An antiquated building that had exhausted its usefulness and was destined for demolition has instead become a quaint campus haven with a future of promising possibilities—all because of an idea.

The idea was spawned by members of the Student Christian Association and embellished by the Drama Department. The SCA envisioned a coffee house where students could conduct discussions and exchange ideas in a relaxed off-campus atmosphere free from outside interference and direction. Drama students were quick to react. This, they thought, would be an ideal place for impromptu plays and programs, dramatic readings, poetry recitations and similar pursuits.

Various members of the faculty liked the idea. So did President Brown when he assumed his duties last fall.

In the midst of this enthusiasm a likely location for fruition of the idea became available quite by chance. The new greenhouse at the Young Hall of Science was being used for the first time and the Art Department saw the old greenhouse as an ideal spot for sculpturing activities. The sculpture house behind Sibley Hall was vacated and advocates of the "coffee house" idea were quick to suggest the old building as the site for their project.

President Brown approved a "do it yourself" plan offered by the students. Armed with a few materials and plenty of ingenuity and enthusiasm, they sprang into action. A stage was erected at one end of the old building and both interior and exterior began to take on a bright, rustic charm. A little paint, red predominating, completed the job. "Carriage House" was suggested for a name and quickly chosen. It seemed a natural since the building was originally built as a carriage house and now, once again, it actually looked like one.

On campus as the Carriage House project progressed was Broadway actress and playwright Karen Johnson in the role of visiting professor in dramatics. An elfin dynamo, full of ideas and enthusiasm, Miss Johnson had just finished the campus production of "The House of Bernarda Alba", a spectacular hit with audiences. Agreeing to stay on to assist in the venture, she plunged headlong into the project and helped get the job done.

Before leaving Lindenwood, Miss Johnson granted permission for production of her play, "The Indiscretion of the Meatpucker's Daughter", as the Carriage House's premiere production. Four performances were given just prior to the Christmas holiday as the little theater on campus became a reality.

Impact of an Experience

By Don E. Wines

It was in connection with Lindenwood's annual Religion-In-Life week that paintings by Robert Hansen of Occidental College went up in Roemer Gallery late in January. The theme was religious but the portrayal was stark, harsh, disturbing—quite a departure from the Sunday school version of Christianity. It was a new experience for Lindenwood students.

To say that the exhibit was unique would be an understatement. Not only was the subject matter a departure, so was the medium. Hansen employs a technique of pouring lacquer of just the right viscosity on masonite. He learned the method more than 20 years ago in Mexico and has worked with it ever since, neither tiring of it nor, he feels, fully exploiting it.

... precise

In the midst of the exhibit, the artist appeared on campus and the experience for students was at once intensified. Here was Hansen the man—gentle, serene, articulate, precise, dedicated, intellectual—a complete antithesis, or so it seemed, to Hansen the artist. This was a contrast that intrigued students and they responded to the opportunities for amplification as Mr. Hansen conducted workshop sessions, gave a gallery talk on his work, engaged in informal discussions with students and delivered an illustrated lecture.

Through the experiences thus provided, the apparent contradictions evaporated. The pieces were put in place one by one. The artist and the man gradually became integrated.

Both emotion and intellectual response must be exercised for a full aesthetic experience, Hansen told the students. He warned of wrong responses to art—like snap judgment.

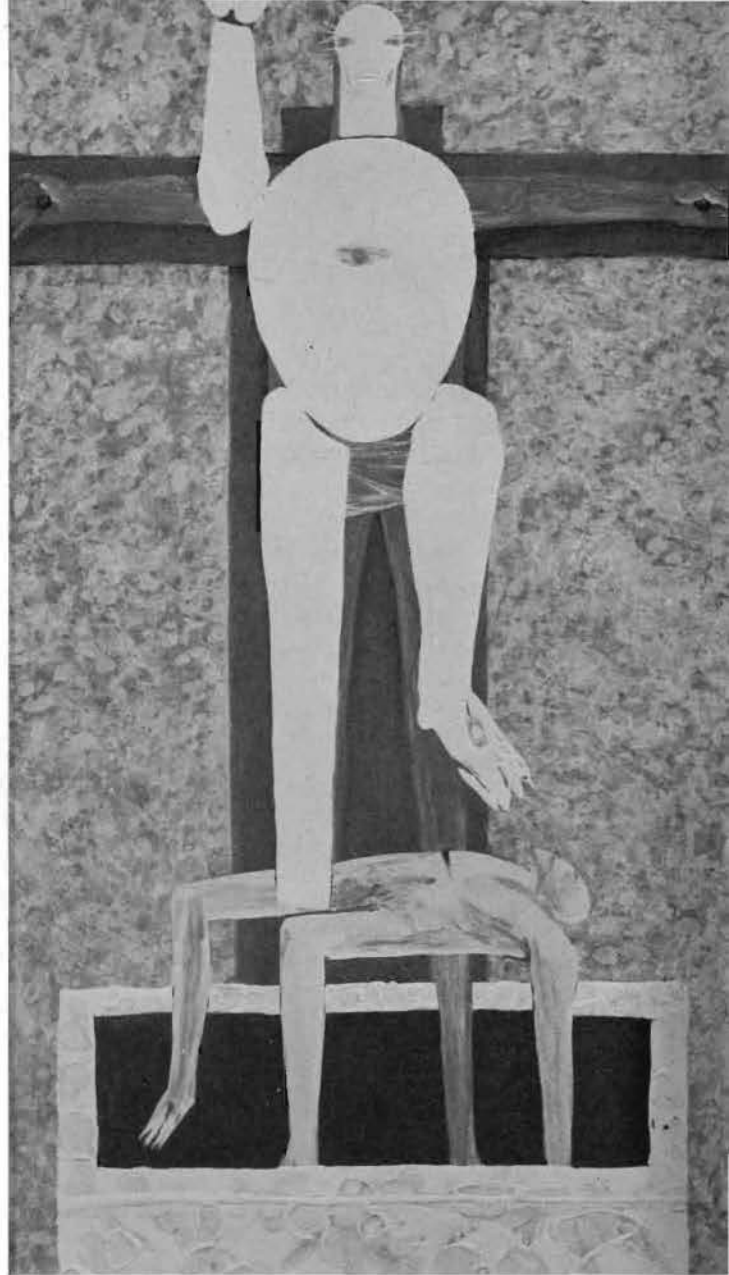

... articulate

There was no shortcut to evaluating art or an artist, he cautioned, emphasizing that a total response has to involve thinking.

Hansen traced his own development as an artist with color slides of earlier work. Each picture added meaning to his recent efforts which students had already seen. The influence on his work of ancient Indian art, described by Hansen as earthy and sublime, was illustrated and explained. Students heard a unique approach to anatomy. "I grew up as a meat cutter", Hansen told them, "and learned anatomy from the inside."

There is an element of social comment in his paintings, the artist declared, and a thinking, feeling response is required if the viewer is to perceive the external serenity and internal anxiety and turmoil of his work. He explained his devotion to the static quality of his paintings and suggested a delayed response which would reveal life in what at first glance appears dead.

With the myth of contradiction thus dispelled; with a man and his work brought into sharp focus, the students reacted. Practically all of them returned to Roemer Gallery for another look at Hansen's paintings, seen this time in a new perspective. There was unanimity of student opinion. The experience was "stimulating", "marvelous", "invaluable", "priceless", they said.

The reaction of senior art major Amelia Dickgiesser of Woodbridge, Conn., was typical. She was impressed by Hansen's well thought out philosophy on art and life which she said improved her perception and insight and reinforced her own convictions.

Miss Dickgiesser admitted that Hansen's work jarred her but she was fascinated by his technique, his subject matter and by the man himself. It was great for an art student to see such complete devotion, she commented, and to learn what must go into a career.

The students were not alone in their enthusiasm. The art department faculty was equally pleased by the experience.

"Hansen's work bewildered, offended and charmed our students", chairman Harry Hendren remarked, "which was exactly the result desired." The visit generated tremendous excitement among art students, he agreed, but more important than that was the value of the visit as a learning experience. It provided an ideal complement to the formal classroom and studio situations—the type of exposure that forces students to make their own decisions about art and to evaluate their own work.

The study of art is unique in that it can't be wrapped up in a neat package as can many other subjects, Hendren observes. Each exposure is a new experience and each new experience adds something to a student's learning which will ultimately be revealed in her work.

The art department recognizes the value of experiences and more experiences by providing continuing opportunities. Symposiums, colloquiums and field trips play their part along with art exhibits and visits by artists. Preceding Mr. Hansen on campus, for example, was F. Clark Stewart of the University of Tennessee art faculty, another unique artist. A highlight of the first semester was a design symposium conducted by three members of the Colorado State University faculty. Exhibits, augmented by gallery talks, by each of the three Lindenwood faculty artists—Arthur Kanak, John Wehmer and Bruce Buck—took place during the school year. There was a field trip to Chicago and an art weekend for creative work at Camp Wyman near St. Charles. A visit to New York museums is scheduled for May. This summer Mr. Hendren will take a group of students to Europe for visits to leading museums in eight cities.

... dedicated

The current year's program and even more ambitious plans for the future attest to the art department's concurrence with Hansen's belief that "a liberally educated art student has an advantage."

If there is a point to be made by the foregoing, it is that Robert Hansen's visit to Lindenwood was but an incident. It was an experience. It was part of a whole. It has been repeated often at Lindenwood in a variety of situations with many different participants. It will be repeated many times in the future—not only in the art department but in all other departments of the College. It was just one facet of the adventure of learning at Lindenwood. It was a liberal arts college leaving no stone unturned in providing a rich and rewarding liberal arts education for each of its students.

ALUMNAE DAY '67

A colorful tent erected on the green opposite Roemer Hall served as the focal point for the annual Alumnae Day festivities on Saturday, May 6. Work of the six artists participating in the Invitational Alumnae Art Exhibit was displayed in the tent and other events of the day took place in close proximity.

A gallery talk on the exhibit was given by John Wehmer, assistant professor of art at Lindenwood since 1959. An abstract expressionist who draws his inspiration from nature, Mr. Wehmer's own work reveals a vigorous, freewheeling style, with bright colors and thrusting forms which suggest movement. He had a successful one-man show in February at the Painters Gallery in St. Louis and exhibited at Roemer Gallery in March. An alumnus of Washington University, Mr. Wehmer has done graduate work at the University of Illinois.

Following the gallery talk, Lindenwood dance students moved into action on a special stage erected on the lawn with a presentation entitled "Movement of Art Through Dance". The dancers wore costumes created by Mr. Wehmer's design students which effectively aided in demonstrating the blending of line and color through dance. Accompanied by appropriately modern music, the group first illustrated line movement in black and white and then movement in color. Both sequences were choreographed and directed by junior art major Pamela Szabo, who danced in the presentation with Susan McReynolds, Webster Groves, Mo.; Linda O'Dell and Marma O'Dell, Tulsa, Okla.; Laura Platt, New Canaan, Conn.; Dorothy Goodspeed, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Constance Webb, Dallas, Tex.; Mary Ellen Heslop, Collinsville, Ill.; and Paige Schroeder, Springfield, Pa.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Szabo of Creve Coeur, Mo., Pam is president of Orchesis, the Lindenwood modern dance club. She has choreographed numerous student performances, including a modern dance duet which she and freshman Marma O'Dell will perform on "Campus Talent '67", a television special scheduled for showing on nine Missouri stations late in May.

Alumnae and guests next moved into Roemer Auditorium to hear piano selections by Beethoven and Mendelssohn played by Groff Bittner, assistant professor of music. Heard often in recital on campus as well as elsewhere in the St. Louis area, Mr. Bittner's most recent public appearance was a well-received faculty recital on March 21 which included compositions by Bach, Beethoven, Mendelssohn and Prokofiev. He has been at Lindenwood since 1961 and holds a B.S. degree from Indiana Central College and a M.Mus. from Indiana University.

James Feely, associate professor of English, concluded the afternoon's entertainment with a poetry reading on "Words and the Word in Contemporary Poetry". His readings from literature are popular with his students and he has given public readings on a number of occasions since coming to Lindenwood in 1958. He received his B.A. degree from Northwestern College and a M.A. from Northwestern University.

