LINDENWOOD MISSION STATEMENT

Lindenwood University offers values-centered programs leading to the development of the whole person – an educated, responsible citizen of a global community.

Lindenwood is committed to

- providing an integrative liberal arts curriculum;
- offering professional and pre-professional degree programs;
- focusing on the talents, interests, and future of the student;
- supporting academic freedom and the unrestricted search for truth;
- affording cultural enrichment to the surrounding community;
- promoting ethical lifestyles;
- developing adaptive thinking and problem-solving skills;
- furthering lifelong learning.

Lindenwood is an independent, public-serving liberal arts university that has a historical relationship with the Presbyterian Church and is firmly rooted in Judeo-Christian values. These values include belief in an ordered, purposeful universe, the dignity of work, the worth and integrity of the individual, the obligations and privileges of citizenship, and the primacy of the truth.

LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY HONORS

LINDEN SCROLL presented by Ms. Cortney Hupper Lenk

Linden Scroll is an honor society comprised of students who excel academically and have a dedication to serving both the University and the community as a whole. Linden Scroll members are nominated by the faculty, invited to join the honor society by current members, and recognized for their service and academic leadership through involvement in campus events, academic achievement, contribution to scholarship, and community service projects by completion of hours served. Tapped members receive full membership upon completion of service hours and by maintaining high academic standards for each year of involvement.

COMMUNITY SERVICE TRANSCRIPT DESIGNATION PROGRAM sponsored by Dr. Julie Turner

Lindenwood University embraces community service as an extension of service-learning, which is a philosophy of experiential learning in which students participate in community service not only to meet the needs of the community, but also to develop their critical thinking skills, commitment to values, and skills for effective citizenship. Because of the value that the university places on community service, students who achieve at least 500 hours of qualified community service during their time at Lindenwood University receive special recognition for this accomplishment.
