WELCOME!

To the Lindenwood students a hearty welcome! With the rich tradition of one hundred thirty-five years and with excellent equipment and a distinguished teaching staff, your college is ready to serve your best interests. You will take your place in a splendid student body and in a friendly college community.

In recreation and in study, in work, and in worship, in strengthening friendships that shall abide, you will find at Lindenwood College the joy of satisfying achievement. With pride in the college and with confidence in you, I express the hope that every day will be a happy and significant one for you.

Mrs. McCluer and I are eager to greet each of you in our home on the campus.

TRADITIONS

AND

Many welcomes to your campus, Lindenwood! Orientation begins a whole new life for you, new habits, new friends, new customs, new fun. There will be parties, picnics, get-togethers, teas, dinners, and by the end of Orientation you will be thoroughly welcomed and initiated and your face will feel like a perpetual smile. But that's okay; you will want a big smile for the mixer that rounds out this first week.

September should be called the "get-acquainted" month as it is dedicated to midnight dorm parties, convocations for a better understanding of Lindenwood customs and traditions, and meetings with your student counselors. During September you will pick and choose the clubs and organizations you will want to join, SCA, Poetry Society, International Relations, etc., and initiations will take place in October. October also brings mixers, here and at Rolla, our first school play, and on Hallowe'en—Mrs. Sibley's ghost arises while we await her arrival down by the ovens.

Alumnae Week-End is held during the fall, and this younger generation steps aside to the older L. C. ladies. It is a gay weekend for both sets. We sit and listen to hairy tales of yesteryear and sometimes wonder—"aren't we supposed to be the wild generation?"

November will give you your first taste of college mid-term finals. Lindenwood has an adage, "we'll do better next nine weeks." Fall will be officially ushered out with the Cotillion at the Chase. November is a good month because of its Thanksgiving Vacation! Some trek home to see old friends, and maybe a visit or two with the family; while others stay for Lindenwood's elaborately spread Turkey-Day dinner.

The time between Thanksgiving vacation and Christmas vacation gives us little room to pack in all our Christmas season festivities. (And even less time for studying). Evenings will be filled with dorm decorating parties, dorm Christmas parties, and of course the frantic packing for that glorious two-week vacation! Don't bother to put books in those suitcases, they'll never be opened.

Have fun over vacation, because when you return—FINALS are staring you in the face! Just as there was frantic fun before vacation, there will be frantic frustration afterward. With the beginning of February and a brand new semester, Sophomores can look forward to the Sophomore tests, juniors can cringe at the thought of their Junior English Exam, but freshmen, with finals a long way off again, can live a life of ease. The romantic season, Valentine's Day, will be here. The St. Charles florist might as well move his shop to Lindenwood.

A major spotlight is in February as we all look forward to Religion-in-Life Week. The student body invites a speaker for convocation, group meetings, and individual conferences. This week is dedicated to the enrichment of our spiritual lives, airing our viewpoints on religion, and seeking answers to our personal questions.

March finds us accosted with mid-term finals again! School could be so much fun without those things. But if we didn't have them, what would be the purpose of school? HMMMMMM!! Start saving your allowance now, because our WUS auction lands in this month. WUS is the World University Service, and we go all out on our auction. The Dean sells a mammoth picnic basket, cakes are sold, parties, breakfast in bed, one day maid service, and you'll probably be selling something too. March will end to the cheery tune of Spring Vacation.

April usually brings the glad tidings of term papers. But we forget things like that when we politic our way through all-school elections. Most of April is spent in planning and preparing May Week-End activities which is our traditional parents week-end so our folks can get a glimpse of our college life.

There's no holding it back—May slips by in a flash, and there we are again in FINALS! Worse than that—it's the end of school! Somehow, the seniors have pinned the juniors, Linden Scroll members have been tapped, seniors have willed their Lindenwood belongings to underclassmen, and Baccalaureate have all gone by. And before you can take a second breath, you're watching the seniors begin their graduation procession.

The year seems to have gone by so quickly, and every year at Lindenwood will go faster and faster. But summer brings more fun and more experience to share when you return in the fall.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE SONGS

REMEMBER

(Senior Class Song)

Remember the days you've spent here,
Remember when you're away.
Remember the friends you've made here
And don't forget to come back someday;
Remember the old traditions
And promise to be true.
For you all belong to Lindenwood
And Lindenwood belongs to you!