ST. CHARLES LINDENWOOD ALUMNAE CLUB

The St. Charles Lindenwood Alumnae Club has had some exciting programs this year beginning with a potluck supper; then a guest dinner. We are very fortunate to be able to meet on the Lindenwood campus and to use Lindenwood as a source for our programs. Nancy McClanahan, Alumnae Secretary, presented an informative program on Lindenwood curriculum and alumnae association highlights, Dr. Howard Barnett gave an informal talk on Robert Frost with poetry readings; and Mrs. Irma Waye showed slides from last summer's "Around the World" trip. A most profitable card party was held and the club is now seeking an applicant for its annual scholarship award. The May dinner meeting at historic Wepprich's Wine Garden will culminate the year's meetings with our guest speaker, President John Anthony Brown.

ST. LOUIS LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB

The 1966-67 season of the St. Louis Club got underway with a reception honoring President and Mrs.

Alumnae Day chairman, Mrs. Rosemary Edminster Duffy (standing), Class of '44, checks final details for Alumnae Day '67 program with co-chairman Beverly Bacon Price, Class of '49.

Brown at the home of Mrs. Hubert Ritter (Harriette Hudson). Musical selections at the reception were presented by Mr. Joseph C. Robbins, vocalist, of the College who was accompanied by Dr. John Little, Chairman of the Music Department.

In January, a luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Lamar C. Price (Beverly Bacon). The program, "Herbs are a Girl's Best Friend" was presented by Mrs. D. G. Gamble (Mary Katherine Abney) and Mrs. J. C. Schrieber (Virginia Porter). Attendance prizes of herbs especially prepared by Mrs. Gamble and Mrs. Schrieber were an added attraction.

The Lindenwood College Choralaires under the direction of Mr. David Mulbury, were the highlight of the March meeting held in the Fireside Room of Ladue Chapel. Prior to the concert a reception was held.

The final meeting of the year will also be held in the Fireside Room of Ladue Chapel. Professor Tokihiko Shinoda of the Asian Studies Program at the College will speak on the "Changing Society of Japan in Relation to the Status of Women". Prior to his talk Professor Shinoda will present a film concerning "A Day with a Japanese Family". A reception will follow the program and guests are welcome.

CINCINNATI LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB

Seventy people attended the dinner meeting of the Cincinnati Lindenwood College Alumnae Club on Wednesday, March 29th. Dr. and Mrs. John Anthony Brown were the honored guests. Mr. Edwin Saye, Area Admissions Counselor, also attended the event. All alumnae in the Cincinnati-Dayton-Northern Kentucky area were invited as well as prospective and present students and their parents. Fifteen guidance counselors from Cincinnati's major high schools also were present. Zilpha (Zeke) Curtin presided and Patricia Gardiner and Mary Warnecke Hull assisted during the evening.

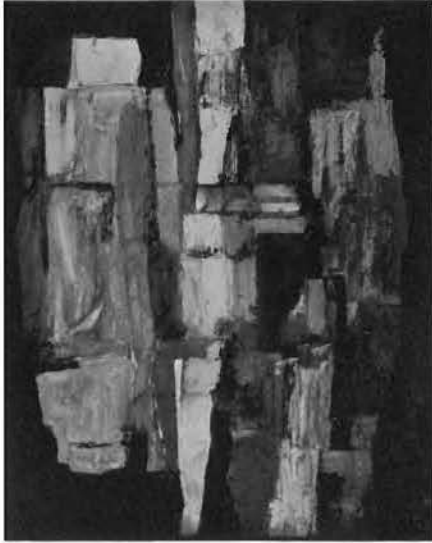

Dr. Brown spoke informally to the group concerning Lindenwood's plans for the future and especially regarding the new Four-One-Four Calendar.

The Cincinnati Lindenwood College Alumnae Club held a Christmas tea and open house at the home of Mrs. Leslie R. Inglis in Mt. Lookout.

Assisting Mrs. Inglis as hostess was Mrs. Richard B. Mullins. Cincinnati area students currently at the college in St. Charles, Mo., were among the guests. They include Miss Pamela Koehl, senior; Miss Christine Jackson, Miss Gail Slemmer, sophomores; Miss Susan Cotabish, Miss Barbara Roth and Miss Ginger Withenbury, all freshmen.

COLUMBUS, OHIO LINDENWOOD ALUMNAE CLUB

The Columbus Lindenwood College Alumnae Club entertained President and Mrs. John Anthony Brown at a coffee and dessert meeting on the evening of March 30th in the home of Helen Roper Stark '28. President Brown spoke informally to the alums concerning future plans for Lindenwood and the new curriculum. Those Columbus area alumnae present were: Patricia Kirchherr Allen, Betty Janis Gray Cawood, Minnie N. Seip Christensen, Zoe Carol Whitmire Coppins, Nancy Barkwell Elmer, Imelda Harra Farmer, Dorothy E. Gartner, Katherine Hutchinson, Sandra Young McKee, Marguerite Miller Russel, Barbara Sell, Helen Roper Stark, Lolabel Black, and visiting from the College was Nancy Alois McClanahan '56, Alumnae Executive Secretary.

KANSAS CITY ALUMNAE CLUB

The Kansas City Lindenwood College Alumnae Club honored President John Anthony Brown and Mrs. Brown at a brunch during December. The annual event was held at the home of Dyke Steinbeck Barton '29, our alumnae trustee on the Board of Directors.

OKLAHOMA CITY ALUMNAE CLUB

The Oklahoma City Lindenwood College Alumnae Club had a buffet supper on Saturday, Feb. 11, 1967, honoring President and Mrs. John Anthony Brown. The meeting was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sterling Crawford, 6825 N.W. Grand Boulevard, parents of Margaret Crawford, a sophomore at Lindenwood College.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Hamill (Barbara Ringer), Mrs. George Zachritz (Jerry Chandler) and Mrs. Donald Pope (Norma Camp).

After a social hour and supper Dr. Brown talked informally about Lindenwood, past and present.

The husbands of the alumnae were also guests for the evening, among those present were: Mr. & Mrs. Jerry J. Bernardy; Mr. & Mrs. Lee Powell; Mr. & Mrs. Jack Mills; Mr. & Mrs. Ray L. Scott; Mr. & Mrs. H. Walter Jorss; Mr. & Mrs. Allen Reding, Stillwater, Okla.; Mr. & Mrs. Earl Williams; Mr. & Mrs. Paul Vassar, Chandler, Okla.; Mr. & Mrs. Don K. Myron; Mr. & Mrs. Lester Holbrook; Mr. & Mrs. Jack L. Stanford; Mrs. Ringer Howell; Mr. & Mrs. Rex Morton; Mr. & Mrs. R. H. Card; Mr. & Mrs. George Zachritz; Mr. & Mrs. James Hamill; Mr. & Mrs. Donald Pope; Dr. & Mrs. Sterling Crawford; Mr. & Mrs. W. C. Sexton; Mr. & Mrs. J. W. Quillian Jr.; the last three all having daughters now attending Lindenwood.

The Oklahoma City Lindenwood College Alumnae Club met for a holiday luncheon, to honor current Lindenwood College students, December 29th at Val Gene's Peacock Alley.

An interesting panel discussion of campus life and activities was led by Sally Quillian, Rebecca Thaler, Pat Mackay and Candace Sexton, present students at Lindenwood. Other students at Lindenwood that were present were Margaret Crawford, and M. Reville Cowen. Evelyne Ray, from France, an assistant in the Language Laboratory, was a most interesting guest.

Prospective students entertained at the luncheon were the following—Carol Cain, Paula Murphee, Marty Clay, Dianne Olson, Linda Bailey, Valyada Eivton, Cheryl Narvell, Lezie Fentem, Mary Jane Rapp, Nancy Kirkpatrick and Lynn Burdick.

Lindenwood alumnae present were, Mrs. James C. Hamill (Barbara Ringer), Mrs. Bill E. Jordan (Martha Jo Crable), Mrs. Bradley Theisen (Jane Patterson), Mrs. Ray L. Scott (Patsy Geary), Mrs. Donald Pope (Norma Camp), Mrs. George R. Zachritz (Jerry Chandler), Mrs. Rex E. Morton (Margaret Doumany), Mrs. H. Walter Jorss (Dorothy Gunter), Mrs. James W. Quillian, Jr. (Flora Mac Cravens), Mrs. Seymour Davis (Gwen Levers), Mrs. Jack R. Mills (Earleen Simon).

TULSA ALUMNAE CLUB

February 10, 1967—Parents of Lindenwood students, alumnae and their husbands were delighted to have an opportunity to meet President and Mrs. Brown at an Open House held from 7:30 p.m.-9:00 p.m. Mrs. Jo Lea Jordan, president of the Lindenwood Club of Tulsa entertained in her home for this occasion. The dining table's special centerpiece was a white tier tulip vase lavishly built with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Yellow Lindenwood felt pennants encircled the base. Mrs. William Holway was in charge of refreshments. This was a happy evening of getting acquainted with Lindenwood's new president and his wife.

On March 1st a dessert meeting was held with entertainment in the form of bridge or canasta.

On April 5th the program was flower arranging as demonstrated by a very talented lady, Mrs. Harry S. Horton, a Lindenwood mother.

The annual election of officers and a pot luck supper in the home of Mrs. R. W. Mossman took place on May 3.

HOUSTON ALUMNAE CLUB

The Houston Alumnae Club is in the process of reorganizing. On February 1st, the new officers met in the home of Mrs. Bruce A. Wilson (Ruth Meyer), who will be the new President.

The other officers are:

Secretary—Mrs. Richard B. Miller (Roberta Allison)
Treasurer—Mrs. Thomas D. Rush (Marian Kinney)
Membership—Mrs. Robert M. Gee (Barbara DePuy)

Mrs. Raymond Fairchild (Linda Fee) and Mrs. Jimmie Green (Myrtle Wilson), were there also. On the 5th of April the club had a luncheon at the Junior League of Houston with 26 in attendance.

Equitation Center Under Way

A fond hope of long standing became a reality on March 3 when ground was broken for a new stable, the first phase of a planned Equitation Center on the Lindenwood campus.

Construction of the new 176 ft. by 75 ft. building began immediately with completion expected within four months. Estimated to cost $86,000, the stable will have 40 stalls, wash room accommodating two horses, tack room, hay and grain storage, classroom, faculty office, stable office, rest rooms and caretaker's efficiency apartment.

Concrete and prefabricated steel will be the basic construction components. An Old English rustic appearance will be attained through the use of brick, stucco and horizontal steel siding for the exterior finish. Designer and contractor for the project is the Greenmar Corporation of Creve Coeur, Mo.

The beginning of construction at this time was made possible by a substantial gift from the Fathers' Club.

Second phase of the project will include an indoor arena measuring 100 ft. by 200 ft. as well as a lounge and additional office and classroom space.

No timetable has been established for completion of the Equitation Center. Until the second phase is completed, students will continue to use the outdoor arena adjacent to the present stables.

Kathryn Biggs Williams writes that her husband has recently retired. They have been traveling quite a lot and also go to a great many golf tournaments. They also play a lot of golf themselves—"good exercise at my age". "Not very inspiring, I'm afraid", says Kathryn. They have sold their home and moved to an apartment. Kathryn and her husband have four children and five grandchildren.

Mae Kane Hincke writes that her husband, John, has retired from the U.S. Army after thirty years of service and is now teaching math at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Here is some interesting news from Ada Belle Files Spencer (Mrs. J. G.). "Unfortunately, I attended Lindenwood only the one year. For the 1923-24 academic year I enrolled at the Chicago Musical College from which I received my Bachelors and Masters degrees. This was followed by coaching in N.Y.C. with Frank La. Forge and Leon Rotheir and I later studied in Paris. I have sung with several major symphonies—the American San Carlos and La Scalle Opera companies—and I have done coast to coast concert tours in Canada, U.S. and old Mexico. In Denver I have been actively working with the Central City Opera Company and have been national opera chairman for the National Federation of music clubs. At present, I am on the Hospitality Board for the Dallas, Texas Metropolitan Opera Season."

