THE REUNION GIFT

A college with a 166-year history is sure to have constituencies with varied interests. Reunion Gifts vary accordingly. Some alumni feel a deep class affiliation while others associate more strongly within a major. Some graduates feel a special comraderie because they were LCIE students. Reunion Gifts should be "personal" — representative of the particular constituency. The Class of 1943 may chose to purchase a paver for the Residential Renewal Honor Walk as its Reunion Gift. Funds to purchase a 12-channel broadcast studio board may be the project identified by KCLC alumni. The Reunion Gift may take the form of a new swing in the front of Irwin from the Class of 1968, a roof for the gazebo or a stained glass window for Sibley Chapel. Graduates from LCIE may be interested in refurbishing classrooms in Roemer or purchasing audio-visual equipment.

When selecting a focus for a Reunion Gift, it is important to communicate. Talk to representatives of the college who will tell you what is needed. Talk with your Lindenwood friends and classmates. Make the Reunion Gift a unique symbol of your class or division of the college.

REUNION '93 & ALUMNI CAREER SYMPOSIUM

As you will see from reviewing the Schedule of Events, many activities are planned for Reunion '93. This year, we will pay a special tribute to communications as we celebrate the 25th anniversary of KCLC-FM and the 45th year of Lindenwood College broadcasting.

Members of the honored classes (classes ending in "3" and "8") are busy contacting classmates in an attempt to make this their most memorable reunion. The record number of 1,000 residential students and the campus renovations make it a particularly special time to return to Lindenwood. Come reminisce about the past and get excited about the future.

Special attractions for Reunion '93 will be the Alumni Career Symposium held on Friday, October 22 and the Alumni Banquet/Dance on Saturday, October 23. Because of the KCLC celebration during the reunion, the focus of the Symposium will be alumni who have followed various career paths in communications. The banquet/dance will also feature tributes to the honored classes and attendees from communications.

A variety of reunion packages are available to you. As a special honorarium to alumnae celebrating their 50th Reunion, the registration and luncheon fee of $25 has been waived for all members of the class of 1943!
