COMMUNIQUE

Vol. Three, No. 33, May 14, 1985

YEARBOOK RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION - Lindenwood's 1985 yearbook has received national recognition as "an outstanding publication" by the publishing firm, the Herff-Jones Co. of Marceline, MO. Being produced by the Lindenwood Student Government (LSG), the yearbook has been chosen by the publisher for promotional use at yearbook workshops, national conferences and trade shows throughout the country, according to Jean Fields, faculty advisor to the yearbook staff.

She said the firm "was pleased with the excellent production" of the yearbook and with the front cover, which was designed by Jordan Mogerma of Troy, MO, a junior majoring in art. Yearbook Editor Sam Reading, a communications major who'll graduate Saturday, said students have "put forth alot of effort toward the success of the yearbook," Lindenwood's first since 1979. Scheduled for distribution later this summer, the yearbook was revived by LSG members after a five-year absence.

SUMMER RADIO WORKSHOP SLATED - KCLC Radio and the Communications Dept. are cosponsoring a summer workshop in the fundamentals of radio. Designed for high school graduates and seniors in high school this fall, the workshop will be offered in two sessions - one from 10 a.m. to noon Monday through Thursday and the other from 6:30-10 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays, both June 10 through July 18. Those enrolled in the sessions will receive a certificate upon completion, and college credit may be granted. The cost of the workshop without college credit is $200.

According to Jim Wilson, KCLC general manager, the workshop is equivalent to the college's radio production class which provides students with "a broad insight into radio." Enrollment is limited, so those interested in attending should contact Wilson at KCLC, extension #262.