Dorothy Adams Agee writes "Since moving to Phoenix I manage to keep busy. My husband and I moved to Phoenix, Ariz. from Quincy, Ill. in July 1961. I am doing part time work for the Phoenix Union High School Food Service. During the summer I work with the Arizona Carters-Pine Girl Scout Council as Food advisor. The Council operates two camps in the mountains. I have two daughters—Anne who attended Lindenwood and Jane, a graduate of the Univ. of Arizona. Our family has continued to increase and we now have six grand-daughters."

Jessie Schaper Long (Mrs. Charles L.) writes "With a credit of twenty-eight years of teaching experience, the last twenty-five of which have been in the University City, Mo. public schools, I still have a great enthusiasm for teaching. My most exciting recent experiences have been my participation in the International Teachers Institutes both at the University of Oslo, Oslo, Norway, 1960, and at Sophia University, Tokyo, Japan, 1965. I am looking forward not only to a summer of travel in Europe, but particularly to the workshop on "Humanism and the Future Education" at Schweitzer College in Switzerland. I am so sorry that I will be unable to attend Alumnae Reunion Day".

I had a lovely note from Evelyn Noland Gillmor. She lost her husband several years ago, but keeps busy with several clubs and has two sons whom she is very proud of. Stewart is in Paris, France on a Princeton University scholarship finishing his thesis for his Ph.D. in History of Science. Her younger son, Wm. Noland, received his A.B. degree from Westminster College, Fulton, Mo.; his masters degree in science from Kansas State; and a masters degree in Business Administration from Northwestern; and is now employed by the Vendo Co. in Kansas City as a market research analyst.

Cmdr. Sarah Pauline Hedgecock has retired from the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve and received a personal commendation from the commandant of the Ninth Naval District. She is now teaching in the foreign language department at North Iowa Area Community College.

A lounge in the new addition of the Southwest Missouri State College Union Building has been named in honor of Mary Lou Blocher Bilsborough. Congratulations, Mary Lou! She was the first student union director at that college in Springfield, Mo. from 1949 to 1954. She is now social director and assistant director in charge of public relations at the Purdue Union. Mary Lou is also a consultant relative to the planning of a Union building at Kabul University in Afghanistan.

Ruth Finch Harrison writes from Memphis, Tenn. that she is head of the Insurance and Records Department at the County Hospital. Medicare records and the addition of twenty new rooms at the hospital are keeping her very busy. In October, 1966, Ruth's robe caught fire and she spent a month in the hospital with burns, but has now recovered nicely. She has two married daughters; one married son who will finish this year at Texas Tech with a degree in Electrical Engineering; and her younger son is a college junior majoring in mathematics. She, also, has two grandchildren.

Ruth Correa Lucke, president of our class when we were freshmen, writes that Colonel Lucke retired from the Army in Feb. '64, after thirty-two years of service and is now the Veteran's Service Representative of Contra Costa County, Calif. Ruth enjoys working with seven piano pupils, plays bridge and golf for "extra curricula." Ruth has three daughters and three grandchildren.

I received a note from Velma Olson who has recently moved to the Lake of the Ozarks, built a home on the Lake and is half owner of the Knjebird Indian Shop at Arrowhead, two miles south of Bagnell Dam. Velma teaches in the junior high school in Camdenton, Mo. She hopes some L.C. gals will stop by and say hello!

I had such a pleasant surprise recently. Dorothy Gehlbach Ordelheide, her husband, Elmer and son, Jim, dropped by for a visit in our home.

Please, gals of 1933, send me some news and pictures of you and yours!

Nov-15-1966

Hi—

Here I am shing in "Rice-Paddy Valley" twenty miles from Seoul Korea. The temperature is 40 and a farcry from Miami-Biscayne Bay. Sometimes I feel that I must have been on LSD or some other psychedellic drug that so drastically affected my inner and outer space. Travel back with me.

After a March-April decision to seek other goals—I spent May exploring state-side jobs. They were exciting but the Red Cross need for workers in the Far East was the "Voice of the turtle" crying loudest in the land. May was spent seeing U.S. Birthday gift of a Wisconsin trip was truly sentimental. Madison-Janesville-Koshkonong and childhood memories. St. Louis—a second time to say farewell to Alumnae Council with gals I've served with for 6 years. All of this with spring "bustin out all over." One Miami weekend of farewells to friends and office crew—great people! Packing—storing furniture for two years and saying "so-long" to my 4½ yr. romance with the Atlantic.

June 1—I reported for duty at Jacksonville Naval Hospital for "Re-tread orientation to the same kind of job I had 20 years ago. Detoured to watch Gemini Launching and say "bye" to friends all along Hiway A1A and the Atlantic. One week-end with Georgia family and inarticulate goodbyes for two years. June 16th off in the Iron Bird—with the U.S. never more beautiful. Chicago—Black velvet hills of South Dakota—Blue-Snow-covered Tetons—Snake River squirming through almost green base—Purple Pacific and down in brown hills of San Francisco. Four lovely days riding cable cars and absorbing the sights, smells and sounds of the most beautiful spot. A farewell brunch on the Top o' the Mark staring at the sight of blue forever and The Golden Gate bridge to same. Up and away to Mt. Rainier and down at McChord Air Force Base. Last checks on everything and the morning of the 21st dawned. Kept following The Sun on the solstice—with not one cloud—no matter how high the 170 of us could see ships—dots below. Aboard about 10 hours and it was daylight when we landed. What a cultural shock! A world so different words are powerless. So here I have been since June 23rd.

The hospital is American Army operated for U.N. forces. We have Turks-Koreans and Americans. On the job training with us are Korean corpsmen, nurses and doctors. One is very aware this is not a peace but only a truce under which we live. The job is fascinating and rewarding working with patients and hospital personnel numbering in the hundreds—(tis classified). We were a staff of 10 when I came—now 5. Viet Nam you know. It's a seven day and seven night a week job. We are but nineteen miles from Seoul but it takes 1 hour and 15 minutes a week to get there past the ox-carts, people and vehicle-clogged one-lane roads.

The six weeks of rain in July and August was unbelievable. I did get to Japan for a week which was great. The biggest city in the world is struggling with the biggest traffic jam only the cars are smaller. September was unbelievably hot. Natch—I found a swimming pool near by. It was small—dirty and completely "integrated" with all races, colours and creeds. My co-workers threatened exotic diseases but I survived. October 1—on a night mission of mercy on this inky black rural compound I slipped, fell and broke my elbow. It was very painful and the whole month of October I was encased in a cast—elbow bent—encased from finger-tips to shoulder. Did not miss a day of work—but was uncomfortable sleeping-dressing and no writing. So here it is November and we are busy getting ready for all the holidays.

I simply love my job—Korea—and everything. I miss my friends something fierce—corner drug stores—and freedom to move about. Getting anywhere is a problem—but the job makes up for it. Helicopter is the best mode of travel. All patients come that way.

Korea is beautiful—rugged mountains—rice-paddies—open-sewers and all. The people are beautiful. G.I.'s to generals are marrying the girls at the rate of over 100 a month. Poverty is indescribable. Our poverty program workers could learn much from them. The native food is Kimchi—made in big brown jars stored in the earth. A recent newspaper story says that 50.6 lbs. of cabbage, 44 lbs. of radishes, 2 lbs. of red and hot pepper, 1.1 lbs. of green onions and 1.1 lbs. of garlic are needed per person for the winter season. Kimchi and rice are eaten 3 times a day. The above is in case you want the recipe! Between that, the open sewers and the rice-paddies the smells are unbelievable. Income is about $70 per year and the goal is $95 by 1970. LBJ made a big splash and was well-received. He flew over us, landed 9 miles away and some of our people went to see him. The killing of 6 G.I.'s in ambush at the D.M.Z. (demilitarized zone) brought sadness to the occasion. We had the one survivor here—and the bodies—and 42 newsmen, generals by the dozen.

Have a very happy Thanksgiving and be very thankful you live in the old U.S. Hope your Christmas is merry with your families and the New Year brings you all things wonderful. Drop me a note if you have time. If you are coming around the world or to Japan let me know. Air travel is easy.

Love

Lillian Nitcher

Following is an editorial that appeared in the Joplin, Mo. Newspaper, to the life of Sue James Askins who passed away in November '66:

"Women as well as men render distinguished services to their communities, outside the home. We all know this, but all too often their valuable contributions go unsung. In this category was the life and the unselfish good works of Sue James Askins, a native daughter and life-long resident of Joplin.

Like her extrovert, lovable father, the late Grover C. James, who for years was an enthusiastic community leader, Sue was endowed with the same exuberance and devotion in maintaining a keen and active interest in public affairs. Proud of her home town and her heritage, she served with equal enthusiasm and energy whether in a position of leadership or as a worker in the ranks. Her talents, courage and perception enabled her to make important contributions to local government, and to educational, civic, health and social enterprises, including active support of Joplin's home rule charter and the Missouri Southern College campaign. She served as president of the Joplin branch of the AAUW, as a director of the Woman's Club, a member of the Children's Home board, and on many civic committees, while finding time also to rear a fine family as wife and mother.

Citizens of such dedication, whether men or women, are of inestimable worth, and it is a distinct community loss when their lives are cut short, as in the case of Sue Askins."

The Class of '37 is breaking into print again! Now haven't all of you really missed finding some news of your old friends? It's been rather embarrassing for me too. Really it's made me feel a little stupid as well as inefficient. I try to console myself by saying, "But you just can't write news if no one sends you any"—and this thought helps me a little. So, as Dean Martin says, "Let's keep those cards and letters coming." There is always some old friend out there who really wants to hear about YOU.

Thank you Kay Davis Lowe for getting us back on the ball. Kay and her husband are the parents of two children: Debbie is 20 and a junior at Iowa State involved in radio and TV work and public relations. Jeff is their 15 year old son. "Still growing and growing and eating and eating," Kay says. Jeff is on the high school swim team and with his four hours of practice a day he "keeps in condition and out of mischief." Kay describes her husband and herself as being "involved in the usual community and church activities and for fun, we are bridge addicts—and parents!" Kay wishes she would hear from her roommate, Helen Mary McLatchey Yannevich. Now, Helen Mary, if you haven't already written Kay, why don't you sit right down now and do this? You know, this would be a good idea for all roommates. I'd like to hear from mine, wouldn't you?

There was an interesting article recently in the Virginia-Pilot newspaper, Virginia Beach, Va. about Dr. Kathryn Hill (Mrs. Robert B. Venner). Following are excerpts from that article. Kathryn uses her maiden name professionally to avoid the confusion of two Dr. Venners in one family and one office. When Kathryn was at Lindenwood she studied sociology, then went to the University of Nebraska's medical school in Omaha. She was the only woman in her graduating class. She did her residency in pediatrics at New York Hospital. After her husbands tour of duty with the Navy in World War II, they settled down in Virginia Beach, Va. and hung out their shingles side by side. Their home is a 150 year old 14-room Old Princess Anne County house with 23 acres. Their children are Mary Anne, 23, Amanada Jane, 21, both married; Robert Hill, 17, Sarah Elizabeth, 16, William Hunter, 14, students at Kellam High School; John Orlin, 9, and James Alexander, 8, who attend Courthouse School. Kathryn and her husband try to keep the same office hours—"I've tried every imaginable combination of office hours, trying to get home for dinner, but my business picks up about 4"—when the children get out of school. Nevertheless, she feels she is probably home as much as many non-working mothers who get wrapped up in clubs, bridge playing and other projects. She admits that she has about given up on housework beyond what the maid does. "It was futile. My daughter came home last week from Germany and she's getting us organized," Kathryn says. "It would be a terrible career if you didn't love it."

Congrats are in order for Jean Brauner Knoop whose daughter, Kathy, is Oklahoma's delegate to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Wash., D.C. Kathy is a freshman at Oklahoma University. Kathy's escort will be Midshipman Woodrow Hulme from Ardmore, Okla. Mr. Hulme is the son of Anna Ruth Seaman Hulme '40. Kathy Knoop, also, does secretarial work for Barbara Ringer Hamill '32, President of Lindenwood's Alumnae Association.

Because of an unusually busy winter and spring I have neglected getting out reminders of the annual Alumnae Day to be held Saturday May 6, and even though it is not a special year for our class, it would be great for many of us to attend. It seems that regardless of how I plan to attend something has happened the past few years to keep me home—even from our 25th reunion.

