In our busy year . . .

Warmth, Gaiety and Stimulation

Mary Jean DuHadway Craig, B.A. '41, long active in Lindenwood's Alumnae Association and one of the busiest women in the St. Louis area, will serve the college and the alumnae as General Chairman for Alumnae Weekend '62.

Early planning sessions have already been held, and alumnae who return to the campus October 19 and 20 are assured of two days filled with warmth, gaiety, stimulation—and many surprises!

Mary Jean's ability to organize and her gift for creating innovations are a positive guarantee for success.

Our general chairman's husband, Gil, is a vice-president of Emerson Electric Manufacturing Co. Their son, Jim, is a freshman at Southern Methodist University, Dallas. The younger children, Jeff, Gary, and Sally, attend the public schools of Ladue.

The Craigs, who reside at 22 Countryside Ln., St. Louis County, consider "Jeb" (Stuart), an Airedale that can howl louder than any other dog on the lane, a member of the family.

Mary Jean DuHadway Craig

Founders' Day Convocation

President Franc L. McCluer has accepted the invitation to deliver the Founders' Day Convocation Address during Alumnae Weekend '62.

Announcement was made by Dyke Steinbeck Barton (Mrs. K. K.), Association president, at the conclusion of a two-day "Workshop Conference" committee meeting February 21 and 22, launching 1962 and 1963 alumnae activities.

Association committee members in attendance for the Workshop session on Wednesday were council members Barbara Ringer Hamill of Oklahoma City and Hester Hayes Crawford of Kansas City; association vice-president, Rena Eberspacher Hale; secretary, Mary Jean DuHadway Craig, treasurer, Margaret Ball Gatzweiler. Alumnae Secretary Bea Clark and her assistant in the Alumnae Office, Melva Eichhorn, were also present.

The workshop meeting was held in the home of Mary Jean Craig, 22 Countryside Lane, Ladue, with Sally Dearth Hovis serving as luncheon hostess in absentia as a result of a sudden 'flu attack.

Members of the Workshop were joined Thursday morning in the Library Club Room for the conference portion of the two-day meeting by Dr. McCluer; R. C. Colson, business manager; Gerald R. Gifford, director of admissions; and Miss Mary Lichliter, dean of students. Discussion of how the Lindenwood Alumnae Association may best serve the College and plans for Alumnae Weekend '62 activities consumed all of the morning and part of the afternoon.

Lindenwood Alumnae Fund Campaign Chairman — '62-'63

Nancy Montgomery Orr '35 (Mrs. Ander K.), immediate past-president of the Lindenwood College Alumnae Association, has organized and will direct the alumnae fund campaign for 1962-1963.

Dyke Barton, president of the association, in announcing Nancy's appointment, said that she considers the continued interest and active support by our past-president to be the association's most valuable asset. As alums we are grateful for Nancy's enduring devotion to Lindenwood. We will encounter another side of the "many faceted Mrs. Orr" as she directs us in our fund raising activities. Her appeals and approaches are original, stimulating, and as enthusiastic and sincere as—Nancy!

Circle R Ranch, Van Buren, Ark., is home for her mother, Mrs. Harry Montgomery (Edith Smith '12), also a Lindenwood alumna, and the Orrs—Andy and Nancy. The ranch, which is operated by Mrs. Montgomery with Nancy's help, is unique in that "cattlemen" are not often "capable women."

In addition to ranching, which includes tractor driving and a broken arm to prove it, Nancy's interests are endless, with new ones always being added; to name a few: radio and TV interviewing, knitting, bridge, flying (private pilot's license), dogs and horses, golf, as well as every worthwhile cause connected with the church, charitable, civic, and cultural life of her section of Arkansas, and LINDENWOOD.

THE COVER

Cathleen Callahan, 14813 Larchburr Dr., Bridgeton, a sophomore majoring in mathematics points out a statistical problem to a fellow student—her mother, Marleta M. Callahan (Mrs. Albert B., Jr.), a junior majoring in psychology. Mrs. Callahan is one of the more than 25 women enrolled in Lindenwood's program of continuing education. Since 1955 the College has been graduating women with family responsibilities who have gone out as teachers, one as a home economist and one as a nurse who wanted her B.S. degree.

While Lindenwood has always welcomed the mature woman as a student, until last fall no program was setup to encourage enrollment of women for continuing education. Under the direction of Dean of Students Mary Lichliter, 25 full-time and six part-time students are now working toward degrees.

"A Program for the Continuing Education of Women," a brochure prepared by the college, outlines the College's recognition of continuing education and its ability to make the student more than just a member of a specific class.

Since 1955 Lindenwood has averaged an older woman with family responsibilities in its graduating class each year. These women have gone out as teachers, one as a home economist and one as a nurse who wanted her B.S. degree.

Dean Lichliter cited Vivian Hiatt (Mrs. Robert) '61, as an excellent example of one who has excelled in the continuing education plan. Mrs. Hiatt enrolled as a freshman and maintained honor grades throughout the years; her "extra-curricular" duties included a husband and three children. A member of the freshman honorary, Alpha Lambda Delta, and of the senior scholastic honorary, Alpha Sigma Tau, she received the National Science Foundation grant and is doing graduate work in genetics at Washington University's department of zoology.

As a result of this year's brochure on education in the later years, six are enrolled as part-time and 25 as full-time students. Eight will be graduated this year. Two nurses are working towards a B.S. degree, while others are majoring in English, art, office management, elementary education and mathematics. One student is already in the computing department at McDonnell Aircraft Corp. Others plan to make a career of teaching.

"We at Lindenwood recognize that early marriages have brought about the interruption of the educational programs of women," says Miss Lichliter. "With the last child in school, many young married women wish to be able to pick up the threads of their education dropped either at the end of high school or sometime during the college years."

Stressing the fact that these young married women have between 25 and 40 productive years ahead of them in the labor market, "Lindenwood is making its bid to alleviate the anticipated continuing shortages in the fields of teaching, nursing, social work, library science and all the scientific careers," Miss Lichliter said.