LINDENWOOD SONG

Lindenwood, our Alma Mater
We will stand by thee,
We will fight and fail you never to eternity.
We will love you until the end,
You know that it's you we'll defend.
So, hail, hail, the gang's all here,
And we're loyal to you L. C. (1)
Always forward
We'll be on top.
Always forward
We will never stop.
Hit 'em high, hit 'em low
Come on L. C. - let's go —
(Repeat to 1)

THE ALMA MATER

O lindenwood to you we sing
Our Alma Mater dear.
For in the years you'll hear our cheers,
Forgetfulness ne're fear
And when we go out in the world,
Our love for you will be unfurl'd.
O Lindenwood, we are so true,
For always we'll love you.

LINDENWOOD PEP SONG

Give a cheer for Lindenwood
And may she ever be
Great—for those who sing her praises
Bound by loyalty.
Rah! L. C.
Raise the flag of gold and white
And may we win her fame
Proud to hail our alma mater
Lindenwood acclaim.

LINDENWOOD FOREVER

(Tune - Yankee Doodle)

For her we'll fight
For her we'll stand
For her we will endeavor
Of all the colleges in the land
It's Lindenwood forever.
It isn't Wellesley or Bryn Mawr
It isn't Smith, no never
Of all the colleges in the land
It's Lindenwood forever.

AYRES HALL

I'm an Ayres Hall girl from Lindenwood
And you ought to see me do my stuff.
I'm an Ayres Hall girl from Lindenwood
And my middle name is mighty rough.
I've got a Phi Delta Theta rapped around my finger
And in his arms I long to linger.
I'm an Ayres Hall girl from Lindenwood
And you ought to see me do my stuff.
I really mean it.
You ought to see me do my stuff.

BUTLER HALL

Now when a Butler girl walks down the street
She looks one hundred per from head to feet
She's got that smile that style, that winning way
And when you look at her you'll recognize her and you'll say
Now there's a girl I'd like to know
She's got that good old Butler pep and go
And when you look at her it's quite a treat
She can't be beat - A Butler girl.

COBBS HALL

Rally, rally, rally, rally yellow and white
It's Cobbs Hall
It's Cobbs Hall
Rally, rally, rally, rally yellow and white
It's Cobbs Hall
It's Cobbs Hall
It is the best dorm
It is the best dorm
Cause is is our dorm
So rally, rally Cobbs Hall, Cobbs Hall, Cobbs Hall
Cobbs Hall

McCLUER HALL

To the friends we have in Mac Hall
To the place way down the hill
    The best dorm
When the boys come on the campus
Mac Hall's the place they date
    The best dorm
We're Lindenwood ladies out on a spree
In years to come we'll remember with glee
McCluer we will always be True to thee.
    (Tune: "The Whiffenpoof Song")

IRWIN HALL

Friends, friends, friends, we will ever be
Whether in fair or in dark stormy weather
We'll stand or we'll fall together
For Irwin Hall, we will ere be true
Our bonds celebrating
Till death separating
Irwin Hall, to you!

NICCOLLS HALL

Stand up and cheer,
Stand up and cheer for dear old Niccolls
Cheer loud and long for dear old Niccolls
For today we'll say
That Niccolls Hall's above all others.
The happy halls now are ringing,
With laughter, song and cheer
We got the girls, rah! rah!
We got the boys, ha! ha! ha!
Hurrah for Niccolls Hall.

SIBLEY HALL

Y' oughta, Y' oughta, Y' oughta live in Sibley Hall
Y' oughta, Y' oughta, Y' oughta live in Sibley Hall
When the Sibley girls come on the scene
All the other girls turn green
Y' oughta, Y' oughta, Y' oughta live in Sibley Hall.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

As stated in the Constitution, the purpose of the Lindenwood College Student Association is to co-operate in the performance of self-government. The association strives to uphold the highest standards of honor and integrity in all matters of personal conduct as well as to promote understanding among faculty, administration, and students. It is through the association that rules are enacted and enforced and that individual and community responsibility is promoted.

