LINDENWOOD
WELCOMES

Traditions

and Customs

TRADITIONS AND CUSTOMS

Hello — and welcome to Lindenwood, to a happy combination of organization and spontaneity, to a land of living! We're glad that you've come; the time hustles and bustles by, so let's make the most of it — let's work hard when we work and play hard when we play. So that we can all get to know you, school tradition calls for several little gatherings during the first weeks of school. There'll be pajama parties in your dorm, perhaps a baseball game in St. Louis, shopping trips, dormitory sings, street suppers, and a retreat to the ovens. Your new outfits will be proper for the receptions, but be sure to bring along those Bermudas for the street suppers.

When October comes, Lindenwood ladies kick off their heels and settle down to classes, field trips, and the college picnics. But don't pack away your formals — the year is just beginning. October brings not only falling leaves to be classified, but also the Student Council date dance. Hallowe'en finds all Lindenwood shivering outside Sibley Chapel, awaiting the twelve o'clock haunting of Mrs. Sibley's ghost, After a ghostly concert on the Sibley organ, Mrs. Sibley retires to the graveyard and Lindenwood to the gym where the Student Council party is going on.

November brings mid-term tests, the fall play, freshman style show, and Freshman Harvest Court whose queen is crowned before guests at an all campus formal dance — the Harvest Ball. Then with a dash and a whirl, it's Thanksgiving. Some pull out their suitcases and head for home; some stay for Lindenwood's dinner. No promises — but it might snow! If so, we'll have a hilarious time slipping, sliding down the golf course hills.

December means Christmas time! There's a wonderful hurry of shopping, decorating, dorm-singing, and a kind of "glow" feeling of fun and goodness. Lindenwood girls make and send gifts to those in need in St. Louis. In the dining room, we have our Christmas dinner party, and there are midnight dorm parties. On the night of our departure, candlelight carollers of the Sophomore Class send "Silent Night" floating through the night air.

It may seem hard for you to leave home again after vacation, but never fear — the new year at Lindenwood brings more fun than finals. Study is in order before we begin the new semester, but you'll forget your worries for a while when you're at the W.R.A. Barn Dance. And then, first thing you know, the week is over, and you're laughing at your fears.

February is a busy month at L.C. The post officie staff is working overtime in an effort to get that candy in your box by Valentine's Day, and the florists' trucks come up the drive all day long with red roses for some of you. There's a Romeo to be chosen for the Linden Bark contest, so be sure to bring the best picture of "that man" back with you in January. Winter clothes are still in vogue for February but somehow, there's a touch of spring in the dresses you'll wear to the Sweetheart Ball. We have a Valentine Queen too — a member of the Sophomore class who'll be crowned with her court at the dance. And right after this, the Sophomores will be moaning softly over tests, but don't worry, they're not for you. February brings Religion and Life Week too, and Lindenwood, with the help of distinguished speakers, turns to an evaluation of itself and its place as a Christian College.

You'll know when the Ides of March hit — the faculty members pale and shake whenever a member of Press Club goes by. It's time for the annual Gridiron Show, and usually brave professors quail before the prospect of the sadistic student laughter that will ring in their ears at the Gridiron's portrayal of faculty life. And before you know it— we're hiping and hurrayng; it's Spring Vacation.

April brings spring clothes, elections, Honors Day, and we see the Juniors and Seniors don their "fancy riggin's" and leave for the Prom.

Suddenly, it's May — a whirl of picnics, suntans, Parents' Weekend — May Fete — Lindenwood Horse Show — May Play, and the spring style show. Perhaps you'll be willed something by one of your Senior friends on Will Day. On Pin Day, the Seniors pin the Juniors, and all of us feel "a little funny inside" as they sing "Remember." Then it's Baccalaureate with the academic procession and, the next day, weather permitting, the traditional Commencement procession of the Lindenwood Seniors down from Roemer Hall to their graduation on the lawn in front of Sibley.

