Lindenwood and I

1951

IT is well to search ahead and plan, but for a moment, let's stop. Let's look at Lindenwood, 1950-1951, in retrospect and impress it upon our memories so we may always be able to keep our memories from gathering dust.

Studying the character of the new friend when we met her, living the four years in her halls and class rooms, we found Lindenwood a jovial and sincere companion when we knew her. Look back . . . remember . . . this is "Lindenwood and I."

Dedication

THE 1951 Linden Leaves, with its personal theme, "Lindenwood and I," could never be complete without a dedication to one who is close to our hearts. His inevitable greeting of "Hi, hon!" is never given to a chosen few students, but to all he meets. "Could you fix my closet door?", "Could you pick up my luggage?" are always answered, "Sure, hon."

For being the constant benefactor, for devoting years of service, for being the smile on a glum day—"Lindenwood and I" gratefully dedicates this 1951 Linden Leaves to H. P. "POP" ORDELHEIDE.

FRANC L. McCLUER, PH.D.
President of the College

Pride in the spirit and in the achievement of Lindenwood students in the college year 1950-1951 makes it a joy to greet you on the pages of this—your annual. As you turn the pages of this book in the years ahead may you find happiness in the recollection of worthy tasks and true friendships, of high hopes and generous purposes, shared during your college days at Lindenwood. May you think of your college as a part of your home which has in some measure contributed to the strength of mind and spirit that will sustain you in significant living in whatever circumstances your lot may be cast.

Best wishes to each of you always,

F. L. McCLUER

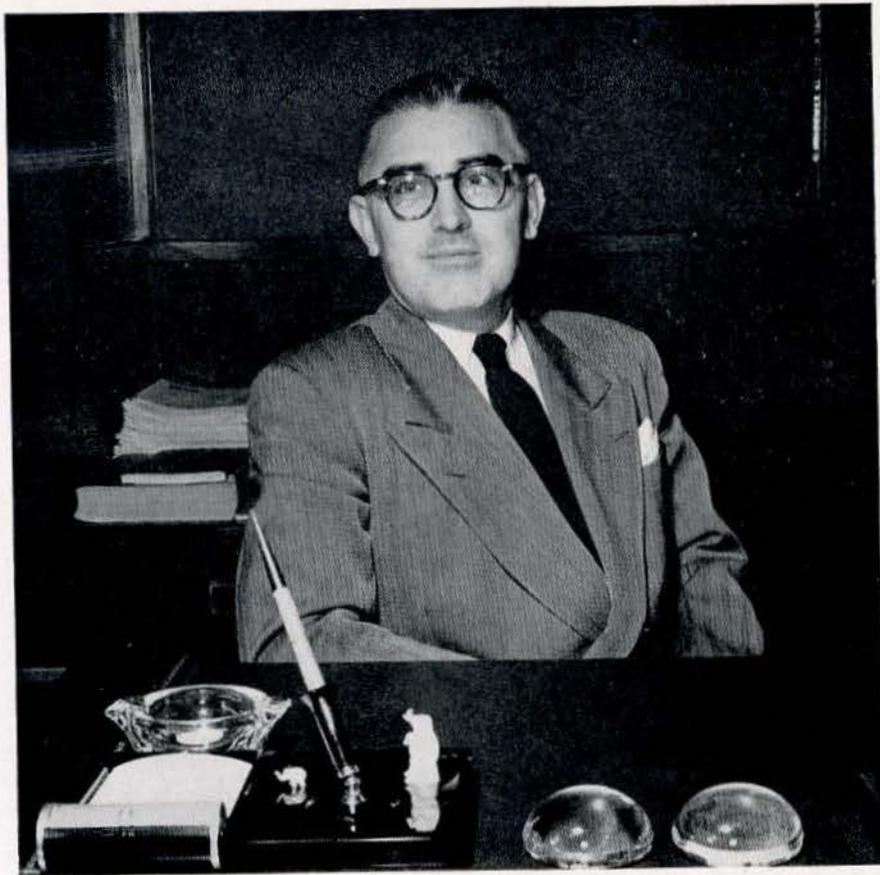

EUNICE C. ROBERTS, PH.D.
Dean of the College

My best wishes go with the class of 1951. May the years bring you a rich life of personal pleasure and of service to others, for in service to others is one most enriched personally. Lindenwood has tried to give you, both in its academic halls and in its campus life, experiences which will make you a more complete person. You are a different person from the freshman who signed your name to a registration blank four years ago, and something of you remains at Lindenwood as a heritage for those who follow.

