INTRODUCTION FOR FRESHMEN

"HELLO"
and
WELCOME to the
CLASS OF 1946!!

DR. HARRY MOREHOUSE GAGE, PRESIDENT

The campus is not an academic retreat from reality. It is not an erratic dream-world. It is more like a Jacob's ladder which reaches to the heavens above and rests on solid earth beneath.

In a badly shaken world the college is witness to an immovable and unchanging reality. Our students and teachers do not feel that a crack has gone right through creation and that everyone is sinking into boundless, bottomless empty space. There are things that endure amid "the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds!" Lindenwood on the alert teaches no hopeless surrender—

Harry Morehouse Gage

HARRY MOREHOUSE GAGE

President
Lindenwood College

WELCOME FRESHMEN!

Throughout the world youth are looking to the future when men and women will pursue again their peaceful ways. Mindful of the times American college students of 1942 will dedicate their lives to a more intelligent achievement of democracy that respects the personality of every individual through self discipline.

We believe that at Lindenwood College young women can prepare to do the work in the home and in the community that will contribute effectively to health, labor, and recreation in our American democracy. These social responsibilities are less dramatic than donning a uniform, but they constitute one of the vital means for the perpetuation of our American heritage.

THE FACULTY AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

FRESHMAN DAYS

From the moment you arrive on the campus, you, the freshmen, are the most important people. Everybody wants to know you and we hope that you will like us. We will be glad to help in any way that we can to make you happy at Lindenwood.

You have already had a letter from your "Big Sister", and she is waiting for you. You will find her only too glad to answer your questions and direct your footsteps during the first confusing days of college. The "Big Sisters" have planned many social events, such as the "get acquainted" dance, to make you feel at home, and the Administration has planned many additional events, such as placement tests, to make you feel at school. You will have time in between to unpack your bags and arrange your room.

You will begin your college career by registering and planning your course of study with your faculty advisor, who will explain to you why it is best to take a Grade I course instead of a Grade III course. On Thursday classes will convene—you will have begun the work of your first year in college! Friday evening is the "get acquainted" dance.

By this time you will have made many new friends and you will rapidly learn the why's and wherefore's of campus life. You now belong to Lindenwood and are almost as much at home as the most dignified senior!

WHAT TO BRING

A freshman always asks, "What shall I take to college?" Of course, after two or three years, this is no longer a problem so Juniors and Seniors at Lindenwood have made a few suggestions which may help you in your preparation.

CLOTHES: Casualness in dress, and never carelessness, is the rule at Lindenwood. Sweaters, skirts, jackets, socks, and flat-heeled shoes are the style the year round for class wear. Before dinner you will probably want to freshen up and change to a sport dress which is always in order. Sunday finds the Lindenwood girl in her best—short afternoon dresses of crepe, velveteen, or light weight wool, are admired and make a good impression on a "date". A campus sport coat is indispensable and a suit for those shopping trips to St. Louis is just the thing. Long dinner dresses are worn to formal dinners and formal evening dresses to the college date dances. A formal with a jacket does triple duty for dances, dinners, and formal teas. Of course you will need a housecoat or a lounging robe, and a pair of bedroom slippers—soft-soled slippers will make you popular with the girl who lives under you. Slacks may be worn on Saturday mornings from the time of rising until 4:00 P. M.; they also come in handy for field trips in the woods, and for picnics.

BUDGET AND FASHION COUNSELOR: Lindenwood brings its students a Budget and Fashion Counselor again this year. She will be available on the campus to help you with problems of wardrobe planning and selection, good grooming, and budgeting your clothing allowance. She will give you tips on what's smart, on campus or off, and will bring you news of what the shops are showing.

YOUR ROOM: In your room you will find a single bed, a dresser, a desk and desk chair, and an armchair. At first glance your room will seem bare, but with the addition of a spread, drapes, scatter rugs, lamps, and pictures of your very best friends, your room will be just as homey as the one you left behind. A radio will keep you in touch with the news and your favorite program, but you can always listen to your neighbor's if you do not have one.

The College recommends that you have two pair of 3-4 sheets, three or four pillow cases, size 42, a pair of blankets, a spread for your bed, a supply of towels and other linens desired. Each student should have two small rugs—about 3 x 5 or 2 x 4.

The College urges that elaborate preparations not be made, as you will find things more to your liking and your room will have a more collegiate air if you add to your possessions from time to time during the year as you and your roommate decide. The little personal articles you have for decoration will prove sufficient.

