

THE PUPILS DID WELL.

At the Musical Recital at Lindenwood College Hall.

The annual pupils' concert, at Lindenwood, was given at the College hall, Monday evening. There was a large audience and every one was delighted with the entertainment. The musical department of Lindenwood is in charge of the following ladies: Misses Ida B. McLagan and Helen Chrysup, piano; Mrs. Katheryne B. Beach, vocal music; Miss Agnes Gray, violin, mandolin, banjo, guitar.

This is the programme that was rendered in most excellent style: Koschat—"My Flaxen Haired Lassie," chorus. Haydn—Menuet, Misses Martha Vortriede, Katherine Garetson, Maude E. Taylor. Pontius—"Sleep Birdling Sleep." DeKoven—"My Lover Will Come to-day." Miss Alma Meyer. Rive-King—Bubbling Spring, Miss Hud-die Stookey. Gastaldon—Forbidden music, Miss Nina Thomas. Godard—Au Matin, Miss Lida Bergen. Schubert—Overture to Rosamunde, Misses MacThomas, Lina Ammon. Graben-Hoffman—Gondellied, Misses Lola Dunham, Olive Willis. Fachutar—Polka, Miss Jennie Farrar. Tours—The New Kingdom, Miss Clara Biddle. Singelee--Fantasie Pastorale, Miss Miss Julia McElhiney. Godard—Third Mazourka, Miss Martha Hillis. Tosti—My Dreams, Miss Olive Willis. Liszt—Le Rossignol, Miss Anna Merrill. Abt—"Calm is the Lake." Chorus.