The Student Council which is the legislative body of the Lindenwood College Student Association is composed of the student body officers, two representatives from each dormitory except Nicolls which has three representatives, a representative from each class, three representatives from the Day Students, the chairman of the Social Council, the chairman of the Student Counselors, and the chairman of the Social Standards Council. Open meetings are held every Monday at 6:30 P.M. and all students are urged to attend and participate. We are proud of our student government and are anxious to serve the students in every way possible.

I want to welcome you on behalf of the student body and myself and assure you of the Council's interest in each individual student and her wishes.

Kathy Taylor
President, L. C. S. A.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Student government and the active participation of every student at Lindenwood in that government, is an integral part of college life. While this association has a very immediate effect on the campus, the long-range purpose of any student government is to develop in those students who live under it the capacity for a mature and responsible role in adult life. It was with this purpose in mind that the Student Council was established.

The Student Council of Lindenwood College is composed of representative students who constitute the governing group of the student body. They legislate on all matters pertaining to the social regulations in community life, subject to the approval by the Administrative Committee. The Student Council meets on Monday evening and any member of the student body is welcome to attend.

Each student upon entrance to Lindenwood becomes a member of the Lindenwood College Student Association. By virtue of this fact, she accepts both the privilege and the obligation of self government. It is only when each student realizes that she plays a role in the government of her college that this form of self-rule can be representative and effective.

Student participation and cooperation is shown by means of the following:

1. By keeping in touch with her student council representative. It is only through such contact that the members of the Student Council can actively represent the student body.
2. By making use of the suggestion box in Cobbs Lounge.
3. By serving on Student Council committees.
4. By attending Tuesday morning Student Assembly. Students are held responsible for all information given out at that time.
5. By knowing and keeping the regulations of the community.
6. By maintaining the standard of behavior in keeping with the reputation and ideal of the college.
7. By developing attitudes of self-discipline, self-respect and consideration for others.
8. By cooperating to the fullest extent with the duly constituted Hall Officers in the regulating and maintaining student self-government in the dormitories.

Lindenwood is also a member of the National Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

"IAWS occupies a unique position among the collegiate organizations of this nation by virtue of its being the only national women's student government group in the United States of America. As an organization, it offers membership for all college women from accredited colleges and universities, who are then represented by selected local leaders. IAWS is a service group dedicated to cultivating an attitude preparing women to govern themselves throughout their college careers, and thereby increasing their ability and desire to fulfill the role of educated and competent women in a democratic society to the highest degree of social, physical, intellectual, and spiritual achievement."

HONOR BOARD

—Welcome to Lindenwood, to its traditions, to its principles, and to its way of life. By choosing L.C. you become a part of these institutions which form our community, and most important, you become a part of the foundation of the community—the Honor System.

This system is not only one which we honor, but one which honors us. We are accepted and trusted as students of personal integrity, and we have the freedom—and the responsibility of upholding our honor. It is the purpose of the Honor System to develop this sense of integrity, to encourage the personal and group responsibility, and to help create this atmosphere of trust.

With this in mind, your years at L.C., filled with opportunities, challenges, and moral and intellectual maturity can and will be most rewarding.—

Connie Wolter
Chairman, Honor Board.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System is a way of life at Lindenwood College that must be accepted by every member of the student body and every member of the faculty to be effective. It became an integral part of the college program in 1954 and the Lindenwood Community is organized on the principle that a feeling of mutual trust pervades the campus. It is expected, therefore, that each new student and new faculty will come to accept the basic tenets of the Honor System and live by them.

The individual student's obligations under the Honor System are as follows:

1. To know and obey the regulations of the community.
2. To report herself to the proper student government officer when she has violated a regulation, and when aware of violation by a fellow student, urge the student to report herself.
3. To maintain the standards of behavior in keeping with the reputation and ideals of the college.