We tell the Seniors goodbye, take our finals, and the year is over. You'll be sorry to leave your friends, but your trunks are packed, and summer will provide many a tale to be told while you're unpacking the following fall.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE SONGS

THE ALMA MATER

O Lindenwood to you we sing
Our Alma Mater dear.
For in the years you'll hear our cheers,
Forgetfulness ne're fear
And when we go out in the world,
Our love for you will be unfurl'd.
O Lindenwood, we are so true,
For always we'll love you.

REMEMBER

(Senior Class Song)

Remember the days you've spent here,
Remember when you're away,
Remember the friends you've made here
And don't forget to come back someday;
Remember the old traditions
And promise to be true.
For you all belong to Lindenwood
And Lindenwood belongs to you!

LINDENWOOD PEP SONG

Give a cheer for Lindenwood
And may she ever be
Great—for those who sing her praises
Bound by loyalty.
Rah! L. C.
Raise the flag of gold and white
And may we win her fame
Proud to hail our alma mater
Lindenwood acclaim.

LINDENWOOD SONG

Lindenwood, our Alma Mater
We will stand by thee,
We will fight and fail you never to eternity.
We will love you until the end,
You know that it's you we'll defend
So, hail, hail, the gang's all here,
And we're loyal to you L. C. (1)

Always forward
We'll be on top.
Always forward
We will never stop.
Hit 'em high, hit 'em low
Come on L. C. - let's go —
(Repeat to 1)

LINDENWOOD FOREVER (Tune - Yankee Doodle)

For her we'll fight
For her we'll stand
For her we will endeavor
Of all the colleges in the land
It's Lindenwood forever.

It isn't Wellesley or Bryn Mawr
It isn't Smith, no never
Of all the colleges in the land
It's Lindenwood forever.

AYERS HALL

Oh I've lived on the earth
And I've lived in the world
But I never thought of the gates of pearl
But when I got there in the dead of night
Everything was gold and white.
St. Peter saw me and he confessed
I see, my dears, you're one of the best.
So put up your sails and sail right through
Cause Mrs. St. Peter lived in Ayres Hall, too!

BUTLER HALL

Now when a Butler girl walks down the street
She looks one hundred per from head to feet
She's got that smile, that syle, that winning way
And when you look at her you'll recognize her and you'll say

Now there's a girl I'd like to know
She's got that good old Butler pep and go
And when you look at her it's quite a treat
She can't be beat - A Butler girl.

COBBS HALL

Rally, rally, rally, rally yellow and white
It's Cobbs Hall
It's Cobbs Hall
Raly, rally, rally, rally yellow and white
It's Cobbs Hall
It's Cobbs Hall
It is the best dorm
Cause it is our dorm
It is the best dorm
So rally, rally Cobbs Hall, Cobbs Hall, Cobbs Hall
Cobbs Hall

IRWIN HALL

Friends, friends, friends, we will ever be
Whether in fair or in dark stormy weather
We'll stand or we'll fall together
For Irwin Hall, we will ere be true
Our bonds celebrating
Till death separating
Irwin Hall, to you!

NICCOLLS HALL

Stand up and cheer,
Stand up and cheer for dear old Niccolls
Cheer loud and long for dear old Niccolls.
For today we'll say
That Niccolls Hall's above all others.
The happy halls now are ringing,
With laughter, song and cheer
We got the girls, rah! rah!
We got the boys, ha! ha! ha!
Hurrah for Niccolls Hall.

SIBLEY HALL

We are from Sibley
Sibley are we
We never lose our pep-ability
Rah! Rah! Rah!
We do our best
To help the rest
We are the Sibleygirls

Lindenwood College
Student Association

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to college, especially to your college, Lindenwood.

College offers a unique adventure where each day brings growth, excitement, interaction of people and ideas, stimulation—and downright good fun. We are sincerely happy that you have decided to share these experiences here with us at Lindenwood.

We pride ourselves in an Honor System and in a self-government. This dual system, you will soon learn, is proof that we are respected as responsible, mature individuals.

