DIRECTOR'S NOTES:

Welcome to "The Folks Next Door." A nice obscure show I found one day reading a ton of plays looking for something that would catch my attention. This one did. I found it an amusing story that could be produced for all ages. Some told me that it read like a TV sitcom and I think that is what drew me to it in the first place. It is placed in 1976 so the times in America mirror what is going on today in the present. I hope you find this little tale as entertaining as I do. Enjoy.

COMPANIA FLAMENCA JOSE PORCEL: GYPSY FIRE

The heat turns up when a dazzling company of flamenco dancers and musicians takes the stage in "Gypsy Fire," featuring world-renowned flamenco dancer Jose Porcel, who began dancing Andalusian folkloric dances and flamenco in cultural centers in Valencia at the young age of 13.

Porcel himself invites you to enjoy this performance: "With this new production I would like to present to you the purest and the oldest part of flamenco from Andalusia, by reviewing the most famous styles of this dance form. Preserving the style and form of traditional flamenco, the customs, and the experiences of the Andalusian people is my goal. Enjoy our wonderful dancers, musicians, and vocal soloist performing, without any added effects, only the pace and the music, song, and dance of the gypsy (roma) art form."