A belief in the Honor System involves:

1. A mature acceptance of the need for governing regulations in a community and one's responsibility as a member of that community to live by its laws and to help others keep them in spirit and in fact.
2. The student should realize that regulations have been passed for the "greatest good of the greatest number", and that the maintenance of quiet hours, signing in and out according to the regulations, attending required meetings etc. are very necessary to the well-being of the college and its students.
3. A willingness to report oneself to the proper honor board representative when one has violated a regulation, as well as a willingness to urge another student to report herself in case of a violation of regulations—a method which is considered the only enforcement worthy of an honor system.
4. A conviction that it is one's responsibility to act always in keeping with the reputation and ideals of the college—in the classroom, residence halls, and the larger communities of St. Charles and St. Louis.

STUDENT COUNSELING OF FRESHMEN

Proper freshman orientation is essential for any college, as the freshman class is usually the backbone of a campus. Here at Lindenwood, our aim is not to submit you to frivolous customs, but rather to instill in you a deep respect for the community of which you are about to become a part. Most important, we hope to make you realize the significance of your role on Lindenwood campus.

Throughout the year, there will be upperclassmen living in your dormitory to serve as your counselors. These girls have been selected on the basis of their scholastic ability, their character and their interest in working with you. Their purpose is not disciplinary but to serve as a link between you and the upperclassmen. Their duties will be what you want them to be. They can become your friend, your guidance counselor, or just someone with whom you would like to talk. The main point is that they will be here and they want to help you in any way possible. If perhaps they can't help they will be glad to refer you to the proper channel.

A great part of the success of our counseling program rests with you. We want you to become contented and useful citizens of our community and with your co-operation, I'm positive that you will.

Judy Ross

Chairman, Student Counseling Program

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Your Student Christian Association at Lindenwood serves a unique purpose. Because of our relatively small student body, there are few groups sponsored by St. Charles churches for college-age persons. Therefore SCA provides both an inter-and a nondenominational fellowship for its members. As a member, you are concurrently a member of the National Student YWCA, and you will consequently have the opportunity throughout the year to take part in intercollegiate "Y" activities with other schools in Missouri and other nearby states.

We are more than a "Y", however. If you are interested in social service, you will find opportunities to work through welfare organizations in St. Charles; if you feel you gain most from bull session-type discussions, you may attend Buzz Sessions with faculty members in their homes. For just plain fun that raises money for students abroad, SCA sponsors the World University Service Auction, which finds all LC bidding on items and services donated by both faculty and students. And if you simply have the need to get away from campus for a day or two, you may participate in off-campus retreats.

SCA serves the entire student body, both individually through your automatic membership as a student at Lindenwood, and collectively through the dormitories and the active and varied interest groups which it encompasses. As a freshman you are welcome at any SCA meeting or activity, but also have a division through which you can work with your own classmates. This is Junior SCA (freshmen only), which operates as an integral part of all-campus SCA, serving the entire student body. Of course, if your personal beliefs prevent your acceptance of the Association's purpose, you may feel free to withdraw your membership.

Our purpose is to enrich the spiritual and social growth of each student, and thereby of the entire College. Now that you are a Lindenwood student, I hope you will take an active part in the growth of your college, and in your own personal growth through SCA's wide range of activities.

Sincerely,
SUE DROZDA, President
Student Christian Association

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

When a student joins the Student Christian Association, she joins a dynamic vital campus fellowship which is affiliated with not only the National and International Y.W.C.A., but also with the World Student Christian Federation. The activities are many and varied and your participation is eagerly awaited.

JUNIOR CABINET. After the first nine weeks, freshmen elect officers for their branch of the SCA. It is the responsibility of this group to promote all activities of the SCA and to plan programs which appeal especially to the freshmen class.

GENERAL MEETINGS. At least once a month special programs are planned. Sometimes speakers are invited to discuss current national and international happenings. Often there are movies or large discussion groups. Also special events are planned such as an old-fashioned Christmas party or a camp-out.

BUSINESS MEETINGS. Every two weeks the SCA has a business meeting which all students are invited to attend. At this time plans are made for future activities and voting procedures take place on various issues.

BUZZ SESSIONS. Periodically the SCA sponsors small discussion groups in faculty homes. Refreshments are usually served while students discuss world events, campus problems, or whatever seems pertinent at the time.

SOCIAL SERVICE. Over 100 students participated in this program last year working in such areas as Boy's Club, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts, hospitals, orphanages and the Red Cross. Awards are presented at the end of the year to students who have made outstanding contributions in this area of volunteer service.

