A WORD OF WELCOME.

To all new students we extend a word of welcome. We want you to feel at home, for it is your home. The "home-like" atmosphere should surround you during your membership in the Lindenwood family. It is not to be expected that the College home can replace the home from which you come. You will find things just a little different. There are more members in the college home; different regulations in the movement of the college schedule; a necessity for your recognizing the rights and privileges of others as well as your own; a fellowship that is based upon the friendliness which you exhibit toward others.

You come to a college for young women that has a history nearly a century long. During that period hundreds of young women have gone out into the world and become prominent as home-builders, leaders of social and charitable efforts. It is a noble history that calls upon you to maintain a high standard of womanliness, for Lindenwood is noted for the development of character.

You will be called upon to uphold Student Government by your fidelity to all the rules established for the students' conduct.

The great benefit you should receive from association and contact with faculty and students is the art of living together, the discovery of your latent powers and ability to become a useful member in the community in which you live.

To the Girls of 1917-18:

You will have time to work and time to play. You will find sympathetic and helpful comradeship in your fellow students and teachers. We want you to feel at home by making others enjoy the friendliness of your own nature. The President is ever ready to give you any assistance he can in making your stay at Lindenwood pleasant and profitable.

Yours very sincerely,

John L. Raemer

Greetings From the Dean of Students

AS Dean of Students, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to extend to you a cordial welcome to the Lindenwood family.

I shall be so glad to assist in moulding your lives, that you may be useful women, and the world may be better because you lived in it.

I want you to feel free to come to me at all times with anything that may trouble you.

Mrs. John L. Roemer

GENERAL INFORMATION.

There is a great deal for you to learn when you first arrive here. Don't get discouraged if you can't get everything straight at once. Don't hesitate to ask questions of the "old girls," they have not forgotten that they were "new" girls once.

Absence From Classes and Examination

One unexcused absence will lower the semester grade from M to I, etc. Three unexcused absences will make the student lose her credit in that course.

No student will be re-examined in courses which she has failed.

An unexcused absence on the day preceding the day following a holiday will be counted a double cut.

In the case of enforced absence from regular examinations, at the discretion of the Dean, the work may be made up by special examination, or otherwise, as the Dean may determine. If the work is made up by special examination, this must be done at a time convenient to the instructor and the student, but must not interfere with regular class work.

Deliberate absence from examination gives no credit in the course and cannot be made up by special examination.

The boarding department opens Monday noon September 10th. The work of the College year begins at 9:00 a. m., Wednesday, September 12th.

Advisers.

During the first week of school, each student is assigned to some member of the faculty, who acts as her adviser during the year and assists her in the selection of her course of study.

Every two weeks the members of the Faculty look over the grades, and every student whose grade is below M is reported to her Adviser, who has a personal interview with her and tries to find out why the work is not satisfactory. Once a month the report is sent to the Dean's office. Any girl who is reported to her Adviser twice is summoned for an interview with the Dean of the College, and her schedule is carefully gone over to find out just why she is not doing good work. This system has been used very successfully this year and enables the students to have a personal contact with members of the Faculty, which has been very helpful to both.

Lindenwood Bank.

The Bank is located in the business office, on the first floor of Jubilee Hall. The Cashier has regular office hours which are posted on the bulletin board at the door. All bills are to be paid in this office. Students are urged to deposit their money here to insure safety. Carrying money about or leaving it in the rooms oftentimes leads to carelessness and loss. The College stands responsible only for money placed in its care. The bank is for "depositing," not borrowing.

The Book Store.

The Book Store is located on the first floor of Jubilee Hall. Here the general supplies of stationery, ink, pencils, etc., may be obtained. Your instructors will deliver your books to you, and after you have signed the receipt for the book it will be charged to you in the office of the Secretary, and deducted from the deposit fee of $20.00 which you made to hold your room. At the close of the school year any balance which may be due you will be paid by the Treasurer.

Furniture.

Each student's room is supplied with single bed, mattress, pillow, study table, chairs, bureau, closet or wardrobe, and stationary washstand with hot and cold running water. The windows are furnished with shades, students must furnish curtains if desired. Each student is responsible for the care of her room, and any intentional injury done to furniture, rooms or building will be charged to offender. No tacks or nails must be put in walls.

Grocery Store.

A grocery store is maintained on the first floor of Jubilee Hall, which is open every afternoon four o'clock. Like the book store, it is conducted on a purely cash basis. A maximum of one dollar a week may be spent.