Usually it is not advisable to determine the hangings for your windows until you become acquainted with your roommate. It is very proper for roommates to confer with one another about the color scheme of their room and other questions. Each of you will appreciate the room furnishings much more. Trunks may be kept in your room, or stored in the dormitory in which you live.

ALLOWANCE: The College believes that students should be placed upon an allowance. It is essential that young women learn the value of money and its correct use. To this end Lindenwood College advises budgeting your allowance and keeping your expenses down to the minimum. Learn the lesson that you must be guided by what you can afford, not by what others may do. Attractive budget books will be given you by the Budget and Fashion Counselor.

HELPFUL HINTS

Begin well! Remember, poor work the first week is apt to drag through the year. Everyone will help you—if, you help yourself.

Show what you can do by going out for college activities.

The Lindenwood College Student Association is to help you.

Cultivate a wide acquaintance.

The faculty is waiting to like you—so give them an opportunity.

When leaving the campus, "sign out"; when returning, "sign in". It pays.

Each neglected task makes the next one harder.

YOUR HEALTH IS IMPORTANT—TAKE CARE OF IT! EAT YOUR MEALS REGULARLY, GET PLENTY OF SLEEP, AND PLAY AS HARD AS YOU WORK.

If you smile, you will go further.

You never like anything until you try it.

Remember that hats and appropriate street clothes must be worn in St. Louis. You may omit the hats in St. Charles. A Lindenwood student is often recognized in St. Louis.

Help to keep the college and the campus in order.

IT IS MUCH PLEASANTER TO LIVE IN A NEAT ROOM.

Class spirit is fine, and college spirit is better.

Absolute quiet is required in assembly and Vespers.

Don't visit your neighbor after eleven o'clock in the evening.

ALWAYS RESPOND PROMPTLY TO A NOTE FROM A FACULTY MEMBER OR AN ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER ASKING TO SEE YOU. IT WILL BE TO YOUR ADVANTAGE.

Turn out the lights when you are not using them.

Preserve your neighbor's disposition by keeping quiet hours.

No food may be taken from the dining room.

Chewing gum in class, or in the library is annoying to those around you.

The Student Council maintains an office in Roemer Hall, Room 19.

AT LINDENWOOD WE BEGIN AND CLOSE ALL COLLEGE EVENTS ON TIME.

Send your telegrams during the day from Mr. Motley's office.

Save yourself much worry and the possible loss of something you prize by taking care of your personal belongings. Do not keep money, or other valuables, in your top dresser drawer, or under the paper on your closet shelf. Even small amounts should be safeguarded. You may deposit your allowance in the college bank where it will be safe. Draw out a dollar or two at a time for your personal needs during the week, and a larger sum on Saturday if you plan to shop in St. Louis. You keep money in your room at your own risk! Keep your rings on your fingers and your watch on your wrist, and don't forget them when you wash your hands.

If you have lost something, look for it in the Lost and Found in the Office of Student Guidance and Personnel.

The chaperons act as hostesses at college dances. It is customary to introduce your guests to them.

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARDS IN ROEMER HALL AND IN YOUR RESIDENCE HALL. YOU MAY SEE SOMETHING OF INTEREST THERE.

Keep off the grass. Don't cut corners.

REMEMBER YOU ACTIVELY REPRESENT
LINDENWOOD WHEREVER YOU GO AND WHATEVER YOU DO! !

CAMPUS COURTESIES

Be considerate—leave a girl's room when you find her studying.

DO NOT ENTER ANOTHER'S ROOM UNLESS THE OWNER IS THERE.

Show respect for members of the faculty. It is polite to stand aside for them when entering a room, and to open doors for them.

Regard any task given you with great seriousness and with a sense of responsibility.

If you work as a student assistant any place on the campus, report there regularly. If you cannot be there for some legitimate reason, notify your supervisor. Form regular work habits.

Do not appear in the dining room looking unkempt and frowsy. You wouldn't go to the Chase Dining Room looking that way.

"Hi", instead of "good morning", will serve as a greeting for your next door neighbor when you meet her on the campus, but it is a poor substitute when speaking to a member of the faculty.

It is not in good taste to say "O. K." when agreeing with a faculty member.

Transact all business with instructors in their respective offices; do not make a habit of "tackling" them on the campus.

ALWAYS KNOCK BEFORE ENTERING A ROOM. IF THE DOOR IS CLOSED IT USUALLY MEANS THAT THE OCCUPANT IS BUSY.

The window sill of your room is not a good storage place for "coke" bottles.

LINDENWOOD CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

Lindenwood is more than a century old in traditions—some traditions and customs in the long list go back to 1827 and to the days of the Sibleys, and others are as comparatively new and modern as the Lindenwood girl of 1942.

