DIRECTOR'S NOTES:

I just want to start off by saying I love Neil Simon. That being said, this is only the second Neil Simon play that I have directed. Not sure why... Biloxi Blues has always been a script that fascinated me. It is a great character study about the young men who entered boot camp towards the end of World War II and how they bonded together to deal with a quirky drill sergeant and the nervousness of going off to war. The script is full of honest humor and touching moments. I believe it portrays the true uncertainty that all the young men must have felt at that time, including the sergeants. I must say that I was fortunate to have been able to work with this exceptional cast and crew. Becca, I just love working with you. We are always in tune with each other's thoughts.
