

Concert at Lindenwood.

A most enjoyable entertainment was given Saturday evening—Washington's birthday—by the young ladies of Lindenwood. There was a good attendance and quite a long program. The instrumental and vocal music was excellent and elicited much applause. Part II. of the program, a caste entitled: "Champion of her Sex," was very much enjoyed, and the young ladies who took part in it acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.