Last summer the Alumnae Association accepted the challenge of doing something about the growing urban transportation problems facing today's Lindenwood students. A campaign was launched to raise S & H Green Stamps for the purchase of a 12-passenger Ford bus. Through the generosity of alumnae, parents, students, faculty and friends of the college, the mini-bus has become a reality.

Mrs. Robert Bruere (Rosanna Veach), chairman, reports that 1250 S & H green stamp books and hundreds of dollars in cash have been donated. Stamp books are still arriving in the Alumnae Office. Additional gifts, over and above the actual cost of the mini-bus, will be used to cover operating expenses.

The mini-bus is under the auspices of the Dean of Students Office and is driven by mature student drivers of Lindenwood II. John Back, a junior, is in charge of scheduling and is one of the drivers, as well.

The mini-bus runs on a regular schedule between the campus and St. Louis educational and cultural centers at a cost of $1.00 round trip per student. There is no charge for transportation in St. Charles. The bus may, also, be chartered by groups for trips to events of special interest and may be used for college sponsored field trips. In February the mini-bus went on a special museum and theatre trip to Chicago.

Nominations Open For 1970 Alumnae

Merit Award

Alumnae are invited to send nominations for the 1970 Alumnae Certificate of Merit Award to be presented at Commencement. Awards are made in recognition of outstanding contributions in a professional field, community volunteer service and for outstanding volunteer service to Lindenwood College.

The first award in 1959 was presented to Lillian A. Nitcher '33 (now deceased) in recognition for her outstanding contribution to the field of social work and for her dedication and service to Lindenwood College. The 1969 award was given to Dyke Steinbeck Barton '29 for service to her community and to Lindenwood.

Send the name of your nominee, together with a statement of your reasons for considering the individual a distinguished alumna. Nominations should be sent to the Alumnae Office by April 1, 1970.

Your Gift Will Make The Difference

The 1969-70 Alumnae Annual Giving Program has benefitted from the enthusiasm and encouragement of its co-chairman, Julie and Ed Van Woert, the Alumnae Council, the class fund agents, and particularly from each alumna who has already given Lindenwood her vote of confidence.

The campaign is still in progress and will be until the close of the fiscal year on June 15, 1970. In order to surpass last year's alumnae giving record it will be necessary that $6,000 more in gift income be raised by June 15. A follow-up appeal will be mailed to all alumnae who have not yet given early in May.

The Van Woerts urge every alumna to help support Lindenwood's educational program to insure its continuing success. "Lindenwood gave you an education—give Lindenwood your support."

Alumnae Invited to Reunions

and Commencement

May 29 and 30

Come for your class reunion and enjoy Baccalaureate and Commencement at the same time. Alumnae arranging reunion activities are planning a luncheon honoring the Class of '70 to be held on Friday, May 29, at a restaurant in historic St. Charles. Following the luncheon, alumnae will gather for the Annual Meeting of the Alumnae Association which will feature special recognition for reunion classes and informative discussions led by members of the administration. The rest of the afternoon will be free until time for Baccalaureate and the reception following.

Saturday morning, May 30, will dawn with the Commencement exercises at which time the Alumnae Merit Award recipient will be honored. The afternoon will be set aside for class reunion activities.

For the first time in a number of years, alumnae will be housed on the campus. One of the air-conditioned dormitories will be set aside for alumnae lodging and meetings.

Please return the form below for further information. This will be the only notice pertaining to Alumnae Reunions except through correspondence of special reunion year class secretaries. Classes reuniting this year: '20, '25, '30, '35, '40, '45, '50, '55, '60, '65 and '69.

'69 Graduate Joins Admissions Staff

Joan Chapman, a 1969 graduate of Lindenwood College has joined the staff of The Lindenwood Colleges' Admissions Office. Miss Chapman, an English major from Wellesley, Mass., served as an intern in the Admissions Office during her senior year.

Other new members of the Admissions staff are Thomas Comer and Ronald Mills.

Mr. Comer is a native of St. Louis and a graduate of St. Louis University. A high school English and history teacher, Mr. Comer has also spent two years in the Peace Corps. While in the Peace Corps, he was chairman of the history department of a secondary school in Sokoto, Northern Nigeria. Mr. Mills is a graduate of Ball State University and received his Master of Arts degree from Indiana University. Prior to joining the Lindenwood staff, he taught history at Webster Groves High School.

Publications Awards

A series of four Lindenwood Colleges viewbooks, a student recruitment poster, and a newspaper feature story published by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch were cited for special merit in the annual district competition sponsored by the Mid-America District of the American College Public Relations Association and District VI of the American Alumni Council. The awards were presented at the annual December meeting held at the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City, Mo.

Higher Education and Public Policy

The Independent Colleges and Universities of Missouri have recently published a booklet which brings together the thoughts of two prominent leaders in higher education in Missouri on issues of public policy affecting the future of both public and private colleges and universities in the state. The spokesmen are Dr. John C. Weaver, President of the University of Missouri, and Dr. John Anthony Brown, President of The Lindenwood Colleges, and currently president of The Independent Colleges and Universities of Missouri.

For copies of this booklet write to the Alumnae Office, The Lindenwood Colleges, St. Charles, Missouri 63301.

Alumna Named '69

Woman Achiever

The Fort Smith, Ark. Southwest Times Record has selected Mrs. Ander K. Orr (Nancy Montgomery) as their 1969 Woman Achiever.

Nancy has over the years served her community above and beyond the call of duty in cultural, civic and charitable affairs. In addition she is a fulltime rancher, farmer and cattle breeder.

The Girls Club has been the recipient of much of Mrs. Orr's service. An additional honor was bestowed on her recently when the new Girls Club branch building in Fort Smith was named the "Nancy Orr Girls Club."

Nancy Montgomery Orr received her B.A. degree in English and Latin from Lindenwood and did graduate work at Northwestern University. In 1964 she was the recipient of the Lindenwood Alumnae Association Merit Award. She served as president of the Alumnae Association in 1960 and 1962 and continues to serve her alma mater as a member of the Alumnae Council.

Griffin Society Publications

The Griffin Society of The Lindenwood Colleges proudly announces publication of prose fiction by Mr. David Churchill. Mr. Churchill is a published novelist and a freshman at Lindenwood II. This is his first Griffin Society publication. The annual Griffin will be published in late April. The cost of Mr. Churchill's book and the Griffin is one dollar each. Subscriptions and contributions will be graciously accepted and may be mailed to: The Griffin Society, The Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri 63301.

Former Speech and Drama Major Writes Song for Carol Burnett

Those who watched "The Carol Burnett Show" on the evening of November 24, 1969 heard Miss Burnett sing a number entitled "Just Talkin'", based on a housewife's reveries!

The housewife, Sue Finney Vogelsanger, (Mrs. Elbert) graduated from Lindenwood in 1950 with a major in speech and drama. Mrs. Vogelsanger is a fan of Carol Burnett's and so wrote the song with her in mind. While attending the show in California, she asked the star to sing it. Miss Burnett examined the lyrics and music and decided to present

Enrollment at the Lindenwood Colleges

The administration of The Lindenwood Colleges has made the necessary preparations for another significant increase in enrollment for the fall of 1970. In terms of classrooms and laboratories, library, and other facilities, including residence halls, the colleges can handle a very large new student input. Alumnae have and can continue to perform an invaluable service to Lindenwood by informing the Admissions Office of likely prospective students in their individual communities.

The 1969-70 academic year at The Lindenwood Colleges began with a significant 40 percent increase over the previous year's enrollment in Lindenwood College for Women. There are approximately 542 students in Lindenwood College for Women and 118 students enrolled in Lindenwood II. The new students come from 32 states, District of Columbia, and 10 foreign countries.

The increased enrollment was the result of experiencing the highest retention rate (83%) in the history of the college and more students transferred from other colleges to Lindenwood than left to go elsewhere. The number of women transfer students is 50% greater than the college normally experiences.

In preparation for another increase in enrollment, the Admissions Office has had an exceptionally fine response to a large mailing to National Merit Scholarship Award runners-up. The Colleges will, also, be host for a series of Open Houses for prospective students, alumnae and friends who reside in Missouri and Illinois.

Alumnae are encouraged to join in this challenge for increased enrollment by informing the college of any student who is believed to be qualified for admission to Lindenwood College for Women or Lindenwood II.

It is suggested that alumnae watch local newspapers for names of outstanding junior and senior high school students. All of us have friends whose children are approaching college age who might be interested in Lindenwood. Please provide the Admissions Office with the names and addresses of these young people. You may write to Mr. Earl Davis, Director of Admissions, The Lindenwood Colleges, St. Charles, Missouri 63301.

The McCluer's Move to Florida

President Emeritus and Mrs. Franc L. McCluer moved to Sarasota, Fla. in December where they have a new apartment on Sarasota Bay. They plan to visit friends at Lindenwood and in Missouri during the spring and fall of each year as they travel between Sarasota and their summer home in Ludington, Mich.

On the Campus

• The 1969-70 Convocation and Lecture Series opened September 12 with a lecture by Her Excellency Angie Brooks, chairman-elect of the United Nations General Assembly.

The Honorable Miss Brooks spoke on "How Africa Looks at the American Negro Problem."

The Honorable Miss Brooks, who was installed as presiding officer of the 24th session of the U.N. General Assembly, on September 16, 1969, is a native of Liberia and has been a delegate of her country to the United Nations since 1954. She has also served as vice president of Liberia and, since 1958, as its assistant secretary of State. She was the first woman president of the U.N. Trusteeship Council.

Chairman-elect Brooks came to the United States when a teenager and earned the B.A. degree from Shaw University, N.C., and a law degree from the University of Wisconsin. She continued her legal studies at London University and holds an LL.D from Howard University and a D.C.L. from Liberia University.

• Dr. Sidney Cohen, one of the foremost authorities on drug abuse, spoke to Lindenwood students on October 8. Dr. Cohen is director of the U.S. Government Center for Studies of Narcotics and Drug Abuse.

• The officers of the Alumnae Association and the Alumnae Council gathered on the campus for their annual fall meeting on October 17. New programs and plans for the coming year were made, one of which was the decision to change the date of Alumnae Reunion Day from the first Saturday in May to Commencement weekend, May 29 and 30. The day's program also included discussion with members of the administration, faculty, and student body.

• An amplified telephone system has been installed on campus with the help of a Title III grant from the United States Office of Education to provide greater teaching resources for the Lindenwood Colleges in cooperation with Fontbonne, Maryville, and Webster Colleges. The device makes it possible for an entire class to carry on a discussion with a faculty member or an entire classroom on another campus. Outside speakers can be brought into a classroom electronically from a telephone anywhere in the world.

• Professional performer and choreographer, Willis Ward, conducted the January term class in "Art, Dance, and the Total Environment." Under Ward's guidance the students created "Continuum," a program of creative dance. Mr. Ward is the founder of the Willis Ward Dance Company.