"Lindenwood's academic planning offers a strong liberal arts program for the enrichment of one's leisure time activities and community responsibilities," she says. A division of professional education provides degree work in teacher education, office management, home economics, physical education and nursing education beyond the R.N. degree.

Also offered is preprofessional work toward social service, law, medical fields, library science and religious education among others.

Of those women who are presently enrolled, each averages two children apiece, ranging from 17 months to 30 years of age. While objectives are primarily teaching, religious education, guidance, social work, and office management are included in the fields of study. Several students have started as freshmen; the majority come with two years of previous college study.

All of this year's students have previously worked. Outside interests include church work, P.T.A., Girl Scouts, Garden Clubs, D.A.R. and similar organizations. Furniture refinishing, painting and coin collecting are other spare time activities.

Lindenwood's continuing education planning provides a flexible scheduling of classes and curricular planning. A program of testing is offered and an evaluation of credits and high school or college achievement is made. In addition, vocational counseling for occupational competence is available.

Among this year's full-time students enrolled in the CEW program are:

Mrs. Edward Magnah, 730 Denny Ln., O'Fallon; Mrs. Daryl Nelson, 127a North Fifth St., St. Charles; Mrs. E. H. Osiek, 2534 Sibley St., St. Charles; Mrs. Norman H. Stiegemeier, 802 South Benton, St. Charles; Mrs. Guy E. Freeman, 440 Rollingwood Ln., Kirkwood.

Mrs. Virgil R. Turnbull, 906 Pitman, Wentzville; Mrs. Harry Schuttenberg, 625 Washington, St. Charles; Mrs. Ramon Bear, 10318 Viscount, St. Louis; Mrs. R. P. Briner, 3901 Brown Rd., Berkeley; Mrs. Wilburn L. Talbert, 8666 Burton, St. Louis; Mrs. Gilbert Settle, 14841 Ralls Dr., Bridgeton; Miss Elizabeth Crane, 8903 Oneida Ln., Overland, a nurse at McDonnell Aircraft Corp.

Mrs. John W. Zoeller, Jr., 12645 Olive Street Rd., Creve Coeur; Mrs. Robert Barnwell, R.F.D. 2, St. Charles; Mrs. E. D. Francis, 3115 Newgate Dr., Florissant; Mrs. Joe E. Tucker, 9754 McDowell Pl., St. Louis; Mrs. Frances Dunn Farrell, 315 North Campbell, Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Farrell attended Lindenwood for 3½ years and has returned to complete work for her degree.

Scholastic Honors

Scholastic honors for first semester's work went to 48 when the dean's list was announced by Dr. Donald M. Mackenzie. Five, Freshman Nancy Alexander, Sophomore Sue Snyder, Juniors Juliann Bottorff and Sue Wood and Senior Lucille F. Schweickhart, earned a four-point average.

Twelve freshmen recorded 3.50 to 3.99 averages as did 10 sophomores, 12 juniors, eight seniors and an international student, Gunilla Fredrikson of Finland.

Thirteen freshmen were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, national academic fraternity for freshmen women with 3.5 average or above.

Honored were: Jonis Agee, Nancy Alexander, Joyce Bailey, Gayle Czeschin, Imogene Elrod, Judith Frink, Judy Garner, Sharon Lang, Mary Meckenstock, Mary Lynn Milner, Merejo Noellsch, Mary Ann Sawyer and Martha May Sparks.

TEN COMPLETE WORK

Ten Lindenwood students completed work toward degrees last semester. They will return to the campus in May for graduation with other members of their class. Included are: Sandra Allen, Mrs. Judith Esterly, Jane Eyler, Emily Hunter, Alma Jameton, Carolyn Jurgenson, Tanni Lee, Mrs. Patricia Nelson, Mrs. Beth Thompson and Ann Wentker.

President's Scholarships

President's Scholarships were awarded at the beginning of second semester to the first five freshmen with the highest grade point averages for the previous semester, and to the first five sophomores and the first five juniors with the highest grade point averages for the previous two semesters.

Scholarships are applied on the tuition accounts of the students for next year, 1962-63.

Freshman scholarships are valued at $200 a year, sophomores get $250 and juniors $300. For a day student the scholarship is valued at half of that for a boarding student.

President Franc L. McCluer announced 1962-63 winners as follows:

Junior Class: Sue Wood, 3.92 grade point average; Sarah Tibbals, day student, 3.88; Joan Leiper, 3.81; Kathryn Taylor, 3.80; and Leanna Boysko, 3.77.

Sophomore Class: Sue Snyder, 3.91; Betty Byassee, 3.81; Judith Huntington, 3.81; Sally Snyder, 3.79; and Anne Brightwell, 3.68. Sue and Sally Snyder are twins.

Freshman Class: Nancy Alexander, 4.00; Judy Ann Garner, 3.82; Merejo Noellsch, 3.81; Imogene Elrod, 3.76; Sharon Lang, day student, 3.7333; and Mary Lynn Milner, 3.7333.

Six scholarships will be given this year to freshmen since the fifth and sixth ranking students had the same grade point average.

Sibley Hall, with a grade point average of 2.75, wins the President's Scholarship Trophy. Any dormitory, or the day students, winning this trophy three years in succession keeps it permanently and a new trophy is purchased.

DR. WALKER HONORED

Dr. Pearl W. Walker, a member of Lindenwood College's music faculty since 1934, will have an abstract from her doctoral dissertation published in the "Journal of Research in Music Education."

Dr. Walker's project is entitled "A Study in Improving the Interpretation of Selected Arias from Standard Operas." It consists of information based on study and research and will aid in teaching 60 arias from 28 standard operas.

BIOLOGY ADDS INSTRUCTOR

A fourth instructor was added to the biology department second semester. Bob Robison is teaching two sections of general biology, freeing Dr. J. Walter Grundhauser for his work as head of the committee undertaking a long-range study of the curriculum.