You will find your early freshman days at Lindenwood filled with traditions—the “hot dog” barbecue served by the men on the campus, the “get acquainted” dance in Butler Gymnasium the first Friday evening, and Convocation the first Sunday evening in Roemer Hall. “Big Sisters” looking for their charges, a few tears, and perhaps a wee bit of homesickness at first. Tables assigned in the dining room, with high and mighty seniors as their heads.

October brings, first of all, the college picnic when the slogan, “Relax, unbend, and have a good time” is observed by all. The second Tuesday of the month finds us off to St. Louis to see the Veiled Prophet ride in all his majesty through cheering crowds of worshipping thousands; a few lucky ones go to the Ball the next night. Then comes Founder’s Day on the 4th Thursday, with many distinguished guests on the campus. Soon afterward the Halloween Queen, elected by student vote from the Freshman Class, is crowned at the Masquerade Ball. That night at the stroke of twelve the weird strains of the organ in Sibley Chapel are heard—Mrs. Sibley’s ghost on one of her visits to the campus! And by the way, when the dining room suddenly becomes hushed and still, you will hear an upperclassman whisper, “Mrs. Sibley’s ghost is passing through”. By this time everyone is in the swing of student meetings on Tuesday morning, daily assembly, and vesper services at six-thirty on Sunday evenings.

In November we have Armistice Day and flags on the dining room tables. And finally, although it seemed it would never come, "turkey day" is here and we say our thanks, and wonder why we ate so much. Then it seems that winter is upon us and we have the first flakes of snow—

The Christmas Season is a busy one—the annual Christmas play by talented members of Alpha Psi Omega, residence hall parties with a present for everyone (last year Butler Hall even had a cake that played "Jingle Bells"), and the Christmas dinner party in the dining room, with Santa Claus and presents for all the maids, cooks, and others who help to keep the campus in tip-top shape. Never forgotten is that first breathless moment when the lighted Christmas tree on the campus is seen, nor the star at the very top and the smaller, though no less lovely, trees in each living room on the campus. And, of course, you dressed a doll for the kiddies at Markham Settlement House. Finally, at midnight before leaving for that thrilling vacation at home, the strains of "Silent Night" float over the campus—the Sophomores are caroling and distributing holly in each residence hall as is their custom.

January—back from the vacation of vacations, with brand new pictures of handsome young men, and many thrilling tales to last far into the night. But soon it seems that all pleasure must be forgotten and all one knows is study for "finals"—burning the midnight oil becomes popular and a worried look is in vogue. Then the first thing we know we are safely over that hard bump and it is popularity queen time—"Who will it be?"

February sees the girls in the post office in a perfect rush—boxes upon boxes of candy are piled high, red roses are everywhere, happy smiles—why, of course, it's Valentine Day! Dozens of telegrams are entwining their way over miles of wire to gladden the hearts of "my valentine". Winter goes on, but the stores in St. Louis are beginning to show spring wardrobes and we hasten to look them over. Groundhog day passes without a shadow—Spring can't be far off!

March finds us planning for another U. S. O. Dance. Lindenwood women have done their best to keep up morale on the "home front". During the year soldiers and sailors from camps in the St. Louis area have been entertained at "no date" parties and many students have taken an active part in war activities. Several "bean soup suppers" have been served in place of the regular dinner, and any sum saved by these suppers has been given to the Red Cross, the Navy Relief Fund, and the Chinese Relief Fund. Knitting needles are clicking in almost every student room on the campus, and someone in need has been the warmer this past winter because of it. The spring play is, as usual, a credit to the Dramatic Art Department.

April, and the sun is getting warmer all the time—we begin to think of summer clothes and getting a sun tan. We all enjoyed the teas and informal get-togethers in the Library Club Room during the winter, but now we like to sit in the swings and lawn chairs and enjoy the sunshine. Everybody is counting the hours until spring vacation and at last it comes—what fun! Those that cannot go home visit friends and—"have the best time...." The President of the Lindenwood College Student Association for next year is elected and we are so proud of her.

May, and picnics at the ovens! Wonderful times together, and a weak feeling that it is almost over! Class Day exercises, with the Seniors relinquishing their high and mighty place on the campus to the Juniors, are exciting. Trunks are in the halls, bags are half packed, and proud parents are being greeted with many squeals of joy.

Finally the last few days are here—the Art Exhibit, the Horse Show, and the Commencement Play—Seniors running around in caps and gowns, looking very learned, but a little sad to think that four beautiful years are over. Baccalaureate on Sunday afternoon and the midnight campus jamboree that night—a raid on the dining room, and such food! !