• The Preparatory Music Program at The Lindenwood Colleges, established in September of 1969, offers private music lessons to young people and adults in the area. Individual instruction is given by advanced music students at the college with monthly master lessons provided by college faculty members. A public recital is presented at the end of each term.

During the spring term, instruction will be available in piano, voice, and flute, at the beginning and intermediate levels. Lessons will be offered for one half hour each week for 14 weeks. Cost of the program is $50 per student for the 14 week term, payable in installments.

Director of the program is Miss Allegra Swingen, associate professor of music at Lindenwood. Other Lindenwood music faculty participating in the program are Assistant Professors Groff Bittner, Kenneth Greenlaw, and Joseph Robbins.

Persons interested in obtaining further information should contact Miss Swingen through the office of the Associate Dean for Special Programs at the colleges. The telephone number is 723-3474.

Elected to Board of Directors

Armand C. Stalnaker, president of the General American Life Insurance Company of St. Louis, has been elected to the Board of Directors of Lindenwood College for Women.

Stalnaker holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati, the master of arts in economics from the University of Pennsylvania and a Ph.D. in personnel psychology from Ohio State University. He taught business organization and was Commerce Placement Director at Ohio State before joining Prudential Insurance Company in 1950. He has been affiliated with General American Life since 1963, serving as an administrative and executive vice president before his election as president in January of this year.

Stalnaker is a member of the boards of the YMCA of St. Louis and St. Louis County, the Convention Board of Greater St. Louis, the Health and Welfare Council and the Committee for Environmental Information.

Chemistry Professor Receives Grant

A grant to finance further investigations of a radioactive scanning agent with potential to detect diseases, malfunctions and abnormalities of the liver and the lung, has been awarded by the American Chemical Society to Mrs. Teresa J. Welch, assistant professor of chemistry at The Lindenwood Colleges.

The grant of $350, funded through the Small Grants Program of E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., will support experiments related to current nuclear research, and is entitled "Short-lived Radio-isotopes in Undergraduate Laboratory Courses." The experiments to be used were developed by Mrs. Welch with the assistance of former Lindenwood students Patricia Penkoske '69 of St. Charles, and Jane Seck '69 of Bushnell, Ill. The report of their investigations will be published.

Professor Welch joined the Lindenwood faculty in September 1967 after a four-year affiliation with the Department of Chemistry at Brookhaven National Laboratory in New York. She holds a master of science degree from the University of California at Berkeley and is co-author of at least 12 articles published in chemical research journals.

New Scholarship Funds

Three new scholarship funds have been established at Lindenwood College for Women through gifts to the endowment of the college. The Nancy Drury Hardy Scholarship Fund has been established by bequest of Mrs. Caroline Hardy Riordan in memory of her mother who graduated from Lindenwood in 1876. The income of the fund will be available to students from the State of Illinois regularly enrolled in the college. Preference is given to "students who may be expected to make worthwhile contributions to community life in the communities in which the student will reside following graduation." Financial need is a consideration, but not the controlling

Symposia For Women

Lindenwood College for Women will sponsor "Symposia for Women for Spring 1970", a series of programs on social and political issues of particular interest to women.

The first of nine programs began on February 17 when Miss Joanne Cooke, an editor of Motive magazine and a spokesman for the women's liberation movement, spoke to students in Roemer Auditorium. Her lecture was entitled: "You've Come a Long Way, Baby - The Status of Women in America."

Other dialogues between students and persons making significant contributions to society will include discussions related to the Christian-Judaeo Woman and her struggle for social involvement, education for sexuality and not sex, abortion, family planning and world population. A conference on women's liberation was held on Feb. 24-25, and programs in March will explore the psychology of women, a cross-cultural view of her role in society, and significant difference between men and women in respect to cognitive learning styles.

New Director of Development

Edward C. Krehmeyer joined the staff in September as Director of Development for The Lindenwood Colleges. Mr. Krehmeyer was formerly National Director of Alumni Campaigns for Washington University's Seventy by 'Seventy Program. In that capacity he helped organize and supervised the fund raising program among alumni in the major metropolitan areas throughout the United States. Prior to coming to the St. Louis area, Mr. Krehmeyer was Director of Research and Statistics for the United Charities of Chicago. He has a Master's Degree in Social Work, and during his 15 years in the Chicago area he was employed in social welfare research and planning activities.

factor in awarding scholarships. The first scholarships from this fund will be awarded to students for the 1970-71 academic year.

The Mary F. and Benjamin E. Jelkyl Scholarship Fund has been established by gifts to the college from Mr. Ross Jelkyl in memory of his parents.

The Pearle Aiken-Smith Syers Scholarships have been endowed by the bequest of Mrs. Pearle Aiken-Smith Syers to assist students interested in the communication arts. Mrs. Syers was a student at Lindenwood in 1895 and went on to become a prominent college professor and dean.

Residence Hall

Intervisitation

Rejected

During the first term of the 1969-70 academic year students at Lindenwood College for Women and at Lindenwood II proposed that students be granted intervisitation privileges in women's and men's dormitories. Their proposal was carefully studied and reviewed in light of: (1) student arguments for and against; (2) current conditions on campus; (3) responses from parents, faculty, alumnae, friends of the college, and individual students who chose to make their views known privately; (4) policy, practice, and experience at other colleges; and (5) the long-range mission of The Lindenwood Colleges."

In a position paper prepared by President John Anthony Brown and distributed to students he wrote:

"To respond to the proposal requires that we recognize two questions, rather than one. The first is who shall decide the issue; the second is what the decision should be.

The administration recognizes the importance of student participation in the processes by which decisions are made. We have provided for this participation in the past and wish to extend its range into every relevant aspect of the college. We believe that there are many decisions which the students alone can make and intend to delegate much of the determination of the programs and social life of the college to student action. As evidence of this intent, one should consider dormitory and student government practices, student representation on administrative and faculty committees, student participation in interviewing faculty candidates, and student dominance in determining what programs shall be designated convocations. Wherever majority rule is clearly the process by which the college community best achieves its goals, student dominance in decision-making is appropriate and will be accommodated.

On some issues, however, neither majority rule nor executive order is appropriate. On some issues what is needed is the right decision - that is, a decision which stands the test of objective review and which proves or disproves itself by the consequences for which those making the decision are held accountable. The issue of intervisitation on this campus clearly is a matter requiring a right decision. Majority vote on a question affecting the life of every person on campus would come upon the right decision only by accident. Because of the long-range effect of a decision on intervisitation, moreover, the weight of making the determination falls upon those who are held responsible for the future of the college. The administration and only the administration is accountable for this and must bear the consequences of whatever decision is made." The students were very much apart of the decision making process in deciding this issue, "since much of the information and many of the issues originated with student spokesmen."

".....The women's student government representatives, after a careful vote of the women students by ballot, have withdrawn their proposal for intervisitation in the women's residence halls. Their action evidently reflects an awareness on the part of many students in Lindenwood College for Women that intervisitation at this time would adversely affect enrollment, as well as parental and alumnae relations. Some women students see intervisitation as an invasion of privacy. We are fortunate that the leadership of the women was willing to carefully study the issues.

The women of Lindenwood College for Women do not see the same factors pertaining for the men of Lindenwood College II. The Special Committee of

Class Secretary

Miss Aimee Becker
837 First Capital Dr.
St. Charles, Mo. 63301

I have been waiting to receive the round robin for some time now, and am wondering who is holding it. Come on "girls," please send it on and don't lose it. The ones I hear from quite frequently are:

ELIZABETH RICHARDS WHITMORE is fine and busy with various church activities in Annada, Mo.

ISABEL ELY SHANK has been busy organizing evening devotions at the Plaza Square apartments in St. Louis. I have the privilege of being with her occasionally, and we have a good time reminiscing about our college days.

MARY STATLER WHITE, 216 E. Glenn, Marissa, Ill., 62257, and I do not meet too often, but have conversations over the telephone trying to trace our chain letter.

LYL URBAN STRASZER writes that she has changed her address again: P.O. Box 7037, Masonic Home, St. Petersburg, Fla., 33704. She likes Florida and hopes to remain there.

The class extends deepest sympathy to George Borgeson whose wife, LENORE ANTHONY BORGESON, died suddenly on February 18, 1970 at their home in Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Borgeson was a drama instructor and theater organizer for more than 40 years. She operated her own theater craft school from 1926 until 1955. Since that time she has given only private lessons. Mrs. Borgeson was an active member of the Kansas City Lindenwood College club.

MARGARET FIELD RUSH, 6030 Rockhill Rd., Kansas City, Mo., lives alone since the death of her husband. She enjoys bridge and club work, and her two children and grandchildren are a source of joy to her.

CECIL ROETZEL SHELDON, who was president of the student government at Lindenwood in 1916-17, lives at 800 W. Broadway, Columbia, Mo. Her sister, Mildred, (Mrs. H.C. Hightower), lives at 1809 Huntington Ave., Oklahoma City, Okla. Both the sisters' husbands are deceased. They had reservations for a Caribbean cruise in December, but, due to Cecil's illness, they had to cancel it. However, they enjoyed a grand cruise in August to Nova Scotia, Gaspe, and Bermuda.

RUTH STEVENSON VIRDEN lives in Albany, Mo. She has three married children, two sons and one daughter, as well as seven grandchildren. Ruth enjoys her P.E.O., bridge club, and Presbyterian church work.

WILLA STEWART BROWN lives at 1708 S. 27th St., St. Joseph, Mo. Her son, Stewart, lives with her as her husband is deceased. She, also, enjoys bridge, her church, and oil painting.

DOROTHY SHEARER SLATTEN lives in Bethany, Mo., where she is active in her church and P.E.O. Mr. Slatten is deceased.

Your class secretary is spending several months with her sister, VIRDEN KINKADE WILSON in Winston, Mo. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson joined a group of other doctors, their wives and friends, and took a chartered plane trip to all the major Hawaiian Islands. They stopped enroute in Las Vegas and San Francisco. Virden visited at my desert home in Joshua Tree, Calif., while I enjoyed the holidays in Missouri. We gave a program "An Evening in Hawaii" for the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, complete with leis, hibiscus, a slide show, and Hawaiian refreshments.

ROSE PARMALEE FOSTER writes that she and her husband moved to R.R. No. 2, Box 254, St. James, Mo., 65559 in Feb., 1968, where they built a home on their farm. She reports that they are happily located and are busy entertaining many friends and their grandchildren. Rose keeps busy working for the church and has joined a federated club. In September she assisted with the Grape Festival and has recently been elected their corresponding secretary.

SELMA SONIN BLOCK says the most interesting news about her is her husband, who collects antique automobiles. They travel all over the country in various cars. One car, in particular, is a 1918 Locomobile that General Pershing used in the first World War. Another collector's choice is an electric car, complete with cut glass vase always filled with flowers. Selma enjoys her four grandchildren. She sends greetings to all and says she has many fond memories of Lindenwood. The Blocks reside in Kansas City, Mo.

Your class secretary and CATHERINE STALEY HAMILTON recently returned from Europe where they spent three weeks visiting Germany, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Belgium, Luxembourg and Holland. I continue to work as a psychiatric social worker and to manage the family farm in Illinois.

