EXPERIENCE

One Roar

Lindenwood Athletics has created an update to some of their branded digital material. The new look logo will include the traditional lion head and the 'One Roar' wordmark. Athletics is excited to roll out and launch the new 'One Roar' marketing campaign to the entire Lindenwood University community and the surrounding St. Charles and St. Louis region.

J. Scheidegger Center Events

Another exciting season at the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts will soon be upon us! If you are interested in purchasing season tickets or single tickets, please contact our Box Office Manager Tony White at 636-627-2530. Pre-sale tickets will be available July 16-20 and will be available to the general public on July 30th. Click here for events.

Ameren Storm Damage Workers Stay in Dorms

Hundreds of linemen with Ameren Illinois and Missouri were deployed to the St. Louis metro area after storms swept through much of the region last Thursday, leaving large numbers of area residents without power. To accommodate the influx of work crews in the area, Lindenwood University-Belleville opened its residence halls so that crewmembers had a place to stay as they worked around the clock to restore power in the region. Read more

Preparing for Home City Inspections

The Facilities Department has done an excellent job preparing Lindenwood houses for City inspections. Last summer we experienced a fail rate for first inspections of around 77%. This summer our fail rate is at 16%! Several strategies were implemented to make the inspections more efficient. The City inspectors are very happy!

New Look for Campus Emergency Phones

The blue light phones around campus will be getting a new look for the fall semester. Instead of the phones being labeled "Emergency", they will be labeled "Assistance". This will allow the university community the option of using the phones to contact public safety not only for emergencies, but also for non-emergency assistance.

Converged Media Lab Makerspace

Spaces in Butler Loft and McCluer Hall are undergoing renovation to create dedicated areas to foster creativity and collaboration among Lindenwood's communications and arts students. The new spaces will be available in the fall and will include a converged media lab and a "makerspace." Read more

One More Roar

In a recent edition of the One More Roar, Kaila Schrimpf is featured. Kaila played for the Lions' volleyball team from 2009-12. She was one of the top liberos in the nation in 2011, earning ICAA Libero of the Year honors. Today, Kaila is a registered dietitian with SSM Healthcare, helping athletes and other patients reach their nutritional goals. Read more

Junior All-American Camp

Five current and three incoming women's rugby players recently completed the USA Rugby Junior All-American (U20) Camp. The four-day camp at the U.S. Olympic Elite Athlete Training Center in Chula Vista, CA included 37 candidates from the high school, collegiate and senior club ranks. Read more

SUCCESS

Kersick Published Yet Again

Dr. Chad Kerksick from our School of Health Sciences learned recently that his manuscript entitled "Changes in Energy Expenditure, Dietary Intake and Energy Availability Across an Entire Collegiate Women's Basketball Season" has been selected for publication in the Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research. Dr. Kersick worked on this project with four current students, two former students, and three faculty members. Kudos to all for their work on this project!

Belleville Honors Service Award Recipients

Lindenwood University-Belleville recently selected alumni Stacie Moore of St. Louis, MO and Yolanda Weston of Belleville, IL as the 2018 Outstanding Belleville Alumni Service Award recipients! According to Jennifer Ferguson, director of alumni relations, over the past academic year, both Moore and Weston served on the leadership team working to strengthen the Belleville Alumni Club.

Gietscher Quoted in Magazine

Dr. Steve Gietschier, associate professor of history, was recently featured in an article in the current issue of Memories and Dreams, the official magazine of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. John Rosengren quotes Gietschier several times in "Baseball's Newspaper: The Sporting News Reigned as the Bible of Baseball for Almost a Century." Gietschier worked as the archivist for the Sporting News from 1986 to 2008. Memories and Dreams is available in print form to members of the museum's support group.
