

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.
Enhancing lives through quality education and professional preparatory experiences.

EXPERIENCE

Discovering the Method Behind the Magic
Four employees recently took part in the Disney Institute-Quality Service program. Brittany Brown (Human Resources), Molly Hudgins (Academic and Student Affairs), Toni Josato (Academic Technology Services), and Dr. Renee Porter (Campus Provost, Belleville) completed the program in an effort to develop a hospitality and service program for Lindenwood based upon the Disney approach. The program will be offered to employees through the Lindenwood Learning Academy. Read more

Cernik Presents on Electoral College

Joseph Cernik, professor of political science & public administration presented a lecture titled “The Electoral College: Is Reform Possible and What are the Consequences?” at the Kirkwood Public Library on July 21. Read more

Author VanBaale to Present Writing Craft Talk

The Lindenwood University MFA in Writing program will host author Kali VanBaale on Saturday, Aug. 11, from 3-4 PM in the Library and Academic Resources Center (LARC) Theatre. Read more

Move-In Day for New Students

Move-In for new students will be Wednesday, August 22, from 9:00 AM– 2:00 PM. Volunteering for faculty/staff will be split into one-hour shifts. Shifts will assist of greeting and welcoming students, giving directions, answering questions, or even helping students move in. Thank you to all volunteers for giving a warm welcome to our new students!

Patterson-Mills Presents at National Conference

Professor of Counseling Dr. Sarah Patterson-Mills presented "The Ethics Unpresentation: Taking Charge in the Face of Ethical Uneasiness" at the National Career Development Association conference. The presentation successfully opened up several new dialogues surrounding the complexity of ethics in a globalized, unpredictable economy. The presenters openly discussed ethical considerations, and clinical approaches when working with diverse clients cutting across-cultural, ethnic, gender and racial divisions.

Internship with Scott Air Force Base

The upcoming academic year will mark the third year that Lindenwood University-Belleville criminal justice students will have the opportunity to intern with the 375th Security Forces Squadron, a U.S. Air Force police organization located on Scott Air Force Base, in Illinois. Read more

Williamson as Panelist for Diversity Film

Dr. Shane Williamson, associate vice president of student life and diversity, was a panelist for the St. Charles Human Relations Commission's Diversity Film Series on July 12th at the Foundry Art Centre. The topic of the panel was African American Equity. Dr. Williamson, associate vice president of student life and diversity, was also invited to serve on the United Way Regional Consortium of Higher Education Institutions Supporting Black Male Success and the Men of Excellence Initiative.

Boy Scouts on Campus

Nearly 50 Boy Scouts earned the entrepreneurship merit badge on the campus of Lindenwood University recently at a one-day event sponsored by the Duree Center for Entrepreneurship. The Center collaborated with the Greater St. Louis Area Boy Scout Council and the Foundation for Economic Education (FEE) to hold this event. Long-time serial entrepreneurs, Rick Duree and Andrew Tessmer were guest speakers at this event. Duree Center Director, Craig Felzien said, "This event was a huge success thanks to our partners and the scouts were very engaged. We hope to make this an annual event.

Hunt Ferrarini to Present on North and South Korea

Dr. Tawni Hunt Ferrarini, professor of economics will present a webinar, "Why Do Some Nations Prosper? The Case of North and South Korea." on Aug. 21 from 6-7 PM at Lindenwood University. Economists have debated for years why it is that some nations prosper while others do not. This webinar will explore and explain why institutions matter and are fundamental to economic success. This webinar is for audiences that include high school teachers of economics, history and social studies.

Athletics to Partner with Growing Leaders

For the 2018-19 academic year, Athletics is planning to collaborate with Dr. Tim Elmore and his company, Growing Leaders. They have developed a cutting-edge program called Habitudes, a curriculum for developing character, leadership and soft skills in young people. This partnership includes access to proprietary content and training materials that staff and coaches may utilize to implement unique lessons to develop a culture of discipline, resilience and leadership, both in sport and life.

Panagos and Hantak Present in Athens, Greece

Dr. Rebecca Panagos and Dr. Kelly Hantak recently presented at the University of Athens, Greece at the Twenty-fifth International Conference on Learning. The conference theme focused on “Education in a Time of Austerity and Social Turbulence” and Rebecca and Kelly presented “Underpaid and Undereducated: How to Raise the Profession of Early Childhood.”

Disaster Preparedness Tabletop Exercise Held

A tabletop exercise was recently held to test the emergency response plan. The exercise allowed for first responders and university staff to discuss some of the procedural issues involved with a major incident. It provided the group an opportunity to examine the need for cooperation during an incident and the need to preplan to mitigate some of the critical needs of the university in the time of crisis.