At last it's here—Commencement! It's all over! Promises to write, tears (more than in September), goodbyes, and "I'll be back next year." LINDENWOOD!

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE SONGS

LINDENWOOD HYMN

School of our mothers, in days of yore,
 Goal of their fond ambitions long;
 Within the portals of thy door,
 Ideals were formed and will made strong;
 Thy honored rule was ever good,
 Old Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.
 The tumult and the shouting dies,
 The Seniors, year by year, depart;
 Still stands thy ancient edifice,
 A stately and a noble pile,
 With arched limbs of sacred wood
 'Round Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.
 Far called, old teachers pass away,
 But new ones rise to take their place;
 And all the pomp of yesterday
 Goes on with but a change of face.
 Few hearts but throb with kindly good
 Toward Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.
 On girls that come, and girls that go,
 On all that walk beneath thy shade;
 A heaven-sent gift wilt thou bestow,
 A graceful and a gracious maid,
 With brains for power and heart for good—
 Old Lindenwood, Dear Lindenwood.

Amen.

LOUISE CRANDALL.

MELODY, "ILLINOIS' LOYALTY"

We're loyal to you, Lindenwood;
 We're yellow and white, Lindenwood.
 We know you can stand
 'Gainst the best in the land,
 For your standard is grand, Lindenwood,
 Rah! Rah!
 Then, on with your work, Lindenwood;
 Not one girl will shirk, Lindenwood.
 Our school is our greatest pleasure;
 On girls, with great endeavor;
 Three cheers for New Lindenwood!
 Cha! he! Cha! haw!—Che! he! haw! haw!
 Lindenwood, Lindenwood, Rah! Rah! Rah!

LINDENWOOD ALMA MATER SONG

Lindenwood, our Alma Mater
 We will stand by thee,
 We will fight and fail you never
 To eternity.
 We will love you until the end
 You know that it's you we'll defend
 So, hail, hail, the gang's all here
 And we're loyal to you L. C. (1)

Always forward
 We'll be on the top.
 Always forward
 We will never stop
 Hit 'em high, hit 'em low
 Come on L. C.—let's go—
 (repeat to 1.)

LINDENWOOD HYMNPRIZE SONG OF 1918

Words and Music by Marion Haire

Oh, the girls all come to Lindenwood,
 From North, South, East and West,
 For education
 And 'sociation,
 In everything we lead the rest;
 We always come out best.
 Co-operation!
 Our reputation!
 Fancy anybody going away—
 They always stay if they came here a day;
 So here's three cheers for the dear old school
 Where the honor system is the rule.
 Oh! Lindenwood, in all the years to be,
 Our hearts with love will overflow for thee.
 You are dearest to our heart,
 And with tears from you we'll part;
 There's no place like home, you see,
 But Lindenwood spells home to me.

FACULTY PRIZE SONG, 1923-24

Words by Virginia Symms—Music by Elizabeth Bates

In the heart of our great country,
Under western skies of blue,
As a beacon-light of knowledge
Stands our Alma Mater true.
'Neath her flag of gold and snowdrift
Bow her leafy sheltering trees,
Stretching arms of love and service,
To inspire to nobler deeds,
Let us truly be the children
Of this mother, grand and good;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Hail to thee, our Lindenwood!

PRIZE SONG OF 1923-24

Words by Jessie Schaper—Music by Alberta Shell

'Neath the shade of massive lindens,
At the gateway of the West,
Stands our dear old Alma Mater,
Loved in ages, far the best,
Truth and honor, held the highest,
By our mothers, loved and true,
Are the standards that surviveth,
Girls of Lindenwood, for you.
For your ideals and traditions,
For your colors firm we stand;
Lindenwood, our Alma Mater—
Best in ages, of the land.

HELLO SONG

Lindenwood girls are a friendly lot—
Hello, Hello, Hello, Hello,
Are we downhearted; I'll say we're not—
Hello, Hello, Hello, Hello!

Refrain

Hello, Hello, Hello, Hello—
That's what we all want to say.
We're peppy, we're jolly,
We have lots of fun
For these are our college days.

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE
STUDENT ASSOCIATION

COLLEGE GOVERNMENT

Individual and community responsibility rest upon the students. A student self government association outlines the rules and regulations of student government with the advice of the administration of the College.

EACH STUDENT UPON ENTRANCE BECOMES A MEMBER OF THE LINDENWOOD COLLEGE STUDENT ASSOCIATION. EACH STUDENT IS HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF REGULATIONS AND COLLEGE GOVERNMENT DESCRIBED IN THIS HANDBOOK.

