CONDUCTOR BIOGRAPHIES

SAMANTHA ANNUNZIATA is currently a junior majoring in music education at Lindenwood University. She participated in both band and choir at St. Dominic High School. At Lindenwood she has been a member of the Golden Lion Marching Band, the Lindenwood University Symphonic Orchestra, Lindenwood Concert Bands, Lindenwood Flute Ensemble, and the pit orchestra for the musical Once Upon a Mattress. Outside of school, she has been an instrumentalist for St. Joseph Church in Cottleville for the last eight years. She has recently been invited to join the National Honor Society Alpha Chi. She has served as treasurer of the Kappu Nu chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota music fraternity for women. Upon completion of her degree, Samantha plans on teaching band students at a variety of levels.

MEGHAN BERRY is currently pursuing a vocal music education degree with instrumental endorsement. In her four years at Lindenwood, she has participated in the Marching Band, Concert Band, the Lindenwood University Symphonic Orchestra, University Chorus, and Percussion Ensemble. This is her third year in Sigma Alpha Iota, where she has held positions of Vice President of Membership, Vice President of ritual, and sergeant at arms. She is also the director of administration and legislation for the Lindenwood Greek Council. This past year, she became a member of National Association for Music Education (NAfME). Meghan hopes to teach elementary music in the future so that she may share her passion for music with young musicians.

JOHN NOIAN MCCOY is a 22-year-old vocal music education and vocal performance major. John has been an active member of the choirs at Lindenwood University for most of his collegiate career. Some major performances John he has been a part of while at Lindenwood University are Anything Goes, Schubert's Mass in G, a Holiday Pops concert with the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra, and Beethoven's 9th Symphony also with the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra. John is grateful for the opportunity he has had to study at Lindenwood University with the faculty in the Music Department. John also wants to thank his friends and family for supporting the decisions he has made in his journey to becoming a musician.

MATT MUELLER graduated from Fort Zumwalt North High School and now is pursuing a degree in music education. He teaches private percussion lessons to all ages and has worked with several groups in the St. Louis area including Fort Zumwalt North High School and Francis Howell Central High School. He has previously arranged and composed music for the Lindenwood University Marching Band, Fort Zumwalt North High School Band, Fort Zumwalt North High School Orchestra, Francis Howell Central Winter Drumline, and 2012 MCCA regional champion Wright City High School Winter Drumline and continues to compose for various ensembles. As one of the inaugural members, Matt played vibraphone for the WGI Percussion Independent World ensemble Freedom Indoor Percussion in the 2009/2010 season. At Lindenwood, Matt has performed in the University Chorus, Concert Choir, Marching Band, the Lindenwood University Symphonic Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, and Percussion Ensemble. After graduation, Matt intends to have a long career in music education and composing music.

SARAH OWEN is in her third year at Lindenwood, working towards a Bachelor of arts in music performance and music education. Sarah has played the flute for over 11 years, studying privately and performing in high school with the Lutheran High School South Wind Symphony. At Lindenwood, Sarah participates in the Golden Lion Marching Band, as well as the Wind Ensemble. She is also the co-principal flute in the Lindenwood University Symphonic Orchestra and is one of the founding members of the Lindenwood Flute Ensemble. Sarah is a mezzo-soprano in Lindenwood's Concert Choir and enjoys singing opera and musical theatre. Sarah is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international women's music fraternity. Upon her graduation, Sarah plans to continue her education studying performance and sharing her love of music with others through performing and educating future musicians. "The Lord is my strength and my song... and I will exalt Him." Exodus 15:2

JAMIE SWOPE is currently working on a master of arts in Teaching (Music Emphasis). She received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Lindenwood University. During her undergraduate studies she was concert master of the University Orchestra, president of the Collegiate Music Educational National Conference, and drum major of the Golden Lion Marching Band. She was also a member of the 2005 Missouri All-Collegiate Orchestra under the direction of William LaRue Jones. She was a Sword of Honor recipient from Sigma Alpha Iota International Music Fraternity, Kappa Nu Chapter. In addition to her studies at Lindenwood, Jamie is the general music teacher at Our Lady of Lourdes School in University City. She is also in her fourth season as a conductor of the Primo Strings, a division of the St. Charles County Youth Orchestra and a director in training for the Sweet Adelines and is currently singing with the City Voices Chorus. Jamie would like to thank her professors for working around her crazy schedule and being patient through moving, stitches, and life.

