples of Nara, the gardens and palaces of Kyoto, Himeji Castle, Kurashiki - called the "Venice of Japan," Miyajima Island, the Hiroshima Peace Memorial and Museum and an inland sea cruise to Takamatsu and Matsuyama on the Island of Shikoku. Visits to several art museums and a home visitation with a Japanese family also are planned.

Registration for the tour must be made by February 1. For a complete itinerary, costs and additional information, telephone (314) 441-5400 or 946-7689 for details.

PRESIDENT TO APPEAR ON CABLE TV SERIES

The new administration of Dr. Spainhower is the subject of a television interview conducted for First Capitol Cablevision's weekly presentation, "Talk It Over." The half-hour show will be broadcast on cable Channel 22 on January 26 and 28 at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. each day.

PROFESSOR FEATURED AT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

N. Jean Fields, associate professor of English, is the featured speaker at the quarterly meeting of the St. Charles County Historical Society, scheduled January 27 at 6:30 p.m. at Lutheran Church Immanuel in St. Charles. Widely known for her studies on the lives and influence of pioneer women, she will discuss "Rebecca Boone and the Problems of Women's History." The talk "uses the author's historical research on Mrs. Boone to illustrate the problems of using traditional historical methods in recovering women's history," Miss Fields said.

POET'S WORKS ON RESERVE AT BUTLER LIBRARY

Several of Gwendolyn Brooks' works are on a three-day reserve in the Butler Library as well as photocopies of biographical articles about the internationally renowned poet. The Chicago poet, winner of the 1950 Pulitzer Prize for her poetic portrait of the black urban poor, makes a special appearance at Lindenwood February 11 to open a series of events for the institution's observance of Black History Week, February 13-19. From 9-10 a.m. in the MAB Parlor, she will lead a discussion on the importance of studying Afro-American history, culture and literature during an event sponsored by the Coalition for Black Students. From 4-5 p.m. in Butler Hall's English Lounge, she will conduct a creative writing workshop, sponsored by the Griffin Society. And, at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre, Ms. Brooks will present a selected reading of her poetry, followed by a reception in her honor in the MAB Parlor. The day's activities, all of which are available free-of-charge to everyone, are being supported by a grant from the Missouri Committee for the Humanities, Inc., the Missouri-based organization of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

UTILIZE YOUR WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Do you have an announcement or a memorandum that has to be written, photocopied and distributed to faculty and staff mailboxes? Utilize "Communique" as your source for both information and dissemination. Information received by Wednesday each week will appear in the following Monday morning's newsletter. Save time and cut photocopy expense by utilizing "Communique" as "your official communicative link with the Lindenwood Colleges."

- COMMUNIQUE #30 -

"COMMUNIQUE" is published each Monday by The Lindenwood Colleges. Comments concerning the publication, as well as the submission of information, should be sent to Randy L. Wallick, Editor, Office of News & Public Information, The Lindenwood Colleges, St. Charles, Missouri 63301.