WUS AUCTION. Each year before spring vacation the SCA sponsors a tremendous auction which is the only fund raising campaign on campus. This money is sent to the World University Service and is used to help buy books and supplies for students in underdeveloped parts of the world. Cakes, pies, cookies, dinners, snack boxes and other surprises are donated by students and faculty members to be auctioned. Last year Lindenwood contributed nearly $2000.

DORM DEVOTIONALS. Once a week short devotionals are held on each floor or wing in the dorms on campus. For special occasions such as Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter, the whole dorm gets together for an inspirational service.

RELIGION-IN-LIFE WEEK. One week is set aside to relate religion to other areas of learning such as science, government, economics etc. An outstanding speaker is invited by the college to guide student thinking through convocation talks, discussion groups and personal counseling.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

This is a booklet of welcome and instruction and I am glad to add my word of greeting to it. I am sure you have been looking forward to the day when you would begin your college work and now you are about to do so. How successful you will be in meeting the demands placed on you at the college, how well educated you will be when you finish your work depends very largely on yourself and not so much on your instructors and others here at Lindenwood. We are here primarily to set the stage for you so that you can educate yourself.

My work as Dean of the College is largely concerned with the details of the instructional program. When you arrive on campus you will be provided with a copy of the new Lindenwood catalog and in it you will find much information about the academic program and the rules you will need to know about in order to get along well. If a question arises about your classwork, about your educational program, or about rules and regulations that govern these matters, come to see me if you don't know where to find the answer. I shall be glad to help you.

One thing you should know about immediately so that you get off to a good start is our class attendance system. We have no "cut" system at Lindenwood. All students are expected to attend all the classes regularly. That's why you are going to college. If it is necessary for you to be absent from a particular class meeting you must explain the absence to your instructor, in advance if possible. If you have too many absences you may have to be dropped from the course. There are other rules and regulations with which you must become familiar. Be sure, however, to be alert and learn about them early.

NOTES

But beyond these words about rules I promise you as exciting an adventure as you will find anywhere as you come to college. This is where your mind and your spirit will grow and mature as you encounter new ideas and new ways of thinking about the significant things in life. There is, of course, much hard, and sometimes dull, work to be done, but it leads to lasting satisfactions that are unmatched elsewhere. The faculty, the library, the laboratories are here for you to use as you seek your education. But you must use them.

I look forward to meeting each of you.

Dean of the College
Donald M. Mackenzie

DEAN OF THE CHAPEL

Lindenwood students are members of many religious denominations and faiths. Our campus religious life reflects this variety. Chapel and vesper speakers are invited from various churches and synagogues. Students and faculty members also lead our worship. The Student Christian Association plans discussion groups, service projects, and other interdenominational and interfaith activities. Students choose courses in religion and philosophy which meet their particular interests and needs.

As Dean of the Chapel I work with students as well as members of the administration and faculty in planning our inclusive campus religious program. My office is conveniently located, and I am regularly available to talk with students about their problems and concerns. It is our intention at Lindenwood to do all that we can to enable students to achieve mature religious understanding and faith.

C. Eugene Conover

A WORD FROM "MISS L" . . .

At Lindenwood we have a closely integrated guidance program which begins with the scholastic aptitude tests given during Orientation Week, extends through the Sophomore Testing Program, and leads to job placement upon graduation. Your Faculty Counselor stands in the center of the guidance program and it is to your Counselor that you can turn for help in planning your courses, for suggestions for better study habits, for aid in your adjustment to college life.

Also the door to Room 109 is always open to you. If you feel that you have been put in the wrong course of studies and a change would necessitate a change of counselor, come at once to our office for such adjustments are easily made. If you want to know more about yourself, ask for an opportunity to take a battery of aptitude tests, or if you simply don't know what you want to do after college, make an appointment with me to talk over job possibilities. Watch our Bulletin Board, use our vocational material, let us help answer some of your questions!

One last word. Don't let anything worry you over twenty-four hours. Go to your Head Resident or House President, to your Faculty Counselor, your Student Counselor, to the nurses, and remember that along with these a friendly welcome always awaits you from the staff in 109.

