REUNION '89 SCRAPBOOK

Nearly 200 alumni from across the country came back to visit during Reunion '89. Themed "The Arts Revisited," the weekend included art workshops, gallery exhibits and an entertaining theater performance.

Since pictures tell more than words, we have assembled this scrapbook for you to enjoy. . .

Friday night's Benefit Dinner/Auction got the Weekend off with a bang. Students and alums raised about $9,500 for the Lindenwood/Soviet Exchange Program. The evening's menu consisted of borscht, caviar, red cabbage and beef tenderloin. (It was actually good.)

Interim President Dennis Spellmann updated alumni on all the latest happenings at Lindenwood during the annual meeting.

Jane Schroer Meirose ('85) and Lois Null Lane ('38) registered alums and handed out information packets for the Weekend. Thanks to all who volunteered their time to help with the Reunion!

About 125 alumni, faculty and staff attended the Alumni Association's Annual Meeting and Luncheon.

The ghost of Mrs. Sibley (alias graduate student Sally Ward) enlightened and entertained with her dramatic one-act featuring the history of this 162-year-old college.

Alumni Director Judy Peters ('84) presented outgoing Alumni Association President Maurita Estes Stueck ('43) with a plaque and several Lindenwood momentos in recognition of her many years of loyal dedication and hard work.

Professor Wehmer looked as though he enjoyed teaching the art workshops as much as the alumni enjoyed participating.

◀ Lynn Dillon Buck ('42), who gave a delightful presentation of Women in Leadership earlier in the weekend, and Carolyn Graves Romeyn showed their flair for drawing during John Wehmer's art workshop.

The weather was perfect for Dinner Al Fresco on the center campus. Leading the line here is our new Alumni Association President Nancy Calvert ('61).

Our "golden girls" from the Class of 1939 celebrated their 50th anniversary!

Of course, the best part of Reunion Weekend is visiting with old roommates and colleagues. Here, Judith Batton Brougham ('60) and Mary Cox Swisher ('59) sit and chat in Sibley Hall.

Congratulations Class of 1964 on your silver anniversary!

REUNION GIFT

This year's Reunion Gift Donation totalled $4,805.00 to be used toward a purchase on Lindenwood's "wish list". The class with the most donors and the class with the most donations were responsible for choosing the gift. This year, the class of 1939 won in both categories with 15 donors and $2,210 in contributions. They chose to split the gift three ways: a portion was given to the library for reference books; a piece went toward a video tape of Sally Ward (who performed a one-act play on Mary Sibley during the Reunion luncheon) to be used in the archives and for special events; and a third portion went for the purchase of 10 Linden trees for the campus. A special tree will be planted across from Sibley Hall with a plaque commemorating this 1989 Reunion gift.

We thank all those who donated to this year's gift and congratulate the class of 1939 for their overwhelming response!

"DORM MOTHER" Needed for Sibley Hall

Next Fall Sibley Hall will be the Honors Residence Hall for female upperclassman and honor students. The College is looking for a mature female to serve as "house mother" for the dorm. This person (preferably an alumna) is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the residence hall and would be available as a "confidant" to students. If interested, please call Assistant Dean of Students Camille Oehler at 949-2000, ext. 237.

SOVIET EXCHANGE AUCTION

The auction last fall was a great success! Thanks to those of you who contributed items and to those who bid on them, we raised $9,500.00 for the Lindenwood/Soviet Exchange Program.

The auction was a joint alumni / student project. Both groups successfully worked together to support the program, designed to help international relations through a reciprocal exchange of students at Lindenwood College and Azerbaijan University in Baku. The most satisfying part of the experience for auction co-chairs: Martin Sherman ('75), Glenda Schaefer ('68) and student Sophia Wehmer ('90) was meeting the Soviet delegation from Azerbaijan when they came to St. Charles this past November.

If you were not able to return to Lindenwood for the auction (held during Reunion Weekend) you missed your chance to bid on many fabulous items. Donations included a week-long Colorado vacation from Anne and Harlan Pals, an oriental carpet given by Eric Stuhler, an antique quilt from Janet Lewis Riddle, gourmet dinners donated by faculty and students, a bed and breakfast in the Rocky Mountains donated by Maurita and Neil Stueck, baby-sitting on New Year's Eve given by Virginia Terry, and the list goes on.

