Late Start classes beginning Oct. 2

Lindenwood University has released its late start course schedule for the Fall Semester. The schedule includes courses in five different areas of study.

Courses in art, communications, humanities, management and the sciences are available. These three-credit classes begin on Monday, Oct. 2. Four fall quarter courses are available as well in the humanities and sciences.

Late Start courses can be a great benefit to those who have taken extended vacations, or for whom things didn't go exactly as planned at a state school. With Lindenwood's Late Start schedule, students can stay on the pace they wanted and not lose an entire semester.

For more information on the Late Start schedule, or to enroll, contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (636) 949-4949.