However, since it is the purpose to keep the atmosphere of the school wholesome and helpful, the President of the College may dismiss at any time any student who may be exerting a harmful influence, or who may be found to be entirely out of sympathy with the tone and standard of the school, even though she has not committed any special act of insubordination.

Greetings to all of you—and welcome Class of 1946!

If you can spare a few moments from the excitement of being here at Lindenwood (it can be exciting even when it's for the fourth time), take a look at the section of your Handbook on student government.

Today while democracy is being put to the test all over the world, we also put it to trial as we govern ourselves in our college community. To prove that democracy does work, let's do our best this year to make college democracy a greater success than ever!

It is a famous old school to whose campus we come. As we enjoy the friendships, the beauties, the traditions of Lindenwood, may we students of 1942-43 add to its greatness!

And here's wishing each of you the best of everything that college offers from grades to dates!

DORIS BANTA

CLASS ATTENDANCE

CLASS ATTENDANCE

I. ATTENDANCE: Academic work in Lindenwood College is based upon the regular attendance of students at all classes. It is understood, therefore, that students will attend all classes regularly, unless absence is due to unavoidable reasons. Responsibility for any work missed during an absence from class is a matter which rests with the student and the instructor.

II. ABSENCE: Absence from class caused by illness will be excused by the College Physician. Students who are ill should report immediately to the College Infirmary. Upon dismissal from the Infirmary a student will be issued an excuse which must be presented to the instructor of each class upon return to class. Absence from class because of church holidays, weddings, funerals, participation in civic programs and conferences approved by the College, will be excused by the Director of Student Guidance and Personnel. All excuses must be presented to each instructor upon return to class.

III. TESTS:

No student may be absent on the day of an assigned test, or other special assigned work, unless an excuse is presented to the instructor. In the case of an unexcused absence, the student cannot expect to make up the assigned test, or other special assigned work missed.

IV. VACATIONS:

Absence from any class within the last twenty-four hours before, or the first twenty-four hours after, any regular vacation or holiday is not permitted. GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY

In 1827 the history of Lindenwood College began. Major and Mrs. George C. Sibley were the founders. The purpose of the founders was to establish a distinctive school for young women.

The sparsely settled Southwest was in need of good schools; surely women should have the best. Thus Lindenwood College was established. The name was chosen from the site selected, which at that time was in a grove of linden trees.

In 1853 the Sibleys transferred the management of the school to the Presbytery of St. Louis, and a state charter was secured. A Board of Directors, fifteen in number, was appointed. In 1870, the appointment of the Board was transferred to the Presbyterian Synod, U. S. A., of Missouri. The College, while under the direction of a Board appointed by a denominational organization, is nonsectarian in its admission of students and permits the greatest religious freedom. In accordance with the wishes of its founders, the College maintains the teaching of the Word of God as a regular part of its curriculum.

EDUCATIONAL STANDING

Lindenwood College is a Class A College, conferring the four-year college degrees. It is a member of the Missouri College Union, the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities, The American Council on Education, and The Association of American Colleges, which assures accrediting in the best colleges and universities of the country.

National Association of Schools of Music

Lindenwood College is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music, and the regulations for entrance and for graduation, as set forth in the catalog, are in accordance with the published requirements of the National Association of Schools of Music.

ENDOWMENT

The College is not dependent alone upon its tuition fees. A productive endowment of over two million dollars, exclusive of buildings, is available. Its income enables the administration to secure an able faculty of professors and instructors. Students in Lindenwood have opportunity to know their teachers who have been educated in the leading colleges and universities of America.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Over one and one-half million dollars are invested in buildings on the campus. Every building used for educational and dormitory purposes is of the highest type of construction. Roemer Hall, used for administrative and educational purposes, is the central building of the campus. In the quadrangle are Butler Hall, Ayres Hall, Sibley Hall, Niccolls Hall, Irwin Hall, Senior Hall, Eastlick Hall, the President's home, The Gables, The Cupboard, and the Library. The Lillie P. Roemer Memorial Fine Arts Building, on Butler Way, is used by the Music and Art Departments for instruction. The central heating plant furnishes steam and hot water for all the buildings. The Lodge is the home of the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. The Watson is the home of the Maintenance Man. A Barn, Garage, Greenhouse, Detention Hospital, Water Clarifying Plant, and a Stable are among other buildings on the Campus. The grounds cover an area of 140 acres. A golf course, tennis courts, an athletic field and a paddock are attractive features of the Campus. To the west of the golf course is the college farm, which is under supervision of an experienced farmer who lives there and attends to the raising of products for the Lindenwood table.

