

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.
Enhancing lives through quality education and professional preparatory experiences.

EXPERIENCE

Radford University Visits Lindenwood

Radford University recently visited our campus in hopes of learning about the growth and success of our University. Brian Hemphill, President of Radford University, sent a nice note to Dr. Shonrock expressing their gratitude for their wonderful visit and their admiration of our University.

Belleville to Host EdCamp

Belleville will host Southern Illinois EdCamp, a professional development opportunity for educators, from 8:00 AM until noon on Wednesday, June 27 on the Belleville campus. EdCamp is a national movement of “unconference” professional development meetings held across the country. Read more

New Issue of the Lindenwood Review

Issue 8 of The Lindenwood Review literary journal is now available. This issue includes the winners of our Chapter One contest, along with short stories, personal essays, and poetry from writers in the US, Canada, and England. Those who would like a copy can email Beth Mead at bmead@lindenwood.edu.

Read more

Power Hour

The Athletic Performance Staff is starting a program they call “Power Hour!” The sessions include training with coaches, staff, and faculty at the Fitness Center starting June 4, and running each Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a.m. to noon. The purpose of the Power Hour is to have fun training and encouraging each other while bringing people together from different departments to help build community and foster supportive relationships throughout the university.

Library and Writing Center Present at Conference

During the annual MOBIUS Conference on June 5, staff from the Lindenwood Library Services and Writing Center will present two separate discussions on the work being done to better serve the Lindenwood University community. Paul Huffman will present with three other librarians from around the state on building a shared Overdrive collection. Sue Edele, Liz MacDonald, and Nancy Messina will present on their joint effort to create a Library and Writing Center strategic plan to serve the needs of the Lindenwood Community.

Falco as New Women's Basketball Coach

Katie Falco has been named the head coach of the women's basketball program. Falco will be the second head coach for the Lions in the NCAA era of Lindenwood athletics. Falco comes to Lindenwood after spending the previous 10 seasons as an assistant coach at NCAA DI South Dakota State. Read more

Trio of Lions Selected for IWLCA All-Star Game

Three members of the women's lacrosse team were selected to participate at the 2018 IWLCA Senior All-Star Game at the US Lacrosse Headquarters in Sparks, MD. Sophie Buelow, Allison Hurley, and Rachel Ortell were each chosen to represent Lindenwood in the game. Read more

Currier as Finalist for Ken B. Jones Award

Men's golfer Brad Currier was named a finalist for the Ken B. Jones Award. He is the first Lindenwood student-athlete to be named a finalist for the award, which goes to the top male and female student-athlete in the MIAA for the most recent school year. Read more

NCAA National Championships First Appearance

The women's golf team concluded its first appearance in program history at the 2018 NCAA Division II National Championships. The Lions competed over four days and four rounds at Bay Oaks Country Club in Houston, TX. Read more

Finalists for Life of Significance Award

Rugby athletes Caring De Freitas and Cristian Rodriguez are two of this year's finalists for Penn State's Life of Significance Award. This award is given out annually to a collegiate rugby player participating in the Penn Mutual Collegiate Rugby Championship. Read more

Football Hosts Mega Camp

The football program is hosting a Mega Camp! Scheduled to attend are 76 NCAA Division I, II and III colleges and universities. Fifteen Power-5 programs will be in attendance such as the University of Texas, Penn State, and Ohio State to name a few. Over the two day camp, there will be 1,300 student-athlete prospects on campus participating! Read more

SUCCESS

Elmes' Articles Accepted for Publication

Melissa Ridley Elmes, assistant professor of English, has had two articles accepted for publication in peer-reviewed journals this spring. The first, "Compassion and Benignity: A Reassessment of the Relationship Between Canacee and the Falcon in Geoffrey Chaucer's Squire's Tale" will appear in Medieval Feminist Forum. "Public Displays of Affliction: Women's Wounds in Sir Thomas Malory's Morte Darthur" has been accepted for publication in Modern Philology.

Special Olympics Accolades for Belleville

Special Olympics Illinois recently named Lindenwood University-Belleville as its Organization of the Year. This designation recognizes a club, business, facility, or organization whose efforts have significantly improved the experience of those who participate in Special Olympics. This includes donating facilities, volunteers, time, or money to the program.

Read more

Alumnus Wins First Professional Bowling Title

Former Lindenwood bowler Cristian Azcona won his first Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) title May 20 at the PBA Xtra Frame Wilmington Open at Ten Pin Alley Family Fun Center in Wilmington, NC! The Puerto Rico native defeated AJ Johnson in the title match 217-214. Read more

Weber as Central Region Coach of the Year

Women's golf coach Abby Weber was selected as the Division II Golf Pride Central Region Coach of the Year. Weber guided her program to its first ever appearance at the NCAA Division II National Championships this season. Read more

Second Straight Women's Sevens Title

After the Lady Lions won their first ever fifteens title two weeks earlier, they accomplished a difficult feat by also claiming the USA Rugby Collegiate Sevens Championship with a 20-0 win over Penn State May 20 at Infinity Stadium in Glendale, CO! Read more

Lions Repeat as Collegiate Sevens Champions

With a 26-12 victory over California in the finals, the Lions repeated as champions at the 2018 USA Rugby College Sevens National Championships May 19 at Infinity Park in Glendale, CO! Read More

Michael D. Shonrock, Ph.D. / System President
209 South Kingshighway, St. Charles, Mo 63301
636-949-4900
mshonrock@lindenwood.edu

Brett Barger, Ed.D. / Campus President
2600 West Main Street, Belleville, Il 62226
618-239-6000
bbarger@lindenwood.edu