What fun it is, though, to see L.C. friends, the new buildings, the outstanding students of today and to relive those glorious college days we loved. I am looking forward to meeting the new president and to seeing the practical changes he is making—particularly in the use of the library. How can Lindenwood always be so fortunate in securing such outstanding educators who are so right for Lindenwood? In our time we remember Dr. Roemer and Mr. McCluer and now our new president with such an excellent background for an outstanding student body and college.

What a treat it was to receive a long, newsy letter from Cay (Catherine Page Donnell) Jones. She writes their sons have been graduated from Westminster College at Fulton, Missouri. Bruce was graduated in 1964 and worked two years as field secretary for Delta Tau Delta fraternity. During the Berlin crisis he was serving with the United States Army. Last September he was married to a girl from Kentucky and they live in Indianapolis, Ind., where he is employed by the American Fletcher National Banks. Following his graduation in 1966 Craig entered the graduate school of business administration of Michigan State University in East Lansing. After graduation next fall, he probably will serve in the army because he is an R.O.T.C. officer. Catherine Ann (Cathy) is a freshman in DeSoto High School where she is a member of the National Honor Society and is active in all school and church activities. She sings in the church choir and currently is president of Missouri's tenth, newly organized children of American Revolution.

Her college plans are indefinite. Cay belongs to the Lindenwood Club and P.E.O. She also is active in church activities and is southeast Missouri district director of D.A.R. She attends the state D.A.R. conference and the continental congress in Washington, D.C. each year. She served on the state resolution committee for the past two years.

Cay's husband, Leslie, is district manager of Missouri Natural Gas Company, a member of the county welfare board, secretary-treasurer of Community Development organization and is active in church consistency, Rotary and other public affairs.

And in another welcome letter from Corinne Zarth Hall of Portland, Indiana, she tells of a good visit with Peggy Anne Wood Pate in Denver, Colo. last summer. The Halls' son, as was his father, was graduated from DePauw and then from graduate school at U.S.C. where he remained to work in Los Angeles. Their daughter, Helen, age 21, is a senior at Northwestern. The other members of the family are two poodles and two cats. Corinne and Harriet Hall Lachtman keep in close touch with each other.

Biddie Johnston Stegall of Sallisaw, Oklahoma added a new member to her family in August when her daughter, Becky, who attended L.C. in 1961-62 married Earl Melvin Bricker, III of Oklahoma City.

Midshipman Woodrow Hulme, the son of Anna Ruth Seaman Hulme, from Ardmore, Okla. will escort Oklahoma's Princess to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. Oklahoma's Princess is Kathy Knoop, the daughter of Jean Brauner Knoop '39.

We have been excited at our house the past couple of weeks with our daughter, Kay, being chosen for a Woodrow Wilson fellowship. She will be graduated from Kansas University in June and in the fall will pursue graduate studies in the Slavic area studies at Harvard. She was selected for Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board in her junior year and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta social sorority. The past four years have gone by so quickly, and now we are anticipating a trip to the Boston area. I have enjoyed renewing acquaintance with Peggy Tarcott Hartman of Wichita whom I haven't seen since we were at Lindenwood. We met again through our husbands' hobby of raising orchids—we belong to the Kansas Orchid Society.

Jane Meredith Kennedy (Mrs. Richard E.) writes that she and her husband, Dick, are active in Republican politics and did their part to help elect a Republican governor for Florida last fall. She says both she and Dick are avid antique collectors and gardeners and are active in church work. Jane keeps up her interest in chemistry by maintaining her membership in the American Chemical Society.

Jane's son, Richard, is a freshman at Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina and plans to study law. Her daughter, Kathy, is completing her junior year in high school. Jane says Kathy's principal interests are horses and boys!

Excerpts from a letter and newspaper article I received from Pat Converse Crist:

"After Lindenwood I attended Sam Houston State College. Two months before my junior term was to have ended I met Don and six week later we were married. We both went to U. of Texas—Don in law and I in my jolly old art classes. I went through finals in Feb. 1947, very P. G. and most uncomfortable. Jeanne Kathrynne was born July 14, 1947. We re-entered the Air Force August 1948. Have been stationed in La., Oklahoma (where Debby was born April 8, 1950), Miss., Alaska (where Donnie III was born Dec. 30, 1952), Tenn., San Antonio, Calif., Waco (where Kimberly Gay was born April 18, 1961), and in Cheyenne. I have been in Brownies and Scouts, taught Sunday School, directed and choreographed two Air Force musicals, taught oil painting, taught school, been in three bowling leagues per week and have been a gray lady. In August 1964 we retired from the Air Force and went to Barbados, West Indies—spending four months sailing and flying all over the area. We returned to San Antonio Jan. 1965 so Jeanne Kathrynne could graduate from a school in the U.S. In spring of 1966 I went back to Sam Houston and Jeanne Kathrynne and I lived in the same dorm! I took 19 hours of Art and Drama and am currently teaching 4th grade. Don finished at St. Mary's here and is teaching 9th grade math. Jeanne Kathrynne is now a 19 year old junior and will enter U. of Tex. this summer in their school of nursing. She plans to join the Navy as a nurse (with B.S.). Debby is 16 and active in High School drama. Donnie III is a good golfer but otherwise an average 14 year old boy. Kim attends 1st grade and makes all A's—she's our little doll. Our plans include 6 weeks of summer school for me in zoology and chemistry and my B.S. will be mine! We want to return to the West Indies and sail the entire area. —One of the happiest years of my life was spent at Lindenwood and I always look forward to reading about my classmates. Love to you all. —"

Barbara Buckley Pease (Mrs. Bryden Pease, Jr.) sent along this note: "I wish I could attend the reunion of the class of '47, but May will be graduation time for the Pease family. Mary will graduate from the 8th grade, Barbara from high school, and I will get a Masters degree in Social Work from Louisiana State University. In June we will be moving to Gulfport, Mississippi. The Miss. Gulf Coast is a fabulous vacation spot and I hope some of the Lindenwood "girls" will be coming with their families and will give me a call."

After leaving Lindenwood Charlotte Cron Mixon attended the University of Texas and took her degree at Southwest College. Charlotte taught school in Rockport for three years and married in 1952. She and her husband have three children: Bonnie Lyn 13, Michael 9, and Stephen 5. The Mixon family reside in Nordheim, Texas where Mr. Mixon is a banker.

Finalist in last year's Miss Teen-Age America contest was Pamela Henry, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Henry (Anne Hoffman). Anne's family also includes Tom, 14 years old, and a brand new late arrival, Lizabeth Ashley, just celebrating her first birthday. Congratulations to all!

Coast correspondent Sally Joy Woodson (Mrs. Jennings B., Jr.) furnishes these capsule reports of classmates: the Woodsons will join the George Doane (Dorothy Quail) family for a summer vacation in the nearby mountains of Calif. Dorothy has a five-year-old son, Jamie. . . Emily Heine is with the staff of Fortune magazine as a research associate. Last June, she spent three weeks in England and Holland in covering the North Sea gas strikes. . . Nancy Duncan Decker (Mrs. M. C.) has added to her family with the recent arrival of son, Stuart.

As for Sally, besides contributing news to the Bulletin, she is a substitute teacher, the mother of three, and the wife of a journalism instructor at West Valley College, Calif. Last summer, the Woodson clan took an eight-week trip "back East" with stop-overs in St. Louis and South Carolina.

Mary Anne Merten Mull (Mrs. Charles L.) enjoys a hobby of ceramics. The Mulls have two sons and a daughter and are engaged in wheat farming.

Virginia Barnes Rutledge (Mrs. Everett) has a son, Mike, who is 12 yrs. old. Ginny teaches kindergarten in Lynch, Neb. and loves every minute of it. They raise bees and Bud, also, drives a school bus 80 miles a day. They had a good visit last summer with Ruth Ann Virden Homan and her husband who with Renee, 12, and Rex, 10, live near Albany, Mo. The Homan's sold their Dairy Queen after 10 yrs. and bought a 290 acre farm.

Diane Falkenheiner Stamp and husband, Daryl are in Iowa City, Iowa. Daryl changed jobs this past year and is now a stockbroker. Their three children are Randy 9th grade, Debbie 7th, and Tracy 4th grade. They are all swimmers, Debbie setting an Iowa record last summer.

Shirley sent along some news of others when I wrote that such news has been scarce. We appreciate her contribution.

Diana Sherwood Rinehart (Mrs. William G.) has three boys, the youngest is in kindergarten. She has been working for years with per political party and feels it is most rewarding.

Shirley Pollock Barnum (Mrs. John C.) sent a marvelous letter in which she told of John's mobile ministry for the Presbyterian Church, her new home and family of three boys. They are Grant in 9th grade, Evan in 5th and Casey in 1st. In addition to her usual home duties, Shirley works one day each week for Church World Service—CROP in Denver.

Nancy Stigall Bell (Mrs. E. T., Jr.) writes from Jackson, Mississippi that she would love to hear from LC girls, particularly any in the area. She and husband and one son, "Skeeter," have moved to Jackson recently from Macon, Georgia. Sandy Lunak Crownover visited once in Macon, and Nancy hears from Anita Jackson and Maxine Davis at Christmas. Nancy says she has "retired from the career field" and is at home presently.

Marcia Lazarus Spiro, of University Heights, Ohio, writes of fond LC memories, although she attended only one year. Marcia recalls in particular the "Come as You Are" party when she was caught in the shower! She and husband Stuart have two sons, Eliot, 3 and Steven, 2.

Betty Jo Green Schickram, of Ponca City, Oklahoma wrote in November. Her husband Bill is a research engineer with Continental Oil. The Schickrams have 4 children: Patsy, 12; Warren, 9; Cindy, 6; and David, 3. Betty Jo asked about Sally Siemssen Schaefer, Patti Toler, and Barbara Oehlert and would like to stay in touch with her LC friends.

Patty Booth Kirby and husband Jamie are the parents of their second son, Patrick Booth Kirby. The Kirbys reside in Virginia where Jamie is in the Department of Religion at Sweetbriar College. Little Patrick is being welcomed by an older brother, David, 7.

It was good to hear at Christmas from our former class secretary, Eunice Sheely Spindler, with the interesting clipping of her honors for dramatic direction. Eunice directed the production of "The Doll's House" by Ibsen which was presented by the Junior Women's Club of Madison, Wis. "She did the cutting herself, and she is to be commended for her success in retaining the essence of Ibsen." Eunice and Harry wrote of a very interesting trip they had through the Amish country in Pennsylvania.

When I took over this job from Nancy Alvis McClanahan last spring, I wondered how much work it would involve—and now I know the answer—almost none! In the last year I have received only six or seven letters. A lot of you probably haven't written because you think there's nothing new for you to write about. At least that's the way I often feel, being a housewife at home with two small children. But it has been years since many of you were heard from in the column. So this summer when you are out on vacation and writing postcards, drop one to me for use in the bulletin—and if you don't go on a vacation, do try to find time to write a note anyway!

A very welcome note from Virginia "Ginsie" Woodman Hall (Mrs. Roger) informs us that she and her family "live happily amid the continuous pressure of the tourist business." Her husband's company operates all proprietary facilities within Mesa Verde National Park, Colorado, which Ginsie says has a plethora of pre-Colombian stone age sites for the archeology-minded. During the winter, the Halls and their son, Ashley, reside in Durango, Colo.

Jeanie Rule Evans and her family have moved from Lebanon, Mo. to Jefferson City, Mo. Her husband, Wendell, has assumed a new position as the Executive Manager-Treasurer of the Missouri Savings and Loan League. The Evans have three children—Sara Jean, 7, Wendell, III, 5, and Elizabeth Jane, 7 months. Their new address is Booneville Rd., Rt. #1, Jefferson City, Mo., 65101.

Donna Deary Hafer (Mrs. Ralph) was named Outstanding Young Woman of 1966 in St. Charles, Mo. Congratulations, Donna! She was the candidate of the Newcomers Club for the contest sponsored annually by the Jaycee Wives. Donna's many contributions to community service include the following: Co-chairman of the annual Hospital Auxiliary card party; advisor for the annual March of Dimes card party; member of the Board of Directors of Newcomers and, also, organizer and chairman of its arts and crafts group; member of the hospital Auxiliary; member of the advisory board of the Family and Children's Service; executive secretary on board of P.T.A.; member of church circle; judge for various organizations and contests; college alumnae club member, member of Business and Professional Women; co-chairman of Adult Education course; room mother, member of Historical Society; blood bank worker and solicitor for charity drives.

