Nexus Prepares for a Great Semester

by Lisa Watkins
LindenWorldWriter

Nexus, the Association of Afro-American Collegians, has set standards to encourage its members to be the "cream of the crop" at Lindenwood. The organization focuses on educational excellence, talent, spiritual and professional development, confidence building activities, race relations, career development, and Afro-American history.

This year, Nexus has set itself in full motion by reaching out to students and outside organizations. September 1, Nexus hosted the Family Feud Inter-Dorm Competition. The ladies of Cobbs were crowned champions of that event.

September 15, Nexus travelled into St. Louis to assist Friday Only with their United Negro College Fund car wash. October 6, Nexus will participate in a 10K Walk-a-thon for the United Negro College Fund.

Regina Barksdale is chairing the Lip Sync committee. The contest will be held October 26. Circle K is teaming up with Nexus and sponsoring the after-party.

Cheri George, president of Nexus, has contacted professionals in the community to network with students. September 30, Sharon Davis, staff representative from Inroads told students how to qualify for corporate internships that pay up to $1500 a month.

In November, representatives from Ralston Purina, KSDK, and Southwestern Bell will be attending Nexus meetings.

Nexus meets every Sunday evening at 7 in Young Auditorium. According to Randy White, Nexus vice-president, the organization has 52 members and new members are always welcome.

Auditions for A Christmas Carol To Be Held

The Lindenwood Department of Theatre will hold auditions for its holiday production on October 14, 1990 at Jelkyl Theatre in Roemer Hall.

The production will be A Christmas Carol, which includes a newly-adapted script written by Marsha Hollander Parker. Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script and improvisations. The script, as adapted by Parker, has an expanded cast that includes new roles for eight children, nine young adults and eight adults.

Children between the ages of 7-12 will audition from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Young adults ages 13-17 will audition between 3:30 and 5:30 p.m. Adults will be called from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Those interested in auditioning and needing more information may call Marsha Parker at extension 362.

Security Incident

Security, along with the Resident Advisors from Sibley, attempted to find the men. Eventually they apprehended three male students who were in a resident's room after visitation hours, which is a violation of campus policy.

According to Security, a St. Charles police officer who was making his rounds at Lindenwood arrived at the same time three Security officers were struggling with one of the men. The man was then taken into custody by the police and charged with three counts of third degree Assault.

Alcoholic beverages were also confiscated from the Sibley resident's room, another violation of campus policy.

Administration declined to comment on the action taken against the students involved.

Soccer Fever

MEN'S

*by Miguel Carrera
LindenWorldSports*

The fever of the soccer World Cup is over, but at Lindenwood the soccer fever has just begun.

Last Thursday, Lindenwood's men's soccer team defeated Harris-Stowe State College 4-0. Lindenwood dominated the first half but only scored one goal. With 17 minutes remaining, Terry Berhorst, a freshman from Florissant, scored for Lindenwood. Sean O'Connor, a sophomore from Waltham, Massachusetts, scored twice. And John Brett, a senior from Rockport, Texas, also scored.

With a record of 6 and 3, it appears that the present team, one augmented by fresh talent, should emulate and surpass their predecessors. Lindenwood's head coach, Buzz Demling said, "I think this year's team is a better all-around team. I have more bench support than I had last year. Last year I had a good starting eleven, but when they got hurt, I was in pretty big trouble."

O'Connor, who scored his first two goals of the season against Harris-Stowe College said, "I think we are a lot better as skilled players than last year. This year we have some good transfer players; we got very good freshmen. . .I think we play within ourselves a lot better."

Coach Demling has formed this team around the nucleus of the younger elements mixed with experience. Lindenwood's game plan is simple and

WOMEN'S

Lindenwood College women's soccer team showed, again, why it is considered one of the best teams in the nation. They won the Lindenwood College Lady Lion Soccer Tournament for the fifth time.

Three other teams participated in the tournament that was played at Hunter Stadium last weekend. The teams were, Missouri Baptist College, Missouri Valley College, and Tarkio College.

On the first day of competition, after 120 minutes, Missouri Baptist beat Missouri Valley 2-1 in penalty kicks. In the second game, Lindenwood defeated Tarkio 2-0. Lindenwood goals were scored by Amy Prior and Jennifer Houston.

On Saturday, Missouri Valley defeated Tarkio College to claim effective. It is in mid-field that the Lions seem most improved and competent, but it is when they have to decide that they are having problems. "We play good in the mid-field but finishing we have a hard time. . . putting the ball in the net is the problem. We have the players that can do it but they are afraid to take a shot of 20 yards out," Demling said.

Nothing has happened in the season to banish the thought that Lindenwood's Lions will have a good season. It is a team that has already promised to enrich its stature in the game.

Football Lions Beat Southwestern

by Rob Cotton
LindenWorldSports

Although the weather was chilly last Saturday night, the hot Lindenwood Lions improved their record to 3 and 1 by whipping the Moundbuilders of Southwestern College 24-14. Right from the start it looked like it would be a long night for the Lions, as the Moundbuilders took the opening drive 84-yards with relative ease scoring the game's first points.

