LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY HONOR ROLL OF DONORS 1997

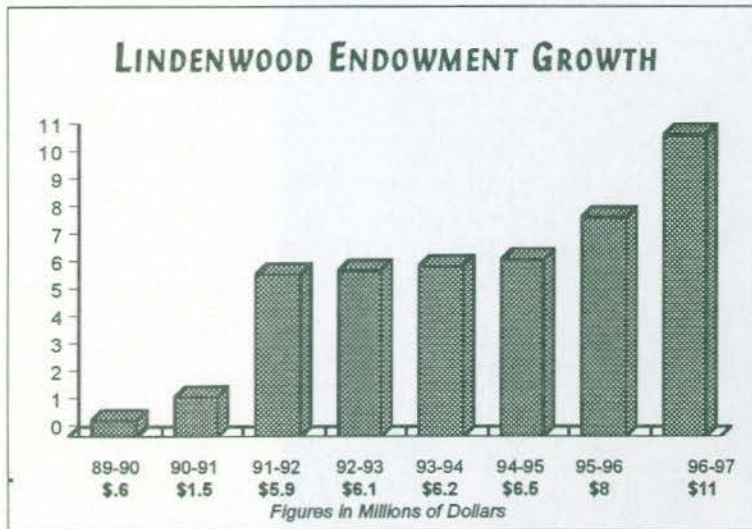

November 7, 1997: CBS Newsman Charles Osgood and LU Board Chairman Raymond Harmon burn the note on the Robert F. Hyland Performance Arena. LU President Dennis Spellmann, Board Treasurer John Hammond and St. Louis Broadcasting Personality Anne Keefe look on.

*Your generosity helped make this possible!
Thanks!
we! Bellman*

Lindenwood is Debt-Free!

On the evening of November 7, 1997, Lindenwood President Dennis Spellmann and Chairman of the Board of Directors Raymond Harmon "burned the note" on the Hyland Performance Arena, and proclaimed Lindenwood University a debt-free institution. Nearly 1000 people were on hand to celebrate with us, and to pay tribute to Lindenwood's late board chairman, Robert F. Hyland.

Lindenwood's debt-free status is unique among institutions of higher learning. That, combined with Lindenwood's phenomenal success over the past decade, makes Lindenwood the fastest-growing college or university in the state of Missouri.

Annual Giving

July 1, 1996 through June 30, 1997

The growth of Lindenwood University can be measured in many ways.

One of the best measures of confidence in Lindenwood's future has been the growth of its endowment fund over the past several years. Gifts and additions to our endowment exceeded over $3 million for the year just completed.

Friends and alumni made gifts to establish memorial scholarship funds, endowed convocation awards, and for general support of the University.

Lindenwood is thankful for the generosity of our friends, alumni and corporate partners during 1996-97. As the breadth and depth of support for our university continues to grow, Lindenwood is able to provide more educational opportunities for its students and thus, our community.

Investment for the Future:

$20 Million by 2000

Our goal is to build the Lindenwood University endowment fund to $20 million by the year 2000.

A strong, healthy endowment is essential to the financial stability of an independent institution; it provides flexibility in financial planning.

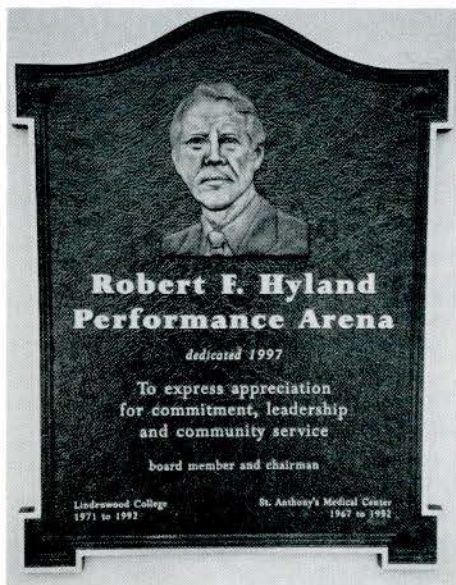

Gifts to the endowment can be made in several forms, including named scholarships and honors convocation awards. These gifts are wonderful opportunities to honor a loved one and help a current Lindenwood student.

