2008-09

Welcome to today's basketball action at the Robert F. Hyland Performance Arena.

Lindenwood University is proudly celebrating its 182nd year of educating young people right here in St. Charles, Mo. The fall academic term began with a record residential enrollment of more than 3,650 students living on this beautiful 500-acre campus. We are continuing to construct modern facilities and hire the very best faculty members to provide a top quality education for our students.

Lindenwood has added a new doctoral degree and we are proposing yet another doctoral program. We are busy planning a new student commons building and new student apartments, and other wonderful changes are on the horizon.

Lindenwood now has 44 intercollegiate athletic programs, and we are still beaming over the Beijing Olympics, where Lindenwood athletes Donald Thomas (Bahamas) and Sean McLelland (United States) competed on the international stage. We are also excited about the Lions and Lady Lions basketball teams moving up to the NAIA Division I level this season, and being a part of the Heart of America Athletic Conference (HAAC) as it hosts the 2009 NAIA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament in Kansas City, Mo.

Please take the time to drive around campus and speak to a few students. You will understand how our image of high quality — combined with a vibrant mission, a beautiful campus and other appealing features — continues to make Lindenwood one of this region's leaders in higher education.

Sincerely,

James D. Evans, Ph. D.
President
Lindenwood University

Head Coach George Little

George Little is in his first season as the Lindenwood women's basketball head coach after serving as an assistant coach the previous three seasons.

As the Lady Lions' assistant coach, Little was responsible for recruiting, as well as assisting in floor coaching and game preparation. Lindenwood has improved its overall and conference record in each of the last two seasons, and the team has reached the HAAC Tournament each year that Little has been on the bench.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Little was on the men's basketball coaching staff at Harris-Stowe from 2001-04, including as head coach for the 2003-04 season.

He also has coaching experience at Florissant Valley Community College from 1997-2001. He was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the first three years there. In 2000-01, he served as the interim head coach there and helped the team to a 24-10 record and a seventh-place national finish.

Little received his bachelor of arts from Columbia College. He earned a master of arts in sports management from Lindenwood.

Asst. Coach Jeanette Bell

Jeanette Bell is in her first season at Lindenwood as a graduate assistant. In addition to her coaching and recruiting responsibilities, she handles a number of administrative duties.

Bell came to Lindenwood after serving as the assistant women's basketball coach at Culver-Stockton the last three years. During the summer of 2006 and 2007, Bell was the assistant coordinator of the Culver-Stockton basketball camps. She assisted the head coach with organization and supervision of the camp. She was also the director of the Culver-Stockton High School Summer League in 2006 and 2007.

As an undergraduate at Westminster, Bell was a member of the varsity soccer and basketball teams. On the basketball court, Bell was a four-year letterwinner and she completed her career fifth on the all-time assists list. She was named to the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SLIAC) all-tournament team in 2005 and was a team captain. Bell was named Westminster's Female Athlete of the Year in 2005 and was the recipient of the Boyd Memorial Award, which is presented annually to a senior dual-sport athlete.

Bell is a native of Jefferson City, Mo., and graduated from Helias High School. She lettered in five sports at Helias, including track where she was a two-time state champion.

Bell graduated from Westminster College in Fulton, Mo. in 2005, and received a bachelor of science degree in physical education and a minor in coaching and psychology. She is currently pursuing her master's in sports management.

Asst. Coach Crystal Davis

Crystal Davis is in her first year as an assistant coach on George Little's staff.

She came to Lindenwood University from Berea College (Ky.) where she was an assistant basketball coach for one season. While Davis was at Berea, the Lady Mountaineers had a record of 22-8, advanced to the NAIA Division II National Championship Tournament, and led the nation in scoring with 94.1 points a game.

Davis was also an assistant coach at Wilmington College for the 2006-07 season. Wilmington had a record of 25-5 that season and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III Tournament.

