TOMMY SUN

STUDENT PROFILE

THIS IS WHERE MY SERVICE BEGINS... My goal is to work in military intelligence and maybe something bigger after that, like a position at the NSA, CIA, or FBI. THIS IS WHERE I DISCOVERED MY FUTURE... An international relations major was something I never thought I would pursue, but learning about history and modern world functions clicked with me. I am involved in Phi Lambda Chi, Alpha Phi Omega, and Army ROTC; these organizations alone have prepared me to be a leader.

MY FOCUS

I love studying a wide range of cultures to better my understanding of why some cultures do the things they do. Culture is the key to understanding behavior. Specifically, I am interested in government foreign policy that ties in with military & technology. MY END GOAL IS ALWAYS TO BE OF SERVICE TO THE COUNTRY that gave my parents and family a chance to thrive.

MY EXPERIENCE

I am from St. Charles, so I wanted to stay close to home and family before my career starts. The first year of my life was not in the U.S., but China, so my childhood was already different from most of my friends. This is WHAT MAKES ME DIFFERENT from others. Having a background in two different cultures and being able to function in both has given me an edge.

BELLA RAINNEY STUDENT PROFILE

THIS IS WHERE MY PASSION BECOMES PROFESSIONAL... I majored in advertising and public relations and fashion entrepreneurship. I chose these two majors because I have passions for both in my personal and work interests. Throughout all of my adventures in life, I have found that creating the big idea and implementing it with a team has been the most satisfying aspect of my career path. Fashion has always been one of my favorite ways to express myself and help others express themselves. Advertising/PR is very focused on relationships with clients, so combining these two industries is what makes sense for me.

MY FUTURE

I have two internships where I specifically work in advertising/marketing/PR, as well as my on-campus job at ResLife where I run Lindenwood University's social media accounts. I also practice MANAGEMENT SKILLS with my on-campus involvement opportunities such as President of COASA and Vice President of Leadership for DECA.

MY POTENTIAL

Lindenwood has provided me with OPPORTUNITIES THAT I WILL CARRY FOREVER. From all my incredible advisors have done for me, to being recognized by Student Involvement for my efforts in my community, I truly cannot imagine being anywhere else.

BACK, BACK, BACK GRAND SLAMMA!

That iconic voice, Dan McLaughlin, has become synonymous with our city's hallowed baseball tradition. However, his baseball career started when he was a star catcher for the Lindenwood Lions. He had always dreamed of calling Cardinals games, but HE GOT HIS FIRST BIG BREAK BECAUSE OF HIS STUDIES AT LINDENWOOD. He told the Sporting News, "I was really involved in my college radio station. I had a college scholarship to play baseball at Lindenwood, and Lindenwood had a really good program with communications. You could take a class at KMOX radio."

STL CARDINALS' DAN McLAUGHLIN'S LINDENWOOD STORY

"THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR AT THE TIME WAS LOOKING FOR SOMEBODY TO RUN THE BOARD. THEY CALLED IT A PRODUCER. THEY PULLED ME OUT OF THAT CLASS AND SAID, 'HEY, WE HEARD THAT YOU'RE A GUY WHO IS A REALLY HARD WORKER AND WANTS TO GET INTO

SPORTS, AND THINK WE HAVE A POSITION FOR YOU.' AND I WAS LIKE, YEAH, THIS COULD BE GREAT.. SO THAT'S HOW I GOT IN AT KMOX. AND EVENTUALLY I MADE IT ON THE AIR THERE WHEN I WAS 20 YEARS OLD."

-DAN McLAUGHLIN