On offense, the Lions were led by the running and passing of sophomore quarter-back Lamar Wilkes (82-yards in 12 carries, 5 of 11 for 87-yards and 2 touchdowns). Freshman gridburner Adam Saperstein added to his already impressive stats by streaking for 106-yards in 25 carries and 1 reception for 10-yards. Sophomore full-back, Tim Gula, (57-yards in 13 carries) displayed his hard-nosed attitude with another steady performance. Rounding out the offense were tight-end, Mike Smiddy, (2 receptions for 22-yards and 1 touchdown) and wide receiver, David Beatty (1 reception for 43-yards and a touchdown).

The Lions' defense gave up 327-yards but managed to keep the Moundbuilders to only two touchdowns with great individual efforts. Freshman defensive back, Kendrick Frazier, had 10 solo tackles and sophomore safety, Jim Paddock, intercepted a pass and made a spectacular run for 83-yards and the score. Defensive tackle, Shonmont Joseph, (7 solo tackles, 2 assists, 1 sack, and 1 fumble recovery) anchored the defensive line with a solid performance. A major contribution was made by Tim Wilson (7 solo tackles and 3 assists) as a late replacement at inside linebacker. And Chuck Kenyon made his presence felt with 4 solo tackles, 2 assists, 1 sack and 1 fumble recovery.

The Lions will again be at home Saturday, October 6 facing Knoxville College. Game time will be 1:30 p.m..

third place in the tournament. In the big final, Lindenwood was outstanding. They beat Missouri Baptist 7-0. Lindenwood scored three goals in the first half and four in the second. Cynthia Hagen scored one goal and Tracy Thompson, Krista Neidenbach and Liz Kissling scored two goals each.

This is the fifth consecutive time that Lindenwood has won this tournament. Debbie Washburn, Lindenwood's coach said, "We set some goals at the beginning of the season. One of them was to win this tournament and we did."

nifer Dykes, a junior from St. Louis. She was selected as the most valuable player of the tournament. She is one of the central figures around which revolves Lindenwood's successful play. She is well known for accurate passing, work rate and, above all, sudden acceleration to surge into attack. Debbie Washburn said, "She is a real key to our team; she is the play maker. She helped us to dictate our style of play. Even though the stats don't show it, I think she had an outstanding weekend."

Lindenwood Lady Lions' record is 6-2-1. The next home game is October 4th against Westminster.

Literary Society Meets

*by Tim Stouffer

The Griffin Literary Society met last Tuesday to discuss plans for the first of their two annual publications.

The Broadside is scheduled for publication on November 13. Poetry of any length is wanted for publication and will be accepted until October 7. Pieces may be submitted to campus box 515 or 576, to the English offices, or can be personally submitted to Bryan Audrey or Tim Stouffer.

Audrey and Stouffer are co-editors of The Broadside, which publishes strictly poetry. The two also edit the spring publication, The Griffin, which contains short fiction, drama and art, as well as poetry.

The Griffin Literary Society will meet again on Tuesday, October 9, at 5:30 in the English Lounge located in Gables. The group is advised by English Professor Wanita Zumbrunnen and members include: Michael Cundiff, Leslie Duncan, Stephen Meyers, Sophie Michals, John Nichols, Laura Ralls, J. Larry Sparkman, Kari Cheij Stopp, and Alvin Zamudio. Membership is open to all interested writers.

Gospel Choir Begins

*by Lisa Watkins
LindenWorldWriter*

The Lindenwood Gospel Choir will take their first road trip to perform at Southeast Missouri State (S.E.M.O.) in Cape Girardeau. S.E.M.O. is the host of the Annual Missouri State Baptist Student Union Convention. The convention consists of gospel music workshops and fellowship activities for college choirs from around the state.

Lindenwood's Gospel Choir was organized to minister the gospel in song. The choir, formed last year with the help of Nexus, wanted to take advantage of another opportunity to fellowship and meet new students.

"A lot of students, who feel strongly about the Lord, spend a lot of time in their rooms, because they haven't been able to meet people with similar interests," said on choir member. She feels the choir will give students an opportunity to have fun, enjoy their on-campus experience and not compromise their beliefs.

The choir's Minister of Music is a Lindenwood alumnus. Derek Mosley graduated in 1983 and has taken advantage of the opportunity to share his gifts at his alma mater. Mosley is accompanied by a gifted director and musicians. Mosley said, "We would all love to see this choir become a permanent entity on campus."

The choir is focusing on the possibility to become permanent and to grow. First, a part-time director will be needed to do the full-time job of teaching songs and scheduling concerts. According to Cheri George, Nexus president and co-founder of the gospel choir, all that's needed is a lot of prayer.

"We wanted to have a concert so bad last year and prayer helped us achieve our goals. Now, we want to be a driving force. If we are able to sing in the community, do you know how many students we could draw?"

The gospel choir is a separate entity from Nexus and, according to George, welcomes all new members.