The years ahead hold a challenge. Accept it with vigor and enthusiasm!

SIBLEY HALL

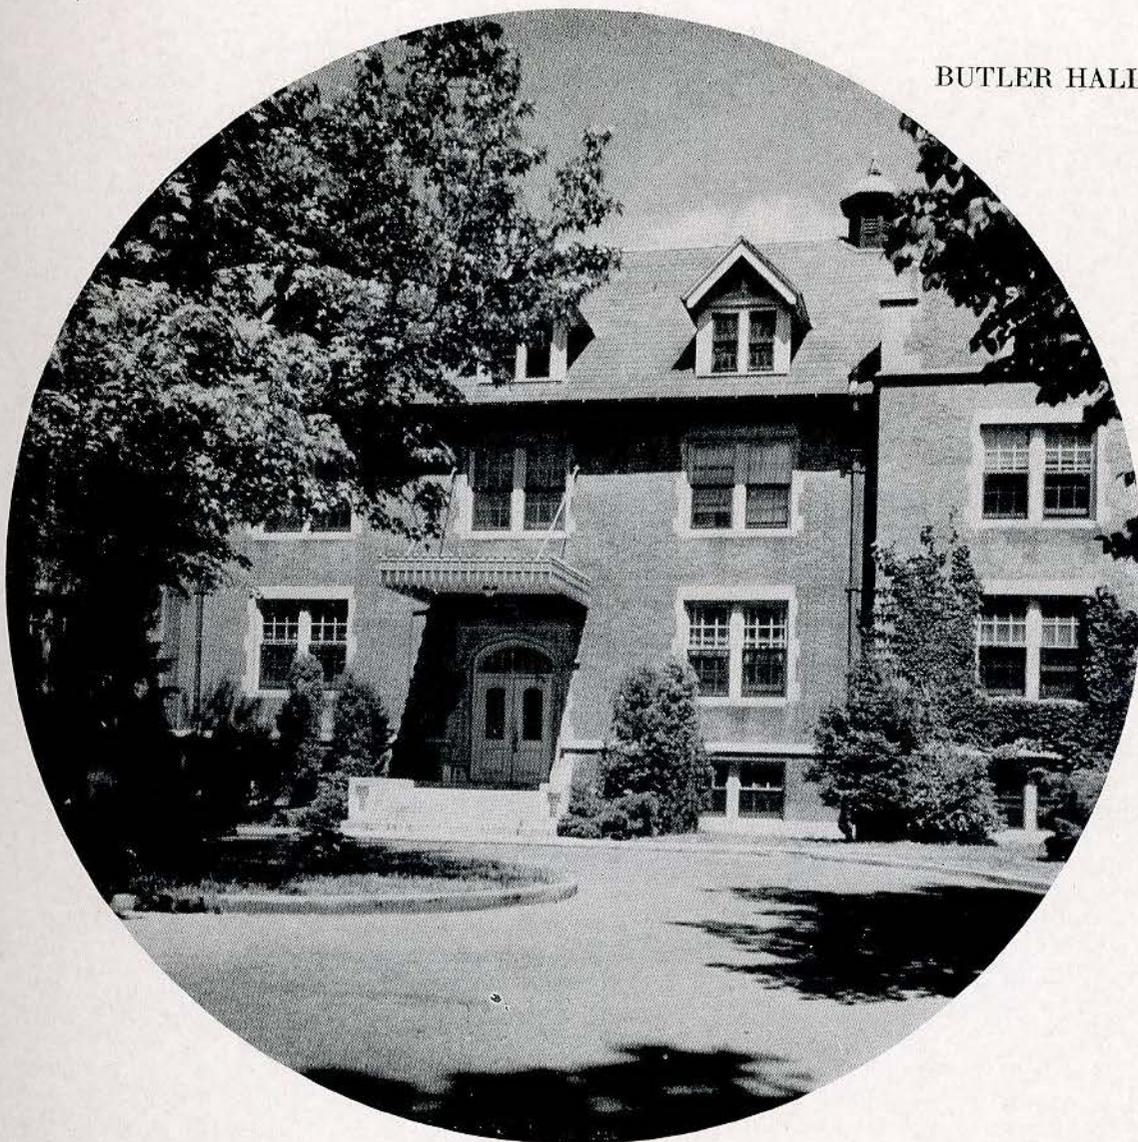

Although it is the oldest dormitory on campus, Sibley's girls are among the peppiest and most popular. Gathered around the piano in the recreation room or around the television set in its club rooms, Sibley girls maintain the cheerful personality that is Lindenwood.

HAIZELLE GARRISON, Head Resident

BUTLER HALL

BETTY WINTER, Head Resident

Butler Hall, a two-minute dash from Roemer, is the scene of many between-class get-togethers. Butler girls are famous for their diversified talent; their presentation of skits, as well as their athletic ability, proves they are "all-around."

NICCOLLS HALL

The freshman dormitory, Nicolls Hall, is the home of Lindenwood's beginners each year. Girls who last year were in high school have their first taste here of learning and laughing in the company of other freshmen from all states of the Union.

MABEL HOLT, Head Resident

LUCILLE T. VICK, Head Resident
Page 31

Dedicated in 1949, this newest dormitory is one of the gayest on campus. The sound of the music drifting up from the tea room, which is on the ground floor, and the large recreation room on the ground floor make Cobbs the natural gathering place for a coke, a joke, or a hand of bridge.

