LINDENWOOD

KCLC-FM to provide election coverage

KCLC-FM 89.1 will provide live coverage of the Tuesday, March 7 primary election. Live local coverage from St. Peters election headquarters will begin at 7:25 p.m. Updates will be aired twice an hour as information becomes available from election printouts.

Coverage will continue until the tabulation has been completed.

KCLC will also utilize MetroSource news service to bring listeners election results from across the state and across the country. By combining local, state and national coverage, KCLC will provide a complete picture of the SuperTuesday primaries.

KCLC is a non-commercial FM radio station operated by Lindenwood University in St. Charles.