HEALTH

The foundation of education is good health. Careful attention is given to the physical condition of the students. Trained dietitians are in charge of the dining hall, and every effort is made to have not only the best but properly prepared food. One of the largest and the most modernly equipped kitchen affords the best opportunity for preparation of food. Adjoining the kitchen is a well-lighted and ventilated dining room for serving. A clarifying and purifying water system safeguards the health of the students in drinking water, swimming, and bathing. Tests of the purity of the water are made by experts. A well-equipped Infirmary, under the direction of the College Physician and a Registered Nurse, cares for the students in case of sickness. No extra charge is made in ordinary cases of sickness nor for consultation with the College Physician.

FACULTY

It is to your advantage to make the members of the faculty your friends and counselors through college. They are anxious to know you.

After you have called, do not be afraid to go again, for they are always glad to see you.

All members of the faculty have office hours. Call on them while you are waiting for class.

When a Lindenwood student receives a note from a faculty member, asking to see her, a prompt response is expected. It will be to your advantage to report as requested to the office of any faculty member who wishes to see you.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICES

Religious culture is given an important place at Lindenwood. Although the college is non-sectarian in matters of religion, it is insistent upon the knowledge of the Word of God and Christian training. Every student during her freshman or sophomore year is required to take two semester hours in the study of the Bible.

Addresses are given during the year by ministers, missionaries, and laymen, upon topics that will give the students a larger vision of Christian work in the world. The Young Women's Christian Association is a most effective organization in the development of the religious life. Pastors of the city are given the names of students who express denominational preference. Each student usually attends the church of her choice every Sunday morning. Some of our students engage in Christian service in the local churches and teach in the Sunday Schools.

DAILY ASSEMBLY

All students attend the regular noonday daily assembly on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The regular students' meeting, conducted by the Lindenwood College Student Association, meets at noon every Tuesday in the Auditorium.

Day Students attend daily assembly.

CONVOCATIONS

All students attend any Convocations held at eleven o'clock on Thursday mornings, or occasionally in the evening.

VESPER SERVICES

Every Sunday evening vesper services are held for all members of the college community. These services are short, with music furnished by the college choir. All students on the campus attend.

HABITUAL ABSENCE FROM DAILY ASSEMBLY, CONVOCATIONS, OR VESPER SERVICES IS AN INDICATION THAT A STUDENT IS NOT IN HARMONY WITH THE COLLEGE.

ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

Going to class and preparing your lessons for the next day is only a part of your college life. Most students participate in at least one "activity", and many take part in two or three. There are many clubs and organizations on the campus that meet the demands and the varied interests of the Lindenwood students. You will be sure to find one or more that appeals to you.

LOCAL HONOR SOCIETIES:

ALPHA SIGMA TAU

MEMBERSHIP IN ALPHA SIGMA TAU

is the highest scholastic honor Lindenwood College confers upon students in the College of Arts and Sciences. To be eligible, students must meet the following requirements: At the close of each semester a list of those students who have the highest grades is prepared in the Office of the Academic Dean. The grades of E, S, and M are evaluated by the points 3, 2, and 1, respectively; i. e., an E in a five-hour course is worth 15 points. There is not a set number of points to be made. One semester the grades may be much higher than another. A student must take 14 hours of literary work for three consecutive semesters to be eligible. Eight per cent of the three upper classes may be elected to membership, provided their work is satisfactory as far as grades are concerned, and provided they are considered desirable from the point of view of conduct and loyalty to the school. First, the Director of Student Guidance and Personnel passes upon the list of candidates, presented by the Academic Dean, and eliminates the name of any student who does not qualify. The faculty then votes upon the list of candidates.

We urge every student in the liberal arts college to have this honor as her goal. It requires no more hours of work than an Arts and Science student should take in order to meet the graduation requirements. It does require, however, that the student take the number of hours recommended for each semester and that her work should be consistent. To meet the other requirement, it takes no more character, and no more loyalty than every student should have.

However, exception is made in the case of parents or relatives in that flowers sent by parents or relatives may be placed on the stage before a recital begins. Otherwise, they must be sent by the florist to the student's room".
2. "It will not be in conformity with the policy of Lindenwood College for any member of the faculty or the administration to accept a gift from any student."

RESIDENCE HALLS

HOME LIFE

The greatest freedom consistent with the best interests of each is given. Each student may seek counsel on matters pertaining to her welfare in the Office of Student Guidance and Personnel. Individual responsibility is encouraged.