We hope that if you weren't able to attend last year's auction, you will plan on coming this year. It promises to be bigger and better than ever! Look for the time and place of this year's auction in the next newsletter.

President's Message

Dear Alumni:

I am delighted to be the new president of the Lindenwood Alumni Association. As your representative on the College's Board of Directors, you need to know that I am firmly committed to our alma mater and what can be its bright future.

Your commitment to the College through generous gifts of time and financial resources will be key to attaining that bright future. I urge each of you to consider how you might best support Lindenwood in the coming year.

The members of the Alumni Board are anxious to build an active alumni constituency which is as committed as we are to the continuing good health of Lindenwood. A good opportunity to assist us in our building effort is available to each of you during reunion weekend. Mark your calendars now for October 12 through 14, and plan to attend. Do what some classes do — contact your alumni friends and make a date to get together at this year's reunion.

If you haven't been back to campus in years you'll be pleasantly surprised at the increased resident student population, the new Student Life Complex in Butler Hall, and the continuing building and grounds renovation.

We are planning a wide-ranging program of activities for the weekend which should be of interest to alums of all ages. Help us strengthen our association — show your commitment to our College — plan to be with us in October.

A special "thank-you" to the current Alumni Board members:

RESIDENTIAL ENROLLMENT HIGHEST in 24 YEARS

Enrollment at the College has increased substantially this spring semester. The total is 2,094 as compared to 1,777 in the spring of 1989. Residential enrollment is 505! The last time the campus housed over 500 students was in 1966. Interim President Dennis Spellmann plans to further increase enrollment with aggressive recruiting of high-quality students.

The College expects to retain about 400 freshmen, sophomores and juniors for the 1990-91 academic year. Dean of Admissions John Guffey says there will be only 350 more spaces available for full-time residents in the fall. Sibley Hall will be available as a residence hall again, housing upperclass female students.

Because of the innovative nature of the College's LCIE (Lindenwood College for Individualized Education) program, the enrollment continues to increase in this adult program as well. It has become one of the most successful and sought after programs in the metropolitan area.

Here's a comparison of enrollment statistics:

	Spring 1990	Spring 1989
DAY COLLEGE
Full-time Residents	482*	235
Full-time Commuters	240	205
Part-time Students	68	45

* Full-time residents are 505 with graduate and LCIE students living on campus.

 Includes Westport campus undergraduates.

PHONATHON '90

The Annual Alumni Phonathon gets underway in April. As in past years, we will be asking for volunteer help from alumni, faculty and staff. This year's effort will be structured a bit differently. Instead of attempting to contact all 10,000 alums, we will be targeting the Phonathon at past donors who have not yet given this year. The Phonathon will run for about six weeks. Last year's Phonathon raised $200,000 from alumni.

You can help us cut Phonathon expenses by making an annual gift now. For more information on Annual giving, please call (314) 949-2000 and ask for Susan Rudolph or Judy Peters.

Phonathon '89 Wrap Up

Last June, we sent a reminder notice to Phonathon pledgers that was based on Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven" (..."Please give that gift we need so dearly and we will bill you nevermore..."). The College received over $50,000 within a month of sending the reminder poem. With one alumni gift, we received a unique response, which besides being clever, voiced some pertinent concerns that we would like to address. We have reprinted her poem below with our response to her concerns:

A Broke and Belabored Alumni's Lament

by Maggie Bauman (Class of '85)

*Once upon a spring night, weary,
I sat pondering, sad and teary,
How to pay six thou denari,
to Uncle Sam in '89.*

*Upon my solitude there jangled
A bell from Lindenwood that wrangled
Fifty big ones from my tangled
Bank account in '89.*

*Not to worry, they assured me.
I had months. They would defer me.
They just simply would prefer me
To pay up in '89.*

*'Tis a long time till December,
And I still can remember
I have months till I need tender
My donation for '89.*

*When I am assured so clearly
Payments will be welcomed yearly
Then I get dunned now and hereely,
On June 6 in '89.*

*I no longer am so cheery.
I, indeed, am now quite leery.
Makes me want to cancel (nearly)
My support in '89.*

*I'll support you evermore,
If you "bug" me nevermore.
I may even endeavor more
To increase my pledge in '90.*

RESPONSE:

— For the past several years, the Alumni Phonathon has been the center of our alumni fundraising efforts. It has, however, been scheduled close to the end of our fiscal year, June 30. So there is a natural desire on the part of the College to have as many of the Phonathon pledges paid by the end of June. (We need to balance our checkbook, too.)