Mr. Robison is married and lives with his family at Scott Air Force Base. He is currently on leave from the Air Force for six months while working on his master's degree at Southern Illinois University.

RADIO STATION IMPROVED

Radio Station KCLC has a greatly improved transmission and a new RCA control board this semester. Replacements for the new board can be made easily, resulting in its long life. Eight outlets double the present facilities and permit a microphone input and two tape recorders in the control room.

The control room is rearranged for easier manipulation of turn tables and control board for the engineer.

'CREATION' PRESENTED IN MARCH

"The Creation," an oratorio by Haydn, was presented by Lindenwood's College Choir and Missouri School of Mines Men's Chorus in Lindenwood Chapel Sunday, March 11.

The chorus of 100 singers was supported by a chamber orchestra with Prof. Gertrude Isidor of the Lindenwood music faculty as concertmistress, assisted by members of the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra.

Milton Rehg, associate professor of music at Lindenwood, was production director.

ART TRIP TO CHICAGO

Fifteen Lindenwood students were in Chicago for two days in March to see art treasures at the Chicago Art Institute.

Accompanying the students were Dean of Students Mary Lichliter, and three members of the college's art department; Harry Hendren, chairman, John Wehmer, and Art Kanak, artist-in-residence.

MATHEMATICS PROFESSOR WED

Churl Suk Kim, associate professor of mathematics at Lindenwood, and Dr. Machiko Kono were married March 24. Their engagement was revealed in January at an open house given by Dean and Mrs. Donald M. Mackenzie.

Mr. Kim began teaching at Lindenwood last fall. His bride came to the United States from Tokyo, Japan, in June, 1960. She was graduated from Tokyo Women's College and took her internship there. She is doing research in biochemistry at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

Mr. Kim came to this country six years ago from Pusan, Korea. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

CHOIR MAKES APRIL TOUR

The April tour of Lindenwood College Choir has been announced by Prof. Milton F. Rehg, choir director.

Friday, April 6, the choir will appear at Washington, Mo., High School at 1 p.m. That evening the group will perform at First Presbyterian Church, Jefferson City.

Sunday, April 8, its morning appearance will be at the Village Church, Mission Rd. and 67th St., Prairie Village, Kans. The choir will sing Sunday evening at Linwood Presbyterian Church, 1801 Linwood Blvd., Kansas City.

Monday, April 9, at 1 p.m. the performance will be at Paola High School, Paola, Kans. That night the group will be heard at First Presbyterian Church, Pleasant and Lexington, Independence.

Tuesday's appearances will be at East High School, 1924 Van Brunt Blvd., Kansas City, in the morning, and Shawnee Mission East High School, 7500 Mission Rd., Shawnee Mission, Kans., that night.

SARTON ON CAMPUS

May Sarton, poet and novelist, was a two-day guest at Lindenwood in February. Miss Sarton, author of eight novels and five books of poetry, addressed the student body in a convocation entitled, "The Poet's Work."

A meeting with Poetry Society, an informal coffee hour, lectures before several English classes, and a discussion with the creative writing class provided many opportunities for students to hear the Wellesley College professor and lecturer.

Plans for Parent's Weekend

Plans have been announced for Parents' Weekend, 1962, by members of the Weekend Committee. Guests will be on campus for two days' activities, May 5 and 6.

Open house in various departments of the college will be observed Saturday morning, May 5, from 9 to 11:30 o'clock.

Two luncheons will be held that day at 12:30 p.m. Mothers and daughters and women of faculty, administration and staff will have a style show luncheon in Ayres Dining Hall. Fathers of students and men of administration, faculty and staff will be entertained in Fellowship Hall. President F. L. McCluer will be the speaker.

A horse show will be held from 2 to 4 p.m., followed by open house in the dormitories from 4 to 5 p.m. A barbecue supper and program will follow on the campus at 5 p.m.

A play by the speech department will complete Saturday's activities.

Identical services of worship will be held Sunday morning at 9 and 10:30 o'clock in Lindenwood College Chapel. The Dean of the Chapel will be in charge of the services with the College Choir participating.

Members of the Parents' Weekend Committee are: Dr. C. Eugene Conover, chairman, Dean Donald M. Mackenzie, R. C. Colson, Gerald R. Gifford, Miss Mary Lichliter and Dr. John B. Moore.

Religion in Life

Three guest speakers participated in the 1962 Religion in Life Week at Lindenwood in February. Dr. Harold Blake Walker, minister of First United Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Ill., spoke on "Power to See Life Through" and "The Individual in a World of Crowds."

Miss Margaret Flory, secretary for Student World Relations, Presbyterian Church, discussed living abroad. She works with students in various countries and makes arrangements for these students to study abroad their junior year and to participate in International Service Projects.

Dr. Hubert Noble, general director of the National Committee on Higher Education, National Council of Churches of the Church of Christ spoke on "The Form and the Real."

Informal dormitory discussions, a Roemer Hall book display arranged by students, and an art display in Roemer Hall planned by Prof. Harry Hendren were included in this year's activities.

Until this year Lindenwood has always invited just one person for the period of days. Last year Prof. Huston Smith of M.I.T. was speaker. "Three speakers this year gave a variety of emphasis and leadership," says Dr. C. Eugene Conover, Dean of the Chapel.

Funds Honor Students

Funds in memory of two students who were killed in an automobile accident on their way home for Christmas vacation have been set up:

Karen V. Howlett Memorial Scholarship Fund is to be used in providing scholarships. Karen was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Howlett, 108 E. 36 St., Sioux Falls, S.D.

Nicole Johnson Book Memorial Fund is to be used for the purchase of library books. Nicole was the granddaughter of Mrs. H. B. Sturtevant, 302 Terrace Apts., Sioux City, Iowa.

A new high in contributions was reached in 1961, Missouri College Joint Fund Committee, Inc., reveals in its annual report. The association of 14 accredited, four-year, independent liberal arts colleges in Missouri received contributions of $217,013 bringing the 1952-61 total to $1,042,470.