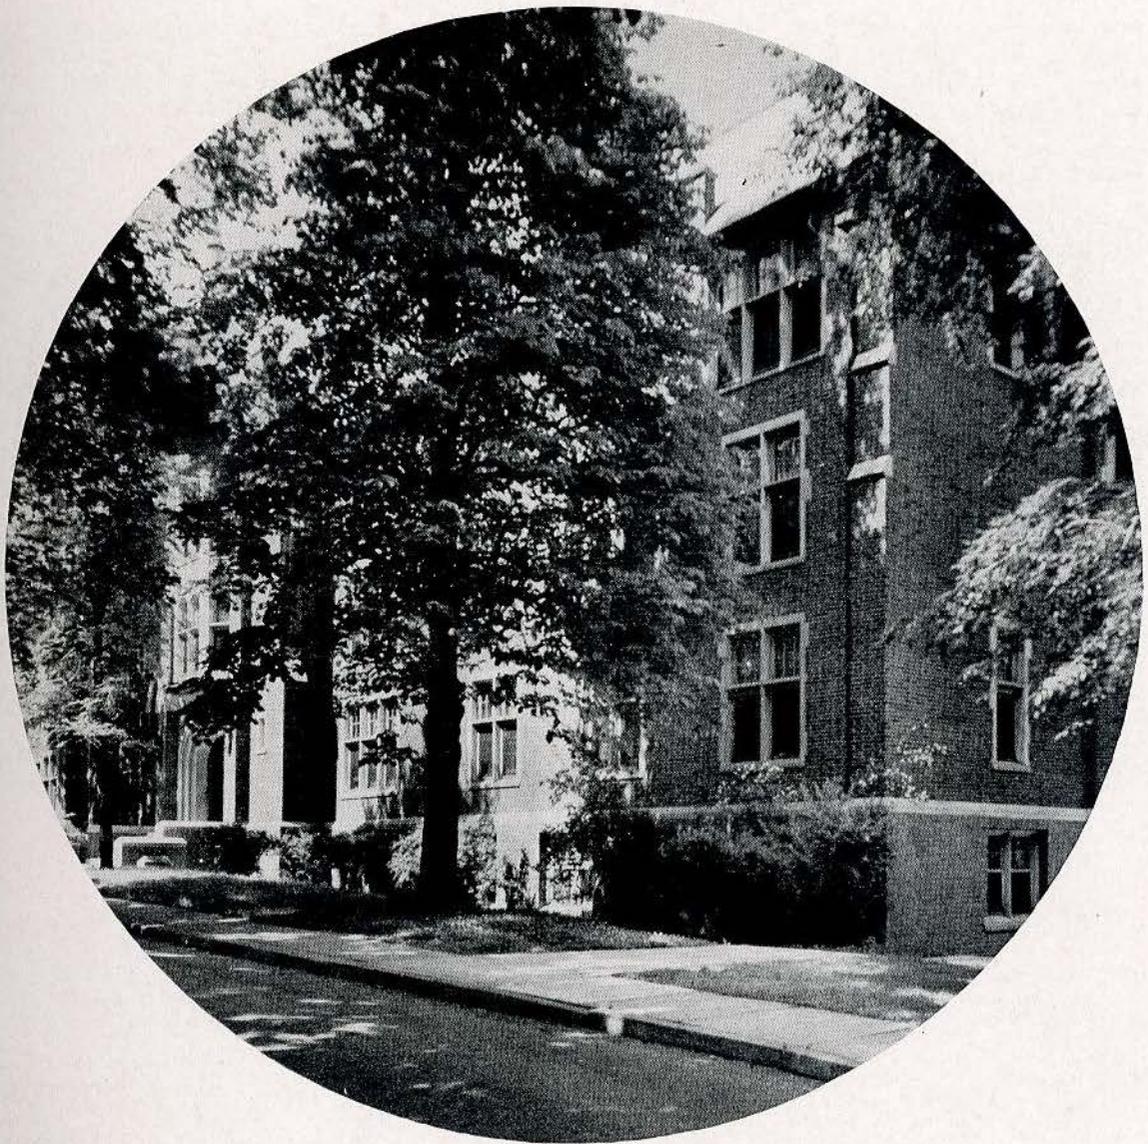

IRWIN HALL

Ivy-covered walls and a rose-lined walk give a medieval appearance to Irwin Hall, but its inhabitants can testify that there is nothing medieval about their activities in campus life. The President's Scholarship Cup for 1949-1951 on the mantle proves these girls are up-to-date and up on their work.

Student Council, Judiciary Board

The governing body of Lindenwood, the students' voice, is the Student Council. Made up of representatives from dormitories and classes, the Student Council serves as a link between the student body and the administration and faculty. The benefits secured by this group are a constant reminder to the student that she has an important voice in the government of the school. Sponsoring such events as street suppers, the Halloween party, and candlelight dinners, the Student Council is constantly working for the individual student.

Who's Who in American Colleges

Students chosen each year as members of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges are honored on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and on their potential leadership in business, society, and as good citizens. It is an honor which rewards them for the outstanding academic achievements made through their years in college, and as their names are entered in the national publication of the organization, it affords wide and deserved recognition of superiority in all phases of college life.

Alpha Sigma Tau

Alpha Sigma Tau is a local honorary scholastic fraternity for girls whose grades average a "B" or above. Annual events sponsored by the club are a white elephant sale to raise money for a scholarship for a student at the School of the Ozarks and giving the Baccalaureate Tea for seniors and their parents.