— Another factor is our experience that the longer the pledge goes unpaid, the less likely that it will be paid. On July 1, 1989 we had outstanding pledges of more than $50,000 from this year's Phonathon. To date, only $21,000 of that amount has been paid and it is doubtful that the College will receive much of the remaining $30,000.

— It is also clear that we need to do a much better job in ascertaining when donors intend to fulfill their pledges. While we would prefer to have the pledges paid by June 30, we obviously want to respect the wishes and circumstances of our individual donors. Our pledge cards this year have space for donors to indicate when they would like to receive a reminder from the College about their pledge. And, we will endeavor to gather this same information during the Phonathon this year.

ATTIC SALE Just Around the Corner

Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale was initiated in 1983 when Anne Pals "bullied" our Club into holding an antique show in the Butler Gymnasium. The St. Charles Club did at least 90% of the hard work and we made several hundred dollars. The next year Glenda Schaefer gave us a pep talk, telling us that we could eventually make $5000 with an expanded event!

We developed a logo; called the affair Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale; increased the offerings to crafts, flea market, and foods; and held it in the riding arena and parking tiers. That spring it rained, and rained, and rained. It did not rain on OUR day, but everything was mud. We were still astounded with our success. The next year we moved onto the center of campus, where we have been ever since.

Except for postage, a few supplies, and very few miscellaneous items, all of our money goes for scholarships to deserving St. Charles County students.

It will be held on Saturday, June 2nd this year, and we welcome any help you can give, either in planning, setting up, or working the day of the Sale. It is tiring, but very rewarding work. We'd love to have you join us.

*Virginia Terry, President
St. Charles Alumni Club*

FINANCING A LINDENWOOD EDUCATION

Educational excellence is not simply a slogan at Lindenwood College. It is, in fact, the reason that we continue to thrive in an ever increasingly competitive market. The faculty and administration understand that to continue in that mission, they must demand higher and higher standards for incoming students.

In spite of the fact that federal and state assistance for financial aid to students is dwindling, Lindenwood College remains committed to helping the best students provide for their demonstrated needs.

Lindenwood College has begun a very aggressive campaign to raise scholarship funds for these students and for the children of alumni. We believe that in providing these funds, we are investing in our college and our community by providing both of them with qualified students regardless of their financial status.

CHRISTMAS WALK

The Seventh Annual Lindenwood College Christmas Walk was held last December 3. Sponsored by the Lindenwood Student Government, the Walk drew over 1500 people to the campus. With over 2000 luminaries lining the sidewalks, the campus was aglow with the Christmas spirit. This year's Walk included holiday events for the entire family featuring campus carollers, storytelling for the children, the Lindenwood Brass Quintet, the Immanuel Lutheran Bell Choir, a holiday fashion show, and the Lindenwood Christmas House located in historic Sibley Hall. The House was sponsored by the St. Charles Lindenwood Alumni Club and included photos with Santa and Mrs. Claus, Christmas crafts, refreshments, a piano concert by Groff Bittner and an old-fashioned sing-along led by the girls from McCluer Hall. Also on display was an original Christmas ornament developed specifically for Lindenwood College by well-known artist Jean Garrett. The ornament was later hung on the national Christmas tree in Washington, D.C.

Lindenwood would like to thank all those involved with this special event and hope that they are all around next year for the Eighth Annual Christmas Walk!

CLUB HAPPENINGS

ST. LOUIS:

The St. Louis Alumni are gearing up for their Seventh Annual Spring Fashion show on April 7. This year's event will be a luncheon & show held at the Algonquin Golf Club in Webster Groves, Missouri. Fashions will be sponsored by Teddi's and modeled by alumni, faculty and friends. Anyone wishing more information about joining the St. Louis Alumni Association should call Penny Bryant at 949-2000, ext. 389.

ST. CHARLES:

The St. Charles Club recently held a potluck dinner in the President's House on campus as a kick-off event for the new year. After dinner, Dr. Elizabeth Vallenge, Director of Education for the St. Louis Art Museum, talked to the group on Art and Education. The evening proved to be very enjoyable and informative. The Club used this event to begin preparing for their annual fundraising event, "Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale". The date for this year's event is June 2nd and will run from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Once again it will be held on campus and will have a variety of craft, antique and flea market booths. If you are interested in helping and/or joining the St. Charles Alumni group, please call club president, Virginia Terry at 732-2233.