Sincere sympathy is extended to HELEN ROPER STARK on the death of her mother, Mrs. Felicia Wilgus Roper, Nov. 9, 1969, in Steelville, Mo. She is survived, also, by her son and five grandchildren.

JULIA LOUISE PALMER PARKER, 423 W. High St., Grants, N.M., 87020, visited with President Brown on the Lindenwood campus in November.

KATHARINE ROUTZONG HUTCHISON, R.R. No. 5, Stevenson Rd., Xenia, Ohio, 43385, and Mildred Paterson, 210 Sunset Rd., West Palm Beach, Fla., 33401, vacationed together in the summer of '69. Katharine writes, "It was an inspirational change for me, providing a new view for living, as I lost my Kenneth last March. 'Millie' is the same as always, young and vivacious, and affiliated with American Red Cross. Home base is Atlanta, Ga. As for me, a life to rebuild. What I do and where I go, only time will tell."

New Year's Greetings to all:

We are just about down to "bare bones" for news, but I want to thank those who took time to respond to my request just before Christmas. Perhaps we will hear from others, now that relaxation from the holidays has set in. In late fall I had the pleasure of a short visit in Mt. Vernon, Ill., with HARRIETTE GANN-AWAY KERN '33. Newsy Christmas cards always arrive from ELIZABETH HIGGINBOTHAM TAYLOR '32 and VELDA WAGNER KRAMER '36.

It was good to hear from CLAIRE BOWLES PELLOW, Tulsa, Okla., who extends New Year greetings to all the Class of '29. She writes, "My job as a social worker is taxing, but rewarding. There has been very little racial unrest in this state—a fact in which all of us 'dyed-in-the-wool Okies' can take pride." Claire's seven grandchildren, ranging in age from infancy to 14 years, help to fill out her life. She keeps in touch with HARRIET LIDDLE, SUSAN JORDAN STANBRO, and AVANELLE JACKSON POEHLER.

SUE AUSTIN HUTCHINGS begins her note, "Merry Christmas from the Windy City. For the past seven years we have been living in Evanston where my husband is assistant to the Editor of the Chicago Tribune." Sue enjoys her association with the new Greater Chicago Lindenwood Club which has 29 active members.

One of the happy by-products of the secretary's job is the renewal of old friendships. It has been good to correspond again with NORINE ZIEGLER RISHELL of Shreveport, La. (see Alumnae News, Dec., '68). In her most recent letter Norine tells that her sister, FLORENCE ZIEGLER ALLBRITTON is a full professor in the Music Department at Northeast Louisiana State. Norine keeps in touch with EVELYN RODMAN GREEN, DOROTHY WALLACE, MARGUERITE FISCHER SPIKER, and NADINE TABOR HAY.

A Christmas card from PAULINE SCHERER VOGT, St. Louis, states that she spent the holidays in the Hawaiian Islands again this year; in the spring she plans to make a repeat trip to the Orient.

LUCILLE HODGE writes that "Mrs. James Reed gave a lovely luncheon for our Kansas City Lindenwood Club in December and President Brown spoke to the group."

The August Alumnae News brought delightful results in surprise letters from pleasantly remembered classmates, a couple of whom live fairly close to Springfield, Ill., your Class Secretary's home.

JOHNNIE RINER is very busy running the Ferguson, Mo. Library and thoroughly enjoys it; she's due for retirement in July, 1970. She signed her letter "As ever (only older), Johnnie."

ELEANOR RICHARDSON writes that she received her Master's from the University of Illinois and over the years has done graduate work at the University of Chicago and Columbia University. She teaches mathematics in the Mt. Vernon High School, Mt. Vernon, Ill. In September GLORIA BUTTERFIELD HUGHES and her husband, James, visited Eleanor for dinner and overnight en route from their home in Metairie, La. to a convention in Minneapolis and, of course, they had a delightful "gabfest."

BROOKS ANN COLE, 1115 Logan St., Denver, Colo. 80203, tells of a long career in communications since she received her Bachelor of Journalism degree from the University of Missouri in 1932—magazines, newspapers, radio, TV, executive director of a national health organization chapter in Colorado and is now a personnel counselor. For about five years she flew around the country in connection with her work but says she is more stationary now; however, intends to be present at our 40th reunion in '71.

DOROTHEA LANGE HAWES writes from her home in San Francisco as if she's talking to me here in the living room in front of the fire! I wish it could be reproduced. Glenn retired from the service in 1961, they lived in Sun City, Ariz. for four years, then moved to San Francisco, where they enjoy their apartment and see many friends (many on their way in or out of the country),—and like locking up, with no worries, to take trips, like to Victoria, B.C., Alaska, Monterey, Reno, Leavenworth, etc. Now they plan a trip to Mexico early in '70, hoping to see DOROTHY DINNING MEYER and other friends en route. They also hope to get to Germany (they lived there for three years, 1951-54) to see their two grandchildren and the parents, curious to see what changes there are around Frankfurt. "Do" would love to hear from you out there in this wide country—people do get around a lot these days and you just might be in San Francisco soon.

MARGARET COBB writes that she's still busy with planning for the new school. She, also, mentioned that DOROTHEA LANGE HAWES and her sister, MARY ALICE LANGE JONES, visited in Leavenworth, Kan., recently and gave a party while there (both grew up there). Dorothea plans to come to L.C. for our 40th reunion in 1971 and "Cobb" hopes to be in the new school and have time to attend, too.

FRANCES ELLIOTT GREEN, 1218 E. 9th St., Winfield, Kan., 67156, writes that her eldest son, Charles, received his A.B. degree at Kansas University in June, 1969, and her other two sons are in college this year. Last June Frances entertained LINDA ORMISTON, '60, RUTH BROWN BOOTH, '34, and SON-DRA ALBERTSON NICHOLS in her home. They hope to be joined by MARGARET KYGER VEATCH, '25, and LOIS BROWN FIELDS, '42, the next time they get together.

Your secretary received the wedding announcement of Susan Yeager, daughter of HELEN (SHAVER) DAVIS YEAGER, so I am sure she had a busy time the past year. Helen, who lives at 227 W. Delaware, Nowata, Okla., 74048, wrote on her Christmas card that the newlyweds and her sister, PAULINE DAVIS HEDGECOCK, '27 would be home for Christmas, which would make the holiday a happy and exciting one.

Since I last wrote we have had a delightful two week trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C. via the Smokies and back home the northern route, plus a quick trip to Chicago and participation in our Con Con (Constitutional Convention) election—all just great, plus relatives visiting.

Keep letters coming—as you know, there will always be more news editions.

RUTH CORREA LUCKE and her husband are enjoying many new friendships at 3667 Arcadian Dr., Castro Valley, Calif., 94546. Last July 1 Mr. Lucke became executive manager of the Castro Valley Chamber of Commerce and Ruth has been serving as president of the Southern Alameda County Reciprocity Bureau, P.E.O., since March. The Luckes have five grandchildren and the family were all together at Christmas for the first time in 12 years. Ruth sends best wishes to all classmates for a most happy and blessed 1970.

Helene and Russell Ralph (HELANE WILKS) vacationed in Hawaii the past year and visited en route there with their son, Jim, and his wife, Janine.

REBECCA CARR WAYLAND, Fredericktown, Mo. is planning to attend the alumnae reunion in the spring. Becky and husband, Hank, have two married sons and five grandchildren.

Our belated sympathy to IRENE BROOKS LEWIS who lost her brother in September after a long illness. Irene and Lynn have a married son and a daughter, Karen, who will graduate from high school in the spring.

Jessamine and Dick McMullin (JESSAMINE HINDS) wrote on her Christmas card "vacation this year was South America where Dick had long wanted to go. I still prefer our own lovely country for vacation." The McMullins' granddaughter will graduate from high school this spring and is thinking much about Lindenwood.

HARRIETT HILPERT HOUSEL sends greetings and says, "It seems like a long time since the days when we were part of that old Nicolls gang."

Your secretary's family has grown this year as Bob and I acquired a new son and a new daughter. Our daughter, Barbara, was married to Michael Brady Esstman on July 5, and our son, Bob Jr., was married to Zoe Cassin on August 2. I think I am still breathless! I keep busy with my job as chairman of volunteers of the St. Charles County American Red Cross, also DAR, P.E.O., and, of course, Lindenwood. Send me your news—it is always a thrill to hear from you.

DEE KISS FOLEY and husband, Gene, sent a newsy Christmas letter from their home in Caracas, Venezuela, where they live at Quinta "Tibisay," Calle Los Jardines, Prados del Este. There are dozens of orchid plants hanging from an arbor over the patio and one or two are always in bloom. Dee and Gene have four children, Gene Charles, Patrice, Steven and Susan, and they all enjoy the year round beach club and a 14' Sunfish sail boat. In the summer of 1969 they visited the U.S. enjoying Colorado, New Mexico and the Royal Gorge. In Caracas, Dee is the troop leader for Patrice's Brownie troop and Gene helps out by serving as Institutional Representative for the two English speaking scout troops there. During their visit to this country they drove through St. Charles and visited the Lindenwood campus where they saw many changes and were surprised at the growth of St. Charles itself.

The class extends deepest sympathy to JANE EDWARDS CRAVENS whose husband, Harry, passed away suddenly on August 1, 1969. Harry, 37 years old, died as a result of yellow jackets stings. Jane has two daughters, Vera Kathleen, 12, and Rachel Alicia, 7. The family home is in Crossville, Tenn., 38555.

Congrats to SUSIE ANDERSON STOCKMAN and her husband, who recently won a week's vacation at a ski lodge in Aspen, Colo.

Now that the '70s are here let's all make a very special promise to ourselves—promise to keep in touch with me, so that we can all keep in touch with each other.

Last July GWEN RYTER GOETZ landed in St. Louis with some of the most fabulous creations from Hawaii you've ever seen. After 18 months in Midway, husband, Herb, brought the family to St. Louis where he attended Eden Seminary to complete his master's degree in theology. We had fun visiting many of the new sights in St. Louis, and even they admitted the "face-lift" on the river front was quite fabulous, even after Hawaii—if that's possible. They are now in the Great Lakes area where Lt. Comm. Herb is chaplain at the Naval Base Hospital.

Under not as pleasant circumstances TILLIE MICHELETTO ANDREWS was here in August. Her father was quite ill, but he did recuperate and then we managed to visit and "chat" endlessly. All of her eight seemed to get along without her—a real crushing blow for Mamma—but, knowing her live-in maid "Choalie" that wasn't too hard to believe.

ALICE PROUTY ROOT, husband, Jack, and I spent a fun night at the horse races on the East side just before they left for a month's vacation with their family to Mexico. They all came back with much improved Spanish and glorious tans.

CAROL LEE KNIGHT BLANCHARD sends Christmas greetings from Hawaii. Isn't that the greatest way to live—eight years in Hawaii!

