

COMMUNIQUÉ

"Your Communicative Link with the Lindenwood College"

Vol. 1, No. #41; May 23, 1983

SCHWAB NAMED DEAN OF COLLEGE LIFE

Allen M. Schwab, Ph.D., of Hamilton, NY, a faculty member at Colgate University, has been appointed Dean of College Life and associate professor of English at the Lindenwood College.

A 1964 graduate of the University of Illinois, he holds an M.A. degree from the University of Washington and a Ph.D. degree from Tufts University. Dr. Schwab has served on the Colgate faculty since 1973, teaching for the Interdisciplinary Division and the Department of Music. From 1974-81, he served as Dean of Residential Life and Assistant Dean of Students at Colgate.

Prior to his Colgate positions, he served as a visiting assistant professor of English at Northwestern University, as an instructor in English at Kendall College, as a teaching fellow at the Experimental College of Tufts University and as a teaching assistant in English at the University of Washington. From 1978-82, he served as a lecturer and staff consultant at several institutions, including Oberlin College, Ithaca College, the State University of New York at Binghamton, Cornell University, Delaware County Community College and Northwestern University.

Since 1976, Dr. Schwab has published 31 articles on the descriptive analysis of more than 90 works performed by the Colgate University Symphony Orchestra. He also has drafted and edited policy documents, catalog and handbook copy and student affairs materials. He has served as coeditor of "Vox Facultatis," a chapter newsletter of the AAUP, and compiled a 200-page text, RESIDENCE STAFF HANDBOOK, for Colgate University.

Dr. Schwab and his wife, Phyllis, have a son, 5. He will assume the position July 1, replacing Ginny Grady who has been serving as interim Dean of Students.

AFA RIVER CRUISE RESCHEDULED FOR JUNE 4

Because of high waters on the Mississippi earlier this month, the "Mississippi Madness" river cruise planned by the Associates in Fine Arts (AFA), a campus-community organization of 150 art enthusiasts, has been rescheduled for June 4. A few tickets, priced at $17.50 each, still remain for the event. It will include a 2½-hour cruise aboard the mv. Tom Sawyer, dinner and Dixeland band music. A cash bar is aboard. Boarding will be at 7 p.m. with the cruise scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Free parking is available on the wharf near the Arch in downtown St. Louis. For further information and tickets, contact W. Dean Eckert at (314) 946-7689. The deadline for reservations is this Wednesday.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR EDUCATORS STILL REMAIN

Lindenwood has a few tuition scholarships and housing stipends still left for educators of the blind and visually handicapped. They can be applied to a certification program to be held this summer.

Scheduled courses include "Braille - Reading & Writing," "The Blind Child with Additional Disabilities," "Orientation & Mobility for Visually-Impaired Children," "Methods and Materials for Teaching the Visually Impaired" and "Conservation and Use of Limited Vision." The two-hour courses will be offered June 13-July 14. Each five-week course can be applied to a Master's in Education degree with an emphasis in teaching the blind and visually impaired.

Course instruction will be provided by faculty members, registered professionals and representatives of the Missouri School for the Blind and the St. Louis Society for the Blind. For further information on the availability of scholarships and stipends, contact the Education Department.

COMMUNIQUE

MAY 31ST IS DEADLINE FOR BOOK ORDERS

Gene Goldstein, manager of the Book Store, reminds faculty members that the deadline for ordering books for the fall term is May 31. Textbook requisition forms for fall courses are available at the Book Store.

PHOTO DISPLAY AT YOUNG SHOWCASE

Photographs taken by Lindenwood students are on display now through June 10 at the Young Showcase Gallery. Open to the public without charge, the exhibit can be viewed from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. daily.

AND BABY MAKES THREE!

Tiffany Marie is the name given to an eight-pound girl, born May 10 at DePaul Health Center to Kevin H. and Marilyn Morris of St. Charles. Well-known on campus and in the community, Marilyn is a Lindenwood admissions counselor. Tiffany is the couple's first child.

CERAMICS WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS SET

A four-week workshop in ceramics for teachers and beginning students will be held July 6-August 2 at the FAB. Offered from 9 a.m.-noon daily, the course will provide basic techniques of using clay in hand building and wheel throwing as well as on the use and theories of glazes and firing. It will be instructed by Bruce R. Johnson of Edwardsville, IL, an adjunct faculty member. The workshop will be tailored to individual classroom situations and will provide demonstrations on how teachers can expand the possibilities of art education for their students. Lab fee is $45. For further information, contact the Art Department or Registrar's Office.

NEW SUMMER HOURS FOR BUTLER LIBRARY

New operating hours for Butler Library are 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Mondays and Fridays; 8:30 a.m.-8 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays; and 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Saturdays. The library will be closed on Sundays as well as on July 2-4 for Independence Day weekend. The new schedule is in effect until August 2, reports Vicki Frowine, head librarian.

OFF-CAMPUS SUMMER EDUCATION OFFERINGS

The Education Department is sponsoring three off-campus courses this summer - "A Love Affair with Books" will be offered June 1-3 in Houston, TX, and August 10-12 in Champaign, IL, and "Children's Books & Authors Conference" will be held June 14-16 in Davenport, IA. Under the direction of Nancy Polette, assistant professor of education, the summer offerings will enable teachers to meet and work with some of the most creative children's and young adult authors in the country today. The three-day sessions will provide information on methods, materials and instruction designed to acquaint elementary and secondary children with books and reading. For further information, contact the Lindenwood Education Department.