It won't be long now until September, a time when we will meet and get to know one another. I hope you're looking forward to it as much as I am.

Sincerely,

TERRY ROSS

President, Lindenwood College Student Association

Lindenwood College Student Association

Student government and the active participation of every student at Lindenwood in that government, is an integral part of college life. While this association has a very immediate effect on the campus, the long-range purpose of any student government is to develop in those students who live under it a better fitness for a mature and responsible role in adult life. It was with this purpose in mind that the Student Council was established.

The Student Council of Lindenwood College is composed of representative students who constitute the governing group of the student body. They legislate on all matters pertaining to the social regulations in community life, subject to the approval by the Administrative Committee. The Student Council meets on Monday evening and any member of the student body is welcome to attend.

Each student upon entrance becomes a member of the Lindenwood College Student Association. By virtue of this fact, she accepts both the privilege and the obligation of self government. It is only when each student realizes that she plays a role in the government of her college that this form of self-rule can be representative and effective.

Student participation and cooperation is shown by means of the following:

1. By keeping in touch with her student council representative. It is only through such contact that the members of the Student Council can actively represent the student body.
2. By making use of the suggestion box in Cobbs Lounge.
3. By serving on Student Council committees.
4. By attending Tuesday morning Student Assembly. Students are held responsible for all information given out at that time.
5. By knowing and keeping the regulations of the community.
6. By maintaining the standard of behavior in keeping with the reputation and ideal of the college.
7. By developing attitudes of self-discipline, self-respect and consideration for others.
8. By cooperating to the fullest extent with the duly constituted Hall Officers in the regulating and maintaining student self-government in the dormitories.

The College is a community of friends working together for a common purpose — the all-around education of its members. The student officers, elected by their fellows because they respect and trust them, are always ready to help with any problem. If you need help for yourself or for others, you should seek such aid with confidence in their sincere interest and sympathetic understanding.

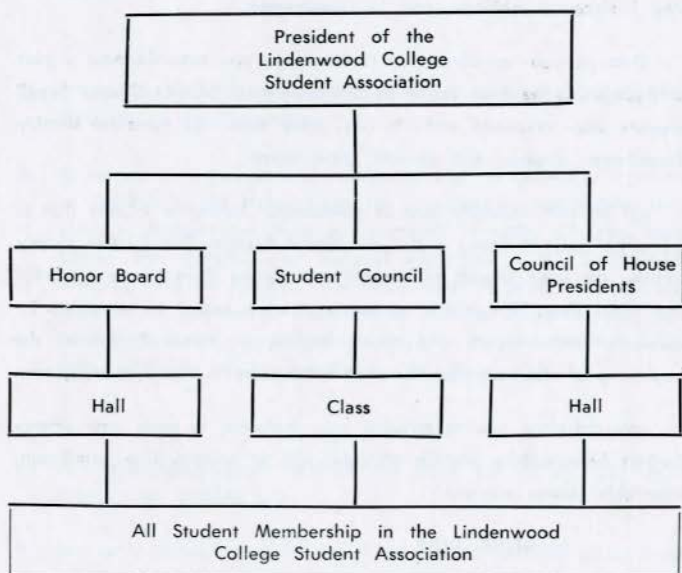

Our Honor System is the codification of the basic questions of honesty. A Lindenwood girl is expected to base her life on truth and to so encourage and help her fellow students. Each girl must feel a responsibility for the welfare of the college community as well as for her own personal conduct.

ORGANIZATION CHART

The Honor Board

May I sincerely welcome you to Lindenwood.

Through your enrollment at Lindenwood, you have become a part of tradition, a tradition which encompasses Mrs. Sibley's Ghost, "jean" suppers, May Weekend, and Pin Day. More than this, there are weekly devotionals, classes, and student government.