ENDOWMENT REPORT AS OF OCTOBER 18, 1997

Goal for June 30, 2000 -- $20 million

Performance Arena Completed

This commemorative plaque is mounted at the lower entrance of the new Robert F. Hyland Performance Arena.

The dream is now a reality. After years of planning and 18 months under construction, the Lindenwood University Performance Arena opened in the fall of 1996 with fanfare. The arena is the culmination of Lindenwood's largest building campaign in history, the result of years of hard work and commitment from hundreds of people.

Students, faculty and staff were the honored guests at the first open house and tour of the arena in mid-October. While the Lindenwood Jazz Combo played, student body president Darian Westerfield and Lindenwood President Dennis Spellmann cut the ribbon to officially open the arena. A week later, hundreds of Lindenwood's neighbors and community leaders gathered in the arena to celebrate the opening.

In November, representatives from St. Anthony's Medical Center and Unity Health Care Systems presented a generous gift to the arena, which was officially named the Robert F. Hyland Performance Arena after the university's late board chairman. Following a festive reception in the VIP Room, guests relaxed in the 240-seat Luxury Skybox Pavilion, where they were entertained by a very special performance. Lindenwood's modern dancers performed "Sleeping Seals," a dance choreographed by assistant professor of dance Alice Bloch.

The arena opened for athletic use in time for the women's volleyball team to play their last few games of the season there. The men's and women's' basketball teams played their entire seasons in the spectacular new sports center.

In the year following the grand opening, Lindenwood has hosted several big events in the arena and VIP Room, including the Boy Scout Executive Council luncheon, receptions for our guests from Thailand and Panama at Commencement, and the biggest event of all, the Gala Celebration and Tribute to Robert F. Hyland this past fall. The largest sit-down dinner ever held in St. Charles County, Lindenwood hosted nearly 1,000 guests and featured celebrity speakers Bob Costas, Jack Buck, Charles Osgood, Dan Dierdorf, Jim White, and Anne Keefe.

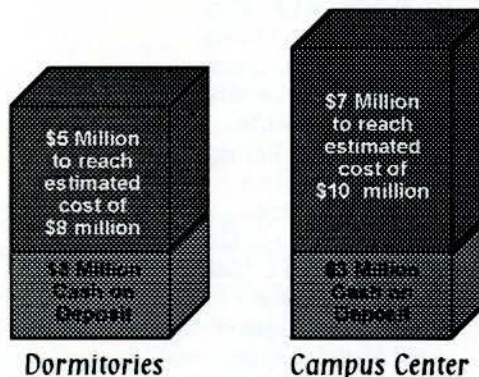

Corporate partners, private citizens, friends and alumni of the university have all been instrumental in the building of this facility. Gifts to the Performance Arena, combined with effective cost management, have helped to bring in a beautiful building well within budget.

Looking To The Future...

Now, Lindenwood University is looking to the future and the start of another capital campaign to build a new student center with cafeteria and one or two new residence halls.

Plans for these new buildings are still evolving, but one thing is certain: These new buildings will be designed to complement the beautiful architecture of University's other historic buildings, successfully blending the Lindenwood of yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

CONSTRUCTION REPORT AS OF OCTOBER 18, 1997 Goal -- $18 million

Butler Society

"I will stand by you to the last button on my vest."

- Colonel James G. Butler

The Butler Society is named for Colonel James G. and Margaret Leggat Butler, Lindenwood's most generous supporters during the 1900's. Because of their generosity, Ayres, Butler and Niccolls halls were built and funds from the Butler estate led to construction of Roemer and Irwin Halls, Butler Library, the Gables and Eastlick residence. Today, the Butler Society honors a distinguished group of loyal friends who have followed in the Butlers' footsteps by committing their resources to promote the rich heritage of Lindenwood and to support its vision for the future.

The Society recognizes those who plan for Lindenwood's future by including the College in their estate, by making a gift of a paid up insurance policy, or by donating planned gifts such as trusts, annuities, etc. It is possible for every loyal alum and friend of the university to join this prestigious society. We know that many of you have already done so, and we would like to honor your commitment to Lindenwood. Join us in this celebration. Call the Lindenwood University Office of Institutional Advancement at (314) 949-4903 today and join us as we build the Lindenwood University of the future!

The Honor Roll of Donors represents the generosity of Lindenwood friends and alumni during the past year.
