LINDENWOOD

Open house set for March 24

Lindenwood University invites prospective students to come to an open house from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday, March 24. Admissions and financial aid counselors will be available to provide on-the-spot financial aid evaluations, and refreshments and a tour of the campus will be available.

The event gives students interested in Lindenwood a closer look at the campus, course offerings and residential options. Additionally, Lindenwood counselors try to eliminate most of the bureaucracy that is typical of college admissions elsewhere by making the admissions and financial aid process as simple and as quick as possible. The open house will be held in the university's undergraduate admissions office.