Of all our traditions, one is particularly distinctive to me: that is the experience of living under the Honor System. This System simply codifies the basic tenets of honesty and applies them to our academic and social lives. The faculty accepts us, as we accept ourselves, as individuals with integrity and honor. Signing an Honor Pledge at the beginning of the year signifies your willingness to live by our System.

We challenge you to develop your initiative, to meet your opportunities here with a positive attitude, and to become fine, intelligent, honorable young women!

ANNE LEEDY

Chairman, Honor Board

THE HONOR SYSTEM: What is it?

Q. WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF AN HONOR SYSTEM?

- A. The Honor System, by calling forth the cooperation and support of each individual, should
1. Develop a sense of personal integrity.
 2. Encourage individual and group responsibility.
 3. Create an atmosphere of trust.
 4. Foster cooperation among students, faculty, and administration.

Q. DOES THE ADOPTION OF AN HONOR SYSTEM REDUCE CHEATING IN THE CLASSROOM?

- A. This is not the primary purpose behind adopting the Honor System; however the fact that examinations are not closely proctored and that an atmosphere of trust prevails does promote academic honesty.

Q. UNDER SUCH A SYSTEM WHAT HAPPENS IF A STUDENT IS LATE RETURNING TO CAMPUS?

- A. A student is expected and trusted to sign in correctly. It is not a violation of the Honor Code for a student to return late; however, a student who signs in incorrectly is guilty of false registration and therefore has violated the Honor Code. Unavoidable tardiness will be excused. The House Staff in each dormitory will decide if a tardiness is unavoidable, and the student's word concerning the circumstance will be trusted. Punishments for avoidable latenesses will be handled by the House Staff.

Q. IS THERE ANYONE TO "CHECK ON YOU" TO SEE IF YOU HAVE SIGNED IN CORRECTLY?

- A. No; each student is on her honor to register correctly at all times.

- Q. IS A STUDENT WHO IS AWARE OF A VIOLATION OF THE HONOR CODE GUILTY OF VIOLATING THE HONOR CODE HERSELF IF SHE DOES NOT REPORT THAT STUDENT?
- A. If we are to develop personal integrity and encourage group and individual responsibility, we cannot confine honor to the aspects that we choose or those that will be easy to follow. We are to encourage honesty in our friends. If a student is aware of another student's violation of the Honor Code, it is her duty to ask the offender to report herself; if the guilty student refuses, the student aware of the violation should report the violation and the offender to the proper authorities.
- Q. DOES THE HONOR SYSTEM FORBID A STUDENT'S WORKING WITH SOMEONE ON ASSIGNMENTS?
- A. The Honor System does not forbid cooperative study. But such study under the Honor System should involve only the kind of assistance that the instructor of the course would approve. Studying together should be based on mutual assistance and should never mean that one student does the real studying and then merely hands information to another. Copying another person's written work to hand in as one's own is a definite and serious violation of the honor code.
- Q. HOW WILL REGULATIONS NOT ENCOMPASSED BY THE HONOR CODE BE HANDLED?
- A. Infractions of such rules will be handled by the House Staffs or the Council of House Presidents.
- Q. IS ATTENDANCE AT CONVOCATIONS, VESPERS, ASSEMBLY, AND CHAPEL A MATTER OF HONOR?
- A. No; but it is an important obligation a student owes to the college community, and attendance will therefore be checked by designated student officers.

Student Counseling of Freshmen

Hello and greetings from LC,

September will soon be here and with it will come many new and wonderful experiences for you. Lindenwood is a college that will provide for you moments of challenge, fun, and hard work. Most of you will arrive on campus a bit frightened, but soon you will be enveloped in the spirit of LC that will grow to have much meaning to you.

We have a rather new counseling program at Lindenwood which we hope will help you in your adjustment to college life. During this summer you will have correspondence with an upperclassman who will tell you some things about our college and answer the questions you may have. She will be your big sister during Orientation Week. Then you will be given a student counselor who will be yours throughout the year. She has expressed a desire to be a counselor and has been selected on her scholarship achievement, her acceptance of responsibility, and her ability to make friends and get along well with others.