JANE GRAHAM HUBBEL'S Christmas card had a new address—seems the Hubbells built their dream home; "best of all is this hillside full of bird loaded trees, even some pheasant and grouse. We have had chickadees and sparrows right on the deck outside the breakfast room doors." My, my, I'd say they have escaped pollution and over-population. How did you find that paradise, Jane?

MARION KASPER CHILDERS by now is in East Pakistan. Her husband, Victor, is establishing an Institute of Business Administration at the University of Dacca. She says, "The Ford Foundation provides the funding so that means living will be a little more comfortable than during our stay in Venezuela. A furnished house and a car will be waiting for us when we arrive, for instance." Marion, are you taking orders for Oriental rugs?

JULIE MARR ROBINSON, 5513 Glenwood Rd., Bethesda, Md., 20014, has been named press coordinator for First Lady Pat Nixon, and will coordinate the activities of the "writing press" for Mrs. Nixon. Julie was married to Donald H. Robinson, a former assistant managing editor for the Washington News and editor for the NAM, who passed away June 30, 1969. She has three children, Robby, 6, Andrew, 4, and Regan, 1. Julie was a "women's editor" of a monthly newsletter published by the National Association of Manufacturers in New York before her marriage, and also was employed as a reporter on the women's staff of the San Francisco Chronicle and as assistant to the society editor of the New York World Telegram and Sun.

As for me, the '60s ended with my receiving a master's in Language Arts—whatever that means!

Please! Do promise to write and soon.

ANN ENGLAND CLAY, who now lives in Fallbrook, Calif., at 4099 Citrus Dr., has a year-old daughter, Cheryl, and a son, Michael, who loves school, "especially the bus ride back and forth," according to Ann. She manages to keep in touch with NANCY HULSE TIRRELL who lives in Anaheim.

ANN DAVIDSON BOXEY included a picture in her note. She was pleased to have a former roommate, ANN McMULLEN PRICE, visit her in Georgia and reports that "Ann has not changed at all."

One busy member of our class is ANN GATCHELL NISSING. She serves as secretary and assistant to her husband in his CPA practice, teaches cello in her home, plays with a Mu Phi Epsilon trio in St. Louis, and is treasurer of the Board of Christian Education at her church. Besides this, she says she is general chauffeur for their nine-year-old son. Ann and her husband live at 8505 Grantshire Lane, St. Louis.

Moving into a new home in 1968 was MARIA CHERNER MUNROE and, judging from the lovely picture on her Christmas card, Maria is now in the country. Her new address is R.R. No. 1, Box 94, Pacific, Mo., 63069. Maria teaches at Eureka High School.

HETTY JAMES PRICE brought me up to date on her activities since L.C. She graduated from Kansas University and, after ten years of various occupations and locations, she and her husband and son are now settled in Overland Park, Kan. They live on what used to be a part of her grandmother's farm and she says that John, her four-year-old son, loves to roam the fields in that area. Hetty is president of the L.C. Alum Club of Kansas City, and is active in P.E.O.

MARTHA ROSENBERGER ZIMMERMAN lives in Harvel, Ill., where her husband farms and she teaches in the high school. Besides teaching, she is active in church work, DAR regent, and involved in many professional home economics associations. She writes that kindergarten has really been an experience for their son, John William, and "for the teacher, too."

Christmas brought a letter from BETH DEVLIN JETT, who has three children: David, five; Monroe, three; and Ellen Louise, two and one-half. Davis is in the Episcopal Day School; Monroe attends the University Nursery School; and Ellen Louise's greatest achievement was to learn "self defense quickly," Beth writes. Besides sailing, playing tennis and bridge, Beth belongs to a gourmet dinner group and had a garden last summer. While visiting her family in Arkansas she saw NANCY HUNDLEY MCKENZIE, GAY WADDELL ANDERSON, and SALLY COX BECK. Visiting her in Lexington this past year were two other Lindenwood friends, MARCIA JONES CURRY and CAROLYN BURTON EVANS.

A baby girl, Susan, joined the family of NANCY HULSE TIRRELL in May, 1969. Nancy has two other children, Laurie, nine, and Donnie, eight. Besides being active in AAUW, Nancy does some substitute teaching, and has joined the Southern California Lindenwood Alumnae Club.

Deepest sympathy is extended to WANDA BULLARD LESLEY, whose husband, Donald, passed away January 19 after a long illness. Wanda and her four children live at 3153 Duquette, St. Charles, Mo., 63301.

And now—a note from me—many of you have not written in ages to let me know your latest news. Please do write for it is our best way of keeping in touch. Also, it would be nice to use pictures from our class. If you enjoy reading about former classmates, remember they would enjoy hearing about you, too!

DRUCILLA PEMBERTON and Dr. Jorge J. Madamba were married October 25, 1969, in St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral, Oklahoma City, Okla. Drucilla received her degree from Oklahoma State University and Dr. Madamba received his dental degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City Dental School. The newlyweds honeymooned in San Francisco.

CORNELIA CHILDS and Harlan Beach were married August 29 in Lubbock, Tex. Harlan was a minister in Vermont when he and Corny first met. More recently he has been working with an inner-city parish in Denver. Their address is: 1086 Jasmine st., Denver, Colo. Our daughter Jennifer and I went to the wedding. It was a wonderful time—beautiful, fun, both traditional and new. Before her marriage Corny taught English at Colby Junior College, New London, N.H.

Jeff and I spent a night with Julie, Van and Mariah Van Woert (JULIE ORR) in Northfield, Ill. in October. Van was in the process of making two trips to meetings at Lindenwood in that one week. Of course that was unusual, but it is some indication of the time they are giving. I feel we are very fortunate to have such people firmly supporting Lindenwood.

And in November, we visited with PEGGY CRANE MERIWETHER and Jack, and toured their recently renovated and very interesting Little Rock home. It was so fun to have even a quick get-together with them again, and to see their boys, Dan 8, and Thom, 7.

It seems I am always scurrying around at the last minute gathering together all the news and hoping I don't forget anyone who has found time enough to write. Maurice and I are spending our "spare" time traveling again. Last summer we made a quick trip to Illinois (to paint mother's house) and made a very brief stop at Lindenwood—even with all the improvements it seems very much the same and is still very enchanting. We have visited with BARB LARSON SHOUSE and her family in Tyler, Tex. several times. We had quite a treat one weekend visiting with Barb's father, whom some will remember as "Daddy L." The Shouses love the Tyler area and Barb has been very active working with pre-school mentally retarded and physically handicapped children, being an assistant Den Mother for the Cub Scouts and making plans to substitute teach this year.

The general theme of this news seems to be "moving." Lauderdale, Fla. is the new residence of SYLVIA PATTERSON McCALLA. Sylvia would like to renew Lindenwood friendships. Husband Roger is the administrator of Heritage Nursing Home and Sylvia spent a busy summer studying for the Pharmacy State Boards. The McCallas' address is 269 Miramar.

The Donald Popes (NORMA CAMP) have moved to Rockville, Md. 20850 (544 Azalea Drive). Norma is an economist for the Federal Government and her husband is doing graduate work at the University of Maryland. The Popes have two children, Nathan, seven and Carleton, four.

"We have moved to Houston, Mo.," writes MARTHA McINNIS MARTIN. "Doyle is now district conservationist for Texas and Shannon Counties, and we are again in the process of building a house." The Martins' current address is 116 Hwy. 63. Their daughter, Mary Martha, is now two.

Moving from Michigan to Bethesda, Md. was a 1969 summer activity for JULIANNE ROBINSON POMPA. "My husband is now manager of the Federal Systems Operation for General Electric Computer Department. Jeff is now 11, Mark 8, and Linda 6." The Pompas' address is 6935 Greentree.

SANDY MAXWELL STAMP has a busy schedule with Beth who is five, Matthew and Mark (their "dynamic duo") who are four, and Sarah who is one. "David finished a year's work toward a Ph.D. in Agronomy and is an instructor in the Agronomy Department at Iowa State University, plus being a student. We both find our present tasks quite a challenge."

"I finished work on my masters of education this past semester," writes CAROLYN ANDERSON SMITH. "My husband has his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and will finish his Ph.D. this year. He won the 'Joseph Alberts Award for 1969' which is a new award for an outstanding student in the veterinary medical science department at the University of Illinois. We have two boys: Barry, eight and Brian, six."

Wedding bells rang on July 3 for NANCY RUSSELL who married Jim Dover. The Dovers are residing at 10 Linwood-Hillcrest, Fort Smith, Ark., 72901. Nancy's attendant was ELIZABETH BRITT LUDDINGTON, '59.

SANDY HAIRSTON BROWN sent greetings from "Sunny Arizona" where they were spending the holidays with Bill's parents in Phoenix and enjoying the beautiful weather. "The girls are growing so fast—Diane is eight and in the third grade and Susan was two in November."

The Christmas Season proved to be a hectic time for CLETA JONES SZOKE. "This has been the most disorganized pre-Christmas period I've ever spent. It's because of a new semester schedule they're trying at school where the semester ends before Christmas vacation. It's great for unmarried students, but try writing term papers, studying for exams, Christmas shopping, baking fruitcakes, and cleaning house all at once."

NANCY RECTOR DOUGLAS brings us up to date on her family's activities. "We had a busy summer. Hank spent two weeks at Yale for an army school; then, we picked him up and drove down to Fort Gordon, Ga., where he spent another two weeks in army school. We toured around a little on the way home, spending one evening with NORMA CAMP POPE and her family in Rockville, Md. Susan is in kindergarten and Carol is two and one-half. Hank serves on the village board this year and I ran the hospital auxiliary drive for our town and have done other volunteer work with the church."

EMMY HAY LONG spent the Christmas Holidays in Wichita, Kan. with her family, and "had a delightful train trip to Wichita last summer. We had never taken the train and thought it would be a nice change. We also took the train to Iowa to see MEG LEWIS CARDELLA. We were there several days and had a great time. Michelle is in the second grade, Mark in kindergarten and I am in first grade—I'm helping as a teacher's assistant one day a week. Ted has been practicing law almost a year and really enjoys it."

MARY SUE BRAGG CERSOVSKY writes that everyone in her family is fine. "Steven will be three in January and is full of talk and mischief. Susan is 15 mos., a blue-eyed blonde in contrast to Steven's dark hair and eyes. She's a sweet, quiet little girl, but can hold her own."

The past year was very rewarding for LINN WINEGARNER WORTH. Linn has been happily busy in many charitable and civic activities, receiving the Citation for Achievement and Recognition for Outstanding Leadership in 1968 from the Fond du Lac Jaycettes. She also received an editorial citation from a local radio station and just recently received word of inclusion in the 1969 Directory of Outstanding Young Women of America. "The best I can say is that this is an area where with work it seems about anything can be accomplished. It is exciting and rewarding." Linn has an active family life also. "Lisa is six, Laura is three, and Lucia, one. We swim and sail all summer and spend many hours snowmobiling all winter. We truly enjoy living on the lake. Surely will try to get to St. Charles this spring."