Mary Lichliter
Dean of Students

As the Social Director at Lindenwood College I extend a warm welcome to you.

Please feel free to stop in to see me at any time that I can be of assistance to you in any area of your social activities. I will help you arrange dates, plan parties, order tickets to plays, provide bus schedules or discuss special problems with you.

We shall be happy to have you here and I look forward to greeting you personally.

Marguerite Odell

SOCIAL COUNCIL

Lindenwood College has many dances and mixers throughout the year. Social life is crowned with diversity. Men from Washington University, Missouri School of Mines, Westminster College, St. Louis University, and more, make frequent visits. The Social Council, elected by the student body, helps to plan the dances, arrange dates, sponsor mixers, order tickets for plays, and provide other activities the student body may desire.

Miss Marguerite Odell, our Social Director, is both a friend and a social advisor to us all. Her charm, grace, and humor await your arrival.

I am looking forward to meeting you, and introducing you to my friends. We will have a good year together, and it will begin this fall.

Have a good vacation, and be prepared for a stimulating academic and social life at Lindenwood.

Meg Blumers
Chairman, Social Council

SOCIAL STANDARDS COUNCIL

There is one more phase of your college life at Lindenwood with which you will want to become acquainted early. This area is the Lindenwood pattern of social standards and customs, which basically are the standards of good taste everywhere. Social knowledge of the "right" thing to do is important to you, not only as a college student, but as a young woman who will soon take her place in the community outside the college campus.

The Social Standards Council is made up of representatives from each dorm and is a part of our student government. It is the purpose of this council to discuss social customs and to strengthen them. The social skills representative in your dorm will be only too glad to answer any questions about dress and customs on campus and off, and the door to room 310 in Sibley Hall is always open to you. When in doubt, ask!

Nancy Hollett
Chairman, Social Standards Council

A WORD TO THE WISE

THE FACULTY IS EAGER TO COUNSEL WITH YOU — SO GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY. ALWAYS RESPOND PROMPTLY TO A NOTE FROM A FACULTY MEMBER, OR AN ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER ASKING TO SEE YOU.

IT IS MUCH MORE PLEASANT TO LIVE IN A CLEAN ROOM.

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARDS IN ROEMER HALL AND IN YOUR RESIDENCE HALL. YOU MAY SEE SOMETHING OF INTEREST THERE.

CHEWING GUM IN PUBLIC IS NEVER CONSIDERED GOOD TASTE. WE DO NOT DO IT AT LINDENWOOD.

BE SURE TO RISE WHENEVER A MEMBER OF THE FACULTY OR STAFF ENTERS A ROOM.

A FRIENDLY ATTITUDE AND A WILLINGNESS TO HELP EACH OTHER WILL CREATE A STRONG SCHOOL SPIRIT AND A SENSE OF UNITY ON CAMPUS.

AT LINDENWOOD WE BEGIN AND CLOSE ALL EVENTS ON TIME.

YOUR HEALTH IS IMPORTANT — TAKE CARE OF IT! EAT YOUR MEALS REGULARLY, GET PLENTY OF SLEEP, AND PLAY AS HARD AS YOU WORK.

BEGIN WELL! REMEMBER, POOR WORK THE FIRST WEEK IS APT TO DRAG THROUGH THE YEAR. TRY TO MAKE GOOD GRADES NOT ONLY FOR PERSONAL ADVANTAGES BUT BECAUSE THE HABIT OF DOING THINGS WELL IS A VERY GOOD HABIT.

IF YOU SMILE, YOU WILL GO FARTHER, YOU NEVER LIKE ANYTHING UNTIL YOU TRY IT.

YOUR MANNERS IN THE DINING ROOM, IN THE CLASSROOMS AND IN THE RESIDENCE HALLS REFLECT YOUR BACKGROUND.

THE WAY YOU DRESS REFLECTS THE WAY YOU FEEL ABOUT YOURSELF.

RULES OF ETIQUETTE ARE MERELY ACTS OF COURTESY AND CONSIDERATION OF ONE ANOTHER.

RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS. THEREFORE LIMIT YOUR TELEPHONE CALLS AND KNOCK BEFORE ENTERING A CLOSED DOOR.
