LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS 1995

Dear Friends of Lindenwood,

Little did I realize back in 1936 when the Harmon family moved to St. Charles from a little town in Iowa the lasting impact that Lindenwood would have on our family. My father, Dr. Lloyd B. Harmon, taught religion and philosophy at Lindenwood for many years. My sister, Jeanne, graduated from Lindenwood and taught for 29 years in the math department, and I took seven years of violin at Lindenwood under Miss Gertrude Isador.

We can all rejoice at Lindenwood's glorious past. Nothing, however, can compare to the progress made since 1989 when Dr. Dennis Spellmann accepted the position of president. Lindenwood has since experienced dramatic growth in the number of students, faculty, budget, course and degree offerings, and campus size.

Over $16,000,000 has been spent on the renovation of existing facilities, and a new 50,000 square foot activity center is nearing completion. To accommodate the overflow of freshman applicants, plans are currently being developed for the construction of new residence halls.

I am both very proud and very humbled by the success that Lindenwood is experiencing. It is only happening because of the tremendous effort put forth by the faculty, staff and administration. The Board has chosen a mission of offering a quality liberal arts education in a value-centered environment, and people are responding positively to this approach. Lindenwood alums are beginning to step forward in support of their alma mater, and I strongly urge greater participation. You are — and should be — the foundation on which we grow.

Financial support is a critical ingredient of Lindenwood's growth and success. I would like to thank each of you for your many contributions, and assure you that Lindenwood is working hard to earn your support. We cannot possibly provide the facilities or the faculty and staff without it. Please continue to support this great institution, and please encourage others to do so.

Thank you.

Raymond W. Harmon
Chairman of the Board of Directors

Dear Friends,

I have always sharply focused on the future needs of the College, on the work yet to be done. I am proud of our heritage, but the demands of the 21st Century will be unprecedented and Lindenwood must be prepared to meet them.

As I walk across campus I can see the workers installing the roof of our $10,000,000 Performance Arena. This is the first new building at Lindenwood since 1965. It sits nearly in the middle of over 200 beautifully wooded acres that comprise the college campus. The buildings are already wired with fiber optic cable linking our students with the Internet and other data banks, and awaiting connection to the electronic classrooms of the future. We must keep Lindenwood in the forefront to meet the educational demands of the future.

We have residence halls to build, a student center to construct, and electronic classrooms to design. We must expand our current technology for the new century. Now more than ever, Lindenwood needs your support in recruiting, fundraising and community awareness. We have a tremendous opportunity as well as a great obligation to ensure the future of the College and the success of our students. I have often been told that Lindenwood College is a well-kept secret. It's our job, yours and mine, to share that secret with everyone we meet.

Thanks to people like you who believe so strongly in the students we serve and in our mission, we can look forward to a challenging and successful future. I am proud to share with you this honor roll of donors, a booklet celebrating the loyalty and friendship of Lindenwood friends.

Thank you for your gifts to Lindenwood College. They are truly an investment in the future. Lindenwood is on the move, and we invite you to join us as we meet the challenges ahead.

Sincerely,

Dennis C. Spellmann
President

ANNUAL GIVING

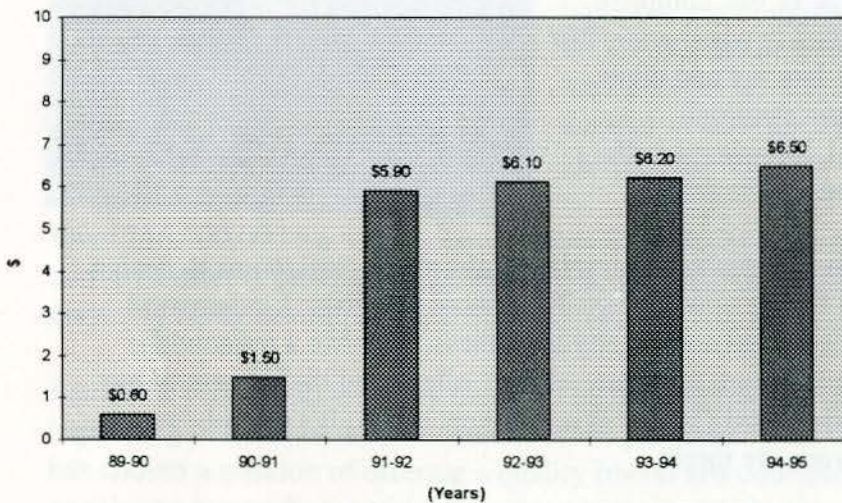

July 1, 1994 through June 30, 1995

A Year of Growth

The 1994-95 academic and fiscal year was an important fundraising year at Lindenwood College.

The $2.4 million gift total for the year included funds dedicated to the restoration of historic Sibley Chapel, support for the College's scholarship program, capital campaign contributions for the new Performance Arena, gifts to Lindenwood's academic programs and operating fund, and added more than $300,000 to the College's endowment.