NANCY GALE SMITH plans to be in St. Louis in February to attend a NEA meeting and is anxious to see the changes at Lindenwood.

Maurice and I spent the Christmas Holidays in Illinois, again battling the snow and when we returned to Texas for warm, sunny weather, we had snow and ice. I hope all of you are beginning to make plans for our 10th reunion at Lindenwood this spring—such fun we will have visiting and seeing the changes. Do try to attend.

At last I'm beginning to hear from some classmates—still many others to follow, I hope!!

I received a note from JEWEL WEBB PORTER, Rt. No. 4, Box 335 K, Joplin, Mo., 64801, in October. Jewel reports her daughter, Julia, is ten and in the fifth grade, and Laura is six and a first grader. Laura apparently takes after Jewel in every way—can Lindenwood take another? Jewel keeps busy with politics; she was state co-chairman for Nixon-Agnew Committee in Missouri. Jewel asks in closing, "Where are you, Betsy and Sue?" How about it, girls?

My next letter came from NANCY ORDELHEIDE RUBENSTEIN. She and her family are back in St. Charles after several years in Mobile, Ala., where her husband, Bill, taught at the University. Bill now works for IBM in Clayton as a systems engineer. Nancy teaches part time at one of the community colleges in St. Louis. She has finished her Ph.D. in musicology from Washington University and husband, Bill, has been helping her program the computer to transcribe 13th century music notation. Nancy also reports an interesting fact—daughter, Jessica, was born on Beethoven's birthday! What else? She will be two years old.

WANDA WEAR WOOLEN sent a cute picture of her two daughters, Laurie Lee, seven years, and Leslie, five years. Gee, Wanda, they are exact copies of you and look like real "southern belles." Wanda's new address is 400 Riverhill Dr., N.W., Atlanta, Ga., 30328.

Christmas brought a few notes from old friends as JUNE TAVLIN DEAN. Her husband, Stan, is teaching in a program for the educationally handicapped, both emotional and neurological. The Deans will be moving in June, they aren't sure just where, but it will be in California and near the coast. Hope they will find a place with lots of room so they can really enjoy their Christmas bikes to the fullest.

June is busy being a mother. Michael is 15 months old now and June reports he is a real camper.

LOU HAMACHER HERRON is a college student again! It think it's just great, Lou. She reports that husband, Floyd, has to work harder to do some of her chores, but he doesn't seem to mind.

JANE ADAMS HARRIS has a new address: 1966 Fairway Dr., Birmingham, Mich., 48009. It was such a pleasant surprise to hear from you, Jane. Jane's daughter, Deborah Lynn, will be five years old in May.

NANCY BABB McADAMS is the proud mother of a new daughter, Heather Lou, born in November. I like your choice of names, Nancy; as some of you may know, I, also, have a Heather! Nancy also has a son, Paul, who is four years old. The McAdams still live in Arlington. Nancy recently saw TERRY ROSS GORMLY, who teaches high school in Maryland.

MARTHA CRANE OSTERHOFF, 2109 Lynwood Dr., Champaign, Ill., 61820, is a busy housewife; mother of three children, Deborah nine, Martin seven, and Kevin four; a Brownie leader; and she was president of the PTA last year.

ELAINE HUDDLESTON MONROE is a housewife six days a week and a medical technologist one day a week. Elaine and her husband, an attorney, are the parents of two boys: Wes, 7½ and Marshall 5. "In my capacity as chairman of the advisory board for the Delta Gamma's at the University of New Mexico, I've had occasion to confer with the Assistant Dean of Women who is KAREN GLASER '60 L.C. We've been wondering if we have any other classmates in Albuquerque."

Major and Mrs. John Szilvasy (LINDA MARKULY) have been with the 14th Armored Cavalry in Fulda, Germany for the past two years and just recently transferred to Nue Ulm in the beautiful Bavarian Black Forest. They enjoyed their tour in Fulda where John served as chaplain and Linda kept busy with decorating the Officers Club for special occasions and editing the Chapel newspaper. Kevin Szilvasy is now a 5'1", 105 pound, giant 11-year-old. Linda says, "we are envisioning custom made shirts, shoes and beds in the not too distant future."

I'm back to being a housewife, at least for a while. The reason—a new son, Matthew David, was born on November 25, 1969. He was three weeks late and I looked like an elephant.

Hope to hear from more of you in the new decade.

A letter from PATRICIA ANNE MORRIS HOGAN brings this interesting information: "Occupationally, I am vice president of Data Central, Inc., a Clayton, Mo. data processing services company—which I assisted in founding in 1966. (Immediately upon graduation from L.C. I entered a 'college training program' in computer systems analysis and related subjects with McDonnell Automation Co., a subsidiary of McDonnell-Douglas, which gave me my education in the computer services field. Personally, I was married to Donald G. Hogan on December 12, 1968. Present at my wedding were two classmates: JEANNE DULANY GROTH and MARGARET THIEBES SMITH (who had a baby a few weeks later, by the way). We married at Ladue Chapel and honeymooned in New Orleans. My husband is president of Data Central, Inc. and some people referred to our marriage as a 'merger'!! I attended JEANNE DULANY'S beautiful wedding in June, 1968 and her equally beautiful Christmas Open House last Christmas. I stay in relatively close touch with classmate BARBARA HAYWOOD (She is in New York and I visit there several times each year; we have been getting together at least each year since we graduated). Recently I heard from SARA BRYANT, who was with us our freshman year." Pat was named "Outstanding Young Woman of Missouri for the Year 1968."

DOTTIE JO KIEF GREEK of Putnam, Ill. has a new baby, Tyler, born Oct. 29, 1969. She has another child, Cyrena, 2½. Her husband sells copiers and duplicators and she teaches math half a day. She says to send best wishes to all the L.C. girls.

SHARON WALKER BAGGS who lives in St. Louis, has a new daughter, Amy Elizabeth, born Dec. 15, 1969. Her husband, John, is a city planner and they have another child, Johnny, age five.

IMELDA HARRA FARMER has a new baby, Chris, born Aug. 24, 1969. She has dress shops in Ohio, and recently opened up a new one. She says, "We hope to catch our breath in 1970."

JENNIE SPENCER PINKERTON has a new address, R.R. No. 1, Box 114A, Ochelata, Okla., 74051. She and her husband were transferred to Tulsa from their former home in Bartlesville, with Cities Service Oil Co.

JOAN MAUPIN McHAN and her husband currently live in Maryville, Mo., but will move to Berkeley, Calif., where her husband has been granted a post doctoral position in plant pathology at the University of California. They have just recently begun to refurbish an old house in Maryville. They will be in California for about one year.

JUDY AMER VERKERST is living with her parents in Waukegan while she waits for her husband to finish his tour in Vietnam. She expects him home in the early spring. She said she spent a delightful "R&R" in Hawaii this fall. The Verkersts have two children: David, 4½ and Stacey, 1½.

SARA YOUNT REMUS has a new address also: 600 Dalrymple Rd., 18A Atlanta, Ga., 30328.

Shawnee, Kansas 66203

Hello again! Enis and I were married August 9, 1969, in my hometown, Harlan, Ia., at the old Immanuel Lutheran Church. My sister was my matron of honor and MEREDITH KASTEN, '63, and two other friends were my bridesmaids. We had a marvelous wedding trip and were able to spend two and one-half weeks in Scandinavia which thrilled both of us. I am teaching again this year and Enis is employed at the Federal Reserve Bank in Kansas City, Mo.

After the Christmas "package-unwrapping" we drove to St. Louis for the December 26th wedding of MEREDITH KASTEN and Gary Kraus. It was a lovely Christmas wedding at the Salem Lutheran Church in Affton, Mo., and I was Meredith's matron of honor. Meredith and Gary are living in New Orleans where Gary is teaching at Tulane. Their address is 2900 Camp St., New Orleans, 70113.

It was almost like a class reunion at the wedding reception; several of the L.C. girls and their husbands were there: MELBA LEE COUNTS PFLUEGER and Ray, JO ANN HUDSON ALGERMISSEN and Henry, JOAN LEIPER JOHNSON and David, and ELAINE LUDY CLOSE and Max. Max and Elaine are parents for a second time. Gregory was born early in December.

A most welcome letter arrived in October from DIANNE DOUGLAS DAVIS who wrote that she and Eddie lived in California until their son, Matthew, was born. After deciding that Los Angeles was not an ideal place to raise children, they transferred to North Carolina where Matt could grow up near his paternal grandparents. They are living in Raleigh where Eddie works as a radio dispatcher for the North Carolina Highway Patrol and Dianne is an accountant for the Wake County Board of Education. Dianne wrote, "It is a far cry from the novel author I dreamed of being while I attended English classes at L.C., but to my surprise, I've found it extremely enjoyable." Dianne and Eddie's address is 621 Wayne Dr., Raleigh, N.C.

We were able to spend a couple of hours with PAM OBRECHT BASS and La Verne while we were in Iowa for Christmas. They are in the process of building a new home which sounds wonderful. The Obrecht's address is simply, Malvern, Ia.

I couldn't resist sending in this Christmas picture of Jonathan and Krista Eirten. They are the children of DOTTIE SCHULTZ EIRTEN and Frank. The Eirten's address is 10308 Zion St., N.W., Coon Rapids, Minn., 55433.

Another darling picture came from Bonnie and Don Armstrong (BONNIE SLAGLE) of their three sons. The Armstrongs live at 26 Bellevue Ave., Winchester, Mass.

SALLY DAVIS EDWARDS and husband, Larry, have a son, Clark David, born December 23, 1968 and a daughter, Suzanne. Larry is a pharmacist in Jefferson City, Mo.

Martha and Jim Mewhirter (MARTHA RICKE) have bought a five bedroom house, which they are enjoying redecorating, at 1221 Wentwood Dr., Irving, Tex., 75060. Jim is a co-pilot flying the D.C. 8. Most of his trips are non-stop to San Francisco. Martha's mother, DOROTHY COMSTOCK RICKE, '33, spent Christmas with the Mewhirters. Martha and Jim have three children.

Congratulations to DEE LIENAU PUNDMANN who was named the outstanding young educator for 1969 in St. Charles, Mo. On December 8, 1969 the St. Charles Jaycees presented Dee with a plaque in recognition for her service to education. Dee and her family make their home at 1906 Easton Pl., St. Charles.

DEANN DUFF SMITH recently stopped by the Alumnae Office for a visit and brought us up-to-date on her life as well as many of our classmates. If you will recall, Deann was Lindenwood's first political science major. After leaving L.C. she continued her schooling at Stanford University from which she graduated in 1966 with a post graduate degree in law. Deann holds the distinction of having been the first woman assistant to the Attorney General of the State of Missouri, a position she held in 1968. She is presently employed as a field attorney for the National Labor Relations Board in St. Louis, but plans to move to Houston, Mo. this spring. Deann and her husband, J.L., prefer rural life than that of the city and so have purchased a radio station in their hometown. J.L., who has his master's in electrical engineering, will operate the radio station and Deann will do doubt set up a law practice.