Lindenwood College maintains five modern residence halls. Each provides living rooms, bedrooms, social centers, pressing rooms, reading nooks with daily newspapers, current periodicals, fiction and non-fiction books, recreation rooms, and many other features that add to the comfort and happiness of the students. Teas and birthday parties in the residence halls are pleasant occasions; in fact, the whole atmosphere is one of family life all through the school year. Loyalty to the hall is strong, and it is within these units that most friendships are formed. Hall organization aims to promote scholarship, enrich social life, and develop a respect for community life and social living.

In each hall a Head Resident presides as a hostess and social advisor, and as a friend to the students in residence. Each hall is governed by a hall president and her staff, elected by the members of the hall; each hall staff becomes a member of the Residence Council, which in turn works for the morale and efficient running of the entire unit of residence halls.

Each residence hall furnishes a suite of rooms for the social activities of the students. A suite consists of a kitchenette, dinette, and recreation room where students may prepare refreshments for small groups of friends and entertain them in various ways. In the kitchenettes will be found electric refrigerators, electric stoves, toasters, grills, as well as complete services of china and silver adequate for the preparation of food for the many parties and other celebrations that take place.

Senior Hall is a small residence hall, used for senior students.

At the close of the year an award of $100 will be made to the hall that, in the judgment of the Residence Hall Committee, best meets the standards of good citizenship on the Lindenwood College campus.

PLACES YOU WILL WANT TO FIND

Soon after your arrival at Lindenwood you will want to find the following places. Each of them will play an important part in your "life at Lindenwood".

THE BANK

The College Bank is located on the first floor of Roemer Hall, and is open daily from 8:30 to 9:30 A. M., and 1:30 to 2:30 P. M., and from 8:00 to 10:00 A. M. only, on Saturdays. Students are urged to deposit their money here to insure its safety. Carrying money about or leaving it in your room often-times leads to carelessness and loss. The college stands responsible only for money placed in its care. The bank is for "depositing," not borrowing. Checks drawn by students on their parents or guardians will not be honored except when written instructions for such privileges from parents or guardians are on file in the bank.

BOOK STORE

The College Store is located in the Post Office. Here general supplies or books, stationery, sheet music, ink, pencils, pennants, pillows, college jewelry, etc., may be obtained. Regulation gym uniforms and tank suits to be used in the swimming pool, may be purchased here. All students wishing to have garments dry cleaned may leave them at the Book Store.

THE CUPBOARD

The Cupboard is the attractive brown cottage just opposite Roemer Hall. It is the meeting place of the campus and is reached from the residence halls via the "coke walk". (Just ask any upperclassman where that is.)

The Cupboard is open for the accommodation of students from 7:30 A. M. to 1:00 P. M.; 2:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.; and 9:30 P. M. to 10:30 P. M. It is operated in the interests of the students, all profits going to the Student Loan Fund.

DIETITIAN'S OFFICE

Tickets for guests for meals in the college dining room must be secured in advance from the Dietitian's Office, which is on the ground floor of Ayres Hall and accessible from the side entrance. Hours are as follows:

Daily except Sunday: 8:30 A. M. to 12:00 M.
4:30 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.
Sunday: 5:00 P. M. to 5:30 P. M.

GREENHOUSE

You will find the Greenhouse back of Sibley Hall under the water tower. Visit it now and then—it always has something lovely to offer.

INFIRMARY

In case of sickness, students are placed in the care of the college physician, a graduate nurse, and an assistant, who have charge of a well-equipped infirmary. Students are provided with the conveniences of the infirmary.

Office consultation of the college physician during his office hours is free to the students. In case of serious sickness, requiring a private nurse or special attention of a physician, the student bears the additional expense.

The Infirmary is on the second floor of Sibley Hall, in the southwest wing. Office hours are as follows:

7:30 A. M. to 11:00 A. M.
3:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.
6:30 P. M. to 7:30 P. M. Daily

The Infirmary is open at all hours for emergencies. Go there for dressings and medicines. Consult the Infirmary before going to an outside doctor, dentist, or oculist.

LIBRARY CLUB ROOM

The Library Club Room is on the ground floor of the Margaret Leggat Butler Library, just next to Roemer Hall. It is furnished with attractive rugs and colorful furniture; adjoining the Club Room is a kitchenette with electric cooking and refrigerating equipment. The Club Room is used extensively by student groups and faculty members.