Annual Lou Brock Golf Classic Scheduled

The 25th Annual Lou Brock Golf Classic will take place on September 10 at Whitmoor Country Club in St. Charles, MO. September 10 just so happens to be the 50th anniversary of Brock breaking the record for steals, which he still holds today! The proceeds from the tournament help benefit the Lou Brock Scholarship Fund. Read more

SUCCESS

Singer Receives Award for Accounting Article

Robert Singer, Professor of Accounting was recently notified that he is the recipient of The CPA Journal's 2017 Max Block Award for his outstanding article, Accounting for Leases under the Standard, Parts 1 and 2. He has been invited to The CPA Journal's annual Editorial Advisory Board Meeting at the New York State Society of CPAs offices in New York City to be recognized in person.

Alumna Presents at Esri Conference

Congratulations to recent Lindenwood University graduate and GIS alum Katherine Wiesehan on her presentation at the Esri (Environmental Systems Research Institute) User Conference! Katie's project was a collaboration between Lindenwood's GIS Lab, Biology Department, and the Missouri Botanical Gardens. Katie is the 3rd Lindenwood undergraduate student to attend the conference and the 2nd to be a presenter.

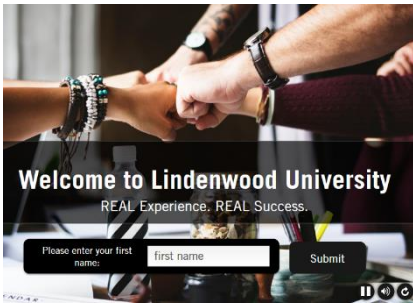

Curates Art and Game Exhibit in St. Louis

Belleville Assistant Professor of Interactive Media and Web Design Derrick Dadian-Smith is co-curating the Flow Gallery's first exhibition, Rules to Play By, at two locations in St. Louis on July 27-29. The exhibit explores the intersection of art and games with work from 12 artists from around the world, and almost all of the work invites viewer participation, where participants can interact with the art through touch and play. Read more

Savings for Students

The Lindenwood Barnes & Noble Bookstore works hard to save students as much money as possible. Last year, they saved students $1,255,939 on textbooks by offering price matching, used textbook rentals, up to 80% off select textbooks, and free in-store pick up!

New HR Student Employee Orientation Course

Chloe Bonnard, Human Resource Specialist, and Brittany Weiss, Academic Technology Specialist partnered to develop a new, online student employee orientation course. The course provides direction and expectations for student employees and emphasizes the value of the experience. Thank you to Chloe and Brittany for providing Real Experience. Real Success.

Alumna Documentary Wins Numerous Awards

Congrats to Digital Cinema Arts Graduate Lexy Kadey ('17)! Lexy's short documentary, Crowning Change has been picking up numerous awards in national film festivals. Her film about Erin O'Flaherty, an openly gay Miss Missouri, recently played in the St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase and has been selected for the St. Louis International Film Festival in Fall 2018.

Athletes Selected to Scholar All-America Team

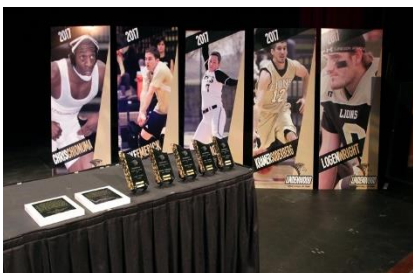

Twenty-two student-athletes from Lindenwood's swimming and diving teams have been selected to the Scholar All-America team for the College Swimming & Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA). This is the organization's highest honor and is only awarded to those with a GPA of 3.50 or higher and who exceed NCAA qualifying standards.

Alumnus Selected to Perform with Rock Band

Music education major Jerod Broadbooks recently won a contest to play guitar for the song "This Is War" during a concert by Jared Leto and the band Thirty Seconds to Mars. Broadbooks' performance garnered a piece on St. Louis Public Radio and mention in concert coverage by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and St. Louis Magazine.

Read more

Newest Hall of Fame Class Announced

The Athletics Department recently announced its 2018 induction class for the Lindenwood Sports Hall of Fame. Five individuals and two teams will be honored this fall as they take their place among the school's all-time greats. Read more

Michael D. Shonrock, Ph.D. / System President
209 South Kingshighway, St. Charles, Mo 63301
636-949-4900
mshonrock@lindenwood.edu

Brett Barger, Ed.D. / Campus President
2600 West Main Street, Belleville, IL 62226
618-239-6000
bbarger@lindenwood.edu