Dr. Franc L. McCluer of Lindenwood is president of the organization. Executive director is Dr. Eugene R. Page who maintains offices on the Lindenwood College campus.

COME TO THE LINDENWOOD ALUMNAE FUND

Lindenwood and Lindenwood belongs to you."

The College gave you more than you can ever repay with a mere monetary gesture.

Remember Lindenwood contributed a big share in the moulding of your solid gold character and the education you already have, you will help the Alumnae Fund to grow.

As a young woman to become educated ladies, you will welcome the opportunity to and, even more, a great person, you will direct your contribution to the endowment fund.

Now a contribution to an endowment grows in value with the years.

For various purposes, mark your contribution for that area of interest.

The Lindenwood Alumnae Fund would cause you bankruptcy, do not give.

As the famed endowment can meet present financial demands, you forget today's devaluated to be a Lindenwood "Girl" again, you can. When you receive my letter enroll in the 1962 class and starting all over again.

Sponsored by the Lindenwood College Alumnae Association and Council. Every appeal by enrolling in the class of her choice.

"Matching Gifts"

More than 140 companies listed below are known currently to have a "matching gift" program to help support higher education. While individual companies may vary in the operating details of their programs, all are essentially alike in that they match—usually dollar for dollar—the contributions of an alumnae employee to her college.

If the company you work for is listed, be sure to notify your employer when making your annual or capital gift to Lindenwood. When you make a contribution, you fill in a short form provided by your employer, who then sends an equal amount to Lindenwood.

Class Notes

Proudly we salute Blanche Simons Foster who was graduated from Lindenwood in 1885! She celebrated her 97th birthday on March 19 in her home at 515 Keller, Bartlesville, Okla.

Blanche graduated with a piano major and through the years has been as proficient at composition as she has been at the keyboard. She has been an avid bridge fan and until her later years enjoyed extensive travel with her longest venture being into Alaska. The oldest registered woman voter in her county and one of Bartlesville's most prominent senior citizens, she never misses voting or reading (without her glasses) the current topics of the day.

Three generations of the Foster family are alumnae of Lindenwood. A daughter, Blanche Foster Coxwell, Springdals, Ark., is a member of the class of '27, and a granddaughter, Elizabeth Wendt of 1020 Pennsylvania, Denver, Colo., is a member of the class of '60.

A telephone call from the nephew of Ann Shaw Harrow brought the sad news of her sudden death February 15 in New York City. Although she had long been a resident of New York City, her parents and grandparents were natives of this area. Interment was held in St. Charles with President McCluer and Dr. Conover, dean of the chapel, conducting the service.

1892

We extend sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Alma Stumberg. Miss Alma M. Stumberg died on December 15 in St. Joseph's Hospital, in St. Charles, after a lingering illness. Miss Stumberg has long been closely connected with Lindenwood College, her brother, the late Dr. B. Kurt Stumberg, having been a member of the Lindenwood Board of Directors for many years. She is survived by Miss Helene Stumberg, of the Class of 1900, a sister with whom she made her home, Mrs. M. M. White (Dorritt Stumberg), Lexington, Kentucky, of the Class of 1913, and recently a member of the Alumnae Council of the College, and Mr. G. W. Stumberg, of Austin, Texas. We extend sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Miss Stumberg.

1908

Regrettably we announce the sudden death of Robert H. White of Marissa, Ill., husband of Mary Statler White and father of Betty White Klee (B.A. 1938).

1923

Leatha Cross Dean (1919-20) was one of the unfortunate victims of the big fire in the Bel Air area of Los Angeles. She lost her home and belongings.

Grandchildren of Frances Branam Skinner (B.S. 1942), 1908 Sergeant, Joplin, Mo. Greg, Curt, Dan, and Patrice Lockhart.

1924

Nelle Iler Spriggs (1920-22), 56 Otis Ave., St. Paul, Minn., will be leaving soon for Phoenix and other warm spots.

Regretfully we announce the death of Helen Marie Bayer (1920-21) on February 19. Helen, who taught English and social studies for over 34 years died of a heart attack. For the last 16 years she has taught in the R-2 Ferguson-Florissant, Mo., School District.

1926

Mary Hagler Willis (1922-24), whose husband died in 1954, was remarried February 24 to Byron Noble Egan in Saint Andrews Episcopal Church, Washington Court House, Ohio. Mary has for years been a licensed insurance agent and a member of the County Child Welfare Board. Her new address is 408 Holliday Rd., Lexington, Ky.

1933

Arametha McFadden Novinger (B.A.), 100 N. Janet Pl., Fullerton, Calif., recently fell, breaking a bone in her foot.

1934

Kathryn Hull Chapman (1930-32) moved from Dallas, Tex., to her mother's home, 1115 Taylor St., Corinth, Miss., after the sudden death of her husband in May of last year.

1938

Betty White Klee (B.A.), 8515 Sunset Dr., Williamsville, N.Y., returned to Marissa, Ill., to be with her mother, Mrs. Robert H. White (Mary Statler '08), during the brief illness and subsequent death of her father December 30. Betty, a former social director and head resident at Butler Hall, visited the campus where she was welcomed by many friends.

1940

Cay Donnell Jones (1936-39), 1318 Rock Rd., De Soto, Mo., writes that she is enthusiastic about the progress made at Lindenwood in the field of religious education. Cay is in the process of establishing a library for her church.

She is the mother of Bruce Donnell, Craig Bissell, and Cathy Ann. Craig will join his brother Bruce at Westminster College this fall. Husband, Les, is District Manager of Missouri Natural Gas Company. Through the years, Cay has kept in touch with her Sibley house-mother, Mrs. Elizabeth LeMasters, and sends her new address of 2205 S. Country Club Dr., Columbia, Mo.

Cay and her sister Ann are in the process of converting their homestead, one of the oldest farms in Jefferson County, Mo., from a dairy farm to a stock farm.