Donna represented St. Charles in the State Jaycee Outstanding Young Woman competition. Donna and Ralph have a nine year old son, Robert.

Nancy Lee Brown (Mrs. Norman) 3532 E. 98th, Seattle, Washington reports that Sandy Lanak Crownover and family are living in the Seattle area and the girls love to talk over old Butler Hall Days. Nancy and Norm had a ski trip to Sun Valley last winter and spent 3 weeks at their ranch in Montana. The Browns are building their dream house with a view of Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains.

10th REUNION

St. Louis, Mo. 63123

This is to be a good year for news, I'm sure, for it started off with lots of mail from L.C. girls not heard from (would you believe) in the last decade?

Sunny Obert Michelbrink, (Mrs. Bernard) 4491 West 210th, Fairview Park, Ohio reports that since her son Hunter 8, and daughter Lisa 6, are in school, she is working 5 hours a day as a lab technician at Fairview Park Hospital. She says she feels like an ancient relic with all the space age equipment, but does enjoy her work.

"In this highly mechanized world it's difficult to find a procrastinator, but I seem to be one, sorry for not writing sooner" writes Mary Jo Schell Inverson. Mary Jo has two daughters, Terrilyn, age 5, and Patricia, age 3. She's been busy with Jr. League, Provisional Course, and Child Guidance.

"Our little girls are 7 and 5" writes Sandy Bartunek McGinley. Glorious California weather has her swimming a great deal. She is a participating mother in nursery school and she helps hubby Kent in the teen-age department of the church.

Winkie Gleeson Crowell reminisced a bit about years back that included 'Lindenwood and the New York publishing arena' but is happy for the forward years which include her triplets, John, Mathew, & Joshua, as well as, of course, husband John.

Judy Smith Pribor promises to write something for print! I'm still waiting, Judy!

Gwen Ryter Goetz entertained two little negro boys from a downtown mission during the Christmas holidays, not to mention a minister from Ohio, husband Herb's family, and of course, her own. —AND, knowing Gwen she loved every minute of it.

Jane Graham Hubbel writes that hubby Tom built a Heathkit color TV last fall—my, it is nice to have a man around the house! Jane and family traveled to New Hampshire through the northern Adirondacks last summer with their Labrador retriever, no less. Her village tennis courts were flooded for winter skating and writes that all three children were quite ecstatic.

1516 W. Cheyene Road, Colorado Springs, Colorado, 80906 is the new address of Mary Martin Strunk. The sudden change of address was due to an illness of her son, born last February, which necessitated a cooler climate for his survival. The Strunks were quite fortunate to have been transferred by Mountain States Tel. & Tel. upon immediate request, and Mary writes that her son is now doing quite well. Mary has already become active with the Colorado Springs Opera Assn. which is currently doing IL TRAVATORE.

"First of all I'm sure you've noticed we've moved," writes Cynthia Coatsworth Gilman. Don received a promotion and transfer to the Routt National Forest which is headquartered here in Steamboat Springs, Colorado." Cynthia seems to already love it and says that there's a nearby fishing haven, not to mention a fabulous skiing resort.

Johnson City, Tenn. 37601

New Year's greetings came from Beth Deelia Jett. Beth enjoys being a "housewife, mother, member of the Woman's Club and on the Board of the Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra." Together she and Charley are members of a bridge group and especially enjoy sailing—even won first place trophy in the sailfish class! The Jetts have two adopted boys, David 2½, and Monroe 8 mos. "Doctors and the Jetts were in a complete state of shock—Ellen Louise arrived March 14, 1967!" In Nov. Sandy Taylor Fish, Ted and their three boys stopped for a visit with the Jetts.

Pat Williams Charron has moved into a beautiful new home in the country just outside of Nashville—plenty of room for her two boys, Jimmy, who is in the first grade and John, in kindergarten, and their ponies.

Nedra Durham Zimmerschied was chosen the Outstanding Young Woman for 1965 in Sodalía, Mo. and placed second in the contest for the state. Her husband, Carl is an engineer and announcer at KDRO in Sodalía, and Nedra does part time work in radio and TV. She is also active in many civic and church organizations. Their children are Paula, 6, Carla, 4½, and Jay Edwin, 6 mos. Since many of her friends knew her father, Nedra wants to let them know of his death in Aug. '63.

The biggest news in Shirley Noland Turner's Christmas letter was the announcement of the birth of Wesley Dean on Nov. 4. Shirley resigned from her seven year advertising career last July, but has since taken an English Lit course—just for fun, and attempted some gourmet recipes from a French cookbook that Charles purchased! The baby, called Wes, holds court in a "restored" spindle bed that belonged to Charles.

The Brumbaums (Joan Brockelmann) recently moved to Long Island, where they have rented a beach house while they look for a place to buy. Joan says they are eager for summer so they can take advantage of the beach.

Doris Langeneckert Dieckgraefe has two boys, Brian, who is in the first grade, and Scott in nursery school. This past summer Doris and her family went south for their vacation and were able to visit with Jo Ann Burgin Cotton in Birmingham. Doris and Jo Ann were college roommates.

Connie Gibson Stoecker brings us up to date on her family. Susan is 4 and Kurt I. Connie's husband, Norman, is an architect in the Campus Planning

Office of Washington University and is also Assistant Professor at the School of Architecture. One of the houses which Norman designed is featured in the March issue of BETTER HOMES AND GARDENS.

Susan Willey Wallace and her husband were in Indianapolis, Ind. for 7 yrs. where Bob was a civilian electrical engineer for the U.S. Naval Avionics Facility. Last September Bob took a job with Bendix Aerospace Systems Division in Ann Arbor, Mich. The Wallace's have 2 children—John 7½ and Kitty 6.

Northfield, Ill. 60093

Jane Cooper, writes that "Drexel has survived six months with me as a full-fledged faculty member (assistant professor—finally!)—but I don't know how long I'll survive at the going rate! I am faculty advisor to our brand new humor magazine... editorial advisor to the student newspaper... and advisor to the cheerleaders, of all things! In my spare time, I teach!"

Cornelia Childs is teaching at Colby Junior College, New London, N.H.

Lt. Feral A. Finch in Fort McClellan, Ala., writes: "I have an interesting assignment... Project Officer for Educational Television for the WAC Basic Training Battalion. We are just beginning to put in ETV and the whole thing is in my lap. I just hope I know half of what they think I know! I'm also Asst. Trial Counsel for Special Courts-Martial at WAC Center... and Chief, General Military Subjects Committee. As you can see they really believe in utilizing their officers! I hope maybe I can get to Lindenwood in the next year or so... I'd love to see the campus with all the new buildings."

A good letter from Sylvia Nelson Bass, says that she began work last fall as an administrative assistant to the executive director of the Nashville Citizens Safety Council, the local agency for the National Safety Council. "We are all fine... Howard seems to enjoy his work more than ever... Laura is now 7 and April a year and a half."

Mary McKnight Quinlan sends word that she and Robert were married last June 25th. "I vowed I would never marry a teacher, but it was an inevitable occupational hazard! Bob is a native San Franciscan and is a teacher of journalism in San Mateo." The Quinlans live at 2 Clark dr., San Mateo, Calif.

Martha Helen Disharoon Hancock, writes that she is attending the School of Social Work of the University of Tennessee and hopes to have her M.S.W. in June of '68. Catherine is now 7, and Carter almost 6. Martha Helen would like to make contact with any L.C. gals in the Nashville area.

Mary C. Rankin, writes that she is still teaching second grade and enjoying it more each year. "... went to Europe this past summer and had a ball. We are saving our money to go back already! We were on a teachers tour for forty days and then took off on our own for Ireland, Scotland and back by ship!"

Sudlen Purdue Johnson (Mrs. J. Jefferson) sent word of the birth of Polly on March 6, 1967. Jeff is engaged in a three year residency in ophthalmology at the University of North Carolina.

A good Christmas message from Diane Stanley says "... am really enjoying Rio enormously... My job is fully the most varied and responsible one I've ever held—and I love it! Am also in love with this gorgeous city and its zany, undisciplined people."

We had a good Christmas visit with Jack and Peggy Crane Meriwether and their two boys, Dan and Thom—lots of "catching-up" and reminiscing!

There are too many of you that I haven't heard from. Do write!

Kay Dunham Wilkinson
(Mrs. Maurice L.)
416 Panhandle st.
Denton, Tex. 76201

Please accept my apology for having very little information in the last Bulletin. I became so "efficient" that I forgot the deadline date. I do appreciate all the news and information received during the year—but really would love to hear from more of you. Maurice and I have been very busy with our "precious child"—the restaurant. We did find time to "sneak off" the end of January to visit my family in Illinois—and you guessed it—we arrived with a blizzard of snow. Maurice spent most of his visiting time shoveling through the 16 inches of snow. I am anxiously awaiting to receive your letters. Thanks to all who contributed toward Lindenwood's future.

From Park Ridge, Ill., comes word from Barrie Bowen Shinn (Mrs. Lyle B.) that "All is fine in Park Ridge. Bonnie is in first grade. Billy is in kindergarten and loves school. Bud is working very hard, and I'm busy in P.T.A. and other activities in town." Last summer Barrie traveled to Long Island to visit with Mary Jane Biggs Bowen (Mrs. Bruce H.).

Meg Lewis Cardella (Mrs. Ronald W.) and her family have returned to Omaha, Nebr. from Iowa. "Tommy started pre-school this year and consequently our home is getting well decorated with art works of various forms and sizes. Margaret Mary has been very busy learning to walk, run, talk and naturally, exploring all various drawers, doors, etc." During the last year the Cardellas have had many visitors, including Leonard and Barbara Mester Turi, of Lansing, Ill., and Ted and Emmy Hay Long, of San Bruno, Calif. Meg's "spare time (there seems to be getting less of it each year) is still taken up by my favorite pastimes of bridge and sewing."

Sandy Hairston Brown (Mrs. Bill G.) made a visit to the L.C. campus while she and her family were visiting with the Alex G. Browns (Margie McLeod). Sandy and Bill have one daughter, Diane, who "is in kindergarten now and quite the young lady."

Janey Warren Carver (Mrs. Thad C.) writes: "We got possession of our first home, an old, big house at 6411 Morningside dr., Kansas City, Mo., 64113. We're very excited about finally having room to accommodate guests, so I hope anyone visiting in this area will be sure to come see us." Thad is Assistant Personnel Trust Officer at City National Bank. The Carvers have a son, Jon Michael, 1½ yrs.

"We've moved again," writes Nancy Rector Douglas (Mrs. Henry L.), Box 41, Morrisville, N.Y. 13408. "Hank's been busier than ever. He taught summer school last year and also is coordinating a Manpower Retraining program for machinists. He got his P.E. this fall and can now do consulting engineering. I've been busy teaching part-time this year."

Carol Durham Henderson (Mrs. Monroe) is a very busy mother these days. "Donna is in the second grade which seems to automatically encompass everything from Brownies to piano lessons! The boys have declared war—on each other. So that makes for fun and games in that department. Curtis goes to nursery school, so he doesn't feel quite so badly about not being 7 yrs. old! Chuck keeps everyone busy giving commands peculiar only to 18-mo.-old boys!"

Hiroko Fujicwara Egawa (Mrs. Hiroshi) sends a photo of two of her children, Takeshi and Haruko. (See picture) "Nasko arrived Jan. 15, weighing 7 lbs. 11 oz. Haruko and Takeshi are very happy to have her in the family. Haruko starts kindergarten in April. She always says that when she gets bigger she wants to go to America and attend Mommy's school." Hiroko had news from Betty Dornall Champion that her husband, Jasper, is in Viet Nam and that they had Christmas together in Hawaii.

