

COMMUNIQUE

VOL. THREE, NO. 19; JAN. 21, 1985

'THE PRESIDENT'S PREFACE'

In this issue of "Communique" you will read about an appeal for volunteers for the upcoming Alumni Phone-a-Thon. This event in its first outing last year accomplished a tremendous amount of good for Lindenwood. We raised more than $100,000 but, of more importance, was the goodwill created for the college and the fantastic numerical increase of alumni givers. We went from five percent to 25 percent of our alumni contributing in just one year. Our goal for this year's Alumni Phone-a-Thon is to show increases in total amount and total number plus a continuation of building lasting goodwill.

To accomplish these goals we need volunteers from our faculty and staff. We discovered last year that a number of Lindenwood family members are very, very good on the telephone. We do appreciate the help of everyone. If making the calls yourself isn't your "bag," there are other ways you can help.

This year the Alumni Phone-a-Thon will be held in the ballroom of the Memorial Arts Bldg. February 13 through March 13 and again from April 17 through May 15. Call today and let either Esther Fenning (extension #317) or Jim Thompson (#320) know that they can depend on you!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR PHONE-A-THON - As President Spainhower has explained in his "Preface," faculty and staff volunteers are needed for this year's Alumni Phone-a-Thon. It will begin at 6:30 p.m. each day in Room 205 of the MAB. Volunteers are needed on the following evenings:

February 13	February 27
February 17	March 3
February 18	March 4
February 19	March 5
February 20	March 6
February 24	March 10
February 25	March 11
February 26	March 12-13

If you can volunteer a few hours of your time on one (or more) of these evenings, call today and show your support for Lindenwood College's fund-raising efforts!

'CAT BALLOU' TO BE SHOWN FRIDAY - "Cat Ballou," featuring Jane Fonda, Lee Marvin and Michael Callan, is this week's presentation of the Spring Film Series. The 96-minute film will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Young Auditorium. General admission is $1; Lindenwood students are admitted free. Lee Marvin, riding his inebriated palomino, won an Academy Award as "Best Actor" for his performance as the drunkest gunfighter in the West, one of the few times in motion-picture history that a comic was so honored.

Upcoming films this semester include "The Outsiders" on February 1; "And Justice for All" February 15; "All the President's Men" on February 16; and "The China Syndrome" on February 24.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR MERIT AWARDS - The Alumni Activities Office is seeking nominations for this year's Alumni Merit Awards, annual presentations of the college's Alumni Council. For the first time, this year two awards will be presented - one for outstanding support of Lindenwood College and the other for outstanding professional achievement.

Both awards will be presented during special ceremonies at spring commencement, slated May 18 beginning at 10 a.m. on campus. Nominees are being sought from the nearly 2,000 Lindenwood alumni residing in the St. Charles and St. Louis metropolitan areas in addition to another 8,000 alumni throughout the United States.

Call Esther Fenning at extension #317 for further information about these awards.

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published weekly during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced by Lindenwood College's Public Relations Office, it is disseminated on Mondays to all faculty, staff and students. The submission of information for publication must be received by Tuesday noon of the week preceding publication; it should be sent to Randy L. Wallick, c/o the Public Relations Office.

ST. LOUIS BRASS QUINTET TO PERFORM - The St. Louis Brass Quintet will perform in concert February 3 at 7 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. Part of the Visiting Artists Series, the event is sponsored by the college's Lectures & Concerts Committee and funded in part by a grant from the Missouri Arts Council. Tickets, priced at $5@, are available at the Box Office in Roemer Hall.

Inspired by the rebirth of chamber music for brass, the St. Louis Quintet was formed 20 years ago. Since then, it has played concerts for audiences of all ages at public events, colleges, universities and community groups throughout the United States. The group plans to bring to the Lindenwood campus the vital energy of brass music. It will perform, on a high artistic level, the music of major composers from the Renaissance and Baroque eras to the 20th century. A highlight of the concert will be a demonstration of how each of the instruments - trumpets, French horn, bass trombone and tuba - work, including a lighthearted presentation that will feature solo performances by quintet members.

Remaining concerts in this year's Visiting Artists Series include the St. Louis Black Repertory Company on March 3 and Flamenco guitarist Ronald Radford in concert March 31.

ART EXHIBIT THROUGH FEBRUARY 24 - A collection of textiles, called "Pa ndau," will be on exhibit January 27 through February 24 at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the FAB. Pa ndau (pronounced "pahn dau") is an ancient form of needlework distinctive to the cultures of Laos, southern China and southeast Asia. It combines embroidery, applique and batik techniques, and it often depicts intricate patterns of flowers, abstract and geometrical forms. Entirely handmade, Pa ndau originally applied only to clothing but is found now in wall hangings, bedspreads and pillow covers.

The exhibit will feature 50 different textiles, all of which will be for sale after the showing. A former reception, open to students, faculty and staff, is scheduled February 1 from 4-8 p.m. in the gallery. Hours of the exhibit are from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 1-4 p.m. on weekends. There's no charge for admission or the reception.

POSITION AVAILABLE IN PRESIDENT'S OFFICE - Jane Pace, an employee of Lindenwood for more than four years, has resigned her position as secretary to President James I. Spainhower to relocate in Dallas, TX. Her resignation, effective February 15, creates an available opening for the secretarial position. Applications will be taken until Jan. 28.

Lindenwood employees interested in applying for the position as well as obtaining further details of job responsibilities are urged to contact Spainhower at extension #200.

The president joins faculty and staff members in conveying best wishes to Jane and her future in the Lone Star State.

BOARD TO MEET FEBRUARY 12 - The Lindenwood College Board of Directors will have its regularly-scheduled meeting February 12 beginning at 8:30 a.m. in the Goodall Parlor of the MAB. The Facilities Committee will meet from 8:30-10 a.m. in Goodall Parlor while the Faculty/Board Liaison Committee will meet during the same time in the Alumni Office of the MAB. The entire board will meet at 10 a.m., adjourning around 12:30 p.m. for lunch in the Legacy Room of Ayres Cafeteria.

SNACK BAR EXTENDS OPERATING HOURS - Got the late-night hungers? Then, head to the Snack Bar in the Student Center of Niccolls Hall, which has extended its operating hours for students. New hours are from 8-11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday.

DISCOUNT OFFERED AT AYRES CAFETERIA - Food Services Director Sue Brown reports that all faculty, staff and non-boarding students at Lindenwood can receive a 10 percent discount on a-la-carte sales at Ayres Cafeteria.

To take advantage of this savings, on your next visit to the cafeteria, ask the cashier for the $10 coupon book, available for $9.

ALUMNI TO RECEIVE BOOKLET - Nearly 12,000 copies of a 16-page booklet, "A Historical Perspective," are being mailed to Lindenwood alumni throughout the country this week. A marketing and fund-raising tool, the booklet gives a brief glimpse into the history of the college from the Sibley Years to the current Renaissance Campaign. With historical information researched in the college's Archives by Ed Watkins, vice-president for institutional development, the booklet was a joint effort of the institution's Development and Public Relations offices and the Printing Center.