Alannette Stallings Hare (B.S.), Auvergne, Ark., is the mother of six children and a teacher of general science at New Port High School.

Celeste Karlstad Krug (1938-40), 2530 Savannah Ave., El Paso, Tex., writes, "We have lived in El Paso almost five years and do love our mild winter weather. My husband is a dentist, but is retired, unfortunately, because of poor health. We have three children, Barbara, 15, Mary Kathryn, 14, and Ricky, 8, all of whom are in different schools this year. This means lots of PTA meetings. I have been a Girl Scout leader for three years but expect to do Cub Scout work in the fall."

Class Notes

June Schatzmann (B.A.), who is a physician and surgeon and owns and supervises her own clinic at House Springs, Mo., recently extended her talents to include that of "construction supervisor" during the building of her own home on Lake Mantowese. June moved into her lakeside residence in November. Just prior to that she was visited by Ruth Titus and Jo Ann Liebermann Reynolds. Last summer she traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., where she was the guest of Marilyn Mangum Heilmann.

Barbara Cushman Blue (1942-43), 1484 Chelsea St., St. Paul 13, is leaving Minnesota with her son, John, to enjoy some warm weather in sunny Tucson.

Robert L. Hetzler, husband of Virginia Beazley Hertzler (B.A.), 7018 47 Ave. N.E., Seattle 5, Wash., died September 20. Robert, who was 34, died in a traffic accident.

1948

Louise Ritter Blackwood (B.S.) has moved from Wooster, Ohio, to 801 Lake Howard Ter., Winter Haven, Fla., where her husband, Jim, is pastor of The First Presbyterian Church. Their children are Paul, 11; Phillip, 7; and Carolyn, 5.

1949

Little Jill Ann was heralded into the family of Marie Koch Brundige (B.A.), 535 N. Edgewood Ave., LaGrange Park, Ill., on October 9. Marie finally has a female colleague in her, prior to now, all-male family. Her three sons are: John, 10; Lyle, 8; and Robbie, 5.

1950

Helen Ellard Haseltine (1946-47), 4312 Versailles Ave., Dallas 5, Tex., has a second daughter, Linda Kay, born December 16. The Haseltines are a mobile family due to husband Harvey being in charge of a seismic crew for the Atlantic Refining Company. They have lived in 12 States; and when their seven-year-old daughter, Karen, was ready to start school, she was able to skip the first grade.

1951

Gloria Mangum Berthelsen, 14 Arlington Ct., Rome, Ga., has a new daughter, Mary Tamecia, born in November.

1952

Because we have had so many inquiries about the details of the death of Ruth Marie Beutler we would like to publish the following: Ruth had been a physical education teacher in Los Angeles for the last few years. After spending the summer with her parents in Hinsdale, Ill., she left in September to return to California when she was killed in an automobile accident.

INTERESTING HOBBY

Margaret Fagg Struthers '29, a history major at Lindenwood, acquired an interest in the White House and its occupants which became an abiding passion about five years ago. Mrs. Struthers resides with her family at 2072 Lochmoor Blvd., Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Intimate glimpses of the Presidents' wives are revealed twice a week during the winter lecture season by Mrs. Struthers. Asked to give a book report to her PEO chapter, she happened across a White House history. Such a compelling lecturer did Margaret turn out to be that she is in great demand by women's clubs throughout her city. During the season from September through May she talks about the First Ladies to groups in Michigan.

The feature page of the Grosse Pointe News reports:

"Mrs. Struthers has her favorites, the hostess with the mostest, Dolly Madison, leading the parade. It was Dolly who had a servant for every guest in the days when the nightly wage was 25 cents and she called the President 'my darling little husband,' Madison being of small stature.

"To Mrs. James Monroe goes the credit for the first discriminating furnishing of the White House. The Monroes sold the government about $9,000 worth of their beautiful French furniture and had trouble collecting. Mrs. Kennedy's restoration of the Georgian background of her new home has included finding many of the lost Monroe pieces, including the silver, pearl handled knives and the Hannibal and Minerva clocks in the Blue and Green rooms. She has had quite a search for some of these originals as the Chester Arthurs sold 27 van loads of priceless treasures from the White House at public auction.

"Of course Mrs. Struthers is pleased with Jacqueline Kennedy's job in restoring the Presidents' home to past grandeur. She reminds us that this is the first time this national shrine has even had a curator. But Jackies does not lead her list of favorite presidents' wives. Mrs. Struthers believes that Angela Singleton Van Buren, the president's daughter-in-law and official hostess, was equally as beautiful. Louisa Adams, London-born wife of John Quincy, was a 'lady of fashion' in a day when there were no 'best-dressed' lists.

"A firm supporter of Mary Lincoln, 'that much maligned first lady,' Mrs. Struthers believes Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt were two of the White House's most interesting if not the most happy of the first ladies.

"What Mary Lincoln needed was a good press agent and a good psychiatrist. The Northerners hated her because they thought she was a spy and the Southerners despised her because they thought she was a traitor.' These are Mrs. Struthers' views on the controversial Kentucky-born Mary Todd, who died after a stay in an asylum. But in her days as a White House chatelaine Mrs. Lincoln was a good hostess, and devoted herself to visiting wounded soldiers in the hospital, a fact noticed by few Washingtonians of her day.

Class Notes

"The only President's wife Mrs. Struthers ever met personally on her many visits there was Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, a striking brown-eyed brunette, who incurred her taciturn husband's reproof when she took her first riding lesson, 'You can't do anything new,' he told her after the papers recorded the ride. Mrs. F.D.R., on the other hand, never did anything traditional, attended her press conferences in riding togs, rode over Boulder Dam in a barrel and served hot dogs to the King and Queen of England.

