

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.
Enhancing lives through quality education and professional preparatory experiences.

EXPERIENCE

Alumna Lexy Kadey Attends Las Vegas Film Festival

The Public Relations Department came up with an idea to have alumna Lexy Kadey takeover Lindenwood's Instagram social media feed for a weekend while she attended the Las Vegas Film Festival with a film she worked on for her senior project. While there, she posted pictures and videos about her experience at the festival. Congratulations Lexy!

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Financial Overview Presentations

Vice President of Fiscal Affairs Frank Sanfilippo presented a financial overview of Lindenwood University to faculty and staff members at recent year-end faculty meetings and staff councils. Through these presentations, Frank has been able to provide context for recent business decisions and improve transparency around Lindenwood's financial condition. It has been his pleasure to provide these presentations and to be able to answer questions of faculty and staff members.

The Force was with Lindenwood

Lindenwood University got into the act on Star Wars Night at Busch Stadium for the June 13 St. Louis Cardinal game with the San Diego Padres. The university created some Star Wars-inspired art for its digital sign in left field to go with the Star Wars theme, including slogans like “The force is strong with this degree,” “Your destiny awaits,” “Convenient, our programs are,” and more.

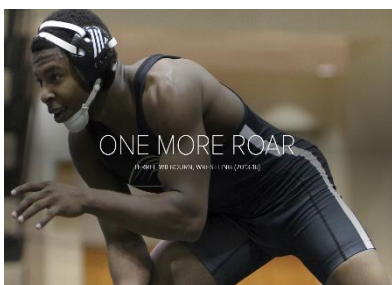

World Cup in the LARC

Ready for the World Cup? Students, faculty and staff can come to the 3rd floor atrium of the LARC to watch the soccer games on the Media Wall! Games will be displayed throughout the whole tournament.

Nicole Hensley Joins In On Power Hour

Take a look at who joined in on a recent Power Hour with the Lindenwood Athletic Performance staff and members of the Lindenwell program... Nicole Hensley, gold medal goalie for the USA Women’s hockey team and alum of the Exercise Science program! Power Hour is open to all faculty and staff and is on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11-12 in the Fitness Center. Nicole was welcomed with many glistening faces as they were put through an awesome workout!

One More Roar

The most recent edition of the One More Roar, which highlights the stories of Lindenwood student-athletes, features alum Terrel Wilbourn. Terrel was a three-time All-American and a national champion for Lindenwood wrestling from 2013-16. As a senior, he finished the season 25-0, winning the NCAA DII National Championship! Read more

SUCCESS

The Confluence Partners with National Park Service

The Confluence, the regional studies in a magazine format published by Lindenwood, created a partnership with the National Park Service and the Gateway Arch National Park to publish a commemorative issue for the opening of the new museum at the Arch. The issue, now on sale at the Gateway Arch museum gift shop, includes articles that expand on topics in the new exhibit including an archaeological dig on the Arch grounds, the Arch design competition, and Mormon migration to St. Louis in the 1840s and 1850s.

Finalist for the 2018 Chamber of the Year Award

The Greater St. Charles County Chamber of Commerce received exciting news that they have been named a finalist for the 2018 Chamber of the Year award! The award is presented by Alexandria, VA based Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives. The award is the most prestigious and competitive recognition presented annually by the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE). What a tribute to our great community! Dr. Shonrock is delighted to be able to serve on the Chamber's Board of Trustees.

Students Win St. Louis 48-Hour Film Contest

Lindenwood students recently won the 48-Hour Film Project Contest in St. Louis with their film Dorpas Day, as well as the Best Digital Special Effects and Best Original Song. They are Jacob Krato (Philosophy and Economics), and Cinema Arts students Chris Layer, Isaac White, and Jordan Harms. They had to write, produce, and edit a film in a 48-hour span!

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Theater Students Working at Work This Summer

Theater Students Camden Scifres and Zoe Gudehus were written about in the Herald-Whig Newspaper for their hard work so far this summer. After an assignment to read the play “Barefoot in the Park,” they were inspired to put together a summertime production of the play. But where? Read article here.

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Football Mega Camp has Mega Success

The football program’s recent mega camp was a mega success! Over 1,600 high school student-athletes came in waves to Harlen C. Hunter Stadium. They came to showcase their talent in hopes of furthering their football dreams by being recruited to play at the collegiate level. The Admissions team was also present to provide info about our incredible campus!

37th in Directors' Cup Standings

The athletics department ranked third in the MIAA and finished 37th in the nation in the 2017-18 Learfield Directors' Cup Standings. The MIAA had nine schools in the top-100 of the standings which was tied for the most of any conference in Division II.

Read more

Linderman Drafted to Softball Association

Softball alumna Adele Linderman was selected by the E1 Pro Ballers in the newly formed American Softball Association (ASBA) in the inaugural draft for the league. She was the 59th overall selection. Linderman is believed to be the first professional softball player in the history of Lindenwood softball! Read more

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Nicole Hensley Inks Contract with Buffalo Beauts

Olympic gold medalist and former Lindenwood goaltender Nicole Hensley signed to play for the Buffalo Beauts in the National Women's Hockey League! Hensley, a native of Lakewood, Colo., was one of two goalies to play in the tournament for the U.S. Hensley became the first Olympic medalist in Lindenwood Athletics history. Read more

MIAA Announces Year End Academic Awards

The Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) announced the year-end academic awards for conference members. Lindenwood placed 194 student-athletes on the 2017-18 Academic Honor Roll, eight earned Scholar-Athlete accolades and seven named to the Academic Excellence list. Read more

Google Cloud Academic All-American Team

The College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) has announced that three Lindenwood student-athletes have been named to the Google Cloud Academic All-America Team. Justin Winnett (men's swimming and diving) was named to the first team, while Brad Currier (men's golf) and Hannah Doughty (women's lacrosse) were named to the second team. Read more

Four on IWLCA All-American Teams

The women's lacrosse team had four student-athletes receive selections to the IWLCA Division II All-American teams! Sophie Buelow was tabbed as a first-team All-American, Allison Hurley was chosen as a second-team All-American, and Rachel Ortell and Morgan Reader were picked as third-team All-American. Read more

Men's Collegiate Sevens All-Americans

The USA Rugby coaching staff has announced the Honorary Men's Collegiate Sevens All-Americans (MCAA) for the 2017-18 season. Six Lions are among the list of 36 individuals from D1 recognized for their performances over the past year. An additional 14 from D2 also received selection. Read more

Individual 9-Ball Titles at Nationals

Taylor Hansen won her first national title, as did Andreas Madsen at the 2018 ACUI Collegiate 9-Ball Championships in West Lafayette, IN! Read more

National Championship All-Tournament Teams

The National Collegiate Roller Hockey Association (NCRHA) recently announced the All-Tournament Teams for the 2018 National Championships with seven players from the Lindenwood D1 team and eight players from the D3 Gold squad receiving recognition!

Read more

McKenzie Hawkins Named Sorensen Award Winner

Women's rugby center and flyhalf McKenzie Hawkins has been named the winner of the M.A. Sorensen Award as the top women's collegiate player across all divisions of rugby! The Maryville, TN native who just completed her junior year at Lindenwood, was presented with the trophy at a dinner at the Washington Athletic Club in Seattle, WA. Read more

	Michael D. Shonrock, Ph.D. / System President 209 South Kingshighway, St. Charles, Mo 63301 636-949-4900 mshonrock@lindenwood.edu
	Brett Barger, Ed.D. / Campus President 2600 West Main Street, Belleville, IL 62226 618-239-6000 bbarger@lindenwood.edu	