I put this epic off until the last minute as I knew I would be receiving lots and lots of news on Christmas cards. Do you know, the only cards I received from L.C. were from the people I have been corresponding with on a regular basis. None of the rest of you had any news and I bet you are the first to turn to our class news, and then be disappointed because there is so little news! This will "learn" you.

KATHRYN BALDUS MOUROT is still teaching in Morrilton, Ark., and has lots of degrees to her credit. Kate just started going to school at L.C.! She hasn't stopped yet and really makes the rest of us that have put it off feel guilty. Besides being a teacher and student, she is married, has a new home, and a daughter, Angela Lee. I had a picture to include, but it has disappeared.

JEAN WILLMORE, 206 St. Louis Rd., Collinsville, Ill., 62234, has much to contribute to this issue. I tell you all, sooner or later, all of you will get the urge to contribute and will help build a better newspaper. Anyway, Jean taught in private schools for three years and then returned to L.C. and received her diploma in 1968. Congratulations, Jean. I'm sure that was hard to do. We still consider you one of the '64ers, though, as you were with us longer! Then she returned to Collinsville and was the elementary physical education supervisor. This year Jean is the coordinator of the entire physical education program and has been constructing an entire curriculum in lesson plan form for all six grades. Collinsville has never before had elementary P.E., so Jean is doing it. Sounds just great, Jean.

People do read the Bulletin. In the last issue, I asked DOREEN MILLER STACK (Mrs. Denis), 3049 S. Adams, Denver, Colo., 80210, to send me her address; well, she did and a letter to boot! It seems to me that I have given you all the run down on Doreen before, but I've yet to find the box with all old notes and bulletins since the move, so in case I'm wrong, here it is. Doreen graduated in dental hygiene from Iowa in 1964 and went to Denver and worked in the public schools. Married in July, 1966, to Denny who is an attorney for Mountain Bell. They have a six month old, Neal Justin. Thank you for writing.

CARRIE TORGERSON RUPPERT, 4905 Maple Rd., Edina, Minn., 55424, is now a full-time housewife and mother to Eric and a new kerry blue terrier. She retired from retailing about a year ago and since has been occupied with decorating their new home, and, in addition, is taking art and ceramic courses. She has promised to "construct" a goose for me... ring any bells? Good to hear from her and she asked endless questions about many of you, so write to her.

Another surprise, readers! Remember JEAN BURKLAND UDESEN? She, too, responded to the last issue, and her new address is Mrs. Jerry Udesen, 2417 E. 3rd St., Duluth, Minn., 55812. Here is the run down on Jeanie: graduated from Minnesota in '64 and was a member of Pi Beta Phi there; went to Europe and ran into NANCY AMAZEEN GOLDTHWAIT in Vienna; operated a women's clothing store near the U. of Minnesota for three years; married Jerry, who then was a senior in law school, in 1967. They are now living in Duluth, just having moved there from Rochester. Jill, their little girl, is now almost a year old. Jerry works for Jenos, Inc., so keep eating those Jenos' pizza rolls, kids! Now Jeanie is relieved, as she has contributed and can sit back and read without a guilty conscience.

GAIL STIEFEL MITCHELL has stopped working and is now a full-time horse-sitter! She and Joe don't raise, but sell Icelandic ponies, so if any of you are in the market for a pony, Gail may part with one, if you can convince her that you would be a responsible owner. She and Joe spend the weekends discovering new trails around their house in the country. This past summer they went on a safari for three weeks before Gail retired from her job. Now she is through with traveling for a while and happy to be staying home on Jackson Rd., Greenwich, Conn.

ANITA GERKEN, Centre College, Danville, Ky., 40422, has changed not only colleges, but also climates. Last year it was Maine, this year it is the south! She is teaching physical education half time and assisting the dean of women the other half. Sounds interesting and challenging.

JEANNE CRISS GILLISON is still living in California while Chuck is in Vietnam. He returns in July and they hope to R. and R. in Hawaii in February. Jeanne was in Centralia last summer and visited with CINDY COFER BESANT and PRUDY PAINE WHITE who both have young boys. Incidentally, those of you now living in California, Jeanne is the vice president of the Southern California Alumnae Club and she welcomes you to join.

SUZANNE CUNDIFF VITALE has moved and now lives in Minnesota. Help, Suzanne, I saved the picture and Christmas card, but the envelope was thrown out and I don't have your address. Please send it again. Suzanne and Don have two sons, Robert, 3½, and Michael, 10 months. Don is now manager of Financial Planning for 3M and also is teaching a marketing course at Minnesota, so they are busy people. Good to hear from you after so long a time.

NANCY AMAZEEN GOLDTHWAIT and John have a new daughter, Elizabeth Amazeen, who was born on December 15, 1969. Nancy had her in Boston and has already departed for Nassau. They are very happy to be in Nassau and don't envy anyone living in the snow. I have enclosed a picture of Johnny that is now outdated, but I have misplaced a more recent one.

JUDY LEATHERBY BALL was state-side for the Christmas holidays as Punch unfortunately had to be in Germany. I did not see her, but we had three long telephone conversations. She sends everyone her best and would love to play host to any upcoming visits to Puerto Rico this winter. Andrea is now two and I have enclosed a picture of the little dear.

TRILL GREEN GATES and Paul are living in Alexandria, Va., temporarily, while Paul is doing special training with the Dept. of Interior. They have two girls, 20 months and 6 months. I have not seen them yet, but will before they move on and will report on Trill in the next issue.

JUDITH ANNE BEARD and George W.P. Reinhart were recently married and are living at 1022 S. Cooper, Apt. 251, Arlington, Tex., 76010. Judith teaches in the Arlington Independent School District and her husband, Pete, is an architect in Ft. Worth.

CLAIRE GUERRANT ARMEN-TRAUT, is an account executive with Dempsey, Tegeler and Co., in St. Louis and resides at 4433 Remus Dr., Florissant, Mo., 63033.

GAYE GRAVES CRANNELL and her husband visited the Lindenwood campus in December, 1969. Their home is Statesboro, Ga.

That is the news! There isn't much, but it is good to hear from those that are infrequent contributors. Lee and I are fine and love our house and Irish Setter puppy, Morgan, now ten months old. Lee is sailing in a Frostbite Racing Series every Sunday this winter and spends the rest of the week thawing out. We also curl once a week and that is fun, too. I am teaching junior and senior classes this year in high school, and finding it a lot different from teaching in a secretarial school. I must say, though, that this is a lot more fun.

My best to you all and I look forward to more news for the next issue.

MARIT SALVENSEN DEVOLD writes from their new home in Vasteras, Sweden that in September of 1966 she and her family passed through St. Charles on their way to Seattle and had an opportunity to visit the Lindenwood campus. After spending two years in the U.S. they returned to Sweden. The Devolds have two children, Ole who is five, and Aase who is three. Marit reports that every year they have had American friends visiting them and they welcome more. Their new address is: Angelgt. 7, 72348 Vasteras, Sweden.

A very interesting letter arrived from SUSAN NIEDNER GOLDHAMMER, who is now living in Taiwan. After graduating from L.C., Susan worked in Chicago for two years—one year in a private hospital and a second year in Public Health Nursing. In November of 1968 she married the Reverend Maurice Goldhammer, who was in the U.S. on furlough from the mission field in Taiwan. In February of 1969 the Goldhammers returned to Taiwan and expected to stay for another three or four years. Susan writes: "It is quite a challenging life—the hardest part is learning the language. I study with a Taiwanese teacher two hours a day, but it comes so slowly!" Three hours a week Susan teaches English at a local high school. Her husband is involved in work with an established congregation and, also, in a rural village where there is no church and no Christians. They have an American-type home, but Susan says that Americans are still a rarity and sometimes she feels as if she is living in a glass house. Susan would enjoy hearing from BYLLE SNYDER and MARTY WHITE. Word has just been received that Susan and Maurice are parents of a daughter, Elizabeth Suzanna, born Jan. 17, 1970.

I had a delightful letter from MARTY SPARKS LUDDEN and am only sorry that space doesn't permit me to share all of it with you. When Marty wrote this summer she was staying with her parents in Georgia while Dick was stationed in Pearl Harbor as a Lieutenant Weapons Officer aboard the USS Aspre. During Dick's leave they enjoyed a visit with BARBARA CARPENTER REZMER and her family in Huntsville, Ala. Barbara and her husband have three children, Stephen, Eva and Christopher. When Marty wrote, their son, Fred, was two years old and Rich was to have gotten out of the Navy in September of 1969. Their plans for the future were unsettled. Marty wrote that she has enjoyed being a "Navy wife" and they've enjoyed living in various locations. While in Charleston, she worked as a field adviser for the Girl Scouts and after the birth of Fred did volunteer work for Navy Relief. Until we have Marty's new address, she can be reached in care of her parents: Cave Springs, Ga. 30124.

MARIANNE SAWYER KOKE is presently living in Marquette, Mich., while Don is stationed in Vietnam with the Army. After his release in March they plan to go to Wayne State where he will begin work on his Ph.D. Marianne has been teaching in the Humanities Depts. at Northern Michigan University. Still active in theatre, Marianne was coordinator of the laboratory theatre and worked in a number of productions. This year she is Director of Costuming and is also teaching in the drama department.

PAT MERRILL is working in the welfare office in St. Joseph, Mo. She has become quite a bowler and this fall entered a pro tournament. Pat's address is 3926 Pickett Rd., No. 8, St. Joseph, Mo., 64501.

BONNIE ZUMMO ALTHOUSE wrote a very interesting letter: "Am still teaching music theory at the Cleveland Music School Settlement and am organist and director of three choirs at a suburban Episcopal church. These are just my part-time jobs, for my three-year-old son, David, demands most of my time. He's just too anxious to learn everything. I'm still wallowing in the glow of my first trip to Europe which occurred last July when I went to Germany to pick up my brand new VW. From there I drove through Holland and spent two weeks touring England, visiting her marvelous cathedrals and soaking in as much cathedral music as I could. On my return to Germany, from where my car was shipped home, I spent some time in Hamburg, Lubeck, and Bremen, visiting some famous old North German organs. The trip was certainly the most exciting, beautiful and educational three weeks I've ever spent!" Bonnie who lives at 3126 Audubon Blvd., Cleveland, Ohio, 44104, sends greetings to all her friends in the class of '65.

PATRICIA A. SHARPE who lives at 342 N. Oakhurst, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90210, returned to the campus for a short visit on August 19, 1969.

GLENDIA GERRED GARNER is the secretary to the Corporate Secretary of Marion Laboratories, Inc., Kansas City, Mo. She and her husband reside at 7511 East 111th Terrace.

HELEN JO HUNT LARSON and her husband, Donald, have just completed their new home at No. 5 Hunt St., Towanda, Ill. Helen Jo is teaching art at Illinois State University and completing work on her doctorate in art education. Don is a contractor and president of Larson & Larson Building Corporation. Helen Jo says she enjoyed the December issue of the Bulletin and would like to visit Lindenwood some weekend to see all of the changes.

