St. Louis May 11, 1823

George C. Sibley Esq.

Dear Sir

Wishing to render some service to a stranger of respectability I am about to ask you to show any civilities in your power, to His Highness Paul, Prince of Wirtemberg, who leaves here for the Missouri on a scientific voyage- Being passionately fond of the study of natural history he is induced to visit this region with a view to that object, and I have the more pleasure in his making your acquaintance from the interest your experience among the natives, and knowledge of the country will afford him

Please to present me very respectfully to Mrs. Sibley-

I am very Rfy

Yr. Obed. Servt