Government and Discipline.

The government is firm and kind. Such regulations as are absolutely necessary to the welfare of the students are made and enforced. The pupils are permitted to share in their own government whatever extent their training fits them in the form of self-government in the matter of exercise at study hall. Our location permits a large degree of liberty to our students.

Individual and community responsibility rest upon the students. A Student Self-Government Association outlines the rules and regulations of Student Government under the supervision of the Faculty. A hand book is printed, giving rules and information of discipline and government. Each student, upon entrance, automatically becomes a member of the Association.

Since it is the purpose to keep the atmosphere of the school wholesome and helpful, the Faculty may dismiss at any time any student who may be exerting a harmful influence, or who may be found to be entirely out of sympathy with the tone and standard of the school, even though she has not committed any special act of insubordination.

Guests.

It is always a pleasure to receive as visitors in our guestrooms patrons, but, for the evident reason that the number of such visitors during the year is necessarily large and because extended visits hinder study, individual visits in the school cannot be expected to extend beyond two days, and it is much preferred that such visits be arranged for over week-ends.

A rate of $1.75 per day is charged all visitors.

Under no circumstances will pupils be excused from regular school duties to be with friends or relatives visiting in the city.

Home Life.

The College takes the place of the home while the student is in residence, and great care is taken to foster the spirit of home rather than that of an institution. The greatest freedom consistent with the best interests of each young lady is given. Each student is counseled with, on matters pertaining to her welfare, by the Dean of Students. Individual responsibility is encouraged and the spirit of co-operation and family fellowship taught. Each student is required to care for her own room. Neatness in housekeeping is credited. A prize is awarded to the one having the highest grade at the end of the year. No regulation as to dress is adopted, but students are required to exercise caution in their personal appearance.

Honor Society.

The Kappa Phi Omicron Society was formed in 1911, and the members of this society are elected by the faculty and must meet the following requirements: At least one year of residence, at least fourteen units of high school credits on the records, a program at the time of the election covering work amounting to fifteen hours, of which not less than twelve hours are in literary subjects, certain fixed scholarship averages, a high standard of character, conduct, honor, and loyalty to the College. Failure to meet any one of these requirements is sufficient to bar a student who is otherwise eligible.

Hospital.

A modernly equipped hospital, with a general ward and private rooms, is fitted up in Sibley Hall.

It is separate and apart from the rest of the dormitory. A graduate nurse is in charge. In case of sickness, the student is provided with every convenience of a modern hospital service, free from any extra expense. In case of serious sickness, requiring private nurse and attention of physician, the student must bear the additional expense.

Upon advice of College physician, a patient will be transferred, at her expense, to the public hospital of St. Charles.

The Library.

The Library is located on the first floor of Sibley Hall. Great freedom is allowed in the use of books, as the library is run on the open stack system. The students are allowed to take from the shelves any book which they may desire to use. With the exception of the special reference books, any one is free to take from the library any book she may need, by simply signing for it at the desk.

As long as such freedom is allowed, the least you can do is not to abuse the privilege by mutilating the books or taking them from the library without signing for them.

The Post Office.

The Post Office is located on the first floor of Jubilee Hall. A box is assigned to every student and a deposit of fifty cents is required before the key is given out. Packages may be mailed here, stamps bought, etc., as in any other post office. In each hall are mail boxes for the outgoing mail which is collected twice a day.

Reports to Parents.

Complete reports of deportment and scholarship are sent to parents twice each school year, as soon as possible after the close of each semester early in February and June. However, in case any student has an unsatisfactory grade in any subject all the grades made by the student that month will be sent to the parents.

All grades are kept on file and may be examined by those interested. Monthly reports will be mailed upon the request of parents or guardians.

Religious Culture.

Religious Culture is not overlooked. While the College is non-sectarian in matters of religion, it is insistent upon the knowledge of the Word of God and Christian training. Every student, unless excused by the President, is required to take at least one hour each week in the study of the Bible.

Addresses are given during the year by Ministers, Missionaries and laymen, upon topics that will give the students a larger vision of the Christian World work. Chapel services are held each morning and Vespers Sunday evenings. The Young Women's Christian Association is a most effective organization in the development of the religious life. Pastors of the city are given the names of young ladies who express denominational preference. Each student, after electing the Church she prefers to attend, is expected, unless excused by the Dean of Students, to attend the Church of her choice every Sunday morning. Attendance at evening services in the Chapel is required. Many of our students engage in Christian service in the local churches and teach in the Sunday schools.