You will find the Club Room open from eight in the morning until ten in the evening. Students may go there at anytime during those hours to recreate or study, unless there is a regular club meeting or some other attraction scheduled there on the monthly calendar. You will find recordings of beautiful music and a radio to amuse you.

LITTLE THEATRE

The Little Theatre will be found on the ground floor of Roemer Hall. Watch for the announcements of plays and speech recitals to be held there. The stage is fully equipped and attached to the theatre proper is a workshop where all the scenery is built and painted for the productions.

MR. MOTLEY'S OFFICE

Mr. Motley's Office is probably the most popular spot on the campus. You may not change rooms, or roommates, without first talking it over with Secretary Motley, and obtaining a written permission from him to do so. Telegrams may be sent from his office during the day. He can tell you just what train to take to get you home with great speed. See Mr. Motley, too, for theatre tickets and all bus and taxi arrangements. More than once your feet will lead you to this office for information.

MUSEUM

The Museum is in the Library, opposite the Club Room. It contains the early manuscripts and library of Major and Mrs. George C. Sibley, pictures of the presidents of Lindenwood College, and college trophies. You must see the reed organ purchased by the Sibleys in 1816, and the interesting doll collection there.

NICKELODEON

The nickelodeon is in the gymnasium and it furnishes excellent music for roller skating and dancing. On special occasions its music is heard in the dining room.

POST OFFICE

The Post Office is located on the ground floor of Roemer Hall. A lock box is assigned to every student. Only the box assigned to you is accessible for your mail.

The Post Office is known as Station 3 of the St. Charles Post Office and is conducted by a postmistress under the usual regulations. Packages may be mailed here, stamps bought, etc., as in any Government post office. In each hall are mail boxes for outgoing mail, which is collected twice a day.

Hours: 8:00 to 11:30 A. M.
12:30 to 5:00 P. M.

RECREATION ROOMS

You will find the recreation room in your hall on the ground floor. You may use this room anytime you wish—see how much fun it is to cook your dinner there some evening. Dates may be entertained in the recreation rooms at anytime

SWIMMING POOL

The swimming pool is in Butler Hall, near the gymnasium. Watch for the hours of "open pool", and earn extra points for the Athletic Association.

Y. W. C. A. PARLORS

The parlors of the Young Women's Christian Association will be found on the ground floor of Sibley Hall, in the southwest wing. Support your local Y. W. C. A.—find your way regularly to the meetings!

ST. CHARLES
ST. LOUIS

HISTORY OF ST. CHARLES

St. Charles is rich in historical interest. It was the first white settlement north of the Missouri River, and the first after St. Louis west of the Mississippi, with the exception of the Spanish settlements in the far southwest. The village was called "Les Petites Cotes" (The Little Hills) by Louis Blanchette, founder of St. Charles, in 1769, and was known by this name until 1791, when it was renamed "St. Charles".

In 1820 the first Missouri Legislature met in St. Louis and St. Charles was chosen the capital of the state. For five years the assembly met here, until it was moved to the more central location of Jefferson City. The old building where the Legislature met still stands at 212 South Main Street.

Today, St. Charles, a city of twelve thousand people, is in the very heart of transportation facilities for all parts of the United States. Bus service between St. Charles and St. Louis, a distance of twenty miles, is maintained every thirty minutes. The advantages of suburban and the privileges of city life are afforded Lindenwood students. The best concerts, lectures, and operas are of great interest to them, and the art museum and centers of culture are always open to Lindenwood students.

ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, "The City Surrounded by the United States", is representative of all elements of American life. Because of its central location, historical background, and position as inland capital of the nation, it combines the hospitality of the South, the industry of the North, the democracy of the West, and the culture of the East.

Founded on the west bank of the Mississippi River in 1764, as a small fur-trading post, St. Louis today is a city of over nine hundred thousand people. It is the foremost city of the Mississippi Valley, the largest city between the Great Lakes and the Gulf, second greatest railroad center in the United States, and the ninth city in rank of commercial importance. It has retained, however, something of the spirit and picturesqueness which went into the making of the rich historical background that is one of its greatest distinctions. St. Louis is a city old in years, but new in spirit, astep with cultural and business progress.

St. Louis has always been associated with Lindenwood College, with its founders and with its benefactors. In addition to campus activities, and the historic activities of St. Charles, Lindenwood students have easy access to St. Louis. In the laboratories of this metropolitan city, they may apply the lessons learned in the classroom.

You will be impressed with this gateway city, located at the junction of the great Mississippi and the Missouri River. The Mississippi River and St. Louis are inseparable—beautiful excursions may be made on the river, and the annual boat ride of Lindenwood College is an exciting event for everyone.