"Because intensive research has added to her score of anecdotes about First Ladies, Mrs. Struthers has now divided her talks into four historical periods, but will discuss any President's wife in detail. Her family are proud of her part-time career. Her 14-year-old daughter, Jeanne, has given her a model of the White House and her sons, David, who teaches math in a San Francisco suburb, and John, a sophomore at Ferris Institute, encourage her with gifts of books, as does her husband.

"She talks without notes, shows the dresses of the First Ladies on paper dolls, a museum collection given to her by an admiring listener. For her lecture tours she sews her own costumes, chic suits and dresses, still has time to make slipcovers and draperies for her trim colonial home. She used to transcribe Braille, belongs to Detroit Sorosis and an investment club, is past president of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

"By May Mrs. Struthers is often a little weary of the lecture trail, although not of her First Ladies. In the summers she does more research and often travels to the capitol to renew her impressions of the White House.

"The home of the Presidents, burned by the British in 1812, and rebuilt in 1815 has only been changed once from the original architect's plans. In Theodore Roosevelt's administration the state dining room was enlarged and the stairway torn down and rebuilt. The Kennedys are living in a White House little changed from the Madisons' day, and much more true to tradition than the furbelowed Victorian furnishings of Grant's day.

"In spite of her knowledge of the physical background of the Presidents' home, Mrs. Struthers is most concerned with the families who lived there and is eager to share her intimate glimpses of history with many groups who appreciate her hobby."

AN EXCITING STRANGENESS

When Marjorie Ward, B.A. 1960, of Kansas City, was married to David Bottorff of St. Joseph about a year and a half ago, they expected to spend early married life in Troy, N.Y., where Bottorff, an Annapolis man, was assigned to study at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Ensign Bottorff finished first in his class. Now the couple have moved to Bangkok, Thailand, and life is strange and unusual for the husband and wife who have only been in their new home a month and a half and are scheduled to be there for three years.

"We went on a long trip Christmas day," Marjorie writes. "The boat left at 7 a.m. for a four-hour trip. It seemed odd on Christmas day for everything to be going on as usual: road work, schools, shops. It was just another day except for us foreigners.

"So we finally saw the river, and what a river! We saw it used to bathe in, wash clothes, wash dishes, brush teeth, wash lettuce and drink. It makes the muddy Missouri look clear as a bell. Saw the peddlers and the houses, on and over the river.

"Stopped at a wot, and walked around its compound. The wot (a temple) was closed, open only on holy days. This chedi, or memorial, was quite colorful, and covered from top to bottom with floral designs made of porcelain. The porcelain was fragments of dishes raised from a ship that sank in the harbor many years ago. I had a feeling on the entire trip that we were on a jungle trip to Disneyland, and when the time came to go we would pay the guide and leave Fantasyland. We had turkey with friends.

"I miss America—which isn't really too astounding. Nor is the feeling so prevalent that I am not happy here. Things 'back home' are now out of perspective in their importance. For instance, I would like to go to a drive-in restaurant, have a hamburger, and have a coffee break with the girls. It's really not things that one misses, as it is a feeling of belonging, and of familiarity.

"It's not like adjusting to a new home, as at Lindenwood, or in a new role of a housewife, because in these changes I was still part of a society. But here it is like being picked from a garden and put on the dining room table in a vase. Everything is strange, and is something of which we are not and never will be a part. But it is an exciting strangeness and I dare say that we have loved every minute of our sojourn here. We are guests of a very fascinating country, but I miss the feeling of being a hostess, too."

Marjorie will work with Thai students at the Presbyterian Church in Bangkok. The Bottorff's address is APO 146, San Francisco, Calif.

Charles A. Bohn, III, at age 2. Son of Kathy Hale Bohn (B.A. '55), 1700 Jodphur Dr., Florissant, Mo.

DES MOINES

By Margaret Jane Perry, Correspondent

We are proud to announce that Mary Sparks Hostetter is our new president. In our endeavor to raise money toward our pledge for McCluer Hall furnishings, we held an auction the first of the year, making a profit of $57.50. This amount was augmented by personal checks from members.

Present at the auction were Harriet Liddle, Dorothy Hall, Barbara Reed Doyle, Betty Laird Kurtz, Nancy Riggs Stevenson, Sally Barnes Cobb, Ruth Jamison Wilson, Marjorie Nutt Ramsey, Mary Sparks Hostetter, and Margaret Perry. Our next meeting will be held in April.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

By Beverly Wescott Gabrio, Correspondent

Seattle's Lindenwood alumnae are enthusiastic about becoming an organized group in spite of geographical distance from the College and even from each other.

Responses to letters sent to alums in our area indicated interest and resulted in our first meeting held at the home of your correspondent in November, 1961. Those present were: Arlie Schnedler Dunn, Virginia Thompson Burgh, Arnita Driskill Hickman, Virginia Beazley Hertzler, Blanche Fish Hovey, Helen Wolff Johnson, Dorothy Couch Stick, and Nell Williamson Roland. We decided to meet at least once every three months, and at our next meeting February 21, (again at the Gabrio residence) we welcomed to the original group Erme Martin Couden and Martha Perry Hines. We learned that others were quite interested but unable to attend this meeting.

Our next get-together will be in the home of Mrs. Harry Johnson (Helen Wolff), 7139 Beach Drive S. W., Seattle, at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, May 16, 1962. We are unanimous in our goal to make Lindenwood KNOWN in the Seattle area.

ST. LOUIS NORTH COUNTY

Lindenwood College Club

By Janet Brown Hyman, Correspondent

Miss Martha Boyer, professor in the radio and television department at Lindenwood, reviewed the current television hearings for our group in a meeting held February 6 at the home of June Sneed Sackett, who lives at 2405 Churchill Downs, Florissant. In addition to her interesting and timely talk the group discussed money-making methods to finance "their" room in McCluer Hall.

Those attending, in addition to the hostess, were: Bette Foster Hammer, Ann Nichols Wehmeyer, Janet Neilson Monnig, Grace Quebbeman Galt, Gay Pauly, Margaret Bassnett, Janet Brown Hyman, Jackie McNulty Huber, president of the club, and Bea Clark, alumnae secretary.