Scholarships.

The Watson Fund provides a scholarship of one hundred dollars for every daughter of a Presbyterian Minister attending Lindenwood College. When the revenue of the endowment is not all used it is applied to the education of the daughter of any Evangelical Minister attending the College, who applies.

A scholarship of $60.00 will be given to the valedictorian of any accredited high school in the State.

Student's Loan Fund.

A fund of $500.00 has been raised, which is to be accessible this year for the first time. This has been provided by the girls of 1916-17, and is under the direction of the Board of Trustees. The maximum amount which will be loaned to one girl $100.00. The first year no interest is required, but after that she will pay three per cent. No security is demanded except the girl's promise to pay.

Choir.

A college choir will be organized and under the direction of Miss Oldfield. You are urged to try out for the choir if you have musical ability. Do not be afraid.

Choral Society.

The Choral Society is organized early in the fall and will be under the personal direction of Professor Leo C. Miller, who is a choral director of wide experience. All voice students are expected to be long, and others may try out for places. This is an excellent opportunity to get musical training and touch with college life. Do not fail to join.

RELIGIOUS LIFE.

The Young Women's Christian Association.

The object of this organization is the development of Christian character in its members and the prosecution of active Christian work among the women of the College.

The work of the Association is carried on by the members, assisted by the Faculty Adviser and the officers.

Membership is open to any student or member of the faculty who is in sympathy with the purpose of the Association. Regular meetings are held on Wednesday evenings.

The Christian Association wants you to feel this is a personal invitation to you to join. It is a growing and developing organization and will be the better for your active co-operation and for your new ideas. We need new ideas, and each girl should be able to find some phase of the work which will interest her.

The annual dues are one dollar, and the greater part of this goes toward maintenance.

Mission Study.

Interesting classes and groups for discussion will be held to study the social and religious problems of our own and foreign countries. These classes will be led by especially trained out-of-town speakers and members of the faculty; so that the students will become familiar with the latest information on missions.

VESPER SERVICES.

Every Sunday evening, at seven o'clock in the chapel, a religious service is held for all members of the College family, and for anyone else who cares to come. The service is short, and the music is furnished by the College choir.

CHAPEL EXERCISES.

All students are expected to attend the regular chapel exercises at twelve o'clock every day except Saturday and Sunday, and the Sunday evening service, which is conducted by the College Pastor.

The students are expected to sit in the seats assigned to them by the President of the Student Government Association. If for any reason a student occupies any other seat, she must have the permission of the President.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES YOU SHOULD TAKE PART IN.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—Membership fee of one dollar a year required, and the members have the full use of the Y. W. rooms.

CLASS ORGANIZATIONS. — All classes have formal organizations and every girl is supposed to identify herself with her own class and take part in the activities.

DRAMATIC.—Dramatic Association composed of the members of the Expression class and all other students who have dramatic ability.

CLASS PLAYS.—A cash prize is given every year by the College to the class which produces the best original play.

LITERARY.—Kappa Phi Omicron, an honorary Sorority to which all College students are eligible. Election to membership is based on scholarship.

ENGLISH CLUB.—The English Club of Lindenwood College is known as The Revellers, since its particular scope of activity is the presentation of festivals, masques, and pageants, for the benefit of the entire College community. All the students enrolled in the college courses in English are eligible for membership on a basis of scholarship.

SPANISH AND FRENCH CLUB.—Le Cercle Romanique is composed of all pupils of the Romance Languages. There are two branches, the Cercle Francais and the Club de las Discipulas de Cervantes, the Spanish Club. These clubs meet for an hour one night a week for the purpose of conversing in these languages, and for playing games, singing songs, etc.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.—Almost every girl is interested in some form of athletics, either as a participant or as an onlooker. The college requires that every girl who is physically able take some form of physical exercise. Classes in gymnasium work are arranged, also swimming, hockey, tennis, hiking, track, and base-ball. At the opening of the semester each girl is examined by the College Physician, and then assigned to some form of gym work by the director of the department. Girls who are not able to take part in regular work are required to report to the Infirmary regularly and take the "rest cure."