I hope that you are having an enjoyable summer, but that you are anticipating your years at Lindenwood. We are all eager to meet you and I am anxious to begin my work with you and your classmates. So we'll see you in September.

Very sincerely,

JUNE TAVLIN

Chairman Freshmen Counseling Program

FRESHMAN COUNSELING PROGRAM

EACH INCOMING STUDENT IS ASSIGNED TO ONE OF THE STUDENT HOSTESSES — A GROUP OF UPPERCLASSMEN SELECTED TO WRITE TWO OR THREE NEW STUDENTS DURING THE SUMMER, ANSWERING THEIR QUESTIONS REGARDING SCHOOL POLICIES, AND ACTING AS A BIG SISTER DURING ORIENTATION WEEK.

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING ORIENTATION WEEK APPROXIMATELY THIRTY-FIVE GIRLS ACTING AS STUDENT COUNSELORS WILL EACH BE IN CHARGE OF SEVEN FRESHMEN. SELECTION OF STUDENT COUNSELORS IS BASED ON SCHOLARSHIP, ABILITY TO COMMUNICATE EASILY WITH OTHERS, TO ORGANIZE, AND TO RECOGNIZE PROBLEMS. THE PURPOSE OF THIS PROGRAM IS TO GIVE THE COUNSELEES CLOSER CONTACT WITH THEIR STUDENT COUNSELORS DURING THE ENTIRE YEAR.

A WORD TO THE WISE

THE FACULTY IS EAGER TO COUNSEL WITH YOU — SO GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY. ALWAYS RESPOND PROMPTLY TO A NOTE FROM A FACULTY MEMBER, OR AN ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER ASKING TO SEE YOU.

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARDS IN ROEMER HALL AND IN YOUR RESIDENCE HALL. YOU MAY SEE SOMETHING OF INTEREST THERE.

CHEWING GUM IN PUBLIC IS NEVER CONSIDERED GOOD TASTE. WE DO NOT DO IT AT LINDENWOOD.

BE SURE TO RISE WHENEVER A MEMBER OF THE FACULTY OR STAFF ENTERS A ROOM.

A FRIENDLY ATTITUDE AND A WILLINGNESS TO HELP EACH OTHER WILL CREATE A STRONG SCHOOL SPIRIT AND A SENSE OF UNITY ON CAMPUS.

AT LINDENWOOD WE BEGIN AND CLOSE ALL EVENTS ON TIME.

YOUR HEALTH IS IMPORTANT — TAKE CARE OF IT! EAT YOUR MEALS REGULARLY, GET PLENTY OF SLEEP, AND PLAY AS HARD AS YOU WORK.

BEGIN WELL! REMEMBER, POOR WORK THE FIRST WEEK IS APT TO DRAG THROUGH THE YEAR. TRY TO MAKE GOOD GRADES NOT ONLY FOR PERSONAL ADVANTAGES BUT BECAUSE THE HABIT OF DOING THINGS WELL IS A VERY GOOD HABIT.

IT IS MUCH MORE PLEASANT TO LIVE IN A CLEAN ROOM.

IF YOU SMILE, YOU WILL GO FARTHER, YOU NEVER LIKE ANYTHING UNTIL YOU TRY IT.

YOU KEEP YOUR MONEY IN YOUR OWN ROOM AT YOUR OWN RISK! DEPOSIT IT IN THE LINDENWOOD COLLEGE BANK.

WHEN LEAVING THE CAMPUS, "SIGN OUT;" WHEN RETURNING, "SIGN IN." REMEMBER YOU ACTIVELY REPRESENT LINDENWOOD WHEREVER YOU GO AND WHATEVER YOU DO!

Student Christian Association

Hello—and welcome to Lindenwood!

As a freshman, one of the first things you'll be introduced to is SCA. During orientation week you'll be coming to a conclave at "the ovens" where you'll meet our cabinet and other campus leaders, play games, eat a picnic supper, and sing L. C. songs around the campfire. Fun? We think so! But more than just having fun, we hope that through this conclave you will become interested in taking an active part in one of the most vital organizations on campus.

