Mrs. Mary E. Sibley

I have delivered your letter to Yokoyama, & he will write you himself. Your former letter I did not receive, otherwise it wd. Have been answered. I hope you will be able to do something for Yokoyama's sisters/ He is a very worthy young man, & takes a deep interest in the welfare of the several members of his family. Separation does not seem to have abated home feeling in the least.

Yours respectfully,

W. Sparrow