You may become a member of the Athletic Association by merely paying your dues. Membership makes you eligible for any of your class teams or sub teams, and puts at your disposal the use of the tennis courts, athletic field, etc. It also includes your entrance fees for class games.

Membership also gives you a voice in the management of the Association, and every student is urged to take an active interest in all affairs pertaining to the Association.

Don't forget to try out for all teams and help your class to make a good showing. If you don't make the team, remember that you can help by being on the side lines. Here you can be an "Active" member of the Association, as a "game" attitude is needed on the side lines as much as on the team. Loyal support on the part of the student body is just as necessary for a victory as to have a fine team which is fighting alone.

Don't fail to join the Association.

ATHLETIC AMUSEMENT COMPANY.—

The students in each dormitory give amateur performances on Saturday nights for the members of the school.

STATE CLUBS.—Membership open to all girls from the State. Object, to promote greatest interest in and loyalty to the college.

FACULTY.

In addition to being your instructors in classes, the Faculty are interested in you personally. One of the means which is taken to increase this interest both on the part of the Faculty and the students is the system of assigning each student to a member of the Faculty who acts as her adviser. You are expected to go to her with any difficulties you may have or for any information which you may want.

Be sure to become acquainted with all of the members of the Faculty. It increases the value of your college life to come into close contact with these women who have wider experience and a broader outlook on life. The members of the Faculty are particularly interested in you and the success of your college career. Do not be afraid to ask their advice at any time. Your confidence is always welcome, but not demanded, so the initiative for special consultation rests with you.

It is to your advantage to make of your Faculty adviser a friend through college. Go to call on all of the members of the Faculty, even if you do not have classes with them. It will help you to know them, and they are anxious to know you. After you have called, do not be afraid to go again, for they are always glad to see you.

HISTORY OF LINDENWOOD COLLEGE.

History.

In 1828, Major George C. Sibley and wife, Mary Easton Sibley, being impressed with the need for better means of Christian education, selected a beautiful site overlooking the Missouri River in a tract of land known as the "Lindenwood." In 1831 ground was broken and a log house completed, capable of accommodating some thirty or forty boarding pupils. As shown by the diary of Major Sibley, young ladies came by stage from all parts of the State. Many of the first families of St. Louis were patrons of the institution, which prospered to such an extent that in 1853 it was incorporated by the Legislature. On the fourth of July, 1856, Major Sibley and wife executed a deed to one hundred and twenty acres to the Trustees of the College, appointed by the Presbytery of St. Louis. The Presbytery accepted this gift as a sacred trust, agreeing on its part to maintain the institution, and to use it wholly for the purpose of the Christian education of women. Subsequently, the charter was so amended as to place the College under the Synod of Missouri.

Location.

Lindenwood College is situated in St. Charles, Missouri, within fifty minutes street car ride of St. Louis. "A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid." For beauty of location, no city excels it. Situated on the highlands overlooking the valleys of two of the world's mightiest rivers, the eye never tires of looking on this picturesque landscape.

More than a century old—the first capital city of Missouri—it has kept pace with the progress of the State. Its paved and oiled streets, lighted from the famous Keokuk power plant, are the brightest of any city in the West. Its municipal water system and the elevation of the city above the river give it entire freedom from fevers and malaria. Its substantial residences, its concrete walks, its abundance of shade, its macadamized streets and roads leading out in all directions; all these and more are facts which its inhabitants may well boast.

The main lines of the Wabash and the Missouri,

Kansas & Texas railways reach all points to the North, West and Southwest. These two roads and an electric line, leaving every thirty minutes, give service to St. Louis at all hours. At St. Louis, connections may be made with all points of the compass. St. Charles is also situated on the Boone's Lick Trail, now a part of the National Road, and thus is on the direct line of all automobile travel East and West. The "Red Ball" route from Minneapolis to the South also crosses the river here.

Its 10,000 population, its wealth, its excellent public buildings, its churches, its schools, its hospitals, its public-spirited citizens, and its situation as a suburb of St. Louis make St. Charles a very attractive residence city.

The advantages of suburban and the privileges of city life are afforded Lindenwood students. The best concerts, lectures, operas of the nation are within easy reach, and the students are permitted to attend the very best.

Art museums and centers of culture and music are always open to our students.

There are few schools so happily situated for all possible opportunities of college and culture.

Buildings and Grounds.

