

THE LINDENWOOD CONCERT.

A Most Enjoyable and Successful Entertainment.

The concert by the pupils of Lindenwood at the Opera House last Friday evening was well attended, and was of a very interesting and enjoyable character. The young ladies acquitted themselves most creditably and showed to great advantage the thoroughness of the musical instruction they are receiving at the college. The instrumental part of the programme was arranged with great care and excellent judgment by Prof. E. H. Wolf, and Mrs. Hardy was equally successful in her selections of vocal music.

As the programme has already been given in the Cosmos, it is not necessary to republish it here, but it is proper to add in this connection that it came off as announced, except that in part second Nos. 2 and 7 changed places, Miss Minnie Bruere singing "Heaven Hath Shed a Tear" in German with that power and richness of voice which characterizes all her vocal efforts, and the chorus, "Jingle Bells," being most excellently rendered by Mrs. Hardy's vocal class.

The orchestral music with two pianos was very fine, and as a rather novel feature in musical entertainments here, was much enjoyed by the audience. In these and other instrumental performances Misses Agnew, Martin, Sherman, Young, Rhodes, Honey, Meyer, Crawford, Ramsey, Hynes, Carr, Dougherty, Bangs and Simons displayed rare proficiency. In the vocal parts of the programme Misses Mansfield, McIntosh, Wise, Barnett and all the members of Miss Hardy's class acquitted themselves well, many of the voices being of superior beauty and power.

Miss Barnett's alto solo to flute accompaniment, by Mr. Dabney Carr, elicited a hearty encore, to which they responded with a bow.

The flute and piano music of Mr. Carr and his daughter, Miss Annie Carr, was so much enjoyed that the listeners would not be denied another treat of the same kind.

Miss Thomas' recitation, "Legend of Bregenz," was excellently given, as was also "Her Letter," by Miss Mansfield.

The exercises concluded with "Morning Invitation," a chorus by about thirty young ladies, which was a beautiful and appropriate close to one of the most enjoyable entertainments of that character ever given in this city.

Lindenwood college is fortunate in having at its head such an able and energetic president as Dr. Irwin, and he and school are equally so in having such talented and proficient musical instructors as Prof. Wolf and Miss Hardy.