The Charles Fightmasters (Kitty Zink) have had a busy year. In January they moved into their new home, which they built—12127 Goodwood Blvd., Baton Rouge, La., 70815. Kitty writes: "The best news of all is our little girl, Lee Anne. She was eight weeks old when we adopted her." The Fightmasters spent the summer visiting relatives and friends in Lexington, Ky. While there, Kitty visited with Carol Davidson Mitchell, who gave a bridge luncheon, at which there was quite a gathering of L.C. Alumnae—Judy Lanman Nethery, Beth Devlin Jett, Jane Eton Lange and Deede Lee Boone. Kitty confesses that "more talking than card playing was done, but we certainly had a good time."

"Just a short note to tell you of our change of address and new baby," writes Peggy Newell Fridley (Mrs. M. Gale), 2308 Gallaher, St. Charles, Mo., 63301. "Gale graduated from St. Louis College of Pharmacy and is now employed with a pharmacy in South St. Louis. Paige Katherine was born Jan. 7 and she is a darling baby and may one day be a Lindenwood Lady, also."

Word comes from Cleta Jones, that she saw Miss 'L' at a coffee for Lindenwood in Washington. Cleta also visited with Karen Glaser at the coffee.

Another busy mother is Sally Brasher Lowther (Mrs. Ed). Sally and Ed have had a busy year being on the membership committee for building a new YMCA. "I have never polished and used so much silver in my life. As charter members, we are striving for a membership of 1,000 families. Junior Women will be another of my activities (besides choir and P.T.A.). Kathleen is now in kindergarten and gaily skips to the bus—she is the 'grown-up young lady,' now—or so she thinks. She is quite proud and possessive (and a little jealous, too) of her birthday present, Edward Brasher, who was born on Kathy's birthday—July 7."

The new address for Betty Owens MacGregory (Mrs. Donald E.) is 15 Beverly Gardens dr., Metairie, La., 70001, and Betty writes that "We have been busy fixing up the home we bought last summer. We've become quite good with the paint and wallpaper."

The "Arch," symbolizing the "Gateway to the West," in St. Louis has played an important role in the household of the Harold H. Walters (Judy Winburn), 7309 Berkridge dr., Hazelwood, Mo. "Harry has been working on the 'Arch' and we all find his experiences with their endless variety of problems interesting. We've had a busy and exciting year with the kids changing so as they do when they're little. Jeff will start junior kindergarten and is very excited about being so big."

"Early in June we moved to Fond du Lac, Wisc., and to our present address in August—322 S. Marr st., 54935," is the word received from Lin Winegarner Worth (Mrs. Roger P.). Roger has been admitted to the Wisconsin Bar and is now general counsel for Kelkhaefer Corp. Lin has been busy, busy with many activities in the Community Concerts, the Newcomers Club, The Lawyers' Wives Group, ASUS and piano lessons. "Much to my astonishment, Lisa will be 4 and Laura 1."

"Dede" Graham Shigley has moved from Memphis to Dallas. She has two boys, ages 3 & 4 who keep her busy. "Dede" is doing some painting and a lot of reading. Her children were playmates of Mary Dillard Burroughs' (59) children when they lived in Memphis.

Escondido, Calif. 92024

Due to the fact that Stan and I are going to be moving several times in the near future, I feel it best for me to hand over the position of class secretary to someone else. Do I have a volunteer? It is loads of fun to keep in touch with everyone. If you are interested please get in touch with the Alumnae Office. Now for the news—

Margaret Bassnett Burtin had her first child on January 8—Jennifer Margaret. The Burtins had a visit from Sue Allender McCullal and family in September.

Linda Markuly Szilvasy is back in Granite City, Ill. (2015 Delmar Ave.) for the year. John is serving a tour of duty as chaplain in Viet Nam.

Stephanie Harms Smith and family have moved to 19282 Allegheny Rd., Apple Valley, Calif. where Al accepted a call from the Episcopal Church.

Janet Hancock sent a long, informative, and exciting letter at Christmas. She told all about her travels and experience while serving as a teacher overseas. She is presently at Nuremberg American High School. Janet has certainly taken advantage of her opportunities.

Pia Thomer E. Resund, who is now living in Stockholm, Sweden, is working in a psychology clinic and her husband is a civil engineer.

Sally Sicks Hart
(Mrs. Ronald E.)
2622 Creekview dr.
Marietta, Ga. 30060

I have been so pleased with the correspondence of our class, yet there are still many of you that have not written in a long time. I do hope that I will be hearing from several of you in the near future and that many of you were able to attend our 5th reunion in May—seems impossible, doesn't it!

I have been very busy these past few months since I decided to try supply teaching in two of the Cobb County Schools. I have been averaging three days a week and, of course, most of the time this is on the spur of the moment. Besides teaching again, I have been very busy with church work since our small United Presbyterian Church in this area just became officially organized.

The class extends their deepest sympathy to Martha Jeanne Skaer Ballard and her husband, William, on the recent death of their infant son. The Ballards make their home at 309 Northmoor, Ballwin, Mo. 63011.

A new address for Larry and Esther Muench (Moulthrop) brings along the news that Larry is now a surgical resident at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis. Their new address is 4529A Flad Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63110.

A letter from Mrs. David Wright (Betty Cheadle) brought the news of Michael's birth in November. He joins his sister, Joyce Lynn, who is 3, in keeping Betty rather busy around the house. David is still with Gulf Oil Corporation as operations specialist in the Petro-Chemical Department.

Mary Moeblenkamp is now living in St. Louis. She writes that all is about the same with her except she is doing some teaching at Deaconess Nursing School. Mary recently acquired a French Poodle to keep her a little more busy.

A surprise letter recently from Margot Beaton Summers (Mrs. Murray) says that Murray is still in graduate school working for his Ph.D. in molecular biology. Margot says she stays pretty busy at home with Murray, Jr. now 4 and Virginia now 3. She would love to hear from any of you LC girls so get busy and write her sometime. They live at 3855 S. Cove Drive, Birmingham, Ala. 35213.

Imelda Harra Farmer has gone into business in Worthington, Ohio. She and a friend had the grand opening of their sample shop on the 1st of April—THE VILLAGE SAMPLER. Good luck, Imelda!

Our classmates have certainly been moving around the country lately, and I have many of their new addresses. If you need an address for anyone in the class, I'll be glad to send it to you or try to get it for you. How about those letters you have been meaning to write for sometime now. I'd love to hear from any and all of you soon. SSH

Karen Rasmussen
1020 Forest ave., Apt. 17
Kansas City, Kan. 66103

Judy Peterson Clark is teaching English at Lindenwood this semester and next year while Dr. Sibley is on a sabbatical leave of absence. Judy is living in the old Home Management House.

Carolyn May Cannon is teaching Health and Physical Education at the junior high school in Poplar Bluff, Mo.

Delores Lienau Pundman (Mrs. Ed) writes that she is teaching remedial reading at St. Charles High School. Their daughter Mary Ann, is now three years old and is growing rapidly. Dee and Ed were with Mrs. Cave constantly during her illness. Ed was a pallbearer at her funeral.

Our class is saddened with the news of the death of Mrs. Cave. She passed away December 29, 1966 in St. Charles and was buried in Paducah, Kentucky. Her familiar laugh and smile guided and encouraged many of us while at Lindenwood.

A letter from Joyce Helmers Mason (Mrs. Guy) brought news that she and her husband have been living in Frederick, Oklahoma for the last two years. Guy is General Manager and Advertising Manager for the newspaper, the Frederick Daily Leader.

Michelle Ann was born November 21, 1966 and Joyce writes, "I don't know how we ever got along without her."

"Until a few months before Michelle was born, I worked for the Brantly Helicopter Corp. as Mr. Brantly's secretary which was quite exciting. However, I'm pretty busy now being a housewife and really loving it."

Freda Miller Lerner and husband, Mike, are another set of proud parents. Neil William was born November 24, 1966—Thanksgiving Day. Mike is in his senior year at the University of Kentucky Dental School and will go on into children's dentistry—two more years of study.

I enjoyed a wonderfully long visit with Joan Leiper Johnson over dinner at the Old World Restaurant here in Kansas City several weeks ago. Joan brought me up-to-date on several of our class whom I've not heard from for some time. Joan was in Kansas City for a company school; she works for A.T.&T. in St. Louis.

"I have enjoyed hearing about everyone in the Bulletin," says Pat McLain Caughman (Mrs. John). "John and I have moved several times in the past five years, but we have always stayed in South Carolina. We moved to Orangeburg last October. John is working for a textile dyeing and finishing plant."

"We have two little girls—Beth is four and Lisa is 29 months."

Marilyn Lewis sent a letter with many newey items that I will pass on to you. Marilyn is teaching homemaking and physical education in New Orleans.

Joan Bernhard Morgan and Dave are living in St. Louis now. Dave has completed his tour of duty in the Navy.

Barbara Mogg is working for Delta Airlines in Washington, D.C.

Kathleen Belland Glenn "Tink" and John are stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado.

Janet Bergelin
1900 S. Eads ave., Apt. 923
Arlington, Va. 22202

It is good to hear from some, but wish more of you would write. Gail Stiefel visited me this past month. She is with National City Bank of N.Y. in travel, JB.

Amelia Williams Frankum and Jerry who were married in February are living in Memphis, Tenn. where Jerry is a resident at the Baptist Hospital.

Beth Weisheit graduated in '64 from Purdue and has been teaching speech and drama in Indianapolis.

Karen Schnatmeier and Ted Smith were married May 8, 1964. Ted is an engineer at McDonnell and they have a daughter, Leslie Caquion, born July 16, 1966.

Susan McCard Shayer and Ray are soon to have finished their tour with the Navy in California. They are excited to return eastward as they are overwhelmed with California's population.

I received a long letter from Trienke Meijer. Trienke is still studying various courses all connected with English. Last summer she lived with a family in France so as to keep up her French and, also, to enjoy the French kitchen. She has a job as hostess for the Dutch Pavilion at Expo 67 from July to November. She would be most happy to have anyone stop by and see her and she will give a guided tour!

Anita Gerken is teaching physical education at New Trier in Winnetka, Ill.

Jeanne Cris Gillison and her husband, Chuck, were part of the program to be sent back from Germany and now that they're back find that they miss Pirmaseno. They are stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Judy Leatherby and Henry A. Ball, Jr. (Punch) were married in January and are now living in Mt. Holly, New Jersey. Punch is a Lt. in the Air Force and away on missions often, so if any of you are in the area, call Judy.

Gaye Graves Crannell and Win are now en route to the States after a seven months stay in Florence, Italy. They have been counselors for 120 Florida State students. Gaye writes that it has been a stimulating city in which to live and study, but that the November floods caused hardships for everyone. They will be in Tallahassee until August when Win receives his M.F.A. in graphics. Gaye is working on her Ph.D. in art history and they both hope to begin college teaching in Sept.

Jeanne Pohlmann was recently selected Young Woman of the Year for the State of Missouri and was recognized in the publication "Outstanding Young Women of America." Jeanne is employed as coordinator of the elementary guidance in the St. Charles school system.

Mary K. Carrothers Hardin and husband, Jack, are living in Tupelo, Ark. and have a son, Millard Carrothers, who was born last July.

Vivian Lane McRae
(Mrs. Michael)
3389 Clover Ln.
Dallas, Tex. 75220

Maxine "Tookie" Basch is living in Los Angeles and is working at U.C.L.A. Medical Center and, also, attending school. She hopes by the end of this year to have her teaching credentials in education—in the state of California it takes five years of school in order to teach on the secondary level. "Last year, I returned to L.C. in the spring, and found it a good feeling to see so many old friends, students, as well as faculty."

Nancy Caldwell graduated from Southern Methodist University in Dallas in Jan. '65. She then worked at Southwestern Medical School as a research assistant. Nancy spent last fall in Europe with a girl friend from Houston.

"This is 'Jane' checking in; my handwriting must really be getting bad. Unless a 'for-real Jane' wrote to you, also, the unknown person is me, Jane Giordano Harding. I wrote the letter in a hurry, and must have thought I signed my maiden name. Sorry if I caused a problem. Thom is now a Lieutenant, USN, going through advanced jet training in Beeville, Texas, however, we are due to leave here on the 17th of March—will send new address later."

Sandy Billings writes that after leaving Lindenwood she attended Oklahoma University from which she graduated in June from the School of Pharmacy. She is now gainfully employed at St. John's Hospital as a registered pharmacist—thoroughly enjoying her chosen profession.