The College grounds cover an area of thirty-four acres, situate on one of the highest elevations in the extreme western part of the city. Within the city limits, having all the advantages of light, water and fire protection, yet so separated by extent of area as to afford the greatest freedom to the students in their daily exercises and routine of college life.

The stately trees, excellent walks and driveways, the close proximity to the beautiful country surrounding, make the site ideal for the location of the College. Under the direction of our Landscape Architect the spacious campus is being beautified and a plan of future development being worked out.

The buildings are the best that modern architecture can devise and are provided with every convenience for the comfort and health of the students. In the past two years over $300,000.00 has been expended on buildings and equipment, the College also heavily endowed.

Sibley Hall.

Sibley Hall was named to commemorate the name of the founders of Lindenwood College—Major George C. Sibley and his wife, Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley.

It is a three-story brick building, which, when completed, cost $70,000.00.

At considerable expense it has recently been remodeled and provided with every modern convenience. Hot and cold water is provided in the commodious wash rooms on each floor, and the most improved sanitary plumbing has been installed throughout the building.

The first floor of this building is used for classrooms, the Library and Chapel. The ground floor for Domestic Science and Domestic Art. The second floor for class rooms and Hospital and the third floor for dormitory purposes. All the rooms are large, nicely furnished and well lighted.

Jubilee Hall.

Jubilee Hall was the outcome of the interest which was stimulated by the seventy-fifth anniversary of the College. This building was begun in 1907, and ready for occupancy in 1908. It is a substantial brick building of three stories and a basement almost entirely above ground. It was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie, Col. James Gay Butler, John A. Holmes and Mrs. Wm. L. McMillan. Each room has a stationary washstand, supplied with hot and cold running water. The first floor of Jubilee Hall is used for administration purposes. The second and third floors for dormitory. A large, handsome, well-lighted and modernly equipped Art Room is made part of this building. It will be enlarged and remodeled during the Summer and will have ample accommodation for nearly 300.

Butler Hall.

Butler Hall is named after Col. James Gay Butler, whose interest in Lindenwood College led him to erect, at his own expense, this fine structure which was formally dedicated February 18, 1915.

On the first floor is the "Student's Living Room," where the young ladies can assemble and enjoy social fellowship. The room was furnished by Mrs. Butler, who spared no expense in making it most "homelike" for the girls. Easy chairs, writing desks, leather sofas, tables are to be found in abundance. Pictures of the master painters hang upon the walls. Everything that makes for comfort and refinement is provided. On the same floor and and refinement is provided. Two apartments with single and double rooms are on the first floor, and the "Butler Guest Room" for Lindenwood patrons and friends. The second and third floors are used for dormitory purposes; hot and cold running water in every room. Tub and shower baths are provided. Each dormitory is most complete in all its appointments. The aim of the College is to make a home for the students and all the rooms are arranged with this purpose in view. Connecting with Butler Hall is the gymnasium and a large natatorium equipped with shower baths, dressing rooms, and hair dryer.

Niccolls Hall.

Niccolls Hall, which was dedicated in February, 1917, is named in honor of the late Dr. Samuel J. Niccolls, who for a generation, was President of the Board of Trustees. It is erected by his lifelong friend, Col. James Gay Butler, whose desire was to make it the largest and finest of all the excellent new structures on the campus. The building is 140 feet long, 81 feet deep, and has a capacity for caring for 130 students. The ground floor contains thirty sound-proof piano practice rooms, two large practice rooms for the Expression department and fireproof chafing dish room. On the first floor there are reception rooms and two apartments containing rooms for students. The second and third floors are used exclusively for dormitory purposes. On each floor students are provided with tub and shower baths. A special feature of the building is the large porch entrance, supported by doric columns and a "Sun Parlor" encased in glass.

Margaret Hall.

Margaret Hall is named after Mrs. James Gay

Butler, and is a handsome two-story building, located at the entrance to Butler Way and Kings-highway. The building has been handsomely furnished and is being used as a Conservatory of Music. The Departments of Piano, Voice and Expression occupy this building.

Science Hall.

Science Hall is a well equipped structure, for the Department of Chemistry, Botany, Biology. It is well lighted and heated and within easy access of the class rooms of Sibley Hall.

The Art Pottery.

The Art Pottery is a building erected during the Spring of 1914, and is used for the burning of decorated china.

The Central Heating Plant.

