Each Squad Also Has a 4-0 Hurler

By Dave Lipman

The North will battle the South here today, but if there is any rattling it won't be of muskets but of baseballs off the fences at Busch Stadium, where the Muny Baseball Association's third annual North-South All-Star game will take place.

And with so many plus-400 hitters in the lineups, fence rattling may be the order of the day when play starts at 2 o'clock in the house the Browns built and Augie Busch renamed. In the North's probable starting lineup will be four players hitting about .400, while the South will offer at least three such batters.

Top swingers in the South lineup will be first baseman Rich Taylor of the Brooklyn Robins, who is hitting .454; center fielder Ray Maurer of the Kimacks, .433, and left fielder Jim Williams of the St. Louis Rams, .402.

Two of the North's top hitters have exceeded the .400 mark. Thomas Halton, right fielder of the St. Louis Monarchs, is winging along at a .514 clip and Todd Sichel of Kutis North is hitting .500. Backing them up are second baseman Pete Traina of Union Printers (.438) and center-fielder Jim Doerr of Ceresias (.416).

If there is any stopping such hitters, the two All-Star squads have the pitchers to do it.

Mumm—With 4-0 Mark.

The North's probable starter is one-time Cardinal farmhand Don Mumm of Kutis North, who has a 4-0 record, with 23 strikeouts and only 10 walks while posting a 1.30 earned-run average. Opposing him will be Mal Murphy of the Kimacks, who pitched in the New York Yankee chain before turning to Muny baseball or Jerry Brooks of the Lebanon Red Sox.

Mumm has won six and lost pitched shutouts in his starts. And in case the needs a fourth plus-400 pitcher to even up things North, they would have Murphy pitches. He's hit-as a 4-0 record and victories were the only merited by his team in ay in the Metropolitan also has a perfect her in Fred Blasberg a Villas (4-0) and last All-Star game winning

St. Anthony vs St. Margaret.
In C.Y.C. play, St. Anthony, defending C.Y.C. champion and current pacesetter in the Bishop Cody Senior League, will attempt to extend its perfect record to 6-0 when it meets St. Margaret (2-2) at 3:30 o'clock today at Cherokee Park No. 2.

The Bishop Winkelmann League race could tighten even more after today's games, depending on the results of the contests between league-leading St. Pius (4-1) and St. Agnes (3-2) and between Seven Holy Founders (3-2) and St. Francis of Assisi (0-5). The doubleheader will start at 1 o'clock at Cherokee No. 1.

One of the C.Y.C.'s key games will take place at 3:30 o'clock at Fairground No. 1 when Holy Rosary, leading the Bishop Helmsing League with a 3-0 record, meets second-place All Souls, beaten only once in five games.

Tie to Be Broken.

A three-way tie for first in the Khoury Association's Mission Senior League will be broken after today's contests between Morrells and Foulds, 1, at 12:45 at Fairground and Baden (2-1) and North Banks (0-3) at 3:30 on the diamond.

er-Jorgen, leading the League with a 7-1 record, at its severest test to date plays host to second-gus (6-2) at 2:30 o'clock. also 6-2, will be at Coeur (2-4).

Kutis North, Villas, Hoffmeisters Advance

By Bob Posen

Dick Loeser, Mal Murphy and Frank (Chubby) Williams pitched their baseball teams into the top spots in the Muny senior playoffs yesterday, each team gaining a second straight victory.

Loeser spun a five-hitter and struck out nine East St. Louis Giants as Kutis North won, 7-1, at Fairground Park.

Fire-balling Murphy had an easy time as the Kimacks whipped the Red Villas, 17-3, at Heine Meine Field. He allowed three hits and fanned 15.

Williams pitched a five-hitter, didn't walk anyone and contributed a home run to the Hoffmeisters' 5-2 win over the Union Printers at Carondelet Park.

Giants Eliminated.

The Giants, by bowing a second straight week, became one of three teams eliminated. The others, also of the Metropolitan League, were the Greys, 11-8 losers to Carondelet Sunday Morning Athletic Club, and the St. Louis Cubs, 13-8 losers to the Brooklyn Robins, the only Metro team still in the running.

Either the Kimacks or Hoffmeisters is sure to lose its first game when they meet in the next round of the double elimination tournament. C.S.M.A.C. and Kutis North, last year's 1-2 finishers in the playoffs, are paired in another third round game, which Carondelet (1-1) must win if it is to stay alive.

The Robins are to meet the Villas, with the loser eliminated, while the Printers enjoy a bye.

Pete Vitale's two-run homer sparked a four run first for Kutis North, which knocked out starter Nathaniel McNuckolls in a three-run eighth.

The Kimacks had an 8-0 lead before the Villas scored three unearned runs in the sixth. The Kimacks immediately came back with seven more runs as Murphy contributed one of his three hits.

Williams in Duel.

Williams, a Ban Johnson League hurler last season who joined the Hoffmeisters in June, had to bear down in a pitching duel with Jack Reiter, a hurler the Printers drafted. Williams pitched a five-hitter and struck out nine. Reiter pitched a five-hitter and struck out nine. Williams' home run in the eighth gave the Hoffmeisters a 5-2 lead.

Toledo Wrestler Wins Elimination

ROME, Aug. 19 (UPI)—Little Richard Wilson of Toledo (Ohio) scored a victory for the United States today in the elimination rounds of the Olympic Greco-Roman wrestling, held outdoors where temperatures on the wrestling mats were 122 degrees.

Two other United States wrestlers lost during the morning rounds. Dale Lewis, a heavy-weight from Muncy, Pa., was pinned by A. Bulgarelli of Italy, and Howard George lost out to Germany's H. Albrecht, one of the favorites.