Do keep writing! I apologize for my laxness as your secretary this fall, but my mother was seriously ill, and Julie (who was two years old on New Year's Eve) and I flew home to Iowa for six weeks to be with her. I am still substitute teaching and giving piano lessons, and Denny is enjoying his work. I hope to hear from all of you sometime this year.

LINDA K. EPPING writes that she is a stewardess for Delta Air Lines. When she is not flying, home is at 1347 N. Dearborn, Apt. 207, Chicago, Ill. 60610.

MARY NOSS ELDRED is taking graduate work in counseling at Drake University in Des Moines. After leaving Lindenwood she completed her undergraduate education at Drake and in May, 1968 she married John A. Eldred. The Eldreds reside at 1134 31st St., Apt. 7, Des Moines, Ia.

MARY ELLEN GROOM PRINE, who graduated from MacMurray College, was married to Edward Prine in October, 1965. While her husband was stationed at Fort Wolters, Texas, Mary Ellen taught in the Army Education Center. After fulfilling his military obligation the Prines moved back to Belleville, Ill., where Ed is employed with Volkswagen. On May 28, 1969, a daughter, Tracy Lynn, was born to the Prines. Mary Ellen says, "For those members of class of '66 who remember Siegfried, my dachshund, who used to come see me at school—he's still around—but Ed and I now have our own Dachsie—a miniature named Bambi's Boo Boo."

If anyone knows the address of Julie Strong, Susie Bristow, and Louise Garnett, please forward them on to Mary Ellen and to the Alumnae Office.

M. JUDITH BOSWELL BROEKER teaches fourth grade English in O'Fallon, Mo. and in addition has a year-old-daughter that keeps her very busy. The Broekers make their home at 1215 Hillcrest, St. Charles, Mo.

A busy housewife is the occupation for LINDA GERARD PANCRATZ. Linda, James, Brad and Todd reside at 302 W. 8th St., Hinsdale, Ill., 60521. Linda received her B.A. in 1966 from the University of Iowa where she majored in education of the physically handicapped. Last August Linda and her husband enjoyed a visit from her L.C. roommate, PAT AGER SITZMAN and her family—husband, Bob, and daughter, Shelley, age two. "Such fun we had talking, talking, talking."

Class Secretary
Sally Nield Nidergerke
(Mrs. Thomas)
1451 Luce St.
Cape Girardeau, Mo. 63701

Classmates! Please send me your news! I've received lovely letters from many of you, but not the majority! We are all anxious to renew old friendships and to learn of each other's activities, so please consider this a personal invitation to write. It only takes a minute! Letters are due by June 1.

PEGGY REID who attended Lindenwood for two years, transferred to Boston University where she received her B.A. in English. She was married Nov. 29, 1969, to Lt. (j.g.) Dayton Ogden, USNR, a Yale graduate who is from Peg's hometown. Dayton is presently in the Navy and will shortly be leaving for an assignment in Vietnam. The Ogdens are now living in San Francisco. Peg may be contacted by writing to her parents' address: Jeliff Mill Rd., New Canaan, Conn. 06840.

JANE FOSTER LOFTUS writes that Pat is flying planes for the Air Force. Since he is often gone, Jane is continuing to work for the welfare agency and has also taken up sewing. She said Pat has been able to acquire some gorgeous pieces of European furniture at some real bargains. One treasure is a grandfather clock.

LIBBY DIERKING is living in St. Louis and teaching music in O'Fallon where she is in charge of the Junior High band. The kids are really working for her. They have memorized the chromatic scale! Libby's address is 10523 Chevy Chase Dr. Apt. 4, Overland, Mo. 63114.

CATHY MOYER attended Lindenwood for one year and then worked for awhile before marrying Bob Van Slobig. After living in Okinawa for a year, Bob and Cathy returned to the U.S. where Bob was recently discharged from the service. They have a little boy named Mike who is nearly two years old. Cathy would love to hear from you at: 1014 Lake Ave., Wilmette, Ill. 60091.

CAROL LENKE wrote that after graduating from Lindenwood in Dec. of 1967, she lived in St. Louis for a year. She is presently working in the Chicago area for a real estate firm and expects to have her broker's license soon. In addition, she has been an active participant in the Chicago Lindenwood Club; has acquired hours for her pilot's license; traveling; and sewing. She writes that she is planning a ski trip to Colorado this winter, so she really has been a busy gal! Her address is 840 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Carol ran into LOUISE SYMMES on Alumnae Day. Louise is a real estate saleswoman in Indianapolis. Both girls agreed that it is a wonderful profession as you are free to dictate your own hours. You may write to Louise at 6445 N. Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind., 46260.

Carol also saw LISLE WESTBROOK at Northern Illinois University where she is working on her master's degree in education. The girls were able to go to a concert the college was holding and they said it brought back memories of Lindenwood mixers! (I wonder what kinds of memories!)

After attending Lindenwood for two years, MISSY TURNER went to Texas Christian University where she graduated with a degree in commercial art. Last June she was married to Bob Stanwood who also graduated from T.C.U. Their address is 2501 Lazy Hollow 249B, Houston, Texas, 77042.

Missy wrote that LINNEA REUTER-DAHL FULSHER who attended Lindenwood for one year and who was Missy's roommate, participated in her wedding and was invaluable! Linnea has a son, Joey, who keeps her mighty busy, but she also has time to attend classes at Western Michigan University.

Missy also wrote that LEA VIVIAN, MARGARET PRESSLER, and MARTI CONNOLLY are working and sharing an apartment together in Alexandria, Va. Margaret spent her summer in Europe.

LOURDES TRIANA called me from Washington, D.C. to say that she is a mathematician for the telephone company there. She sends her regards to all.

LAURIE RHODES PARKER is still teaching speech in the Hazelwood school district but has moved to a new location—Howderschell Junior High. She really loves her job and the kids. Another Lindenwood alum from the class of '67, KATHY KIRBY, is teaching biology at the same school. Laurie's address is 825 Cole Blvd., St. Charles, Mo. 63301.

Laurie received a letter from SALLY RUSSELL DE VORE, who attended Lindenwood for two years. Dick is a Navy pilot and spent seven weeks in Cuba, but was home for Thanksgiving. Sally is doing clerical work for the Brown and Sharpe Precision Tool Co. The De Vores' address is 11 Glenwood Dr., No. Kingstown, R.I. 02852.

COOKIE JONES WHITE, who attended Lindenwood her freshman year, returned to St. Charles with her husband, Russ, and her daughter Darra for the Thanksgiving holidays. Russ graduated from college and is now a budget analyst for General Dynamics. Cookie has retired from her secretarial job and is enjoying the relaxation (?) of just being a housewife! The Whites have moved to a larger home at 1408 Weiler, Apt. No. 46, Fort Worth, Tex., 76112.

Cookie brought news of JAN AIKEN ROGERS with her on her St. Charles visit. She said Jan, Rudy, and their daughter are living in Texas, about 20 minutes away from the Whites, and due to the Lindenwood Alumnae News, they found each other. Rudy is employed by the telephone company in Hurst, Texas.

PEGGY SAPP completed graduate school at the end of the summer session and received her master's degree from Oklahoma University. She is now the librarian for the Oklahoma Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped which serves the entire state of Oklahoma. Peggy is living at 732 S. Lahoma, Norman, Okla., 74354.

JEANNE ALEXANDER visited the Lindenwood campus in January. Jeanne graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Oklahoma State University and is presently working towards her master's degree at the University of Oklahoma.

LINDA LOWRY sent news of her marriage to Dennis D. Romley on August 22, 1969. Linda is teaching the first grade in San Mateo. The Romleys live at 559 Barron Ave., Palo Alto, Calif., 94306.

Ann Lohrman Knichel
(Mrs. William)
1128 North Main — Apt. No. 1
O'Fallon, Mo. 63366

BECKY ACHELPOHL became the wife of Lt. William J. Shaw on Saturday, Dec. 20, 1969. The couple is residing in Indianapolis, Ind. where Lt. Shaw is attending Army Finance School. Following his course there, the Shaws will move to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

JANET BARBOUR is in Boston, Mass. at Perkins School for the Blind where she is studying for her master's degree in Special Education at Boston College at the same time. She says the program finishes in July, but she has no idea where she will go from there.

WENDY DAVIS is living in Arlington, Va. and is employed as a film editor at WMAL-TV in Washington, D.C. She just loves the work and the people.

CAROL BOLLINGER was married to Lt. Thomas C. Harrington on Nov. 15, 1969. Tom is stationed in Germany at Ramstein AFB for three years and Carol has gone to Germany to join him. She hopes to hear from her friends. Her address is: Mrs. Thomas C. Harrington, OLA, 5th Aerial Port Squadron, CMR Box 1924, APO New York 09009. Carol, also, says that she would be delighted for anyone to stop in and see her if they happen to be in the neighborhood.

A letter from CATHY BITELY THOMAS to LINDA GRANGER McCORMICK brought news that Cathy and her husband, Steve, are expecting another child in June. Steve is presently in the Navy stationed in the Mediterranean. Cathy and their 19-month-old son, Chuckie, are back in Rome, N.Y.

Another letter to Linda comes from CARY HAHN who is now Station Manager for the Armed Forces Radio Station aboard the USS Hancock, off the coast of Vietnam. His address is: JO3 Gary J. Hahn B530408, X-Division, USS Hancock CVA-19, San Francisco, Calif. 96601.

LINDA GRANGER McCORMICK writes that she is working for the Army at the Mobility Equipment Command in St. Louis. She is in a management intern program. She has also been writing for the L.C. magazine on the history of Lindenwood. Linda would like to know if anyone has anything they would like to know about the history of Lindenwood to let her know and she will gladly take care of it. She can be reached at 22 Marquette Mobile Village, St. Charles, Mo. 63301, phone 724-6349.

JAYNE RIDDLE McCOY was married in May. Her husband is stationed in Korea and Jayne is presently employed by the South Arkansas Mental Health Center as a psychiatric therapist. She seems to be enjoying her work very much.

ANN SILVA writes that since graduation she has had two jobs. One as a salesgirl at Montaldo's in St. Louis. She is presently working for the Missouri State Welfare Division as a caseworker in the investigation unit. She really enjoys this job and hopes to stay in St. Louis for awhile.

HOLLY VINCE was married Dec. 27, 1969 to James V. Bohnenstichl. They are living in St. Louis where Holly is employed at the Washington University School of Medicine. Her address is: 3010 Pope Allen Lane, East St. Louis, Ill. 62201.

LIZ WARREN writes that she is in graduate school at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., where she is majoring in English history. She is planning a trip this summer to Spain "just to groove around and rest."

KATHY LEE ALEXANDER was married to Eugene V. Heisl July 26, 1969, at the First Baptist Church in Mt. Vernon, Mo. After honeymooning in the Bahamas they are living at 13636 Maham Rd., Dallas, Tex., 75221.

DIANE ELAINE SINGER is currently enrolled in the Goucher College graduate program in elementary school teaching and at the end of the one-year program will receive the degree of master of education.

