LINDENWOOD

President Spellmann named to NAIA board

Lindenwood University President Dennis Spellmann has been selected to serve on the NAIA Region V Council of Presidents. The council is the governing body of the NAIA.

The council is in charge of initiating the operational policies of the NAIA and it handles all the fiscal matters of the association. Other duties include supervision of the chief executive officer/president of the NAIA, along with the personnel of the national office, and the ability to suspend or expel institutions that have clearly violated the code of ethics or recruitment policies.

Spellmann will serve as the representative of the Heart of America Athletic Conference for Region V.

"It is an honor to be chosen to serve on the Council of Presidents and represent all the great institutions in the Heart of America," said Spellmann.
