

Lindenwood University

Digital Commons@Lindenwood University

Mary Easton Sibley Papers

George and Mary Easton Sibley Papers

11-10-1863

Ad From Mary Sibley in the Daily Missouri Republican to Sell Elma. November 10, 1863

Mary Easton Sibley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.lindenwood.edu/mary>

Part of the United States History Commons

Desirable Suburban Residence

FOR SALE.

ELMA—the country seat of the late Major G. C. Sibley—one and a half miles from the city of St. Charles, Missouri, and near Lindenwood Female College, consisting of twenty acres of rich land, enclosed and in a high state of cultivation. The improvements are of the first class, and have all been made within seven years, consisting in part of a substantial two story brick dwelling, with eight rooms besides basements, bath room, two dressing closets, with hot and cold water, china closets, etc.; brick out-house for servants, frame barn, carriage, milk and ice house, woodshed, etc.; ornamental shrubbery, fruit trees, mostly in bearing, such as pears, nectarines, apricots, peaches, cherries, plums, quinces, apples, grapes and strawberries, and other small fruits. If desired, the furniture, carriage and horses, farming utensils, stock, poultry, and other things necessary for immediate occupation, can be purchased with the premises at reasonable rates. The accommodation train from St. Charles arrives in St. Louis every morning in time for business, and returns again in the evening.

To a gentleman doing business in St. Louis, who desires a pleasant summer, or even permanent residence, for his family, in the country, a rare opportunity is presented.

Address JOHN FLOURNOY, Box 2700, St. Louis, or Mrs. MARY E. SIBLEY, St. Charles, Mo. se25 tf