ANN HOLLAND STAMBAUGH graduated from Southern Methodist U. in May where she majored in elementary education and history. She writes that she will always have fond memories of her two years spent at Lindenwood. In the fall of '69 Ann toured the Orient with her parents. She hopes to teach in the spring of '70.

Two graduates of the Class of '69 had articles published in the Journal of Physical Chemistry and the Journal of Nuclear Medicine. Jane Seck was the author of an article entitled "Tracer Studies with Radioactive Oxygen-15" and Patricia Penkoske's article was "Clinical Chemistry of the Tin-Indium Generator."

Mrs. Van Buschart Haviland was accepted to study at Eden Seminary in September, 1969, and is working for a master's degree in Christian Education.

SALLY SCUDDER WOLFSBERGER visited the campus on November 6, 1969. Sally and husband, J.R., live at Box 316M, Rt. 4, Rolla, Mo., 65401.

Penny Harrison is living at a new address now—2214 Washington Ave., Apt. No. 35, Racine, Wis., 53405. She writes, "All is fine and my job is a lot of fun. I really miss everybody."

JANEL UNDERWOOD was married to Terry Buck on Oct. 4, 1969 and they are living in Rolla, Mo.

BERNADETTE JACKSON was married to Howard McLain on June 9, 1969, and they are now living in St. Peters, Mo. Bernadette is teaching at Ft. Zumwalt High School in O'Fallon, Mo.

Your class secretary became Mrs. William Knichel on Dec. 27, 1969. We are living in O'Fallon, Mo., and I am also teaching at Ft. Zumwalt High School in O'Fallon.

PRISCILLA BENSBERG of Marshall, Mo., was awarded the highest scholarship award of the 1969 graduating class of the Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing in St. Louis. Priscilla spent her freshman year on the Lindenwood campus and then went to Deaconess Hospital for three years. She is now back at Lindenwood for her senior year.

SUSAN VAN VLACK LIERLEY writes that she and Michael are the parents of a baby daughter, Kristen. Michael is completing pilot training at Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, Texas, and is awaiting assignment to a permanent base and aircraft.

LINDENWOOD IBIS

Dear Alumnae:

This is the first year for the IBIS, the student newspaper of The Lindenwood Colleges. It reflects the change and growth of your college. It is a dynamic paper dealing with the real issues that face so many of today's students. But as any young paper, it needs your support. We are asking the alumnae to subscribe to and read the IBIS. Keep up with your campus and find out what's really happening. For the remaining semester we are offering a reduced rate of $2. Don't wait, subscribe today. You'll be glad you did.

QUICK COOKS

The Lindenwood Alumnae recipe file is now published and available from the creators, the Oklahoma City Alum Club.

The price is $3.00 each or two for $5.00 and includes packaging and mailing costs.

We've printed 350 copies and over 100 are sold so hurry and order yours today.

They make delightful gifts.

Over 150 super time-saving recipes recorded on 4x6 cards with dividers in blueberry, lemon, lime and watermelon. The clever designs make it an addition to your kitchen bookshelf or recipe file.

It includes Dr. McCluer's famous coconut pie. Dr. Clevenger's wild greens dinner; and other alum's favorite recipes from Alaska to Florida.

What a delectable way to help your alma mater—all proceeds go to the L.C. Alumnae Association, of course.

Do you suppose we can plan a 2nd edition in a few years? Help it come true!

Intervisitation

the President's Council feels that there could be intervisitation in the men's residence hall without adverse impact on Lindenwood College for Women. The men students overwhelmingly favor the idea; and many of them feel that they should not be denied the privilege because the women have withdrawn their request.

The leadership of the men students has also acted in good faith; they believe there must be differences between the colleges and that this privilege should be one of them."

In response the administration stated that: "The right decision can only be the one which relates positively to the mission of The Lindenwood Colleges..."

"We see the mission of the college to be (1) a realistic and honest response to the educational needs of this generation, (2) therefore, a program of examination working toward solutions to current social and intellectual issues, and (3) consequently, an investigation of the changes of our times rather than a drifting with the tide. Put more simply, The Lindenwood Colleges did not create the change in social behavior and social attitudes which have placed such an issue before us, and we do not propose to turn our backs on them. Nor can we allow those changes to rule us. To discover our capacity for guiding our own destiny requires not abandonment to change, but mastery of it.

We see these social changes, left to themselves, as productive of confusion and insecurity. In an age when institutions, codes, and social pressures have lost their force, the availability of nearly unlimited opportunities for experimentation and innovation may undermine the basis for responsible human relationships.... Freedom - absolute freedom to do 'one's own thing' - creates an infinity of choice quite beyond the ability of many people. They stop deciding what to do and do the popular, the 'in' thing. They are caught by what Erich Fromm long ago called 'the ambiguity of freedom.'

While the relationships between young men and women are personal and not the concern of the college, a campus policy imposing the pressures of current social change on all students is inescapably a college responsibility. It stacks the cards in favor of the so-called 'new morality.' The impact of the moral drift in our times is part of our concern as a college which involves its students in realities. We see the institution of a policy for intervisitation at this time, at either college, as abandonment to the drift itself. We see it as creating a style of life on this campus which would defeat us in our mission...."

"...We choose, therefore, to maintain the privacy of dormitory rooms. We ask those students who have chosen to study with us to enter into the intellectual and social life of The Lindenwood Colleges in such a way that they may find their direction in these changing times. We ask those students who will be coming to study here to accept the pattern of social order which we think necessary if we are to carry out our mission. Those who find this policy too restrictive should realize that they probably came to the wrong school for them, that they may be better off in a larger institution. We have not abridged their freedom to go elsewhere; they should not abridge our freedom here to refuse to be like everywhere else."

President Brown said that the administration's decision to reject dormitory intervisitation would remain in effect this year and the next, at least.

Do You Have A Gift In Your Attic?

The new Fine Arts Building on the Lindenwood campus is a magnificent structure which has been in constant use since its completion in September 1969. It is used by students, faculty, and guests for drawing, painting, sculpturing, dance, lectures, faculty meetings, open houses, and a thousand other projects. The lovely gallery area lends itself for art exhibits and receptions.

Lindenwood has many needs, most of which take money, but there are also items that many people have in their attics or just don't use anymore which could be used for receptions in the new art building. There has been a lack of funds to purchase items, such as: a large glass punch bowl; punch cups; glass plates; silver trays; coffee and tea service; silver ladle and any other serving pieces; tablecloths suitable for receptions; large set of fire tongs and andirons; large coffeemaker (50 to 100 cup); a set of flat silverplate; and any cups, saucers and plates that match.

Alumnae, search your attics and basements to see if you might have any of these items. All of us have White Elephants just laying around that the college could put to good use. Remember, your gift is tax deductible. Send your White Elephant to the Alumnae Office, The Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. 63301.

"Man of the Years" Dr. Homer Clevenger

A retired member of the Lindenwood faculty, Dr. Homer Clevenger, was named the 1969 "Man of the Years" by the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Clevenger was honored for his outstanding contributions to the City of St. Charles over the past quarter century.

A combat veteran of World War I, he was an educator all his life and joined the Lindenwood faculty in 1941. He became actively involved in community affairs and was elected Mayor of St. Charles in 1945 and served for six years.

Former Lindenwood students will remember him well as their Professor of the Department of History. Dr. Clevenger and his wife, a Lindenwood graduate, have continued to reside in St. Charles since his retirement in 1968, but will soon be moving to Orrick, Mo. The Clevenger's daughter, Ann '58, is now Mrs. Earl Ray and resides with her husband and two children in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The graduates are: Janet Barbour, Boston University; Candy Buss, University of Illinois; Sherri Dennis, University of Texas; Anne Doherty, Ohio State University; Margaret Crawford, Oklahoma State University; Elise Donaldson, University of Delaware; Van Haviland, Eden Seminary; Julie Hendren, East Texas State University; Mary Ellen Heslop, University of Missouri; Christine Hinton, Southern Illinois University; Tricia Holder, Trinity University; Mrs. Carolyn Holliday, Washington University; Brenda Johnson, Kansas State University; Sue Josephson, University of Iowa; Donna McCaslin, Ohio State University; Patricia McKibbin, University of Illinois; Patricia Penkoske, University of Wisconsin; Meredith Reichel, University

April 4 — First Two '69 Grads Have Nationwide Alumnae Research Published Day

Plans for the first nationwide Lindenwood College Alumnae Day are now in gear. Alumnae Clubs from New York to Los Angeles will be host to alumnae and prospective students in their respective cities - all to be held on Saturday, April 4, 1970. These programs are being sponsored in an effort to bring as many alumnae together as possible, as well as to assist Lindenwood College for Women in the recruiting of prospective students. Students who are presently enrolled at Lindenwood will, also, be on hand to inform alumnae and prospective students of campus life and to answer any questions. Alumnae who are not members of the club in their city, but who are interested in attending one of these programs should contact the club president for further information: ATLANTA, GEORGIA - Mrs. Thomas A. Misses Jane Seck and Patricia Penkoske, chemistry majors, did laboratory work during their senior year which can be read in the Journal of Physical Chemistry and the Journal of Nuclear Medicine.

Jane Seck was one of the authors of an article entitled "Tracer Studies with Radioactive Oxygen-15", a result of a January term project done last year. Miss Seck graduated in May 1969 with highest honors in chemistry. She was the first Lindenwood student accepted for appointment to the Summer Students Program at Brookhaven National Laboratory, where she served as a research assistant during the summers of 1968 and 1969. She is currently pursuing graduate studies in chemistry at the University of California in San Diego.

Miss Penkoske, who graduated magna cum laude from Lindenwood in May 1969, was one of the authors of "Clinical Chemistry of the Tin-Indium Generator." She is the recipient of a Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship and is currently a research assistant in the Department of Molecular Biology at the University of Wisconsin.

Graduate Placement Service

The Lindenwood College Placement Service is available to all graduates through the Office of Continuing Education and Career Planning. Most employer requests for qualified candidates come from the Greater St. Louis area. Any graduate who wishes to change employment and would like assistance in establishing contacts may write Dean Mary Lichliter, Office of Continuing Education, Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri 63301 or call 314-724-6460.

1. A Reminder: The recommendations and credentials of graduates are on file at Lindenwood and will be sent to a prospective employer or graduate school whenever requested by the candidate.

2. These credentials may be kept up-to-date by requesting each employer to send letters of recommendation to the Office of Continuing Education.

3. If a student attends graduate school she may either ask her professors to send recommendations to Lindenwood to be included in her file, or Lindenwood will be happy to supplement the placement papers of the university office with a student's undergraduate credentials.

4. In general, if a student has an advanced degree it is better to use the placement service of the university in which she has done her graduate work.

5. The student's transcript is a part of her credentials and there is no charge at any time for this service. Please contact this office.

6. One of the most important aspects of a placement service is the follow-up program and it is hoped that all graduates will reply promptly to follow-up surveys and will take the initiative at other times in notifying the placement service of a new address or change of employment or status.