At Lindenwood, the Student Christian Association is for everyone. This means you are cordially invited to attend all regular meetings, to take part in dormitory devotionals, and to offer your time and talents for social service work. Through participating in these activities you will meet a group of young women who are earnestly seeking faith and guidance for their lives. You will also have an opportunity to broaden and deepen your own belief and understanding. And you will find unlimited opportunities for service. Membership in SCA can be one of the most rewarding experiences of your college career—if you choose to make it so.

Since SCA is your organization, I sincerely hope you will feel free to make suggestions and criticisms at any time. I'd love to talk with you and to get to know you. See you in September!

Sincerely,

Jane Tibbals, President

Student Christian Association

Lindenwood College Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association aids the individual student in realizing a full and creative life through a growing knowledge and understanding of God.

Every member of the Lindenwood student body is by fact of her enrollment a member of the Christian Association.

When a student joins the Student Christian Association she joins a dynamic, vital campus fellowship which is affiliated with not only the National and International Y.W.C.A., but also the World Student Christian Federation.

The campus Association sponsors Religion and Life Week. The World University Service Fund, Association Conferences, and all-school parties. During the first semester a Freshman fellowship and an all-school fellowship are established, each of which is an integral part of S.C.A.

Located on the campus in a quiet place is a prayer room — not intended as a place of public assembly, but for meditation and prayer. Students are welcome to use this room at any time.

Religious Life and Services

Religious education is given an important place at Lindenwood although the college is non-sectarian in matters of religion. Addresses are given during the year by ministers, missionaries, and laymen upon topics that will give the students a larger vision of their opportunities and responsibilities as educated citizens of the local community, nation and the world.

The pastors of St. Charles are given the names of students who express denominational preferences. Each student usually attends the church of her choice every Sunday morning. Some of our students engage in Christian service in the local churches and teach in the Sunday Schools.

CHAPEL

ALL STUDENTS, RESIDENT OR NON-RESIDENT, ARE ON THEIR HONOR TO ATTEND THE REGULAR STUDENT CHAPEL AT NOON WEDNESDAY, UNLESS EXCUSED BY THE DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE.

VESPERS

All students are expected to attend Sunday evening vesper service. The College feels that there is real value in this expression of corporate worship. Outstanding ministers are brought to the college and music for these services is furnished by the college choir.

Three cuts will be permitted per semester if the student feels that she must absent herself for an important reason.

HABITUAL ABSENCE FROM STUDENT ASSEMBLY, CHAPEL CONVOCATIONS AND VESPER SERVICES IS AN INDICATION THAT A STUDENT IS NOT IN HARMONY WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE COLLEGE.

Welcome to the Freshmen from your Dean

This is a booklet of information, welcomes and directions, and I am glad to add my greetings to you as a member of the class of 1964. I know you have looked forward for a long time to your first days in college and now they are almost upon you. All of us at Lindenwood want to make these days and all the rest of your four years in college years you will look back on as among the best in your life. We want you to get the most out of your Lindenwood experience so that when you leave the College you will carry with you the marks of an educated woman.

Let me suggest one or two things I think you should do to help make these days happy, thrilling and satisfying.

1. Get acquainted immediately with the rules that will govern your life at Lindenwood. Many of these are right here in this booklet; others are in the College catalog which I hope you have read carefully. Give attention especially to the academic regulations on pages 22 to 26. Remember that we must hold you responsible for knowing these.

2. Promise yourself not only that you will make the most of each day as it comes but also that you will make the most of every opportunity the College provides for your growth into an educated woman. Give the College your best and the College will give its best to you.

3. Above all, sit down with yourself right now, if you haven't already done so, and think out the kind of person you want to be four years from now when you finish college. Set definite goals for yourself. You can't escape being a different person when you leave Lindenwood but you can begin now to determine in broad outline how you will be different.