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta, since its organization on our campus only two years ago, has grown to be one of the most active and respected clubs on campus. The reason? To be a member of this national honorary fraternity for freshmen, one must show high scholastic achievement throughout that first college year.

Student Christian Association

The League of Women Voters is an organization open to any student interested in problems of national politics. Panel discussions with outstanding political leaders of the district give their meetings an almost Washingtonian air. Similarly, the International Relations Club is composed of those who discuss world problems and the possible solutions to them. The Triangle Club is an honorary fraternity for would-be scientists with the requirement that they must be science majors or minors and have at least a "B" average. But the Student Christian Association is not limited to any field of academic interest. It is composed of all Lindenwood students. Special projects of S.C.A. are Religious Emphasis Week and making Christmas toys for the children of Markham Memorial.

Athletic Association

The Physical Education department sponsors three honorary societies: Beta Chi for riding, Terrapin for swimming, and Orchesis for modern dance. Each year these organizations present annual recitals and shows. Beta Chi performs in the spring horse show; Terrapin produces a water pageant early in the second semester, complete with costumes and music, and Orchesis gives a modern dance recital one night during the second semester. The Athletic Association is open for membership to any girl who is interested in sports, and is one of the largest organizations on campus. It sponsors each year intramurals, all school parties, and square dances.

