

ANNUAL CONCERT.

The annual concert of Lindenwood College was given Monday evening and the chapel hall was hardly large enough to accommodate the crowd that turned out. Lindenwood has a reputation for the excellence of her entertainments and the music loving people of St. Charles, as a rule, have all kinds of weather to be in attendance at the annual concerts. The program was opened by a chorus of the entire enrollement of pupils after which Miss Gertrude Rogers and Miss Frances Mahon, played a very pretty piano duet. Sweet and Low, a song by Misses Weber, Stookey and Philips was the next number and was heartily encored. Miss Janette Weber, followed in an admirably well rendered instrumental solo, entitled La Livry. Miss Anna McCabe recited "The Last Kiss" in a charming manner and Miss Marie Zimmerman sang My Dreams, with very good effect. An Matin, by Miss Anna Miller was an interesting number and was followed by a vocal duet entitled "The Gypsies," sung by Misses Irene Bode and Huddie Stuekey, which received merited applause. Miss Malen Burnett then played a piano solo and held the audience spell bound by the rendition. At the conclusion of piece Miss Burnett was tendered an unmistakable appreciative round of applause, A violin solo by Miss Minnie Nixen was greatly enjoyed and Miss Janette Weber very prettily sang, "Sacred is the Weeping." Constance de Beverly a recitation by Miss Alice Philps was quite entertaining and Miss Lida Bergen and Miss Mary Foster followed in a very pleasing duet, after which the program closed with a chorus song.