I am eagerly looking forward to meeting each of you and I want you to know I shall be eager to help whenever and wherever I can.

You are off to an exciting adventure.

Donald M. Mackenzie

Dean of the College

A Word from "Miss L" . . .

At Lindenwood we have a loosely integrated guidance program which begins with the scholastic aptitude tests given during Orientation Week, extends through the Sophomore Testing Program, and leads to job placement upon graduation. Your Faculty Counselor stands in the center of the guidance program and it is to your Counselor that you can turn for help in planning your courses, for suggestions for better study habits, for aid in your adjustment to college life.

Also the door to Room 109 is always open to you. If you feel that you have been put in the wrong course of studies and a change would necessitate a change of counselor, come at once to the Guidance Office for such adjustments are easily made. If you want to know more about yourself, ask for an opportunity to take a battery of aptitude tests, or if you simply don't know what you want to do after college, make an appointment with me to talk over job possibilities. Watch our Bulletin Board, use your vocational material, let us help answer some of your questions!

One last word. Don't let anything worry you over twenty-four hours. Go to your Head Resident or House President, to your Faculty Counselor, your Student Counselor, to the nurses, and remember that along with these a friendly welcome always awaits you in the Guidance Office.

Mary Lichliter
Director of Guidance

As the Social Director at Lindenwood College I extend a warm welcome to you.

Please feel free to stop in to see me at any time that I can be of assistance to you in any area of your social activities. I will help you arrange dates, plan parties, order tickets to plays, provide bus schedules or discuss special problems with you.

We shall be happy to have you here and I look forward to greeting you personally.

Marguerite Odell
Social Director

The Health Center Greet's You!

Health and Happiness to you all in this, your new year at Lindenwood! This greeting may sound "Out of season" to you but after all — health has no season. The Health Service Staff wishes to help make this a year 'round time of pleasure in your school work and in your social life by keeping you well. We in no way attempt to supplant your family or family physician, but we do hope you may recognize in our concern an extension of their interest in your welfare here.

Drop in on us in the same way you would drop in on your counselor. Won't you consider your Health Service part of the personal counseling program of the college and know that we are as interested in preventing illness as we are in curing it. The Health Center is a part of Lindenwood and even though you are not actually ill, a welcome always awaits you.

THE SOCIAL PROGRAM

Hi there! —

Welcome to college life — all of it — for though we study hard and learn lots, there is still time and opportunity for a social life for every "Lindenwood Lady" who wants it. In order to provide opportunities for you social life, Lindenwood has endowed itself with a Social Council, made up of: the girls you select as your dormitory representatives, myself — the social chairman, and our Social Director, Miss Odell.

Since we are a woman's college, the social situation is a little different than it was in your high school, in that you must make your social desires known. A full, fun social life at LC comes to the girls who seek it. And that is what your Social Council, Chairman and Director are here for, to help you have the kind of social life you want, so PLEASE let us hear from you at any time throughout the year. Our fun is finding good times for you!

I am as eager for September as you are, for I want us to meet each other and begin to let Saint Louis and the college men of Missouri know we are here (just for fun!).

See you at LC,

Gay Pauly

Chairman, Social Council

SOCIAL SKILLS COUNCIL

Hi There,

I am sure you are becoming eager to begin your first year at Lindenwood. The many customs and traditions which will soon become a part of your life will help make your first year of college a memorable experience.

We at Lindenwood believe that courtesy and graciousness are also a part of our life. It is the purpose of the Social Skills Council to maintain an awareness of this tradition, and to inspire neatness on the campus. We meet regularly and discuss changes in, or strengthening of, our social customs. We hope that soon these customs will mean as much to you as they do to us.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou Reilly

Chairman

Places You Will Want to Find

Soon after your arrival at Lindenwood you will want to find the following places. Each of them will play an important part in "your life at Lindenwood."