Choir

Mu Phi Epsilon is a national honorary music fraternity, which requires its members to have a grade average of "B" or above, and they must be either music majors or minors. Delta Phi Delta, a local honorary music fraternity, makes the same requirements for membership. Periodical concerts by the members of the Instrumental Association, among them a joint recital with the members of the choir at Easter, require long hours of profitable practice. The Lindenwood Choir, composed of girls who are enrolled in music courses and who are interested in voice, is another important part of Lindenwood life. Each year the choir gives a joint Christmas program with the Rolla choir, and this year held a dance following the concert. An annual tour of surrounding states and participation in radio programs in St. Louis make Lindenwood's choir well-known throughout the district.

Linden Leaves Board

The exhausted group you see on this page are the members of the Linden Leaves Board. Early last year they dedicated themselves to a year of cutting, writing, pasting, expounding, photographing, and, it is said, even shedding a few tears (and years) over the beloved copy. But before work could begin on the annual, a course in a new language was needed, so the members could sound professional when they called "Copy!" "Fly page," "idents," "gutter bleeds," and other terms not generally used by the layman.

For a year these girls have drunk Linden Leaves coffee for breakfast, eaten Linden Leaves sandwiches for lunch, and one girl even bid five Linden Leaves in a game of bridge. But finally the work was finished, the copy sent off, and the big day arrived when the bright, new annuals arrived from the printers. The sigh of relief of the Board was heard all over campus.

The "I's" Have It—

Christmas tree angel. Up in the air. Antoine should be fired. Catharsis. Something seems to be missing. A sweeping decision. Yes, he is cute. Traveling without hats again! Snowbirds. Finished studying? Just before a Sunday siesta. Life can be beautiful. What a "dollie!"

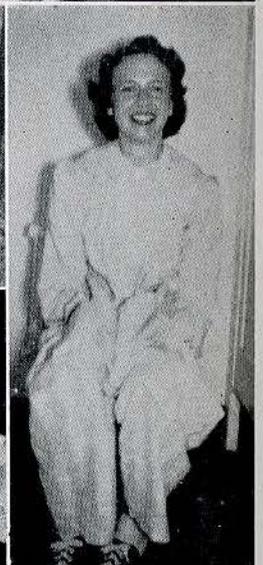

Price agrees: "Smoke Kools." There is nothing like a man. She's a sweetheart. "Fat" van Bibber and the girls. Hello, lovely! The Great Profile. Many happy returns. NOTICE! This is GRETCHEN SCHNURR! Kill the weatherman! Sunshine and youth. Daffodil and some of the kids. Ah, to be in Washington. We're impressed.

Senior Skip Day (Thanks for the memory). Spring-time at L. C. C'n I go in, huh, coach? You rascal, you! For li'l ole me? C'mon, ante up. Caught in the act. Dr. Java Bemis. Late supper. Street supper.

Looks like fun. Such a guzzling bunch. Candy kisses. Another gastronomical session. Didn't it taste good? No, no! Not all the way through the window! Have fun. Play-day? "Too many cooks." Lucky fellows! Hey, what is this? Yes? Not again! Bon voyage! Best time of the year. Secrets? But, my deah, the calories! Flapper Fanny. Always eating. Aw, cheer up, Estelle.

Don't throw that! New hairdo? My, the years are creeping up! 10 o'clock scholars. Worn-out cherub. Happy birthday, someone. Nature girls. SOMEBODY! What the well-groomed L. C. girl wears. Girl and toy. Toy really gets around. Some of the lovelies. How Tender!

THE PIECES ARE PUT TOGETHER and how happy the result!

This is it!

The yearbook staff and a goodly number of the students have been seeing "pieces" of the annual through the past few months.

Some of the staff members have SLAVED over what seemed to be trifling details.

Like a play's last rehearsal, all was apparently long-drawn-out confusion, from which nothing of merit could possibly emerge.

But here it is . . . and isn't it good and satisfactory beyond all hopes? We're proud of the Staff, and happy to have helped in putting the pieces together.

All publishers, no matter how able, must use the technical services of a capable printer and binder if their productions are to be the beautiful, lasting books they dream of creating.
