

COMMUNIQUE

VOL. THREE, NO. 21; FEB. 4, 1985

MAY COURSE TO TOUR FRANCE, ITALY - A special, off-campus course that will tour France and Italy to probe Medieval and Renaissance art, literature, architecture and music is planned for Lindenwood's May term. To be offered May 20-June 6, the three-credit course "will study Medieval and Renaissance art and architecture as they reflect the pre-Copernican views common to all knowledge in those periods," said James H. Feely, English professor and instructor for the course, "The Discarded Universe."

Alumni and friends of the college can accompany the class and share in the learning experiences as they wish, Feely added. Cost of the 18-day trip is $1,550, including transportation, lodging based upon double occupancy and continental breakfasts. Payment must be made by March 15. Registration and payment for course credit must be made through the college's Registrar and Business offices. All travel arrangements have to be made through Fair Winds Travel Agency in St. Charles. If the course is cancelled, all money paid to either the college or the agency will be refunded.

Further information on "The Discarded Universe" can be obtained by contacting Feely at the English Dept., extension #334.

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD - VOTE! - The Lindenwood Student Government will be holding its annual elections Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in front of the Post Office in Roemer Hall. All currently existing vacancies are to be filled. Show your support and vote.

BROADCAST MEETING SET TONIGHT - AERho, the National Broadcasting Society, invites communications majors to attend an informational session today at 7:30 p.m. at KCLC studios in the MAB. Diana Clark of WIL-AM Radio, former national officer of AERho, will be the featured speaker. AERho is a society of students and professional members from the broadcast industry who work together to help and make contacts for those entering the profession. Prospective members must be majoring in communications, have a general GPA of 2.5 and a 3.0 GPA in communications courses. Those interested in joining AERho also must show a dedication to some aspect of communications as well as having a record of leadership and service to their school and/or community. If you're interested in joining, bring a written summary of your dedication to the broadcast industry to tonight's session. Anyone interested in finding out more about AERho is urged to attend the meeting.

'ROSENCRANTZ AND GUILDENSTERN ARE DEAD' - Tom Stoppard's critically-acclaimed stage comedy, "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead," is the next mainstage production by the college's Performing Arts Dept. The play, which runs February 22-23 and March 1-2, has been hailed as "one of the brightest theatrical events of the last 20 years." Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are the two lost souls from "Hamlet" who, in this witty and delightful repast, are bounced about and totally confused as fate plays out its hand.

Directed by Robert Peffers, Ph.D., department chairman, the play stars Tony Michalak of St. Charles as Rosencrantz and David Hoover of Las Cruces, NM, as Guildenstern. Others include Robbie Scroggins, Wes Morganthaler, Joe Golden, Chuck Enzenauer, Bob Goode, Raub McKim, Joni Shoemaker, Matt Schliesman, Lisa Olliges, Richard Watts and Michael F. Kohring.

Ticket prices range from $5-$7. For reservations, contact the Box Office in Roemer Hall from noon to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, or telephone 946-2004.

1985 HOLIDAY SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED - Eight vacation days have been set aside this year for full and part-time Lindenwood employees. The 1985 vacation schedule is Memorial Day, May 27; Independence Day, July 4; Thanksgiving, November 28-29; Christmas holiday, December 23-25; and New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 1986. Labor Day, September 2, is not a holiday as the college will be open for returning students.

'THE LINDENWEEK COMMUNIQUE' IS COMING - WATCH FOR IT AS YOUR WEEKLY SOURCE FOR INFORMATION!

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published weekly during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced by Lindenwood College's Public Relations Office, it is disseminated on Mondays to all faculty, staff and students. The submission of information for publication must be received by Tuesday noon of the week preceding publication; it should be sent to Randy L. Wallick, c/o the Public Relations Office.

VENDORS SOUGHT FOR 'ATTIC' SALE - Lindenwood is looking for vendors who want to reserve space for "Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale," an antique, arts and crafts and flea market event scheduled June 8 on campus. The second annual sale is sponsored by the St. Charles Lindenwood Alumni Club as a fund-raising event. Proceeds from space rentals for vendors and food and beverage sales will be used for scholarship awards.