MINNESOTA

By Sharlene Agerter, Correspondent

Mrs. William Haymes (Ruth Ann Ball) entertained at a smorgasbord luncheon in November. Since moving to St. Paul, Ruth Ann and Bill have been busy remodeling what they call their "country estate." Joanna Swanson Koelling, of White Bear, was co-hostess for this affair.

The following new officers were elected at this meeting: President, Barbara Cushman Blue; Vice-chairmen, Carolyn Kinney Cleath and Eleen Denning; Secretary, Sharlene Agerter; Treasurer, Lorraine Fodness Wulf; Historian, Gwen Macy Sorlien; Social Chairman, Yvonne Sechler Molenaar; Projects Chairman, Evelyn Wright Locker; Scholarship Chairman, Phyllis Williams McKay; and Alumnae Council member, Mary Kirchherr Shoquist.

In December we had a quick shopper's luncheon at Dayton's Sky Room in downtown Minneapolis.

Phyllis Williams McKay and Eleen Denning chose one of the few warm days in January to entertain a particularly large group at luncheon. Out-of-town guest from Olivia, Minnesota, was Marjorie Fodness Easterday. Joining the group for the first time was Hedy Sue Woog, who is finishing her last year at the University of Minnesota.

February found us at Carolyn Kinney Cleath's home in Edina, with Barbara Wyth Harr as co-hostess. Plans were made for a March tea, and your reporter showed slides taken on campus during Alumnae Weekend '61. These color slides of the College are available to show to interested students.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

By Lillian Nitcher and Frances Wherry, Correspondents

On January 13 we had the pleasure of having Dr. and Mrs. McCluer with us for a Dutch-Treat-Brunch in the Tamberlane Room of the Shoreham Hotel. To be sure, the real "treat" of the day was the charm of the McCluers and the joy of hearing "our President" tell us about Lindenwood today and about the development plans for tomorrow. Informal discussion included plans and ideas for our own Washington group.

Fifteen alumnae were present: Carol Banta Brewer, Mary Ann Lee, Helen Chick Harris, Lillian Nitcher, Joyce Omohundra, Mae Kane Hincke, Marilyn Mitchell Thoren, Chloe Wherry Newell, Frances Wherry, Barbara Carter Caraway, Sara Jefferson Stukenbrocker and her daughter, Norma Snyder Gieseman, Dorothy Laney Browning, Virginia Syms Norton, and Margaret Patterson.

In addition to the alumnae we were delighted to have with us the three Lindenwood students who are spending this semester studying at American University under the Washington Semester Plan. They are Donna Kay Green of Paducah, Ky., Meredith Kasten of Afton, Mo., and Jo Ann Dilling of Lebanon, Ill.

Alumnae Clubs

ST. CHARLES CLUB

By Wanda Bullard Lesley,
Correspondent and President

Our traditional covered-dish supper held in October has become one of the favorite gatherings of the year. It was held in the Library Club Room at the College. Edna McElhiney Olson, program chairman for the evening, asked Albert F. Landgraf, Civil Defense director for this area, to give a talk which proved to be both interesting and informative.

Hostess chairman for the November meeting was Florence Bloebaum Null, with Betty McClintock arranging the program. New members attending this meeting were: Donna Drury Hafer, Mary Jean Miller Schultz, and Ann Adams Long. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served.

A Christmas auction of homemade gifts, held in December, netted us enough money for our scholarship. Esther Barklage Rectern was program chairman for the event, with Mabel Wilkens Salfen acting as auctioneer. Sally Siemssen Schaefer was hostess chairman for this occasion to which guests were invited.

For our February meeting, held in the lounge of the College Chapel, we had the privilege of having with us Margie Faeth, a 1961 Lindenwood graduate and an International Farm Youth Exchange student. She showed slides and told about her trip to Ireland last year. Lucia Whitcomb Trump was program chairman for the evening. Hostess chairman, Margaret Tainter Ahrens, was assisted by Jean Harmon Huesseman, Betty Littrell Porter, and Mabel Wilkens Salfen, members of her committee.

Our annual pot-luck dinner, under the able chairmanship of Emily Knutson Lewis, was held in Fellowship Hall March 5. St. Patrick himself would have been proud of the huge green top hats and shamrocks that bedecked the tables. Our members and their guests were faced with "decisions—decisions" when they served themselves at our buffet table—each casserole being too tempting to bypass. At this event the entree (roast beef) is paid for from the club treasury.

Following the dinner, program chairman Lois Mayer Boschert, presented Diane Floyd Hodges, who gave a reading, and vocal soloist Pat Kelley with Karen Rothemich as accompanist. Both Pat and Karen are present students. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. McCluer, Dr. and Mrs. Mackenzie, and Miss Lichliter.

Committee members who helped make this social affair a success were: Pat Prinster Nolle, Ted Baits Thro, Donna Drury Hafer, Aimee Becker, Wanda Bullard Lesley, and Celeste Hirsch Hesser.

OKLAHOMA CITY

By Margaret Ringer Howell, Correspondent

Lindenwood alumnae in Oklahoma City entertained with a coffee at 11 a.m., Saturday, December 9, at the Sportsman's Club. Dr. Homer Clevenger, chairman of Lindenwood's department of history and government, was our special guest. The program took the form of a question and answer session about present-day education at Lindenwood. Dr. Clevenger delighted us with his enthusiasm with the progress being made at the College in the education of the modern woman. We came away wishing we could sign up for one of his courses.

We were especially glad to have with us Mr. Ted Pinckney, who serves the College as admissions field representative in this area.