Davis was a point guard during her playing career at Berea, where she graduated as the Mountaineers' all-time assist leader with 554 assists. She holds the school record for most assists in a season (168). As a junior, Davis ranked sixth in the nation with 5.8 assists per game and her assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.48-1 was first in the country. She was also selected to the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KIAC) First-Team All-Conference squad.

Davis is a 2006 graduate of Berea where she earned a degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. She is currently earning her masters degree in sports management at Lindenwood.

Head Coach Ryan Cherepkai

Ryan Cherepkai is in his fourth season as the head coach of Lindenwood men's basketball. He is in his seventh year at Lindenwood and is starting his 10th overall year in the coaching business.

As head coach of the Lions, he has compiled a record of 56-42. Included in that was the best season in Lindenwood history in 2005-06 when they went 26-10, won their first-ever HAAC Championship and advanced to the NAIA Division II Final Four. For these accomplishments, Cherepkai was named the HAAC Coach of the Year.

Cherepkai has coached seven all-conference selections, four NAIA All-Americans (including one first-team selection), as well as one NAIA All-Tournament selection at the national tournament. In addition to these accomplishments, two of his former players are playing professionally in Europe.

Prior to being named the head coach at Lindenwood, Cherepkai was an assistant coach at the school for three seasons. He also coached at his alma mater, Roxana High School, helping the Shells to win a conference and regional championship in 2000. In addition to coaching at the high school level, Cherepkai was the founder and head coach of the Illinois Blue Devils Basketball Club, a successful AAU basketball program.

Before entering the coaching field, Cherepkai was an all-conference player at Roxana. After high school, he played at Florissant Valley Community College and SIU-Edwardsville.

Cherepkai received his bachelor of science degree in kinesiology from SIU-Edwardsville in 2002 and his master's of education in teaching from Lindenwood in 2004.

Asst. Coach David Ward

David Ward is a newcomer on the Lindenwood staff this year, serving as a graduate assistant. He is responsible for working with the perimeter players, academic monitoring as well as on court coaching.

Ward knows the HAAC well as he was a former all-conference performer at Baker University and is the career leader in scoring at Paola High School. Ward was named all-state in basketball and football. In basketball, he averaged over 25 points a game a senior. In football, he was an option quarterback at Paola.

Asst. Coach Marshall Newman

Ryan Cherepkai's right hand man is Marshall Newman. Newman, who is in his fourth year at Lindenwood, manages the pre and post season conditioning program, helps in perimeter player development, scouting, recruiting and on-floor coaching.

In addition to coaching, Newman is employed as a full-time assistant in the Intramural Department of Student Activities. He assists in planning, organizing and running all intramural activities.

Newman completed his All-St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference senior campaign as a forward for the Webster University Gorlocks in 2005. Prior to playing at Webster, Newman was an all-conference performer at Illinois Central College, where he averaged 13 points and 6 rebounds per game.

A native of St. Louis and a 2000 graduate of Lindbergh High School, Newman graduated from Webster in May of 2005 with a degree in media communications and received his masters of arts in teaching in May of 2007.

Asst. Coach Larry Graham

Veteran coach Larry Graham brings great experience and success to the Lindenwood basketball program. Besides coaching the Lions, he also teaches in the physical education department at Lindenwood.

Graham was previously the head coach at Madison High School, SIU-Edwardsville and Florissant Valley Community College. At all three schools, he set school records for wins and led programs to first time tournament success.

Graham won two state championships at Madison High School (Ill.). While coaching at SIU-Edwardsville, he reached the NCAA Division II Tournament two times, advancing to the Sweet Sixteen both appearances. At Florissant Valley Community College, he led his team to a seventh-place finish in the national tournament.

Graham is a member of the Illinois and Missouri Coaches Hall of Fame, and was named one of the 100 Legends in Illinois High School Tournament History. He has won several coach of the year awards, most recently being named Conference Coach of the Year while at Florissant Valley during the 2003-2004 season.

Graham, an Indiana native, is married to Karen Graham and has four children: Nita, Gina, Steve, and Mark.