Endowment Fund

Endowment Growth

The Mary E. Ambler Endowment

Mary Ambler ('38) touched nearly every aspect of Lindenwood College first as a student, then as a librarian, teacher and alumna.

During her life, Mary Ambler established scholarships, contributed to the annual fund, and generously donated hours of her time to preserve and catalogue the illustrious history of Lindenwood College. In 1975, a year after her retirement, Miss Ambler established the Lindenwood College archives, now named in her memory.

Her final gift to Lindenwood College was made in 1994. Miss Ambler had included a substantial bequest to the College in her estate plans to establish the Mary E. Ambler endowment fund for the Butler Library and archives at Lindenwood College.

Mary Ambler's unfailing generosity and good works exemplify the vision that Mary Easton Sibley had when she founded this College. Lindenwood will always remain proud of Miss Ambler's steadfast belief in the mission of this College and for her generosity toward many generations of Lindenwood students.

Sibley Chapel Renovation

A campaign for the renovation of Sibley Chapel resulted in donations of more than $58,000 from alumni and friends. Another $52,000 from an alumna estate was designated specifically for restoration of the chapel organ.

This is the first time in the chapel's history that a complete renovation has been undertaken. Archival photographs and plans were carefully studied so artisans could replicate the chapel's early 20th century appeal. The original wrought iron and wood chairs, which had been either sold or given away, were donated back to the College by friends and alumni who had heard about the project. The chairs were painstakingly refurbished and the wooden floor was retained to enhance the acoustical aspects of the room.

In May, the chapel was dedicated in honor of Dorothy DuQuoin Warner ('36), a Lindenwood College alumna, for her generous spirit, commitment to the arts, and dedication to higher education.

Once again, Sibley Chapel is a showcase for music, theatre, dance and lectures, as well as providing an inspirational atmosphere for weddings and worship services.

Performance Arena Campaign

Lindenwood College received its largest single gift of the year on April 19, 1995, when the J.E. and L.E. Mabee Foundation of Tulsa, Oklahoma, presented Lindenwood with a $1 million check to help fund the construction of the new Performance Arena. The Mabee Foundation, one of the nation's most prestigious philanthropic organizations, had issued a challenge grant in 1993 which required the College to raise $3.65 million before April 15, 1995.

This challenge was successfully met two months prior to the deadline thanks to the dedicated leadership of Harlan Pals, a prominent St. Charles businessman and key Lindenwood supporter, and Henry Elmendorf, a member of Lindenwood's Board of Directors with experience in fundraising.

Contributors to the largest capital campaign in the College's history include corporate partners, friends of the College and alumni. Fundraising efforts for the final $1 million required to complete the Arena without incurring debt will continue throughout 1996.

The Arena, which will be the site for Lindenwood's athletic and performing arts events, is scheduled for completion in mid-1996.

Our Corporate Partners

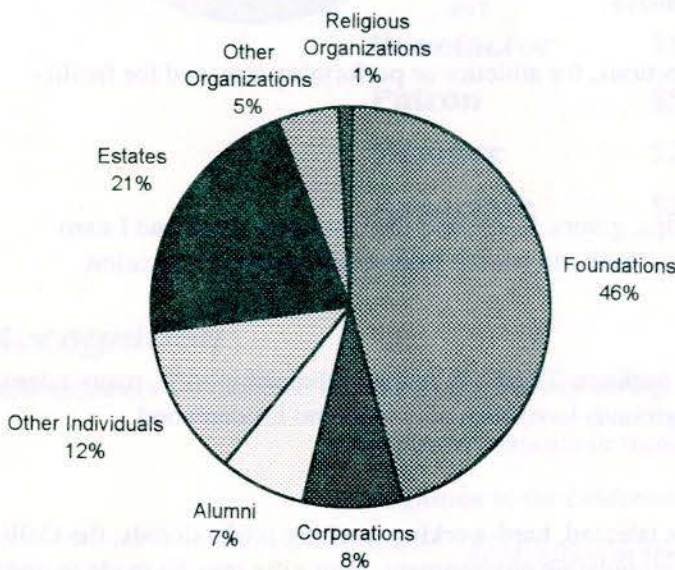

During the past year, the College continued to expand and improve its relationships with major corporations and local businesses. A fundamental reason for this success lies in the simple fact that Lindenwood is dedicated to the success of its students and continually strives to improve upon its primary mission of preparing students to become productive and valuable members of society.

As evidence of the College's value, adult and professional students from 57 companies participated in adult undergraduate and professional graduate courses during the 1994-95 academic year. Additionally, the College's business partners contributed important cash gifts in support of scholarship programs, curriculum development and capital improvements.

Lindenwood greatly appreciates the confidence our corporate partners have in this historic institution as demonstrated by their generous investment in the future of the College.

Sources of Gifts

A Challenge for Today

Mary Easton Sibley may not recognize the Lindenwood College of today, which has grown beyond even her visionary dreams. She would, however, be very proud of its achievements and contributions and recognize the spirit motivating those who provide the support that keeps our College moving forward.