Costs for spaces are $25 to antique dealers for a 12x12-foot area; $15 to arts-and-crafts dealers for a similar size area; and $15 to vendors who want to sell tailgate items. Antiques will be on sale in Butler Gym while all others will be on display outdoors in specifically-marked areas. Time of the event is 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Rain-out date is June 15.

For further information and reservation procedures, contact Mrs. Anne Pals, chairman of "Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale," at 946-3666, or Alumni Activities Coordinator Esther Fenning at extension #317.

JAYCEES CITE LINDENWOOD V-P - Jerry A. Rufkahr, vice-president of administration, is among 12 area residents recently cited by the St. Charles Jaycees and Jaycee Women for outstanding community service. Honored at a recent Jaycees awards banquet, Rufkahr was given a special recognition award for his support of the St. Charles Jaycees chapter. A 1973 graduate of UMSL, Rufkahr joined Lindenwood in April, 1984, after a lengthy tenure as director of the St. Charles County Government Office of Employment & Training Programs.

PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT - Sen. John C. Danforth (R-MO) has requested the assistance of President James I. Spainhower to secure volunteers for the Peace Corps' efforts in Africa. He reports there is a critical need for students as well as faculty members who have experience and/or training in agriculture, forestry, biology, health and nutrition and water supply and irrigation.

For more information on the background, politics, assignment areas and the application/selection process, contact Randi Kapp, CAP Center director, at the CAP Center, extension #237, or call the Peace Corps' toll-free hotline, 1-800-424-8580.

MAKE VALENTINE'S WEEK SPECIAL - The CAP Center has teamed with the Student Health Center to present three special events next week. On February 11 a Couple Enrichment Program will be conducted at the CAP Center from 7-10 p.m. It will be an opportunity to enhance committed relationships. Communications, intimacy and the practicalities of daily living will be explored. Both partners must attend, and the three-hour event is limited to 10 couples. Advance registration is required. For reservations and further information, contact the CAP Center, extension #327.

"Does Someone You Love Have a Drinking Problem" is the title of a film to be presented Tuesday in the Cardinal Room of Ayres Cafeteria. It will be shown from noon to 1 p.m. and again from 5-6 p.m. The film outlines general principles which have been proven useful in reaching and helping those with drinking problems. A brief discussion will follow the film presentation.

And, on February 14, you're invited to take the "love test" and discuss the results in a lighthearted approach to the serious business of love and relationships. Sessions will be offered from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Cardinal Room of Ayres and again from 7-8 p.m. at the CAP Center.

To find out more about these special activities during Valentine's Week, contact Randi Kapp at the CAP Center or Jane Henthorn, R.N. at the Student Health Center.

MORRIS NAMED ASSISTANT DEAN - Marilyn Morris of St. Charles, athletic director and an admissions counselor, has been named Assistant Dean of the Office of College Life, effective July 1. Working closely with Dean Allen Schwab, she will be in charge of residential life staffs, campus programs and activities and athletics in the newly-created position.

A 1976 graduate of Northeast Missouri State University at Kirksville, Morris is a member of the Missouri Association of College Admissions Counselors; the national sorority, Sigma Sigma Sigma; and the St. Charles Jaycee Women. A past president of the Jaycee Women, she also has served as both a region and state officer in the Missouri Jaycee Women.

NEXT WEEK'S FILM PRESENTATION - Norman Jewison's "And Justice for All" is next week's film presentation as part of the Spring Film Series sponsored by Lindenwood Student Government. It will be shown at 7:30 p.m., February 15, at Young Auditorium. The film is free to all Lindenwood students; for others, admission is $1.

A satiric, frenetic and hilarious attack on the country's criminal justice system, the 119-minute film stars Al Pacino, Lee Strasberg, Jack Warden and John Forsythe. It is rated R.