The Central Heating Plant is in rear of dormitories and sixty feet away from nearest one. It is built twenty feet under ground. It is provided with new Brownell Tubular Boilers of 150 horse-power each, containing 2,400 gallons of water. Hot water is furnished by four large hot water boilers, containing 1,500 gallons of hot water. In the most remote part of the farthest building hot water may be obtained instantly.

Two Sorority Houses.

Eta Upsilon Gamma and Sigma Iota Chi are two very substantial and elegantly furnished Sorority houses. The Gamma house was dedicated in 1914 and the Sigma house in 1915.

The Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority has handsomely furnished rooms on the first floor of Butler Hall.

DOS AND DON'TS FOR NEW STUDENTS.

Begin well! Remember bad work for the first year handicaps you all the way through college.

Don't be discouraged if you have to wait in line for everything you want the first week. Make a complete list of everything you want at each place, so you need go through the agony only once. Keep cheerful!

Watch the Bulletin Boards.

Don't treat Chapel as a social function. You will be disturbing your neighbors.

Don't use your neighbor's belongings without asking for them.

Don't wear your roommate's clothes. Keep your own individuality.

Get interested in non-academic activities.

Don't play with one girl exclusively. There are 200 in College.

Don't cut "Gym." This department issues conditions.

Bring a napkin ring to college with your name on it, if possible. You'll find it useful!

Don't bring a dozen trunks to college. A few simple, becoming dresses are all you will need.

Sign up for at least one form of athletics, and work hard at it.

Don't be extravagant. Your allowance won't stand it, and it doesn't make friends for you!

Introduce your guests to the Faculty.

Don't take guests to class without first introducing them to the teacher who conducts the class.

Don't get a crush! It's the surest way to get disliked.

Don't fail to make some mistakes—or you won't have any Reminiscences!

(With apologies to the Vassar Handbook of 1917.)

LINDENWOOD SONGS.

Melody, "Illinois Loyalty."

We're loyal to you, Lindenwood;
We're yellow and white, Lindenwood;
 We know you can stand
 'Gainst the best in the land,
For your standard is grand, Lindenwood, Rah!
Rah!

Then on with your work, Lindenwood;
Not one girl will shirk, Lindenwood;
 Our school is our greatest pleasure;
 On, girls, with great endeavor;
Three cheers for New Lindenwood!
Cha! he! Cha! haw!—Cha! he! haw! haw
Lindenwood, Lindenwood, Rah! Rah! Rah!

Melody, "My Heidelberg, My Heidelberg."

Here's to our fair, new Lindenwood;
Here's to the flag she flies;
Here's to the girls that boost for her;
 Their spirit never dies.
Here's to Marguerite, so white;
Here's to our colors true;
Here's to each daughter of old L. C.;
Lindenwood—here's to you!

Chorus:

Oh, Lindenwood, dear Lindenwood,
Thy daughters sing thy praise;
That golden haze of student days
 Will linger 'round thy name.
And cherished be the memory,
Through all the coming years,
When far away that memory
 Will fill our eyes with tears.

Melody, "The Mining Engineer."

There's maplewood and cherry, and poplars grand and tall,
And Christmas trees so merry, and elms and pines

and all;
But all the trees you mention, to us would not seem good;
For there's only one we cherish, and that is Lindenwood.

Chorus:

Oh, Lindenwood, Oh, Lindenwood,
You are the one we love;
Oh, Lindenwood, Oh, Lindenwood,
All other trees above,
You make the campus shady
For everyone you know;
So we hope you'll keep your head up high
And grow, and grow, and grow.

Where does our money go?
Where does it go?
Where does our money go?
Where does it go?
Snappys and photo-plays,
Hersheys and shows,
Sandwiches and ice-cream cones,
That's where it goes!!

What is a midnight feast?
What can it be?
What is a midnight feast?
It's a mystery to me.
Twelve o'clock and the lights are out,
You step out in the hall,
Teacher comes, you run back in—
Sh-sh, that's all!!

Melody, "When You Wear the Ball and Chain."

When you've got the ball and chain around your ankle,
'Cause the teachers in their meetings of you speak,
There's no virtue in repentance,
You have got to serve your sentence,
Which is chaperons for a week.

You've a number and you bet the teacher's got it;
But these stripes are now in vogue, if you are vain.
 If you're not good on the whole,
 You won't be on the honor roll,
And you'll have to wear the ball and chain.

Melody, "Wisconsin."