KANSAS CITY:

The Kansas City Club is as active as ever. They held their first meeting of 1990 at Helen Petersen's home. Their second gathering, hosted by Frances Weeks, was a dessert meeting held in March to elect new officers. The club members are very proud of Lindenwood and especially of hometown Kristen Wixson, a senior at Lindenwood, who was selected by the NAIA as Scholar Athlete. Kristen, a defender on the Lion's soccer team, had the highest grade point average (3.95) in the nation among the NAIA women's soccer players. Congratulations Kristen!

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CLUB:

This club meets the third Saturday of every other month with a "salad bar" luncheon which means that every member brings a special salad and the hostess provides the beverage and dessert. The meetings usually run from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and past and present Lindenwood happenings are discussed. The Club is looking for new members and would love to hear from graduates in the area. If you are interested in finding out more about this organization, please call club President, Betty Ziegler at (619) 931-1770.

MARY AMBLER: A LINDENWOOD LEGEND

Mary Ambler. To many of us that name is synonymous with Lindenwood College. This year Miss Ambler is celebrating her 60th Alumni Reunion at Lindenwood, and what a sixty years it has been . . .

Miss Ambler celebrates her 60th Lindenwood anniversary this year, having graduated from the College in 1930 with an A.B. in History. While at Lindenwood, Miss Ambler was Vice-President of Alpha Sigma Tau and Beta Pi Theta, as well as President of the International Relations Club, in addition to many other activities.

She was also one of 27 American students chosen to go overseas under the Carnegie endowment for International Peace. She spent six weeks in such places as London, Brussels and Geneva observing the peace organizations and meeting notable men in the League of Nations and the World Court. Since that time, she has traveled around the world and extensively in the United States.

After Lindenwood, Miss Ambler went on to Columbia University where she received her B.S. in Library Science, and in 1939 obtained her M.A. in Library Science from the University of Chicago. Upon receiving her graduate degree, Miss Ambler worked as a librarian at North Park College in Chicago for five years and then for Blackburn College in Carlinville, Illinois for 20 years. Miss Ambler came back to Lindenwood in 1964 and worked as a cataloger until she became the head librarian in 1966. She retired in 1974, but still volunteers in the archives one day a week.

Since her retirement, Miss Ambler has worked furiously to get the archives into shape. Photographs from as far back as 1890, old books and silver belonging to the Sibley's, faculty minutes, yearbooks, school newspapers, and handbooks dating back to 1860, have been preserved and chronologically arranged in files by Miss Ambler. She also established a museum of historical Lindenwood artifacts which is located in Sibley Hall across from the parlor.

Through all her travels and experiences, it's obvious that Miss Ambler never forgot Lindenwood. She has been very active in the St. Louis Alumni organization and in 1976, Miss Ambler was presented with the Alumni Merit Award. It was presented for "her efforts to preserve the history of Lindenwood by collecting, sorting, and cataloging the College's memorabilia for the archives."

We've obviously only touched briefly upon some of what Mary Ambler has done for Lindenwood. She has enriched many lives here, and maintained a touch of tradition at the College.

We thank you, Miss Ambler, for your tireless effort to help uphold Lindenwood's rich heritage.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Ambler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ambler, of 2828 Margaret avenue, is expected to arrive in New York from a summer in Europe, next Monday, and her parents will meet her as she lands. She is to accompany them to Atlantic City, where they will spend two weeks. Miss Ambler went abroad with the students' delegation of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. She was selected last spring from Lindenwood College, where she is now a senior, particularly for her work as president of the International Relations League, as well as for her excellent grades. Her party has spent the summer in various European countries, with a view to gaining information which will lead to the promotion of Peace. They are returning on the steamer Stuttgart, which sailed Saturday for this country.

Given Award

The 1976 Lindenwood Alumni Merit Award was presented to Miss Mary Ambler, a 1930 graduate. It was given to her in recognition of her efforts to record the history of the colleges by collecting, sorting and cataloging memorabilia for archives. Miss Ambler served as Lindenwood's full-time librarian from 1968 to 1974 and she currently serves as librarian emeritus.

CLASS NOTES