THE BANK — The college Bank is located on the main floor of Roemer Hall, and is open

MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY

Morning	Afternoon

10:45 — 11:45	4:00 — 4:45

Closed every Wednesday afternoon

SATURDAY MORNING

8:00 — 11:30

Students are urged to deposit their money here to insure its safety. Carrying money about or leaving it in your room often-times leads to carelessness and loss. The college stands responsible only for money placed in its care. The bank is for "depositing" not borrowing. Checks drawn by students on their parents or guardians will not be honored except when written instructions for such privileges from parents or guardians are on file in the bank.

BOOK STORE — The College Store is located in the Post Office. Here supplies, books, stationery, sheet music, ink, pencils, greeting cards, pennants, college jewelry, etc., may be obtained. Regulation gym uniforms, leotards, and tank suits to be used in the swimming pool, may be purchased here. All students wishing to have garments dry cleaned may leave them at the Book Store.

POST OFFICE — The Post Office is located on the ground floor of Roemer Hall. A lock box is assigned for every student. Only the box assigned to you is accessible for your mail. Each girl assumes responsibility for carrying her own keys.

The Post Office is known as Station 3 of the St. Charles Post Office and is conducted under the usual regulations. Packages may be mailed here, stamps bought, etc., as in any Government post office. In each hall are mail boxes for out-going mail, which is collected twice daily.

EXPRESS OFFICE — Express packages may be sent from the office of the Supervisor of Plant Operations and Maintenance. His office is on the ground floor of Roemer Hall, and is open from eight in the morning until five in the afternoon. Packages can be wrapped in the room across the hall.

GUIDANCE OFFICE — Room 109 — More than once your feet will lead you to this office for help and information. The Director of Guidance is there to help with dorm problems, to inform you about careers, to help line-up summer opportunities, and to assist in self-analysis through counseling and aptitude testing. Reservations may be made there for theaters, busses, concerts. The student emergency loan fund is also located in this office.

The B. KURT STUMBERG HEALTH CENTER is always open to students. Never wait until you are "sick enough to come," but bring your apprehensions and questions before you become ill. The college physician is here at 8:00 a.m. and at 5:00 p.m. Registered nurses are available at all times.

THE TEA ROOM — The Tea Room is one of the most popular spots on the campus. "Meet you for a coke" is its slogan. You will find it in Cobbs Hall.

The loan desk and card catalog index to the book collection are in the lobby. Stacks are open to students, and books are issued for 2 weeks. A fine of 2c a day is charged on overdue books. Reference books and magazines do not circulate.

Books "reserved" for class use are issued at the loan desk, and used in the reading rooms during library hours. They may be withdrawn between 9 and 10 p.m. Monday thru Friday and 3 and 4 p.m. Saturday, and are due at 8 a.m. the following morning with these exceptions: Sat. at 9 a.m., and books taken at 3 p.m. Sat. may be kept until Mon. at 8 a.m. A fine of 10c an hour is charged for late reserve books.

LIBRARY HOURS:

Monday-Friday

It is furnished with attractive rugs and colorful furniture; adjoining the Club Room is a kitchenette with electric cooking and refrigerating equipment. The Club Room is used extensively by student groups and faculty members.

You will find the Club Room open from eight in the morning until ten in the evening. Students may go there at any time during those hours, unless there is a regular club meeting or some other attractions scheduled there on the weekly calendar. Just off the Club Room you will find the S.C.A. Prayer Room for personal meditation and prayer.

THE LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CHAPEL — This building is jointly used by Lindenwood College and the St. Charles Presbyterian Church. The college uses the sanctuary for its worship services and other appropriate programs open to the public. It uses the Nursery for its nursery school and the area devoted to educational activities for students in the field of religious education. All the facilities of the building are available for the use of student groups. The building is jointly owned by the college and the church and is located on land adjoining the college and purchased for this purpose.

SWIMMING POOL — The swimming pool is in Butler Hall, near the gymnasium. Watch for the hours of "open pool," and earn extra points for the Athletic Association.