Lindenwood to you, our College, we'll be ever true.
We are working, we are fighting, always just for you.
In the first rank you're the foremost, for the best you've stood,
We love and honor you, Our Lindenwood.

Prize Song—Music by Miss Mildred Howard.

Of all the schools in all the world,
It's Lindenwood for me.
In play and work you'll find, we're always fair and square;
The girls and all the faculty show loyalty to thee.
For mem'ries dear and friendship we will ever care.
At Lindenwood we've lots of sports,
Our swimming stands the test,
Our hockey and our tennis, too,
Are full of lots of zest.
And when it comes to Basket Ball,
We're simply out of sight;
Oh, Lindenwood, we love you;
Yes, with All Our Might.

Melody, "Solomon Levi."

Lustily we cheer for thee,
 Everywhere we go;
Our president's of high degree,
 The others are not slow.
There is no other school can boast
 So fine a faculty,
And that is why you hear us cry—
 Hurrah! for new L. C.!

Chorus:

Ho, for our College,
L. S. tra-la-la-la.
Ho, for the knowledge,
Tra-la-la-la-la-la-la-la.

A midnight feast is not the least
Of all the fun we've had;
But pranks are limited, you see,
To nothing very bad.
There is no other school can boast
So much of jollity;
And that is why you hear us cry—
Hurrah! for new L. C.!

Melody, "Stein Song."

Oh, there's many a school and college,
For years and years have stood;
But for fun and friends, and knowledge,
The best is Lindenwood.

Alma Mater is our glory,
Our greatest joy and pride;
And we'll sing to her the story,
As we stand here, side by side.

Chorus:

Oh, it's L. C. forever,
We're school-fellows here together;
We will sing her our praises,
We will sing for Lindenwood.

Melody, "Fol-De-Rol."

For jolliness and push and vim,
Fol de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol;
We used to honor Sunny Jim,
Fol-de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol.
Now his chance is very slim,
Fol de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol;
Dr. Roemer's ousted him,
Fol-de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol.

Literary dean is Horn,
Fol de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol;
His announcements do not scorn,
Fol-de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol.
"These young ladies please see me,"
Fol de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol;
"When they can conveniently,"
Fol-de-rol, de-rol-rol-rol.

We Lindenwood girls are there on looks,
And full of pep, you see;
We've said enough about ourselves,
So we'll mention the faculty.
They are a very brilliant set,
And order they preserve,
But sometimes we are forced to go,
Before the student board.

But firm we stand for you, Lindenwood,
Our hearts and hands for you, Lindenwood,
Our colors we unfurl,
To wave for every girl.
You stand for the best that's in the land,
We sing our praise to you we love the best,
For you're the Wellesley of the West;
And our hearts will all be true,
When we wave farewell to you,
For we're white and yellow, Lindenwood.

Dear Old Lindenwood.

Here's from dear old Lindenwood,
Our College of wide renown;
You'll find it in grand old Missouri,
At the edge of St. Charles town.

Hail! To the White and the Yellow,
The Elms and the Lindens we love;
And for a grand, glorious future,
We look to the Power above.

Song of the Classics.

O, Latin and Greek and Mythology, too!
They say by you culture is rated,
So with Caesar in battle's victories we've fought,
And the silver-tongued lawyer translated;
The terrible Alps we in fancy have crossed,
Aeneas' sad tale heard related;
We've learned the Greek letters and charming old myths,
And now say: Are we not educated?

We know Horace's odes and philosophy, too—
Word pictures of nature he's painted;
Of Terence and Ovid we've dutifully learned,
With Tacitus we are acquainted.
In fact, with all Latin, prose, drama and song,
In whatever age it is dated,
We've grown quite conversant; we'll never forget,
And now say: Are we not educated?

By iota subscripts and by accent marks, too,
By the aroist tense we're not bested,
By dative and ablative case and the like,
Our peace of Mind's no more molested.
Of Zeus and of Juno, Athen and Mars—
Epimetheus who mankind created,
Of goddesses, gods, and great heroes we learned,
And now say: Are we not educated?
Words by Patience Kamps.
Music by Lois Hanna.

'Mid the hills of old Missouri, there's a school that's
dear to me,
Where the mighty "Muddy Water" wanders down
toward the sea;
Standing there among the Lindens with her open doors for all,
Lindenwood, to every daughter, sends out this reverberate call:

"Give, oh, girls, of L. C. training,
To the world your very best;
And forevermore be faithful,
To the WELLESLEY OF THE WEST."

