THE SPIRIT OF LINDENWOOD

Guiding us toward a personal affirmation of lasting values, each aspect of Lindenwood life contributes uniquely to the Spirit of Lindenwood.

The buildings and grounds express the Spirit of Beauty, touching each student every day.

The Spirit of Wisdom, embodied in the faculty and administration, is a stimulating, yet tempering influence, leading those who seek to learn the meaning of life.

The students, eagerly exploring new experiences, new ideas and new dreams, give the campus a Spirit of Aspiration.

The honor societies contribute a Spirit of Accomplishment, recognizing students who have done well and challenging them to do better.

The Spirit of Adventure is found in the activity organizations, beckoning students to a realization of the breadth of their world.

The queens and courts are a reminder of the Spirit of Loveliness on the campus.

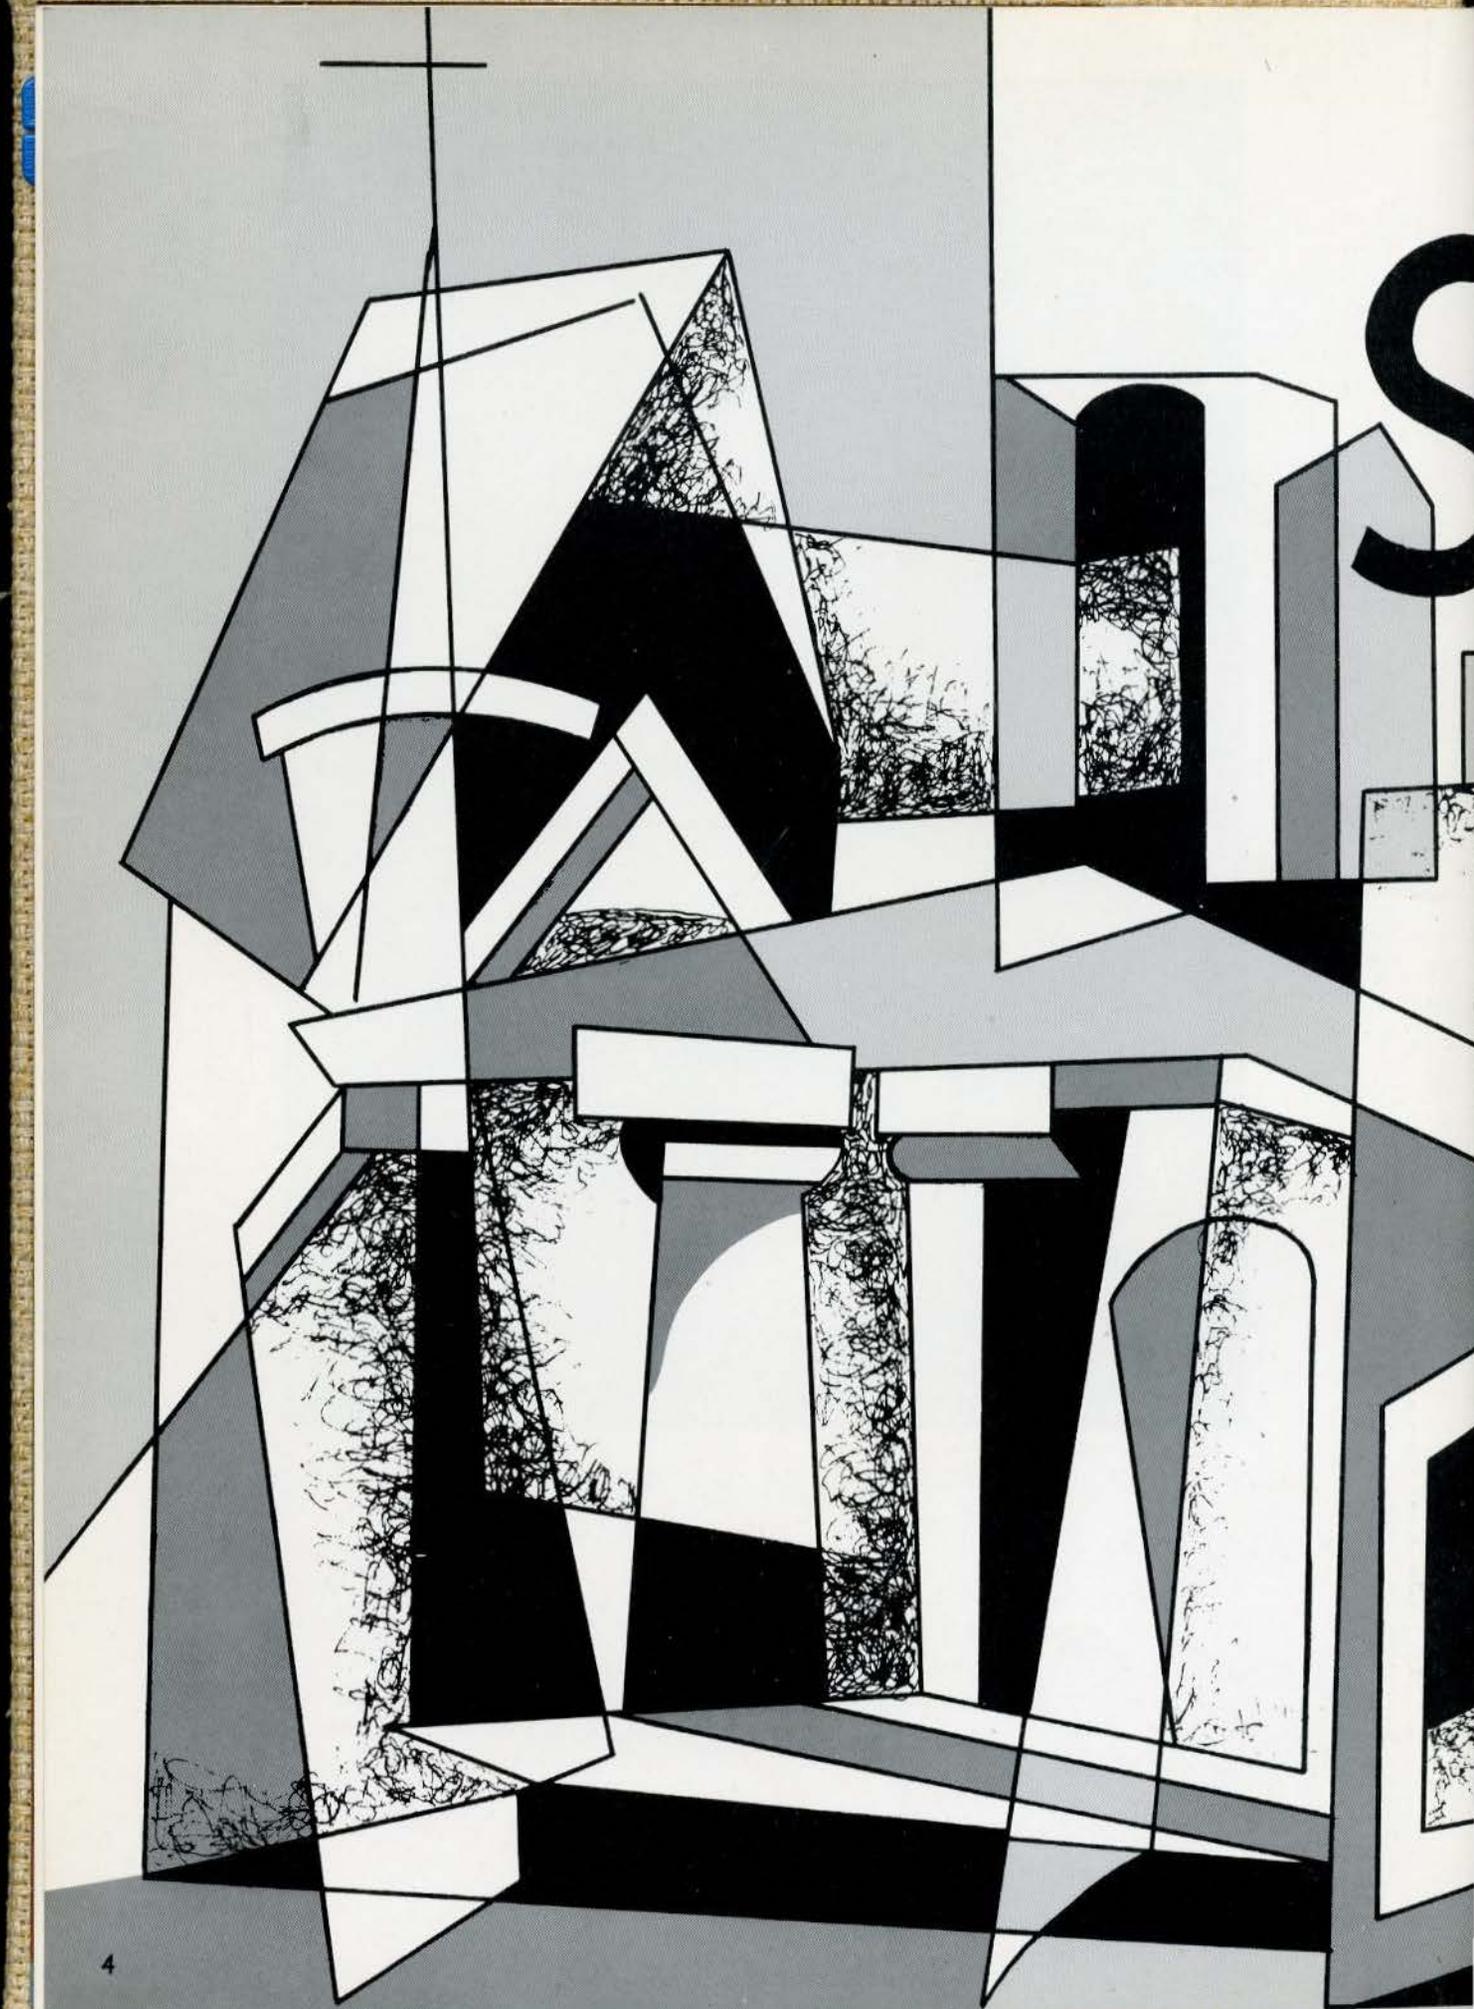

The Spirit of Tradition enriches all of Lindenwood life, uniting fond respect for the past and anticipation of the future.