Among the alumnae present were: Mary Alice Lillard Carmichael, Marian Marshall Pinckney, Martha Jo Crabbe Greenamyer, Harriet Gum Moffitt, Lucyl Agnes Shirk, Jean Brawner Knoop, Gwen Levers Davis, Barbara Murray Wheeler, Miriam Ferrin Powell, Janee Falter Shelley, Margaret Fischer Eskridge, president of our club, and Barbara Ringer Hamill who was elected to the Lindenwood Alumnae Council at the Association meeting held during Alumnae Weekend '61.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES

By Marian Titus Ellis,

"Southern California's alumnae club had its Christmas meeting in Altadena, Saturday, December 2, with Nancy Patterson VanLeenen, Georgia Reed Mon, and Doris Nahigian Gertmenian serving as hostesses. Eighteen members were present despite the downpour that morning.

We heard the report on Alumnae Weekend '61 from our Council member, Janey Rasdal Kuska. We all wished we could have shared it with her and seen, first-hand, the many changes on campus and been "recharged" with that Lindenwood spirit that never changes.

On February 17 we met at the home of Margaret Downs Brown in Eagle Rock, with Mary Lou Hall Jobe and Elizabeth Hitchcock Gardner assisting as co-hostesses. Margaret's youngest son, Benny, served capably as doorman, greeter, and general manager for an exceptionally good turnout. Maurine McMahan Dameron and Thelma Harpe Ogden and her mother were with us for the first time this winter. "Pep" Perry Kaiser's mother from Moberly, Mo., was a special guest.

Among the alums present were: Helen Rakestraw, Aliene Cherry Reed, Nancy Patterson Van Leenen, Jean Starr Winberg, Sybil Thomas Line, Alma Kinkade, Geraldine Hamblin Gobruegge, Marjorie Turpin (our faithful secretary), Janey Kuska, and the president (Marian Ellis).

We had planned to have our White Elephant sale but so many of us had been "brain-washed" by recent southern California rains that we forgot, and we are planning it for a later date.

ST. LOUIS LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB

By Alice Prouty Root,
Correspondent and President

On January 29 after a postponement January 15 because of snow, the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club met for the first time in the new year. About 35 or 40 alums gathered in Dorothy Trump's lovely home at 5 Chapel Hill Estates in St. Louis, at one o'clock. The hostesses, Audrey Weinberg Cary, Pat Zimmerman Chambers, Nancy Mueller Pecha, and Pat Eidson Quelch, served a delicious dessert of lemon and cherry tarts which certainly helped all of us to forget our resolutions for diets.

Following the meeting Mary Jean DuHadway Craig, our vice-president, introduced our guest, narrator-pianist, Jeanne Milder. She presented a delightful dramatic sketch of mood and melody depicting "Franz—His Life, Loves, and Lifting Music."

Alumnae Clubs

LINDENWOOD ALUMNAE:

Please direct inquiries; requests; changes of address; and news of people and club activity to the office of the Alumnae Secretary of the College. "The better to serve you, my dears!"

The members of the St. Louis Lindenwood College Club are very excited over our two fund-raising projects. We would like to pass along some of the particulars to other alums in the hope that through a mutual exchange of ideas, all of us may accomplish more for Lindenwood. We feel that this is a particularly apt time as we are very enthusiastic over the college's building program and "The Alice Parker Chair of English Literature."

For several years our only project has been the sale of fresh evergreen wreaths and garlands from Colorado at Christmas time. This year we made $600 profit with Margaret McIntosh Presley serving as wreath-sale chairman. The greens really sell themselves. However, there must be a central pickup station to store the wreaths, and each member must be responsible for the delivery of her orders. We plan to continue this project in the future because the profit makes the effort VERY worthwhile.

Last October Madeline (Maggie) Meyer Hauser presented our second project, a brand-new one, to alumnae attending the Association meeting on campus. We hope that many of you have heard by now of the "Charm of Lindenwood." It is a lindenleaf charm suitable for a bracelet, necklace, watch decorations, or earrings. We think that it is an ideal gift for alumnae, students, daughters, mothers, new students, and collectors and will bring back many wonderful memories of Lindenwood.

The "Charm of Lindenwood" is available in two finishes:

10-karat gold—$7.50
plus 25c for mailing
Sterling silver—$6.50
plus 25c for mailing

At this time delivery takes from 10 days to two weeks.

You may send orders and inquiries to:

The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club
c/o Mrs. R. Hauser, Jr.
11314 Revere Lane
St. Louis 28, Missouri

We'll be looking forward to reading about your projects in forthcoming Bulletins.

KANSAS CITY CLUB

By Sara Wilson Barker, Correspondent

Saturday, January 20, despite 21 inches of snow and bitter cold, 15 girls from five Greater Kansas City high schools attended a scholarship coffee from 10:30 to 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Hamrick (Ruth Mead), 8338 Reinhardt Drive, in Johnson County.

In addition to Mrs. Hamrick, who is chairman of the scholarship committee of the Kansas City Lindenwood College Club, other members present were Mrs. George Arbutnot (Dorothy Heimrod), Mrs. K. K. Barton (Dyke Steinbeck), Mrs. Joseph Crawford (Hester Hayes), and Mrs. John F. Tomcak (Jacqueline Brickey). Mrs. Barton is president of the Alumnae Association of the College; Mrs. Crawford serves as a representative on the Alumnae Council; and Mrs. Tomcak is president of the Kansas City Club.

Mrs. Rowland Farrell, admissions field representative for the College, showed the very interesting film story of Lindenwood which is called "The Linden Leaf."

TULSA LINDENWOOD COLLEGE CLUB

TULSA

Tulsa-Lindenwood alumnae held an evening meeting in February at the home of Marguerite Dearmont Lewis with Virginia Getman Hoover and Jeanette Webb Pendarvis serving as assistant hostesses.

At this gathering, to which all club members and their guests were invited, Marge Lewis, dressed in a sari, told of her recent mission to India with her husband. Dr. Lewis was one of four Tulsa doctors to spend six weeks on a medical teaching program in and around Mirage. Marge showed colored slides taken during their stay and displayed handicrafts, clothing, and treasures that they brought back. Reservation chairman for the event was Louise Rewerts Potter.