Linda McCracken Reese and husband, Sandy, are living in St. Petersburg, Fla. where Sandy is an electrical engineer with Electronics Communications, Inc. They have one son, Robert Lamar, who was born in March of '66.

Bobi Randolph writes that she has been in Westwood, Calif. for a year now—working as a data processing programmer for Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica since Nov. '65. "There's so much to do here I'm seldom home on the weekends. In the winter it's skiing at Mammoth in the High Sierras and in the summer loading and surfing on the beaches in Newport Beach or Balboa Island." "It's like old home week out here—I see Tookie Bosch, Ann Currie, Cevilla Line and Mary Richardson who is going to UCLA."

Linda Kaal Bauer and Harold are now out of the service and living in Omaha, Neb. Linda is teaching Project Headstart and Harold is working on his master's at the Univ. of Nebraska.

When Rosemary Kunel and Dr. William Harte Northwall were married last August, Kathi Vanies was one of her attendants. Kuncie and Bill are making their home in Omaha where she is teaching 4th grade.

Cheryl Ranchino Rushing and Howard are still living in Herrin, Ill.—"finding a small town fairly exciting." "Still no family news, maybe this time next year. I have gotten pretty active in my sorority—Beta Sigma Phi. You know me, don't like to be just a member—have to stick my nose in the administrative end of things—much to Howard's dismay!"

Prudy Paine White and her husband Roger are living in Lords, England where Roger is a curate in the Mauston Parish Church and Prudy is getting acquainted with a new set of customs and habits. A couple of their Lindenwood friends have already "dropped in"—it's really a small world now.

Barbara Rhodes Stribling sent some news to Miss Beale, Registrar at L.C. She had a letter from Diane Stanley ('59)—Diane is in Rio de Janeiro with USIA and really likes it except for the lack of a few modern conveniences. "Cory" Olivier is engaged to a fellow from Princeton and is planning a wedding in the fall. Mary Gilmore loves Denver and her grad work in library science. She and Walt plan to stay there when he returns from Ankara, Turkey in the fall. Marilyn Leicis Donnelly is working as a secretary for the Red Cross in Little Rock and is enjoying married life.

No earthshaking events have happened on the capital of the Papago Indian Reservation. I'd say I was settling into the routine of nice contented housewife and teacher, but am also getting a lot of reading done.

Jackie Blume was visiting at Lindenwood on the 4th of April. She now lives in Denver, Colo. where she is working for the University of Colorado Medical Center in pulmonary physiology research.

Helene Ledbetter
901 West Jackson, Apt. C-4
Fayetteville, Ark.

Sheryle Meckel Hoyt is currently enrolled at Fort Hays Kansas State College as a senior majoring in geology. Her husband, Dee, is a senior business major at Fort Hays. He, also, works full time selling pianos and organs for Hays Music Company. They have a little girl, Brenda Jean, who was born in Feb. of 1964.

Sharman Beasley writes that after attending L.C. as a freshman she transferred to Southern Methodist University in Dallas for one year and then spent her last two years at the Univ. of Texas graduating last June with a double major in history and government. "The Univ. of Texas was a marvelous place to see and renew L.C. friendships such as Deena Kinder and Nancy Lambert." Sharman is presently teaching seventh grade history in Dallas. "Teaching occupies most of my time, but this summer I'll be in Paris at La Sorbonne taking graduate courses; therefore—I will become a student again—really looking forward to it."

Sharman sent in some other news about L.C. gals from the class of '66. Roselyn Zanville is working in Dallas. Ann Peoples Bourland is living in Phoenix and she and Sharman had a nice visit last summer. Francie Sandler was married in January and is living in Mineral Wells, Tex. "If any Lindenwood girls are ever in Dallas please call me."

Nancy Lambert Davenport writes that every time she reads one of the alumnae magazines it makes her homesick for her days at Lindenwood (1962-1963). After leaving L. C. Nancy attended the University of Texas. She received her BA in English and history in June 1966. On June 17 Nancy married Richard S. Davenport who is now an Electrical Engineer. By the way, two of her bridesmaids were L.C. girls of Class of '66. Kay Carpenter Batte who is presently going to the University of Texas with her husband Bob and 13 month old baby Brent. Also, Carol Coleman Hammel was a bridesmaid. Carol is living in Rantoul, Illinois, with her husband Richard and baby Todd.

Nancy added a plea that whoever is holding up the round-robin letter started by a small group of L. C. girls to please get it moving again. Others in this group in addition to those mentioned are Janice Nichols who became an R. N. in August from St. Johns Hospital in Tulsa, Mary Kay Messall Wally who was married in the summer of '65 to Robert F. Wally, and Jane Whiting Mathiason who was married in '63 to Mark O. Mathiason. They have a son a year old.

Nancy's address for those who might enjoy writing to her is Mrs. Richard S. Davenport, 2011 Scott Street, Apartment 20, La Marque, Texas.

Had a note from Linda Hisey Parker who writes that she and her husband James are now living in Roswell, New Mexico, following their graduation from the University of Oklahoma in Norman. Linda received her B. A. in history and her husband received his law degree. James is now employed by the Internal Revenue Service. Linda hopes that many of her old classmates will write her in Roswell at 1201 West McGaffey, Apartment 24.

Where Do You Live? We'd Like To Know

United States residents move more often than residents of any other nation. College graduates change their addresses more frequently than other Americans. With these statistics in mind, it's not surprising that keeping the mailing lists of some 9,500 Lindenwood alumnae and friends of the College up to date has become a big job. It's a task that consumes a great deal of time and one that each of you can make much easier for us when you change your address.

You can do your part by advising us promptly of any change in address. Do this in advance of your move if possible and note the date that the new address will be effective. This will enable us to make sure that you don't miss any mailings and will relieve you of the chore during the busy time when you are actually making the move. The simplest and most effective way to advise us is to use a change-of-address post card form available free of charge at any U. S. post office. Or simply send us the address imprint from an old Lindenwood Bulletin and note your new address and effective date.

Please remember to include your complete old address as well as your complete new address. The old address makes it easier for us to locate your address plate and serves as a double check against removing the wrong plate.

Bear in mind that a complete address these days includes your Zip Code. After Jan. 1, 1967, second and third class mail without the Zip Code will not be delivered. We are in the process of Zip-Coding all our address plates and must include the Zip Code on all new plates. Your post office can supply you with the Zip Code for your new address.

One thing more. When you don't send address changes, it costs your College money. We are charged 10 cents for each piece of mail returned with the new address supplied and often the new address is incomplete or incorrect. When multiplied by several hundred, this can add up!

We hope we've made our point. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Nancy Alvis McClanahan
Alumnae Executive Secretary

Dr. Pearl Walker Retires

For most students returning to Lindenwood for the 1966-67 academic year, everything was much the same as it had been when they left for summer vacation. But for a number of voice students it was not the same, nor would it ever be again. Miss Walker was gone.

After 32 years of distinguished and devoted service, Dr. Pearl W. Walker had retired quietly in June, 1966, from her position as Professor of Music.

To say that she had a profound influence on the hundreds of students who studied voice with her during those 32 years would be merely skimming the surface. Influence them she did, but how much only her students themselves can say. She inspired. She commanded respect and admiration. She impressed with her great knowledge and artistry. She taught with a great fervor and love for her work and her students. She endeared herself to all who knew her.

One of the first orders of business when the fall semester got under way in September was the passage of a resolution by the faculty and administration recommending to the Board of Directors that Dr. Walker be appointed Professor Emeritus of Music. The resolution was duly approved when the Board met in October.

Of Dr. Walker, the resolution states: "As a teacher, Miss Walker has been a constant source of inspiration to her many students. Her total commitment to the highest principles of teaching has always been evident, and generations of former students, quite a few of whom have become professional singers, hold her in high regard."

Dr. Walker received her B.A. degree from the University of Illinois, a M.Mus. degree from Chicago Musical College and Ph.D. from Teachers College, Columbia University. She has studied at the Juilliard School of Music and with such eminent teachers of voice as Herbert Witherspoon, Conrad V. Bos and Harry Robert Wilson.

For years her recitals enriched the musical life of the Lindenwood camps. She also served for many years as soloist at the Second Presbyterian Church of St. Louis.

In her retirement, Miss Walker is not far from her many fond memories of Lindenwood. She continues to reside in the red brick home on the south side of the campus where a warm welcome always awaits a visiting former student.

Lindenwood Will Remember

RUSSELL L. DEARMONT

Russell L. Dearmont, retired railroad executive and respected and devoted member of the Lindenwood College Board of Directors for 23 years, died January 12, 1967. He had been in ill health since the summer of 1965 when he suffered the first of a series of strokes.

Primarily identified for his brilliant career with the Missouri Pacific Railroad, Mr. Dearmont was known equally well in the St. Louis area as a humanitarian and civic leader. His diverse abilities were translated into benefits to his fellow man in many areas.

In 1928 he became the first Democrat in 45 years to be elected State Senator from his district and in 1932 he lost a bid for the governorship by a narrow margin.

Mr. Dearmont's long affiliation with the Missouri Pacific began in 1930 when he was appointed attorney for the line in southeast Missouri. He was named general counsel in 1936 with the task of leading the far-flung road out of bankruptcy. The job required 20 years and changed the course of his life.

He was made vice president in 1956 and president a year later. In 1961 he advanced to board chairman and served in that capacity until his retirement in 1962. He continued to serve as a board member and executive consultant until his death.

Among the many honors bestowed on Mr. Dearmont was the coveted St. Louis Award which he was given in 1958 for "outstanding service to the community." In 1960 he received the Globe-Democrat Humanities Award which honored him for "a lifetime dedicated to furthering the principles of the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God."

FLORENCE ELLINWOOD ALLEN

Lindenwood College has been advised of the death in September, 1966, of the eminent jurist, Florence Ellinwood Allen of Willoughby (Cleveland), Ohio. Judge Allen was the commencement speaker at Lindenwood in 1950 and again in 1954 when she was also awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. She was 82 years of age at the time of her death.

Judge Allen received B.A. and M.A. degrees from Western Reserve University and her LL.B. from New York University. She held honorary degrees from more than a score of colleges and universities and was the recipient of countless honors and awards during a long and distinguished career.

All the positions she held were precedent-shattering for a woman, from her appointment as an assistant county prosector in 1919 to her election in 1922 to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Culmination of Judge Allen's brilliant career began in 1934 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed her to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit which comprises the states of Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee. She held this important judgeship for more than 20 years, attaining the rank of senior U.S. Circuit Judge. It was in this capacity that she was invited to address the Lindenwood graduating classes of 1950 and 1954.

MRS. MARY B. CAVE • MRS. EDITH EVERIST

Lindenwood College lost two respected head residents during the current school year through the deaths of Mrs. Mary B. Cave and Mrs. Edith Everist.

Mrs. Cave died at St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Charles, on December 29, 1966, after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services were held in Paducah, Ky., on January 2, 1967, with burial in Bardwell, Ky. She is survived by a niece, Mary Jane Biggs Bowen of Huntington, N. Y.

In nine years at Lindenwood, Mrs. Cave was head resident at Butler, Cobbs, McCluer and Nicholls Halls. She had retired but agreed to return early in October, 1966, to fill a temporary vacancy as head resident at Ayres Hall. A Mary Cave Memorial Book Fund has been established by two former students. Contributions may be sent in care of Lindenwood College.

Mrs. Everist, head resident at Cobbs Hall since 1961, died March 17, 1967, of a stroke at St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Charles. She was stricken unexpectedly the day before in her quarters on campus after returning from a shopping trip.

A memorial service for Mrs. Everist was held in Sibley Chapel the afternoon of her death. Funeral services were conducted March 20, 1967, at Marshalltown, Ia., with burial in Riverside Cemetery there. She was the widow of the late Cecil Everist and is survived by a son, Ralph Everist of Galena, Ill.

Mrs. Everist was a member of Beta Chi, Lindenwood riding club, and a classroom in the new college stables will be dedicated to her memory. Memorial contributions are being accepted and will be used to furnish the classroom.