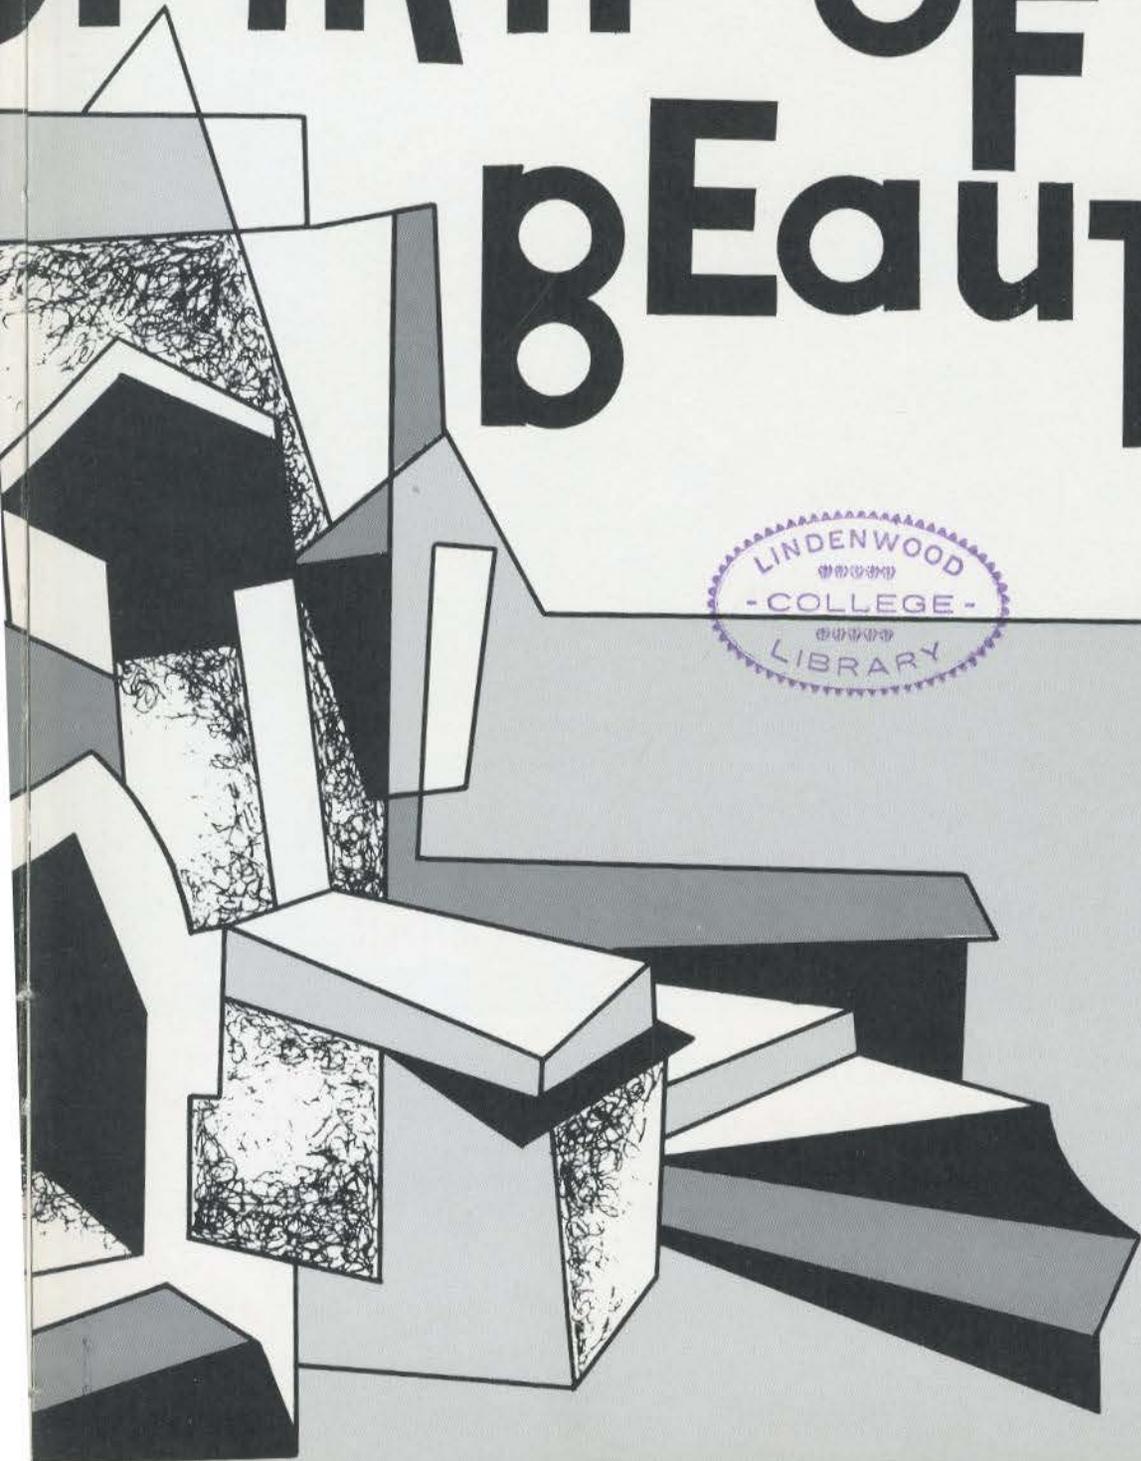

Dedicated to
DR. AND MRS. FRANC L. McCLUER

*He is the half part of a blessed man,
Left to be finished by such as she;
And she a fair divided excellence,
Whose fullness of perfection lies in him.*

—SHAKESPEARE

ADMINISTRATION

FRANC L. McCLUER, Ph.D., LL.D.,
President, and MRS. McCLUER

A salute to the Class of 1959! The best testimony to the worth of a college is found in the intellectual competence and character of its graduates. We are proud of you. May it bring you strength to remember that "you all belong to Lindenwood and Lindenwood belongs to you."

