CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1991

May 13, 1991

Day admissions will host their next open house/registration day Friday, May 31, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admissions Director Jerry Bladdick said students registering for the Fall Term will include those students who have made a commitment to attend. Additional open house/registration days are planned for July 12, August 9 and August 26. For more information about the open house/registration days, please contact the Office of Day Admissions at 949-4949.

Carol Kellogg Stoub, Class of '57, was recently appointed to the Lindenwood Board of Directors. Carol, who resides in LaGrange, Illinois, is active in the LaGrange area Head Start Program where she has held a 14-year interest. Carol is the former owner and president of Triad Form Erectors. She was named the Builders Association of Chicago's "Woman of the Year" in 1987 and was the first woman appointed to the Western Springs, Ill., Recreation Commission, serving as chairperson for four years.

Esquire Magazine previews a new, "Art and Politics" section on May 14, and the photographs of LCIE Communications Graduate Michael Morgan will be featured. Michael, who currently works as a photographer for Washington University Medical School, incorporated the photos on the Rainbow Family in his culminating project. Esquire also plans to include a short article written by Michael. Congratulations!

Dr. Joseph Cernik, Associate Professor of Political Science and Public Administration, will be the commencement speaker for the 1991 Class of Governor French Academy in Belleville, Illinois.

Welcome to the following new Lindenwood College employees:
Ellen Gore, Business Office
Tom Bauerle,
Admissions/Communication

When I snap my fingers three times, you'll wake with an inflated ego and no memory . . . no, that's not how it goes. Or is it? Dr. Peter A. Carich recently published an article in the Individual Psychology, titled "Ego Strengthening: Encouragement via Hypnosis." Peter teaches in the MBA program as well as day and evening psychology courses.

Brian Hauswirth, a Lindenwood junior, was the recipient of the KMOX-KLOU Radio Scholarship, presented by the Journalism Foundation of Metropolitan St. Louis. Brian was among 18 other journalism and communication students who received awards and scholarships totaling over $20,000. Congratulations, Brian!

Coach Steve Crotz extends his appreciation to the John Greene, Scott Kassebaum and the cafe staff; Art Siebels; Alan Meyers; LC student Nicki Delker; Adele Di Medio, Jeanne Malpiedi & Phyllis Morris in PR, and a very special thanks to Carol White who helped to make this an enjoyable evening for the athletes and their guests.

Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale will be held Saturday, June 1 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. According to Susan Rudolph, Director of Development, more than 200 booths and stands have been sold for the annual event. Arts, crafts, antiques, food and family fun make the sale a major attraction each summer. Proceeds from the event go to the St. Charles Alumni Club Scholarship Fund to benefit Lindenwood students.

Professor Michael Castro recently published Interpreting the Indian, Twentieth-Century Poets and the Native American. Touted as "a landmark of modern literary criticism" by Howard Schwartz of UMMSL, Michael's book discusses the relationships between Native American culture and modern poetry. It is the first book to detail the influence of the American Indian on writers of the twentieth century. Michael is a communications professor in the LCIE program.

Congratulations to Tom Clark, recently installed as the Lindenwood Student Government President for the 1991-92 academic year. Additional congratulations to: Dan Cummings, Vice President; Gwen Griffin, Secretary; Tamara Jackson, Treasurer; Joe Griffin, Student Activities Chair; Pete Sims, College Life Chair; Sumera Qualbani, Academic Chair; Kaye Whiting, Publicity Chair.

Dan Taylor, Head of Maintenance & Security, requests the return of all old telephones that may still be in College offices. If you have an old phone in your closet, please return it to Maintenance as soon as possible.

LeAnn Ahern, a Lindenwood College freshman, was recently profiled in the St. Charles Journal Lifestyle section. LeAnn was touted as the youngest recipient of the St. Charles County Volunteer Award for her work at Youth in Need. Congratulations, LeAnn!