DR. HELENE EVERS

Dr. Helene Evers, a member of the Lindenwood College faculty from 1931 to 1941, died October 1, 1966, in St. Louis at the age of 90, the college has been advised. Dr. Evers taught French, German and Spanish at Lindenwood.

Kennecott Gives $5,000

Lindenwood College has received an unrestricted grant of $5,000 from the Kennecott Copper Corporation, it was announced in March. The award was part of a $30,000 appropriation by Kennecott's Board of Directors for direct support of small liberal arts colleges "in recognition of the importance of such institutions to our educational system and to American industry."

Lindenwood was selected as a grant recipient on the basis of "academic standing, excellence of the educational job being done, and other criteria." Five other colleges were chosen from throughout the nation to receive similar $5,000 awards.

The announced grants are in addition to Kennecott's permanent program of support to higher education which includes scholarships and fellowships at schools located in the company's areas of operation and in subjects in the company's general fields of interest.

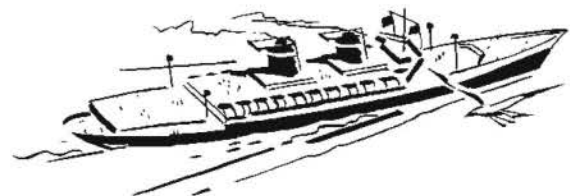

Alumnae European Tour

An opportunity to enjoy a delightful nine-country group tour of Europe this summer awaits Lindenwood alumnae who take advantage of the special 22-day vacation trip being planned for August 2 through 23.

Under the supervision and leadership of Mrs. Nancy McClanahan, alumnae executive secretary, the tour is open to all alumnae, members of their families and friends. All inclusive cost of the tour, including round trip air fare from New York, is $719. Deadline for tour reservations is May 15. An advance deposit of $50 per person is required. Brochures, which include a complete itinerary, may be obtained by writing Mrs. McClanahan at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo. 63301.

The congeniality of traveling with a group of Lindenwood alumnae will add immeasurably to your enjoyment of the tour which includes highlights of Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, Monaco, France and England.

CAMPUS SCENE

Marquis W Childs

The Thought Provokers

The role of the United States in current world affairs was the primary focus of two campus lecturers in recent weeks. Large assemblies of concerned students were on hand to hear Marquis W. Childs, chief Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and Edward Kline, associate editor of Newsweek and author of the magazine's weekly War in Vietnam section.

Mr. Childs defined the credibility gap as the difference between what people think and what the President wants them to think. We have always had it, he observed, but the magnitude of current problems makes it seem wider now. The nationally syndicated, liberal columnist spoke in favor of the consular treaty with Russia as well as a nuclear non-proliferation treaty and improvement of trade with communist countries.

The greatest obstacles faced by President Johnson in finding a solution to the Vietnam problem are, Childs believes, L.B.J.'s own temper, his great desire to win a military victory and inevitable political considerations. Other quotes on L.B.J.: "His greatest fault is that he listens too much to people who think as he does"—"I honestly believe he wants out of Vietnam more than anyone else."

Mr. Kline impressed L.C. students with his well thought out positions and obvious sincerity.

"We've never entered a conflict more reluctantly, never fought one less enthusiastically, never searched more desperately for a way out", he said of the Vietnam conflict which he described as "the single most important fact of international diplomacy affecting the relations of every major nation in the world."

Mr. Kline views U.S. involvement as seeking a military solution to what is essentially a political problem. He feels there is validity to statistics which support the idea that victory in a military sense is unobtainable and rejects official Washington statements which imply that a military victory is within our grasp.

The "domino theory" is not valid, Kline believes, because it fails to take into consideration the fact that every Southeast Asian nation is totally different from its neighbors in many vital areas.

Greatest obstacle to a solution of any kind, according to Kline, is the difficulty either side would encounter in modifying its current commitment. From the U.S. point of view, this may mean that we will have to wait until a new President sits in the White House.

Is there a solution that has a chance of succeeding? As Kline sees it, a Laos-type settlement has merit and should be seriously explored. All factions within Vietnam would be represented in a coalition government under such an arrangement, he told the students, and it may be the only way to permanently end hostilities.

Live Opera for L. C.

The thrill of a live professional opera performance on-campus was enjoyed by Lindenwood students on March 6 when the Turnau Opera Players arrived for a performance of Giuseppe Verdi's "La Traviata" in Roemer Auditorium.

Edward Kline

Although modest in staging, the production proved to be a pleasing experience for the large audience, thanks primarily to the performers whose voices, according to a review in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, "were delightful in their youthful vigor."

Campus Drama Impresses

The Lindenwood community was treated to an exciting evening of theater when the Federico Lorca tragedy, "The House of Bernarda Alba", was presented in November.

Rave comments on the student opinion board attested to the impact of the drama and the virtuosity of Karen Johnson who produced, directed and supervised set construction. The play was the culmination of Miss Johnson's tenure as visiting lecturer in dramatics during the first semester. An actress and playwright, Miss Johnson is currently appearing in "You're a Good Man Charley Brown", a comedy based on the "Peanuts" comic strip which opened in March at the St. Marks Theater in New York.

Julia Ewing, junior speech and drama major from Memphis, Tenn., was superb as Bernarda. Outstanding performances were also turned in by the 17 Lindenwood students in supporting roles.

The three-act play portrays the frustrations of a family of women without men trying to uphold the aristocratic traditions of a dying era.

Donna Burgess, senior speech and drama major from Milwaukee, Wisc., directed the second semester dramatic production, "The Insect Comedy", a satire by Karel and Josef Capek presented March 17 and 18 in Roemer Auditorium. The play depicts an intoxicated tramp who falls asleep in a forest and dreams of an insect world in which the inhabitants behave amazingly like man.

With the script calling for more than 40 insect roles, performers were cast in as many as four parts.

Campus Talent on Television

Lindenwood College will be spotlighted on "Campus Talent '67", an hour-long television program featuring outstanding performing talent from Missouri college and university campuses.

Scheduled for inclusion in the forthcoming production are the modern dance duo of Pam Szabo, Creve Coeur, Mo., and Marma O'Dell, Tulsa, Okla., and the equestrian square dance team of the Beta Chi Riding Club coached by Mrs. Fern Palmer Bittner. Participants in the show were selected on the basis of auditions held throughout the state in March.

Performing in the square dance on horseback are Kathy Drake, Springfield, Ill.; Karen Mueller, O'Fallon, Mo.; Sally Quillian, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Lynn Russell, Hutchinson, Kans.; Sara Russell, Rocheport, Mo.; Jean Kirts, Overland, Mo.; Vicky Smith, Nashville, Tenn.; Amy Beckett, Creve Coeur, Mo.; Sally Gordon, Webster Groves, Mo.; and Lee DeLott, Lexington, Ky.

A production crew video taped the Lindenwood performers in on-campus settings on April 21.

The completed program will be telecast between May 22 and 29 by stations in St. Louis, Kansas City, Springfield, St. Joseph, Sedalia, Jefferson City, Joplin, Kirksville and Hannibal. The show is produced by Corinthian Special Productions of Houston, Texas, and sponsored by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Bach Concerts Presented

The musical enjoyment of students, faculty and the St. Charles-St. Louis public was enriched during the current academic year through a series of Bach concerts under the direction of David Mulbury, assistant professor of music.

A demonstration recital of the harpsichord, clavichord and virginal with Mr. Mulbury at the keyboard opened the series on February 13. The second program was an organ recital in Sibley Chapel on March 16 by Delbert Diselhorst of the faculty of Hastings College, Hastings, Nebr. An evening of chamber music featuring Robert Bergt of Concordia Seminary, violin, and Mr. Mulbury at the harpsichord was presented on April 10. The program included Bach sonatas for violin and harpsichord and solo works for harpsichord. The final event in the series was May 1 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, St. Charles, when Mr. Mulbury played an all-Bach organ program assisted by the 16 voices of the Lindenwood College Choralaires.

This year marks the second season of Lindenwood Bach Concerts arranged by Mr. Mulbury to further the appreciation and understanding of the incomparable masterworks of Johann Sebastian Bach.

Religion-In-Life Week

Dr. John David Maguire of Wesleyan University delivered four major addresses and presided at informal meetings with students during the three-day program that comprised the 1967 Religion-In-Life Week at Lindenwood College.

Based on the theme, "Pilgrims' Dance: Sketching a Christian Life Style", Dr. Maguire's lectures were entitled "Where Can God Be Found", "Coping with Chaos", "Something Present Often Missed" and "Dancing in the Company of God".

The Office of the Dean of Students is geared to provide valuable assistance to Lindenwood graduates seeking employment. In addition to the alumnae placement files maintained by the Office, the College is now affiliated with two national services which can provide valuable supplementary assistance. Alumnae are urged to avail themselves of these services.

You can gain the utmost in benefits from the assistance available to you if you heed the advice of Miss Mary Lichliter, Dean of Students, who reminds you that your credentials are on file in her office and are sent along with transcripts without charge for four-year graduates. Miss Lichliter points out that it is not necessary to list individual professors on employment applications since their recommendation letters are already on file as part of your credentials and will be sent automatically when a request is received.

It is suggested, however, that you keep your credential file up-to-date by requesting former employers to send references to the Office of the Dean of Students. It is also important to have a letter of reference on file from your present employer even if you are not contemplating a change in employment at the present time.

Currently Miss Lichliter's office is prepared to provide active teacher placement assistance in the St. Louis, Detroit, Denver and Chicago areas.

The two national services which alumnae may find helpful are the Alumnae Advisory Center and the GRAD System (Graduate Resume Accumulation and Distribution).

Alumnae Advisory Center

At the Alumnae Advisory Center office you may discuss your immediate or long-range job plans; obtain help with job interviews, letters of application and resumes; learn where likely job opportunities are available.

In the AAC job library you may do research to learn about specific jobs and companies, draw up lists of employers and ascertain what further training you may need.

The Center also conducts one-day seminars on job-getting and career advancement which you may attend at a reduced fee.

If you are ready to apply for a job, you may make application to the Center's Alumnae Placement Agency. It makes no difference whether you are seeking full-time or part-time employment. You may be qualified as a trainee or an executive and you may be a recent graduate or an older person. As a member college applicant you are entitled to a 25% reduction in the placement fee.

As a Lindenwood graduate you are entitled to any of the Center's services simply by contacting directly the Alumnae Advisory Center, 541 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. 10022. The telephone number is PLaza 8-2153.

GRAD System

Lindenwood graduates, except those seeking jobs in education, may participate in the nation-wide GRAD placement service, a new electronically processed non-profit program. The system was devised and is operated by the College Placement Council, a corporation formed a decade ago by placement directors and employers to assist themselves in doing a better job for students and alumni.

A Lindenwood graduate interested in utilizing GRAD to find new employment should communicate directly with Miss Lichliter at the College. If Miss Lichliter feels that the program will be of value to the applicant, she is sent an instruction sheet and a four-page resume form which is completed and sent direct to the College Placement Council, Bethlehem, Pa.

More than 2,000 employers are already represented in the CPC and others may apply to use the system. By teletype or mail the employer can query the GRAD System about the number of candidates who meet his specifications and may then request resumes of qualified candidates. From this point on, negotiations are traditional with the employer contacting those applicants whose experience, as indicated more fully by the resume, meets his needs. Before, during, or after the use of the GRAD System, alumnae are free to call upon the Office of the Dean of Students for counsel.

Since misuse of the system for "just looking around" would detract from its value to employers, Miss Lichliter must endorse each resume before it is sent to the candidate. The resume remains in the active search file for six months. If the alumna has received a job while resident in the file, she may not return to the GRAD System for a full year. Those deleted from the file at the end of six months are advised as to the number of times their resumes have been referred. Especially in instances of alumnae who have been resident in the electronic file for six months and have attracted no offers, it would appear desirable that they communicate with the Office of the Dean of Students for suggestions as to shortcomings which may be affecting their candidacy.

While the main purpose of GRAD will always be to help alumnae obtain the most satisfying jobs possible, there will be fringe benefits, such as research data on such subjects as supply and demand and salary trends, which will help in advising students and alumnae. Not the least of these benefits will be the added link between Lindenwood and its graduates.

When you wish to use this service, please write to the Office of the Dean of Students giving your name, current address, degree, and year of graduation together with a statement about your plans for seeking new employment.