MICA THARP is 21 years old. She was born and raised in Union Missouri. She is currently a senior studying vocal music performance at Lindenwood University. After she finishes her undergraduate degree, Mica intends to further her education in music. She has been in several Opera Workshop performances, including the understudy for Gretel in Hansel and Gretel. She has sung in both University Chorus and Concert Choir. She currently works at St. John's United Church of Christ as a soprano section leader. She enjoys singing more than anything else, but has enjoyed conducting University Chorus and Concert Choir. Mica would like to give a special thanks to her family, Professor Slusher, and Professor Grooms for supporting her in her musical endeavors. She hopes that you enjoy the beautiful pieces that she has chosen for the choir to perform.

ADDIE WARD is a senior at Lindenwood University. This school year, she had the privilege of being president of the Kappa Nu chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota. She participates in Concert Choir, Concert Band, Symphonic Band, and Orchestra. Addie is majoring in music education and performance. She has enjoyed a life full of music over the years and hopes to bring that joy to younger generations upon graduation.

VIKI WEIR is honored to have this opportunity to conduct so many of her talented peers. Viki received her bachelor's degree in musical theater from Roosevelt University's Theatre Conservatory. She has had the honor of participating in performances at The St. Louis Muni, Kirkwood Summer Theatre, and Roosevelt University's Collegiate productions. Her favorite roles include Hope in Urinetown, Sandy in Grease, Ariel in Footloose, and Kate in Kiss Me Kate. She has participated in Lindenwood University's University Chorus and was a member of Villa Duchesne's Show Choir and Advanced Show Choir. She is working towards her master of arts in teaching (music emphasis) and hopes to be an elementary or middle school music teacher. She sends her thanks and love to all those who have supported her love of music, especially her family and her husband. A special thanks to Mrs. McCuddy, who inspired her to sing loudly and share her gifts from the beginning.

II. Un Cygne (A Swan)

A swan upon the lake approaches, in the water mirrored, like a portrait gliding.
As in certain moments, someone we love becomes part of a fleeting moment.
And together we draw near, our doubtful souls, like the swan swimming.
And share a wavering image of both doubt and hope.

III. Puisque tout passé (Since all is passing)

Since all passes, let us write that ephemeral melody; the one that brings us joy will remain in the end.
Let us sing, however it comes, the poet's song of love. And be quick, quicker than death.

DEBBIE REYNOLDS

AN EVENING OF MUSIC & COMEDY

For over six decades, our lives have been enriched by the talents of the singer, dancer, and actress we know as Debbie Reynolds.

Her early comedic talents first came to light when she auditioned for dramatic roles in school plays and found everyone laughing at her "serious" readings. Failing at that, she had to content herself with doing "everything from the machine to the thunder and lightning offstage," but she never made an onstage appearance.

Despite her humble beginnings, through the years, she has become an actress who has won her the respect of her colleagues and audiences who know her from her countless appearances in film, television, and TV. She is best remembered for her roles in 1001 Nights and Cherry Ames, M.D. Her Oscar-nominated portrayal of The Unsinkable Amel in From Here to Eternity has made her a household name. She has appeared in numerous TV shows including The Dick Van Dyke Show, The Mary Mason, and The Love Boat. Her personality has been showcased on shows as The Hollywood Squares and The Tonight Show with Carson and Jack Paar. Stage credits include Irene, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Knowing, Annie Get Your Gun, Woman of the Year, and The Sound of Music.

SOLD-OUT

Debbie Reynolds' grip on the American heart is one that will transcend generations. She is, and will always truly be, America's sweetheart.

Debbie Reynolds is warm, vital, dazzling, dynamic and delectably exuberant...a super production jam-packed with sparking wit, great music, and outrageous fun."
