LINDENWOOD
LIKE NO OTHER

- Recently, 13 Lindenwood students (some honors students, some theater) and two professors went to Greece and Italy this May as part of two spring courses. They were paired on buses and in hotels by the touring company with a troop of 30 retirees from Ohio! The students helped them with bags, sat and talked with them at meals, even went out to lunches with them! Half a dozen of the retirees commented to the Lindenwood professors at how delighted they were with the students; what excellent conversationalists they were; and one even threatened to adopt our student Logan Wolf and give him her inheritance! The Lindenwood students were incredibly passionate about the history, art, and culture we were studying, and were truly kind to one another and our Ohioan friends.
- President Michael Shonrock along with 300+ other guest recently attended the Regional Investors Breakfast, themed “If it’s happening, it’s happening in St. Charles”. On twitter, #ItsHappeningSTC@GrowStCharles.
- Lindenwood Belleville’s economic and cultural impact was well-documented in this KTVI story Wednesday night that reached 133,000 St. Louisans.

- Camp Read A-Lot is offered each summer here on the Lindenwood campus and parents can enroll their elementary aged children in what has proven to be a very strong reading improvement program. The data collected from pre and post student assessments each summer verify that learning takes place and the number of families that return year after year speaks to the fact that campers are having fun every day. Camp Read A-Lot is the perfect combination of summer fun and learning for youngsters and Lindenwood students enrolled in reading practicum courses during the summer.
- Lindenwood University in Belleville and the school of Accelerated Degree Programs is proud to announce that two of Assistant Professor, Mary M. Anderson’s poems, “Stirring Sauce” and “Sarah’s Voice” were accepted for publication and will be published this summer in The American Journal of Poetry.