Mary Sibley always wanted Lindenwood to "be up-to-date and out-in-front". Today you can play an important part in building a College that will continue to serve the many generations to come.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Anual gifts from alumni and friends often make the crucial difference between:

- adding a few books to the library, or establishing internet access to some of the world's leading library collections;
- performing basic maintenance, or completely renovating campus facilities to keep pace with growth;
- denying admission to students of modest means, or attracting the brightest and most talented students.

Unrestricted annual gifts give our College the flexibility to use the funds where the need or potential return is the greatest. Annual gifts may also be made for comprehensive financial aid and approved scholarship programs for academic divisions within the college, for library collections, for athletics or performing arts, and for facility renovation and improvements.

Comprehensive Financial Aid

A comprehensive financial aid program of scholarships, grants, loans, and the College's Work and Learn program, allows students from all backgrounds the opportunity to benefit from a Lindenwood education.

Named/Sponsored Scholarships

Scholarships remain a key factor in the financial aid package. Thanks to named scholarship gifts, many talented and deserving students from diverse regions and backgrounds have been able to attend Lindenwood.

Academic Programs

Annual fund gifts help Lindenwood attract and retain talented, hard-working teaching professionals; the College must continue to offer both competitive salaries and a stimulating environment. Your gifts may be made to update our library and reference materials or to improve course offerings and major fields of study for our undergraduate and graduate programs. Donations may also be made to support athletic activities and fine and performing arts events.

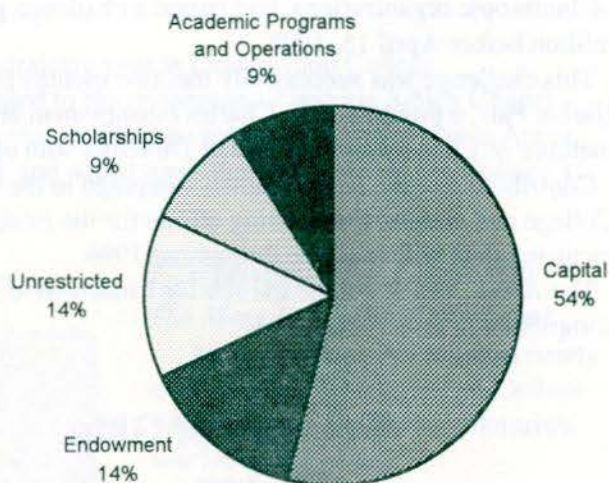

Building, Renovating, Improving

The historic and beautiful buildings on campus are structurally sound; however, student population growth, new academic uses, and the need to meet the demands of changing technology require renovations or improvements to bring them up to contemporary standards. Annual fund contributions give Lindenwood College the ability to adapt these facilities for tomorrow's needs.

Matching Gifts

Your gift can provide a multiplied benefit to the College if you or your spouse is associated with a company that matches charitable gifts. Matching gifts are credited to your lifetime giving.

Gift Designation

THE BUTLER SOCIETY AND YOU

Named in honor of Colonel James and Margaret Leggat Butler, Lindenwood's most generous supporters in the 1900's, this distinguished group of loyal friends has followed in the Butlers' footsteps by committing their resources to promote the precious heritage of Lindenwood and to support its vision for the future. The members represent all walks of life and serve in a variety of capacities for the College, including members from the Board of Directors, Board of Overseers, Alumni Board, faculty, and administration.

Society members are truly patrons of independent higher education. Our College's mission has been greatly strengthened by Butler Society members and their counterparts from earlier times. Butler Society gifts are used for library and classroom resources, including books and laboratory equipment, building renovation and upkeep, scholarships and general operating expenses.

Butler Society members exemplify a deep commitment to Lindenwood's past and deep faith vision for the College's future. Your unrestricted gift gives our College the flexibility to use the funds where the need or potential return is the greatest. Membership in the Society is secured through your lifetime giving level to Lindenwood College

During the early 1900's, funds from the Butlers' estate led to the construction of nearly half the major buildings on campus, with their total contributions equaling more than 25 million in today's dollars. Their dreams for Lindenwood are being realized today, with thousands of alumni benefiting from the Butlers' personal mission to make Lindenwood one of the finest educational institutions in America. As a Butler Society member, you share in the growth and development of one of the nation's leading independent, liberal arts teaching institutions.

SIBLEY HERITAGE SOCIETY

The Sibley Heritage Society takes its name from the estate planning done by Major George and Mary Easton Sibley. These plans resulted in the gift of the College to the Presbyterian Church in the 1850's. Because Major and Mrs. Sibley planned for Lindenwood, the names of George and Mary Easton Sibley continues today, as does the college they founded. The Sibley Heritage Society recognizes those who plan for Lindenwood's future by including Lindenwood in their estate, by making a gift of a paid up insurance policy, or by donating planned gifts such as trusts, annuities or property.