SPIRIT OF LOVELINESS

HARVEST COURT

Members of the Harvest Court are elected by the freshman members of each dormitory. The queen and her maids are elected by the student body at the close of a style show presented by the members of the Court.

Laurel A. ("Seeti") Sheehan, the Harvest Queen, is from Honolulu, Hawaii. She lives in Nicolls Hall. She is majoring in psychology and enjoys "surfing" and swimming.

Sandra Elaine Cook, from North Little Rock, Arkansas, was chosen first maid; Melaney Jean McAfee, second maid, is from Amarillo, Texas. They also live in Nicolls Hall.

VALENTINE COURT

The members of the Valentine Court were selected by their sophomore classmates. The Valentine Queen, Diane Goldman, from Winnetka, Illinois, lives in Irwin Hall. She is majoring in elementary education and is interested in music, dancing, and sports.

Diane was crowned by Sherral Musgrove, retiring Valentine Queen.

Jane Gadberry was chosen first maid. She is from El Reno, Oklahoma, and lives in Irwin Hall.

Judi Burnes from Des Moines, Iowa, was chosen second maid. She lives in Sibley Hall.

MAY COURT

The May Queen, Elizabeth Ann Thomas, was elected by the senior class. "Bitsy," who lives in Cobbs Hall, is from Nashville, Tennessee. She is majoring in English and enjoys writing poetry, reading, swimming, and traveling.

MAY COURT

Kay Magie, the Maid of Honor, was elected to the May Court by the junior class. Kay lives in Sibley Hall and is from Albia, Iowa. She is majoring in mathematics; her special interests include swimming and dancing.

MAY COURT

Carolyn Baue and Katherine Anne Fryfogle were chosen senior attendants to the May Queen by their classmates. Carolyn lives in Cobbs Hall and is from St. Charles, Missouri. She is majoring in home economics and enjoys playing golf and bridge. Kay, from Grand Rapids, Michigan, also lives in Cobbs Hall. She is majoring in elementary education; her special interests include sports, reading, music, and working with children.

MAY COURT

The junior class chose Sherral Musgrove and Mary Margaret Lewis for their attendants on the May Court. Sherral, from Sterling, Illinois, lives in Ayres Hall; she is majoring in elementary education and enjoys swimming and golf. "Meg," who lives in Irwin Hall, is from Battle Creek, Nebraska; she enjoys music, is interested in politics, and is majoring in office management.

MAY COURT

Karen Witt and Ann Boswell were elected to the May Court by the sophomore class. Karen is majoring in office management and likes dancing and sports of all kinds; she lives in Irwin Hall and is from Olney, Illinois. Ann's major is elementary education, and she enjoys painting, playing the piano, reading, and bridge. She is from Paducah, Kentucky, and lives in Irwin Hall.

MAY COURT

The freshman class elected Ann Hanna and Linda Williams to represent them on the May Court. Ann is from Valentine, Nebraska, and lives in Sibley Hall; her special interests include music, dancing, and baseball. Linda, from Clinton, Missouri, lives in Niccolls Hall; she likes water skiing, music, and reading.

Tonight the campus was haunted by the Spirit of Tradition—or, to be more exact, the Spirit of Mrs. Sibley. The graceful ghost flew through the air to her chapel, where she presented her annual organ recital before returning to her grave.

September 21, 1958

Tomorrow classes begin. The campus is saturated with the Spirit of Anticipation. Even those who have been here before are eager to live up to the resolutions that are made and broken each year by students everywhere.