And her daughters, 'tho' they're scattered from Los Angeles to Maine,
And from Idaho to Georgia, all take up the loyal strain,
As they go about their duties in this busy land today,
Be they teachers, wives, or artists, they, responding,
seem to say:
"We are striving, dear old L. C.,
To the world to give our best;
And we'll evermore be faithful,
To the WELLESLEY OF THE WEST."

V. M. T., '17.

Tune: There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight.

Yell, girls, yell, for L. C. has the ball,
Yell, girls, yell, we'll eat them bone and all,
For when we get that ball,
There'll be no ball at all;
There'll be a hot time in St. Charles tonight.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Hip, Hurrah, Lindenwood, Hip, Hurrah,
Hip, Hurrah, Lindenwood, Hip, Hurrah,
Keep your eye upon the score,
While we roll it up some more.
Hip, Hurrah, Lindenwood, Hip, Hurrah,
Ray! Ray!

HIKERS' SONGS.

Tune: Oh, It's Nice to Get Up in the Morning.

Oh, it's nice to get up in the morning,
With the stars still shining bright,
Oh, it's nice to get up in the morning,
And dress by electric light.
You grab a bun and a bundle,
And you tip toe down the hall;
You have pranced 'till twelve o'clock,
But you mind it not at all.
Oh, it's nice to sleep late in the morning,
But it's nicer to hike instead.

Tune: My Little Girl.

Dear Stay-at-Home Girls, we know you love us,
And have thought of us all day;
Dear Stay-at-Home girls, you're dreaming of us,
Though we're many miles away.
You saw us puffing out on the highway,
And you didn't think we dared;
But Stay-at-Home girls you needn't worry,
For we didn't need your care.

Tune: Good-by, Betty Brown.

Good-by! Buy a single trip;
Our fast team is going to sink your ship.
Give the ambulance a hurry call,
Takes our team to play basket ball.

You can't beat us now, so run along,
Now's the time for you to change your song.
'Way down upon the Swanee River,
Is the place for the ——— team.

Yell.

Now, they're off, see them go.
Go—Lindenwood,
Win—Lindenwood!

Tune: My Little Girl.

Play on, L. C., for we are winning,
And we're going to win today;
If we lose, we'll keep on grinning,
For our team knows how to play.
There's a goal right there before you,
And a chance to win for us;
So we'll show our plucky rivals,
That the grin is not on us.

Tune: Sympathy.

You need sympathy,
Just sympathy.
You're not mighty as we,

So you'll not care or think it unfair,
If we beat you dreadfully, dreadfully,
Just you see for we know,
You'll be needing sympathy.

Tune: Hand Me Down My Bonnet.

Hand me down my bonnet,
Hand me down my shawl,
Hand me down my hat and coat,
I'm going to a game of ball.
As we go marching and the band begins to P-l-a-y,
You can hear the people shouting,
The Lindenwood team is going to win today.

Stay-at-Homes.

You need sympathy, stay-at-homes,
Just sympathy.
You're not mighty as we,
So you'll not care,
Or think us unfair,
If we leave you softly at home,
While we roam;
But we miss you at least,
You stay-at-homes.

Tune: The Gridiron King.

Shoot a goal, O Lindenwood,
For we're going to win today,
And we'll show the girls at Howard-Payne,
That the L. C. team holds sway.
Pass down the gym again,
Victory or die,
And we'll give a rousing cheer, girls,
As the Lindenwood team goes by.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Lindenwood Hymn.

School of our mothers, in days of yore,
Goal of their fond ambitions long,
Within the portals of thy door,
Ideals were formed and wills made strong.
Thy honored rule was ever good,
Old Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.

The tumult and the shouting dies,
The seniors year by year depart;
Still stands thy ancient edifice,
A stately and a noble pile,
With arched limbs of sacred wood,
Round Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.

Far called, old teachers pass away,
But new ones rise to take their place;
And all the pomp of yesterday,
Goes on with but a change of face.
Few hearts but throb with kindly good,
Towards Lindenwood, Old Lindenwood.

On, girls that come, and girls that go,
On all that walk beneath thy shade,
A heaven-sent gift wilt thou bestow;
A graceful and a gracious maid.
With brain for power and heart for good,
Old Lindenwood, Dear Lindenwood.

Amen.
